Mississippi Becomes News Focus of Week

By Jay Swayse

By Jay Swayse

Enrollment Rises To New Heights

Fall re-enrollment has exhausted the 1,500-member freshman class Ernest Hackett announced yesterday. This is a 3.7 percent increase over 1961 fall enrollment.

Branch enrollment has reached 30.7 percent. Last fall the percent enrolled at branches in Bryan, Carthage, Tuscola, and Marion was 10.6 percent. Because school made the most of the benefits of enrollment, enrollment at the junior college in the United States is in the same second semester.

Ticket Sales for 'Carnival'

Go On Sale Oct. 22

Tickets for the University's first major production, "A Thurber Carnival," will be available at the ticket office in the Union beginning Tuesday.

The ticket office will be open Monday through Friday, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. During the week it is open Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, it is open 7 to 9 p.m., and on Wednesday, it is open 7 to 9 p.m.

Students Choose Study, Travel While Enjoying European Tour

The dream of just about every American is to travel abroad in his blood to travel abroad in his blood to travel abroad.

Many students on the Bowling Green campus have an opportunity to make the dream come true. Some of them were sent abroad by the Foreign Language Department while others went on private tours.

The places visited by these students include countries like France, Belgium, Switzerland, and England. The students are majoring in Foreign Languages.

The following students will be traveling to Europe:

Rodgers, Treadway

Set For Picnic-Dance

The men of third floor Rodgers quadrangle dormitory have invited women to a picnic which will be held in small groups of 10 or 11 rooms at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Bowling Green Country Club.

There will be a dance contest during the picnic and games for the men. Picnic lunches will be furnished and can be picked up at the cafeteria.

David L. Ramsey, resident for third floor Rodgers, said that the entire fourth floor Rodgers has been invited to the picnic.

FacultySenate Meets To Consider Report

The report of the Retirement Committee on Student Affairs was the subject of discussion at the afternoon meeting of the Faculty Senate Tuesday.

The report, compiled from several months' study by faculty members, student leaders, and administrators on various phases of student life, contains specific recommendations directed to various offices throughout the campus.

At the Senate's meeting it was announced that the retirement of the president of the Committee on Student Affairs, Monday's meeting dealt with the nature of the committee.

Additional items will be continued in the Senate's next meeting later this month.

Segall To Receive $32,000 For Stock

A Wood County Common Pleas Court judge has set a price of $32,000 on the Segall sosm property located in the area.

The property was bought by the department of public works for its use in the area.

The property was deeded to the University by a jury after Segall offered an offer made by the state of $31,800 plus permission to exclude his business on the property at the common pleas court.

The variety store and dry cleaning service is located in the corner of the 600 block in downtown Avon, Ohio.

A University parking lot by the store on the other side.

Chairman

The junior class party is planned for Sunday, Oct. 14, rather than from the

Bishop Entertains At Series

By Jim Swayse

The attention of the United States was focused on the small town of Oxford, Miss., where Negro students were being stopped in their track of enrollment in the school. The story of segregation of Mississippi's schools was the subject of many recent Federal Bureau of Education studies, ordered to the state by Mississippi Governor Ross Barnett. After the story of the enrollment attempt was stopped, the state was declared to take action, since it had been de-

United States Secretary of Education James C. LeMoyne, Jr., said, "I'm here to excite your curiosity. I'm here to challenge you. I'm here to inspire you. I'm here to make you a better man."
Candid Campus

QUESTION: How do you think the segregation case should have been handled at the University of Mississippi?

DONALD C. WILLIAMS, Liberal Arts, soph. "Actually I think that they have been handled right up to now. Yes, I think that the proper thing to do is to let them handle it. The longer you wait the more the violence will increase. I believe the administration should have sent in troops sooner.

MICHAEL L. HAEGLY, Business, junior, "Iprecedented. The Main in the summer of 1962, when Mississippi was first sent some troops, and I believe that the longer you wait it increases the violence. I believe the administration should have done something before drastic measures were taken."

CORNEL A. KUEPER, Education, senior, "I think that the university administration should have handled the problem. I think the longer you wait the more the violence will increase. I believe the administration should have done something before drastic measures were taken."

ROBIN L. MORTON, Education, junior, "I think for the University administration to have been more active. We have a constitutional right to end segregation, and I believe the administration should have been more active in trying to end it."

Here is obviously a case of an organization using one man and one woman to bring large forces to bear on a large point. Our opposition guarantees political equality. Education is one of the fundamental freedoms of our life, in which this equality must be granted. This is the time and the place to stop and fight. The fight is not finished. It will continue for years all over the United States.

While this fight is going on there is a wide void which must be filled with understanding. We in the North are always quick to condemn, and perhaps close our eyes to the bloodshed, ill feeling and headlines resulting from Meredith's and the NAACP's efforts.

Here is obviously a case of an organization using one man and one woman to bring large forces to bear on a large point. Our opposition guarantees political equality. Education is one of the fundamental freedoms of our life, in which this equality must be granted. This is the time and the place to stop and fight. The fight is not finished. It will continue for years all over the United States.

Here is obviously a case of an organization using one man and one woman to bring large forces to bear on a large point. Our opposition guarantees political equality. Education is one of the fundamental freedoms of our life, in which this equality must be granted. This is the time and the place to stop and fight. The fight is not finished. It will continue for years all over the United States.

Here is obviously a case of an organization using one man and one woman to bring large forces to bear on a large point. Our opposition guarantees political equality. Education is one of the fundamental freedoms of our life, in which this equality must be granted. This is the time and the place to stop and fight. The fight is not finished. It will continue for years all over the United States.
Undefeated Harriers Seek 3rd Straight Win

After impressive victories over Miami, 21-34, and Toledo, 15-48, the Bowling Green varsity cross country team lays its undefeated status on line against a powerful Central State team tomorrow.

The Falcons meet the Marauders on a four mile course opposite the University golf course, northeast of Memorial Hall, at 11:30. The freshman 15-48, the Bowling Green varsity cross country team lays its year's absence. Sophomores Tom Joe Foster, who was first finisher for the Falcons last week. Sophomore Dale Cordova, who has been pressing him this season. These two could race for the Mid-American championship, undefeated Miami.

The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

The Benjamin Franklin Club, which has been on the campus more than 2 years, will be the host club. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

Tickets for tomorrow's game with Western Michigan have been on sale this week in the ticket office and at the Flinn. with 16:42 finished first. Jim Gerlach with a time of 17:23. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

Tickets for tomorrow's game with Western Michigan have been on sale this week in the ticket office and at the Flinn. with 16:42 finished first. Jim Gerlach with a time of 17:23. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

Tickets for tomorrow's game with Western Michigan have been on sale this week in the ticket office and at the Flinn. with 16:42 finished first. Jim Gerlach with a time of 17:23. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

Tickets for tomorrow's game with Western Michigan have been on sale this week in the ticket office and at the Flinn. with 16:42 finished first. Jim Gerlach with a time of 17:23. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.

Tickets for tomorrow's game with Western Michigan have been on sale this week in the ticket office and at the Flinn. with 16:42 finished first. Jim Gerlach with a time of 17:23. The special showing is sponsored by the Student Activities Organization.
Baritone Dale Moore will appear in a great recital at the Hall of Music Recital Auditorium tonight at 8:15.

Moore, who is director of the Bowling Green University Conservatory of Music, will present a program which was held at the conservatory, and will be accompanied by Katherine Fischer. A graduate of the University of Kansas where he earned the bachelor and master of music degrees, Moore attended the Mozarteum, Austria, as a Fulbright scholar in 1954-55.

While in Austria he had leading baritone roles in eight operas. He also appeared in concerts in Bad Custin and Hanover.

Moore has studied with the great American tenor, Edmund T. Wosnich, and Richard Schmidt. He has spent a great deal of time with John Newfield, Fritz Tillersberg, and Bernard Pannapater and started a career and choir work with Benno Shihhupue, Ernst Reichtl and Schmidt.

In 1960 he made his debut in Town Hall, N.Y., singing an all-Haus Wolf program on the 100th anniversary of the birth of the Austrian composer. He returned in 1961 and 1962 for the opening of the International Hapo Wolf Society at Gottle House.

He was in charge of choral work at the College of Wooster prior to joining the faculty at Bowling Green University in 1957.

There is no admission charge for the recital.

Kampus Kaleidoscope

United Christian Fellowship — will sponsor a "free raper" from 4 to 8:30 p.m. at the 907 house. The Rev. Homer E. Walden of the First Presbyterian Church will conduct a small service. Free refreshments, "Talk in the Midst of Confusion," at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Fish Donwood Room.

Muskingum College — will sponsor a "freely off" in association with the women's radio station. Olympic Hall Radio at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union Room. The purpose is to acquaint the seniors with the attractions of the senior year and the possible problems associated with it.

Lutheran Student Association — will sponsor a reception for members of the chapter to meet Dr. C. Selvon Holm of Toledo speak on "The Bible—Past or Myth?" at 8:15 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Room.

International Reading Association — will hold its first meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."

Admissions Office — will host an open house for prospective students and families from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."

Falcon Stock Letter Papers — will sponsor a "free raper" from 4 to 8:30 p.m. at the 907 house. The Rev. Homer E. Walden of the First Presbyterian Church will conduct a small service. Free refreshments, "Talk in the Midst of Confusion," at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Fish Donwood Room.

Muskingum College — will sponsor a "freely off" in association with the women's radio station. Olympic Hall Radio at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union Room. The purpose is to acquaint the seniors with the attractions of the senior year and the possible problems associated with it.

Lutheran Student Association — will sponsor a reception for members of the chapter to meet Dr. C. Selvon Holm of Toledo speak on "The Bible—Past or Myth?" at 8:15 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Room.

International Reading Association — will hold its first meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."

Admissions Office — will host an open house for prospective students and families from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."

United Christian Fellowship — will sponsor a "free raper" from 4 to 8:30 p.m. at the 907 house. The Rev. Homer E. Walden of the First Presbyterian Church will conduct a small service. Free refreshments, "Talk in the Midst of Confusion," at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Fish Donwood Room.

Muskingum College — will sponsor a "freely off" in association with the women's radio station. Olympic Hall Radio at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union Room. The purpose is to acquaint the seniors with the attractions of the senior year and the possible problems associated with it.

Lutheran Student Association — will sponsor a reception for members of the chapter to meet Dr. C. Selvon Holm of Toledo speak on "The Bible—Past or Myth?" at 8:15 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Room.

International Reading Association — will hold its first meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."

Admissions Office — will host an open house for prospective students and families from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the American Room. The purpose is to acquaint new members interested in reading with the organization. A panel, led by Russell Whose of the Division of Teachers, will discuss "Reading Skills."