'Cost' of fitness is going down

While the cost of nearly everything else continues to rise, the price tag for fun and fitness at the University is going down.

Membership fees for the Student Recreation Center are dropping 19 percent for the 1982-83 academic year, thanks to the release of $3 million from the state to help pay for the Cooper Pool. Faculty and staff can take advantage of the new lower prices immediately.

The entire family can now use the Rec Center at a cost of $13 per month; single memberships are $8.67 per month. The memberships will be sold on a semester, academic or calendar year basis at the following rates:

Semester: $39 single; $58.50 family
Academic Year: $78 single; $117 family
Calendar Year: $104 single; $156 family.

The purchase of any plan entitles members to immediate access to the facilities.

The Rec Center is offering flexible membership payment options, accepting either cash or check; credit card purchase; University charge or payroll deduction. Special emphasis is being placed on the benefits of purchasing the 12-month membership, which entitles faculty and staff to unlimited use of the facilities on a 12-month basis without having to go through the membership renewal process every few months. A "one-stop super sticker" will be issued to all faculty and staff who purchase the calendar year membership.

In addition to offering the new lower regular membership fees, the Rec Center will again sell the "LiFT" membership for $19.50 per semester. Those who purchase the limited access, half-price plan may use the center Monday through Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. during the academic term and, in addition, from 7-9 a.m. during the "in season" months of October-December during fall semester. LiFT tickets do not become effective until the start of classes on Aug. 30.

Faculty and staff also will be able this year to purchase a $3 daily use pass to the Rec Center any day by presenting their University ID. Those who purchase the one-day pass are entitled to take two guests to the center for $3 each.

All memberships are available now in the Rec Center office, which is open this week (Aug. 23-29) from noon to 5 p.m. Extended hours, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., will be observed during the first week of classes, Aug. 30-Sept. 2. After Sept. 2 memberships can be purchased during regular office hours, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A University ID must be presented when purchasing any membership plan.

A schedule of special programs to be offered during the semester will be announced in the Sept. 6 edition of MONITOR. Registration for those programs will begin Sept. 7 in the Rec Center office.

Board of Trustees to meet Tuesday

The Board of Trustees will have a special meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday (Aug. 24) in the McFall Center Assembly Room.

A two-item agenda, including approval of a salary book for 1982-83 and consideration of renovation plans for West Hall, is scheduled.

Search reopened

Kennell is acting music dean

Richard Kennell, assistant dean in the College of Musical Arts, has been appointed acting dean of the college by Dr. Karl Vogt, interim vice president for academic affairs.

Kennell will serve until a permanent replacement can be found for Dr. Kenneth Wendrich who resigned as dean effective July 1.

A national search for a successor to Wendrich is expected to be reopened in late September or early October, following the formation of a new search and screening committee within the College of Musical Arts.

A similar search conducted following the announcement of Wendrich's resignation last spring was unsuccessful in finding a dean for the college. At the July 23 meeting of the Board of Trustees

President Olscamp reported that two offers were made to final candidates for the position. "The candidate of first preference declined the offer, and after protracted negotiations, the second candidate and I mutually agreed to terminate discussions," he said.

Kennell, who joined the faculty as assistant dean and an assistant professor in 1980, received both bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Northwestern University. Prior to his Bowling Green appointment he was coordinator of admissions at DePaul University's School of Music.

A member of the Music Educators National Conference and the North American Saxophone Alliance, he is a former member of the Chicago Saxophone Quartet and has performed with the Chicago Symphony.

Parking decals expire Aug. 31

All parking decals currently in use will expire on Aug. 31, 1982. New decals will be needed on all faculty and staff vehicles at the start of the new school year.

To accommodate all personnel who must register for the new decals, the parking and traffic division of Campus Safety and Security will staff several registration points on campus during the week of Aug. 23. When registering, faculty and staff must present a fee waiver signed by their budget administrator and a completed motor vehicle registration form. A supply of the registration forms and the fee waiver forms has been sent to all administrators.

The following registration points will be available:

Administration Building (east building lobby)

Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 23-24, 7:30 a.m. to noon

Technical Support Services Building (conference room)

Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 23-24, 1-5 p.m.

Life Science Building (east lobby, main floor)

Wednesday, Aug. 25, 7:30 a.m. to noon

Stadium (east side)

Wednesday, Aug. 25, 1-5 p.m.

University Library

Thursday, Aug. 26, 7:30 a.m. to noon

Student Services Building (second floor lounge)

Thursday, Aug. 26, 1-5 p.m.

University Union (second floor corridor by Ballroom)

Friday, Aug. 27, 8 a.m. to noon

Faculty and staff who wish to register a second car at their own expense may also complete those arrangements at the satellite stations during the week of Aug. 23. The fee to register a second car is $15.

Registration can be completed after Aug. 30 at the parking and traffic office, 104 North Commons, Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

'Open application' times reduced

Tuesday, Aug. 24, will be the last day the Office of Personnel Support Services will accept open applications on a weekly basis from individuals seeking campus employment.

Beginning in September, the limited, open application policy instituted earlier this summer will be reduced to include only one day a month—the second Tuesday of each month.

Applications will be accepted during work hours, 8 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m., in the personnel office on Sept. 12, Oct. 12, Nov. 9 and Dec. 14 during fall semester.

The policy does not apply to applicants for posted vacancies. The personnel office will continue to accept applications for posted jobs any day of the week as the jobs become available for external applicants.

The limited, open application policy is intended to maintain up-to-date applicant files for future classified job openings (full- and part-time or temporary), and to accommodate individuals wishing to place an application on file even though there may not be a suitable vacancy at the time of application.

Third class postage rates increased

The Campus Postal Service has issued a reminder that the rates for third-class bulk mailings have been increased, effective July 28, 1982.

The new rate for a piece weighing not more than 3.664 oz. is 4.9 cents per piece. Pieces weighing more than 3.664 oz. but less than a pound are charged at the rate of 21.4 cents per pound.

All bulk mailings must be scheduled in advance with the University post office, which is entering its busy season as classes get underway.

Questions about rate changes or scheduling mailings should be directed to the post office, 372-2310.

Alumnus receives Fulbright fellowship

An alumnus who received both bachelor's and master's degrees from the University has been awarded a Fulbright Graduate Fellowship for study abroad during the 1982-83 academic year.

The Institute of International Education has announced that Brian Pavlac has been named a Fulbright fellow to study Medieval history in West Germany during the coming year.

Pavlac graduated magna cum laude from the University in 1978 with majors in German and history and received a master's degree in history from Bowling Green in 1980.

Nov. 1 is deadline for FRC program

The Faculty Research Committee has set Nov. 1, 1982, as the deadline for application for the annual program of research associateships and research grants.

Application materials for 1983/84 are available in the Graduate College office.

Members of the Faculty Research Committee who will decide awards for the coming year include Dr. William Rock, history, chair; Dr. Jong Sik Yoon, biological sciences; Dr. Ronald Hartley, accounting and management information systems; Dr. Kathleen Campbell, home economics; Dr. John Bentley, music performance studies, and Dr. Michael Bradie, philosophy. Ex-officio members are Dr. Thomas B. Cobb, Graduate College; Dr. Garrett T. Heberlein, Graduate College, and Dr. Ramona Cormier, associate provost.

Labor Day, Sept. 6

Monday, Sept. 6, is Labor Day, a holiday for University employees.

Only those activities deemed absolutely essential by area supervisors will be scheduled that day. Classes will not meet.

Classified group has new members

Six new members have been appointed to the Classified Staff Advisory Committee (formerly the Personnel Steering Committee).

Four of the new members will serve full two-year terms. They include David Maley, food services (2-2342); Nancy Borck, custodial services (2-2251); Deb Clink, computer services (2-2911), and JoAnne Dailey, arts and sciences (2-2015).

Beverly Cope, international programs (2-2247), will serve one year, completing the unexpired term of a member who has resigned.

Linda Canterbury, athletics (2-2401), has been named to a new non-voting position representing permanent part-time personnel.

Four members who have completed two-year terms will retire from the committee effective Sept. 1. They are Beverly Coppler, custodial services; Annette Ecker, writing lab; Ruth Hafner, technical support services, and Cindy Matyi, research services.

Campus housing still available

On-campus housing is still open for fall semester, according to Robert Rudd, director of housing, who said that all "waiting lists" have been accommodated. He added that housing is much more flexible this year than in the past, a situation he attributes to changing economic conditions and a decline in federally funded financial aid.

"We are finding that more of our continuing students than usual have delayed making a decision about living in residence halls because of the uncertainty of personal finances. As a result, the normal 100 percent occupancy rate for this time of year is currently about 97 percent," Rudd said.

Housing contracts are available in the housing office in the Student Services Building.

Faculty and staff eligible for entertainment discounts

All faculty and staff are eligible for discount admissions to the following attractions and amusement parks through University membership in the Toledo Industrial Recreation Employees Services Council (TIRES): Cedar Point; Colonial Williamsburg, Va; Disneyland/Disney World; Geauga Lake; Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum; King's Island; Opryland; Pro Football Hall of Fame, Canton; Sea World and Wisconsin Dells.

Questions about the discount programs should be directed to the personnel office (372-0421).

In addition, tickets to both Cedar Point and King's Island are available to faculty

Deadline extended for check change

The deadline for faculty who wish to change the number of monthly paychecks they receive for the 1982-83 academic year from nine to 12 or vice versa has been extended.

Changes will be accepted in the payroll office in the Administration Building until 5 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 1. Changes made after that time will be subject to the established $25 check change charge.

It was previously announced that the deadline for change would be Aug. 23.

Time cards need budget/cost data

Effective Aug. 30, all time cards submitted to the payroll office must include budget and cost information to facilitate processing time.

Any time cards turned in without the budget and cost numbers will be returned to their respective offices.

Questions about the procedure should be directed to the payroll office, 372-2201.

Fall 'opening day' scheduled Aug. 27
