To the Alumni of the Bowling Green State University:—

The Board of Trustees, the faculty and the 1600 members of the student body welcome you back to the campus today. We know and appreciate your sacrifice and interest. There are and must be four agencies at work to make this a great university, — a strong faculty; an intelligent, earnest student body; an adequate, up-to-date physical plant, and finally, an enthusiastic and devoted alumni group. This last is of prime importance. We ever need your active aid in making Bowling Green State University serve in the largest possible way this state and nation. In return, such service will give you increasing pride in your Alma Mater. Please be happy with us this day and return often to us.

Cordially yours,
F. J. PROUT, President

Hi

MEET THE FALCON COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Harry Ockerman in the midst of his sixth year at the helm of the gridiron destinies of Bowling Green State University and in that time there has been a constant improvement in the local football teams and in the calibre of the opposition met. Harry is popular among the footballers and is held in high esteem by the alumni.

Today's game brings Harry into conflict with his former college coach, E. J. Rynearson, of Michigan Normal. After Ockerman graduated at that school he was assistant coach under “Rynie” for eight years and so the rivalry that has developed between Bee Gee and Ypsi is more than just an ordinary one. Since Ockerman has been in Bowling Green the Falcons have won 2, lost 1 and tied 1 with the Hurons.

Assistant Coach Budd Cox, a former Ohio State end, does the line coaching and scouting and has been a valuable aide in his two years here. Budd is the varsity swimming coach during the winter.

A new addition to the staff is Fred Marsh, a graduate of Bowling Green State, who is Freshman coach this year after several years as assistant coach at B.G.Hi. Fred was one of the best guards ever produced by the Falcons. He will also be Frosh basketball and track coach.

The trainer of the gridders is Joe Glanders, a graduate assistant finishing his masters degree. Joe came from Sandusky where his work was so essential in the success of teams under Coach Bob Whittacre.

Assisting Fred Marsh with the promising Freshman squad this year are two B.G. gridders who need no introduction. Student assistants LaMar Knecht, All-Ohio guard for two years, and Mike Kormazis, All-American Greek team end for two years.
Miss Helen Sturgeon, of Mansfield, center above, reigns over the festivities of the annual Homecoming here this week-end. Miss Sturgeon is a Junior and a member of the Seven Sister sorority.

THE FALCON BAND

Bowling Green State University’s band this year is under the direction of Prof. E. E. Smith, who succeeded Prof. Charles F. Church, Jr., this fall following the latter’s resignation to study for his doctorate.

Miss Jane Shaw, of Fostoria, is the Drum Majorette in charge of the marching band while she is ably assisted by two Freshmen, Max Ihrig, of Montpelier and Dow Mitchell, of Wayne, Mich.

The guest high school band for the day is from Bowling Green high school and is under the direction of Winchester Richard.

KENT STATE HERE NOVEMBER 2ND

One of the best football games of the season is slated to be played on the local gridiron on November 2nd when her sister school, Kent State University, comes to play the Falcons in the 12th annual renewal of the traditional classic. A keen rivalry exists.

Bee Gee has won 4 games, Kent three and four have been tied. Last year the Falcons plastered Kent 34 to 0 to score her first win over the Flashes since 1927. But this year the visitors are topping the state rankings to date with four straight wins and no defeats and it is doubtful if they will be stopped before they meet Bowling Green.

It is the last home game of the season.

PLAYING IT SAFE

"With the ball inside your own thirty yard line, kick on third down."

This is one of the sound principles of football strategy. It doesn’t pay to take the unnecessary chance of a fumble or a blocked kick, deep in your own territory.

When you look for a bank to entrust with your money, you want an institution that is run on sound principles of banking practice that have been established over the years.

You want a bank that will be safe, not spectacular.

Our steadfast devotion to these principles of sound banking practice is responsible for the complete confidence which the community places in us. It has made possible our contribution to its growth and development.
