“Positive attitude and actions definitely lead to success,” Tatham said. “I have the happiest job on campus because I work with co-workers who care about students and the library.”

Tatham received the Staff Award.

Parmer was presented an engraved bowl in commemoration of the award. The permanent award, housed at the State Library of Ohio, recognizes the recipient as an outstanding practitioner of government document work in the state. It is presented in honor of Clyde W. Parmer, who served as Dean of the University Libraries and professor emeritus from 1971 to 1994.
