4-8-1991

Monitor Newsletter April 08, 1991

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/monitor

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/monitor/176

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Monitor by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
Seven seats are up for election on CSC.

Self-nominations should be sent to Donie S. Crockett, 1000 Lake Road, Oceanside, CA 92054. Deadline is April 12.

Cost to increase

Students are being advised that all interested persons that effective July 1, all mandatory services will be $10 per page.

Datebook

Monday, April 1

Hey! Bowling League, 9 p.m., Auburn Recreation Center.

Tuesday, April 2

For details, contact the Vassie Committee, c/o Jean Martin, Methodist Church, Room 219, Firelands College Center.

Wednesday, April 3

Spring physician assistant.

Wednesday, April 3

April 21: 2-4 p.m., Community Hall.

Thursday, April 4

April 18, 3-4 p.m., Firelands College Center.

April 25, 3-4 p.m., Firelands College Center.

Saturday, April 6

April 14, 9 a.m., Community Hall.

Saturday, April 13

April 27, 9 a.m., Community Hall.

Library

Center for Archival Collect.

Bowling Green State University

Monitor

April 8, 1991

Reservation project will give the Fine Arts Building a modern look

Dr. F. Eugene Dybdahl is never far from the annex of the building and he wouldn't have it any other way.

The Purdue resident is director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.

Dybdahl is also the director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.

Dybdahl is also the director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.

Dybdahl is also the director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.

Dybdahl is also the director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.

Dybdahl is also the director of the Fine Arts Building's new look, which is expected to be completed by the end of this year. Under his guidance the annex of the building will be renovated, and the annex of the building will be converted to housing.
Senate gives approval to People for Racial Justice resolution

After on the campus and in the community. The resolution was the first to be approved by the Senate in the 20th century. The resolution was written by students and submitted on April 10.

The majority of the senate disagreed with the resolution, saying it would not address the same issue. The Senate floor was open for discussion, but no resolution was brought to the floor. The resolution was then sent to the Senate for review.

The resolution is intended to address the issue of racial injustice and to promote civil rights for all.

University employees to be honored for years of service April 10

Twenty and forty years of service are to be celebrated at a ceremony on April 10. The ceremony will be held in the Mileti Alumni Center at 2 p.m. All employees with 20 or 40 years of service are invited to attend.

Several employees have already received letters notifying them of their upcoming recognition. These employees include:

- Sandra L. Mellott, human resources specialist
- David A. Chambers, assistant professor
- Kayla M. Young, administrative assistant
- Robert L. Smith, assistant professor
- Linda L. Keenan, administrative assistant
- Kenneth B. Trott, administrative assistant
- John W. Beggan, computer science instructor
- Karen L. Hargrove, administrative assistant
- Mary L. Hughes, assistant director of financial aid
- Margaret Cart, who recently retired from her position as the university's ombudsperson

These employees will be honored at the ceremony on April 10.

Fine Arts Building — New home for impresario

Dobbins is happy in his new home, the Fine Arts Building. The building is the future home of the University's arts programs.

The Fine Arts Building will house the Department of Music, the Department of Theatre and Dance, and the Department of Visual and Performing Arts. The building will feature state-of-the-art facilities, including a large auditorium, a smaller theater, and a studio for multimedia production.

The building is expected to be completed in 2024, and the Department of Music is scheduled to move into the building in 2025.
Monday, April 8

Women's Basketball 7 p.m. in the Convocation Center.

Tuesday, April 9

Churchill Marching Band 7:30 p.m. at the School of Music in the Science Building, located at 1001 W. University Ave.

Wednesday, April 10

Open Forum at 11 a.m. with President Dr. Boosta in the Art Center, Dining Hall.

Thursday, April 11

Magazine Writers Workshop, room 310, 1-3 p.m.

Friday, April 12

Visiting Writer series, Robert Coover, 12:10 p.m. in the Science Building. Coover is a noted novelist who is known for his playful, imaginative, and often absurdist style of writing.

Have a fun night out of dinner and theatre.

Both the table and the stage will be set for spring with a symposium of theatre and dance sponsored by the University Department of Theatre and Dance.

Friday, April 12

University of Virginia, exploring the world of arts and entertainment. 3:10 p.m. in the Science Building.

Saturday, April 13

Run for the 9K/5K/1K walk, 9 a.m. at the Science Building. The race is open to all students, faculty, and staff.

Sunday, April 14

St. John's College, Oxford, England. 10 a.m. in the Science Building.

Monday, April 15

University employees and other members of the community are invited to attend the 2019 Faculty of Arts and Sciences Annual Conference. 8 a.m. in the Science Building.

PERS representatives to hold orientation.

University employees who are members of the Public Employees Retirement System (PERS) are invited to attend a PERS orientation meeting. 9 a.m. in the Science Building.

A PERS representative will present information to explain the retirement plan and how it works. The representative will also have a representative present to answer questions about the retirement plan and respond to questions.

The presentation will be offered at three different times: 10 a.m., noon, and 2 p.m. in the Campus Room of the Science Building.

A PERS representative also will be available to answer questions from employees who wish to review their retirement records or have questions about the retirement system benefits. Employees may be scheduled for a personal interview at the time of the presentation.

Faculty positions

The following faculty positions are available:

- Assistant Professor of History
- Assistant Professor of Psychology
- Assistant Professor of Sociology
- Assistant Professor of Economics
- Assistant Professor of Political Science
- Assistant Professor of English
- Assistant Professor of Modern Languages
- Assistant Professor of Music
- Assistant Professor of Fine Arts
- Assistant Professor of Theater

Faculty positions include teaching, research, and service responsibilities. Please submit a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and a statement of teaching and research interests to the search committee chair.

Olscamp Scholar and one of the 1965 and is the recipient of the Olscamp Scholarship at the University of Virginia. VoL 11, No. 38 Bowling Green State University