Wittenberg vs. Bowling Green State

CONGRATULATIONS

- WE SHARE WITH THE STUDENTS AND FRIENDS OF BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY, CONTINUED PRIDE AND JOY OVER A GREAT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION.

A TRIBUTE

- The rapid growth of this University since its beginning in 1914 is a glowing tribute to the builders who have fashioned the halls through the years and we are proud of our part in providing the materials for the construction of so many beautiful buildings.

A WORLD TITLE AT STAKE

- The Falcons may carry on in battles against their friendly foes in the good old American way today, a privilege that few other countries may now enjoy, but to protect our right to continue to live our lives as we wish, we as Americans must fight a bigger and more serious foe.

- Across the water in the Pacific an “undefeated and untied” outfit scored a lot of points against us because we were looking the other way when he pulled his “Sneak play” last December. The result is that the United States has a “varsity” in every part of the world drilling for the “World Championship” games which are even now under way.

- We, who sit on the sidelines must buy our tickets and buy them again and again in the form of War Bonds and Stamps. Uncle Sam may ask a lot but he is no scalper. If he is going to provide the best equipment in the world for the best soldiers and sailors in the world, we must go all out in our purchase of Bonds and Stamps.

- Make sure that your Army and Navy wins the biggest Victory in the world. Buy Bonds. This Bank can provide you with them at any time.

AT FINDLAY NEXT FRIDAY

Bowling Green packs up and takes one more trip during this football season, going to the nearby city of Findlay to meet a small college which annually produces a tough crop of football players. The game will be played in the Donnell Stadium Friday afternoon.

The Oilers and Falcons have met often enough on the BG schedule, this being the 15th game. Bowling Green holds an edge of eight victories against two for Findlay. The two have played four ties.

The final home game will be Nov. 21, when the Grosse Ile Naval Training unit comes from Detroit to play the Falcons.

OUR SEVENTH MEETING

Today Bowling Green and Wittenberg meet for the seventh time on the gridiron in what has developed into a very enjoyable football relationship.

In the six games that are now on the records the competition has been close and in no instance has there been the semblance of a runaway score. Four times the Falcons came out on top while in two games the Luthers were able to come out the victor.

The Falcons can expect a hard game today. Wittenberg recorded a win over Mount Union 7 to 6 after playing a tie game with Ohio Northern 6-6 and losing to Wooster 7-0. Last week they rested after the powerful Baldwin-Wallace team trounced them 39-0 the previous Saturday.

CROSS COUNTRYMEN MEET CASE

Starting just before the end of the second quarter and finishing in front of the stands during the intermission, the harriers of the Case School of Applied Science seek to wrest the laurels from the Bowling Green State hill-and-dalers today. It will be the final dual meet before Bowling Green's lads travel to Ashland for the Ohio Conference meet.

Coach Joe Glander's lads have done themselves proud this season, winning three dual meets before going to Oxford last week to take second place in the National Junior A.A.U. 6 1/2 mile race, the greatest accomplishment that a Falcon cross country team has ever achieved.

The crowd may be lacking in spirit but everyone hopes the harriers will gain the Conference crown and today applauds the great work of a fine team, captained by Ralph Borough and including Elmer McDonnell, Clarence Hicks, Eli Toplaniski, Harry Schendel, Dave Bourke, George MacDonald, Claire Forrest, Franklin McCoy, and Sam Toplaniski.

Numerous campus changes have kept Bowling Green State University invaluable on the "home front" during the war.

Long before Pearl Harbor, the University offered defense courses and conducted secret scientific experiments for the Government.

Almost immediately after this nation entered the war, Dr. Frank J. Prout, university president, urged federal authorities to make greater use of campus facilities.

ENROLLMENT—Though dozens of men students have entered the armed forces, enrollment this semester is 1379, an increase of 29 from last spring. Most American colleges have dwindling student bodies. Our freshman class of 598, second largest in university history, has 10 more men than women.

ACCELERATION—Like many other colleges, Bowling Green has speeded up its program to permit students to take four years' work in three. Summer sessions are designed for freshmen, upperclassmen, and graduates. By going "straight through," high school graduates who enter the University in February may be ready for elementary teaching in September, 1944.

CURRICULUM—Since Pearl Harbor the University has offered new courses in chemistry, algebra, radio technology, photography, naval history, meteorology, spherical trigonometry and navigation, first aid, advanced metal work, industrial organization and management, auditing, international code, civilian pilots' training, and automotive and aeromechanics.

CREDITS—Students called into the armed forces after nine weeks receive academic credit for one-half semester. The University will grant credit for some courses taken by service men.

ATHLETICS—In preparation for active service, all men students are required to take physical education four hours a week. Only freshmen and sophomores receive university credit. The students have an obstacle course on the south side of the football field. Under the able direction of Gene Thomas, the Intramural Department this year has 57 competitive sports, 38 instructional courses, all-campus play nights, and faculty recreation nights. Rifle marksmanship has attracted 240.

AIRPORT—A pioneer in Civilian Pilot Training, Bowling Green had taught nearly 100 to fly at Findlay before purchase last spring of a 120-acre, L-shaped tract a half mile north of the campus for Bricker Airport. Now several navy cadets learn to fly here each eight weeks. They live at Kohl Hall, eat at the Falcon's Nest, student union building, and have instruction from Major J. K. Raney, Dr. S. M. Mayfield, Dr. W. H. Hall, and Coaches Warren Steller and Joe Glander.

DEFERMENT—Many campus youths are deferred from active duty while in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps Unassigned and the Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Corps, on both of which services the enlistment quotas expire December 31. Some others are in the deferred programs of the Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard. Such students are required to take special courses in mathematics and science. If they flunk—active service!

DEFENSE CLASSES—In addition to special classes for men above college age, the University has the oldest machine shop defense course for Northwestern Ohio women. Chemists and radio technicians also have been trained on the campus. Institutes here include the one ending today—on air raid protection for the home—and the one starting Monday—on plant protection.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE—A student-faculty War Council, with Max Ihrig as chairman, sponsors scrap drives, defense preparations, and campaigns for war bonds to benefit students returning from active service. Miss Margaret Purdy, who teaches distributive education, is executive director of the Bowling Green Defense Council. Many faculty members have key jobs in civilian defense.

SACRIFICE—Two former students have lost their lives in the Army Air Corps. Theodore W. Dimke, Jr. of Archbold, who attended the University in 1940-41, was killed last spring. Lieut. Lynn C. Riess, Rr., who spent a year here after graduation from Bowling Green High School in 1935, died October 29 in Great Britain.

FACULTY—First faculty member to enter government service was Arthur F. Schalk, Jr., instructor in business administration, now assistant chief of the OPA tire section in Washington. In the Navy are: Lieut. (j.g.) Fred Marsh, freshman coach, athletic instructor at Athens, Ga.; Lieut. M. Budd Cox, swimming coach, in similar work at Iowa City, Ia.; Ensign Norman Eggimann, accounting professor, in the East, and Lieut. (j.g.) J. Maxwell Caudwallader, also accounting, in California. In the Army are Dr. Charles A. Barrett, political science, at Fort Eustis, Va., and Dr. W. H. Brown, university physician, in Maryland.

CLINICS—Bowling Green offers remedial education to Northwestern Ohio in three ways: campus branch of the State Bureau of Juvenile Research, with Dr. Maurice Newburger the psychologist in charge; Speech Clinic, headed by Miss Charlotte Skene, and Reading Clinic, directed by Dr. W. C. Hoppes. On the campus and in nearby towns they diagnose and treat children with psychological difficulties and with speech and reading defects.

PREPARING FOR SWIM SCHEDULE

A fine swimming schedule has been arranged for the Falcons for the coming season and the prospects of a good team are considered very bright. The coach this year is Joe Glander, who has taken over the duties left by Lieut. M. Budd Cox when he joined the U.S. Navy after the finish of the last season.

Two lettermen are back to lead the squad. They are Paul Stark of Adrian, leading back stoker of last season and Apple Gerby of Chester, Pa., a freestyle swimmer. Both are juniors.

Five sophomores have reported and are working out: Bob Huffer of Lima, breast stroke; Bill Fox of Toledo, free style; George Spangler of Chicago, back stroke and free style; Ken Kost of Bridgeport, Conn., back stroke, and Phil Hodes of Toledo, diver.

Among the freshmen who will be eligible are the following: Dav Marriam, Tom Stubbs, Bill Kiggins, and Orv Sansuky of Lakewood, all free stylers; Harry Hill of Bridgeport, Conn., and Dick Volk of Toledo, free stylers; John Fisch of Lake Forest, Ill., breast stroke; and Joe Rac of Bridgeport, Conn., Dan Miller of Lima, and Bill Davenport of Bowling Green, all back stokers. Ray Murray of Bowling Green, is a diving candidate.

The schedule: Dec. 18 at Wooster; Jan. 9 at Kent State; Jan. 16, Case, here; Jan. 23, Western Reserve, here; Jan. 29 at Ohio U.; Feb. 5, Ohio Wesleyan, here; Feb. 13, Wittenberg; Feb. 19, Kenyon; Feb. 26, Oberlin. The team will finish the season in the Ohio Conference meet.

WE HAVE NEW GLASS BACKBOARDS

An innovation in Ohio Basketball circles will be the new glass backboards that have just been installed for the season in the Bowling Green gym.

The new boards are transparent and are similar to those used in the largest universities in the country. They are similar to those in use at Madison Square Gardens in New York City.

The boards are said to have many advantages for both player and spectator. To the fan in the rows of seats behind the board, the full vision that the glass allows, makes the game 10 times more interesting because he can see the ball as it enters the cage instead of waiting to see it drop below the board to judge whether it is in the basket or not.

In the face of overwhelming odds, George Washington defended our Liberty on the windswept fields of Valley Forge. Today, as in 1778, that Liberty is under fire. And once again, Americans stand "ready to guard and defend it." The battle ahead is greater than any Washington could have envisioned, . . . but the fighting spirit of Americans hasn't changed. WE HAVE JUST BEGUN TO FIGHT. . . .

It's going to cost a lot to win this war, but Victory is a million times cheaper than defeat. To find the billions needed for Victory, every American must do his share by buying U. S. War Bonds and Stamps to the very limit. If every American bought one $18.75 Bond today, $11,487,500,000.00 worth of guns, tanks, planes and ships could be paid for tomorrow. A small price to pay for such a big reward. More—U. S. War Bonds have behind them the tremendous resources of this country. Your money will come back with interest—as much as $4 for every $3—when bonds are held to maturity. Our America is now—as it has always been—the best investment in the world.
