Showtime: David Nevins

Suzanna Thallman

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/mclp

Recommended Citation

https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/mclp/18

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the School of Media and Communication at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Media Company Leader Presentations by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
David Nevins
President & CEO of Showtime
Showtime Background

- Is a Premium Cable and Satellite TV network
- Content includes newly released motion pictures, original TV series, sports, comedies, and other TV oriented movies
- Launched in 1976
- First program launched was a concert special called “Celebration”
- Is available to 29.7 million households in the U.S.
Nevins Background

- B.A. in American Studies From Amherst
- Telemarketer for Time Life Books
- L.A. is the move!
- Assistant storyteller for TV Producer Lewis Chesler
- SVP of Primetime Series at NBC- drama development
- Fox Programming Executive- oversaw everyone, “24”
- President of Imagine Television- “Friday Night Lights”
- Showtime! Entertainment Chief → President
Notable Accomplishments

- NBC - Creation of Law and Order
- FOX - Emmy and Golden Globe Award for “24”
- Imagine - Emmy Award and Outstanding Comedy Series, for “Arrested Development”, Outstanding Drama Series for “24”
- “Friday Night Lights” received honors from the American Film Institute for Television Program of the Year, George Foster Peabody Award, and Emmy Award
- Showtime - “Homeland” first network show to win an emmy for best drama, emmy nominated series
Goals For Showtime

- “Crack 20 million subscribers” → 24 million
- More male viewers
- “Best shows, the best writers, and the best actors”
- “Playground for “storytellers”
- Always looking for the “yes” network buyer → subscribers
- Diversify the lineup “niche in the premium space, we can do anything”
- Create shows with “multiple tones” vs. singularly focused ex: Shameless
- Move deeper into sports, reality and late night documentaries - more adult content
- “A healthy network is always in a constant state of renewal”
Fun Stuff About Nevins

● He likes a chick flick more than anything
● Would rather be anything than boring
● Occasionally runs red lights, because “it’s fun to be naughty”
● One of his favorite shows is Project Runway