crowd pleasing is a must with us

Over 350,000 policyholders place their confidence in Grange Mutual. They depend on Grange to protect investments in homes, cars, farms, and businesses.

Grange all-star performances result in quick claim settlement when loss threatens due to fire, theft, illness or accident. The old college try, and second efforts are second nature with Grange Mutual agents. You’ll find Grange agents listed in the yellow pages.
Pictured on today's cover with Bowling Green's captain Dennis Zolciak is BGSU coed Linda Miller, who is obviously getting a "boot" out of things.

BG Posts Outstanding Decade

Bowling Green State University's football team, during the current decade, has posted a won-lost record that ranks it second among the 113 major college grid teams in the country.

In the past eight years of action, the Falcons have recorded a 59-15-1 mark for an excellent .789 percentage. This leaves Bowling Green behind only Alabama that has come up with a 71-6-3 record during the 1960-67 era.

Bowling Green has run up some outstanding marks during these eight seasons. The 1964 team was 9-1 while the 1960 squad finished at 8-1. The 1967 unit had the decade's poorest record, 6-4.

In the Mid-American Conference, the Falcons haven't exactly been standing still as they have rolled to four league crowns in eight seasons. Bowling Green's 1961, 1962, 1964 and 1965 teams either won or tied for the MAC title.

A look at the other teams in the conference shows Miami ranked in 23rd place with Ohio and Western Michigan ranked 43rd and 54th respectively. Kent State, Toledo and Marshall are now holding down the 87th, 95th, 97th spots.

This decade, the Falcons have compiled the second best record in the nation but Bowling Green's fine record actually stretches through 13 seasons. Bowling Green has now rolled to 15 straight winning years on the gridiron.

During this winning streak, the Falcons have compiled a record of 96-20-5 under coaches Doyt Perry and Bob Gibson. These 13 seasons have helped Bowling Green to an overall record of 283-124-42 in its first 49 years of football action.

New coach Don Nehlen is hoping to continue the winning tradition as the Falcons step into their 50th year of play.

Falcons Tackle Dayton Flyers

Looking at Dayton, Nehlen said, "we had better be fired up or we will be in trouble. I’m a pessimist, right now, I don’t know whether we can score a point or gain a yard against Dayton.

“The Flyers are big and strong and without question the most aggressive team we will play this season. They really take the play to you.” Dayton will bring a 2-0 record into the game with wins over Kent State and Indiana’s St. Joseph.

Looking back on the Falcons’ first 1968 victory, Nehlen said, “our kids were ready to play. We were just tired of hitting each other. Ball State was hurt by injuries and consequently, they couldn’t hang in there against us.”

The fact that Ball State wouldn’t be hanging in there was apparent from almost the start, as Bowling Green moved to touchdowns three of the first four times the Falcons had the ball. The starting 11 players played only about one and one-half quarters.

"Tailbacks Fred Mathews and Honester Davidson handled most of the ground gaining for the Falcons. Mathews gained 71 yards in 10 carries while Davidson came up with 93 yards in 15 attempts. Davidson scored three touchdowns for Bowling Green while Mathews came up with one."

After the Ball State encounter, Davidson was named as Bowling Green’s “Mr. Back” for his performance against the Cardinals while tight end Jim Hodakievic was “Mr. Block”. Defensively, tackle Rave Roese won the “Mr. Tackle” nomination while linebacker Dave Polak was awarded the “Mr. Interception” award.

After Saturday’s encounters, neither Bowling Green or Dayton reported any injuries. Defensive end Tom Stanching and offensive tackle Wally Pankratz will miss the Dayton game with a broken foot and knee injury respectively, but heading into the early week drills, the Falcons didn’t have any additional injuries.

Saturday’s game will mark the 13th meeting between Bowling Green and Dayton. The Falcons carry a 10-2 edge in the series and they have won 10 straight.

What direction do you take after your team has just opened its 1968 football season by blasting Ball State University 62-8 for Bowling Green’s biggest victory margin in 12 seasons?

This is the problem that Bowling Green State University’s head football coach Don Nehlen faces today as the Falcons get ready for a non-conference clash with Dayton University at Doyt L. Perry Field Saturday.

Nehlen has the answer when he says, “the honeymoon is over. Now, we have to start to fight for our life.”

- Bowling Green State University
- 1968 Football Statistics (After One Game)
Band Performs “Welcome Back” Show

Bowling Green State University's marching band, 120 strong this year, will be entertaining today's football crowd with a show welcoming the students back to campus.

This year's band, under the direction of Mark Kelly, Dave Glasmire and Louis Marini, has 52 girls and 99 boys in the total organization. The band also has 94 music majors.

Breaking these figures down, the freshman class has the biggest representation with 25 girls and 47 boys. The sophomore class has 13 girls and 27 boys in the band while the junior breakdown is seven girls and 17 boys. From the senior class, the band draws seven girls and eight boys.

This year, the featured baton twirler is again Becky Quick with Pat Frohman, Susan Reese and Beverly Staat also twirling. The drum major is Lindy McQuown.

The band has a total of 16 squad leaders and they are, Dennis Dutcher, Dennis Eby, Jan Filip, Craig Gibbins, Jack Gray, Arthur Groff, Jim Hukeemeyer, Bob Krichbaum, Bill McGarry, Steve McNew, Charles Pagnard, Tom Price, Larry Walker, Mike Wark, Tom Ziebold, and Ronald Ziegler.

For today's show, the band will move downfield to kick things off playing "Hello Dolly". From there, the band will form a football player and the music will be "Mr. Touchdown" and "I Get A Kick Out Of You".

This segment will be done to show the student body's interest in football as a spectator sport.

The band will then form a cash register to symbolize the money that is spent for a college education. In this formation, Bowling Green's marching band will play "Where My Money Goes" and "Everything I Have Is Yours".

To symbolize the cultural atmosphere on campus, the band will then form three musical notes and play "Beethoven V" plus "Classical Jazz", "Windy", "Goin' Out of My Head".

The band's final formation will be a parking meter. This will recognize the parking problem on campus as the band plays "I Didn't Know What Time It Was", and "Who's Sorry Now".

Playing Harry James' "Hi Neighbor" and "Music Makers", the band will then drill and leave the field.

The pre-game show will include Bowling Green's Fight Song, "Strike Up the Band", Dayton's Fight Song, "A Little Bit of Luck", "Happy Days", Bowling Green's Alma Mater and the National Anthem.

Falcon Coach
Don Nehlen
Nehlen, BGSU's 11th Head Coach

Don Nehlen, Bowling Green State University's defensive coordinator for the past three seasons, was named as Falcons' head football coach, after the 1967 season.

Nehlen, who quarterbacked Bowling Green's Falcons from 1955 through 1957 and landed a second team All Mid-American Conference berth during his senior year, replaces Bob Gibson who marked up a 19-9 record in three seasons at Bowling Green.

In discussing his appointment, Nehlen said, "I am tremendously pleased and honored to be given this opportunity and I hope I can continue the fine football tradition at Bowling Green State University."

During his years as a player at Bowling Green, Nehlen played under Bowling Green's current Athletic Director Doyt L. Perry. Perry said, "Nehlen was a quarterback on my first team at Bowling Green. His enthusiasm, spirit and energy were contagious at that time and they have continued throughout his coaching career. I am confident that Don will make a fine football coach for Bowling Green."

Nehlen is Bowling Green's 11th head football coach in the Falcons' 50-year intercollegiate history. He is only the second, Doyt Perry being the first, Bowling Green player to return to his alma mater as head coach.

As Bowling Green's defensive coach, Nehlen established a fine record. In three seasons, his defensive squads yielded only 361 points in 28 games for an average of slightly under 13 points a game. His teams recorded six shutouts.

In his three seasons as Bowling Green's signal caller, Nehlen took to the air 163 times and completed 80 for 1,173 yards and 11 touchdowns. He also scored six touchdowns for a total of 36 points while rushing 132 times for 271 yards.

During his entire coaching career, Nehlen has had nothing but success. After graduating from Bowling Green in June of 1958, Nehlen became the reserve football coach at Mansfield Senior High School.

From 1959-1962, Nehlen was the head football coach at Canton South High School where his teams recorded a 24-11-2 record. Nehlen won two titles and tied for another in the Stark County Class AA League in four years.

In 1963, Nehlen was at the University of Cincinnati as backfield coach. In 1964, he returned to the high school ranks as the head coach at Canton McKinley High School. That year, his squad compiled a 9-1 record and finished second in the state. His overall high school record was 33-12-2 and his team won 24 of their last 27 games.

Nehlen graduated from Canton Lincoln High School in 1954 where he lettered for two years as a quarterback and landed All-City and All-County honors. He also earned a total of seven letters in basketball and baseball and was voted as the Outstanding Athlete in Lincoln's 1954 graduating class.

Nehlen, age 32, received his Bachelor of Science in Education degree from Bowling Green in 1958 and then earned a Masters Degree at Kent State University in 1965.

He married the former Merry Ann Chopson in 1958 and has two children, Danny and Vicky.

For the first time since Bowling Green State University athletic teams stopped being "The Normals" and became "Falcons" in 1927, a real live mascot will be on hand to represent them this fall.

The recent capture of a fearsome-looking prairie falcon near Snake River Canyon, Idaho, ended Bowling Green's three-year search for an authentic standardbearer. This summer, the bird was in Fremont under the tutelage of Bowling Green junior John Blakeman, a qualified falconeer who is teaching him the fine art of mascotry.

The bird made his home in the Blakeman's backyard and basement until classes began. Then he moved into specially constructed quarters on campus, so that Mr. Blakeman can work with him daily.

Young Blakeman's mother has mixed feelings about a falcon in the house. "It's wild, but when you've got three boys, you get used to a lot of things," she said.

Mr. Blakeman has named the bird Prince Frederick because it's more dignified than "Freddy" the moniker of the University's comic mascot, who also will be showing off new feathers this fall as he goes through his series of crowd-pleasing stunts and pratfalls.

Aloof and lordly, Prince looks bigger than the one pound he weighs because he is generously filled out with feathers, stands more than a foot high and has a wing span of almost two and a half feet. Barring accidents, he will live about 25 years.

Normally found only in Western states, prairie falcons are noted for their courage, fierceness, speed and appearance. As he matures, Prince's feet will become bright yellow. The rest of him is mostly dark brown, except his breast, which is white flecked with brown.

Training Prince Fred is a little like building a house of cards, Mr. Blakeman indicated. "Each stage must be handled carefully so that he won't become confused and forget everything."

Prince, like all falcons, responds only to food, so his training sessions are every evening at feeding time. Now accustomed to his surroundings and riding on Mr. Blakeman's wrist, he is being taught to leave his perch for food. Eventually he will be able to give aerial exhibitions at football games and other special occasions without being bothered by the noise of the crowd.

To keep him from flying away, Prince wears leather woven straps called "jesses" which fasten to his perch or the heavy leather glove Mr. Blakeman wears when carrying him.

Learning to wear a hood is also part of his apprenticeship. A leather cap which fits over his head, the hood acts like a tranquilizer because it prevents him from seeing. Keenly sensitive to movement, Prince Fred's powers of vision enable him to spot moving objects from 1,000 feet in the air. His eyes don't look large, but they fill most of the space inside his head.

It is thought that falcons are equipped with binocular zoom vision, allowing them to focus in on a moving object once they've noticed it. When diving after a prey, they can achieve a speed of up to 165 miles an hour.

In many states—excluding Ohio, where falconry is illegal—falcons are trained for hunting, a sport which dates from the Dark Ages and was a favorite pastime of medieval royalty throughout Europe.

To legally acquire Fred, the University had to get a special scientific collecting permit from the Ohio Division of Wildlife. Considering how hard falcons are to come by, it is likely that when Prince Frederick makes a public appearance he will have a police body guard. For all his fierce looks, he is mild-mannered and would only attack if injured or cornered. The guards will protect him from would-be mascot snatchers.

How you can "join"
America's Olympic Team

You can be there at the Mexico City Olympic Games as a welcome contributor to the Olympic Fund. And be proud of it!

Training, transportation, housing and equipping America's top competitors in the Olympic Games is a major financial task. Because the United States Team is maintained almost entirely by public subscription, without government subsidy of any sort, the interest and support of every American is needed to reach the $3,500,000 goal.

If you haven't already done so, "join" in the Olympic movement now. Fill out the attached coupon, with your check for $5.00 or more and mail — today. In acknowledgment, the United States Olympic Committee will send you the handsome men's tie bar (by Dante) illustrated below. Or, if you prefer, you may select a women's bar pin with safety catch of the same design. For a $10.00 contribution, you will receive two gifts of your choice.

In 1961, The Falcons Wreck "Pistol Pete"

Memories of the 1961 Falcon football season include an MAC Championship, Doyt Perry's 50th victory, a trip to the Mercy Bowl . . . . . and "Pistol Pete" Pedro.

"Pistol Pete" and his West Texas State teammates invaded University Stadium on November 4, 1961, hoping to maintain their fine offensive credentials on the national charts.

The Buffaloes were sixth among major colleges in both rushing and total offense, and Pete himself was responsible for most of the fireworks. He had hurdled, squirmed and twisted for 707 yards prior to meeting the Falcons, and his 16 touchdowns were tops in the nation.

Perry's 1961 Falcons had been stoppers supreme, and were ranked sixth nationally in fewest points allowed. The Bowling Green defense had yielded only 167 yards and 5.0 points per game, including a pair of shutouts.

But the Falcons were a battered ball club as they prepared for the "Buffalo hunt," despite a 5-1 season mark going into the contest. The locals had rattled off five straight wins, including a 21-6 Homecoming triumph over Kent State for Perry's 50th victory. The Falcons' only loss had come the previous Saturday, a 7-6 setback at the hands of Miami's Reds克斯.

The Miami battle had taken its toll among Falcon regulars, with stars Al Studer, Roger Reynolds, Don Lisbon and Russ Hepner nursing minor injuries. Perry's Thursday night practice session found the team drilling in sweat suits rather than pads.

"It's the first time in seven years we've held a Thursday practice in warmups," quipped the Falcon mentor, "but we're so tired and hurt I think it might give us a lift for Saturday."

Bowling Green scored early in the second period after taking possession on its own 43. Six plays later, the Falcons failed to move the ball, and the Buffaloes took over on their own 27.

Barry Weaver
Scores TDs

"Pistol Pete's" backfire on Nov. 4 may have ignited that spark of victory. Another exchange of punts followed, as Bowling Green's Bob Fearnside caught Pedro twice in the backfield for three and five-yard losses.

Bowling Green scored early in the second period after taking possession on its own 43. Six plays later, Roll Bell hit paydirt on a three-yard burst, and Asa Elsea's kick made it 7-0 Falcons.

Bowling Green then throttled another Buffalo drive, with Fearnside and Arch Tunnell stopping Pedro's efforts on end sweeps. A sustained drive put the Falcons in business on the Texas one-yard line, and Bell smashed over for his second touchdown of the day. Elsea's kick put the shocked visitors on the short end of a 14-0 halftime score.

Early in the third frame Bowling Green drove 98 yards in 21 plays to score on a plunge by Barry Weaver. West Texas State then mounted a touchdown march of its own capped by Pedro's three-yard scamper around left end—his only carry of the drive.

Bowling Green iced the contest in the fourth period on a 27-yard reverse with Weaver carrying again. Elsea's fourth kick of the day made it 28-6 in favor of the Falcons.

Statistics don't always tell the complete story of a ball game, but the stats were certainly a measure of Bowling Green's fine performance against West Texas State. "Pistol Pete" Pedro gained only 28 yards in 10 carries that afternoon, and his entire Buffalo team netted only 148 yards in total offense.

The Falcons had stopped the nation's most explosive offense while regaining their winning momentum. The following week they defeated Ohio University 7-6 for the MAC Championship, and "Pistol Pete's" backfire on Nov. 4 may have ignited that spark of victory.
1968 Rule Changes

Believing that the average football fan wants to know more about the rules of the game so he can better understand and appreciate the play, we are listing below the most significant football rule changes for the 1968 season.

1. The time-out period has been reduced from 2 minutes to 1 1/2 minutes.
2. The game clock will be stopped on all first downs and will be started when the play is ready.
3. An offensive interior lineman (tackle to tackle) may not move once he has taken a position with his hand(s) on or near the ground. (Penalty—5 yards)
4. The numbering of the players as required by rule will assist the spectator to easily identify players by position and to assist them in knowing eligible and ineligible pass receivers. The offensive team must have five interior linemen (numbered between 50 and 79) on the line of scrimmage. These numbered players are ineligible to receive a pass regardless of the position they take prior to the snap.
5. Offensive interior linemen on scrimmage kicks (punts) may go down field on the snap of the ball. This year they do not have to wait until the ball is kicked.
6. Once a player gives a fair catch signal and does not touch the ball, he cannot block an opponent. (Penalty—15 yards from the spot of foul, if block occurs in end zone—Safety)
7. One player may confer with the coaching staff on the sideline at the team area during a charged time-out. (last year he could talk to one coach only). Also, after the first player confers and leaves, another player may go to the sidelines to talk with the coaches.

Bowling Green Plays Football For 50 Seasons

By Don Cunningham
Athletic Department Business Manager

It was September, 1919. Young men were returning to the nation's campuses after serving in World War I. Bowling Green Normal was no exception. A year before there had been only six males on campus.

A meeting was called to find out just how much interest there was in having a football team. A turnout of about 20 men sent President Homer B. Williams scurrying for a coach and athletic director Fred G. Beyerman gathering some equipment and looking for opponents.

Bowling Green attorney Raymond Ladd, an all-Ohio standout at Denison, heard about the gridiron move and offered to coach the group until a fulltime coach was appointed.

About 18 trusty souls showed up for the initial practice on the area now occupied by the new Education Building. Only about four of the candidates had ever played the game in high school.

Scrimmages were out of the question, so one side of the line would practice against the other side, while the backs worked on plays.

A week before the first game John Stitt, a former Western Reserve star, took over as head coach. Mr. Stitt is now retired and lives in Findlay.

The first game was against Toledo. Only the 11 starters played for the Normals and over 200 followers showed up at the field behind the Ridge Street elementary school. Toledo scored in the opening period and won 6-0.

Defiance was the second opponent and took a 12-0 victory over the Normals as Stitt continued to work on the offensive game.

In the final game of the season, Bowling Green entertained Michigan Normal, now Eastern Michigan, and just about came off with a victory. Michigan kicked a field goal in the first period. Bowling Green played them even until the final period when quarterback Dallas March, now a Bowling Green doctor, directed a march to the Michigan five yard line.

The Bowling Green athletic director became over-zealous in his encouragement to the team and was penalized 25 yards for coaching from the sidelines. The chance for Bowling Green's first touchdown died and a Michigan touchdown in the last minute gave the Ypsilanti team a 10-0 victory.

Looking back over Bowling Green's 50 years of football, it probably can be divided into four different eras. After the initial season, the Normals moved into regular play in the Northwestern Ohio Conference with Toledo, Defiance, Findlay and Bluffton.

Only two years after the start Bowling Green won its first conference championship and set all kinds of national records with a 151-0 victory over Findlay.

Coached by Earl Krieger, later a national authority on football rules and officiating, and captained by Franklin (Gus) Skibbie, now Bowling Green mayor, the 1921 team set the tempo which has followed Bowling Green teams through the years.

Bob Gibson
Three Years, 19-9

Doyt Perry
10 Years, 77-10-5

Ray Whittaker
14 Years, 66-50-7
with over 40 winning seasons and a 64 per cent winning mark.

After five straight years of having a different coach, Warren E. Steller came to Bowling Green in 1924 and gave the Bowling Green program some stability. Steller directed his teams to three NWO championships, including an 18-game win streak, before the Falcons resigned from the NWO league to enter the Ohio Conference in 1932. The 1928 and 1930 captain Chet Chapman became Bowling Green's first all-Ohio player to give this era one of BG's best.

In the Ohio Conference until 1943, the Falcon football program was turned over to Michigander Harry Ockerman in 1935. The 1939 season was the best with a 6-1-1 record, a 7-6 loss to Capital the only mar on the slate. Tackle Ed Siminiski was a standout in this era.

As World War II came on the horizon, Bob Whittaker, after a most successful career at Sandusky High School, took over at BG in 1941 and the Falcons played as an independent for the next 11 years. Whittaker had one of Bowling Green's finest teams in 1948, winning eight straight before tying John Carroll, 13-13, in the final game for the Ohio mythical championship. Stars of this era were Ed Wellner, Jack Woodland, Bob Schnelker and Fred Durig.

In the spring of 1952, Bowling Green joined the Mid-American Conference which brings us to the present era. With the upgrading of scheduling in the MAC, Doyt Perry moved into the BG picture in 1955 and for 10 years BG enjoyed fabulous success.

The former BG quarterback led his teams to five MAC championships and third place was the lowest standing. His 77-10-5 record was one of the nation's best. Such standouts as Kenny Russell, Bernie Casey, Don Lisbon, Bob Reynolds, Jay Cunningham and Jerry Jones started to carry the BG name into the lineups of NFL and AFL teams.

As Perry turned the reins over to his assistant Bob Gibson, who tied Miami for the 1965 MAC championship, the Bowling Green football facilities moved to the front with the completion of a new 23,272 seat stadium. Doyt L. Perry Field is the best in the MAC and one of the best among the NCAA institutions.

So, with the 1968 season, as Don Nehlen takes over, it might be termed the start of another era in BG football—the second part of Bowling Green's 100 years in football which they can write about in 2019.

TICKETS—The two people largely responsible for Bowling Green’s ticket operation, Jan Barney and Margaret Miller, are pictured working in the ticket office that is located on the east side of Doyt L. Perry Field.

Football fans in four states, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Pennsylvania, will be able to listen to the 1968 football Falcons. Paced by WFOB's seven-station network, Bowling Green State University football will be aired by 10 Ohio stations that can be heard throughout a four-state area.

This season, WFOB's network will include WONW, Defiance, WBCO, Bucyrus, WNOB, Newbury, WFRO, Fremont, WTOD, and WERT. Van Wert, WTTO, Toledo, WAWR, Bowling Green, and WBGU, the Bowling Green State University station, will also be airing the Falcons' 1968 games.

Veteran broadcaster Dave Carr will be in front of the mike for the WFOB network while Don King will be handling the play-by-play work for WTTO. Jerry McCullen will be the main voice for WAWR while Terry Shaw will be broadcasting for WBGU.

The university's television station will be increasing the Falcons' coverage by taping Saturday's games and then replaying them at 6 p.m. Sunday evening. Tom Willett will be the voice of the Falcons for WBGU-TV.
Post-Game Party Gets Top Rating
by CAROLYN ANDERSEN

When the referee throws both arms high into the air signaling "touchdown" for your favorite collegiate team, he also signals a time for celebration. And what better way to climax a big gridiron victory than by hosting a post-game party?

In order that the hostess may enjoy the excitement of the event to its fullest, the party should be a simple one. Plenty of good food can be prepared ahead of time so that only last minute warm-ups will be necessary when you get back from the stadium.

On game day, prepare one of the suggested main dishes, your own favorite gelatine salad, and have plenty of rolls, a simple dessert and the beverage of your choice on hand. Then, with your party fixin's ready, you'll still be on time for the opening kickoff and will be able to stay until the final run.

First, try this idea for a chicken dish that is accented with crumbles of blue cheese and succulent mushrooms. The zesty concoction is served on top of crunchy chow mein noodles, or in patty shells.

Melt one-quarter cup butter and stir in one-quarter cup flour. Gradually add one and three-quarters cups milk and one-half cup chicken broth (canned). Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add one-half teaspoon salt, pinch of sugar, one four-ounce can drained mushrooms, dash of monosodium glutamate, pepper, one teaspoon prepared horseradish, one and one-half cups blue cheese and two cups diced, cooked chicken. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until just heated through. Turn off heat and cover until time to reheat before serving your guests.

If you prefer a little more gourmet style main dish, try this recipe for Veal Elegante.

In large skillet, melt one-quarter cup butter or margarine and lightly brown two pounds veal cutlets, cut into one-inch pieces. Add one can (eight ounces) drained mushroom stems and pieces, and one clove minced garlic. Remove from skillet. Into drippings in skillet, stir two tablespoons flour, then one envelope onion soup mix; gradually add two cups water and one-quarter cup dry red wine. Cover and simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add meat, mushrooms, and two tablespoons chopped parsley and heat through. Turn off heat and leave covered until ready to heat at party time. Serve over noodles. Recipe makes six to eight servings.

Another fun idea is a Knife and Fork sandwich. The convenience of pre-cooked frozen foods keeps you from spending hours in the kitchen when the crowd gathers.

Slice one large loaf unsliced French bread lengthwise and spread bottom half with butter and prepared mustard. Heat in 350-degree oven for 10 or 15 minutes. Heat two packages frozen chili according to package directions. Spoon over buttered bread. Cut three slices processed cheese into several strips and place on top of chili. Top with strips of bacon and fresh onion rings. Cut into six or eight knife and fork sandwiches.

If you would like to plan something clever in the way of decorations for your "pigskin party," why not take a signal from the game ball itself and create a popcorn touchdown centerpiece?

To begin, mold a football out of five quarts popped popcorn and lace it with candy licorice strings. The popcorn can be molded the day before your party. A simple syrup coating can be made by combining two cups sugar, one and one-half cups water, one-half cup light corn syrup and one teaspoon vinegar, then cook to hard ball stage (250 degrees). Add one teaspoon vanilla and pour over popcorn. It will add delicious flavor and will help you shape your oval football.

Once the centerpiece has been molded place the licorice "strings" in lacing fashion and then wrap the popcorn in foil or saran until time to decorate the table. This way, it will keep fresh and crisp for eating.

Come party time, insert chocolate-coated bananas on skewers into the popcorn football. They're a frozen confection that everyone will enjoy. The bananas are cut in half, dipped in one package (six-ounce) melted semi-sweet chocolate chips and one tablespoon vegetable shortening and frozen until serving time. Easy to eat off the skewers, the bananas make an unusual and tasty sweet.

Whether your team scores a victory or not, your party is bound to be a winner.

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly Years from now you'll be Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
For our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Dayton Player Portraits

COACH JOHN McVAY
Joe Tyler—LB
Rich Weigand—G
Mike Wilson—FB
A perennial season ticket holder to the University of Dayton's basketball games remarked that he had never been beyond the fieldhouse. His "is there really a campus" attitude seems strange since he visits the fieldhouse about 15 times per year.

Those on and around the campus of U.D. now will tell you that ticket holder's remarks couldn't have come recently (actually they were in 1957), since the campus makes its presence more apparent every day.

In Baujan Stadium, if you look to your left or right, depending on which side of the field you are sitting, you will see a large building under construction. It is really an academic infringement upon the athletic program at the University because this new engineering/research building has taken away the football practice field and a portion of the stadium's east end.

"What," we ask ourselves, "will that building do for the University?" Simply, it will be a structure housing most departments of the School of Engineering, both at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and the Research Institute which has been grossing around $5,000,000 annually in recent years. It also will enable the University to start a doctoral program in engineering. It will not only have a terrific impact on engineering at the University, but on the school's program as a whole.

As you walk from Baujan Field down Alberta Street to Irving Avenue, you will see the new 10-story women's dormitory apartment building under construction and immediately realize that physically the University is going in that direction. It may come to pass that the area in back of the stadium to Irving will one day belong totally to the University.

By the 1969 football season, you'll walk out of the stadium toward the Albert Emanuel Library and see the new computerized library under construction. This will be the first step in the changing complexion of the front of the campus. More is coming.

It is no secret that the University's intercollegiate basketball program will one day abandon the present fieldhouse and move into better, more spacious quarters. It is known, too, that upon Baujan Field someday will rest an academic building and the gridlers will play in a bigger stadium.

If we were to carry this development of the present athletic complex a bit farther you might see a large recreation building on the present parking lot. It would connect with the present fieldhouse and have a swimming pool, basketball floor, weight and wrestling rooms, handball courts and an ice-skating/hockey rink.

No matter in which direction you look from the stadium, changes will be taking place in at least five years. Some of these ideas are only in the talking stage, others need money to be realized, while ground will be broken on others before the next football season.

This then is a part of the physical growth at the University.

- Great opportunity. You earn a commission while you earn your college degree. Graduate—you start at the top. Fulfill your military obligation as an Army officer. With officer's pay, Officer's privileges.
- Great advantages. Employers prefer a college graduate with service as an officer. Pay more to get him. Because he's a trained, experienced leader. Can handle heavier responsibilities.
- Great success. From the 5% of college men who had ROTC training have come 24% of our state governors, 28% of executives earning $100,000 to $325,000 per year, 10% of Congress, 15% of our ambassadors.
- Great guys. ROTC men are campus leaders—in ROTC, athletics, extracurricular activities. And they do better scholastically than non-ROTC students.
- Great extras. $50 per month in junior and senior years. Scholarships for outstanding students. Free flight training at over 125 colleges. Extra social activities—military balls, honor societies, bands, rifle teams.

Any way you look at it, there's a lot more going for you when you're in ROTC.

Your future, your decision... choose Army ROTC.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.
You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does.
And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving’s no longer a chore. It’s an agony.

Look no further than your father’s face for proof.

But fortunately, you’re catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a Remington® shaver.
And if you think the kind of shave we’re selling won’t be close enough for you, you’re wrong.

Our new blades are sharper than anything that’s been in an electric shaver before. And there’s a dial that lets you adjust them for your skin and beard.

What’s more, you can dial a Remington electric shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it’s a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest Falcons Play 50th Football Campaign

At today’s game, Bowling Green State University will be calling attention to its 50th year of intercollegiate football by honoring the coaches and players who made the first 49 years so great.

Five former coaches, John Stitt, the Falcons’ first coach, Warren Steller, Bob Whittaker, Doyt Perry and Bob Gibson, will be honored today along with at least one representative from every Bowling Green squad.

A total of seven players on Bowling Green’s first team in 1919 will be at today’s game between the Falcons and Dayton. Dale Treece, who captained the first squad, Clive Treece, Claitus Stough, Tom Noyes, Dallas Marsh, Dallas Lawrence and Charles Clucas, all played on the team that got football underway at Bowling Green.

We're proud... that pHisoHex® has been selected as the antibacterial wash to be used by the U.S. Team for the 1968 Olympic Games!

A winning athlete takes special care of his skin. Above all, he protects it against bacteria that can cause infections and lead to missed practice sessions and games.

If you've ever tried to play with an infected blister on your heel or an abscess on your finger, then you know the role of healthy skin in sports. And that's why pHisoHex is an important part of an athlete's daily health routine.

pHisoHex is America's leading liquid antibacterial skin cleanser in homes and in hospitals. Used regularly in place of soap, pHisoHex produces a superclean skin and builds up an invisible antibacterial film of hexa-chlorophene to protect your skin against germs between washings.

And if you have problem skin, pHisoHex is often valuable. The antibacterial film it leaves on your face will ward off blemish-infesting bacteria. pHisoHex also helps to soften and wash away blackheads.

Use pHisoHex, the skin cleanser of winning athletes.

We are proud to announce that our new 1969 GMC pickup comes with features you can’t even order on most pickups.

- Double-wall cab construction with a thick slice of insulation sandwiched between.
- Four headlights. Most pickups come with only two.
- A selection of seven engines. V6’s, In-Line Sixes and V8’s.
- Color-keyed interiors. A wide choice of combinations you’d only expect to find in passenger cars.

POTTER INC. 352-2235
STADIUM INFORMATION

- We request your cooperation in observing the rules and traditions of this University and of the state law which makes it illegal to bring or consume alcoholic beverages of any kind on the campus.
- Concession stands are conveniently located at the end of each entrance ramp under the stadium.
- Rest rooms are located on both the east and west sides of the stadium and can be found between ramps 2 and 4, 6 and 8, 1 and 3 plus 5 and 7.
- Telephones are conveniently located in the stadium next to all the rest room facilities.
- The first aid room is on the east side of the stadium between ramps 4 and 6.
- Anyone finding a lost article is requested to turn it in to the first aid room attendant.
- Spectators must keep off the playing field at all times during and after the game. At the end of the game, spectators must use the ramp exits rather than the field level exits.

Bowling Green State University kicks off its fourth varsity soccer season in 1968 with high hopes of improving upon last year's 2-7-1 record.

With 16 lettermen returning, plus a "fine crop of upcoming sophomores", head coach Mickey Cochrane feels confident that his 1968 booters have the best chance of any of his previous teams to turn in a winning season.

Injuries plagued last year's squad, as the Falcons' top two scorers were lost to the team near mid-season, causing numerous personnel changes in the lineup. Jim Brewer, who scored five goals, and Fred Weismann, who chipped in with three tallies, both were missing for the final five games of the 1967 campaign.

In all, the Falcons managed just 19 goals in 1967, while allowing a total of 35. After the loss of Brewer and Weismann, both sophomores last year, the booters found the range on enemy goals just four times.

"Depth seems to be our strong point this year," Cochrane commented, "but we're pretty young and inexperienced, so there will be a lot of question marks until the season gets started."

One place where Cochrane shouldn't have too many problems will be in the goal, where a junior and two sophomores will be fighting it out for the starting position. Gary Kovacs split the goal-tending chores last season with John Feasel, one of three lettermen lost through graduation. Besides Kovacs, Cochrane has two inexperienced, but highly regarded sophomores in Herb Schummn and Al Sandberg.

Pete Farrell will be moving back to the center halfback position, and according to Cochrane will "anchor our defense." Farrell was forced to move up to the forward line last season due to injuries to various front liners.

Cochrane appears to have his greatest depth ever in his line, as Weismann and Brewer will be returning, along with veterans, Al Fromm, Dick Green, John Dohms, and Dean Forsberg. Other contenders for starting spots in the line are, Wolfgang Petrasko, and Mitch Beer, sophomores, and a junior college transfer, Tom Asimou.

"On paper we look very strong," Cochrane stated, "but there are some unanswered questions we'll have to work on. With our summer conditioning program we should be able to avoid many of the costly injuries we had last season."

If Cochrane's kickers can avoid damaging injuries, they could present him his first winning soccer season at BGSU. Cochrane is hoping so.

A Growing University

The new College of Education Building stands as an example of the strengths which exist at Bowling Green State University. From our origin as a teacher training institution, we added colleges in the liberal arts and business. Graduate programs at the masters level and doctoral programs with emphasis on research have enabled us to more recently develop areas of excellence.

Through BOWLING GREEN'S MISSION: EXPANDING HORIZONS areas are being identified where private financial support must be found if we are to achieve distinction. As examples, The Anderson Center for Personal Development; The BGSU Brazilian Student Teacher Exchange; a Visiting Distinguished Professorship; several student scholarships and graduate fellowships; plus a new faculty-produced publication have all been made possible because of your private gift dollars!

It is up to Bowling Green—through alumni, friends, parents, trustees, faculty and students, in their capacities as private givers—to go just a little beyond the average to provide the extra margin which programs of excellence will demand.

Your continued support of BOWLING GREEN'S MISSION: EXPANDING HORIZONS will help.
