STUDENT CHURCH CENSUS

For several years it has been the practice of our College to take a census of the religious preferences of students. These names and addresses are available to the various churches who are pleased to extend courtesies to the students throughout the year. It is interesting to note that out of the 1005 students listed at the time of this year's census, forty-three either had no church preference or neglected to write it in. It is very evident that college students prefer to be identified with some organized church.

Twenty-four faiths are represented as shown below. Since our total number is approximately one thousand, these figures may stand for per cents also. For example, 320 Methodists students would mean 32.0 per cent of the whole group; 120 Presbyterian students, 12.0 per cent; 107 Lutheran students, 10.7 per cent; 97 United Brethren students 9.7 per cent, etc. The distribution is especially interesting because of the fact that we are a non-sectarian college and no religious appeal whatever is made to the prospective student. The following list is compiled according to the matriculation card of the student:

Methodist, 320; Presbyterian 120; Lutheran, 107; United Brethren, 97; Church of God, 88; Catholic, 69; Evangelical, 39; Baptist, 35; Reformed, 28; Congregational, 23; Episcopal, 10; Christian Science, 8; Jewish, 7; Mennonite, 4; Church of Christ, 4; Christian Union, 3; Church of the Brethren, 3; Church of God, 2; Community Church, 2; Christian Holiness, 1; Missionary Church, 1; Nazarene Church, 1; Unitarian, 1; Protestant, 18; Not reporting, 43.

Quill Type

The second Quill Type meeting of the year was held Wednesday evening, Sept. 30. A very interesting program was given. It consisted of music by Miss Dorothy Robinson, news resume by Miss Ernestine Borekert, magazine report by Miss Mary Catherine Horn, and a drill in parliamentary law, with Miss Marie Morrissey acting as parliamentarian. The members are displaying an unusual amount of interest this year.

Plans are being made for Homecoming. Many former Quill-Type members are expected to be back with us at that time.

The Quill-Type officers for this year are: Garth Heckman, president; Josephine Haley, vice-president; Eleanor Hobart, secretary-treasurer and Lucille Windle, chairman of program committee.

CONTROVERSIAL CONCEPTS OF COLLEGE

GO TO PARTIES

Strange as it may seem, some people come to college to study. Absurd. College is the place to attain culture. Such is the contention of the present writer.

Despite what other writers may think, Bowling Green is sadly lacking in a cultural air. Frankly, the clientele of the college comes from the proletarian homes of northwestern Ohio, a fact of which we are all justly proud. Yet our previous environment has not been like that of the students who attend Harvard or Vassar. We have not been bountifully blessed with material goods. We have grown to young adulthood by the sweat of the brow. Our time has been consumed in attaining other than cultural ends.

There are many conceptions and ideals of true culture and a direct bearing upon our cultural attainments before and after entering college. A dictionary defines culture as the training or reining of moral and intellectual faculties; the care given to the growth and development of man. Acknowledgement is granted to the importance of the study of history, literature, and sociology to gain conceptions of various types of culture. Books are not all however, and the writer maintains that personality development can be realized more so in the social group than in the solitude of the study room.

We, who are now in college, are to be the preachers, doctors, lawyers, and, last but of course far from least, the teachers of tomorrow. Obviously, nearly all of these are in the category of public service, which means that in a measure our future success will depend upon our social adaptability.

Then why should we hear opportunity knocking with a continuous thud, and remain in our comfortable chairs, book in hand, afraid to open the door?

Our money is being spent by an able group of planners who are interested in our present and future welfare, who are interested in our enjoyment of this business of acquiring an education, and who realize the importance of social growth.

Go to parties, then; they are for you. You may prefer to remain at home to procure "A's", but are grades all of learning? The energetic, ambitious fellow or girl goes the second mile, attends every social function on the calendar, and comes home to answer the professor's questions more easily on the morrow.

STAY IN YOUR STUDY

Is College a place you have to go in order to find out there is nothing in it? The answer is conditioned by one's own "idea of a university". Some hold that a college is a place where buildings are erected near an athletic field; some contend that college is a "knowledge foundry"; and others maintain that college is a training school for life. The question resolves itself into this: what are we here for?

The question is ideally a personal one, but never the less we will try to strike an answer that will be common to a majority. Usually it is agreed that we are here to attain "culture". What is that?

Arnold defines culture as the knowledge of "the best that has been thought and uttered by man." Can we attain that at "hops", the talkies, or by singing silly, jazzy songs?

This writer contends that college being the place for culture, it obviously cannot be the place for frivolity. "Hard cash" sends us through Bowling Green State. Can we neglect opportunity presented to us by the citizenry to benefit by education?

Opponents of this view declare that associations at college are important. Are they? Can we hold them in after life? Are "frats" necessary? Perhaps such beliefs are the mere rationalizing tendencies of a group of "students" who wish to find an opportunity to twaddle away their time with balderdash.

We hold that the years of post-college activity are best suited for "mixing". We then are more mature, and can enjoy the companionship of others more fully.

These present four years in college are for study. Will we ever again have such great opportunity to benefit from systematic study under learned professors? When again will we have access to a library such as Bowling Green's? The reason why colleges as such were instituted was that adults had more concerns in life than teaching others and transmitting to them the knowledge of the best that has been thought and uttered by men now dead. A background of knowledge such as this should, we hold, come first. Follow then with study of people in actual life (not at a superflcial party where no one is acting naturally) and form conclusions and philosophies from what has been learned in school. That is the purpose of college.
BEE GEE NEWS
PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY
BY THE
STUDENTS AND FACULTY
OF
BOWLING GREEN STATE COLLEGE

Robert Boyer   Editor-in-Chief
William Noble   Associate Editor
Pat Limber   Assistant Editor
Mearl Barrett   Organization
Arden Snyder   Sophomore Reporter
Minnie Millof   Freshman Reporter
Kate Cleary   Satire
Edwin Banning and Eddie Loomis   Sketching
Prof. G. W. Mamette   Faculty Advisor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Single Copy   Five Cents
Per Year   Fifty Cents

Send all Remittances to
BUSINESS MANAGER BEE GEE NEWS
BOWLING GREEN, OHIO
IN CARE OF B. G. S. C.

ON THE LOOKOUT FOR SOME REMARKABLE REMARK

I believe in equality for everyone except newspaper reporters and photographers.
—Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi.

Pacificist, hell, I'm a pacifist, but I always have a club behind my back.—Major General Butler.

I believe it is possible for man by nature to care for more than one woman at the same time.—Rudy Valette.

I don't like to read books; they mess up my mind.—Henry Ford.

With all the other mistakes it has got, I'd be ashamed to have this paper appear with my name as editor of.—Miss Bowers.

Did you ever meet a grand old man? If you haven't, prepare to meet one soon. The latter part of this month the famous "Dad" Elliot, national Y. M. C. A. worker, will visit our Campus.

It might be well for us to poke off to ourselves and hatch out at least one good idea to present to "Dad" in exchange for his wealth of experience and host of truly worth while ideas.

YOU CANNOT MAKE A
BURDOCK BEAR PEAR

Nature reproduces its kind true to type within narrow limits of variation. Youngsters grow up reflecting the character of their heredity and environment. National standards perpetuate themselves through the various agencies to train the youth. Pollute those agencies, i.e. school, home, church, press, movies, etc. and you undermine society. We school people should be broad in viewpoint, sound in principle and above reproach in conduct.

It might please the profs to learn that two of our Freshmen are starting on the right road economically. We refer to Mr. Thurl Shupe and Mr. William Siegel who have been doing some apprentice work as dry cleaners.

SENIORS!

At the Senior class meeting last Wednesday candidates for class officers were nominated. A resolution was adopted providing for a general election, scheduled for Wednesday, October 7th, tomorrow.

A ballot box will be stationed at the foot of the steps in the Administration building. Members of the class will be there as attendant to supply the voter with a standard ballot and to give instructions for voting.

Here are the candidates:
President:
Robert R. Boyer
Leonard R. Linsenmayer
David W. Wilson

Vice President:
Wilfred McArtor
Louis Pelzied
Hellen Moore

Secretary:
Maxine Wright
Marguerite Covrette
Imogene Williams

Treasurer:
Ruth Bernath
Kenyon Goldberg
Bill Sloat

Remember this election. Vote. Make known that you're a Senior. It's you're one chance to help.

Glee Club Organizes

A great deal of enthusiasm has been shown by the men of the college in the formulation of a glee club. Director L. E. Fauley, of the music department, is well satisfied with the turnout.

Men wishing to enter this organization should turn in their names to Mr. Fauley. There will be no tryouts, but the director will appreciate if all members will appear in the near future to determine the range of their voices.

Low bases are in demand. Any deep throated songster should report for the next practice which will be held in room 203, Practical Arts building, Monday evening at 7 o'clock. With the earnest cooperation of all concerned it is expected that the club will be able to perform several out of town engagements this winter.

The enrollment of the club is as follows:

State College Football Schedule

Oct. 9   Western Reserve
Oct. 16   Detroit City College
Oct. 24   Bluffton
Oct. 31   Defiance
Nov. 7   Findlay (Homecoming)

PARABLE OF TWO FRESHMEN

Once upon a time, two Freshmen went to chapel. They listened to the words of two Seniors, who told about a wonderful book called "The Key"—a book which would unlock their school-day memories.

"I must have that book", thought one freshman. "I know that I am poor, but I'm going to have that book! It will mean much to me next year. Besides, it will have the pictures of these three pretty girls who are sitting behind me now. I wonder if the blonde in the middle would go with me to chapel."

"I am poor," the other Freshman thought, "I guess I'll miss this year, and get a "Key" when I'm a Sophomore. Nothing much happens to a freshman around here, anyway."

Three years later, they were Seniors. One day, as they were talking over old times, the first one of them said:

"Do you remember this and that, and thus and so; When we were Freshmen three years ago?"

And the other answered not. And he who had not ordered the "Key" knew that many of the joys of his Freshman year were lost forever.

The moral of this simple parable is plain. It is a parable which has actually taken place repeatedly. If you have not ordered your "1932 Key", take a hint from this little tale and do so at once.
Billy's Doings

Hear all the racket in Room 16 the other night? That was the big watermelon feed Ven Koenel threw.

Guess what! Yes sir—a dance orchestra all our own.

All girls having birthdays in July, August and September were honored at a "birthday" dinner Wednesday evening, Sept. 30.

This is to serve as warning to the "corn bugs" who have been raiding sophomore rooms. Beware!

We have to be careful how we appear in the corridors evenings—the B. F's are starting to make visits.

The library list is increasing each night—wonder whether assignments have everything to do with it?

Shatzel Snitches

A Snitch in Time.

Children's instincts are transient. Believe it or not! If you do, then you should have been at the birthday party, Wednesday evening. Those girls seemed to derive heaps of pleasure in squawking ballons and no one seemed bored in hearing them. Don't tell us we are getting childish! Some felt that we needed an addition to the luncheon menus, so they have filled in "Lesson plans" and "Practice Teaching."

A prospective bride fluttered into our midst last Tuesday evening and was baffled by the excitement and the endless end of questions. It seemed warm, though the thermometer registered (?) "Lights out, did you say? And nine Lesson Plans to write." "You should have started writing them last year."

Foot socking a specialty! Inquire at Room 1001.

W. A. A. Kid Party

Come to the W. A. A. Kid Party to gym A, Wednesday night at 7:00 and have a lot of fun. Bring your friends and your chewing gum and go back to your childhood days.

Fall sports are in full swing now, Hockey, Soccer, Tennis, Archery, Hiking and Individual Sports.

If you haven't as yet joined W. A. A., join now so your attendance at Intra-Murals will help towards winning your W. A. A. emblem.

Those attending the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Association from Bowling Green State College on October 30, 1931, will take luncheon at the French Room of the La Salle and Koch Co. The meal will be served promptly at 12:30. Reservations may be secured from Professor Biery. The tickets, which are selling for 60 cents each, will be claimed at the entrance immediately before the luncheon.

Delhi Dippings

Members of the Delhi Fraternity entertained forty freshmen September 22nd with an open house smoker at the House on S. Main street.

Much ado about card playing occupied the forepart of the evening. Following this, short talks were given by Prof. Rees, Prof. Carmichael, Dr. Martin, Dr. Gleason and Prof. Biery. An aftermath of cider and doughnuts contributed to the congenial atmosphere of the occasion. As a climax, suitable vehicles were appropriated and the gang serenaded the two dormitories. Dr. Williams and the three sorority houses.

At the meeting of September 29, pledges Wray Dunson and Orville Decker were given their pins and preliminary instructions.

Also, at this time, plans were completed for the big Delhi homecoming banquet. This is the event very much awaited before it occurs and so dearly cherished afterward in the hearts of Delhi alumni and brothers alike. The coming dinner will be served at the house, thus rendering the conclave a spirit of companionship and intimacy which might be missing were it held elsewhere.

Growth being the measure of the vitality of any institution, it is pleasing to note the remarkable increase in the number of students who have clasped the hearty academic (and athletic) hand of Bowling Green State. To date there have been 1020 enrolled.

Of the Freshman Class usually not much is said in the college paper, but we at last discern a measure of merit in them in that they prove good statistical material for both the office force and embryo journalists. There are 450 freshmen searching for both the office force and embryo journalists. There are 450 freshmen searching for both the office force and embryo journalists. There are 450 freshmen searching.

Professor Holt's Canterbury geologists made a pilgrimage last Saturday, October 3, to the Ohio caverns. The trip was enjoyed as usual with much telling of tales, singing, and sight-seeing. Tyros who find field trips foreign to their experiences indulged in contemplation of the stalactites and stalagmites of the natural cave.

College students present at the initial evening performance of Blackstone at the high school auditorium were interested and amused to see Max Leitman, presser par excellence and graduate with the '30 class, mystified by the disappearance of a certain canary in a cage. Incidentally, all Max's Boy Scout training in tying half-hitches were of no avail with the wily wizard.

Juniors Notice!

The Junior class will meet Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. for the purpose of nominating class officers. An assistant editor and assistant business manager will also be nominated to serve on the B. G. Key staff. Election will be held Thursday.

The Bowling Green College string quartet has been requested to furnish music for one of the general sessions of the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Association to be held in Toledo on October 30.

Because, those attending the meetings aggregate an audience too large to assemble in one auditorium, two halls have been engaged, the Civic Auditorium and the State Theatre. The speakers will exchange platforms, thus making possible a program held simultaneously in both buildings. It is during an exchange of speakers that the string quartet has been requested to play. They will entertain at about 11 o'clock.

Saturday's Football

Mt. Union, 0; STATE COLLEGE, 6

Country Life Club

Wednesday, Oct. 7 at 8:00 p. m. in the Auditorium. All welcome.

To Dance or Not to Dance

We see by the paper that the old traditional Saturday night Homecoming dance is to come before its time, and arrive on Friday night.

From the attitude of the alumni last year and the present attitude of the student body it would seem that this arrangement is anything but desirable.

Bible Study Started

Next Sunday evening, Oct. 11 at 6:30, Rev. Ingrime will start a six week study on the Manners and Customs of the Bible in the time of its writing. This will include an interpretation of the Bible from the standpoint of the manners and customs, including such topics as marriage, family life, burial and etc. Everyone is invited.

COLLEGE MIXER

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. sponsored the Annual Mixer held at the Men's Gymnasium, Saturday evening, Oct. 3.

All wore tags bearing their names and rankings. Boys in one circle and girls in another started the mixing. "Cliff" Olds kept everyone active. The game of volley ball caused much excitement.

The president of the Y. M. introduced Dr. Zaugg who talked concerning "Dad" Elliot who is coming to visit us in the near future.

The poppy orchestra made dancing the main feature of the evening. A promenade completed the mixing.

Cider and doughnuts were the refreshers.

Truth is stranger than fiction because there is less of it on the market.
Ask Me Another

Many a time I've wondered
About things that I have seen
How's a fellow tickled pink when he's yellow?
Why are blackberries red when they're green?
When you've answered both of these
Here's another that I'll ask you.
Tell me now do you know how a Freshie
When he's blue?
I. M. Short

"By his clothes he seemed a person of great posterity."

"Double dealing is when you buy something wholesale to sell retail."

"The Papal Bull was a mad bull kept by the Pope in the Inquisition to trample on Protestants."

Then there's the Buddhist who sold bibles for his bread and Buddha.

Speaking of force of habit, how about the bootlegger's son who got kicked out of college because of over-cutting.
The trouble with Chi gangsters is that they are not shy enough.

The POKER SONG—"Waiting For Chips That Never Come In."

"My, I'm certainly getting a lot out of this course!" exclaimed the chemistry student as he walked home with five bucks of laboratory equipment in his pocket.

The "fare sex" refers to girls who love to go riding.

Military Teeth: Out in front.

Of course you have heard the discarded bathing suit song, "Jantzen With Tears In My Sides."

Jake: Some girls don't profit by their college educations.

Legg: No—some of them get so absorbed in their education that they don't get a husband.

She used so much make-up, he called her his powdered sugar.

Even his best friends wouldn't tell him, and so he flunked his exam.

Cleo Yoder, well known student here last year, is reported to be assisting his father on the farm near Wauseon. Cleo will be remembered as one of the college's live-wire cheer leaders.

Prof.: "Why do you call your alarm clock Macbeth?"

Wise One: "Macbeth doth murder sleep."

Bowling Green State will be the hosts of the Dutch Universities Debate Team on Friday, October 23. The members of this team hail from the educational institutions of Holland, and are at present touring America, meeting debaters from the various colleges.

Under the auspices of the National Student Federation of America, the Dutchmen will arrive in Bowling Green via the New York Central on Friday afternoon, October 23. The debate will occur at the college in the evening at 8:15. Arrangements are being made to entertain the debaters until the following Monday.

SUMMER FANCY

She crossed her slim ankles and settled back among the cushions of the hammock. He put his arm around her and sighed. He sighed again and murmured, "Darling."

"Yes?" she queried.

"Darling, will you marry me?"

And when he left she cut another notch in the porch swing.

WHOM INDEED?

A man who loves peace and quietness and himself, declares that a woman's tongue never goes without saying. "Modern women," he asserts, "are outspoken." "Outspoken?" remonstrates the Flushing, (N. Y.) Journal, "outspoken by whom?"

Why's your face so red?
'Cause.
'Cause why?
'Causemetics.

Is that liquor potent?
Potent? Boy, pour it into a rose bed and it'll turn them into tiger lilies.

HOW TO KEEP THE FRATERNITY CHAMBER MAID OUT

Install trap doors every four feet in the hall. Peek through the transom and slug her with a lead pipe when he comes in.

Buy a can of Flit.
Try Black Flag, roach powder and rat biscuit.
Set the house afire.
Sleep in the park.

"Don't you think," queries a New Yorker, "that aside from their ugliness, these long skirts they're wearing are a menace?"

"Our observation," informs the Tribune's columnist, "leads to the conviction that they are no real handicap to veteran leg-crossers."

The meals this year are unusually good.

One reason is that they are so well flavored with lesson plans and practice teaching.

The old rounder complains that the only wet thing left with a kick to it is swimming.

Washington is the seat of the government because it is the place to kick.

The stingy farmer was scoring the hired man for carrying a lighted lantern to call on his best girl.

"The idea!" he exclaimed. "When I was courtin' I never carried no lantern. I went in the dark.

"Yes," said the hired man sadly, "and look what you got."

Where Was This At?

B. Bennett: Did you ever get pinched for going too fast?

R. Preble: No, but I got slapped.

Prof.: "If your father owed me $100 and he promised to pay me $5 a month, how many months would he take to pay it?"

Stud: "A hundred years."

Prof.: "You don't know your lesson."

Stud: "You don't know my father."

SWEATERS

for young men and women . coat and slipover styles; plain colors and patterns. Popular prices.

HI - FELLERS

You will want a pair of those

22-in. bottom and 3-in. waist band trousers

$2.98

UHLMAN'S
Social Calendar

Few organizations have filed their plans for their social activities this semester. All groups are again warned that these dates must be filed early with either the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men.

Events planned for the near future are the Phi Sigma Mu formal on October 14, The Girl's Prom, sponsored by the Woman's League, October 16, and the Rally Hop, November 6.

Chapel, Sept. 29

The chapel was quite different last Tuesday as Blackstone performed to show that 'the hand is quicker than the eye.' Winters, Miller, and James surprised the audience by displaying their ability in magic, and assisted Blackstone in revealing some of their personal possessions. It was interesting and everyone seemed to enjoy it immensely.

Dean Dorm Dashes

Our Freshies never had tams. I wonder why!

Gym Rules and Regulations: No corsets, no bracelets, necklaces or other jewelry.

"Dinks" picture is quite popular in Room 7.

Dilapidated Freshmen appear at class Friday. All combs, brushes and paint came up missing late Thursday evening.

I never saw such a hefty bunch of girls in all my life. Any size you want.

Our house chairman, Ruby Poling went home over the week-end, also Hine, Mohr, Foulk and Miller.

A fourth grader corrected a student teacher when spelling cattle (cattle).

Who's this Synder fellow from Lucky? That's what we'd like to know.

Our blonde can't even get through the door she's so—popular.

Five Sisters

The outlook for the coming year is a pleasant one for the Five Sisters. They are happily settled in their new house on Wooster street and in their two meetings, have made numerous plans. A large number of the members are back and are anticipating a lively time.

The pledges have been kept busy by the members, but, fortunately, are very willing.

Henry County Club

The first social meeting of the Henry County Club was held at the City Park last Tuesday evening (Sept. 29) in the form of a wiener roast. About twenty members were present. A short business meeting followed in which future programs were discussed.

Seven Sisters

The first event of importance on the Seven Sister calendar for the year was a six o'clock dinner party at the new sorority house, Saturday, Sept. 26.

We were all very glad to have five of last year's alumnae with us again. Those who returned were Jean Robertson, Jayne Reynolds, Elizabeth Walters, Pauline Spitler and Mildred Immel.

We are planning similar events for the coming year as well as an extensive program of other activities.

Home Made Candies, Ice Cream Sodas and Fancy Sundaes

—also—

Pineapple and Orange Ice

Try our delicious toasted Sandwiches

N. CALOMIRIS

3K

Impressive services marked the second Pledge Service which was given to eight girls last Tuesday evening. The final degree will be given, October 13.

Duties were assigned to the pledges; so for a short while, we shall be honored by "Service with a Smile" from these girls.

Plans for the Homecoming events have been completed. We are looking forward to seeing our alumni members then.

The serenader's missed our house. Wake up Big Boy, Dean Dorm is still in B. G. with 13 clever blondes and brunettes.

Watch out for the mouse trap in room 6.

Old friendships are never forgotten, and old friends will glow with appreciation for that most personal gift, your photograph.

Arrange now for an early appointment

ARIEL WALKER
East Wooster St.

Five Brothers News

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, all members of the Five Brother Fraternity gathered for the third meeting of the present semester. During the past two meetings and the present one, much time has been spent on plans and work for the remodeling the Frat House at 338 W. Wooster St.

At first things were rather unsettled but under the guiding hand of Kenyon Golding, Olde Skull, and George Thourout, House Chairman, things are rapidly becoming well organized.

The Fraternity is glad to welcome back to the active chapter Wilbur Miller, Harry Hawkins, and Walter Ostrander. These men have all been out teaching but have chosen this time to come back and complete there work.

Olde Skull Golding has appointed a committee to arrange a social calendar for the Fraternity. This includes such events as the Five Brothers Winter Homecoming, Formal Dance, Spring Picnic, Smokers, and the Tip Off Party given in honor of the basketball team, which met with such great success last year. With all these events on the calendar the social program promises to be the best ever.

The Fraternity is glad to welcome into it's ranks as neophytes, Harold Bechtell, William Noble, and Willard Wolf. These men will be given a hearty welcome at the next meeting.

Las Amigas

After trampling up and down forgotten streets and ringing three wrong doorbells the place of the meeting was at last found. But what a find it was! Miss Hedrick surely gave the sorority girls a treat when she invited them to her home last Tuesday evening. Before the meeting had adjourned, kitchen, books, and jelly had all been looked into.

At 8:15 the pledges arrived and after being burdened with duties for another week, they most willingly gave their assistance in serving refreshments.

The Las Amigas all wish to compliment Miss Hedrick and Miss Tressel on their cozy home, and for the lovely time that they had there.
New Method Of Handling Absences

With the beginning of the present semester a new system of dealing with absences went into effect. This is based on the following regulations, taken from the last catalog:

ABSENCES

Regular attendance at classes is essential to good work and irregular attendance usually proves a serious handicap and may jeopardize the student’s credit. The College enforces the following regulations concerning absences:

1. All occasional absences shall be adjusted with the instructors in whose classes they occur.

2. Three consecutive absences from any cause shall be reported by the instructor to the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, and the student must secure the written permission of said Dean before returning to class.

3. All cases of excessive absence, or absence for unjustifiable reasons, shall be reported by the instructor to the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men with recommendation for action. The Dean shall power to bar the student from class, lower the grade, or reduce the amount of credit.

4. All absences just before or after a vacation shall count double.

It is believed that this new system will prove more satisfactory than the old, both to students and faculty, but its success depends upon the cooperation of everyone concerned. Students should not that whenever they are absent they must do one of two things:

1. If absent for less than three consecutive meetings of any course, the student must briefly explain the cause of such absence to the instructor upon return to class.

2. If absent for three or more consecutive meetings of any course, the student must secure a permit to re-enter such course from the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men.

THEN THERE’S THE SCOTCHMAN—

Who found a meal ticket in Chicago but went nutty because it got full of bullet holes before he could get to the restaurant to use it.

Who bought a dog license for his Whippet car.

Who opened a sporting goods store and offered a golf ball free with every $1,000 purchase.

Who wears high shoes to get more out of a shine.

Who goes through the pockets of his wife’s knickers.

Who got his wife to bang him over the head with a rolling pin before he went to see a phrenologist.

Who insists upon telling people about the time he thought he needed an operation.

While studying at Ohio State this summer, Miss Janet Bowers, instructor in English here, was elected to membership in the national woman’s honorary educational sorority, Pi Lambda Theta. Miss Rhea McCain, head of Bowling Green English department became a member of the chapter at New York University.

Several other members of the faculty and office force, it is reported, have had the distinction of having been election to Pi Lambda Theta. It is rumored that efforts are being made to establish a chapter on this campus.

New arrangements which will improve the administration of the Training School are now in progress, according to reports from the office. Since the removal of the Home Economics room, formerly used by the upper grades attending the Training School, a room has been vacant on the first floor. First grade classes will be transferred to that room, in the near future, after it has been dismantled and rearranged.

Heretofore, since three student teachers have been under each critic teacher every hour, it has been necessary to send the pupils all over the building. The use of the new room will eliminate much of the change before necessary, and will supplant it with the use of only one flight of stairs rather than two.

Miss Ada Meyerholts of the office force began her vacation this week. She will spend two weeks in Chicago.

We request all articles be signed. If you do not wish signature to be printed simply write under signature “Do not print.”

Editor

---

THE WOOD COUNTY SAVINGS BANK

Capital $100,000.00  Surplus $150,000.00

4% On Time Deposits

WOOD COUNTY’S LARGEST FINANCIAL INSTITUTION OFFERING COMPLETE BANKING SERVICE

Student’s Accounts Solicited