NEW COLLEGE CATALOGUE

The Ninth Annual Catalogue of the Normal College has just come from the printer. One who makes a study of college catalogues would be led to think these publications are issued for other institutions, but such is not the case with this catalogue. It seems to be arranged with the needs of students in mind. It is a model of clearness, and students and parents will have no difficulty in getting from it the information desired. Besides the usual items of general information it includes a clear statement of the admission requirements, the requirements for graduation, an explanation of the marking system, and brief descriptions of the various student organizations. Announcements are also made regarding the summer session of 1924 and the extension department.

One of the admirable features is the arrangement of the information regarding degree courses. This division of the catalogue begins with a summary of the requirements. This is followed by a conspectus of a general or skeleton course. In this course the distribution of the required subjects is given by years and semesters. The next item of information needed by a student is the question of major and minor subjects. This information is clearly set forth within the limits of two pages. The next item of interest to students is the sequence of major and minor subjects, and these are definitely outlined in the catalogue for the different departments.

In addition to the General Course, degree courses are outlined in Home Economics, Industrial Arts, and the Supervision of Elementary Schools. Graduates of approved colleges may receive the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education upon the completion of 30 hours of professional work. The catalogue contains a list of the requirements in this one-year course for college graduates.

Possibly the most marked improvement in the catalogue is an outline of the differentiated courses for elementary teachers. These courses will go into effect in the summer session. Heretofore but one course in elementary education has been offered, but it was possible to adapt it to some extent to the different grades of the elementary school by the exercise of electives. The new catalogue outlines three types of two-year diploma courses for elementary teachers: Kindergarten-Primary, Intermediate Grade, and Upper Grade. The offering of these three courses will make it possible for students to specialize in the grade in which they wish to teach.

THE KEY—1924

C. Relano Fox.

One of the most prominent features of an advanced educational institution is the appearance of the annual school review or year book.

It was in the spring of 1918 that Bowling Green College saw such a publication for the first time. Since then it has been an annual discussion but has never become a reality. We hope however, to have the 1924 Key appear about the middle of May.

The graduating class of 1924 voted to sponsor such a publication and hopes thereby to establish a traditional precedent.

The faculty, students and outside enthusiasts have already shown their approval of this project, and the staff, with the aid of the faculty advisors, have overcome obstacles and have made most satisfactory progress on "The Key".

A general outline of the book can be briefly described in that it will include the architectural plan of the campus, all school organizations and activities, the entire student body, the alumni and faculty. It is not a graduating class book, but a real honest-to-goodness school review.

In order to make our attempt materialize as planned it is necessary for the staff to enlist the full co-operation of the administration, the faculty, the entire student body, and especially the Alumni. It has been repeatedly expressed that it is high time Bowling Green had a year book. We fully agree, and the staff is working consistently with the betterment of our college in mind, and hoping to make "The Key" a great success.

Be enterprising, pull, push, shove, take our word.

SPRING VACATION TOUR

A seven-day tour is being offered to students and friends during spring vacation to Washington, D. C. The tour will be under the personal direction of Prof. J. W. Carmichael. There will also be a conductor furnished by the Travel Dept. of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. This railroad offers the best route and service to the capital.

A stop will be made at Harper's Ferry and at other historic points of interest, such as Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, Arlington, and many others. This trip will in itself be a liberal education. Folders are now being printed and will be distributed to all those who are vitally interested. Anyone wishing additional information may obtain the same from Prof. Carmichael.

Possible for a teacher to receive more special training in the line of the grades in which she expects to teach. Besides the diploma courses for regular teachers, the College will continue to offer diploma courses for special teachers and supervisors of Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Commercial Education, and Public School Music. A Pre-Agricultural course of two years is announced which will enable students to continue, without loss of time, work for a degree in Agriculture in a University or Agricultural College. Graduates of County Normal Schools will find information regarding the work which will be required for a diploma in Elementary Education.

The catalogue contains a list of the graduates in 1923, the names and addresses of all regular students for the year, and the enrollment in the three summer terms. The total attendance for the year is given as 2395, and the total number of different students as 1710. A full table of contents and a complete index make it possible to find any item of interest quickly. The catalogue is neatly bound in tan colored cover, and the typography and arrangement are attractive. It is a publication of which any institution might be justly proud.

In the future it will be “The Key” that will unlock the door to the past. A most pleasurable review of life. Reminiscences of the past. Dreams of bygone days.

With these things in mind, does the name, “The Key”, mean anything to you? Is it suggestive? Is it typical of a particular strain of sentiment prevalent in every college bred man of woman?
You can assist the staff greatly by subscribing and obtaining the subscriptions of others, by placing in our hands representative snaps of faculty, students and alumni; by being prompt in your personal obligations; by noting all humorous incidents which will help make our book attractive to all, and by talking “The Key” to everyone, everywhere, all the time.
The staff will greatly appreciate suggestions from faculty, student and alumni enthusiasts.

GOLD MASK CLUB
The Gold Mask is now working on the play, "The Witching Hour", to be given some time in March.

BOOK AND MOTOR
The Book and Motor society met Monday, February 11, for a short business meeting. It was decided by the society to co-operate with the Annual Club in carrying out its desires and in making the 1924 "Key" a success. Plans for the '24 banquet were also discussed.

"VARSITY N"
After the Detroit college game, the Varsity "N" entertained the student body with an informal dance in the gym. Music was furnished by the college band. The society is also working on plans for the various tournaments to be held at the college during February.

EMERSON SOCIETY
The Emerson society enjoyed one of its regular meetings January 22. The program consisted of articles on the current magazines of the day. Each number was well given and the virtues of the various magazines were brought out, as well as the reasons why we should all do more magazine reading.

The meeting was greatly worth while and was the best rendered so far this year.

HOME EC. CLUB
The Home Ec girls assembled from various classes Friday, January 18, for one of their get-together meetings. A fine program was given, many of the numbers being given by the "Frosh" members and proved that they are able to handle their subjects in an interesting manner. An open meeting is to be held in March. A playlet by some of the training school children is to be given. Miss Ruby Garn is in charge of the program.

COUNTRY LIFE
The Country Life society enjoyed a very entertaining hour, February 12. The first part of the meeting was used to elect the following officers: Francis Kurs, president; Malcolm Sargent, vice-president; June Beverstock, secretary-treasurer.

Then Melzer Porter played a violin solo, which was appreciated by all, and Mrs. McChesney gave a book review on "J. Hardin and Son", which was given in an interesting manner. A social hour in the gym closed the program.

THE COLLEGE QUARTETTE
The college quartette has, for many weeks undergone careful training under the personal direction of Prof. Tunnecliffe and has now made a number of public appearances, the last appearance being at the banquet of the Perrysburg-Troy Improvement Association, held at Lime City on February 12th.

The quartette, composed of Mr. Witte, Mr. Mohr, Mr. Premo, and Mr. Current, is acclaimed to be by those who have heard it to be the best quartette ever representing the college.

It is the plan of Prof. Tunnecliffe to present an opportunity for the students and faculty to hear the quartette later on in the year, when a concert will be given.

PERSONALS
Superintendent of Schools W. E. Ash, of Napoleon, was a visitor at the college, February 12. He interviewed a number of prospective teachers.

H. E. Briggs, new state architect and engineer, held a consultation with the officers of the board of trustees and President Williams, February 12, concerning the new Library building.

Enrollment for second semester shows a gain over the first semester. We now have 510 students enrolled. There were 67 new people who entered Bee Gee for the first time.

Miss Helen Hobert, of this year's graduating class, has accepted a position in the English department of the local high school, doing part time teaching in connection with her school work.

Of the new students who took the state examinations every single one passed. This is quite a record and speaks well for Bee Gee's new students.

Elsie Weaver, of Spencerville, Ohio, has returned to Bee Gee to complete her studies.

Eleanor Stutz, of Sandusky, a diploma grad of '22, has returned to Bee Gee to complete a degree. Miss Stutz has for the past year and a half been teaching in West Park, Cleveland, Ohio.

The Drama class, chaperoned by Miss McCain, journeyed to Toledo February 7 to see "The Fool". All reported a good time.

Mr. E. L. Marshall, of Des Moines, Ia., received word of the death of his sister, Miss Mabel E. Marshall, of Lincoln, Nebr., January 14, 1924 Miss Marshall, at the time of her death, was librarian at the State Teachers College at Peru, Nebraska. Miss Marshall was librarian here at Bee Gee, 1919 to 1921.

While there she coached a champion girls' basketball team. Miss Brown, at the time of her death, was librarian at the State Teachers College at Peru, Nebraska. Miss Marshall was librarian here at Bee Gee, 1919 to 1921.

Emery Shroyer, Soph, a student here last year, has returned, to continue his studies.

Leora Stout, Mrs. Webb, Mildred Whesler, Ruth Lane and a few others (?) composed a theatre party to Toledo, February fourth to see "The Fool". Owning to severe weather the party was stranded in Toledo and compelled to wait till the following day to return to Bee Gee.

MRS. ROBERT MORRIS
Mrs. Robert Morris of Toledo, gave her book review of Emily Post's Etiquette, Wednesday at 4:00. The review was presented in a very interesting manner, and the importance of good manners was brought out.

THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY
The Bee Gee News gives its unqualified support to "The Key." We believe it to be another great worker, proving that Bowling Green State college has truly entered upon a new era of her history.

Nothing reflects a college so much as her publications, therefore they should not only be of the very highest grade possible but they should be well distributed. The News feels certain of the superior quality of "The Key" and in desirous of doing all in its power to further the good cause; we would like to see "The Key" distributed to every public library and every high school in northwestern Ohio. This should be done because never in the history of the institution has there been a publication portraying through writing and pictures such an intimate scene of Bee Gee as "The Key" contemplates doing.

It behooves every student and every alumnus of this institution to get behind the proposition and make this annual a good one.

Again the Bee Gee News wishes to tender its services to the very limit and it extends to Mr. Fox and his staff the sincerest of wishes.

"Sport for Sport's Sake" is the true spirit of college athletics. "To be a game loser is the mark of a gentleman": Loyalty to a team just missing the margin on score board is genuine sportsmanlike college spirit. This is a marked characteristic of our basketball season to date.

As we read reports of the games, see the teams practice and play, they look and act like the real for sure players. They are, too. Yet if you note the writeup of a game now and then, the game was lost in the last three or five minutes of play.

The member of a college athletic team must realize the responsibility to the institution and especially to his fellow students, as he represents them in any contest, therefore any athlete who by lack of training, irregular hours, social activities or any form of dissipation is, to put it mildly, a slacker.

February is a wonderful month, as there falls within its limits the birthdays of two of our greatest Americans, Washington and Lincoln. These names stand for the best ideals of Americans. So much so, that for Americanizing Americans February 12th and February 22nd offer splendid opportunities to instill American principles in the hearts and minds of all the people through appropriate exercises in all schools and general public gatherings.

The Bee Gee News trusts no student of B. G. S. N. C. will ever miss an opportunity to teach the ideals of Washington and Lincoln.

"The man who is ready regardless of time or place, is the man the world is searching for."

Napoleon on one of his campaigns came to a river and wished to bridge it. Before he could put a pontoon bridge across the river he had to know its width. He called to an engineer on his staff and bade him measure the stream. The engineer said, "I have no instruments with me; wait until the baggage train comes up." Napoleon again commanded him to measure the river. The measurement had to be made at once, not later; a moment's delay might mean success or failure.

Quietly the engineer selected a point on the opposite bank, straight across from where he stood. He affixed the bill of his cap so that the brim edge was in line with the spot selected, then, holding himself carefully erect, he turned until the edge of the bill of his cap rested at a point on the bank where he stood. Marking the spot, he paced the distance to it from where he stood. He came back and said, "This is approximately the width, sir." Later an accurate measurement proved him to be right. He was promoted.

That man, an occasion called upon and he responded; he was ready and for his readiness he was rewarded. He knew there was the danger of a mistake—he did as best he could. Most of us realize the danger of a mistake; that is well, but we should not allow it to deter us from an attempt. To make a mistake is human; to triumph over mistakes you must face it bravely and say, "This, too will pass." How small those worries of yesterday appear in the sunlight of today!

A willingness to try, backed by thought and effort, nearly always brings success.

If you are confronted with a problem, tackle it; it may be the one that will make you famous. Certainly you cannot gain by wishing.
BEE GEE NEWS

FINDLAY, 13; BEE GEE, 46
January 18th.

FINDLAY college was again overwhelmed at the hands of the local athletes. This time it was in the form of a basketball game, in which the Cowboys gave a habit of winning two games annually. The score was 46-13, and FINDLAY never had a chance from the sound of the first whistle until the last. From the outset of the game the local players rained in baskets from all angles of the floor. After about ten minutes of the first half had been played Coach Mac raced five fresh men into the game who played equally as well as their predecessors and continued to run up the score.

In the last few minutes of play the third team was given a chance to perform.

Routzon was the mainstay for FINDLAY while it would be impossible to pick out any star for Bee Gee.

BLISS, 28; BEE GEE, 25
January 19th.

The local collegians lost a hard fought and closely contested game to the Bliss college (Columbus) quintet on the local court. The score was 25 to 28, which alone indicates how evenly matched the two teams were.

The Orange and Brown men with their fast floor work and short snappy passes were unable to locate the basket sufficiently and at times when points were needed. Coach Mac again used two teams and each one showed up to good advantage.

Bliss got a way to a five-point lead before the pedagogues could hit their stride. "Shay" Moscoe threw the first bucket for Bee Gee.

Everyone seemed satisfied with the outcome of the game although they would rather have seen Bee Gee win. The boys played a very fast game from beginning to end and seemed to be in the pink of condition.

Coble, of Toledo Y. M. C. A., refereed the game in a credible manner although he allowed the game to get rough in the final minutes.

OLD RIVAL WINS
January 25th.

Bee Gee lost her game with Bluffton, 22-26, in a contest which was featured by long shots by the "Mennonites". It was this factor alone which defeated the "Cowboys" in the last three minutes of play.

The "Mac" men played rather ragged ball the first half, but despite this fact they succeeded in keeping up with Bluffton. The half ended 14-15 in favor of the visitors.

In the last half the Cowboys came back strong and outplayed the Purple and White all the way through. The last five minutes proved to be most disastrous. With five minutes to go, the Orange and Brown led, 22 to 18. Bluffton found it impossible to penetrate the local's defense for short shots, so they resorted to long flinging, at which they proved themselves to be sharks. In the remaining five minutes they succeeded in caging four goals from the middle of the floor.

Bachman was back on the Varsity after a week's layoff and certainly proved his worth. Never before did this lanky lad run the floor, shoot and pass as he did against Bluffton. The vacation did him good. "Bobby" Blistine played the best game of his career. "Bobby" is fast developing into one of the best standing guards in the conference. For stick-toitiveness and fight "Bobby" sure has it.

Premo, Moscoe, Olds and Place also played well.

BLISS, 40; BOWLING GREEN, 29
February 8th.

The basketball squad in their high-powered automobiles journeyed to Columbus in which return game with Bliss Commercial college of that city Bliss had beaten Bee Gee earlier in the season, 28-25, and the locals were out for revenge.

The game was marked by the good passing of the locals and the fast dribbling and shooting of the "business men". Bee Gee shooters were way off and succeeded in making only three field goals the first half. Bliss made a total of 11 points.

The second half found the locals going a little better with a different lineup, but Bliss was going stronger than ever, making shots from all over the floor and bringing the final score to 40, while Bee Gee had to be satisfied with 29.

Captain Premo scored the most points for the Orange and Brown, while "Buck" Brand played a good game at back guard.

DETROIT VS. BEE GEE
February 2nd.

Detroit City college basketball quintet played a return game with Bee Gee in which they emerged victorious after a fast and hard-fought battle.

The Orange and Brown tossers led the big city lads until the last five minutes of play.

The game was perhaps one of the most interesting and fastest played on the local court this season. Everything looked bright for Bee Gee to win a game when in the last five minutes the tide broke and Detroit succeeded in caging three field goals from mid-floor and a couple of others, which put them in the lead, and winning the game, 32-27.

WILMINGTON TROUNCES "COWBOYS"
February 9th.

The Orange and Brown basketball tossers journeyed to Wilmington after the Bluffton game, where they played on Saturday night. The locals took a lacing which will be hard to forget, and are already trying to figure another game with them, to be played on the local court.

The first half ended 16-22 in favor of Wilmington, who really were a little off color in this period. Bee Gee played exceptionally poor as a team but through Wilmington's poor shooting, closely followed in scoring.

In the last half the Wilmington machine seemed to find itself and began ringing in baskets, both long and short, with great regularity.

The Orange and Brown were unable to find themselves on the large floor, which Wilmington was very much used to.

For the "Mac" men Lanky Bachman played his best game of the season. He succeeded in caging the sphere six times and played defensively like he never played before. Moscoe also played well.
LETTERS FROM A PAULDING COUNTY FARMER
TO HIS SON

Dear Willie: Your ma and me gratefully acknowledges your request of fifteenth and am enclosing check with this writing.

I am very glad to hear that you got a place on the basketball team. In my day I didn’t know there were such things. I got my college education clearing that back 40 I just refused $300 an acre for. I suppose them days is gone forever and I’m real sorry you cannot have the advantages I had then.

With all the chances you have to do the right thing wrong I am proud that you are where you are now. Back there in the aforementioned times us boys was too tired to get into mischief.

I’m glad Willie that you are looking ahead and I like to hear that you are planning for your future. Take your pa’s advice Willie. The future is an awful dark place, now if you go raming thru a dark place as tho you were a mile from the end, the first thing you know you’ve bumped your head on the end of the wall. I say you future is like that, because if you go along expecting the future to be way off ahead of you somewheres, you run smack dab into the present. Believe me son, to-day is your future and if you don’t fill it up now you never will get a chance. Your college calls the annual “The Key”. Now that is a right good name provided you have something to unlock, but some fellows go thru college never doing much but devilment—now what do they want a key for? I’m telling you Willie that you should make your life in college chuck jammed full, so that when you take up your “Key” with your ma and me you’ve really got something to unlock.

I’m right sorry to hear that your basketball team is having such hard luck. Now as I said before Willie, I don’t know a whole heap about basketball, but 54 years of living has acquainted me with the fact that a little bit of manhood we got. Now I’m not saying your team has done that, I know it hasn’t because as I watched you fellows play, I saw that there was several real fighters on the outfit—bad luck is a sure enough scramper but a regular he-man can give it a licking in short order, then besides the man who should worry most when the team loses was smiling—stick to him Willie—whether he’s your coach or your Dad or your teacher or who—stick to the guy smiling while he’s being whipped. I’m not saying to stick because he is getting whipped, but that smile means something Willie—he ain’t thinking about the licking he is getting—he is thinking about the fun he is going to have when the tide turns and he gets a crack at the other fellow.

Well so I guess that is about all for today.

Write home often Willie because that is one place where there are no failures. When it comes to “home” Willie you have got your fingers crossed on old man Hard Luck and he ain’t a going to tag you.

YOUR DAD.

P. S. We got a radio installed last week and your ma and me can now hear close to New York or San Francisco.

BASKET BALL TOURNAMEENT

Great preparations are now under way for the Northwestern Ohio Basket Ball Tournament to be played in the college gym, February 29 and March 1. Eleven counties will be represented in this tournament. They are Williams, Fulton, Lucas, Wood, Henry, Erie, Ottawa, Huron, Seneca, Defiance and Sandusky. Each county will send from one to three teams to the tournament. A county having less than eight teams will send one team; those having between 8 and 16 teams will send two, and those having more than 16 teams in the county will send three. This will make a tournament of from 29 to 35 teams. The games should be of a better class than usual, since only the best teams come to this tournament. The winners of the tournament will be awarded a suitable trophy by the Athletic Supply Company of Toledo, Ohio.

In the past, high school teams have complimented Bee Gee on her courteous treatment and friendly spirit shown. Let’s make this year better than ever; let’s make Bee Gee seem such a delightful place that all of the basketball players will want to come here to college when they are graduated from high school.

REAL SUCCESS IN DOING

This account, which appeared in one of the Findlay papers will in a small measure show the efficiency of members of the department of Home Economics in our college.

The new rule of satisfactory merchandising, “Produce what is wanted, the way it is wanted, and when it is wanted”, was observed by the home economics class in preparing and serving the meals to fully 400 satisfied boarders. The members of the class, with their assistants from other departments of the school, despite the crowded condition of the hall, served the meals with the greatest, annual in the college history.

Miss Ayers, of Toledo, teacher of the class in home economics, as she assisted the girls in the final clean-up of the kitchen, and never before have we seen a better demonstration of the real dignity of labor than was made by the girls and their teacher.

THE ANNUAL STAFF

The Annual staff has had several meetings, and has been very busy, in order to make “The Key” the greatest annual in the college history.

Every member of the staff is doing his utmost to make his particular section the best, and all that is needed is complete co-operation from the student body.

Exam.

History Dept.: “Who and what was ‘Magna Charta’?” An answer: “Magna Charta was a woman who when her husband was shot served his gun and said, ‘Shoot if you must this old gray head but I intend to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer.’ ”
TRIANGULAR INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE

On the evening of February 28 at eight o'clock the B. G. affirmative team will debate the negative team from Bluffton college in the local auditorium. At the same hour in the Adrian college auditorium the negative team from B. G. will clash with the affirmative team of that school. The question to be debated is, "Resolved: The U. S. should enter the League of Nations immediately".

The local teams are as follows: Affirmative—Miss Coverett, Mr. John Pilcher and Mr. Donnal V. Smith, with Mr. Chester Holloway as alternate. The negative team is composed of Miss Meagley, Mr. C. D. Fox and Rev. Wilson, with Mr. B. M. Rutter as alternate.

Athletic contests and social events have received full attention this year by the student body and the faculty, so it is hoped that there will be a big enthusiastic audience present to cheer our debaters to victory. This year both B. G. teams are determined to bring the debating laurels back to B. G. where they had been for so long until last year.

GIRLS' PROM

The annual party given by the Women's League was held Saturday evening, January 26, in the gymnasium. This party, although attended only by those of the fair sex, was one of the gayest events of the year.

Artistic crepe paper decorations were used, making the gymnasium very attractive. A very entertaining program was planned by the committee in charge. Early in the evening it was announced that the most attractive couple would have their pictures put in the Annual. The judges selected the following couples:

1. Frances Meagley—Emily Benson.
4. Eleanor Shatzel—Frances Buerstrom.
5. Helen Dick—Mildred Noel.

Excellent music was furnished by the "Women's League Orchestra". Punch and wafers were served for refreshments.

The patronesses were the Misses Hall, Fitzgerald, Blum, Heston, Steele, Allen and Shaw.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE

The Drama class presented Charles Klein's famous play, "The Lion and the Mouse", Thursday, January 25th.

The plot of the play revolves around Shirley Rossmore's struggle to save her father's honor, her winning over of John Burkett Ryder, the man responsible for her father's condition, gaining the love of Jefferson Ryder, and the reuniting of her own family and also the Ryder family.

The parts of Shirley, Evelyn Scherff; John B. Ryder, Carlton Jones, and Jefferson Ryder, C. Premo, were well played and carried the play and audience with them.

The star characters, while minor ones, were well portrayed, and added to the interest of the play.

Boob To train caller)—"What do you do?"
Train Caller—"I call trains so."
Boob—"Well, call one for me. I'm in a hurry."

HOW THE ANNUAL GOT ITS NAME

Tuesday, January 29, 1824, the entire chapei period was devoted to speeches about our Annual. One of the speakers on this program was Coach McCandless, whose subject was "My Annual and What It Means to Me". During his speech, Coach several times referred to his annual as a key which he used to unlock his past. Prof. Overman, who was in charge of the exercise, conceived the idea that our annual would become a key to our past, so he suggested that the Bee Gee annual should henceforth be known as "The Key". Proof that the name met with approval of the student body was the uproarious applause which greeted Prof. Overman's suggestion. So now our annual is named. Always it will be known as "The Key", and never was there a cleverer title.

One good way to make soft water hard is to freeze it.

The man that knows all about women doesn't live. Half that knowledge would kill any man.

Women used to buy dress goods by the yard; now they buy only enough to make a dress.
SECURITY OF JOB
Malcolm Sargent.

Yesterday morning, when I rode up in the elevator, the starter was breaking in a new elevator-boy. At noon, when I went out to lunch, the new boy was running the car alone. He had on a uniform and was starting and stopping with the confidence of a veteran. From apprentice to professional in a couple of hours!

Last week I saw a veteran motorman breaking in a youngster. On Tuesday and Wednesday the two were on the front platform together; on Thursday the new man was operating the car alone. He had on a uniform and was starting and stopping with the confidence of a veteran. How can he fail to look forward and see in the older man a picture of himself twenty years from now?

He is taking up a low-paid job—a job with no future. Twenty years from now he will be just where he is today, only older, with a grasp on the job less secure. His experience will count for nothing, because it is experience that any other man can gain in a couple of days. He may, by walking out on a strike, force an increase in his pay of a few cents a week; but the increase will not be large. Why? Because he learned the job in two days. And in any other two days the company can get plenty of men who will learn just as fast and take the job away from him.

Why They Flunked.

Among recent schoolboy examination "howlers" we choose the following:

- "Things which are equal to the same thing are equal to any thing else."
- "A grass widow is the wife of a dead vegetarian."
- "Oceanica is that continent which contains no land."
- "In India a man out of a cask may not marry a woman out of another cask."
- "Gravitation is that which if there were none we should all fly away."
- "Lou's XVI was gelatinized during the French Revolution."
- "Horse power is the distance one horse can carry a pound of water in an hour."
- "Palsy is a kind of new writers' dance."

His Progress.

An old Southern planter met one of his former negroes whom he had not seen for a long time.

"Well, well!" said the planter. "What are you doing now, Uncle Amos?"

"I'm preachin' de gospel."

"What? You preaching?"

"Yes, master, Ise a-preachin'."

"Well, well! Do you use notes?"

"Nossuh. At the fust I use notes, but now I demands de cash."

What?

In an original story for English, Hayden was describing a girl. He rambled on, "She had on an old tattered and frayed dress raveled at the edges and all worn out at the knees." We have difficulty in following you, Mr. Olds.

History.

Lake: "I flunked that exam cold."
Havens: "I thought that was easy."
Lake: "It was, but I had bandoline on my hair and my mind slipped."

Time to Change.

"I hear that Kitty is getting a divorce."
"Yes, she married a captain during the war and now, of course, he's frightfully out of style."

Of Two Evils.

"Now, Doris, if you won't kiss your uncle, I shall send you to bed."
Doris—(After a few minutes' silence)—"Very well—good-night, mama."

Blessed be the tie that binds unless it be a necktie.

Standing Room Only

Professor—"This lecture is apt to be somewhat embarrassing. If any men or women care to leave they may."
Student in back of room—"Professor, can I invite some of my friends."

Miller—"What makes your car so damp?"
Nelson—"Probably because there's so much due on it."

Character Reader—"I can tell that that man will deliver the goods the way he wags his head."
Spectator—"But how are we to know who the right people to pluck are?"

Mac says he has some vertebrae in his office all ready for insertion in some of the Bee Gee men. He didn't mention any names but if you are in doubt about your back we would suggest an inventory before exposing same in a basketball jersey.

50-50.

"Look here," said the landlady. "I'll meet you half way. I'll forget half of what you owe."
Student—in arrears with room rent—"Alright. I'll meet you. I'll forget the other half."

A Thin Joke.

"I sure do need a new pair of shoes."
Howza?"
"My soles are so thin I can step on a dime and tell whether it is heads or tails."

100%.

Teacher: "John, what are the two genders?"
John: "Masculine and feminine. The masculine are divided up into temperate and intemperate and the feminine into frigid and torrid."
