

Bowling Green State University
ScholarWorks@BGSU

Africana Studies Student Research Conference 21st Annual Africana Studies Student Research
Conference and Luncheon

Feb 8th, 8:30 AM - 3:00 PM

Africana Studies Student Research Conference 2019 Flyer

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/africana_studies_conf

Part of the Africana Studies Commons

Bowling Green State University, "Africana Studies Student Research Conference 2019 Flyer" (2019).
Africana Studies Student Research Conference. 3.
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/africana_studies_conf/2019/posters/3

This Event is brought to you for free and open access by the Conferences and Events at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Africana Studies Student Research Conference by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.

BGSU'S AFRICANA STUDIES PROGRAM PRESENTS
21ST ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH CONFERENCE AND LUNCHEON

EMERGING PERSPECTIVES IN AFRICANA STUDIES

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

"This is Our Story: Reclaiming the Middle Passage, Resisting Social Death"

Dr. Green's lecture will be based on her recent book, Reimagining the Middle Passage: Black Resistance in Literature, Television, and Song (2018), which provides an interdisciplinary perspective on African descendants' resistance to social death during the Middle Passage and in spaces symbolic of the Middle Passage, through the lens of literature, television, and song.

Dr. Tara T. Green

Linda Carlisle Excellence Professor of Women's & Gender Studies,
Professor and Former Director of African American & African Diaspora Studies,
University of North Carolina, Greensboro

Friday, February 8, 2019

Bowen-Thompson Student Union Ballroom (Room 202)

Conference Panels 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. | Keynote Luncheon at Noon

This day-long conference will feature undergraduate and graduate students from BGSU and beyond (7 universities and 16 disciplines), presenting their original research during morning and afternoon panels.

The keynote speaker will present her lecture during the conference luncheon (12:00-1:15).

The conference and keynote lecture are free and open to the public. Anyone interested in purchasing luncheon tickets (selecting from the following entré salad choices: Classic Cobb, Grilled Salmon, or Vegetarian) may sponsor a table that seats 8 ($160), or buy an individual seat ($15/person, or $5/student). All luncheon reservations must be made by February 4.

To register for the luncheon or for more information, please call 419-372-7814.

The Africana Studies Program would like to thank the following sponsors:

- School of Art
- Art History
- College of Arts and Sciences
- School of Cultural and Critical Studies
- Arts Village
- History
- English
- Center for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship
- Ethnic Cultural Arts Program
- School of Media & Communication
- World Languages and Cultures
- Global Village
- Theatre & Film
- College of Musical Arts
- Office of Student Affairs
- International Studies
- Asian Studies

To our guests with disabilities, please indicate if you need special services, assistance or appropriate modifications to fully participate in this event by contacting Accessibility Services at access@bgsu.edu or 419-372-8495. Please notify us prior to the event.