Chapel Notes

April 19

John McDowell, a former student of the college, gave a reading from Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." The reading involved great dramatic skill and Mr. McDowell gave very vivid interpretations of each character introduced.

Bee Gee should be very proud of such students, who make such successes in their lines of work.

April 27

Father Bushkuhl, of the local Catholic church, addressed the student-body at this time. His theme was "Our Moral Duties as Teachers." He gave us many worthwhile and helpful thoughts.

May 4

Professor Hissong gave an address on "The Significance of the Third Thought." The assembly was kept in one uproar after another. He succeeded in making the Spring students feel at home without first making them feel as strangers. He explained what we as teachers need to be successful in our work. All undoubtedly were greatly benefited.

Make Alumni Stronger

It is the desire of the Alumni officers to make the organization stronger, better and more independent. This can be done only if all cooperate. The adopted constitution provides for membership dues of one dollar per year. Will you pay next years membership dues on June 9, and these will be credited on banquet of 1927.

Any organization is only as strong as its members make it. May your Alumni Association have your support?

Faculty News

"The Government of Ohio", by Prof. W. A. Zaugg has just come from the press of the American Book Co. The work is being published both as a supplement to Finch's "Everyday Civics" and as a separate volume. Two distinct features of the text are found in that it is written in the 'problem form' and aims to show the constitution of Ohio in action. It will have a wide circulation as over one fourth of the county systems and many cities have adopted it to date.

Campus News

Miss Minnie L. Hart of Kenton, a graduate in February, was a week-end guest of Ruby M. Riggins, Williams Hall, April 9.

The following people spent the week of April 12th to 16th in Detroit at the National Music Supervisors Convention: Prof. Tunnicliffe, Miss Hall, Agnes Pilliod and Gertrude Zeis.

"Sir, your daughter has promised to become my wife."

"Well, don't come near me for sympathy. I knew something like that would happen to you hanging around the house five nights a week."
Bee Gee vs. Detroit City College Debate

The affirmative debating team of Bee Gee; composed of Ray Troutner, Paul Woodring, and Nelson Rozelle, clashed here Friday evening with the negative of Detroit City College, composed of Isadore Levy, Russel Rogers and Ralph Burke. The debate ended with the usual result, another victory for Prof. Carmichael’s prodigies. This victory is even more important than the others as this carries Bee Gee through the first half of this finals for the Conference Championship and Cup.

The debate was a feature in itself.

The Detroit men certainly could debate and were by far the best team that has opposed the Bee Gee men this season. The decision was long in doubt. At the end of the constructive speeches the Detroit team had attained a slight lead, but in rebuttal, the acid test of a debating team, a great “come-baack” led by the veteran debater Ray Troutner was staged. By the close of the last speech the affirmative had won a hard fought victory.

This makes a clean record for the debaters and after the negative team wins from Detroit Tuesday night our title to the Ohio-Michigan Conference Championship will be clear.

Although much credit is due to the fine abilities of the individual members of the team, yet the majority of credit must go to Prof. Carmichael whose thorough knowledge of debating technique has produced so many teams which have been of credit to their Alma Mater.

Skol

Skol Bacon-Bat

Bright and early Thursday morning, May 13th, at 5:30, the Skol sorority held a Bacon-Bat in Gypsy Lane Grove.

They hiked out to the grove where a fire was built and breakfast was eaten. It was unanimously agreed that it was a Bacon-Bat that was a Bacon-Bat.

Skol Meeting

The Skol Sorority held a meeting at the home of Lois Gilbert, Tuesday, May 11. The first part of the meeting was taken over for business and the following officers for the coming year were elected:

President—Pearl Gray
Vice-President—Helen Whipple
Secretary—Pauline Barnwell
Corresponding Secretary — Dorothy Nieman
Treasurer—Edna Kalt
Chaplain—Merle Gray
G. G. P.—Marjorie Chapman
Historian—Arlene Stannard

The rest of the evening was spent in a social hour. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Jean Sherer.

Skol Spring Party

On Wednesday, May 5th the Skol Sorority very delightfully entertained with their Spring party at Seldom Inn on the Maumee River. Games were followed by a picnic dinner which left nothing to be desired. Little Skol Chinks from Chinatown helped in the serving.

Because of the breaking up of China a trial was held with Judge Sherer occupying the chari. The jury rendered a decision of “not responsible” so the defendant, Esther Violet (Peanuts) March was freed. Extras were in the hands of the court before they even knew what it was all about.

A hotly-contested baseball game ensued which was made more interesting by the lack of an unprejudiced umpire. When the game had been called on account of darkness games were played and the evening was finished with an old-fashioned “sing.”

Helen T.—Leaning over a ribbon counter in a dry goods store at Defiance asked; “Do you have any orange and brown ribbons here?”

Clerk—“Yes mam, all those you have your hands on.”
New Gym
The college gym will be constructed by the Leo Herman Contracting Company of this city, according to instructions issued to the State Department of Highways and Engineering by the Bowling Green college Board of Trustees recently. Mr. Herman submitted the lowest bid of the nine general contractors and will be awarded the contract. The legislature appropriated $175,000 for the building.

All Graduates Invited
The committee will endeavor to get invitations so far as the accuracy of the mail list will permit, to all graduates of Bowling Green Normal College, but should any graduate not be reached, we take this column as a means of extending an invitation to them. Make reservations by writing to Ivan Lake, or R. A. Schaller, Bowling Green, Ohio, by June 1, 1926. The price per plate is $1.25.

Five Sisters
A regular meeting of the Five Sisters was held at Shatzel Hall, April 27th for the election of officers for the coming year. Those elected were:

- President: Olive Bowersox
- Vice-President: Kathryn Stout
- Secretary: Katherine Gunn
- Treasurer: Marian Van Doren
- Chaplain: Rozella Loesch
- G. P.: Frances Seigenthaler
- Overseer: Anis Parks
- Historian: Gena Dirk

The Five Sisters attended the concert given by the Detroit News Orchestra at the ClaZel theatre on Thursday evening, April 29th.

Piled aboard a commodious Ford truck, the Five Sisters and a few invited guests set forth for an evening of fun going to Roche de Boeuf for a steak and marshmallow roast. The traditional "picnic eats" were appreciated by all, and although it rained a little our spirits were not dampened.

On Thursday evening, May 6, the Five

Sisters entertained at a bridge party for a few invited guests. After an evening of “bidding” and “buying”, light refreshments were served.

Birthday Party

Miss Florence Hutson entertained a group of girls in honor of her sister, Miss Gladys Hutson’s birthday, on the evening of March 25th. The guests included Misses Iris Kohler, Alice Lautzenheiser, Louise Hunter, and Mabel Heidt.

Quill Type

Quill Type on Wednesday evening, April 28, met in its regular session.

During the business session, plans were completed for the state wide Commercial Contests.

These annual contests are open to students throughout the state.

Following the business meeting, revealed to us was the interesting odd stories of our inventions and their services to man’s communications.

Lectures were given: “The Telephone” by Miss Shively, “The Telegraph” by Miss Beckman, “Western Union Telegraph Service” by Mr. Insley, “The Wireless” by Miss Brandon.

The regular meeting of the Quill Type was held on April 14. The meeting was called to order by the President. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and Miss Brentlinger was appointed critic for the evening. Plans for the Quill Type party and dance were discussed and the committee chairmen were appointed by the President. They are as follows:

- Entertainment—Mary Kerst
- Refreshments—Olive More
- Decorations—Margaret Jessen
- Invitations—Iris Hiers

A report was made upon the securing of the Quill Type Trophy, which is to be presented to the school winning the State Shorthand and Typewriting contest, but no definite action was taken.

The program in the charge of the E group was then given.

The climate, people and home conditions of Hawaii—Helen Smith (substitute)

- The products of Hawaii—Wilber Rider
- Folklore of the South Seas—Margaret Jessen
- Leprosy in Samoa—Mary Kerst
- The government and education of Hawaii—Alice Hiers.

The report by the critic was given and the Club adjourned until Wednesday, April 21, at which time a special meeting was called.

Emerson Literary Society

The meeting of April 14 was opened with a short business session. Professor Schwarz had charge of the Parliamentary Drill, which as usual was a success. Lorena Beatty gave a very interesting talk on the topic: “Origin of Operas.”

April 28

This occasion was the climax of our Parliamentary Drill. The entire evening was spent as a mass meeting. Ray Troutner, as chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented a most unique set of resolutions, which the society acted upon. Eleanor Stutz, as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, presented some very possible (?) ways of financing the society’s projects. Olive Bowersox, president of the society, acted as chairman of the meeting. More complicated situations, than those which she encountered, could not be thought of. Yet, she never once was lost and managed the meeting exceedingly well. Jonathan Ladd, the unruly member, added much to the enjoyment of the evening by his remarks and actions. Once he was removed and then brought in again before the president. Again he was removed by main force by the sergeant-at-arms, Chester Cornell. The society voted to reinstate the offender, but he could not be found. A committee was then appointed to search for him as the night was very dark.

Those present not only greatly enjoyed the evening, but received much benefit by exercising their parliamentary knowledge.
The Toledo—"Bee Gee Tee"—Club has been coming right along even though it has not had any reports in the Bee Gee News recently. The last meeting on Monday night April 19, at Shatzel Hall, was especially enjoyable for many reasons.

The first part of the evening was given over to the business of discussing the banquet which is to take place at the Women's Building on Monday evening May 24. It was not hard to create interest in an affair of this sort, especially after the successful luncheon during Christmas week. There will be no need to "talk up" this coming banquet to our members because a brief chat with one of the committees will be enough to cause sufficient enthusiasm.

But this Toledo Club is more than a social gathering, and it takes the affairs of its members to heart. One of the things which has caused much disturbance among our members was the deficiency examinations. Led by Miss Kathryn Meyers, several girls formed a committee and planned a mode of attack. What this plan is need not be discussed for it was interrupted by the news which Dr. Williams gave in chapel, the following week.

Going back to the meeting again, after the business was concluded we, of course, had a "bite to eat," a sort of pot luck, and an entertainment combined. One of the games played was an old favorite. Each person was given paper and told to write two adjectives, fold what they had written down so it could not be seen, and pass the paper on. As the different commands were given on what to write, the paper was each time folded, until on the end the result was to be read aloud. Some of them were so good we thought that they should be shared with the rest of our college.

The beautiful but dumb—H.—met Mr.—at Country Life—he said, "Do you really mean it?"—she said, "Leggo!"—he gave her a tender smile—she gave him a punch—the consequence was a quarrel—the world thought, another good man gone wrong.

A certain Toledoan—M. met J. B.—in the B. G. cemetery—he said, "You are deficient in four things."—she said, "Help, help, I'm in up to my knees!"—he gave her a note—she gave him the same thing—the result was the eternal triangle—the world thought, "Oh well, Collegiates!"

The beautiful, grand—M. D.—met Posty—in a thimble—he said, "This is a pretty tight pinch we're in."—she said, "Indeed I do."—he gave her a lemon—she gave him a sour look—the consequence was that the light went out—the world thought that they'd live happy ever after.

Mary Lawrence and Gladys Kelley, delegates to the State Convention at Westerville, had charge of the hour on April 15. Miss Lawrence brought some inspiration from the group of lectures by Dr. Bruce Curry on "The Undeveloped Resources of Life," and outlined some interesting questions discussed in the Commission in charge of Dean Voight of Athens on "The Relations of Men and Women." Equally interesting and helpful reports on the lectures of Francis E. Miller and Harry F. Ward were given by Miss Kelley. Miss Shaw, who was able to attend the meetings for a short time, emphasized her belief in the college men and women of to-day and the inspiration derived from such gatherings.

On April 22nd, Mary Freeman led the discussion, the topic being, "The Y. W. Triangle and What It Means." Devotions were led by Mabel Lyons. Miss Helen Kurtz favored with a special number. The topics as discussed were:

- Intellectual Development—Donnabelle Phillips
- Physical Development—Esther March
- Social Development—Thelma Ritchey
- Spiritual Development—Estrella Daniels
An interesting round-table discussion was participated in by Gladys Kelley, Miss Shaw, Esther March, Rosella Loesch, Mary Lawrence and Estrella Daniels.

Thursday, April 29
Merle Gray had charge of the discussion of the topic, “The Place Where I Live.” She explained briefly that the topic had to do with our bodies. The following topics were discussed:
- Keeping It Clean—Ellura Cook
- Keeping It Healthy—Miss Gray
- Keeping It Friendly—Thelma Longfellow
- Keeping It Happy—Helen Thompson
Miss Shirley Overmeyer had charge of the devotions.

Thursday, May 6
This was a joint meeting with the Y. M. C. A. to discuss China's place in foreign affairs and our problem in relation to China. Following a brief song service, devotions were led by Merle Gray. Miss Louise Lattanner and Miss Marian Van Dorn favored us with some piano duets, and Mr. Norman Campbell entertained with some vocal solos. Prof. Schwarz capably guided the group toward an informed intelligence regarding actual conditions in China and our problem as a nation in his talk, “China's Growing Pains.” He impressed us especially with the idea that United States is not responsible for the peace of the world and can do nothing more than demand that China be given a square deal and allowed to develop naturally.

Miss Neprud Speaks to Girls
Miss Neprud, editor of “The Ohio Woman Votes,” spoke to a number of the girls of the college Wednesday, May 5. Her theme was “Citizenship and the Work of the League of Women Voters.” All those there enjoyed her talk very much. Miss Neprud had a very pleasing personality. She has had much experience, including two years of teaching in China, which aided in making her talk interesting. She presented the thought that we as teachers owed it to our communities to be well informed about civic problems. Education along this line is included in the program of the League of Women Voters. This organization is non-partisan and any woman may become a member. The League is now organizing societies in the various colleges. Just four colleges in the state now have an organization. Miss Nupred presented the idea to the girls of our college and it was received with much interest. Grace Tressel, who had charge of the meeting, appointed Lucy Veler, Gladys Kelley and Marie Dock as a committee to begin the work of organization at Bee Gee.

On the Washington D. C. trip, Mr. Carmichael told one of the boys to keep his head behind the curtain of the sleeper, using this language: “Get back you nigger, or I'll hit you.” Just then Mr. Carmichael realized that a porter was standing beside him, whereupon the professor immediately tipped the porter 25 cents for the slip that he had made.

At the Girl's Prom, a short business session was held at which the girls expressed a desire for a Women's Athletic Association. Esther March was chosen as temporary chairman and Eleanor Stutz as head of a committee to draw up a Constitution. The final draft of the W. A. A. Constitution was submitted before a women's mass meeting May 6th and accepted by them. Officers were chosen for the following year. They are:

Women's Athletics

Women's Athletics are coming to the front in our college. The newly organized Women's Athletic Association promises to add increased interest to the courses offered by the physical education department. Points for making teams are being accumulated by the girls and recognition will be awarded to them for competing in the various sports.

At present, interest is centered on base ball, tennis, and track and field events. The winners of base ball and track and field events will be determined by the field meet and base ball tournament. In tennis a ladder tournament is being played off. Students are also doing additional work in hiking. The W. A. A. Constitution provides for the regulation of the above sports.

Competition is keen between the girls to win places on the various class teams and they are displaying unusual ability in many of the sports.

Come on girls! Let's boost Women's Athletics, for by so doing we can also boost our school.

Ohio Relays

On the date set for this event Landis took his representatives and went to the capital city. The follows making the trip were: Captain Bill Ogden, Measell, Haltunen, Gahn, McDaniel, and Ostrander.

Altho the gang failed to win any points a great deal of experience was gained by running under such strong competition.

The team entered the following events: 100 yard dash—Measell and Ostrander. 1 mile relay. Medley relay.

B. G. vs. Ohio Northern

Altho the Ohio Conference Bears won its first dual track meet from the locals there is no sobbing in the Orange camp. Altho beaten decisively certain high points marked the day and with a little more faithful training on the part of certain fellows more such points will be in evidence in future meets.

It is too early to either praise or condemn the work of any individual, altho Measell, Halutunen, Bachman, Reider, Ogden, Simmons and Brenton showed a great deal of ability in their respective events.

The following records will enable you to judge the performances for yourself.

Findlay vs. Bee Gee

Bowling Green opened the home baseball season with a great “bing bang” by decisively beating Findlay. The Findlay team met a terrific crowd of ball pounders. Filiere and Bohyer, a couple recruits showed well in handling the ashen cudgel. After the regulars were somewhat run down Coach Landis tried a few of the yanagans who added hits and scores to the already large number of runs. By the looks of the team all are stars centering around a trio of hurlers namely: Rudolph, Filiere and Bohyer.

Ohio Northern 4--Bee Gee 6

Promptly at 3 o'clock on a certain Wednesday of the year 1926 Jupiter Pluvius cut loose with a slow wet, drizzly, rain. At 3:15 Umpire Mallory called the fateful words “play ball.” As the rain descended and the ball players played, it became apparent that the side which was the best in juggling would win the contest. The horsehide became slippery, the pitcher became more lenient but Filiere was more effective than Stump and before the sun arose on the morrow Northern were again in Ada with 4 runs while B. G. stayed right here with 6.

Toledo 5--Bee Gee 24

As the News and Sentinel said the merry school boys of B. G. sure did some capering around in the big city of Toledo. After reaching the big city and hunting around in all the nooks and corners a plot of ground resembling a baseball diamond was discovered. At 4:15 the game was called and for the next two hours and a half ten or eleven Toledo U men nearly died from exhaustion. Bohyer and Filiere hit homers and Mollenkopf smashed out a triple. Rudolph was very sore because he couldn’t quite run fast enough to make his hit a homer. After every one present enjoyed the races B. G. sailed home having bagged 24 runs while Toledo by elevating her sights cracked out 5.

Home Economics Club

On Wednesday evening, April seventh, the Home Economics Club held its regular meeting. Plans for the Home Economics party which is to be held on Saturday evening, April seventeenth, was the only business which was discussed at this meeting. A social hour was enjoyed and delightful refreshments were served. Miss Lita Gigax acted as hostess and was assisted by Miss Sadie Clements, Miss Alice Slessman, and Miss Doretha Hearn.

Mistress (to Swedish maid):
"Back from the show already, Olga?"
"Yes, mum."
"Scaramouche?"
"No, not very much."

Sweet Young Thing—"Will you be a stag at our formal next week?"
Freshman (not so sweet) —"Sure I love masquerade parties."

Defiance 8--Bee Gee 7

The sun shone, the day was warm, just ideal for baseball, but—. It is not the policy of the scribe to make alibis for the team, so here goes as best we know how.

Defiance only earned 4 runs while B. G. turned in 7. Defiance fumbled the old pill only twice. B. G. only six times.

B. G. was struck by stage fright some time in the middle of the afternoon and it was not until long about the fifth and sixth inning that the old confidence and fight came again to their tent. As the smoke of battle cleared it became evident that B. G. was the looser 8-7. Only one thing marred the game and that was when it was discovered that the opposing pitcher was using rosin to help with his pitching.

Bohyer was the big gun at the bat collecting a single, double and triple in 4 times up.

Model Application
Sunday, April 25
Dear Mr. Supt. and Family:

As I have nothing else to do I thought I would take fountain pen and fountain pen ink in hand and write you a few lines to see about gettin' a job. I am all well and hope you folks are the same. About those questions. My health is good. I feel good. In fact, I am healthy. That's another way to put it. Today I kinda got a little cough but I kicked the covers off last night. I like the job of being Supt. if you want me to. Don't worry I'll use my influence to get you a position. What grade would you like to teach?

Oh, yes, about my appearances, well I appear to be allright. I am exceedingly tantalized along musical lines.

I'm gettin' my education at B. G. Prexy is the President. I have the highest standing in class (of about six ft.). I also stand high in society; comes handy about seeing.

Say now, about that marriage question, much obliged to you fellows but I never did have any luck with them bureaus anyhow. I hear your having quite a bit of trouble with your school. Where it says, personality, experience, references, etc. I'll answer yes.

When we have an interview be yourself. Don't become self-conscious and flustered. Talk to me just like you were talking to Thorndyke or any other person.

Now t. Supt. look here, I wish you'd read this pretty careful. It's very important. The salary I expect. Now, I always expect an increase in salary. Remember that. Its going to be a pretty hard job for you fellows to get me over there to take charge of the system. Just keep dingin' away. Don't let me rest. Good men are scarce. Just keep raisin' the price. Remember I'm teaching for the good I'll do humanity and not for money. Therefore money's not very important to me and you have to raise it quite a bit to make me notice. Now, that's just a hint. How is my English and Latin? May I write again?

With love,

W. F. Cornell

From a Busy Magnate To a Long-Lost College Son
My Dear Son:

You were right as always. My wife—that is, your mother, swore that you were home several hours during the mid-term holidays two years ago. So I apologize profusely for being so hasty in accusing you of neglecting your family. She also said that was your first year in college. I don't recall your graduation from Molasses Prep and have often wondered how you got in college. Perhaps you forgot to write us about your graduation. But I trust you, my boy, and I have a feeling that you will never take unfair advantage of any one.

In your last letter a year ago November you mentioned busting out several times. This is unfortunate, and it will now probably mean four or five years more before you can take over my business. Please continue to do your best. By the way, if you are married yet, please send us your wife's name and picture. Also please enclose your own. You must be a big, strong fellow by now. Let's see, your mother tells me you are twenty years old. How fine! Do plan to spend an hour or so home Christmas. Your loving father.

CAN YOU IMAGINE

The author of the "Can You Imagine" column getting married and forgetting to contribute to this issue?

Ray Troutner, while on the recent trip to Washington walked into the Hotel seeking his room.

"Have you a reservation?" asked the clerk.

"Say," answered Ray, hotly, "What do you think I am, an Indian?"

"I'm strong for you, kid."—Samson.

A QUICK WORKER

"Has the son you sent away to college got his degree yet?"

"I should say so. Why he wrote last week that the faculty had called him in and given him the third degree. That boy's ambitious!"

"Could I see General Blank?"

"I'm sorry, but General Blank is ill today."

"What made him ill?"

"Oh, things in general."

"The position always seeks the man."

Some of us are thinking that it must be mighty bashful!
