Michigan Central State vs. Bowling Green State
Bowling Green, Ohio — 2:00 P.M.

OCT. 2, 1943
(Today, John Jones is just an average American, wrestling with all the doubts and worries and problems that beset every one of us right now. But let's skip ahead 10 years. Let's look at John Jones then—and listen to him . . .)

SOMETIMES I feel so good it almost scares me.

"This house—I wouldn't swap a shingle off its roof for any other house on earth. This little valley, with the pond down in the hollow at the back, is the spot I like best in all the world.

"And they're mine. I own 'em. Nobody can take 'em away from me.

"I've got a little money coming in, regularly. Not much—but enough. And I tell you, when you can go to bed every night with nothing on your mind except the fun you're going to have tomorrow—that's as near Heaven as a man gets on this earth!

"It wasn't always so.

"Back in '43—that was our second year of war, when we were really getting into it—I needed cash. Taxes were tough, and then Ellen got sick. Like almost everybody else, I was buying War Bonds through the Payroll Plan—and I figured on cashing some of them in. But sick as she was, it was Ellen who talked me out of it.

"'Don't do it, John!' she said. 'Please don't! For the first time in our lives, we're really saving money. It's wonderful to know that every single payday we have more money put aside! John, if we can only keep up this saving, think what it can mean! Maybe someday you won't have to work. Maybe we can own a home. And oh, how good it would feel to know that we need never worry about money when we're old!"

"Well, even after she got better, I stayed away from the weekly poker game—quit dropping a little cash at the hot spots now and then—gave up some of the things a man feels he has a right to. We made clothes do—cut out fancy foods. We didn't have as much fun for a while but we paid our taxes and the doctor and—we didn't touch the War Bonds.

"We didn't touch the War Bonds then, or any other time. And I know this: The world wouldn't be such a swell place today if we had!"

NORTH MAPLE STREET — BOWLING GREEN, OHIO
With a record of two wins and no defeats thus far, the Falcons meet a team representing Central State Teachers college from Mt. Pleasant, Mich. today.

Since the visitors also benefit from the United States Navys lend-lease program of athletics during the war, they are bringing a team to Bowling Green which boasts of considerable strength.

Competition with Mt. Pleasant is not new to the Falcons. The two have met in three previous games and Bowling Green has a 2 to 1 edge. The first game was in 1924, the first year that Prof. Warren Steller was coach and the Falcons lost 21 to 0. Coach Steller directed the team to victories in 1926 and 1931 by scores of 13 to 0 and 6 to 0 respectively.

The Michigan team is welcomed back to our campus today in what should be a closely played contest.

Last Saturday night Bowling Green traveled to Cincinnati where they defeated Xavier 40 to 0. The Musketeers fashioned their varsity out of Freshmen and 4F's and lacked size and experience with which to match the Falcons.

Dr. Charles F. Church, Jr., presents the Bowling Green State University war-time band today. Organized this last week, they are not prepared to appear in marching maneuvers as yet. Made up of girls and a number of Marines and Navy men, the band is expected to develop rapidly under the experienced baton wielding of Dr. Church.

Lt. (j.g.) Aubrey Tapp, officer in charge of physical training of the V-12 unit here, in rendering a valuable service to the Athletic Department by taking charge of the coaching of a large cross-country team which will represent Bowling Green this fall. A schedule is being prepared and will be announced soon.

Next week Bowling Green's gridiron rival will be Patterson Field's Army Fliers from Dayton. That club had a very capable eleven on the field last year and has organized a team reputed to have a lot of power this season again. The game will be played in Bowling Green on Saturday, Oct. 9th at 2:00 o'clock (Ohio Time).

If you are writing to any Bowling Green boys in the service, please tell them of the date of Homecoming—Oct. 30. We play Alma, Mich. then. Many of them are inquiring about the date and intend to try to be here at that time.
A TRIBUTE TO DR. WILLIAMS

Dr. H. B. Williams

In the death of Dr. Homer B. Williams, president emeritus of Bowling Green State University, on Wednesday, Sept. 22, 1943, this institution lost an administrator who had a very great interest in athletic competition and was an ardent supporter of every phase of intercollegiate athletics.

Though he was not of the demonstrative type, Dr. Williams displayed a great enthusiasm for victories and was philosophical in defeat. Like most Americans, he enjoyed backing a winner and displayed a wholesome dislike for defeats.

When he launched this university under the name of Bowling Green State Normal College back in September, 1914, there was a war in progress in Europe. The school witnessed a number of years of hardship. It was three years before a team appeared in intercollegiate circles representing "B.G.N.C."

That was in basketball. Dr. Williams heartily supported the endeavor under Athletic Director F. G. Beyerman, who is now an insurance agent in Bowling Green. But, that same year, 1917, the United States entered World War I and male enrollment was very limited. In fact, in the fall of the year that the Armistice was signed, 1918, there were only six men in college. But a complete cage schedule was drafted anyway. (You might ask Prof. Ralph A. Schaller, of the biology department, about this since he was the sixth man in school and was the lone substitute on the team.)

From the time that football originated in 1919 until last fall he made a practice of visiting the practice field several times each season to watch the boys work out and he never missed a game if he could find it possible to be present. He was among the first to inquire the score when he was forced to remain at his desk.

He never missed a rally when he was President of the institution and he gained a quiet thrill and felt a good deal of pride in seeing Bowling Greens colors leading the pack. He was a great believer in the theory that good teams build good morale and that one of the things that help launch a successful academic year each fall is a winning football team.

But despite his enthusiasm in this manner, he never permitted it to influence him to permit commercialism to creep into the athletic picture at Bowling Green. The temptation was great and it was frequent but he sternly rebuked those who suggested it. The result was that Bowling Green never did while he was president, and has not in succeeding administrations, ever granted an athletic scholarship to any man.

He insisted upon high standards of scholarship for eligibility. Once he walked upon a basketball floor to eject the star of the team who was substituted in a crucial championship game when the coach used the athlete knowing that he was not eligible.

Dr. Williams lived by a high code of ethics and he guided the institution well in establishing a reputation for honesty and integrity in her relations with other institutions in athletics.

He always said that he was glad for his lifelong contacts with young men and women because they helped to keep his viewpoint a youthful one.

One of his most cherished possessions was a "Varsity BG" blanket, awarded to him several years ago by the Varsity Club on a special occasion. That blanket was placed on the wall in his office directly in front of his desk and there it remained until his death for him to look at as he worked at his daily job as Director of Alumni Relations.

The Varsity Club has lost a loyal friend and devoted follower in Dr. Williams.
TWO ACES IN OUR COACHING STAFF

COACH ROBERT H. WHITTAKER

As head coach of football and track Robert H. Whittaker is making a great record at Bowling Green State University just as he did at Sandusky high school. "Bob" has lost only three games on the gridiron since coming to B. G.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR HAROLD ANDERSON

Bowling Green State University's basketball is looking up under the guidance of Coach Anderson. Last year's team made a fine record in his first season at the helm here. This year "Andy" expects a fair quint.

A WORLD TITLE AT STAKE

The Falcons may carry on in battles against their friendly foes in the good old American way today, a privilege that few other countries may now enjoy; but to protect our right to continue to live our lives as we wish, we as Americans must fight a bigger and more serious foe. We, who sit on the sidelines, must buy our tickets and buy them again and again in the form of War Bonds and Stamps. Make sure that your Army and Navy wins the biggest Victory in the world.

Buy Bonds. This Bank can provide you with them at any time.

Teamwork wins battles, too!

Tanks, planes, paratroopers, infantry—it takes all, working in perfect coordination, to win battles today. Just as on the football field, it's teamwork that counts.

There is one big difference. In football, you leave the winning to others. In war, you are as much a part of the teamwork needed for Victory as pilots, bombardiers, tank crews, and foot soldiers.

Your job is to buy War Bonds, and then more War Bonds—to support our boys with the finest equipment money can buy. When you invest in War Bonds regularly every pay day—not the least, but the most you can—that is teamwork.

Remember our boys over there are counting on you to do your part. Remember, too, your War Bonds work two ways. They help win the war and provide for the peace by returning (in the case of E Bonds) $4 for $3 at maturity. This is the voluntary American way to raise the huge sums needed for Victory. Every shot—every bond—counts. Do your part—now. Teamwork wins!
