compliments of . . .

- We request your cooperation in observing the rules and traditions of this University and of the state law which makes it illegal to bring or consume alcoholic beverages of any kind at an athletic event.
- Rest rooms are located on both the east and west sides of the stadium and can be found between ramps 2 and 4, 6 and 8, 1 and 3 plus 5 and 7.
- Telephones are conveniently located in the stadium next to all the rest room facilities.
- If anyone is in need of emergency medical attention, contact the ambulance crew in the northeast corner of the stadium.
- Bowling Green State University would like to thank the Army ROTC Color Guard for raising the flag at each home game.
- The first aid station is located on the east side of the stadium next to the equipment room. It is easily marked for emergency situations.
- Field headquarters for stadium game operations is located on the ground level of the east side of the stadium. Telephone extension is 220.
Ticket Information

General admission ticket prices for the 1983 Bowling Green football season will remain the same as last year. Reserved chair seats for single games remain $7.00, individual reserved bench seats on the east side of the stadium are $6.00, and BGSU student general admission seats are $2.00. Any group of 15 or more people may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side of the stadium for $3.50 each. Also, a group of 15 or more BGSU students may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side for $2.00. In addition to the chair seats and BGSU student general admission seats there are two additional general admission price ranges on the west side. Adult general admission is $3.50 and youth (high school age and younger) general admission is $2.50. A general admission ticket for the 5,000-plus end zone seats in both the north and south end zones costs $2.50.

In addition, the Memorial Hall Ticket Office is now open from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. each game day for ticket purchases. Also, advance sale tickets for all remaining home games are on sale in the advance sale ticket booth on both the east and west sides of the stadium.

The Falcon House is also open daily for ticket sales and will serve as BGSU’s downtown ticket outlet.
Doyt L. Perry Field

This is the eighteenth year that the Falcons have played their football games in Doyt L. Perry Stadium. Built in 1966 for approximately $2.8 million, it now has a seating capacity of 30,300 with the addition of the end zone seats in 1982.

The field is named in honor of the man who coached the Falcons to a 77-10-5 record from 1955-64. Perry remained as Bowling Green’s athletic director for six years after stepping down as football coach. Now retired, Perry is still a nine month resident of Bowling Green, and is one of the Falcons’ staunchest boosters.

The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, the equipment and training rooms, and most of the athletic department offices. On the west side are the maintenance area, storage rooms, handball courts, the track offices, the Falcon Club office and the Falcon Clubhouse. Sitting atop the press box on the west side is the Stadium Club. Now in its fourth year of operation, the Stadium Club has 106 theatre-type seats, and is one of the finest facilities of its kind in the midwest.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, blanking Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Coming into this season, the Falcons have a 49-33-2 record in games played here.

Peace Pipe At Stake Today

By Steve Shutt

Today's game has a number of things at stake for both Bowling Green and Toledo. First of all is undefeated status in the Mid-American Conference race. Both the Falcons and the Rockets enter today's game with 2-0 conference records.

Secondly is the Peace Pipe which belongs to the winning school for the next 12 months.

Also at stake is the pride of the many fans in attendance today and the many BG and UT graduates who wait all year for this classic rivalry that commences for the 48th time today.

Even a fiction writer could not have set the scene for today's game any better than real life has. On the field are two of the most explosive offenses in the MAC. Leading those clubs are the two best quarterbacks in the MAC. Brian McClure, Bowling Green's standout sophomore, is the classic drop-back passer. His opponent, Toledo's Jim Kelso, is the epitome of the running, option style quarterback.

Both offenses are capable of exploding at anytime: Bowling Green's through the air, Toledo's on the ground.

The Rockets are averaging over 300 yards per game in rushing while Bowling Green, behind quarterback McClure, are riding close to 350 yards per game in the air.

An interesting note to consider today: on the field are the last two MAC champions. Toledo won the MAC title in 1981 while the Falcons won last year's crown. Both clubs have represented the conference in the California Bowl and a trip to the Cal Bowl will be one game closer to the winner of today's contest.

Through the first 48 games of this series, the Falcons own a 26-17-4 advantage. The Rockets won last year's Glass Bowl encounter by a 24-10 score. The Falcons won the last meeting here at Doyt Perry Field in 1981 by a 38-0 count.

The Falcons have had some success against Toledo over the last decade, having won eight of the last 11 meetings including four of five here in Bowling Green.

The Falcons enter today's contest with a 3-1 mark, the only blemish on the almost perfect record being a 63-28 loss to pass-happy Brigham Young. Bowling Green has posted wins over Fresno State (35-27) and MAC opponents Miami (17-14) and Eastern Michigan (26-21).

McClure is among the nation's leaders in passing and total offense. In fact, the 6'6" sophomore had a hand in 20 BGSU and MAC records that were broken last Saturday against Eastern Michigan. McClure's 37 completions, 51 attempts, and 427 yards passing were all records as was his 422 yards of total offense. In the total offense category, McClure ranks ahead of such notable names as Walter Lewis of Alabama, Mike Tomczak of Ohio State, Turner Gill of Nebraska, and Jeff Hostetler of West Virginia.

McClure's first year and one-half have been so outstanding that he already ranks fourth in career completions and career passing yards.

But McClure has had plenty of help from his wide assortment of receivers. Flanker Greg Meehan and wide receiver Stan Hunter are among the nation's leaders in receptions and tight end Mark Dowdell and running backs Lamont Wagner and Darryl Story have also been favorite targets.

The Falcon kicking game is solid with punter Jim Phelps averaging better than 40 yards per kick and placekicker Gehad Youssef is perfect on extra points. Toledo opened its season with a shutout over Miami (17-14) and Eastern Michigan (26-21).

Kelso operates Toledo's outstanding ground attack and has fine running backs in Steve Morgan, last week's MAC Player of the Week for his 203 yards rushing against Ball State, and Mel Tucker. Though the Rockets don't go to the air nearly as much as Bowling Green, receivers Billy Poure and Capus Robinson are among the best in the conference.

The Rocket defense appears solid, having allowed just three touchdowns over the last three games. The Falcons have had some success against Toledo over the last decade, having won eight of the last 11 meetings including four of five here in Bowling Green.

Defensively, the Falcons have had some problems but it must be taken into consideration that they have had to consider that they have had to defend two offenses (Fresno State and BYU) who rely almost entirely on the pass.

The Rockets have devoured all four opponents they have faced this year and have won each game by at least 25 points. Toledo opened its season with a 45-13 win over Massachusetts and then proceeded to demolish Richmond (31-6), Ball State (43-7) and Ohio (31-0).

Kelso operates Toledo's outstanding ground attack and has fine running backs in Steve Morgan, last week's MAC Player of the Week for his 203 yards rushing against Ball State, and Mel Tucker. Though the Rockets don't go to the air nearly as much as Bowling Green, receivers Billy Poure and Capus Robinson are among the best in the conference.

Two more interesting notes to consider in today's game: this is Toledo's first game on natural grass. But it also must be pointed out that this is Bowling Green's first game against an option style offense.

Head Coach Denny Stolz

Denny Stolz has held three head college coaching positions, and now after guiding the Falcons to the 1982 Mid American Conference Championship and earning MAC Coach of the Year honors, he has now won coach of the year honors at each of the three schools.

Entering his seventh year at Bowling Green, Stolz has a 29-38-1 record at Bowling Green, and an overall collegiate record of 82-67-1 in 15 years at Alma College, Michigan State and Bowling Green.

Stolz rejuvenated the football programs at Alma and Michigan State before coming to Bowling Green. His teams were undefeated in back-to-back seasons at Alma in 1967 and 1968. The 7-3-1 record his 1974 Michigan State team compiled was the best in seven years in East Lansing, and earned Stolz Big Ten Coach of the Year honors.

There were some lean times in Stolz' early years at Bowling Green, but the corner was turned in 1980. That season the Falcons were only 4-7 overall, but six of the seven losses were by four points or less. BG was in contention for the MAC Championship until the next-to-last game of the season, and wound up with a 4-4 mark in conference games. In 1981, the Falcons overcame an 0-4-1 start to win five consecutive games, ending up with a 5-5-1 overall record and a fourth place finish in the MAC with a 5-3-1 league record.

Last season, Stolz guided the Falcons to a 7-5 overall record and a 7-2 mark in league games. BG won the MAC title by two full games, and represented the MAC in California Bowl II. BG played well in the California Bowl, but dropped a heartbreaking, 29-28, decision to heavily-favored Fresno State when FSC scored a touchdown with 11 seconds left in the game.

A native of Lansing, MI, Stolz grew up in Mason, MI, and like his three brothers worked his way through Alma College to earn a bachelor's degree in 1955. He played quarterback for the Scots, and upon graduation became head football coach at Haslett (MI) High School, where he was 40-13-3 in nine years for a winning percentage of .741. Stolz then spent one year as defensive coordinator at Lansing Eastern High School before being named head coach at Alma prior to the 1965 season.

Taking over a program that had produced only three wins in four years, Stolz soon led his alma mater to 8-0 records for two consecutive years, and was named Michigan Coach of the Year in 1967. By the time he left Alma in 1971, Stolz had compiled a 34-16 record and led the school to two outright Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships, and one co-championship.

His next stop was Michigan State, where Stolz served for two years as defensive coordinator for Duffy Daugherty before being named the Spartans' head coach in 1973. Again, Stolz turned around a struggling program. Within two years, Michigan State had climbed to 7-3-1 overall and 6-1-1 in the Big 10 for its best finish since the 1966 team went unbeaten. The Spartans finished twelfth in the Associated Press poll and eighteenth in the United Press International rankings, and Stolz was named Big 10 Coach of the Year.

Michigan State finished 7-4 the next year, beating Notre Dame 10-3 at South Bend. Stolz resigned from Michigan State in March, 1976, with a 19-13-1 record, the only winning record in the Big 10 outside of Ohio State or Michigan during the preceding three years.

While at Michigan State, Stolz coached the North to a victory in the All-American Bowl at Tampa, FL. He has lectured across the nation at football clinics, and on December 15, 1976, became the 12th head coach in the 63-year history of Bowling Green State University football.

Born September 12, 1934, Denny and his wife, Cena, have a son, Doak, 23, and two daughters, Dawn, 22 and Denise, 16.

Wagner Names That Tune

By Steve Shutt

It was “Name That Tune” at 35,000 feet. Lamont Wagner and Vince Villanucci engaging in the musical battle during Bowling Green’s recent 4½ hour plane flight from Toledo to Fresno State.

Wagner, the Falcons’ hulking fullback, considers himself a connoisseur of music, especially the ‘50’s sound of the Platters and the Moon Glows, and the more recent sounds of the Temptations.

“I sing because I like to,” said the 5’11”, 215 senior fullback. “I like a lot of the old songs but Vince, he only knows ZZ Top,” laughs Wagner.

Music is just one of Wagner’s interests. Knocking down linebackers and carrying the football also rank high on his list of activities.

Wagner came to Bowling Green last year after playing two years at Ellsworth Junior College in Iowa Falls, Iowa. Though spending much of his time as a blocking back for Cowboy Jones and Chip Otten last year and Andre Jackson and Darryl Story this year, Wagner has been a dependable ballcarrier and has rushed for 67 yards on 23 carries this year. He has also emerged as a favorite target of Brian McClure’s on short routes out of the backfield.

A native of Pittsburgh, Wagner grew up in the area of the city that is currently the backdrop of the TV show “Hill Street Blues.”

“It used to be called Phoenix Hill. Now it’s just the Hill,” said the Falcon tri-captain. “I once saw a guy get shot and I ran down to a phone to call the police. I called the operator but she said I had to put a dime in. I was just standing there watching this guy die and I couldn’t do a thing. I just said ‘Thanks, operator.’

“You just stayed away (from the wrong people)” said Wagner. “You knew who to hang with and who to stay away from.”

An outstanding high school football player, Wagner earned all-city honors at three positions — linebacker, guard and running back. Though recruited by Minnesota, Tennessee and Miami, Wagner opted for Ellsworth and the opportunity to improve his grades.

“I originally went to junior college as a linebacker,” recalled Wagner. “I went out there the first day of practice and saw 50 linebackers and said I’m not going down there.’ So I went to the other end of the field and became a tailback.

One of Wagner’s finest memories of Ellsworth was playing Nebraska’s junior varsity team.

“Nebraska’s jayvee team had lost just one game in eight years and we almost beat them. We lost 14-8. They had 114 kids on their jayvee squad and we had a 35 man squad and mismatching uniforms. Nebraska just stood there and looked at us like we were crazy.

“I broke a 50-yarder for a touchdown and we fumbled twice inside the 20. I watch Nebraska play on television and I see some of those same guys playing now.”

“Coach McConnell came and saw me play in a bowl game,” said Wagner. “It was the RC Cola Bowl or something like that. I liked Bowling Green because it was close to home. Plus, I looked at the record from the year before and I knew they had lost a few games by just a couple of points.”

Wagner’s most noticeable trait is his absolute powerful build. Lamont bench presses 350 pounds, sixth on the team and tops among running backs. But the size of his hands is astounding.

“My mother told me that when I was born all I had was a head, a stomach and hands and feet sticking out,” said the man nicknamed “Rino.”

When championship rings signifying last year’s MAC title were ordered, Wagner’s was the largest jewel - a size 16.

“It was kind of embarrassing. I at least thought Vic Cales would have taken a bigger size,” said Wagner of the Falcons’ 65”, 275 offensive tackle.

Lamont has always been a part of a winning program and Bowling Green has been no exception.

“I don’t know how to lose,” said Wagner. “I came from a JC that won and went to a bowl game. Now here at Bowling Green we have won and gone to a bowl.

“I think I’m scared to lose. I almost cried when we almost lost to Northern Illinois last year (a 20-18 win). I think the whole team would like to go back to Fresno (for the California Bowl). This year we have to go out and beat people. We can’t wait for someone to bump somebody else off.”

Pro football, with the new USFL, has opened new avenues to a pro career. Wagner wouldn’t mind taking the high road to pro football.

“First, I’d like to finish up school. Then, if a team comes along and decides to bite, I’ll listen. I want to get school out of the way first and get my degree. My mom graduated from high school and she was the first of 13 kids and she was the third youngest. She has always told me to get a degree.”

Wagner credits his mother, “all 5’4” of her”, for being the biggest influence in his life.

“She hasn’t seen me play here at Bowling Green but she’s coming up soon. She’s always been the person who told me just do what’s right. I’ll call and tell her I had a good game and she says ‘how are your classes?’ She’s always been there when I needed her.”

Wagner has faced adversity and survived it and offensive backfield coach Wayne Moses knows that.

“Lamont’s such an easy going, level headed kind of guy,” said Moses. “It’s great to see him have some success at playing. He’s had the opportunity to say ‘forget it, I’ll do something else.’ But he’s a leader and an excellent example to our younger players.”

Lamont Wagner — music lover and fullback supreme — may just be the man the Falcons are looking for to lead them back to the California Bowl.

THE SPIRIT TO EXCEL WITH QUALITY PRODUCTS - FULL SERVICE

THE SPIRIT TO EXCEL WITH QUALITY PRODUCTS - FULL SERVICE
Jefferson Award To Go To MAC's Top Player

The Downtown Athletic Club of Toledo has created The Jefferson Trophy, an award given annually to the most outstanding player in the Mid-American Conference. Last year's winner was Ray Bentley, a linebacker from Central Michigan, who went on to star with the Michigan Panthers, the United States Football League champions in 1983.

This year's awards dinner will be held December 1, 1983, in Jefferson Square in Toledo at the Downtown Athletic Club facility.

Each of the ten Mid-American Conference head coaches and two local news media people will select the winner of the award. Each school will nominate one player for the award, and all ten players will be honored at the banquet. From the proceeds of the banquet, awards will be presented to the college and player along with a scholarship fund to the winning player's university.

Because of the fact that Toledo is known as the “Glass Capital of the World,” the Athletic Club obtained the assistance of a glass sculptor to help in the development of a unique glass design for the awards presentation.

TO EVERYONE WITH A TASTE FOR VICTORY...
THIS BUD'S FOR YOU.
Bowling Green State University

Through its five undergraduate colleges, Bowling Green State University offers more than 150 degree programs in the traditional arts and sciences, as well as business, education, music and the growing field of health and community services. In addition, the Graduate College has 50 master's degrees and nine doctoral degree programs.

About 15,000 students are enrolled at Bowling Green. More than half of the undergraduates live in campus residence halls and most of the remainder within a couple of miles of the University.

For this closely-knit community of students, the University encourages and supports a large number of extracurricular activities — including academic, cultural and social programs. On any given day, these events may include a concert, lecture, panel discussion, theatre or dance performance, film, mixer or other social get-together. The University also has a strong fraternity and sorority system and the campus is home to more than 200 clubs and organizations. Sports are also a major part of Bowling Green, and the University offers an extensive varsity and club program for both men and women.

Another dimension of this residential University is its recreational facilities. At the hub of this intellectual activity is the University's nine story Jerome Library, housing a collection of more than 700,000 books, 1.2 million pieces of microfilm, and 4,700 subscriptions to magazines, journals and other periodicals. The library is also home to 175,000 sound recordings, 375,000 government documents and a Popular Culture Library which supports the studies of the University's nationally known Popular Culture Program.

While most of the University's programs are geared to the residential student, Bowling Green has a commitment to the non-traditional student. Many courses, especially graduate courses, are offered at night to enable persons to continue their education while working full-time.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,200 students.

As with everything, the cost of attending Bowling Green is on the rise, but the University offers a wide range of financial aid programs (including scholarships and loans) to assist a student and his or her parents with the cost of a college education. There are also a variety of student employment opportunities available on the campus.

For the student who lives in on-campus housing, Bowling Green is much like a mini-city. With a cafeteria in each housing complex, laundry facilities down the hall, classes on a wide variety of subjects only a short walk away, a non-stop schedule of activities, a bookstore which sells everything from the lastest magazines to toiletries, Bowling Green is truly its own city — a city alive with activity, a city alive with learning.

The Bowling Green Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $100,000 annually. Sixty-five percent of the undesignated Falcon Club gifts are turned over to the University to provide financial assistance in funding athletic grants-in-aid. Twenty-five percent of the undesignated gifts are used for helping to recruit prospective student-athletes. The remaining 10 percent supports the athletic equipment and facilities budget, helping Bowling Green to maintain its athletic physical plant as one of the best in the Mid-American Conference.

Membership in the Falcon Club offers the Bowling Green athletic booster an invitation to luncheons, post-game parties, preferred parking at the football, basketball and hockey games, golf outings, and many other social activities.

Please take time to study the information below, and if you would like further information, call the Falcon Club offices which are located right here in the west side of the stadium. Director of Athletic Development Jim Harris and secretary Jan Kiehl are there to serve you.

50-50 Drawing

One of the most popular money-raising techniques employed by the Falcon Club is the 50-50 drawing at each football, basketball and hockey game. All Falcon fans are invited to participate in today's 50-50 drawing.

Tickets are $1.00 each and may be purchased on either side of the stadium from Falcon Club members. The winner of the drawing will be announced during the third quarter, and will take home half the money that was taken in today. The other half goes to the grant-in-aid fund to support all varsity sports at Bowling Green.

JOIN THE FALCON CLUB

Dear Falcon Fan:

We share with you an enthusiastic desire for winning athletics at Bowling Green. In order to sustain a winning program, however, we must meet the financial challenges of athletic excellence.

Falcon Club membership offers you an opportunity to get behind our teams and coaches. Falcon Club donations have been the salvation of our program, and to win in 1983 will require a supreme Falcon Club effort.

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

Army has Navy, Southern Cal has UCLA, Stanford has California, Pitt has Penn State, Harvard has Yale and Ohio State has Michigan.

Major college rivalries date back decades and tickets are always hard to come by.

Today's Bowling Green vs. Toledo game is no exception. The rivalry dates back to 1919 and getting a ticket to today's game has been on the minds of many since last summer.

Known for many years as "The Battle of Northwest Ohio", this game shall now be known simply as "The Battle.

Today's game is the 48th meeting between these Mid-American Conference neighbors and the Falcons own a 26-17-4 lead. Bowling Green posted a 6-10-3 record in the first 19 meetings but since Doyt Perry became BGSU's head coach in 1955, the Falcons have amassed a record of 20-7-1 over the last 28 years.

When Bowling Green and Toledo met in 1919 in the first meeting ever, it was the first intercollegiate game for the Falcons. Toledo won that game 6-0, and it set the tone for the early years. After Toledo's 63-0 win in 1935, the series came to a temporary halt.

With the diplomatic help of Harold Anderson, who coached basketball at both Toledo and BG, the series was revived in 1948. The Falcons took a 21-6 victory that year, but the Rockets won four of the next six meetings to stretch their advantage in the series to 10-6-3.

Then came Doyt Perry. Perry's 1955 team shutout the Rockets 39-0 as Bowling Green scored on its first five attempts. Bowling Green Hall of Fame running back Vic DeOrio scored on a pair of one-yard runs. "Big Ben" Rowe scored on a three-yard scamper and other Falcon touchdowns came from the late Carlos Jackson, current West Virginia football coach Don Nehlen, and today's Varsity BG Club honoree, Sam Epstein.

The win, in front of a then record BGSU crowd of 7,510, gave the Falcons a 5-0-1 record.

"We were more worried about that game than any other one all year," remembered Perry. "That (win) was one of the better things that happened to me in my life."

Another Falcon-Rocket clash that will be remembered for many years was the 1963 game where Toledo jumped to a 20-0 lead early in the first half.

Bowling Green staged a furious second half comeback. Jay Cunningham scored on a three-yard plunge and then ran in the extra point to cut the Rocket advantage to 20-8. Cunningham then intercepted Rocket quarterback Dan Simrell and scored three plays later from four yards out.

The Rockets drove to the BG one before Tom Nolan fumbled and it was recovered by John Haschak in the end zone. Falcon signal caller Jerry Ward then drove the Falcons into Rocket territory before hitting Jim Goings on a 37-yard pass for the winning touchdown with just 1:31 left in the game. Ward added the extra point, his second of the day, to give Bowling Green a 22-20 win.

Possibly the most exciting "Battle" came in 1969 when the Rockets came to Bowling Green undefeated and took a 17-0 lead. The Falcons rallied to take the lead on two different occasions in the second half, but a 37-yard field goal into the wind by Ken Crotts with two seconds left gave the Rockets a 27-26 victory.

CIMARRON '84
THIS ONE'S GOT THE TOUCH.

The Cadillac touch. It's everywhere. You can feel it when you put Cadillac's road-hugging Touring Suspension to the test. You can see it ... inside and out. From leather-faced front buckets with lumbar support to aluminum alloy wheels. It's attention to detail, too. Like push-button air. And tungsten halogen fog lamps. You've got to drive this car...and experience the Cadillac touch. Cimarron '84.

BEST OF ALL...IT'S A CADILLAC.
Let's Get It Together...Buckle Up.

Miles’ To Receive Alumni Service Award

At halftime today, Larry ’55 and Joann Schroeder Miles ’55 of Findlay will receive the 1983 Alumni Service Award. This is the 21st time the award has been presented and the first time ever to a couple.

During their undergraduate days, both were active in a variety of campus organizations. That interest and involvement has multiplied in the years since graduation. As chairpersons of the Hancock County Alumni Chapter, they have given a great amount of time to that effort. In addition, both have served on various Alumni Association committees and have arranged BGSU award presentations in Findlay. As members of both the Presidents Club and Falcon Club, they continue to be loyal and faithful supporters of Bowling Green State University.

For these and many other areas of involvement, the Alumni Association is deeply appreciative and is proud to present Larry and Joann Miles with the 1983 Alumni Service Award.

Welcome Back Alumni Band

The Bowling Green State University Alumni Band will take the field for the eighth consecutive year during the pre-game show of the Falcon Marching Band. It is indeed a pleasure to welcome back to campus this group of loyal BG supporters for one more trip across the field to “Forward Falcons”.

The Alumni Band was initially organized in 1974 by a group of Band Alumni who felt that there were many alums ready and willing to participate in such an organization. After two years of planning by the Organizing Committee, the band made its first appearance at the Homecoming game of 1976.

The present organization exceeds 100, according to the current President, Brian Maskow, Assistant Director of Bands at Lakewood High School. Many hours are spent locating alumni and inviting them to participate in the Homecoming activities. The time is well spent as each year more and more alums return to relive many heartfelt memories.

The Alumni Band has chosen to musically relive the 70’s with a performance by the combined bands of Hey Jude. Mrs. Paul Zweidinger, class of 1957, will conduct the Alumni Band in the playing of the BGSU Alma Mater. Mr. Brian Maskow, President of the Band Alumni will conduct both bands in the playing of the National Athem.

Order Your 1983 Falcon Marching Band Album or Cassette Now!

The University Bands and Kappa Kappa Psi are offering an album or cassette of the 1983 marching season. The price of each album or cassette is $6.00 plus $1.00 if it is to be mailed. This amount can be charged through the Bursar IF YOU ARE A BGSU STUDENT, FACULTY, OR STAFF MEMBER. Checks and money orders should be made payable to Bowling Green State University. All orders must be received by NOVEMBER 22, 1983. If the album or cassette is not to be mailed, orders may be picked up at the Moore Musical Arts Center. To order, complete the form. UNLESS CHARGING THROUGH THE BURSAR, PAYMENT MUST ACCOMPANY ORDER.

Youth Day Slated For October 29

By Jim Treeger

The second annual Youth Day is slated for October 29 at Bowling Green State University. A full day of activities are planned as all area youths from groups such as Safety Patrol Scouts, and CYO, as well as all others, are invited to attend the sport clinics which are part of Youth Day. Following the clinics all participants may attend the Bowling Green-Central Michigan football game as guests of the BGSU Athletic Department.

Clinics in the following sports will begin at 11 a.m. and last until 12:30 p.m.; soccer (Cochrane Field), baseball (Steller Field), softball (Falcon Softball Field), and golf (practice area along Stadium Drive). There is no charge for the clinics but pre-registration is requested for all participants.

All clinics will be conducted by BGSU coaches and players and will stress the development of fundamental skills in each sport. Areas to be covered in baseball will include the basics in hitting and all aspects of infield and outfield play. Head soccer coach Gary Palmisano, whose team was undefeated at press time, will stress the fundamentals of shooting, passing, and dribbling to increase participant's skills. Gail Davenport, head softball coach, will provide pointers on hitting and fielding as well as a brief session covering basic strategies of the game. BG assistant golf coach, Lindy Bastel, will instruct participants on the basics of golf, including grip, swing, putting, and chipping.

This is a great opportunity for area youths to receive free instruction from top notch division one coaches and athletes.

The Falcon football team, with four returning All-MAC performers, is once again battling for the MAC Championship. So make it a full day of fun and excitement as you learn more about your favorite sport and cheer the Falcons on to victory!

* MAC Record + Pre-MAC Era
At least 31 former Falcon football standouts have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, United States Football League, or the old American Football League. Among the most prominent Falcon alumni who played starring roles in professional football are Bernie Casey, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960's; Bob Reynolds, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker, an offensive end with the New York Giants in their prime; Phil Villapiano, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders, and now the Buffalo Bills; and Mike Weger, a standout defensive back with the Detroit Lions.

Two former Falcons, Mark Miller and Tom Moriarty, were members of the 1983 USFL Champion Michigan Panthers.

Two members of the 1983 Falcon championship team were in pro training camps this summer. Defensive lineman Andre Young was drafted in the twelfth round by the Cincinnati Bengals, and wide receiver Shawn Potts signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns. Both players were released near the end of training camp.

MAC Champion Returns To California Bowl

The third annual California Bowl, pitting the Mid-American Conference Champion against the Pacific Coast Athletic Association (PCAA) Champion, will be held on Saturday, December 17 in Fresno, California.

The third annual California Bowl will be hard pressed to duplicate the excitement generated by the first two bowl games. In 1981, the University of Toledo upset a heavily-favored San Jose State, 27-25, on a last second field goal. Last year California Bowl II saw Fresno State erase a 21-point deficit to nip Bowling Green, 29-28. The outcome of both games thus far has been decided within the last 15 seconds of the fourth quarter.

This year’s spectacle again will be televised throughout the nation by the Mizlou Television Network and it will also be aired on ESPN. The California Bowl is one of six bowl games being produced by Mizlou this season. The other bowl games are the Independence Bowl, Florida Citrus (formerly Tangerine) Bowl, Holiday Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, and the Senior Bowl.

The California Bowl, sponsored by the Greater San Joaquin Valley Sports Association, is played in Fresno State’s new 30,000 seat stadium. The “closed end” bowl agreement between the MAC and the PCAA is one of only two such bowl pacts linking participants from specific conferences. The other is the Rose Bowl.

The football game caps a spectacular week of cultural and sporting activities that are designed to include people from all over the San Joaquin Valley as well as the area served by the MAC and the PCAA. Valley Children’s Hospital in Fresno is a direct beneficiary of the California Bowl.

Seven members of the PCAA will vie for the 1983 football championship. The members are Cal State Long Beach, Fresno State, Cal State Fullerton, Pacific, Utah State, and Nevada-Las Vegas. New Mexico State is the newest member of the PCAA but will be ineligible to compete for the football title because of scheduling conflicts.

Long Beach is the favorite to win the PCAA this year, according to balloting conducted by the PCAA football media association. Fresno State is picked to finish second. Bowling Green is picked to win the MAC according to the MAC football media.

Varsity BG Club Honors Lettermen Today

The Varsity BG Club will hand out three awards during halftime ceremonies of Today's game. The three awards, given annually, are to an honorary letterman, the Silver Anniversary Award and the Golden Anniversary Award.

The executive committee of the Varsity BG Club has selected Leo Tonjes, a longtime Bowling Green businessman and strong supporter of Falcon athletics, as the honorary letterman. The Silver Anniversary award will go to Sam Epstein, '56, and the Golden Anniversary will go to F. G. (Gus) Skibbie, '26.

Tonjes, a native of Grand Rapids and a high school basketball player there, has been active in supporting the BGSU athletic program for over 37 years. As president and chief executive officer of Pearl Oil in BG, Tonjes is a charter member of the Falcon Club and has served on the advisory board and aided in membership and financial drives. Tonjes has also been active in the community serving on the board of directors of State Savings and Loan and was an original director of the Mid-American Bank.

Epstein is a Toledo native who played his high school football at DeVilbiss High School before coming to BGSU in 1952. He was a running back on the 1953-54-55 squads and had his best year as a senior on Doyt Perry's first Falcon team. Upon graduation he returned to Toledo and was a teacher/coach for 13 years. He was the first coach at the new Toledo Start High School and recorded winning seasons in 1965-66-67. He also served as counselor and assistant principal at Start. In 1969 he moved to the Board of Education offices as director of community relations and has served 14 years in several different capacities. He is now director of purchasing/business affairs.

Skibbie is one of the veteran members of the Falcon alumni athletes. He was quarterback on BG's second football team in 1920 and the next season was again quarterback for the BG Normals when they defeated Findlay 151-0. He was also a member of BG's first championship team in 1921 when the baseball team won the Northwestern Ohio College title. Skibbie went on to win 14 letters, participating in basketball, track and tennis.

After assisting coaches Warren Steller and Paul Landis with BGNC teams in 1925-26, Skibbie started his teaching/coaching career at BG High School where he served as assistant football and basketball coach and was a social studies teacher for 40 years. He served BG as mayor for five terms.

The Varsity BG Club banquet will be held this evening at the Community Suite in the University Union. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and a cocktail hour will begin at 5:30 p.m.

Falcon Soccer On Verge Of Top 20

Bowling Green State University's soccer team, with a 8-1-1 record at publication time, was on the verge of breaking into the top 20 soccer teams in the nation. Balloting is conducted each Monday and should the Falcons continue their winning ways, a berth in the elite top 20 could be imminent.

The Falcons, under Coach Gary Palmisano, lost their first game of the year, a 4-2 decision to West Virginia in the Akron Children's Hospital Classic, but since then, Bowling Green is unbeaten. The Falcons have one tournament championship under their belt already, that coming at the Great Lakes Classic played at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay on September 10-11.

The Falcons are combining a strong offensive game with outstanding goalkeeping. Leading the BGSU offense is returning all-American Neil Ridgway and sophomore newcomer Dennis Wesley. Both players are viable All-America candidates this season.

Ridgway set nearly every BGSU offensive record last year including goals in a career, assists in a season and points in a season. A midfielder, Ridgway was the only junior on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America all-America team in 1982.

Wesley, a sophomore from Durban, S. Africa, has been a most pleasant surprise for Palmisano. A 22-year old with a vast amount of international experience under his belt, Wesley is BGSU's leading scorer. With outstanding size for a striker (6'2", 195), Wesley has often times been able to out race defenders to the ball.

Kim Bucher, a junior from Centerville, has been outstanding in goal for the Falcons. After seeing limited playing time as a freshman and sophomore, Bucher moved into the starting goalkeeper's spot this spring and has lived up to every ounce of his potential.

Bucher has five shutouts to his credit through Bowling Green's first ten games and a miniscule 0.90 goals against average. After giving up four goals in the season opener against West Virginia, Bucher has allowed just four goals over the last eight games.

"We've played exceptionally well offensively and the goalkeeping has also been very good," said the sixth year coach. "We just need to be ranked in the top two teams in our region (Midwest) and then we have a good shot to get into the top 20."

The Falcons have been ranked third in the region for most of the season and Palmisano feels that if the top 20 were expanded to include 25 teams, then the Falcons would be ranked.

And with a little luck and a few more goals, the Falcons may add soccer their list of championship teams 1983.
