

Africana Studies Conference 2018 Poster

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/africana_studies_conf

Part of the African Languages and Societies Commons

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

Bowling Green State University, "Africana Studies Conference 2018 Poster" (2018). Africana Studies Student Research Conference. 2.

https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/africana_studies_conf/2018/poster/2

This Event is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences and Events at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Africana Studies Student Research Conference by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.

BGSU'S AFRICANA STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS
20TH ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE AND LUNCHEON
Emerging Perspectives in Africana Studies

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

“The Life of a Storyteller, Filmmaker and Cultural Activist:
A 40-Year Commitment to the Development of Burkina Faso and African Cinema”

Gaston J-M Kaboré

Cinematographer and filmmaker – Director of Institute Imagine in Burkina Faso

Friday, February 23, 2018

Bowen-Thompson Student Union Ballroom (Room 202)

Conference 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. – Keynote Luncheon at Noon

Conference includes student presentations of original research, a faculty roundtable, and the screening of Kaboré's film, Buud Yam. Watch for showings of additional films Wend Kuuni, Zan Boko, and Rabi in the days preceding the conference.

This event is made possible by the following sponsors:

Ethnic Cultural Arts Program, College of Arts & Sciences, School of Art, Office of the Provost, Art History, Theater & Film, School of Cultural & Critical Studies, History, French House in conjunction with World Languages & Cultures, Arts Village, English, School of Media & Communication, Digital Arts, Global Village, Center for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship, International Studies, Asian Studies, Career Center, Student Affairs, and the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

To register for the luncheon or for more information, please call 419-372-7814