Thursday, April 25

MBA/Manager Roundtable, the weekly meeting that will have an "Academic Year" flavor, will be February 27, 8:30 a.m., in the Rinehart Room, 3125 University Hall.

April 26

The Quaker, the weekly student newspaper, will publish its final edition on April 26.

Friday, April 26

Cedar Point points are for sale again.

As a member of TIRED (Todoists, Headquarters, Fast Food, Energetic Simmer Co., Inc.) personnel services had agreed to use Point Cedar Point Good Any Day passes at 1:30 p.m., April 26.

Cedar Point's opening season begins the day before Labor Day. Sept. 2, plus an additional four-weekend period after Labor Day. Charleston was called upon to find a way to the current price of $52.50.

Cedar Point is owned by a group of investors who are interested in the area's economy. The investors are interested in using the passes as a way to generate more money for the area.

Saturday, April 27

Singers (two positions available) will be presented by the newsletter of the University Library.

Singers are for sale at $20 a year and $10 for four bonus weekends.

Monday, April 29

Adviser is needed

The Zeta chapter of Alpha Phi at Bowling Green State University is looking for an adviser to help them organize events and activities.

Adviser will be needed to help the chapter organize events and activities. The adviser will be paid $20 per hour and will be responsible for attending chapter meetings and events.

The Zeta chapter is a local chapter of Alpha Phi, a national sorority for women.

Classified staff
effective April 24

The Classified staff is effective today. The Classified staff will be responsible for the following tasks:

1. Administrative and clerical support
2. Maintenance and repair of office equipment
3. Coordination of events and meetings
4. Coordination of travel arrangements
5. Coordination of guest lectures and workshops

The Classified staff will be responsible for ensuring that the necessary support is provided to the university community.

Wednesday, April 24

Thursday, April 25

Friday, April 26

Saturday, April 27

Monday, April 29

Classified staff
effective April 24

The Classified staff is effective today. The Classified staff will be responsible for the following tasks:

1. Administrative and clerical support
2. Maintenance and repair of office equipment
3. Coordination of events and meetings
4. Coordination of travel arrangements
5. Coordination of guest lectures and workshops

The Classified staff will be responsible for ensuring that the necessary support is provided to the university community.
James is honored with teaching award

Dr. Richard James, music composition and music education faculty, has received the 1990 Distinguished Professor Award. He received the award at the Stone Music Art Center for an outstanding research and creative commitment and for excellence as a teacher and scholar.

James joined Bowling Green State University in 1981. A graduate of Western State College State in 1975, he received his B.A. in music, and his M.A. and Ph.D. in music education from the University of Wisconsin.

In addition to his membership in several professional music organizations, Dr. James is a member of the American Society for Theatre Research and the society's issues of the arts.

Distinguished Professor Award from the Provost's Office

The Honorary Counsel, the Counseling and Career Development Center, along with the Center for Student Development, will host a special event to present the Stone Music Art Center with the Distinguished Professor Award.

The event will be held at 8 p.m. with a reception at 7:30 p.m. Following the reception, a program featuring the Stone Music Art Center will be held. The program will include music by student performers and a special reception honoring the awardee.}

Medici Circle honors six supporters at annual gala

The Medici Circle honored six individuals at the Medici Circle Annual Gala held at the University Center on June 20. The Medici Circle, an organization of the University of Florida, is recognizing its 30th anniversary.

The six supporters honored were: James M. O'Brien, executive director of the Florida State University Foundation; Robert DeBard, dean of the University of Florida College of Medicine; William L. Seidenthal, president of the University of Florida; Robert J. S. Miller, assistant dean for the University of Florida College of Dentistry; and William J. F. Brumbaugh, president of the University of Florida Alumni Association.

The Medici Circle, formed in 1969, is a group of individuals who contribute to the University of Florida's goal of excellence in education, research, and public service. The Medici Circle's annual gala is a fundraising event that supports these goals.

Summer hours to begin on May 13

Summer hours will officially begin on May 13 with the following changes to office hours:

- Business hours: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Lunch breaks: 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
- Evening hours: 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.
- Saturday hours: 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The University will be closed on Fridays during the summer months.

Planning to retire?

The Early Retirement Incentive Plan of the University of Florida, which is available to employees, includes a variety of options for planning to retire.

If you are considering retirement, it is important to plan ahead to ensure a smooth transition.

Contact the University's Employee Benefits Office for more information on the Early Retirement Incentive Plan and how it can benefit you.

Test scanning hours set

Computer scores for the Test Scanning System, which will be open to students from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays, have been set. The Test Scanning System, which is available to faculty and staff, allows for the efficient and accurate scoring of test papers.

The Test Scanning System is available to faculty and staff for use in grading exams and assignments. The system provides a means of reducing the time and effort required to grade papers, allowing faculty and staff to focus on other aspects of their work.

Learning to perform

Harmony and harmony will be on display on the campus of the University of Florida as part of the 1990 Distinguished Professor Award celebration.

The event will feature a performance by the University of Florida Concert Band and the University Singers, conducted by Dr. Richard James. The performance will take place in the University Center at 8 p.m. with a reception at 7:30 p.m. Following the reception, a program featuring the University of Florida Concert Band will be held. The program will include music by student performers and a special reception honoring the awardee. Please join us to celebrate this special occasion.

Lettermen to perform

Harmony and harmony will be on display on the campus of the University of Florida as part of the 1990 Distinguished Professor Award celebration.

The event will feature a performance by the University of Florida Concert Band and the University Singers, conducted by Dr. Richard James. The performance will take place in the University Center at 8 p.m. with a reception at 7:30 p.m. Following the reception, a program featuring the University of Florida Concert Band will be held. The program will include music by student performers and a special reception honoring the awardee. Please join us to celebrate this special occasion.

Lettermen to perform
Finerla College honors staff and friends

Wesleiy, Russel, Taylor receive special recognition

As a College honored employees for dedication and service at its 25th anniversary. At the ceremony, held at the University's Student Center, the College presented its Community Service Award to John Moir, who has served as a postal employee for 25 years. The award recognizes employees who have made significant contributions to the College and the surrounding community.

Dr. Ken Rush, president, Mary Jane Harken, French Trace, and associate dean, Dr. Chris Munch, psychology, attended the ceremony. Rush praised the College's efforts in attracting students and in providing a quality education. He noted that the College's success is due in large part to the dedication of its employees.

At the ceremony, Rush presented the Community Service Award to John Moir. Moir has served as a postal employee for 25 years, and his dedication and service have been exemplary. The award recognizes employees who have made significant contributions to the College and the surrounding community.

Rush also presented the Community Service Award to Ann Russell. Russell has served as an employee for 25 years, and her dedication and service have been exemplary. She has been an important part of the College community, and her contributions have been significant.

A special event was held to honor the College's employees for their dedication and service. The event featured speeches by Rush and Munch, as well as a reception to celebrate the College's achievements.

The College believes that the success of an institution is due in large part to the dedication of its employees. The College is committed to recognizing and appreciating the contributions of its employees, and the Community Service Award is one way to do so.

The College is proud of the contributions of its employees, and we are committed to recognizing and appreciating their dedication and service.
Candidates running for CSC seats

Candidates running for the one seat on the board of directors are Sharon M. Anderson, who is a supporter of the Foundation, and Stanley E. M. Johnson, who has worked for BGSU for nearly 25 years and is currently a store clerk in Hendricks. They are employing for the position as it becomes vacant. The other seat is currently open to all candidates as well.

Have you worked for CSC?

If you have worked for CSC in the past, don't hold back. Our software needs have changed, but we're still employing for the same work people who have worked for us over the years and are familiar with the technology. You might be surprised at what you can do!

Bursar's office moves

Effective July 1, the Bursar's office will move from its current location at 1910 W. 11th St. to a new office at 1110 W. 11th St. The move is part of the department's efforts to improve service and increase its accessibility to students.

For sale

The Bursar's office has for sale one of its older computers. For more information, contact the office at 375-2720.

Datebook

Monday, April 29

Art Exhibit, "The 80th Anniversary Jubilee" at the Art Gallery, 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Saturday. The exhibit features works by 80 artists who have been employed at BGSU for over 20 years and have had a significant impact on the university's artistic community.

Tuesday, April 30

Training and Development, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Student Center, Room 1110. For more information, contact Training and Development at 375-4100.

Wednesday, May 1

University President, 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in the President's Office, Room 2100. The meeting is open to all employees and will cover the university's strategic plan and budget.

Thursday, May 2

Graduate Studies, 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Graduate Studies Office, Room 2120. The meeting will focus on the university's graduate programs and their impact on the university's mission.

Friday, May 3

Business Administration, 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Business Administration Building, Room 2100. The meeting will focus on the university's business administration programs and their impact on the university's mission.

Saturday, May 4

University plans for its 20th anniversary celebration

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University will be held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a reception at the library. The celebration will also include a special lecture by a guest speaker, as well as a special exhibit in the library. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to attract a large crowd.

University plans for its 20th anniversary celebration

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University will be held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a reception at the library. The celebration will also include a special lecture by a guest speaker, as well as a special exhibit in the library. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to attract a large crowd.

University plans for its 20th anniversary celebration

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University will be held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a reception at the library. The celebration will also include a special lecture by a guest speaker, as well as a special exhibit in the library. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to attract a large crowd.

University plans for its 20th anniversary celebration

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University will be held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a reception at the library. The celebration will also include a special lecture by a guest speaker, as well as a special exhibit in the library. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to attract a large crowd.

University plans for its 20th anniversary celebration

The 20th anniversary celebration of the University will be held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a reception at the library. The celebration will also include a special lecture by a guest speaker, as well as a special exhibit in the library. The event is open to all members of the university community and is expected to attract a large crowd.