Dean's Letter

In this edition of Bibliofiles you will learn about the 2012 Friends Award. The generous donation of Lillian Gish memorabilia by Professor Emerita Gwen Evans, now interim Dean of Libraries, was one of the earliest purchases for the Digital Resource Commons. In 1992, six universities formed OhioLINK, a venture of university libraries and the Ohio Board of Regents, to provide more cost-effective access to important print and digital resources. "OhioLINK grew out of a 1987 recommendation by the Board of Regents’ task force to support helping agencies in Wood and Lucas campus colleagues – over $100,000 was raised.

...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

"...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

46

BGSU libraries honor Parks for support

Wishing you all the best in 2013.

to support helping agencies in Wood and Lucas campus colleagues – over $100,000 was raised.

...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

46

BGSU libraries honor Parks for support

Wishing you all the best in 2013.

I learned first-hand about the generosity of our Northwest Ohio Community Shares Campaign, events at the conclusion of each semester. Finally, Learning Commons and the University Libraries

...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

46

BGSU libraries honor Parks for support

Wishing you all the best in 2013.

I learned first-hand about the generosity of our Northwest Ohio Community Shares Campaign, events at the conclusion of each semester. Finally, Learning Commons and the University Libraries

...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

46

BGSU libraries honor Parks for support

Wishing you all the best in 2013.

I learned first-hand about the generosity of our Northwest Ohio Community Shares Campaign, events at the conclusion of each semester. Finally, Learning Commons and the University Libraries

...Continued from cover

Gish fan donates collection to BGSU

46

BGSU libraries honor Parks for support

Wishing you all the best in 2013.

I learned first-hand about the generosity of our Northwest Ohio Community Shares Campaign, events at the conclusion of each semester. Finally, Learning Commons and the University Libraries