This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the BGSU Athletics Programs at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Football Programs by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
As a special feature of the Homecoming Celebration, November 3 and 4, the Publicity Committee will publish a beautiful souvenir program. There will be special pictures of the players and coaches, campus views, and the like with the usual information about the lineups. Special articles will appear in the program also. The feature of the souvenir will be an extra-ordinary cover, which is already in process and will be ready in time for the big event. Everyone will want a souvenir of the 1933 Homecoming for their Memory Collection.

THE OFFICIAL PROGRAM

Is published and distributed at home games by the Department of Publicity of the College-Community Organization. Revenues from the Official Football Program are used to publish this program and are utilized for no other purposes. The Department of Publicity expresses its appreciation of the wholehearted co-operation of everyone who helped to make this program possible.

Bluffton college is our oldest athletic rival and old rivals are always the best. We have always been glad to see Coach A. C. Burcky and his men and we welcome them heartily today.

Warren E. Steller,
Athletic Director
Bowling Green

As members of the Northwest Conference we enjoyed the keen rivalry of Bluffton. Bowling Green always knows that they have had a football game when playing the Beavers. We welcome you again.

Paul E. Landis,
Line Coach, Bowling Green
Another Bowling Green-Bluffton game . . . and it carries much of fine tradition. These games are never over as evidenced by the greeting exchanges of former players. These recollections are fine and wholesome and that is as it should be, so today again we expect courteous words and chivalrous deeds to be present even in the heat of contest, the flush of victory or the sting of defeat.

A. C. Burcky,
Coach, Bluffton

A few years ago Bluffton college, in casting about for a good nickname for her athletic teams selected “BEAVERS”. The energetic little home building animal was selected as the emblem because he carries on in spite of great odds in his lifetime.

Harold Johnson, of Dalton, O., is this year’s leader of the Bluffton Beavers. The sturdy guard is a Junior and is regarded as a good blocker and an excellent defensive man.
Bluffton college always produces a fine football team despite the fact that it is a small school and her grid squads are not large. Coach A. C. Burcky always has a fighting team and this year is not an exception. Many of the veterans of last year's Northwest Ohio Conference champions, pictured above, are back this year. One of the leaders is Millard Fretz, 210 pound veteran tackle, who is one of the best linemen ever produced by the Beavers.

Freshman Squad Declared Best Ever

A squad of excellent athletes reported to Coach Fred Marsh this week to make up the Class of 1937 football roster and there seems to be no doubt in anyone's mind, but that the squad is the best that the college has ever had.

About thirty uniforms have been issued, some of them to boys who have had no experience and who are out to learn what they can this year in hopes that possibly they may be able to make the varsity sometime before their college careers are ended.

The majority of the lads are fellows who have had experience and some of them were stars in their home high schools.

In scrimmage against the varsity this week, the Frosh have romped wildly up and down the field, showing that they have glorious possibilities.

The roster shows the following men listed showing weight and home town:

- Guards—Cloyce Teatsorth, 175, Van Buren; Guy Leatherman, 195, Harrod; Cleo Allen, 155, Ridgeville; Robert Kruse, 185, Knoxville; Carl Gertzmaker, 185, Botkins; Robert McKnight, 145, Bowling Green.
- Tackles—John Ihnat, 190, Lakeside; Floyd Roth, 170, Swanton; Robert Ruth, 160, Marion.
- Ends—Claude Bushong, 152, Mt. Blanchard; John Liss, 150, Amberst; Robert Kuhlman, 138, Findlay; Don Anderson, 180, Stryker; Richard Collins, 155, Bowling Green; Paul Oaklief, 145, Newcomerston; Paul Smith, 157, Bowling Green.
- Backs—Ross Bateson, 150, Rissingun; Cliff Conrad, 150, Maumee; Carl Karg, 130, Findlay; Joy Inman, 195, Perrysburg; Eugene Riffle, 170, Dennison; C. Snyder, 158, Fostoria.
