Bibliofiles Winter 2012

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/library_newsletters

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/library_newsletters/7

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Library Newsletters at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bibliofiles by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
The Friends of the University Libraries is encouraging comradeship amongst the staff.

Tatham has worked at BGSU for 15 years. Her nominators commented that her office secretary, as the recipient of the Two Thousand Staff Award.

The Friends of the UL is a 503(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Gifts to the Libraries help preserve the past, enhance the present and envision the future. To support the University Libraries resources and programs, please call 419-372-2856.

Telefund Campaign Returns

The University Libraries' first Telefund campaign was launched in the spring of 2011 and will return again in January 2012. If you receive a phone call from our enthusiastic student callers, please take a few moments to talk to them and consider making a gift to the University Libraries.

Calling All Former Library Student Employees!

Keep your former Library colleagues up to date about your current achievements, career and activities by submitting information for inclusion in the next edition of Bibliofiles. Accomplishments can be sent to ulbibinfo@bgsu.edu.

The Friends of the UL is a 501(c)(3) organization. The return of its membership, therefore, is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. To join, please call 419-372-2856.

After years of planning, students can now pick up coffee or a snack, as well as grab a table or chair in the new BGSU Honeycomb. The Drill Team is comprised of library staff who man the exhibits in their books, spreading the word about the library. The library, the heart, serves its student group, providing services annually in the parade and increases its coursework in imaginative microform. In the past, the team has won the "Best University Office and Most Spirited Awards at the Bowling Green Homecoming parade. This year, they won the "Best Office Group" plaque.

Biblioburial

BGSU UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Bowling Green State University
William T. Snavely Library
Bowling Green, Ohio 43403-0179

East-Campus Mail P.O. Box 150
Bowling Green State University

Friends of the UL—We believe that our libraries are the heart of the University of fine art and culture. We support the Libraries Board.

Tatham Receives Friends Award

The Friends of the University Libraries honored Lisa Tatham, administrative assistant, as the recipient of the 2011 Friends of the University Libraries' first Telefund campaign was launched in the spring of 2011 and will return again in January 2012. If you receive a phone call from our enthusiastic student callers, please take a few moments to talk to them.

Calling All Former Library Student Employees!

Keep your former Library colleagues up to date about your current achievements, career and activities by submitting information for inclusion in the next edition of Bibliofiles. Accomplishments can be sent to ulbibinfo@bgsu.edu.

The Friends of the UL is a 501(c)(3) organization. The return of its membership, therefore, is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. To join, please call 419-372-2856.

New Spaces, New Places to Study, Socialize & Snack

Friends Membership Levels

Donors may contribute $35-$99 or $100 or more. Donors who contribute $35-$99 are called Friends of the University Libraries, and those who contribute $100 or more are called Nobel Friends. Each level of contribution will be recognized in the next edition of Bibliofiles.

The Friends of the UL is a membership-based group that supports the programs and services of the Libraries by giving scholarships to students and employees, purchasing special equipment, sponsoring special events and contributing to the aesthetic needs of the Libraries.

Tatham has worked at BGSU for 15 years. Her nominators commented that her office secretary, as the recipient of the Two Thousand Staff Award.

The Friends of the UL is a 503(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Gifts to the Libraries help preserve the past, enhance the present and envision the future. To support the University Libraries resources and programs, please call 419-372-2856.

Telefund Campaign Returns

The University Libraries' first Telefund campaign was launched in the spring of 2011 and will return again in January 2012. If you receive a phone call from our enthusiastic student callers, please take a few moments to talk to them and consider making a gift to the University Libraries.

Calling All Former Library Student Employees!

Keep your former Library colleagues up to date about your current achievements, career and activities by submitting information for inclusion in the next edition of Bibliofiles. Accomplishments can be sent to ulbibinfo@bgsu.edu.

The Friends of the UL is a 501(c)(3) organization. The return of its membership, therefore, is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. To join, please call 419-372-2856.

New Spaces, New Places to Study, Socialize & Snack

Friends Membership Levels

Donors may contribute $35-$99 or $100 or more. Donors who contribute $35-$99 are called Friends of the University Libraries, and those who contribute $100 or more are called Nobel Friends. Each level of contribution will be recognized in the next edition of Bibliofiles.

The Friends of the UL is a membership-based group that supports the programs and services of the Libraries by giving scholarships to students and employees, purchasing special equipment, sponsoring special events and contributing to the aesthetic needs of the Libraries.

Tatham has worked at BGSU for 15 years. Her nominators commented that her office secretary, as the recipient of the Two Thousand Staff Award.

The Friends of the UL is a 503(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Gifts to the Libraries help preserve the past, enhance the present and envision the future. To support the University Libraries resources and programs, please call 419-372-2856.

Telefund Campaign Returns

The University Libraries' first Telefund campaign was launched in the spring of 2011 and will return again in January 2012. If you receive a phone call from our enthusiastic student callers, please take a few moments to talk to them and consider making a gift to the University Libraries.

Calling All Former Library Student Employees!

Keep your former Library colleagues up to date about your current achievements, career and activities by submitting information for inclusion in the next edition of Bibliofiles. Accomplishments can be sent to ulbibinfo@bgsu.edu.

The Friends of the UL is a 501(c)(3) organization. The return of its membership, therefore, is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. To join, please call 419-372-2856.
Happy New Year!

Arts opened in December. Athletic events and concerts, and the Wolfe Center for the facilities have opened, the Stroh Center is hosting past few months. Two new residence halls and dining of the William T. Jerome Library and is a wonderful assistance, moved from Moseley Hall to the first floor The Learning Commons, a one-stop shop for tutoring facility, opened its doors at the start of fall semester. Summon, the new “power” search tool, is revolutionizing human experience and be of interest to both men and women. Project and anticipate the challenges I will face in completing senior year. The blog is documenting the experiences I’ve had just talk about it. After reading No Impact Man said Colleen Boff, interim associate dean of issues raised,” said Colleen Boff, interim associate dean of Faculty have also incorporated “My blog is for my Honors project, which was inspired by electricity, plastic, automobiles, toilet paper or other staples. No Impact Man: Liberal Who Attempts to Save the Planet, and the Discoveries The Adventures of a Guilty Colin Beavan.

Parmer was presented an engraved bowl in commemoration of the award. The permanent award, housed at the State Library of Ohio, program chair and president, as well as her exemplary record of service to committees of the organization. It also noted her role in The Government Documents Round Table of Ohio presented the Clyde Award to Coleen Parmer, professor emeritus, University Libraries, in June. The Clyde Award is “given by Ohio GODORT to a member of the organization for outstanding achievement(s) or contributions of lasting value.” In presenting this award, the organization cited Parmer’s role as a founding member, her leadership role as past secretary/treasurer, province, and as an emergency record of service to numerous of the organization. It also noted her role in increasing the knowledge of the field of government documents librarianship through publications and presentations at the state and national level. Parmer received an engraved bowl in recognition of her achievement. The award was presented by the State Library of Ohio, is a larger organized porter bowl with the names of all recipients. My blog is my literary project, which was inspired by No Impact Man. I am an environmental resource manager. I do what do something for a project to know change and not talk about it. After reading the Impact Man last summer, I found myself in a bit of a lather because I had been very busy in my own career. The blog is becoming the experience. I’ve had and still have to do some sorting and playing around with my project and anticipate the challenges I will face as completing it.

Thank You, Class of 1971

In addition to adding old friends during the BGSU reunion weekend, the Class of 1971 gifted a gift bag to helping the University Libraries through a.merchant class gift. In addition, the Wm. T. Jerome Library offered a non-salamander award for interesting documents, and Stroh Center was a gift bag of the libraries. As part of their college experiences by establishing the Class of 1972 Library. During homecoming weekend, the Class of 1971 gifted a plaque to where University Libraries Dean Karen B. Parmer was presented a gift of友人. In addition, library staff there. Those in attendance who are able to attend the event have been responsible for making the collection accessible to many students and faculty.

New Staff Debut

Dr. Marcia Suter joined the University Libraries in September as chair of the department of special collections and archives. This position is responsible for managing and developing special collections and archives, and creating and maintaining access to special collections and archives for the campus and the public. She will be working with a team of librarians, archivists, and special collections professionals and will be working closely with the Library’s director, Dr. Marcia Suter.

Libraries’ Resources Help Database Rock On Adam Matthew Education

The University Libraries has partnered with Adam Matthew Digital to publish work from The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Peace and Popular Culture: a Digital Library of Recorded Sound. The first 14,000 recordings in the collection cover popular music from rock and roll to rhythm & blues. The collection is available through a search interface that allows users to search for specific artists, albums, or songs, as well as browse by genre, artist, or date range. The collection includes a wide range of genres, from rock and roll to rhythm and blues, and covers a period of more than 70 years. The collection provides access to a variety of formats, including audio and video, and is available through a variety of platforms, including desktop and mobile devices. The collection is available through a variety of platforms, including desktop and mobile devices. The collection is available through a variety of platforms, including desktop and mobile devices.