GOLD MASK

The Gold Mask Club opened the college dramatic season by one of the most finished productions ever seen on the college stage in its presentation of "The Cat and the Canary," the great mystery drama written by John Willard. It was presented at two performances in connection with Homecoming.

Hair-raising from the beginning to the end; productive of air splitting screams; horrible shudders and sickening anxiety, the play gave the audiences sensations which kept many awake most of the night.

Sliding panels, slow gliding movements, disappearing bodies, claw-like hands, an escaped maniac and what not jammed the play so full of excitement that there wasn't a tiresome moment in it and the professional way in the play was presented gave Bowling Green students, alumni and friends a feeling of great pride that such a difficult vehicle could be given so well and without a single break.

Individual mention of the players is impossible. All proved themselves highly capable of the various task that were demanded of them. The cast was as follows:

"Mammy Pleasant", Arlene Stannard '25
Roger Crosby, John Carrington '30
Harry Blythe, Franklin Skibbie '25
Charles Wilder, Burton Wewese, ex '23
Susan Sileby, Anna Hayne '29
Cicily Yong, Blanche Shanower '30
Paul Jones, Chester Ray '29
Annabelle West, Gertrude Fries '29
Hendricks, Horace Pelton '29
Patterson, Frank Purdy '29

The play was staged by Ivan E. Lake '23, president of the club. New scenery was specially made for the production by the Tiffin Scenic Studio.

On November 22 the Club took the play to Holland, where it was presented before a packed auditorium, the largest to ever gather for any play there. It was declared most successful. Additional performances are planned after the holidays in Wayne, Bloomdale and Swanton and possibly other places.

The next play to be presented by the club will be "The Enemy" a four act war drama by Channing Pollock. A wonderful cast is being selected for the play being centered around Mrs. W. B. Alward, '25 of Camden, Mich. nee Miriam Long. Mrs. Alward's past appearances here were always greeted with high praise and it is believed that her appearance in this play will be a crowning achievement.

Others who will be cast in "The Enemy" are Carleton C. Jones, John Hough, Clement Premo, Graham Place, Ivan Lake and several more. The play will be directed by Ivan Lake.

Critics hailed the play as one of the greatest of the present day when it appeared in New York and it is being presented in Bowling Green through special arrangement with the Walter H. Baker Co., of Boston, Mass.

The Gold Mask Club is an honorary organization. Students completing a year in the drama class, who have proven their value to the stage through acting or stage craft and are believed to be worthy of election, are made members through special ballot of the club.

The Club is entirely self supporting, relying up on gate receipts of each play to pay for its production. No one makes a profit and the aim of the club is to promote good drama in Bowling Green for the education and the entertainment of all.

Thelma H: "What is a woman's instinct?"
The picture above was one of the scenes in the play. John Cartaret, (Ivan Lake) is seated at the left of the picture and his life long friend, Dr. Owens (Carleton Jones) is seated at the right. Ellen, the faithful housekeeper, (Gertrude Fries) is standing.

Miss Lillian Tressel who took her Master's degree in French and Spanish at Ohio State last year, has now returned to Bowling Green College and is teaching in the Foreign Language Department. She spent one year in Syracuse University teaching and studying and two years in Winthrop College as instructor in French.

Mr. Jonathan Ladd, who has been teaching French in Fostoria High School for the past two years is now doing graduate work in French at Western Reserve.

Miss Olive Bowersox '28 is teaching Latin in Napoleon High School this year. She taught French in a Boy's Camp in Indiana.

Miss Grace Tressel '26 took her Master's degree in Latin and French at Ohio State last year and this year she is teaching Latin and Spanish in Blackstone Women's College, Virginia.

Miss Jean Sherer, who is teaching Latin and French in Rossford High school did graduate work in these subjects last summer in the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Blanche Davis, who is teaching Latin in Bradner High school did graduate work in Latin at Columbia last summer.

Here it is the first of December, twelve weeks of our school year is gone, twelve weeks, a third of the entire school year.

How many of our organizations are permanently organized and actively functioning?

If it is worth while to have these clubs and societies why is it not important that we enjoy the benefits of their existence for as long a time as possible?

All the classes are not even organized now. The Freshmen class is the only one so far which has entirely finished its organizing. Where are the other three? Surely the Seniors have matters of importance coming before them which requires handling by an organized class.

Now it is easy enough to knock but to criticize without at least some idea of a way to make things better is harmful and foolish. This is just a suggestion of something which might help out. Why not have a week, for instance, the seventh or eighth, set aside as a time in which all those groups about school which have not already organized be reminded of this fact and given an opportunity to effect such organization?

This would be after the six weeks' grades had been given out and those not eligible would be known. This is only a suggestion but it does seem that there should be some way of deriving more benefit from our organizations.

INTERNATIONAL DEBATE

On Thursday evening, December 6, a debate was held between the team representing Oxford University, England and one representing our college. The question was, “Resolved, that the United States should enter the League of Nations.”

The subject was of peculiar interest because of its being a very live issue of the day. The Oxford team represented the viewpoint of the British nation. They took the affirmative side and argued that we should join the League.

The arguments of both sides were well handled and those attending were treated to very eloquent, witty speeches. While a little difficulty was felt in understanding the English speakers it did not seriously detract from enjoying their clear thinking and timely witicism.

The English speakers were Mr. Dingle M. Foot, Mr. C. S. Malcolm Brereton, and Mr. Alan Lennox Boyd. Mr. Berton also gave the rebuttal speech.

Bowling Green College was represented by Robert Tripp, of Michigan, Lester Hanna, Bowling Green, Nelson Rozelle, Findlay and Howard George of Bowling Green. The first three gave the constructive arguments and Mr. George made the rebuttal speech.

Dr. C. C. Kohl, head of the Social Science Department, very capably acted as chairman. In opening the debate he compared the length of time during which the two institutions represented had existed. He asked those in the audience to vote for the side which in their opinion had done the most effective debating. When the votes were counted it was found that Bowling Green College had won by a score of 164 to 101.

Christmas Program

On Thursday evening, December 20th at seven thirty the annual Christmas program will be given in the auditorium. The music department have arranged an interesting program of vocal solos, duets, choruses and brass quartettes. Faculty and students are urged to keep the date open and enjoy this recognition of the Yuletide season.

Physical Education

The new course in Physical Education has been so arranged that it can be used as a minor in the regular degree course or in any of the special courses except Music.

W. A. A.

The Womans Athletic Association will hold their regular meeting on December 19 in room 303. The time will be given over to the awarding of emblems to girls who have won points during the hockey and soccer seasons and also by hiking.

At the present time a very interesting Soccer tournament is being played on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at four o'clock.

INTRA-MURAL SOCCER

Soccer the "national game of fifty different countries" has been played during the last month by nearly seventy of the college girls as an intra-mural sport. Six teams were organized and scheduled in a tournament which completes the outdoor season.

As a team game soccer leads in requiring only a minimum amount of natural ability or developed skill to enjoy the game. Even the inexperienced player soon acquires enough skill and mastery in playing the ball to feel the thrill of making a good kick. Children from the fourth grade proclaim it as their favorite sport. Soccer equipment costs very little and the balls may be used in many other games. Its adaptability to group field and weather should make it a popular game in our public schools.

Prof. J. R. Overman, of the mathematical department, has recently published a pamphlet, entitled Drill and Remedial Tests in Arithmetic. In connection with these tests a comprehensive set of standards covering the fundamentals of arithmetic has been worked out for college students for the first time. The tests are standardized on three levels to take care of individual differences. These tests are now being used in all of the arithmetic classes of the college as part of the diagnostic and remedial program required by the State Department of Education.

C. C. Kohl plans to attend the meetings of the American Sociological Society in Chicago the last week in December.

Prof. Zaugg gave too lecturers before Fulton County Teachers Association, on December 8, 1928.

Miss Alice Roth, assistant supervisor of Student Teaching, will spend the holidays at her home in Findlay.

Prof. Crowley left Wednesday night, December 12, for Philadelphia, Pa., to attend a three day session of the American Vocational Association being held at the Benjamin Franklin hotel.
BEE GEE NEWS

PHYSICAL EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT NEWS

Physical Education 27 classes have just completed 3 weeks study and practice of soccer. Each section has followed a program that could be used in the elementary school. Starting with contests in fundamental skills and simple team games for 3rd graders and progressing thru types of skills and games adapted to each age group thru Junior High. Emphasis has been placed upon the teacher's opportunity for a fine bit of leadership in character training during the play period thru development of ideals of fair play and good sportsmanship.

Phy. Ed. 29 classes are practicing stunts, tumbling and pyramid building. Unexpected abilities have been discovered and all are improving in agility and flexibility. In the words of one student "We seem to work every muscle in the body as in gymnastic exercises but its more informal and more fun."

A Red and Blue contest is conducted in each grade in the Training School and each team tries to keep its banner on the walls. Two contests a week count toward the banner and as many points are given for good sportsmanship as for winning in a contest. The other days are given to folk dancing, stunts, tumbling relays.

Dr. Todd spoke on Health at the October meeting of the Parent Teachers Association of the Training School.

On November 22, Miss Shaw spoke to the Parent Teachers Association of the Centralized school at Luckey on the subject, The place of Play in the School Curriculum.

Miss Helen Henderson, instructor in the Home Economics Department is on leave of absence and is doing graduate work in Columbia University.

A course in Child Care is being offered for the first time in the Home Economics Department.

Lura Irene Mills, Sixth grade supervisor, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with friends in Akron, Ohio.

The Training School P. T. A. meets Monday evening, December 10 at 7:30.

The boys and girls in the Training School are asking the cooperation of all in keeping papers off the grounds and walks.

C. C. Kohl will act as judge in the Heidelberg-Bluffton debate at Bluffton the evening of December 13.

The most popular members of the Home Economics Department are twelve white rats, which are living in cages in the department office. They are being fed on various diets to show the effect of nutrition upon growth and general health.

The 1930 Yearbook of the National Society for the Study of Education is to be on arithmetic. Prof. J. R. Overman, of the department of mathematics, has been appointed a member of the Reviewing Committee that is to read and criticize sections of the yearbook before publication.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Now that the football season is over, the college band has started active work on concert material, anticipating several appearances during the winter and spring. The band has been augmented by the addition of ten new members, and now has quite a well balanced instrumentation, capable of preparing concert music of the better type.

The college orchestra gives promise of being the best organization of its kind the school has possessed. It is larger than last year, with a much better balance of parts, having added important wood-wind, brass, and percussion instruments. Two concerts are being planned for the year, in place of one of former years.

The college will also boast at least three smaller organizations, of the chamber music type. The string quartet has been rehearsing regularly all year, under Mr. McEwen of the music faculty and no doubt will be heard on several occasions during the remainder of the year. The members are: Donald Armstrong, 1st violin; Sidney Barron, 2nd violin; Mr. McEwen, viola; and Ellsworth Capen, cello.

A brass quartet, composed of Mary Miller and Ethel Hilgeneck, cornets and Howard George and George Hilgeneck, trombones, has just been started, which plans to do regular work each week on standard arrangements for that instrumentation. The brass quartet is seldom heard, although it is capable of most beautiful and stirring effects.

The purchase by the college of a fine new basson has made possible the organization of a very rarely heard quintet. This is a woodwind quintet, composed of Hollis Dindot, flute; Ellsworth Capen, oboe; Courtney Wilcox, clarinet; Marvin George, bassoon; and Howard George, french horn. The various tone qualities of these five instruments blend together with unusual beauty, and we hope for much from them. The latter two organizations are coached by Mr. Church.
Y. W. C. A.

On November 15, Y. W. C. A. was held for the first time in the Shatze! Annex, a much more cheerful and cozy meeting place than the rather gloomy room in the Administration building where the meetings had formerly been held. The feature of this program, as of the two following, was an address by a member of the faculty, Dr. Williamson spoke on the subject, “What’s the Matter with our College Parties?” The next week Dr. Todd’s address was on the topic, “Is Health Necessary in College?” Then the question “What Should We Wear in College?” was answered by Miss Heston on the following Thursday December 6. In connection with these addresses there were excellent musical numbers and peppy group discussions on the evening’s subject.

On December 13 there was a departure from the usual type of meeting, Mrs. Williams had invited the organization to her home on that evening for a jolly informal get-together, and the invitation was accordingly accepted. There was musical numbers given by three of the music students, group singing, refreshments, and, in all, lots of fun. The society appreciated the kindess of Mrs. Williams in making such an enjoyable evening possible.

These meetings are merely representative of the kind of meetings held by the Y. W. C. A. There is always sure to be something interesting on hand for those who attend and, as the meetings are not restricted to the members alone, we invite every girl in the college to come and “listen in” on the programs.

SMILING FOR SMILING

One of the crowning achievements of the Gold Mask Club, Bowling Green college Honorary Dramatic fraternity, was the presentation of “Smilin’ Through” at the Commencement period last June.

Never has such a delicately beautiful piece of work been done by the college group here. It was declared a tremendous success by all who saw it.

It was unique in many respects, being presented without the use of a curtain to denote changes in acts and being given with special care being taken in the lighting effects.

The garden and house were constructed by Prof. E. C. Powell, acting head of the Industrial Arts department at that time and his group of students assistants.

The dimming of flood lights and special use of spotlights brought out most unusual effects in the play.

The customing was done by the club members under the supervision of Miss Arlene Stannard, property custodian. Direction and staging of the play was in the hands of Ivan E. Lake, president.

Special music was added to the play in many places, and a string orchestra played old time melodies throughout the action. The music was under the direction of Prof. R. M. Tunnicliffe and Mr. Church.

BOWLING GREEN GIRL WINS FIRST PRIZE

On October 22, Miss Esther Crecelius at present a senior in Bowling Green college was declared the winner of the Ohio Progress Exposition Contest. Miss Crecelius was for many years a teacher in Wood county and a critic in the summer training school of the college. Miss Crecelius was backed by the Commercial Club of Bowling Green and by the Commercial Clubs of Huron, Erie, Lorain and Sandusky counties.

In 1923, Miss Crecelius graduated from the Elementary Education course at B. G. N. C. Her work was of such a high standard that she was hired immediately to act as a critic teacher for the college in the model school at Weston. She remained there for three years and then went to Van Buren, where she again had the position as a critic teacher for the college.

She was declared winner of the contest by a margin of several thousand votes. The votes were obtained through the sale of tickets to the Ohio Progress Exposition. Each ticket sold added ten votes.

On December 16, she will leave for New York, traveling by way of the Panama Canal and then through the Orient. She will probably return some time in May.

She will be accompanied by Miss Mary Campbell, Columbus, twice winner of the title of "Miss America." Miss Campbell added to her laurels with the winning of a four months round the world cruise in the Ohio Progress Exposition Contest.

Bowling Green College is very proud to be able to say that a student from here won first prize in the contest. Bowling Green helped Miss Crecelius in every possible way.

Current Events

To the student who first answers correctly the questions below, before the next issue of the Bee Gee News, a prize will be given.

Put your name on the paper with the answers and give it to Anna Hayne or place it in the Bee Gee News box at the head of the stairs by the Post Office window.

The correct answers will be published in the next issue.

1. What American diplomat, well known in this section of Ohio, has recently returned from France?
2. How many men, from the far eastern and far western parts of the United States, are members of the Associated Press All-American football team?
3. What is the purpose of the Pan-American Conference, now being held in Washington, D. C.?
4. What does President Coolidge urge in this Pan American conference?
5. What will be the value of Commander Byrd's expedition?
6. Who has been the healthiest President of the United States?
7. What does President Coolidge propose concerning the White House?
8. Suggest at least two recent movements which will make world peace?
9. Who is the world's heaviest champion?
10. What will be the name of the next king of England?
THE KICK OFF PARTY

The Woman's gymnasium was the scene of a very cleverly arranged dance given by the Womans Athletic Association on December 7 in honor of the football squad. The gym was prettily decorated in orange and brown, the college colors, and with pennants from various colleges.

During the course of the evening Harry Gwynn, elected honorary captain of the squad, kicked off to the rest of the squad. Glenn Pore led the squad in cheering for the W. A. A.

The Guests of Honor were President and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Landis, Mr. Steller, Miss Shaw, Miss Hough, Dr. Todd and Mr. and Mrs. Crowley.

This is only the second year that the W. A. A. has had the honor of giving the traditional Kick-off party. We are certainly proud to be able to give it for the only undefeated football team that Bowling Green College has had.

FRATERNITY NEWS

Wednesday evening, Nov. 21, eleven members of the fraternity met at their house, and together with lady guests, went in a group to the Cla-Zel theatre, where they witnessed the photoplay, "Wings"; afterwards, delicious refreshments were enjoyed at Fetzer's Grill. Those enjoying the occasion were: Donald Armstrong, Marvin George, Hayes Garster, John Hough, Stanley Myers, Frank Campbell, Howard George, Ellsworth Capen, Hollas Dindot, Mr. and Mrs. Zaugg, Mr. Hissong, Harriet Hissong, Pauline Wenger, Kathryn House, Ellen Stover, Helen Boyer, Ellena Percy, Bernice Hitchcock, Blanche Shannon, Kathryn Sams, and Margaret Wertz.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club held its last meeting on Wednesday, November 21 in Room 217A.

The main feature of the program was a first aid demonstration given by Dr. Todd.

We entertained as our guests, Dr. Todd and the girls taking a major course in Physical Education.

It is the aim of the club to entertain every department in school this year if possible.

After the demonstration a short business meeting was held at which time we decided to order new pins for the Club.

Having completed the program we were served pumpkin pie and cider in the Home Economics dining room by the following hostesses, Ruth Hayhurst, Mildred Immel, and Mildred Allen.

Wood County O. S. U. Alumni Hold Annual Banquet

The annual banquet of the Ohio State University Alumni of Wood County was held Friday evening, December 7, in the First Methodist Church. Forty-nine alumni and friends were present.

Mr. E. H. Reed, president of the organization, introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. David S. White, Dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine of the University, who gave the finest picture of the University and its problems that the alumni have been privileged to hear for many a day.

Prof. E. C. Powell, former Secretary-treasurer of the organization was elected as president for next year and Miss Marjorie Minich as the new secretary-treasurer. After singing "Carmen Ohio" the meeting was brought to a close everyone insisting that this meeting was "the best ever".

"Mama" complained Eva, "I don't feel very well."

"That's too bad, dear," said mother sympathetically, "Where do you feel worst."

"In school, mama."

BOOK AND MOTOR

The Book and Motor Society has announced the election of the following students to membership in that organization: Frances Babione, Margaret Beebe, Hollas Dindot, Howard George, Anna Hayne, Dorothy May, Frances Reeser, Nelson Rozelle, Kathryn Sams and Doris Urschel.

The second fall meeting was held at the Women's Club as an informal party in honor of the new members. A short business meeting was held during which the following officers were elected for the year: president, Esther Hayhurst, vice president, Isabelle Wagner; secretary, Otis Dumer; treasurer Prof. R. M. Tunncliffe. An interesting program followed the business meeting. Musical selections by Kathryn Sams, Hollas Dindot and Howard George were enjoyed. The theme for the evening was "Book and Motor." Under the topic "Book" Miss Lillian Tressel gave an interesting discussion of scholarship. "Motor" was discussed by Miss Frances Fiegel, who gave a student's viewpoint of college activities. The new members were cleverly introduced to the group by Mr. Otis Demer, Miss Isabelle Wagner and Miss Marguerite McConnel. Apt responses were given to the introductions. Light refreshments were served during the social hour which followed.

Ye Olde Five Brothers Frat.

Ye Olde Five Brothers Fraternity is located at 244 North Prospect Street once more for the school year 1928-29. The following men have graduated from the institution during the year 1928, so they have passed from the active member rank to the alumni member rank: Forrest Warner, now coaching at Rockford High school, Ohio; Ora Knecht, now coaching at Shawnee High school, Ohio; and Tobias Edwards, now principal of Van Buren High School, Ohio. Also Harry Hawkins, a junior, who is coaching at Jackson Township High School, Hoytville, Ohio, has had the success of winning the Wood Co. High School baseball tournament, and expects to do better in the Northwestern Ohio Tournament in the spring. We are also without the services of Walter Schmunk, who is now enrolled at Ohio State, and Edward Mercer, who is enrolled at Chicago University.

The Homecoming banquet was successful in every detail. Ninety were in attendance and it was "late" in the morning when all business had been taken care of. The following men received the final degree at the banquet: Clarence Filiere, Stewart Gotschalk, Ted Knight, Lester Hanna, Ervin Price and Richard Titus.

Ancel Edington was operated on recently. The nature was not one of seriousness and at the latest reports he was doing nicely.

FRESHMEN ELECTION

League of Women Voters

Dean Catherine Easely of Toledo University recently organized a chapter of the League of Women Voters on the campus. Officers elected were: president, Shirley Overmier; vice president, Olive Bush; secretary, Helen Marchky; treasurer, Helen Kitson.

Chairman of the standing committees are: Efficiency in Government, Geraldine Scott; Child Welfare, Margaret Borger; International Co-operation, Loraine Moorney; Education, Josephine Haddack; Legal Status of Women, Martha Burwell.

This organization is affiliated with similar state and national organizations. Some of the speakers of the meetings in the near future are: Dr. Kohl, Mrs. D. C. Bryant, Marie Mikesell, Dean and other prominent workers of the Toledo League of Women Voters.

Teachers today must:

1. Know problems of the day and anticipate the problems of the future.
2. Be wealthy in knowledge.
3. Have a passion for helping children to help themselves.
4. Be Artistic in all things especially in "getting things across".
5. Be impersonal.
6. Feel the dignity of being on Sacred Ground.

Supt. Offenhauer.

“What Children Must Have”

“If this generation is to grow in grace and power, these six fundamental needs of children must be met”, says Mr. Patri.

1. Routine, that they may obey the rhythmic law of their growth:
2. Play, that they may grow joyously:
3. Work, that they may obey the inward voice that commands them to carry their race one further step ahead:
4. Encouragement that they may know the power of love, the bond of brotherhood that alone makes life on earth possible or worthwhile:
5. Clear aim, that they may know whither their path leads, and so arrive without haste or waste, but with power and dignity, as a man should:
6. Self-judgment, that they may follow the way of the Father of us all, and withdrawing a step from the task and looking upon it, pronounce it very good.”

American Magazine, March 1925.

'The 6 Fundamental of Health'

1. Good Health.
2. Congenial Work.
3. Discipline of self control.
4. Human Companionship.
5. Reasonable leisure.
6. Religion or Spiritual Philosophy.

George H: “There’s been something trembling on my lips ever since I met you.”

Betty C: “Yes, so I’ve noticed. But, why don’t you shave it off?”

Starky: “You do! You know, I always have thought that music could be successfully combined with science.”

Foreign Language News

German has been re-instated in our college this year and the response has been very gratifying, as there are over fifty (50) students enrolled in beginning work.
