Health Care Task Force. PWC reviewed the recommendations from the Health Care Task Force and, after consultations with administrative staff, ASC and the Executive Committee, composed the ASC response to the Task Force.

Handbook. A subcommittee made a thorough review of the Administrative Staff Handbook for policy changes and updates and for editorial changes. These changes were forwarded for approval by the Board of Trustees.

Salaries. Several issues relative to salaries, potential salary inequities, titles, and job descriptions were discussed. Initially our suggestion was that PWC would work with the new assistant director of personnel to conduct a thorough study. Areas to be included were salaries commensurate with the position, salary equity based on sex, minimum salaries, market adjustment data, and salary compression with classified staff. After consultation with John Moore, PWC changed its recommendation to one that called for an external agency to conduct such a survey. As of May 1993, contacts have been made with an external agency to do the survey.

Vacation Policy. A change in the vacation policy was suggested by the Central Administration to delete reference which excludes medical doctors, residence hall directors, unit directors, and employees whose contract period is for less than twelve months. PWC reviewed that suggestion and recommended that the exclusion remain. This recommendation was accepted. PWC further recommended that staff members be allowed to take vacation during their first year. Although a change in the written policy was not accepted on this point, the vice presidents did assure ASC that in practice they allow vacation in the first year. ASC then followed up with John Moore regarding areas where it has not, in fact, been allowed.

Grant/Externally Funded Staff. PWC made a recommendation that there be a separate category of administrative staff who have the designation “Grant/Externally Funded Administrative Staff.”

Leave Without Pay. PWC recommended a policy on special leave without pay and combined the then-existing handbook policy on long term leaves with a policy on short-term leaves without pay. A form was also developed for use in requesting either type of leave.

Amendments Committee:
- The committee met on January 13, and discussed two suggestions for changes to the Bylaws. Copies were distributed of a proposal to amend Article 2, Section 2 of the Bylaws regarding the process for selecting chairs of ASC standing committees. J. Kepke moved, M. Firestone seconded, and the motion passed to allow the Chair of ASC to appoint the chairs of ASC standing committees.

Stickler distributed copies of a memorandum which described ASC's response to suggestions made by John Moore, Personnel Services and Marshall Rose, Affirmative Action regarding ways to enhance internal promotion and advancement opportunities for administrative staff. In the memo, ASC applauded J. Moore's and M. Rose's interest and creative suggestions for dealing with these issues.

RE: Proposed Amendment to the Bylaws - (Additions are in bold type)

Article 1: Meetings

Section 1: Regular Council Meetings

The executive committee will determine which issues are minor and which are major. Minor issues may be read and voted on at the meeting. Major issues will have two readings. At the first reading the council may ask questions in order to clarify any part of the proposal and the proposal may be debated, refined and/or amended. At the second reading there may be discussion and debate. If the proposal is amended, the chair will determine if the change is significant enough to warrant additional review by constituents. A vote may not be taken before the second reading.

A vote on a major issue may be taken without a second reading if there is a motion to suspend the Bylaws. The motion must be approved by a two-thirds majority of the full Council.

Section 5: Alternates at ASC Meetings

Alternates [may] will be designated by an Administrative Staff Council member who finds that attendance at an Administrative Staff Council meeting is not possible. Alternates must be chosen from the vice presidential or presidential area represented by the council member and must be identified to the Administrative Staff Council chair prior to the beginning of the meeting. An alternate so chosen and so identified may participate in discussion, initiate motions and vote on all issues, save those involving amendment to the charter or by-laws. [Alternates may replace any single council member no more than three times in one year.]

Section 6: Attendance Policy

(Delete first paragraph and add:)

REVISION 10-5-95
(PROPOSED RE-WORDING IS IN ITALICS)
Each Administrative Staff Council Member must select a designated alternate who may substitute for the said ASC member. If the designated alternate is unable to attend, another member from the appropriate vice presidential or presidential area should be chosen. A member who is absent in excess of three regular meetings who has not sent an alternate will be designated as absentee.

Article 2: Committees

This program will involve written information and practical learning opportunities including the Mentor/Mentee program and/or presentations or training seminars during or outside of Council meetings. An overview of Council including committee assignments, responsibilities, and accomplishments will be included.

Work toward developing ways to recognize administrative staff for their accomplishments.

Respond to concerns and make recommendations about the structure/configuration of Council meetings.

Examine the election process and make appropriate recommendations.

J. External Affairs would be responsible for developing the following:

Ideas for community involvement projects for administrative staff

Provide assistance for BG Effect

Work on public relations with other groups on campus and off campus and with media

Develop a survey of administrative staff regarding awards, community involvement, opening day.

Article 8: Quorum

Section 1: ASC and ASC Committees

To conduct ASC business, 2/3's of the ASC voting membership must be present. A majority vote of those present is required to take official action. Committee action may only be taken by a majority of the Committee's membership.
Amendments Committee

Mary Beth Zachary presented proposed amendments to the Bylaws of ASC dealing with the following topics: 1) the number of readings required for major and minor issues brought before the Council, 2) the designation of alternates at ASC meetings, 3) the establishment of Internal Affairs and External Affairs as Standing Committees of the ASC, and 4) the definition of a quorum for ASC meetings. The proposed amendments were voted on by written ballot and passed unanimously. A copy of the amendments are enclosed with the minutes.

New Business:

Deb Boyce announced that an Inauguration Committee has been formed to plan a formal inaugural celebration for Dr. Ribeau. The Committee is gathering suggestions related to a theme, musical events, speakers, dates etc. Some Council members suggested waiting until fall term for such an event to avoid conflict with Spring awards banquets, etc.

Pat Green moved that the Administrative Staff Council contribute $500 to sponsor the "Aids Quilt" on campus in February. Ingle-Klopping seconded and the motion passed unanimously.

Mary Beth Zachary asked that Council request specific clarification from Personnel Services regarding the University's policy of remaining open when a county snow emergency is in effect that makes it illegal for employees to drive. Members also added that employees need a specific phone number to call on campus to get clear information regarding whether or not the University is open to avoid the recent problems encountered when a local television station inaccurately reported that the main campus was closed.

Council members asked Bryan to get clarification as soon as possible whether or not the University will be closed in December between the Christmas and New Year's holiday and in particular whether or not employees need to save vacation and personal days for this period.

The meeting adjourned at 3:05 p.m.

Report of the Amendments Committee for 1996-97 Academic Year

Four amendments to the Administrative Staff Council (ASC) By-Laws were proposed and approved during the academic year 1996-97.

Article 2, Section 2 and Article 4, Section 5

This amendment to the ASC By-Laws changes ASC standing committee membership from council members only to council and non-council members. It also provides a mechanism for the executive committee to solicit interest within the administrative staff constituency and provides the mechanism for appointing committee membership that includes non-council members.

Article 2, Section 2

This amendment changes the name of the Ferrari Award to the Awards and Special Recognitions Committee. It enlarged the scope of the committee charge to include ways of recognizing outstanding achievements by administrative staff in addition to the Ferrari Award.

Article 4

This amendment to the ASC By-Laws changed the name of the Article 4 from "Elections" to "The Election/Appointment Process" to more accurately reflect the actual events in forming ASC committees.

The fourth proposal approved by council inserts the word "self-nominate" for "volunteer" whenever it occurs in the ASC By-Laws.

Recommendations

During 1996-97, the University has been reorganizing in such a way as to render many of the ASC By-Laws useless or inapplicable. To insure consistency in the By-Laws, it is recommended that a complete revision of the ASC By-Laws be undertaken after the University reorganization has been finalized.

TEACHING STUDENTS TO EVALUATE INTERNET SITES

By Trudi E. Jacobson and Laura E. Cohen, University at Albany, SUNY

tj662@cmowalibalbny.edu and lcohen @euro.walbany.edu

Students put too much faith in the material they find on the Internet, too often to the point of consulting no other sources. As librarians, we have been teaching Internet resources evaluation techniques to numerous classes and individual students. We have developed several methods and resources we would like to share. We believe they effectively heighten student awareness of the validity of these sources.

Site Analysis: We ask students to find a Web site on their topic and then answer four questions about the site.

1. Who wrote the information?
2. What authority or special knowledge does the author have?
3. Does the site exhibit a bias or stance?
4. When was the site last updated?

Although the last question may seem more trivial than the other three, it serves two important purposes. It indicates whether the site is being maintained, and it is the “easy” question of the four. By comparison, the first question is usually more challenging. Sometimes students need to track back several directory levels to find the information. In one class, a student found what looked like a well-designed and well-written Web page about the atom bomb, but when tracking authorship, he discovered that the creator of the page was a high school senior. The second and third questions are more time-consuming, because students need to read and evaluate the information on the page. The questions do help students begin to grapple with evaluation issues. We do this exercise in a computer classroom and encourage students to share their “findings” with classmates.

Fake Web Sites: Here we introduce students to a page of our own devising on “The Psychosocial Parameters of Internet Addiction.” The page purports to be an annotated bibliography of resources, both print and Web-based, on a topic that students find extremely interesting. Working in pairs, students are to determine the usefulness of each item and note questions they have about the source and its availability. We have included a mixture of real and fake citations: in the bibliography, some of the “fakes” are obvious phonies to those unfamiliar in information resources.

In one class, a student found what looked like a well-designed and well-written Web page about the atom bomb, but when tracking authorship, he discovered that the creator of the page was a high school senior.

Once the class has gone through the entire list, we lead an item by item discussion. After having evaluated the bibliography, students are instructed to click on the author’s biography. We ask some leading questions: How old do you think this professor is? Have you ever seen course offerings by the Department of Psychology? Finally, we have students click on the “additional information” link, which explains that the page is a fake. By this point, students have no difficulty recognizing the need to evaluate information on a system where anyone can mount anything.

We invite other to take a look at and use the page. Find it at http://www.albany.edu/library/internet/addiction.html.

Site Comparison: In another exercise, we have students compare two sites on the same topic. Sometimes the sites have been selected in advance, and sometimes students find their own on a topic of interest to them or relevant to a class project. We have successfully used two different sites: with biographies of Ray Charles, one that we know contains inaccurate information. The different information and viewpoints in the two sites make it easy to spark a discussion of how to identify accurate information.

After completing any of these exercises, we distribute a set of criteria that students can use to evaluate Internet sites. Here are some of the key criteria on the list. You are welcome to find and use the complete list at http://www.albany.edu/library/internet/evaluation.html.

1. Purpose: The Internet is like a public bulletin board. Why has this site been created? Is someone trying to sell you something? Inform you? Persuade you?

2. Source: Internet sites come from a wide variety of sponsoring entities and individuals. The resulting content ranges from the definitive to the fake. Therefore, only some of the sites located will be relevant to a given topic. Identify the source of the site. Check, especially for e-mail to link to you can e-mail the responsible party with questions and comments.

3. Content:
   • Check for accuracy: Web sites are rarely refereed or reviewed. The source of the information should be clearly stated, whether original or borrowed from elsewhere.
   • Check for comprehensiveness: Determine if content covers a specific time period or aspect of the topic, or strive to be comprehensive. Use additional print and electronic sources to complement what you have found.
   • Check for currency: Look to see if the site has been updated recently and if the information contained is current.
   • Check for hyperlinks: Make sure they are relevant and appropriate. Don’t assume that the linked sites are the best available. Look elsewhere for additional sites.

4. Style and Functionality: A well-designed Internet site enhances the information offered. Look for good organization, appropriate writing style, easy navigation and search capability if the site is extensive.

RE: Administrative Staff Handbook Changes

This is to follow up relative to the December 6, 1993 memorandum you received from Norma Stickler about revisions to the Administrative Staff Handbook. Since I chaired the handbook subcommittee of the Personnel Welfare Committee last year, I agreed to review the 1993-94 changes to the Handbook distributed earlier this year.

In addition to the items addressed by Ms. Stickler, I recently noticed that the amendments to the Bylaws approved by the Administrative Staff Council on June 3, 1993, were not included in the 1993-94 changes to the Handbook. I have enclosed a copy of the "Suggested Bylaws Changes" as approved for amendment in case your office was not in receipt of them for inclusion with the 1993-94 changes.

Thank you for assisting us with this process. I will be happy to answer any questions you may have regarding this matter.

RE: Proposed Amendment to the Bylaws

Because some ASC standing committees have experienced difficulty electing a chair in the past, the ASC Amendments Committee proposes that the following amendment be made to the Bylaws in the interest of alleviating committees of this responsibility. An additional benefit of this proposal is that the appointment of chairs could occur at the same time committees are appointed which would facilitate the entire process and expedite initial committee meetings.

ARTICLE 2: Committees
Section 2: ASC Standing Committees

Change the text in uppercase from:

The members of ASC standing committees will be ASC members and will be appointed by the Chair. ASC members may be nominated or may volunteer to serve on ASC standing committees. Membership on these committees will be for one year. Members are eligible for reappointment. Standing committees may appoint subcommittees whose members need not be ASC representatives. CHAIRS SHALL BE ELECTED BY THE COMMITTEES UNLESS STATED OTHERWISE. Each chair shall submit in May a yearly report of the committee's activities to the Executive Committee. The duties and responsibilities of the following ASC standing committees are: ...

to:

...THE CHAIR OF ASC SHALL APPOINT A CHAIR FOR EACH STANDING COMMITTEE. ...

RE: Proposed Amendment to the Bylaws

The Bylaws Article 2: Committees, Section 4: Ad Hoc Committees states that "after two years, an ASC ad hoc committee shall either cease to function or shall request to be made a standing committee through the Amendments Committee." The chairs of the Ad Hoc External Affairs and Ad Hoc Internal Affairs Committees have requested that each ad hoc committee be made a standing committee.

In accordance with Article 10 Amendments of the Bylaws, this is to propose an amendment to the Bylaws whereby both the Ad Hoc External and Internal Affairs Committees be made standing committees and that they shall be listed as ASC Standing Committees in Article 2, Section 2 as follows:

External Affairs Committee: This committee shall develop ideas and assist in organizing community projects involving administrative staff and shall develop ways to enhance public relations with other on- and off-campus groups and with the media.

Internal Affairs Committee: This committee shall be responsible for the orientation program/materials for new administrative staff members as well as for members of ASC and shall investigate and recommend ways for improving the overall effectiveness of ASC.

Article 1: Meetings

Section 1: Regular Council Meetings

The executive committee will determine which issues are minor and which are major. Minor issues may be read and voted on at the meeting. Major issues will have two readings. At the first reading the council may ask questions in order to clarify any part of the proposal and the proposal may be debated, refined and/or amended. At the second reading there may be discussion and debate. If the proposal is amended, the chair will determine if the change is significant enough to warrant additional review by constituents. A vote may not be taken before the second reading.

Section 5: Alternates at ASC Meetings

Alternates [may] will be designated by an Administrative Staff Council member who finds that attendance at an Administrative Staff Council meeting is not possible. Alternates must be chosen from the vice presidential or presidential area represented by the council member and must be identified to the Administrative Staff Council chair prior to the beginning of the meeting. An alternate so chosen and so identified may participate in discussion, initiate motions and vote on all issues, save those involving amendment to the charter or by-laws. [Alternates may replace any single council member no more than twice in one year.] (delete)

Section 6: Attendance Policy

(Delete first paragraph and add:)
Each Administrative Staff Council Member must select a designated alternate who may substitute for the said ASC member. Barry Piersol-The committee began its work by comparing BGSU administrative staff salaries to other comparable schools.

The Fall fundraising campaign to build the scholarship fund was successful. Twenty-nine students applied for the scholarship. In addition to the application, students wrote a 500-800 word essay. They also discussed how they plan to meet their financial need. Julie Ford was selected. She will be invited to the Fall Reception.

External Affairs
External Affairs helped with the Open House, joined with the classified staff for a food drive last year, and attempted to offer a senior dance.

Internal Affairs
Amy O'Donnell-This committee has been very busy this year working to make council function better. They have surveyed constituents and held focus groups to obtain ideas from all administrative staff members. The committee also developed a list of critical responsibilities of administrative staff council members. The committee proposed that an Internal Affairs Officer position be created. (See attachment #4, list of responsibilities). Amy O'Donnell moved and Diane Regan seconded a motion to create this position on a one year trial basis. The motion passed unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 3:00 p.m.
INTERNAL AFFAIRS OFFICER RESPONSIBILITIES

The Internal Affairs Officer (IAO) position should be appointed on an ad hoc basis for a year. The position should be reviewed then to determine whether it should remain as an appointed position or become an elected position. Changes in responsibilities would be suggested at that time.

The Internal Affairs Officer should serve as a liaison with Personnel regarding changes to the administrative staff membership.

This person will be responsible for maintenance and distribution of the constituent list. S/he will contact the appropriate ASC representative when a new administrator is hired and and subsequently added to an individual's constituent list. The IAO will encourage the representative to initiate contact with the new administrative constituent.

This person will serve on the Internal Affairs Committee.

The IAO should attend Executive Committee meetings to stay alerted to issues which should be forwarded to the Internal Affairs Committee, other committees or to Council at large.

The IAO will help to improve the quality of administrative staff representation by: monitoring the attendance policy; randomly surveying constituents to assess representative accountability; and channeling concerns to the appropriate committees.

SUBJECT: Proposals to Amend the ASC By-Laws

The following two proposals respond to concerns about the structure or configuration of Council meetings relative to ASC standing committees.

Proposal #1 recommends expanding ASC standing committee membership to include administrative staff members at large. On many occasions, administrative staff members have expressed simultaneously their desire to serve on ASC committees and their frustration at being denied the opportunity to serve on a committee if they are not elected to ASC. In an effort to broaden the base for participation in ASC standing committee activities, to bring fresh and diverse ideas to ASC, to recruit potential new ASC members, and to enhance the BGSU community's awareness of the role of ASC, we propose to amend the ASC By-Laws accordingly.

Proposal #2 recommends reconfiguring the Ferrari Award Committee to form a new Awards and Recognitions Committee. As the organization flattens and administrative staff members assume increasing responsibilities, the need to recognize outstanding performance increases commensurately. We are all aware that rewards such as praise and recognition have a direct and positive influence on employee effectiveness. Currently, ASC sponsors only one vehicle annually for recognizing outstanding achievement by an administrative staff member--the Ferrari Award. We propose that the Ferrari Award Committee be reconfigured to form the new Awards and Recognitions Committee which shall be charged with coordinating the Ferrari Award and developing and recommending to ASC new ways to recognize administrative staff.
In addition to the above proposals, the Internal Affairs Committee recommends changing the word "volunteer" to "self-nominate" wherever and in whatever grammatical form the word appears throughout the By-Laws and to revise the surrounding text accordingly. Also, we recommend renaming Article 4 from "ELECTIONS" to "THE ELECTION/APPOINTMENT PROCESS." The rationale is that standing committee members are selected and appointed rather than elected.

We request that you review our proposals and propose them to ASC in accordance with Article 10 of the By-Laws.

The following changes were made to the Administrative Staff Council Bylaws

Following some discussion regarding the process and timing of decision-making by council during the 1994-95 academic year, it was decided to revise the appropriate section of the Council by-laws to require a second reading to major proposals/issues.

Article 1, Section 5

After some concerns were expressed regarding the Council attendance policy and continuity of representation on council, the Executive Committee requested that wording be developed regarding the naming of substitutes for committee members attending regular council meetings and explicating the “absentee” designation.

Article 2, Section 2

Revisions to this section of the Bylaws includes two new standing committees: Internal Affairs and External Affairs.

All of these revisions were approved at the January 4, 1996 ASC meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

June 2, 1997

Report of the Amendments Committee for 1996-97 Academic Year

Four amendments to the Administrative Staff Council (ASC) By-Laws were proposed and approved during the academic year 1996-97.

Article 2, Section 2 and Article 4, Section 5

This amendment to the ASC By-Laws changes ASC standing committee membership from council members only to council and non-council members. It also provides a mechanism for the executive committee to solicit interest within the administrative staff constituency and provides the mechanism for appointing committee membership that includes non-council members.

Article 2, Section 2

This amendment changes the name of the Ferrari Award to the Awards and Special Recognitions Committee. It enlarged the scope of the committee charge to include ways of recognizing outstanding achievements by administrative staff in addition to the Ferrari Award.

Article 4

This amendment to the ASC By-Laws changed the name of the Article 4 from “Elections” to “The Election/Appointment Process” to more accurately reflect the actual events in forming ASC committees.

The fourth proposal approved by council inserts the word “self-nominate” for “volunteer” whenever it occurs in the ASC By-Laws.

Recommendations

During 1996-97, the University has been reorganizing in such a way as to render many of the ASC By-Laws useless or inapplicable. To insure consistency in the By-Laws, it is recommended that a complete revision of the ASC By-Laws be undertaken after the University reorganization has been finalized.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Beth Zachary

SUBJECT: Proposals to Amend the ASC By-Laws

The following two proposals respond to concerns about the structure or configuration of Council meetings relative to ASC standing committees.

Proposal #1 recommends expanding ASC standing committee membership to include administrative staff members at large. On many occasions, administrative staff members have expressed simultaneously their desire to serve on ASC committees and their frustration at being denied the opportunity to serve on a committee if they are not elected to ASC. In an effort to broaden the base for participation in ASC standing committee activities, to bring fresh and diverse ideas to ASC, to recruit potential new ASC members, and to enhance the BGSU community's awareness of the role of ASC, we propose to amend the ASC By-Laws accordingly.

Proposal #2 recommends reconfiguring the Ferrari Award Committee to form a new Awards and Recognitions Committee. As the organization flattens and administrative staff members assume increasing responsibilities, the need to recognize outstanding performance increases commensurately. We are all aware that rewards such as praise and recognition have a direct and positive influence on employee effectiveness. Currently, ASC sponsors only one vehicle annually for recognizing outstanding achievement by an administrative staff member—the Ferrari Award. We propose that the Ferrari Award Committee be reconfigured to form the new Awards and Recognitions Committee which shall be charged with coordinating the Ferrari Award and developing and recommending to ASC new ways to recognize administrative staff.
In addition to the above proposals, the Internal Affairs Committee recommends changing the word "volunteer" to "self-nominate" wherever and in whatever grammatical form the word appears throughout the By-Laws and to revise the surrounding text accordingly. Also, we recommend renaming Article 4 from "ELECTIONS" to "THE ELECTION/APPOINTMENT PROCESS." The rationale is that standing committee members are selected and appointed rather than elected.

We request that you review our proposals and propose them to ASC in accordance with Article 10 of the By-Laws.

Mary Beth,

I just finished researching the FMLP. I will give you a thumbnail sketch below and would be happy to talk with you and show you some of the files whenever you have about 10 minutes.

Throughout its many "faces" since 1994 (and I have both times the DOT approved the policies...one in 1994 and one in 1997), it has been clearly stated that an employee cannot use 12 weeks unpaid leave through FML and then another 12 weeks of sick leave. They can only take one FML per 12 months of employment. Now they can use sick leave, personal leave, compensatory time and vacation time in order to get paid during this 12 weeks. But if it is stated that they are using sick leave for FML and they already had 12 weeks of FML during the calendar year (year starts with start of FML), this cannot be done.

Now the interesting loophole is that under our sick leave policy, we can use sick leave for parental or child care or spouse health care needs. So as I see it, as long as I do not state that I am using FML and probably using my sick leave on a more intermittent basis, I can use my sick time and then apply for FML later. But as soon as I say I am using FML, then the clock starts ticking no matter what kind of leave I am using. Does that make sense?

The Amendments committee had two charges this fiscal year. The first was to amend article 2 section 2 of the bylaws. This amendment was proposed in order to bring the membership requirement of each standing committee as written in the bylaws in line with the actual membership of each standing committee and to make it more flexible in the future. The second charge was to examine a series of proposed changes to appendix A of the bylaws. These changes were to realign the standing committees, adjust the duties of each committee and to correct language to put it in line with the rest of the bylaws.

The amendments committee was happy to be of service to the Administrative Council and looks forward to future service.
Policy on Violence
01/07/02

In this community, victims/survivors will be treated with dignity and respect. Any persons found in violation of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action. Violators may also be subject to criminal prosecution.

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply. Acts of violence include any exercise of force against another person or against property that could result in physical or emotional harm. Threats of violence include any verbal or non-verbal communication that inflicts harm. Intimidation includes any verbal or non-verbal act towards another person of which may be to coerce, and the result of which could cause the other person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others.

In many situations, these actions are also considered criminal acts under the Ohio Revised Code. RE: Policy on Violence

Laura Emch
Chair-Elect, Administrative Staff Council
231 Administration Building
Bowling Green, OH 43403

Dear Laura,

I am writing as a follow-up to the Policy on Violence meeting you attended on November 16, 2001. First I wanted to thank you for attending and for giving thoughtful consideration and feedback regarding the Policy on Violence. Our committee has incorporated the feedback of each constituent group and General Counsel into a final draft of the Policy on Violence. I have outlined some of the changes so that you could better understand this final draft. The enclosed final draft of the Policy has the full support of all members of the Violence Against Women Policy Committee and General Counsel. We appreciate your taking this to Administrative Staff Council.

Prior to discussing the final draft, I wanted to provide a brief history of the proposed Policy on Violence so that members of Administrative Staff Council can have a better context for understanding the policy statement.

History of Policy on Violence
The Violence Against Women Policy Committee was formed after the BGSU Women’s Center received $400,000 to fund the Transformation Project. One of the minimum requirements of the Department of Justice funding is that “Campus leadership should convey the message that domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are serious crimes that will not be tolerated on campus. This commitment can be demonstrated through implementing campus protocols, publicly communicating expectations about appropriate conduct, and actively participating in reform efforts.”

Out of this mandate, the Policy Committee was formed. In the original grant proposal, the Women’s Center agreed that the Transformation Project Coordinator would chair-coordinate the policy development process. Our first meeting was in May 2001. Since that time we have developed the proposed Policy on Violence. It is the intention of the Committee to focus on policy issues at this time, knowing that protocols and procedures will follow for the different constituent groups as appropriate. The Transformation Project staff plans to participate and provide technical expertise in the development of any protocols to be developed at a later date.

During the development of the Policy on Violence, the Committee's primary considerations have been:

1. Does the policy statement meet the mandates from the Department of Justice?
2. Is it consistent with the culture and vision of BGSU?
3. How can model policies from other institutions inform our policy statement?
4. Is the policy statement applicable to faculty, staff, and students?
5. Does the policy address sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking?
6. Is the policy statement distinct from procedures and protocol?
7. Does the policy statement meet compliance requirements for BGSU such as the Clery Act and FERPA?
8. Is the policy applicable to perpetrators?
9. Is the policy applicable to victims?
10. Is the policy enforceable?

Policy on Violence
I thought it might be important to highlight some important components of the enclosed Policy on Violence and to describe changes we made since November 16, 2001, when we met with each of the constituent groups.

1. We agreed to begin the Policy statement with a strong value statement that we hoped the University community could support.
   a. In earlier drafts of the Policy we had a section entitled “consequences” later in the policy statement. We removed this section and moved a piece of it up into this first paragraph as part of the value statement.
   b. The language “may be subject to disciplinary action” conveys the seriousness of a violation of the Policy on Violence while giving flexibility in how the violations are handled. We deliberately removed the following language of
      i. “Serious misconduct,”
      ii. “Will be the basis of disciplinary action,” and
      iii. “Up to and including termination and expulsion.”

2. Two paragraphs on definitions are included to clarify the terms used in the value statement.
   a. This section was modified slightly for clarity and enforceability. Specifically, the language used to describe threats of violence has been modified based on feedback by the University Police and General Counsel.

3. The final paragraph addresses the issue of University and community resources that are relevant to the Policy on Violence and communicates that such resources are available.
   a. This paragraph has been modified slightly to more accurately reflect the role of community agencies in providing services and referrals that are relevant to the Policy on Violence.
Location of Policy on Violence in Academic Charter

In the November 16, 2001 meeting with constituent groups, we discussed possible locations for the Policy on Violence in the Academic Charter. As per the input of Jim Evans (Chair, Faculty Senate), we considered suggesting that the Policy on Violence be located in the Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment subsection of Section F, "Ethical Responsibilities," of the Faculty Handbook. However, after reviewing this section, General Counsel informed us that this would be inappropriate for the following reasons:

1. This subsection refers to Federal laws that are historical in nature, while the Policy on Violence is related to state laws and institutional policies.
2. Violations of this subsection are dealt with by very specific federally mandated procedures.
3. The Office of Equity, Diversity, and Immigration Services deals with violations in this subsection, and this would be an inappropriate office for addressing violations of the Policy on Violence.

With input from General Counsel, we are instead suggesting that the Policy on Violence be located in Section F on "Ethical Responsibilities" as a stand-alone policy similar to the Drug-Free Workplace Policy. This raises a few issues:

1. We have included the Policy statement in its entirety instead of including only the first paragraph, as Jim Evans had originally suggested. When we were considering locating the Policy in the Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment subsection it might have been more appropriate to include only the first paragraph. However, as a stand-alone Policy, the entire statement seems relevant and consistent with the other stand-alone policies.
2. We included the statement, "Any person found in violation of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action" because we felt this was consistent with the statement in the Drug-Free Workplace policy.

I hope this summary is helpful to you and other members of Administrative Staff Council who will be reviewing the Policy on Violence. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me (372-7253 or mclloss@bgnet.bgsu.edu). Thank you and members of Administrative Staff Council for your thoughtful consideration of this matter.

Best regards,

Michelle L. Clossick, M.S.
Coordinator, The Transformation Project

SECTION F: ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Faculty members shall follow professional ethical standards in conducting the affairs of the University. These standards are articulated in the Ohio Ethics Law, the Statement on Teaching Responsibilities, the Sexual Harassment Policy, the Racial and Ethnic Harassment Policy, THE POLICY ON VIOLENCE, the Drug-Free Workplace Policy and professional codes of ethics.

1. The Ohio Ethics Law (General Assembly of Ohio, 1973)

The Ohio Ethics Law was enacted in 1973 by the General Assembly to ensure the integrity of government and to improve public confidence in government officials and employees. The following eleven points describe the major provisions of the law:

a) Conflict of Interest. The Ethics Law guards against public officials and employees who would misuse their positions for personal gain or benefit.

Section 102.03 of the Revised Code prohibits persons appointed to or employed by a public agency now or within the past year from appearing before that agency in a representative capacity, the so-called "revolving door." The section also prohibits the disclosure or use for profit of confidential information acquired during public service, and restricts participation in license or rate-making proceedings where personal benefits might be derived. In addition, the section prohibits public servants from using their positions to secure anything of value for themselves.

Section 102.04 prohibits public servants, whether elected, appointed, or employed, from appearing before or selling goods and services to other agencies within the same governmental entity. The section does, however, exempt nonelected public officials and employees from the prohibition if they first declare their intent in the form of a statement filed with both the agency with which they serve and the agency with which the business is to be conducted.

b) Investigations. The Commission responds to complaints and conducts its own investigations into alleged conflicts of interest.

c) Confidentiality. All matters concerning investigations are confidential. If, after a hearing, a complaint is dismissed, the accused person may ask that the matter be made public.

d) Hearings. The Commission conducts hearings on complaints filed with it after it has been determined that the complaint is not frivolous and that there is reasonable cause to believe facts as alleged would constitute a violation.

e) Report of Findings. If the Commission finds, based on a preponderance of the evidence, that a public official has violated the Ethics Law, the evidence is turned over to the appropriate prosecuting authority.

f) Penalties. Persons found guilty under the Ohio Ethics Law may be fined a maximum of $1,000 or imprisoned up to six months or both. Persons required to file a financial disclosure statement, but who fail to do so, face a maximum fine of $250 and up to thirty days' imprisonment.

g) Financial Disclosure. All candidates for public office, except those running for village, township, or school board office, and all elected officials, except those holding village, township, or school board office, are required to file a financial disclosure statement with the appropriate Ethics Commission each year. Also, certain appointed State officials are required to file a disclosure statement. The statement requires that sources of income and other financial interests be disclosed. Most public officials are required to file with their respective Ethics Commission by April 15 each year. Candidates are required to file thirty days prior to the first election in which they appear. Statements are available from any county board of elections or from the Commission.
h) Public Inspection. Financial disclosure statements on file with the Commission are open to public inspection and copies are available on written request.

i) Special Rules. The Ohio Ethics Commission has adopted two rules under its rule-making authority that extend the financial disclosure filing requirement to certain classes of public officials. The first such rule, EC-2, requires the chief administrative officers of about 100 state boards, commissions, and other agencies to file an annual statement. The second rule, EC-3, requires the members of the same boards, commissions, and other agencies to file a disclosure statement.

j) Four Ethics Commissions. The administration of the Ohio Ethics Law is entrusted to four separate agencies, each having a distinct jurisdiction. The House Legislative Ethics Committee and the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee are concerned with candidates for and members and employees of the General Assembly. The Supreme Court Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline is concerned with judicial officers, employees, and candidates for judicial office. The Ohio Ethics Commission has jurisdiction over all other public officials, employees, and candidates for public office under the purview of Chapter 102 of the Revised Code.

k) Advisory Opinions. The Commission issues advisory opinions in response to questions relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure.
2. Teaching Responsibilities

a) Introduction

Generations of teacher-scholars have recognized that membership in the academic profession carries with it special responsibilities. The nature of the educational process, the circumstances necessary to search for truth, and the use, extension, and transmission of knowledge have resulted in various statements of the concept of academic freedom. Always, this demand for freedom has been accompanied by an awareness of a concomitant responsibility, which has been part of the conduct of reasonable, learned, and humane men and women who practice the worthy and dignified profession of teacher-scholar.

Although many aspects of this sense of responsibility have been, and will remain, unwritten and understood, the faculty of BGSU wishes to reaffirm in a formal way its recognition of its special responsibilities as set forth in the following statement.

b) Statement

The faculty of BGSU reaffirms that the following are an accepted part of their responsibilities as teacher-scholars:

(1) The responsibility to assure the student's freedom to learn, through maintaining an atmosphere conducive to free inquiry, the respect of the student as an individual, and the evaluation of students based on professionally judged academic performance without regard to personal or political matters irrelevant to that performance.

(2) The responsibility to exercise intellectual honesty, through the development and improvement of one's scholarly competence, the exercise of critical self-discipline and judgment, and the avoidance of subsidiary interests that compromise or hamper freedom of inquiry.

(3) The responsibility to state clearly the objectives of the courses taught, to direct the instruction toward the fulfillment of these objectives, and to avoid the persistent intrusion of material irrelevant to the established course definition or apart from the faculty member's area of scholarly competence.

(4) The responsibility to participate meaningfully and constructively in the governance of the institution, and the maintenance of high professional standards in the objective evaluation of colleagues.

(5) The responsibility to meet classes and other academic obligations regularly and at scheduled times, to assist in arrangement when emergencies intervene, to maintain reasonable opportunities for student contact and conference, and to provide information on progress and evaluation as part of the student learning experience.

(6) The responsibility to determine the amount and character of the work done outside the institution with due regard to one's paramount responsibility within it.

(7) The responsibility, while acting as a private citizen with the rights and obligations of any citizen, to avoid creating the impression that one speaks or acts for the University.

(8) The responsibility to observe the stated regulations of the institution, but to guard the right to criticize and seek revision peacefully.

2. Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment Policies

Bowling Green State University is committed to providing faculty, staff and students with an environment where they may pursue their careers or studies free from discrimination. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for administering the University's Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment Policies. The office exists, in part, to ensure that all members of the University community understand their responsibility to create and maintain an environment free from discrimination and harassment.

a) Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Bowling Green State University is committed to providing equal employment opportunity. The University prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, age, marital status, disability, or status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for equal opportunity compliance.

b) Equal Education Opportunity Policy

Bowling Green State University is committed to providing equal education opportunity. The University provides access to educational programs and activities without regard to race, sex, sexual orientation, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, age, marital status, disability, or status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. The policy with respect to sexual orientation does not apply to the University's relationships with outside organizations including the federal government, the military, and ROTC. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for equal educational opportunity compliance.

c) Anti-Harassment Policy

Bowling Green State University strives to provide an environment that is free of harassment. The University's policy against discriminatory harassment applies to all faculty, students, staff, contractors, and vendors. The policy covers harassment based on sex, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, age, and status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. Sexual harassment is the subject of a separate policy which is more fully discussed below. Members of the University community should bring problems or questions regarding discriminatory harassment to the attention of the Office of Affirmative Action.

d) Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a violation of Chapter 4112 of the Ohio Revised Code. Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a condition of a person's employment or academic pursuits;

(2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions or academic decisions affecting such individual; or

(3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or education environment.
Members of the University community should bring problems or questions regarding sexual harassment to the attention of the Office of Affirmative Action.

e) Retaliation

Retaliation against members of the Bowling Green State University community who exercise their right to file charges of discrimination or harassment is strictly prohibited by state and federal law and University policy. Retaliation is prohibited whether or not the charging party prevails in the original charge. Subsequent to, or contemporaneous with the charge, no agent of the University may harass, coerce, intimidate, or discriminate against an individual who has filed a complaint or participated in the complaint resolution process. Charges of retaliation will be investigated by the Office of Affirmative Action.

f) Grievance Procedures

The procedures outlined below are designed to provide sufficient flexibility with which to deal with the wide range of incidents that fall under the terms "unlawful harassment or discrimination including sexual, racial, and ethnic harassment." They are intended to be responsive to the situation at hand and will be as formal or informal as the allegations under review indicate.

(1) Procedure for the Complainant

(a) A person who believes that he/she has been unlawfully harassed or discriminated against should contact the Office of Affirmative Action. Staff in this Office will initially discuss the matter with the complainant to ascertain, as fully as possible, the validity of the charges and the scope of the problem. At this time, it will be determined if there is a basis for investigation.

(b) Initial discussions with staff in the Office of Affirmative Action should not make reference to the name of any accused person unless the complainant is ready to file a formal complaint and proceed with an investigation.

(c) Before the Office can begin its investigation, the allegations shall be submitted, in writing, to the Director of Affirmative Action. Until this occurs, the matter will not be discussed with anyone other than the complainant.

(d) An investigation will be conducted by a staff person in the Office of Affirmative Action only if the complainant has filed a formal, written complaint.

(e) The role of the Office of Affirmative Action in the processing of the complaint will include, but is not limited to, the following:

i) consultation with the complainant;

ii) discussion with appropriate persons suggested by the complainant who may have knowledge of the situation and can be of assistance in establishing the facts of complaint;

iii) preparing a complete investigative report of the complaint, including recommendations for resolution, which shall be submitted, in writing, to the Vice President to whom the respondent reports for appropriate administrative action, with copies being sent to the complainant and the respondent.
(f) If the complainant is not satisfied with the action taken by the Vice President, the complainant may appeal, in writing, within seven calendar days of the notification of the Vice President's decision, to the President of the University, who will then review the appeal and respond, in writing, within ten calendar days after receiving the appeal, to all parties—respondent, complainant, Director of Affirmative Action, and the Vice President to whom the respondent reports—concerning the disposition of the appeal.

(2) Procedure for the Respondent

(a) Investigations regarding alleged instances of unlawful harassment and discrimination will be conducted by staff in the Office of Affirmative Action only if a formal, written complaint has been filed with the Director of Affirmative Action.

(b) The role of the Office of Affirmative Action in the processing of the complaint will include, but is not limited to, the following:

   i) consultation with the respondent;

   ii) discussion with appropriate persons suggested by the respondent who may have knowledge of the situation and can be of assistance in establishing the facts of the complaint;

   iii) preparing a complete investigative report of the complaint, including recommendations for resolution, which shall be submitted, in writing, to the Vice President to whom the respondent reports for appropriate administrative action, with copies being sent to the complainant and the respondent. All files of the grievance shall be kept in the Office of Affirmative Action for a minimum of three years. After this three-year period, maintenance of files should be consistent with University policy.

(c) If the respondent is not satisfied with the action taken by the Vice President, the respondent may appeal, in writing, within seven calendar days of the notification of the Vice President's decision, to the President of the University, who will then review the appeal and respond, in writing, within ten calendar days after receiving the appeal, to all parties—respondent, complainant, Director of Affirmative Action, and the Vice President to whom the respondent reports—concerning the disposition of the appeal.

(3) Principles

   In investigating complaints of unlawful harassment and discrimination, the following principles will be adhered to:

   (a) Each complaint will be handled on an individual, case-by-case basis, taking a look at the record as a whole and at the totality of circumstances.

   (b) The investigation will be conducted as fairly and expeditiously as possible.

   (c) In investigating complaints of sexual harassment, confidentiality will be accorded with the utmost respect for both the complainant and the respondent.
(d) A person bringing forth an honestly perceived complaint of sexual harassment will not suffer any type of retaliation regardless of the outcome of the complaint.

(e) The complaint will be resolved in a manner which is consistent with this policy and also fair and equitable to all parties concerned.

4. POLICY ON VIOLENCE

It is the policy of BGSU that acts of violence, threats of violence, or intimidation will not be tolerated. In its mission to become a premier learning institution, BGSU recognizes the importance of providing a safe environment for all its members. In this community, victims/survivors will be treated with dignity and respect. Any persons found in violation of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action. Violators may also be subject to criminal prosecution.

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply. Acts of violence include any exercise of force against another person or against property that could result in physical or emotional harm. Threats of violence include any verbal or non-verbal communication that inflicts harm. Intimidation includes any verbal or non-verbal act towards another person, the purpose of which may be to coerce, and the result of which could cause the other person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others.

In many situations, these actions are also considered criminal acts under the Ohio Revised Code. Acts defined in this subsection include but are not limited to: physical assault or abuse, sexual assault or abuse, stalking, verbal or other threats of physical or sexual assault, threats that may include a weapon, and damage or destruction of another's property.

BGSU is committed to providing education, prevention, advocacy, intervention, and support services which address acts of violence, threats of violence, and intimidation. In addition, the University collaborates with community agencies and professionals in providing services and referrals. All members of the BGSU community are asked to report violations of the policy on violence to appropriate authorities.

4-5. Drug-Free Workplace Policy

In order to ensure the University's commitment to a quality educational and work environment, every faculty member, employee and student has a right to work and learn in an environment free from the effects of abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

Therefore, it is the policy of Bowling Green State University to prohibit the unlawful use, sale, dispensing, transfer, or possession of controlled substances, alcoholic beverages, drugs not medically authorized, or any other substance that may impair an individual's academic or work performance or pose a hazard to the individual, public, students, or employees of the University on its property or at any of its activities.

It is the responsibility of each faculty member, employee and student to adhere to this policy. If a violation of this policy occurs, support programs will be made available where appropriate. Disciplinary action may be taken up to and including dismissal or expulsion from the University and possible criminal prosecution. The University will make appropriate effort to provide rehabilitative support before giving consideration to termination of employment for cause as stipulated in B-I.C.3.c of the Academic Charter and Sect 3345.22-25 of the Ohio Revised Code.
Fact Sheet on the General Education Committee Charter Amendment

- Why are we proposing a Charter Amendment for the General Education Committee?
  1. The General Education Committee at the present time exists outside of the established University Governance System. It is not a standing or ad hoc Faculty Senate Committee, nor is it a standing or ad hoc University Committee.
  2. The General Education Committee at the present time conducts significant business, yet because it is not within the University governance system, it does not elect members from the faculty at-large, or fulfill reporting requirements.

- What are the implications of this Charter Amendment?
  1. The relationship of the General Education Committee to Undergraduate Council and to the Committee on Academic Affairs would be better defined.
  2. The General Education Committee would elect part of its membership from the faculty at-large.
  3. The General Education Committee would fulfill reporting requirements (as required of all standing and ad hoc committees).

- Why should this go into the Charter? Wouldn't this require all University Committees to be incorporated in the Charter?
  1. Because this is an important committee, its role needs to be formalized to some extent. The Senate passed a resolution on this subject back on September 7, 1999, but there is little institutional memory of Senate resolutions from previous years.
  2. Committees and Councils that are defined in the Charter are often accompanied by definition of important subcommittees (for example the FPCC Executive Committee). The Undergraduate Council is defined in the Charter, and the General Education Committee is established as an advisory subcommittee of UGC. This is a clearly defined special case, and would not be analogous to other University standing committees.
Amendment to the Academic Charter:
General Education Committee

Article IX. The Undergraduate Colleges

SECTION H: THE UNDERGRADUATE COUNCIL

1. Membership
The Undergraduate Council shall be composed of twenty-nine members as follows:

a) the VPAA or his/her designee, who shall serve as Chair, ex officio, without vote;

b) fifteen faculty representatives elected from undergraduate colleges apportioned by the number of FTE students generated within each college, with at least one from each college, for three-year staggered terms;

c) one faculty representative elected from Instructional Support Services to serve a three-year term;

d) the Deans of the seven undergraduate colleges;

e) the Dean of Libraries and Learning Resources;

f) the Dean of Continuing Education;

g) one representative appointed by the University department Chairs and school Directors from among the Chairs and Directors; and

h) two undergraduate students appointed by the USG for one-year terms.

When absence from an Undergraduate Council meeting is necessary, a member of the Council may select a substitute who shall be able to participate in discussions and vote.
One such person shall be deemed as a primary alternate for each regular member of the Undergraduate Council. It is the responsibility of the regular member of Council to contact the primary alternate or a substitute whenever an absence is anticipated. The name of the primary alternate shall be given to the Secretary of Undergraduate Council early in each academic year. If neither the member nor the alternate can attend, it is the responsibility of the member to contact a substitute.

2. Recommending and Advising Functions of the Undergraduate Council
The Undergraduate Council shall:

a) formulate the goals and directions of undergraduate education;

b) establish regulations that govern all undergraduate programs, including standards concerning grading, appeals of grades, class attendance, examinations, and academic honesty;

c) monitor all academic functions generating undergraduate academic credit;

d) approve proposals for the establishment, modification, or discontinuance of programs and degrees;

e) review and make recommendations regarding establishment of new instructional units, including departments, schools, colleges, and other instructional units, in accordance with the policies and procedures set forth in I-M, X-M, and X-G;

f) ensure that review and evaluation of all undergraduate programs are conducted periodically;

g) review and approve academic reconfiguration proposals pursuant to X-V.C; and

h) report regularly to the Faculty Senate through the CAA on the issues discussed and the actions taken.
The Undergraduate Council may also consider any academic matters of concern to undergraduate students and faculty. Subcommittees of the Undergraduate Council are appointed by the Chair as required and subject to approval by the Undergraduate Council. The General Education Committee is established as a University Standing Committee that serves an advisory function for the Undergraduate Council in accordance with Article V, Section B. (V.B.)

3. Program and Policies Approval

Proposed degree programs shall be approved, in turn, by the faculty of the department, school, or program concerned, the appropriate curriculum council of the school or college, and the Undergraduate Council. Prior to submission of any proposals, a realistic resource requirement statement shall be submitted to the VPPB, who shall prepare a resource impact analysis of the proposal and request that FSBC/UCB review and comment on the analysis. The analysis shall accompany the proposal throughout the review process. The action is then forwarded to the CAA for review and, where there are policy matters, for transmittal to the Faculty Senate.

All academic policies adopted by the Undergraduate Council are subject to approval by the Faculty Senate. Those policies with resource implications, accompanied by a realistic resource requirements statement, shall be submitted to the VPPB, who shall prepare a resource impact analysis of the proposal and request that FSBC/UCB review and comment on the analysis. The analysis shall accompany the proposal throughout the review process. When a program or policy has been approved by the Faculty Senate, it shall be forwarded through the VPAA to the President, who shall forward it to the Board of Trustees, together with written statements indicating Presidential support or nonsupport.

Amended and Approved by the Committee on Academic Affairs on April 3, 2002.
Amended and Approved by the Senate Executive Committee on April 23, 2002.
Resolution Establishing a General Education Committee as an Undergraduate Council Subcommittee

WHEREAS, the General Education Committee was established to determine the University requirements for students regarding liberal general education, and:

WHEREAS, the General Education Committee is in need of a more rapid implementation of changes and courses to fulfill the requirements, and:

WHEREAS, there is a need for a mechanism to allow faculty input and to facilitate communication between the General Education Committee and faculty, and:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the General Education Committee will become a subcommittee of the UGC and its decisions and recommendations will be reviewed by the UGC and the CAA, and its policies will be approved by the UGC and the Senate through the CAA, and:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the subcommittee will be composed of:

- ten members of whom:
  1. six are elected from the membership of Undergraduate Council;
  2. three are appointed by the Chair of Undergraduate Council, with the recommendation of the Council;
  3. one is the Director of General Education (ex officio and non-voting). All will have three-year, staggered terms, except for the ex officio member. If elected members of the General Education Committee move off Undergraduate Council, they may serve out their term on the General Education Committee. The Chair of Undergraduate Council must make appointments in a manner that ensures each of the following is represented on the committee: Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Education and Human Development, Business Administration, Technology, Musical Arts, Health and Human Services, Libraries and Learning Resources, and Fine Arts. Current members will serve out their terms. Additions to the General Education Committee will follow the scheme of one member appointed for each two members elected, and:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that:

1) The nine elected and appointed members elect a Chair from among themselves, who will serve a term equal to his or her remaining term on the General Education Committee. Any individual may serve no more than two consecutive terms as Chair.
2) The voting members of the General Education Committee are to serve as a policy-making and curriculum-review body.
3) All policy issues passed by the General Education Committee must be approved, in turn, by Undergraduate Council and Faculty Senate. Review and approval of particular courses for the general education curriculum is the jurisdiction of the General Education Committee.
4) The Director of General Education is to implement policy and curricular decisions.

Approved by Senate Executive Committee on August 31, 1999
Approved by Faculty Senate on Sept. 7, 1999
Fact Sheet on Policy on Violence
Charter Amendment

- Haven't we talked about this issue before? Can we consider it again?
  1. Yes, on February 5, 2002 the Faculty Senate failed to approve an earlier version of the Policy on Violence by a vote of 24-19. As a Charter Amendment for Section B-II., approval required 2/3rds affirmative vote of all Senators present (38 at that time).
  2. Yes, we can consider this issue a second time. Robert's Rules of Order specify that substantially the same question can not be considered more than once during the same session, with a few exceptions that do not apply in this case (such as "reconsideration"). However, a motion may be "renewed" at a future meeting if it is substantially reworded or if circumstances regarding the motion have changed.

- In this case, how were parliamentary concerns addressed?
  1. The Policy on Violence Committee worked for several months to address the concerns expressed by Senators at the February 5th Senate Meeting. Members of the committee met with individuals Senators as part of this process.
  2. A revised version of the Policy on Violence was submitted to the Senate Executive Committee as a proposed Charter Amendment.
  3. The Senate Executive Committee evaluated the original and revised versions, and ruled that the revised version met all criteria of Robert's Rules of Order for "renewal of the motion."
  4. The SEC asked the Committee on Academic Affairs to evaluate whether or not the proposed Policy on Violence created academic freedom or freedom of speech issues. CAA responded that, in their judgement, no such issues exist with the proposed Policy on Violence.

- Why do we need the Policy on Violence in the Charter?
  1. Because physical violence is a serious issue on college campuses nationally, and this University needs to take a public stand on the issue.
  2. Because having a policy means an allocation of effort and resources towards education on the issue, prevention, counseling, and assistance to victims.
  3. Because violence is an issue that may or may not overlap with discrimination, harassment, or other jurisdictional issues specifically addressed in the Charter.
  4. Because the purpose of the Academic Charter is to provide guidance.
SECTION F: ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Faculty members shall follow professional ethical standards in conducting the affairs of the University. These standards are articulated in the Ohio Ethics Law, the Statement on Teaching Responsibilities, the Sexual Harassment Policy, the Racial and Ethnic Harassment Policy, THE POLICY ON VIOLENCE, the Drug-Free Workplace Policy and professional codes of ethics.

1. The Ohio Ethics Law (General Assembly of Ohio, 1973)

The Ohio Ethics Law was enacted in 1973 by the General Assembly to ensure the integrity of government and to improve public confidence in government officials and employees. The following eleven points describe the major provisions of the law:

a) Conflict of Interest. The Ethics Law guards against public officials and employees who would misuse their positions for personal gain or benefit.

Section 102.02 of the Revised Code prohibits persons appointed to or employed by a public agency now or within the past year from appearing before that agency in a representative capacity, the so-called "revolving door." The section also prohibits the disclosure or use for profit of confidential information acquired during public service, and restricts participation in license or rate-making proceedings where personal benefits might be derived. In addition, the section prohibits public servants from using their positions to secure anything of value for themselves.

Section 102.04 prohibits public servants, whether elected, appointed, or employed, from appearing before or selling goods and services to other agencies within the same governmental entity. The section does, however, exempt non-elected public officials and employees from the prohibition if they first declare their intent in the form of a statement filed with both the agency with which they serve and the agency with which the business is to be conducted.

b) Investigations. The Commission responds to complaints and conducts its own investigations into alleged conflicts of interest.

c) Confidentiality. All matters concerning investigations are confidential. If, after a hearing, a complaint is dismissed, the accused person may ask that the matter be made public.

d) Hearings. The Commission conducts hearings on complaints filed with it after it has been determined that the complaint is not frivolous and that there is reasonable cause to believe the facts as alleged would constitute a violation.

e) Report of Findings. If the Commission finds, based on a preponderance of the evidence, that a public official has violated the Ethics Law, the evidence is turned over to the appropriate prosecuting authority.

f) Penalties. Persons found guilty under the Ohio Ethics Law may be fined a maximum of $1,000 or imprisoned up to six months or both. Persons required to file a financial disclosure statement, but who fail to do so, face a maximum fine of $250 and up to thirty days' imprisonment.

g) Financial Disclosure. All candidates for public office, except those running for village, township, or school board office, and all elected officials, except those holding village, township, or school board office, are required to file a financial disclosure statement with the appropriate Ethics Commission each year. Also, certain appointed State officials are required to file a disclosure statement. The statement requires that sources of income and other financial interests be disclosed.
Most public officials are required to file with their respective Ethics Commission by April 15 each year. Candidates are required to file thirty days prior to the first election in which they appear. Statements are available from any county board of elections or from the Commission.

h) Public Inspection. Financial disclosure statements on file with the Commission are open to public inspection and copies are available on written request.

i) Special Rules. The Ohio Ethics Commission has adopted two rules under its rulemaking authority that extend the financial disclosure filing requirement to certain classes of public officials. The first such rule, EC-2, requires the chief administrative officers of about 100 state boards, commissions, and other agencies to file an annual statement. The second rule, EC-3, requires the members of the same boards, commissions, and other agencies to file a disclosure statement.

j) Four Ethics Commissions. The administration of the Ohio Ethics Law is entrusted to four separate agencies, each having a distinct jurisdiction. The House Legislative Ethics Committee and the Senate Legislative Ethics Committee are concerned with candidates for and members and employees of the General Assembly. The Supreme Court Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline is concerned with judicial officers, employees, and candidates for judicial office. The Ohio Ethics Commission has jurisdiction over all other public officials, employees, and candidates for public offices under the purview of Chapter 102 of the Revised Code.

k) Advisory Opinions. The Commission issues advisory opinions in response to questions relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and financial disclosure.

2. Teaching Responsibilities

a) Introduction. Generations of teacher-scholars have recognized that membership in the academic profession carries with it special responsibilities. The nature of the educational process, the circumstances necessary to search for truth, and the use, extension, and transmission of knowledge have resulted in various statements of the concept of academic freedom. Always, this demand for freedom has been accompanied by an awareness of a concomitant responsibility, which has been part of the conduct of reasonable, learned, and humane men and women who practice the worthy and dignified profession of teacher-scholar.

Although many aspects of this sense of responsibility have been, and will remain, unwritten and understood, the faculty of BGSU wishes to reaffirm in a formal way its recognition of its special responsibilities as set forth in the following statement.

b) Statement. The faculty of BGSU reaffirms that the following are an accepted part of their responsibilities as teacher-scholars:

(1) The responsibility to assure the student's freedom to learn, through maintaining an atmosphere conducive to free inquiry, the respect of the student as an individual, and the evaluation of students based on professionally judged academic performance without regard to personal or political matters irrelevant to that performance.
(2) The responsibility to exercise intellectual honesty, through the development and improvement of one's scholarly competence, the exercise of critical self-discipline and judgment, and the avoidance of subsidiary interests that compromise or hamper freedom of inquiry.

(3) The responsibility to state clearly the objectives of the courses taught, to direct the instruction toward the fulfillment of these objectives, and to avoid the persistent intrusion of material irrelevant to the established course definition or apart from the faculty member's area of scholarly competence.

(4) The responsibility to participate meaningfully and constructively in the governance of the institution, and the maintenance of high professional standards in the objective evaluation of colleagues.

(5) The responsibility to meet classes and other academic obligations regularly and at scheduled times, to assist in arrangements when emergencies intervene, to maintain reasonable opportunities for student contact and conference, and to provide information on progress and evaluation as part of the student learning experience.

(6) The responsibility to determine the amount and character of the work done outside the institution with due regard to one's paramount responsibility within it.

(7) The responsibility, while acting as a private citizen with the rights and obligations of any citizen, to avoid creating the impression that one speaks or acts for the University.

(8) The responsibility to observe the stated regulations of the institution, but to guard the right to criticize and seek revision peacefully.

3. Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment Policies
Bowling Green State University is committed to providing faculty, staff, and students with an environment where they may pursue their careers or studies free from discrimination. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for administering the University's Equal Opportunity and Anti-Harassment Policies. The office exists, in part, to ensure that all members of the University community understand their responsibility to create and maintain an environment free from discrimination and harassment.

a) Equal Employment Opportunity Policy. Bowling Green State University is committed to providing equal employment opportunity. The University prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, age, marital status, disability, or status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for equal opportunity compliance.

b) Equal Education Opportunity Policy. Bowling Green State University is committed to providing equal educational opportunity. The University provides access to educational programs and activities without regard to race, sex, sexual orientation, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, age, marital status, disability, or status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. The policy with respect to sexual orientation does not apply to the University's relationships with outside organizations including the federal government, the military, and ROTC. The Office of Affirmative Action is responsible for equal educational opportunity compliance.

c) Anti-Harassment Policy.
Bowling Green State University strives to provide an environment that is free of harassment. The University's policy against discriminatory harassment applies to all faculty, students, staff, contractors, and vendors. The policy covers harassment based on sex, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, age, and status as a special disabled or Vietnam-era veteran. Sexual harassment is the subject of a separate policy which is more fully discussed below. Members of the University community should bring problems or questions regarding discriminatory harassment to the attention of the Office of Affirmative Action.

d) Sexual Harassment. Sexual harassment is a violation of Chapter 4112 of the Ohio Revised Code, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment or academic pursuits;
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions or academic decisions affecting such individual; or e) Retaliation. Retaliation against members of the Bowling Green State University community who exercise their right to file charges of discrimination or harassment is strictly prohibited by state and federal law and University policy. Retaliation is prohibited whether or not the charging party prevails in the original charge. Subsequent to, or contemporaneous with the charge, no agent of the University may harass, coerce, intimidate, or discriminate against an individual who has filed a complaint or participated in the complaint resolution process. Charges of retaliation will be investigated by the Office of Affirmative Action.
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment.

Members of the University community should bring problems or questions regarding sexual harassment to the attention of the Office of Affirmative Action.

Grievance Procedures: The procedures outlined below are designed to provide sufficient flexibility with which to deal with the wide range of incidents that fall under the terms "unlawful harassment or discrimination including sexual, racial, and ethnic harassment." They are intended to be responsive to the situation at hand and will be as formal or informal as the allegations under review indicate.

(1) Procedure for the Complainant

(a) A person who believes that he/she has been unlawfully harassed or discriminated against should contact the Office of Affirmative Action. Staff in this Office will initially discuss the matter with the complainant to ascertain, as fully as possible, the validity of the charges and the scope of the problem. At this time, it will be determined if there is a basis for investigation.

(b) Initial discussions with staff in the Office of Affirmative Action should not make reference to the name of any accused person unless the complainant is ready to file a formal complaint and proceed with an investigation.

(c) Before the Office can begin its investigation, the allegations shall be submitted, in writing, to the Director of Affirmative Action. Until this occurs, the matter will not be discussed with anyone other than the complainant.

(d) An investigation will be conducted by a staff person in the Office of Affirmative Action only if the complainant has filed a formal, written complaint.

(e) The role of the Office of Affirmative Action in the processing of the complaint will include, but is not limited to, the following:
   i) consultation with the complainant;
   ii) discussion with appropriate persons suggested by the complainant who may have knowledge of the situation and can be of assistance in establishing the facts of complaint;
   iii) preparing a complete investigative report of the complaint, including recommendations for resolution, which shall be submitted, in writing, to the Vice President to whom the respondent reports for appropriate administrative action, with copies being sent to the complainant and the respondent.

(f) If the complainant is not satisfied with the action taken by the Vice President, the complainant may appeal, in writing, within seven calendar days of the notification of the Vice President's decision, to the President of the University, who will then review the appeal and respond, in writing, within ten calendar days after receiving the appeal, to all parties—respondent, complainant, Director of Affirmative Action, and the Vice President to whom the respondent reports—concerning the disposition of the appeal.
(2) Procedure for the Respondent.

(a) Investigations regarding alleged instances of unlawful harassment and discrimination will be conducted by staff in the Office of Affirmative Action only if a formal, written complaint has been filed with the Director of Affirmative Action.

(b) The role of the Office of Affirmative Action in the processing of the complaint will include, but is not limited to, the following:
   i) consultation with the respondent;
   ii) discussion with appropriate persons suggested by the respondent who may have knowledge of the situation and can be of assistance in establishing the facts of the complaint;
   iii) preparing a complete investigative report of the complaint, including recommendations for resolution, which shall be submitted, in writing, to the Vice President to whom the respondent reports for appropriate administrative action, with copies being sent to the complainant and the respondent. All files of the grievance shall be kept in the Office of Affirmative Action for a minimum of three years. After this three-year period, maintenance of files should be consistent with University policy.

(c) If the respondent is not satisfied with the action taken by the Vice President, the respondent may appeal, in writing, within seven calendar days of the notification of the Vice President's decision, to the President of the University, who will then review the appeal and respond, in writing, within ten calendar days after receiving the appeal, to all parties—respondent, complainant, Director of Affirmative Action, and the Vice President to whom the respondent reports—concerning the disposition of the appeal.

(3) Principles

In investigating complaints of unlawful harassment and discrimination, the following principles will be adhered to:

(a) Each complaint will be handled on an individual, case-by-case basis, taking a look at the record as a whole and at the totality of circumstances.

(b) The investigation will be conducted as fairly and expeditiously as possible.

(c) In investigating complaints of sexual harassment, confidentiality will be accorded with the utmost respect for both the complainant and the respondent.

(d) A person bringing forth an honestly perceived complaint of sexual harassment will not suffer any type of retaliation regardless of the outcome of the complaint.
4. POLICY ON VIOLENCE

IT IS THE POLICY OF BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY THAT ACTS OF VIOLENCE, THREATS OF VIOLENCE, OR INTIMIDATION WILL NOT BE TOLERATED. BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY RECOGNIZES THE IMPORTANCE OF PROVIDING A SAFE ENVIRONMENT FOR ALL ITS MEMBERS. IN THIS COMMUNITY, VICTIMS/SURVIVORS WILL BE TREATED WITH DIGNITY AND RESPECT. ANY PERSONS FOUND IN VIOLATION OF THIS POLICY MAY BE SUBJECT TO DISCIPLINARY ACTION (B-II.F.3 AND B-I.E). VIOLATORS MAY ALSO BE SUBJECT TO CRIMINAL PROSECUTION.

4.5. Drug-Free Workplace Policy

In order to ensure the University's commitment to a quality educational and work environment, every faculty member, employee and student has a right to work and learn in an environment free from the effects of abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

Therefore, it is the policy of Bowling Green State University to prohibit the unlawful use, sale, dispensing, transfer, or possession of controlled substances, alcoholic beverages, drugs not medically authorized, or any other substance that may impair an individual's academic or work performance or pose a hazard to the individual, public, students, or employees of the University on its property or at any of its activities.

It is the responsibility of each faculty member, employee and student to adhere to this policy. If a violation of this policy occurs, support programs will be made available where appropriate. Disciplinary action may be taken up to and including dismissal or expulsion from the University and possible criminal prosecution. The University will make appropriate effort to provide rehabilitative support before giving consideration to termination of employment for cause as stipulated in B-I.C.3.c) of the Academic Charter and Sect. 3345.22-25 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Approved for Renewal of the Motion, by the Senate Executive Committee on March 19, 2002, and committed to the Committee on Academic Affairs for review.

Approved by the Committee on Academic Affairs on March 27, 2002.

Approved by the Senate Executive Committee on April 25, 2002.
