REMEMBER ALUMNI DAY

June 15! We are planning on meeting all the graduates of Bowling Green State Normal College on that day and having a genuine good time together.

We shall have a fine ball game in the afternoon between the alumni and the college team. Who'll win? Come and see.

Bring a shave, N. C. spirit with you and cheer for the right team.

At 6:30 we shall assemble in the dining room of Williams Hall and recall our pleasant days spent in Bowling Green while we enjoy a real dinner together. Several of the alumni have very definite ideas in mind which will help in our organization and plans to keep in touch with each other. These people will be given an opportunity to tell us their plans and make their suggestions. After these talks have been made we should be thoroughly prepared to perfect an active alumni organization.

Following the dinner hour they shall have opportunities for the purpose of which will be to get as many of the alumni be more conducive to true college spirit and enthusiasm than any of the activities of the day. Those of us who have been summer school students in our alma mater know what a rare treat this music will be.

This whole evening will be spent in the gymnasium where the orchestra will lead us in expressing our joy and love for Bowling Green.

Commencement exercises will be held the following morning and we hope many will plan to remain for the ceremonies and activities of graduation day.

You will receive announcements of Alumni Day soon. Please reply promptly in order that the committee can make definite plans for you.

SECOND ANNUAL MEN'S HOP

The Second Annual Men's Hop was staged by the men students of the college in the gymnasium on April 22, 1921. The gymnasium was artistically and attractively decorated in green and gold, the men's college colors. Balloons, which will, for many of the alumni be more conducive to true college spirit and enthusiasm than any of the activities of the day. Those of us who have been summer school students in our alma mater know what a rare treat this music will be.

In the afternoon and evening of the second day the Symphony Orch. gave two concerts, the afternoon performance being a children's concert which they certainly enjoyed. In the evening the organization played one of the heavier numbers and under the direction of Nikolai Sokoloff they played with unusual technique and harmony.

Musical critics declare the 1921 Festival a great success.

MAY FESTIVAL

The seventh annual music festival on May 4th and 5th of this year proved to be the equal of any that has been given. Both nights the concert was far beyond the greatest expectations of the college and community. And the afternoon performance for school children was wonderful.

Professor Ernest Hassler, Baritone, former head of the Department of music in B. G. N. C., and James Hamilton, Tenor, took the solo parts for the initial performance. Prof. Hassler was the founder of the College-Community chorus and it was very courteous for Prof. Tunnell to request him to take part in this year's festival. Prof. Hassler's voice has improved greatly and his songs were rendered in an exceedingly pleasing manner. Bowling Green people all enjoy his singing.

Mr. Hamilton, the tenor soloist, from Chicago, thoroughly entertained the audience in his singing. His high tenor voice and wonderful dramatic ability were greatly appreciated. He was encored several times as was Prof. Hassler.

The chorus work can easily be said to have equaled any previous attempt to interpret the work of any composer. Prof. R. M. Tunnell gave the singers in full control and each attack and release was simultaneously made by them. The words were distinct and the musical talent of this community was exceedingly well trained.

The chorus was aided by an orchestra of twelve Bowling Green musicians that proved a great addition to the Festival. It is hoped that this orchestra will become a permanent organization as a part of the festival chorus.

Miss Light accompanied the chorus and soloists during the evening. She continued to play as splendidly as she has always done.

In the afternoon and evening of the second day the Sinfonietta Orch. gave two concerts, the afternoon performance being a children's concert which they certainly enjoyed. In the evening the organization played one of the heavier numbers and under the direction of Nikolai Sokoloff they played with unusual technique and harmony.

Musical critics declare the 1921 Festival a great success.

A Thriller.

Last night I held a hand in mine
It was so small and sweet,
I tho't my heart would surely break
So loud did it beat.
No other hand into my heart
Can greater rapture bring,
Than the little hand I held last night—
Four acres and a king.

LAST NUMBER ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

Owing to the serious illness of Olive Kline and the cancellation of all her engagements for the remainder of this season, the Entertainent Course committee has been forced to substitute Ottille Schillig for the concert on May 19th. Miss Schillig is one of the best known and most promising of the younger sopranos in this country. She had been engaged by the committee for next year's course and agreed to come this year instead. The joint recital of Miss Schillig and Salvatore de Stefano, Harpist, on May 19th, should be attended by every student of the college.

EDITORIAL

It is very pleasing to the Bee Gee staff the way in which the students of the college are contributing to their paper. Material for the Commencement Number is rapidly accumulating. With the continued cooperation of the students the Bee Gee staff will be able to issue a first class twenty-four-page Souvenir Number, something well worth while.

This number of the Bee Gee News will contain thirty half-page pictures of the different societies and the athletic teams of the college. Under each picture will be a summary of their year's work. One or two pages will be devoted to snapshots.

It is necessary that all material be in not later than the first of June. The editor assures you that no poems, short stories or jokes will be selected until about the middle of May. Some students have twice the working capacity of others and yet some are doing twice as much as others./Rather some have twice the working capacity of others and there is too much time spent in random activity.

The purpose of this article is to welcome you to B. G. N. C. and to encourage you to contribute to the traditions of our college. Before you pursue this course very long you will find for yourself that it is more pleasurable to give than to receive.

TRACK! TRACK! MORE TRACK!!!

How many are going to Bluffton Saturday, May 21st, 1921 to see B. G. N. C. romp away with all the honors at the track meet?
Let's all go!

We have a "long" list of candidates for a long list of events. The boys will represent Bowling Green. Who will he be?
Are you back of him? You ought to be, no matter who it may be. Girls! you will be proud of him some time. That time is not far off when he will return to Bowling Green burdened with honors, medals and trophies of all descriptions.

The track candidates have been getting in early in order to receive ample sleep, refusing to eat all sweet foods such as April, ice cream, ice cream and cake and refusing to smoke in order to get into condition for the meet.

These are a few of the requirements of the track candidates and surely if they can undergo such inconveniences and hardships for the honor of their school, you ought at least furnish a little pep and spirit for the team.

What do you say? Lets go!!!

BOOK AND MOTOR

The Book and Motor Society is raising a loan fund for needy students. The first money was raised by selling candy and pop- corn after lecture. The members present pennants are being made and sold at a price ranging from seventy-five cents to one and one-half dollars. Orders may be given to any member of the society. Des signs may be seen in the glass case near the office.

The girls of the gym class performed a minuet on the circle in front of the Administration building. Prof. Byerman had charge of this. Next came this: the auditorium under the direction of Prof. Rea McCain. It was on the life of Shakespeare. Prof. Carnichael took the part of Shakespeares and did some very clever acting.

A SONNET

The time has come when joyous Spring is here,
And birds are coming back from far and near,
And plants are springing into new-born life;
And baseball teams begin their annual strife.
And the poor boy at his drudgery at school,
Because his mind is far so far away
Upon friends recently.

"Henry."

CHAPEL

The chapel exercises on April 19 were turned over to the music department. The Girls' Sextette and the Male Quartet sang several selections.

After the usual devotional exercises and charge. For several moments he made announcements, Prof. R. M. Tunnicliffe took their usual place and sang a song of the National Anthem. Then followed the regular program:

Dr. Cherington—Sextette

Drink to Me Only—Quartet

Solo—Donna Rae

Shoogy Sho—Sextette

Putnam—Quartet

The sextette and quartet have been working hard and are certainly a credit to the college. We shall hear more from them this year.

On April 26 Prof. Kimmel took charge of the chapel exercises.

Dr. Cherington, of the Methodist church, favored the students by delivering an address on "Interdependence," It was very interesting by its method and presented the idea that individuals and even nations are dependent upon one another.

Miles Edison depends upon others to carry out his ideas. The coal dealers depend upon railway companies for transportation. China depends upon the United States and other countries for aid in time of famine.

"In all ages we find a certain amount of dependence. At the present time this dependence is broader than ever before. We are beginning to realize that no man can live to himself. 'Every one is to a certain extent his brother's keeper.' If every one in this world would be unwilling to help others and would only look out for himself it would indeed be a very selfish world,

On May 3 the Chapel exercises were devoted to the presentation of a lesson on appreciation in music. Prof. Tunnicliffe explained to the students the real meaning of a symphony and in order that all students attending the May Festival would have some idea as to what to expect. Miss Light discussed the various vocal solos to be sung.

Every effort has been made to have a well-balanced program which all can enjoy.

On May 10th the auditorium was crowded with students due to the opening of the Spring term. Miss Light sang two very beautiful songs which were greatly enjoyed by all. Dr. Williams welcomed the new students to B. G. N. C. and encouraged them to get a good start. He said, "If you are just starting out on your college career it would be better for you to get good grades.

In order to do this it will be necessary for you to arrange a well-balanced program and not attempt to carry too many hours of work. Many superintendents ask for your record at college, so it is up to you to make this record acceptable."

"Fresbie"—"Mr. Moseley, what would you say was the deadliest language?"—Mr. Moseley (after deep thought)—"What you have!"

"Weaver"—"Walter, a little bird told me this coffee was not strained."

"Walter"—"Good—let's have some.

"Weaver"—"Yes, a swallow."

EMERSON LITERARY SOCIETY

May 2, 1921.—The Emerson Literary Society held a weiner roast in honor of their athletic and literary contestants, on the campus. The weiners were roasted over a large bonfire. Hot chocolate was served with the sandwiches. After the "eaters" the members played games, and then held a council of war. Poppy and appropriate speeches on the much-looked-forward-to contest with the Wilsonians were made by Arline Poe, Charles Claus, Ruby Siggins, and Dr. Kohl. The society is determined to duplicate its victory in baseball by winning the coming baseball and tennis games, track meet and literary contest. Date of the literary contest is May 27th. Constitution of preparation is being made by every entry and victory should be the reward.

WILSONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The Wilsonian Literary Society met in room 315 Tuesday evening, May 3rd, 1921. A large number were present. Those answering the roll were favored by the following program: Songs by the society. (The following speeches were delivered)—Track, Harry King's Oratory, Lloyd Miller; Girls' Track Stella Baker; Girls' Basketball, Martha Lee Thompson.

The purpose of this program was to boost athletics, not only in the literary society, but in the college as well. If every other organization would put as much "pep" into their activities as the Wilsonian Literary Society does, in an attempt to help produce a winning varsity team in each form of athletics, the college would meet with more success in that line of work.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY

On May 26 the Dramatic Society, under the direction of Prof. Rea McCain, will present the play "Green Stockings." It is a three-act comedy written by A. E. W. Mason.

BASE BALL

On April 22nd, the Normals opened their 1921 baseball season at Findlay with Findlay College as their opponent.

From the beginning it was seen that the game served merely as practice for the Normal nine as they scored in every inning except the last. It was only in the seventh inning that Findlay seemed dangerous. The final score was 9-8 in Findlay's favor.

The pitching of Wittmer featured the game as he fanned fifteen men and at the end of the game seemed to be pitching fully as strong as at the beginning. McMann did well at bat. The infield worked well together, the outfield having little to do defensively, due to Wittmer's pitching.

The team received a good workout and found to some extent where their defects were. The summary:

BOWLING GREEN AT BLUFFTON

On May 6th, the team suffered their first defeat at the hands of Bluffton College at Bowling Green. The game was nip and tuck throughout with Bowling Green looking the best of the two nine innings until the last inning when Bluffton came through with three runs and won the game.

McMann pitched the first five innings for Bowling Green and did well. This was his first game in the box. Wittmer took up the mound duty in the sixth, and with him moving down the opposing batters in one, two, three order, the Normals battled themselves into the lead and at the beginning of the ninth inning the score was 8-6 in Bowling Green's favor.

In the ninth a few lucky hits mixed with some errors caused Bluffton to snatch the lead and win the game. The final score was 9-8 in Bluffton's favor.

The team played their best game of the season to date, showing much better batting than in the previous games. Raberding played a good game in the box and won the game.

Throughout the game B. G. had men on the bases, but the necessary hit was always lacking. A return game will be played in Toledo, May 18th. The summary follows:

BOWLING GREEN—Bluffton

The Defiance game was cancelled on account of rain and Toledo "U" opened the home season on May 4th. The game proved to be the best and longest ever played on the college field. Due to darkness the game was called at the end of the thirteenth inning with the score standing 4-4.

Toledo took the lead in the first inning, scoring two hits, which B. G. evened in the third. In the fourth and sixth innings, Toledo added one run to their total and B. G. evened it with two in the sixth. During the last seven innings, the game was a pitchers' battle between Wittmer and Jacka, no hits or runs being made by either team.

Throughout the game B. G. had men on the bases, but the necessary hit was always lacking. A return game will be played in Toledo, May 18th. The summary follows:
