FALCONS
In size, no larger than a raven, the Falcon is the most courageous and swiftest bird in the world. It will successfully fight foes of much greater size. Its aerie is placed in most inaccessible places where it surveys the countryside, monarch of everything in the bird kingdom. The high qualities of this little bird prompted the dubbing of Bowling Green college teams as the “Falcons” and the nickname immediately became a hit.

MAY THE “FALCONS” MAKE A NAME FOR THEMSELVES IN THE OHIO CONFERENCE.

THE OFFICIAL PROGRAM
Is published and distributed at home games by the Department of Publicity of the College-Community Organization. Revenues from the Official Football Program are used to publish this program and are utilized for no other purposes. The Department of Publicity expresses its appreciation of the wholehearted co-operation of everyone who helped to make this program possible.

Bowling Green is again glad to meet Mount Union on the gridiron. For the third consecutive year we open our season against them. Since we wish a fine, traditional rivalry with them, we hope for a good, clean game.

Warren E. Steller,
Athletic Director
Bowling Green

Mount Union has shown exceptionally sportsmanship in our past games. Therefore we are more than pleased to continue athletic relations with such an institution. May the best team win.

Paul E. Landis,
Line Coach, Bowling Green
Mount Union is pleased to greet Bowling Green State college into the Ohio Conference. Twice before the two have met and on each occasion Mount Union found Bowling Green men to be sturdy opponents but sportsmen every inch. May Bowling Green's teams find the Ohio Conference a happy association always.

R. D. Wright,
Athletic Director,
Mount Union

A fine relationship has grown up between Mount Union and Bowling Green in the last two years since our first football meeting. Both games were close and hardfought, providing an excellent test for valor and fair play. These meetings are gaining in interest and again we are glad to say “Hello”.

Harry Geltz,
Football Coach
Mount Union
Each year the four varsity squads in major sports in Bowling Green college name the most valuable men to their teams. Those who gain such recognition are presented with gold medals and their names placed on a large plaque. The practice was sponsored by D. C. Brown, of Napoleon, president of the college board of trustees.

Our Grid Debut in
The Ohio Conference

Today, Bowling Green State college makes her first bow in Ohio Conference football!

Starting only her fifteenth year in football, the college achievement of Ohio Conference membership in such a short period is considered remarkable by most authorities in the state.

Folks who have witnessed the growth of the institution, can not help but appreciate the pride that accompanies the accomplishment of such recognition as to win a berth in what is considered one of the finest inter-collegiate athletic groups in the United States.

The first team was a motley crew of lads, a group of about 15 boys, only two of whom had ever played football before. That was back in 1919, just after the World War and the first coach was the present Wood County Prosecutor, Raymond E. Ladd, of Denison, who took charge until the regular coach was hired. John Stitt, of Western Reserve, took the helm and directed the boys through three games, all defeats.

From that time on until last fall, Bowling Green college was a member of the Northwest Ohio Conference. Starting with but few men in school, the college was a weak sister in that group for a number of years, but it was not long before the teams in each sport became more powerful and during the last few years the Falcons were cited as favorites in every title race.

The Falcons won five championships in football in that league which was a higher total than any other school could claim.

The growth of Bowling Green has been particularly notable during the last few years under the direction of Warren E.
Steller, Athletic Director, and Paul E. Landis, his assistant, who have worked in such close harmony throughout the time that they have been associated with the college.

Mr. Steller came to pilot the Falcons in the fall of 1924 and this year is placing his tenth football team on the gridiron here. Mr. Landis followed him here the next September and since then has been line coach in football and head coach of basketball, track, tennis, cross country and golf, when B. G. has been represented in those sports. Mr. Steller has been the coach of baseball during that time and head of the department.

The spirit of an institution is a reflection of the men behind it. The spirit of Bowling Green State has always been of the highest calibre because the two coaches have stood for honesty, fair play and sportsmanship.

Demanding only the highest standard of sportsmanship from varsity men throughout their service at the helm here, the two physical education men have instilled a like spirit in the men who have been graduated here.

The result is that Bowling Green State college athletes are found coaching various sports in high schools in every county in this part of Ohio and in hundreds of schools in other sections of Ohio and other states.

The addition of a Physical Education major and minor for men has increased the enrollment of athletes in Bowling Green. The establishment of a College of Liberal Arts, to augment the College of Education, has also caused an increase in the male enrollment.

The hope for the future of Bowling Green State college in the Ohio Conference is bright. It’s light may not shine out with such great brilliance for a few years yet, but Bowling Green alumni and former students have great confidence in the coaches, the standards of the college and the slow-but-sure way that the Falcons have been climbing up the ladder in Ohio in recent years.

"BETTER LIGHT—BETTER SIGHT"
In The Home, In The Store and
In The Factory

The long winter nights and reviving business require better lighting. Every room should be properly lighted for complete vision without glare.
