Pharrell Williams

A Presentation by Renei Jackson
Background

• Pharrell Lanscilo Williams was born on April 5, 1973 in the city of Virginia Beach, VA

• He grew up being “the problem child” at school always making beats on the tables and being sent to detention.

• He was born in a predominantly African-American community as a child where he didn’t really fit in because of his mix of inspiration from skaters such as Tony Hawk and Christian Hosoi to renown hip hop artists Dougie Fresh and Slick Rick.

• His family later moved to the suburbs where he was surrounded by a primarily White community. Being involved in different environments made him depend on music to connect to other people.
Transition into Fame

• He first came into fame as a songwriting and production duo, Neptune, with his friend Chad Hugo in the 90s.

• They produced hits for artists ranging from Jay-Z to Britney Spears. He produced some artists most well known songs such as Nelly’s “Hot in Herre,” Gwen Stefani’s “Hollaback Girl”, Kelis’ “My Milkshake Brings All the Boys to the Yard,” and Justin Timberlake’s “Senorita.”

• In a study done by Complex, during 2003, The Neptunes were responsible for 43% of the songs playing on the radio in the United States.

• He released his first solo single Frontin in 2003 and debut album, In My Mind in 2006.
