STADIUM INFORMATION

We request your cooperation in observing the rules and traditions of this University and of the state law which makes it illegal to bring or consume alcoholic beverages of any kind at an athletic event.

Concession stands are conveniently located at the end of each entrance ramp under the stadium.

Rest rooms are located on both the east and west sides of the stadium and can be found between ramps 2 and 4, 6 and 8, 1 and 3 plus 5 and 7.

Telephones are conveniently located in the stadium next to all the rest room facilities.

The first aid room is on the east side of the stadium between ramps 4 and 6.

Anyone finding a lost article is requested to turn it in to the ticket office under the east stands.

Spectators must keep off the playing field at all times during and after the game. At the end of the game, spectators must use the ramp exits rather than the field level exits.

Welcome to Doyt Perry Field

Something for everyone — that's the theme for Bowling Green football in 1979. There is no finer family entertainment than college football on a Saturday afternoon. In addition to exciting MAC action, the Falcon Athletic Department has put together a series of pre-game and halftime shows and special promotions which we feel will appeal to fans of all ages.

Starting with the gala Shrine parade on September 8 and Band Day on September 22, throughout the season there will be sky divers, gifts and surprises for the youngsters, an automobile show, Homecoming activities and much, much more. Add to this one of the country's finest marching bands, tailgate parties and a football team with one of the most explosive offenses in the nation, and you've got a great day of entertainment.

A warm welcome to all of our fans and our special guests from Eastern Michigan, Central Michigan, Toledo, Miami and Southern Mississippi. We hope you thoroughly enjoy your day on the Bowling Green campus. And after the game, take the time to stroll the campus and visit its many outstanding buildings and facilities.

When the day is complete, we hope you will agree that it was an exciting visit. We hope to see you at many future Falcon athletic events.

Today's Visitor

Miami

The Falcons' mission is doubly difficult today. Besides having to beat a good football team, they must overcome the "Miami Whammy." Six years in a row the Redskins have beaten the Falcons, sometimes by wide margins, but most of the time on some last minute heroics.

Last year, the Falcon defense played if not its best, then one of its best games of the season against Miami. The Falcons nursed a 7-6 lead into the fourth quarter, but a pair of BG fumbles deep in Miami territory gave the Redskins great field position to drive in for a pair of touchdowns and an 18-7 victory.

The Falcons come into today's game playing good football. Other than a poor performance in the first half of the Toledo game two weeks ago, and a so-so showing in the first half last week at Kent State, the Falcons have been a good football team for the last three weeks.

The offense is achieving some balance with the running of young tailbacks Kevin Folkes and Chip Otten; the defense has steadily improved; and the kicking game has remained excellent.

The Miami team that comes into Doyt L. Perry Stadium today is far better than its 3-3 record indicates. The Redskins opened their season by routing defending MAC Champion Ball State and edging Kentucky on the road. Only a desperation fourth down pass and a touchdown in the final minutes kept Miami from upsetting Michigan State in East Lansing in the third game of the season. A week later, the Redskins suffered another heartbreaker as they had a pass intercepted in the end zone in the final seconds of a 19-18 loss at Central Michigan. Miami bounced back with a 28-0 shutout of Marshall before being upset by surprisingly Ohio University, 9-7, last week.

One of the many highlights of this Homecoming weekend is the presentation of the distinguished service award. The recipient of this year's award which is presented annually by the Bowling Green Alumni Association to a deserving BGSU alumnus is Ken Kisselle '52 of Avon Lake.

Denny Stolz is in his third year at Bowling Green State University following successful coaching stints at Alma College and Michigan State University.

A former Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year, he has amassed a 72-43-1 record as a collegiate head coach for a winning percentage of .591. That percentage could improve this season as Stolz' original recruits begin to mature in their third year in the program.

Before coming to Bowling Green, Stolz was the head coach at Michigan State from 1973-75. During his three year tenure, he led the Spartans to a 19-13-1 record which was the only winning record produced among Big Ten coaches other than Woody Hayes and Bo Schembechler.

His first club posted a 5-6 record in 1973, but a year later, he directed the Spartans to a 7-3-1 mark for the best effort at State since the 1966 season. The team was 6-1-1 in conference play and only a tie with Illinois kept it out of the title picture. His efforts earned him coaching plaudits from the Big Ten and the Spartans finished 12th in the AP poll and 18th in the UPI ratings. A 16-13 win over Ohio State highlighted the campaign as the Buckeyes were ranked number one at the time.

A year later, Stolz led State to a 7-4 record and a third place finish in the Big Ten. One of the team’s big wins was a 10-3 decision over Notre Dame.

His coaching success earned him a spot as head coach of the North team in the 1976 All-American Bowl in Tampa and he directed his team to a win over the South team.

Stolz began his coaching career with the Spartans as an assistant to Duffy Daugherty in 1971. As defensive coordinator, his units ranked second and third in the league in total defense.

Prior to joining Daugherty, Stolz was head coach at Alma College in Michigan from 1965-70. Taking over a team that had won just three games in four years, he molded Alma into a Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) power. During his six years as head coach, his teams won three MIAA titles, compiled an 18-game win streak and posted back-to-back unbeaten seasons in 1967 and 1968.

A 1955 graduate of Alma and a native of Lansing, Mich., Stolz got his start in coaching at Haslett High School where he had a nine-year record of 40-13-2 from 1955-63. He also spent a year as defensive coordinator at Lansing Eastern High School in 1964.

Denny and his wife, Cena, are the parent’s of a son, Doak, 19, and daughters, Dawn, 18, and Denise, 11.
Senior Spotlight

The Third Life Of Darhyl Garrett
By Kevin McDermott

Darhyl Garrett is just grateful for another chance. The senior from Chattanooga, Tenn., is on the third leg of his college football travels, and he’s ready to settle down into a big year.

“Most people only get one shot at something like this, and I feel I’ve been very fortunate to have three chances,” said Darhyl, “and I plan to prove my worth.”

After spending his freshman year at Middle Tennessee State University, Garrett headed to Ferrum (Va.) Junior College where he played on a national championship team. He came to Bowling Green last April and now starts at right offensive tackle for the Falcons.

After seeing three different football programs, the biggest difference Darhyl notices has nothing to do with physical abilities or scheduling. Rather, he explains, “It’s the effort. It’s been great here. We have a team unity,” says Darhyl. “The other places had a lot of individuals — superstars who only care about their own records. Here it’s the team concept and it makes it more enjoyable to play.”

Admitting to an inconsistency in the offense, Darhyl has no worries at all that it will be straightened out. It’s just a matter of time.

“We haven’t been executing properly yet. We showed a little something against Eastern (Mich.) and Iowa St. but turnovers hurt us. In time, with Mike Wright, you know our offense is going to start clicking,” Darhyl said.

In the meantime, the defense seems to have taken up the slack, and the effect can only be positive for the members of the offense.

“In order to have a good team you need a good defense,” says Darhyl, “and if our defense continues like it did against Western Michigan we can still have a helluva year.”

Once the season is completed, Darhyl Garrett intends to hang up his cleats for good. He has no professional aspirations at all.

“I’ve been playing for eleven years and now I just want to go out and work for a living,” confesses the physical education major. “Football has been nice to me, but I don’t want to play my whole life.”

Sheets Makes Up For Lack Of Height
By Kevin McDermott

Jim Sheets is not your typical defensive tackle. At 5'11”, he stands as the shortest defensive lineman for the Falcons and probably ranks as one of the shortest in the league. Nevertheless, Jim is the leading tackler among the linemen and third on the team overall. Not bad for an undersized guy.

“My size only hinders me when I play against someone 6’4” or 6’5”, because I can’t see the ball, I just have to outmaneuver them,” said Jim matter of factly.

A change in defensive alignments this year has helped Jim adjust.

“We changed from a 5-2 defense to a 4-3, which made me happy,” explained Jim, “Now I line up over the guards instead of the tackles. Some of those tackles get to be pretty big.”

Since making the team as a walk-on four years ago, Jim has heard his share of criticism of the defense. This year, bolstered with a new confidence built in by the coaches, Sheets has come out with a determined attitude.

“Personally I came to the decision that it’s time to do something about our defense. Now’s the time to get it together,” said Jim. And getting it together is exactly what the Falcon defense seems to be doing.

“We could sense our defense coming against Central (Michigan), but the Western Michigan game was the real big game confidence wise,” Jim said. “We’re hitting harder and making the big plays. The biggest thing for the team though is that we finally started getting the ball back to the offense.”

Sheets is one of the leading tacklers on the team and was selected as BG’s outstanding defensive player against Toledo.

Jim Sheets is the first to admit however, that the defense still has places to go.

“The defense is starting to come around, but we still have a lot of work to do. There’s still room for improvement.”

A Corrections major, Sheets sees the MAC race going down to the end.

“I just don’t think any team will go undefeated,” he says.

Ground
Breaking Scheduled

THE MEAT PEOPLE!

Ground breaking ceremonies are scheduled for the new home of Lundy-Van Oldsmobile Cadillac. The new facilities will be located on the north end of Bowling Green on North Dixie Highway and will feature the most modern facilities in the area and a large new car showroom. If you appreciate the quality built into a Cadillac, you'll appreciate the quality we're building into our new facilities.
Welcome Back Alumni Band!

It is a pleasure to welcome the 1979 Alumni Band to today’s Homecoming festivities. This is the fourth year for this outstanding group, and each year the band has become bigger and better.

The evolution of the Alumni Band began in 1974, when a group of University Band Alumni felt that many former Bandsmen would gladly support and participate in such an organization. Two years of planning by the Organizing Committee, along with the assistance of Dr. Jon Piersol and Mr. David Glasmire of the College of Music faculty, was climaxed by the appearance of the Alumni Band at Homecoming, 1976. These gentlemen also served as conductors for the first Alumni Band which consisted of eighty-three members.

Today, the 1979 Band has 110 members, according to the current President, Jack Gray '70. Untold hours throughout the year are spent in locating Alumni, and inviting them to participate in Alumni Band. Mr. Jim Lessig, Mr. Jim Hof, and the Alumni Office also deserve credit for the success of this organization, for without their help, many of the Alumni would never be located.

The schedule of events for today’s Band has a special significance because it will be the first time for most of the Alumni to see the newly completed Musical Arts Center. The band service fraternity and sorority, Kappa Kappa Psi and Tau Beta Sigma, will be giving tours of the building after the game to those interested Band Alums. Other activities have included a morning rehearsal with the University Band, a business meeting to elect officers for next year, and a luncheon.

Thanks For The Memories

In Keeping with the spirit of Homecoming, and the memories that are rekindled, the band’s halftime show this afternoon revolves around music from the past and present.

We open our show with the driving sound of Blood, Sweat, and Tears’ “Lucretia MacEvil,” and then travel back to the Big Band Era, Louis Armstrong, and “Mack the Knife.” Our flag feature this afternoon is presented to the beautiful duet by Neil Diamond and Barbra Streisand, “You Don’t Bring Me Flowers Anymore.” “Last Dance,” the Donna Summers’ disco recording of the year, serves as the musical background for our dazzling twirlers, and our “walk down memory lane” closes with music from the Beatles, “Hey Jude.”

Spirit And Tradition

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you’ll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem’ry
Of the by-gone days,
hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Forward Falcons

Fight Song

Forward Falcons!
Forward Falcons!
Fight for victory,
Show our spirit,
Make them fear it,
Fight for dear Bee Gee.
Forward Falcons!
Forward Falcons!
Make the contest keen,
Hold up the fame
Of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

THE FIRST CHEVY OF THE ’80s. CITATION.
OUR MOST SUCCESSFUL NEW CAR EVER.

Ever since its introduction, people have been flooding Chevy showrooms across the country to see the 1980 Chevy Citation. And according to Retail Delivery Reports, 33,765 units were sold in its first three weeks, more than any new entry Chevrolet has ever introduced.

MID-SIZE ROOM FOR 5.

Citation’s engine is mounted sideways, so the passenger compartment can be bigger. In fact, in EPA interior dimensions, Citation is classified as a mid-size car. With the back seat folded down there’s room enough for two adults in front and 30 bags of groceries in back.

0 TO 50 IN 9 SECONDS FLAT WITH THE AVAILABLE V6.

In engineering tests, Citation goes from 0 to 50 in 9 seconds flat. That’s with available 2.8 Liter V6 engine and automatic transmission. California figures not available. (Citation is equipped with GM-built engines produced by various divisions. See your dealer for details.)

EASY ON GAS.

24 EPA ESTIMATED MPG.
38 HIGHWAY ESTIMATE.

That’s with Citation’s standard 2.5 Liter 4-cylinder engine and manual transmission. (Manual transmission currently not available in California. Calif. estimates lower.)

Citation’s standard 4-speed transmission is made to conserve gas. It’s an overdrive. And at cruising speeds the 4th gear lets the engine run slower than with a conventional transmission, helping to get impressive fuel economy.

IMPRESSIVE LONG-RANGE CRUISING ESTIMATES, TOO.

And Citation’s long-range cruising estimates are just as impressive. 356 miles based on EPA estimated MPG (city) mileage figures, and 532 miles based on estimated highway MPG. Range figures obtained by multiplying Citation’s 14-gallon fuel tank capacity rating by the EPA mileage estimates.

REMEMBER: Compare the circled estimated MPG to the estimated MPG of other cars. You may get different mileage and range depending on your speed, trip length and weather. Your actual city mileage and range will be less in heavy city traffic. Your actual mileage will probably be less than the highway estimate.

YOU’VE GOT TO DRIVE IT TO BELIEVE IT.

When you drive Citation you’ll see what all the excitement is about. The way it feels. The way it maneuvers. The way it rides. And Citation’s front wheel drive puts approximately 65% of its weight over the “driving wheels” to give you impressive traction on wet or snowy roads.

IT’S A WHOLE NEW KIND OF COMPACT CAR.

There’s still a lot about Citation that we haven’t mentioned. Like slip stream design to cut down on wind resistance and wind noise. The hidden cargo area in all hatchback models, so what’s inside is protected from view. A dual diagonal braking system. And much, much more. That’s why we encourage you to see your Chevy dealer and test drive the 1980 Chevy Citation today. This could be the car you’ve had in mind.

Falcons Can’t Kick About Kicking Game

Bowling Green’s offense has hit some high points this season such as against Eastern Michigan and in the second half against Toledo, and low points like the Central Michigan game and the first half against Toledo two weeks ago. Likewise, the defense has been outstanding against Western Michigan and spotty at other times.

But for the Falcons this year has been the kicking game. The placekicking of junior John Spengler of Toledo, the punting of freshman Jeff Higgins of Akron, and the coverage and blocking on the returns by other members of the special teams has been excellent all year.

In Spengler and Higgins, Bowling Green has as good a pair of kickers as there is in the Mid-American Conference. Through the Toledo game, Spengler had converted 12 of the 13 kicks he has attempted this year, while Higgins had a very respectable average of 36.6 yards per punt despite having to face the 30 mile per hour wind six times during the Central Michigan game.

BG Coach Denny Stolz is quick to praise the team’s kicking game. “We are definitely improved in all areas of our kicking over a year ago,” Stolz says. “John and Jeff have kicked very well, but the improvement goes beyond them. We are doing a better job of covering our kicks, and we have come so darned close to breaking returns on several occasions.

“You build a team from the bottom up, not from the top down,” Stolz continues. “Kicking is the first place where you see your program improving because that is where you are using your young kids.”

While the Falcons have shown improvement in all the facets of the kicking game, it is in the actual kicking of the ball where it is most dramatic. No matter how well a team covers kicks, it won’t be effective if the kicker does not do his job.

Last year Spengler did an adequate job as the Falcons’ placekicker. His kickoffs were good, and he was extremely consistent on extra points, making 34 in a row. He has continued to make remarkable field goals this season, including a 31 yarder against Michigan and a personal best of 43 yards against Iowa State.

Spengler’s only missed kick of the year came against Western Michigan. His 48 yard field goal attempt had plenty of distance, but sailed just wide of the right upright. He came back the next week with three field goals in the Falcons’ victory at Western Michigan. He easily made a 42 yarder with the wind in the first quarter, and then in the third quarter when the Falcons were going into the wind, he set a new personal best with a 45 yarder. Moments later he bettered that with one from 46 yards out. Spengler made it six of seven on field goals with a 29 yarder against Toledo.

“John has increased his range by at least 10 yards,” Stolz says. “He has worked hard to do it, too. He does everything in practice that the rest of the team does — runs, lifts weights and even takes part in some of the drills. He is out there from the start of practice to the finish. He is a great influence on the rest of the team including Jeff Higgins.”

The emergence of Higgins as a quality punter has solved one of the major problems from last year when the Falcons averaged just 32.5 yards per punt. “The thing about Jeff is that he gives us a chance on every punt,” Stolz says. “He is very consistent. Last year it seemed that once every game we would get one off the side of a foot that put us in a hole. That has not happened this year with Jeff.”

Higgins has averaged between 37.5 and 42 yards per punt in four of BG’s first five games this year. The lone exception was against Central Michigan when he faced that strong wind. Even at that, his 29 yard average was nine yards per kick better than CMU’s punter averaged.

The best part about the kicking of Spengler and Higgins is that they will be back next year. Spengler has another year of football eligibility and two more years on the golf team where he has already won two varsity letters. Higgins, a walk-on who is not even listed in the BG press guide, has three more years of punting ahead of him at Doyt L. Perry Field.
ATHLETIC SECRETARIES: Some of the most important members of the BGSU athletic staff are the department secretaries. The group and their responsibilities includes (L-R) — Marty Frobose (athletic director), Jan Kiehl (Falcon Club), Sandy Graf (football), Lou-Ann Bray (sports information), Sally Thiebaut (assistant athletic director), Bernie Joseph (promotions), Tracy Cary (switchboard) and Ann Jones (associate athletic director). Missing are Becky Meek (tickets) and Opal Adams (tickets).

STADIUM MAINTENANCE TEAM: The excellent condition of BGSU's athletic plant is the responsibility of the athletic fields and facilities crew under the direction of Ken Schoeni, administrative assistant to the athletic director. The group includes (L-R) — Curly Foster, Dan Malone, Norm Jimison, Dick Layman, Butch Patton, Genaro Cruz, Paul Thiebaut and Ken Schoeni. Missing are Jerry Hiser and Jerry Jimison.

Becky Dodson Leads Falcon Harriers
By Kevin Reid

When Becky Dodson first tried out for the Bowling Green track team, she wasn’t very optimistic about her chances of making the squad. “Coach (Dave) Williams said he wasn’t very impressed,” she recalls. “That set me off, and I decided I wasn’t about to quit — even if I came in last in every race.”

Her tenacity and competitive spirit have helped to make her women’s cross country coach Sid Sink’s top runner. “She’s a strength runner,” Sink explains. “The major part of her strength is in the middle of the race. If you can’t stay with her then, she’ll run away from you.”

The captain of this year’s team, Dodson has been Bowling Green’s first finisher in each race this year. Her best performance came two weeks ago when she pulled away from Melanie Weaver of Michigan to win a five-team race here at Bowling Green. A week earlier Weaver had beaten her at the Eastern Michigan Invitational, but this time, Dodson not only beat her, she beat her easily in a course record time of 18:42.

The third of nine children and the oldest girl, the North Canton native learned early about responsibility and self discipline. “When Mom was in the hospital having a baby, everything fell to me, and I just took charge,” she says. Those early responsibilities, she adds, taught her to be independent and to accept what happens without worrying about what might have been.

Her family responsibilities kept her from participating in sports until her junior year at Hoover High School in North Canton. Lettering in basketball and volleyball as well as in track gave her the opportunity to expand her horizons and become even more independent. She tried out for the track team with the intention of becoming a sprinter, but a mile run put an end to those plans. Her high school coach held the run in order to place team members in events for the first meet of the season to be held several days later. She finished first. “I really didn’t want to run distances,” she says with a smile. “It just sort of worked out that way.” In the course of her high school career, she recorded a fifth place finish in the mile at the state championships in 1975, school records in the mile and 880, and records in the Federal League 880 and the Perry Relays 880.

Although injuries in her senior year kept her from running the longer distances, she was able to compete in the quarter mile and half-mile. It wasn’t until her sophomore year at Bowling Green, she says, that she stopped considering herself a half-miler and started concentrating on distances of two and three miles.

Self-discipline, she says, is one of the keys to cross country running, but the camaraderie among team members helps to make the grueling practices easier. Having to get up each day at 6:30 in the morning to run several miles, she says, has a way of bringing a team together and making it a social group as well as an athletic one. “We push each other,” she explains. “It helps psych me up for races, and I love the competition.”

Although her immediate goals include qualifying for the national championships for the third time, graduate school and law school also figure prominently in her plans for the future. A senior with a dual major of history and sociology, she is particularly interested in childhood delinquency. Growing up with eight brothers and sisters, she says, has given her a special interest in children and how they are affected by family problems.

Cross country for Becky Dodson is a means of self-expression. She thrives on the competition. “I run for myself,” she says, “but I don’t want to forsake the team. You can’t let the team carry you.”

Through all the early morning practices, the pain of special practices such as speed days and pace days, and the self-discipline of forcing herself to run four to five miles a day, the competition remains the most important element for her. “But if the competition gets nasty,” she says, “then I’ll step out.”

Since 1965, one of the driving forces behind the Bowling Green State University athletic program has been the Falcon Club. The group offers a variety of activities to members and support by the members has had much to do with the success enjoyed by various Falcon teams. Luncheons, such as the one above, are just one of the many activities available to members.

Dear Falcon Fan:

We share with you an enthusiastic desire for winning athletics at Bowling Green. In order to sustain a winning program, however, we must meet the financial challenges of athletic excellence.

Falcon Club membership offers you an opportunity to get behind our teams and coaches. Falcon Club donations have been the salvation of our program, and to win in 1979 will require a supreme Falcon Club effort.

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.
