CONGRATULATIONS

- WE SHARE WITH THE STUDENTS AND FRIENDS OF BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY, CONTINUED PRIDE AND JOY OVER A GREAT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION.

A TRIBUTE

- The rapid growth of this University since its beginning in 1914 is a glowing tribute to the builders who have fashioned the halls through the years and we are proud of our part in providing the materials for the construction of so many beautiful buildings.

A WORLD TITLE AT STAKE

- The Falcons may carry on in battles against their friendly foes in the good old American way today, a privilege that few other countries may now enjoy, but to protect our right to continue to live our lives as we wish, we as Americans must fight a bigger and more serious foe.

- Across the water in the Pacific an "undefeated and untied" outfit scored a lot of points against us because we were looking the other way when he pulled his "Sneak play" last December. The result is that the United States has a "varsity" in every part of the world drilling for the "World Championship" games which are even now under way.

- We, who sit on the sidelines must buy our tickets and buy them again and again in the form of War Bonds and Stamps. Uncle Sam may ask a lot but he is no scalper. If he is going to provide the best equipment in the world for the best soldiers and sailors in the world, we must go all out in our purchase of Bonds and Stamps.

- Make sure that your Army and Navy wins the biggest Victory in the world. Buy Bonds. This Bank can provide you with them at any time.

WELCOME SAILORS

Bowling Green opened the 1942 football season by playing a team composed of sailors from Uncle Sam's armed forces. Today the Falcons close the 1942 season by playing another group of sailors.

Thus in another way is the fact that we are at war impressed upon us and we welcome the fine gridders who come from the Grosse Ile Naval Aviation Base near Detroit, Mich.

Many reports have come to this campus indicating that the Grosse Ile team is one of the finest service teams in this part of the country and there is every indication that a good game is in prospect for the fans. May the best team win.

FOUR SENIORS CLOSE CAREERS

Today four Bowling Green State University seniors close their college grid careers. They are Capt. Ralph Quesinberry, center, of Tiffin; Bob Eckert, guard, of Bowling Green; Steve Randolph, tackle, of Barbenton and Lowell Sielenschott, quarterback, of Lima.

In the uncertainties of the times, it is quite likely that many others who are playing for Bowling Green today will be in the uniform of one of the armed services next fall, but if war interrupts their college careers, it is hoped that it will only be temporary and that when the "job" is done, they will return to Bowling Green to finish their educations.

To those who sing their "swan songs" today, the campus says "Well done and may your endeavors in life be as well done after you leave Bowling Green."

HAIL TO OUR UNDISPUTED CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONS

Last Saturday Bowling Green State University's fine cross country team, coached by Joe Glander, went to Ashland and captured the first undisputed Ohio Conference Championship since the local institution joined the league.

Leading 29 runners to the finish line was Elmer McDonall, sophomore from Toledo Waite, who not only came home in first place but cut two seconds off the former record set by Gilbert Dodds, sensational preacher who had the Ohio Conference talking about his exploits a few years back. McDonall's record for the 4 miles over steep hills and deep valleys was 20 minutes and 39 seconds. Clarence Hicks of Lincoln Park, Mich., was second.

Bowling Green scored 28 points and was closely pressed by Oberlin, the defending champions with 31. Case was third with 66 and Ashland last with 117.

BLUFFTON BEAVERS OPEN CAGE CARD

Eyes of the fans are already turning to the basketball schedule and it is interesting to know that the opening game is slated for a week from next Thursday night, Dec. 3, against the Beavers of Bluffton college.

The Beavers are a traditional foe, long remembered by the early alumni of Bowling Green and in the first years of competition between Bee Gee and Bluffton the margin was seldom more than three or four points. In later years the smaller school has found it difficult to maintain the fast pace although it invariably come to Bowling Green with a well drilled and fighting ball club which makes the Falcons hustle.

Bowling Green has a new coach in Harold Anderson, former U. of Toledo mentor, but Bluffton is still coached by C. A. Burckey, one of the finest gentlemen in the business and one who has wrought miracles at Bluffton.

GET INTO THE LINEUP

War makes a lot of changes in our daily lives but the one thing that all can unite on in thought and deed is "Victory."

Your country expects every one of you to do your duty. If you cannot serve Uncle Sam in the armed forces, you can do your part by conservation of materials and by buying War Stamps and Bonds.

The saving habit now will provide you with a welcome reserve to be used someday when it will come in most handy. Join us in investing in Victory.

If you wish us to assist you in your banking service, we will be glad to have you call on us and hear about our "Banking by Mail" system. Convenient and inexpensive.

WE HAVE NEW GLASS BACKS

An innovation in Ohio Backboard will be the new glass backboard just installed for the Bowling Green gym.

The new boards are similar to those used in the country. They are being used at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

The boards are said to have advantages for both players and spectators. To the fan in the rows behind the board, the full vision of the action makes the game 10 times better because he can see the player above the board instead of through the glass below the board to judge if the basket or not.

WHEN it comes to football winning streaks, some of the old-timers could show today’s players how it’s done—yes, even including Minnesota which ran to 21 straight without defeat or tie before bumping into Northwestern a few years ago.

The daddy of all winning streaks belongs to Yale—a skein of 48 victories rolled up back in the days when football moustaches still to come. with a victory, that still game of 12; 13 in with a string. years ord—ever, was break 14.

Elis also had another fine pair of winning streaks. After their string of 48 consecutive wins was snapped in 1889, Yale began another by winning their last game of the 1890 season and going on to 36 victories through 1893 before Princeton again beat them, this time by 6-0. The final great Yale streak also was ended by Princeton. That one ran to 39, including the years 1894, 1895 and 1896, before the Tiger prevailed 24-6 in the final game of the 1896 campaign.

Pennsylvania had three great streaks—28 straight between 1894 and 1896; 39 in the years 1896, 1897 and 1898 before they lost 10-0 to Harvard, and 35 straight in 1903, 1904 and 1905 before suffering a 0-0 tie with Cornell at the start of the 1906 year.

Pittsburgh and Nebraska hold the best streaks of the mid-west. The Panthers clicked off 33 straight in 1914 through 1919 before bowing in the latter year to Cornell, while the Cornhuskers wrapped up 29 victories in 1901-1904, including an unscored upon season in 1902, before losing 12-10 to Minnesota in 1904.

Minnesota’s modern run of 21 was surpassed by the Gopher elevens of 1903, 1904 and 1905 which ran off 22 victories. That string was part of a 33-game performance without defeat although it included a 6-0 tie with Michigan in 1903. Michigan won 29 straight in 1901-1903 before Minnesota spoiled its record with a 6-6 tie while the Wolverines picked up after that tie and went through 1905 to 26 straight before losing 2-0 to Chicago.

Harvard, another one of the ancients, ran off 24 straight in 1890 and 1891, and 31 straight in 1898-99-1900, although the latter streak included a 0-0 tie with Yale in 1899.

"GOD GRANTS LIBERTY ONLY TO THOSE WHO LOVE IT AND ARE ALWAYS READY TO GUARD AND DEFEND IT"

- In the face of overwhelming odds, George Washington defended our Liberty on the windswept fields of Valley Forge. Today, as in 1778, that Liberty is under fire. And once again, Americans stand "ready to guard and defend it." The battle ahead is greater than any Washington could have envisioned, . . . but the fighting spirit of Americans hasn't changed. WE HAVE JUST BEGUN TO FIGHT. . . .

- It's going to cost a lot to win this war, but Victory is a million times cheaper than defeat. To find the billions needed for Victory, every American must do his share by buying U. S. War Bonds and Stamps to the very limit. If every American bought one $18.75 Bond today, $11,487,500,000.00 worth of guns, tanks, planes and ships could be paid for tomorrow. A small price to pay for such a big reward. More—U. S. War Bonds have behind them the tremendous resources of this country. Your money will come back with interest—as much as $4 for every $3—when bonds are held to maturity. Our America is now—as it has always been—the best investment in the world.
