This Event is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences and Events at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Africana Studies Student Research Conference by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
We welcome papers on broad issues affecting Africana people in a global context, including but not limited to:

- Language, religion, gender, culture
- Social justice
- Law
- Medicine & public health practices
- War & terrorism
- Peace, conflict resolution & security
- Youth, crime & vigilante justice
- Changing values & norms
- Environment, development
- Rural-urban changes
- Immigration/migration
- Slavery
- Post-Colonial issues
- The civil war
- Political-economic empowerment & leadership
- National reconciliation
- Property rights
- Census

Undergraduate and graduate students from all disciplines are encouraged to participate. Moreover, we ask faculty to help us identify student papers that are worthy of submission/presentation and when possible, to assist their students in attending the conference.
