Scouting Ohio

The Bobcats suffered through a 2-9 season in 1985, the first year at Ohio head coach Cleve Bryant. Ohio returns 33 lettermen from last year’s club that posted wins over Kent State and Western Michigan, including six offensive starters and six defensive starters. Heading the Ohio offensive attack is tailback Jesse Owens who rushed for 709 yards and three touchdowns last season while earning first team all-league honors. Bruce Porter is slated to start at quarterback. The Findlay native transferred to Ohio from North Carolina. Receiver Tom Compernolle and tight end Mike Siragusa add experience to the Bobcat offense. Spearheading the defense is all-MAC back Shawn Bonner while linebacker Doug Mangen is considered one of the top backers in the conference and defensive end Miles Brandon is another all-conference candidate.

Scouting The Falcons

Bowling Green returns 36 lettermen from last year’s club including five offensive starters and five defensive starters. The offensive strength will be in the line that returns all-MAC selections RG Mike Estep, RT Mark Nelson, and C Eric Helgesen. The Falcons lost LG Dave Bittner who decided not to use his fifth year of eligibility. Eric Williams is slated to start at LT. While Ankeny expects to select his starting quarterback over the weekend, the rest of the backfield appears set with Mike Otten at fullback and Jeff Davis at tailback. Ken Rankin has won a spot as a starting wide receiver, while Ronald Heard will start at flanker. All-American candidate Gerald Bayless, the top returning receiver on the club, will start again at tight end.

BSGU Sports Information Director

The Bowling Green State University Falcons open the 1986 football season this afternoon as the Falcons host the visiting Bobcats of Ohio University. The game will mark the beginning of BGGSU’s 68th season of intercollegiate football and its 20th year playing in Doyt L. Perry Field. The Falcons are coming off one of their greatest seasons in history as BG posted an 11-0 regular season record and won the Mid-American Conference title for the second time in its history. The program also took a return trip to the California Bowl in Fresno, California.

The 1986 Falcons are a different club from last year’s championship team. Head coach Moe Ankeny has a new coaching staff and former stars such as Brian McClure, Bernard White, Stan Hunter, Melvin Marshall, Greg Meekham, Troy Derron, Vince Villanucci and Chris Hartman have all departed and the torch has been passed on to a new era of Falcon football.

“Today’s opening game is being billed as “Welcome Back To School Day” with 18,000 Wood County school children having received tickets to the game as guests of the BGSU Athletic Department. The Ohio University game will also serve as the kick-off to Bowling Green’s drug education program, known as “Falcons For A Drug-Free Youth.”

Coaches

Moe Ankeny begins his first season as a collegiate head coach in 1986. A 1964 Bowling Green graduate, Ankeny served as assistant coach at Ball State, Tulane and Arizona before being named BGSU’s head coach on December 31, 1985. For Ankeny, it has been a hectic and busy eight months as he has been involved in hiring a coaching staff and implementing his style of offensive and defensive play. For a closer look at BGSU’s head coach, take a look at “Vital Statistics” on Moe, located on page 37 of today’s program.

Cleve Bryant is in his second year as head coach at Ohio University. Last year, Ohio posted a record of 2-9. Bryant, a former standpoint quarterback at Ohio, led the Bobcats to MAC titles in 1967-68. He has coached at Miami (Ohio) and North Carolina before joining the Ohio staff.

Defensive coordinator at Arizona and Tulane, Cleve Bryant is in his second year as head coach at Ohio University. Last year, Ohio posted a record of 2-9. Bryant, a former standpoint quarterback at Ohio, led the Bobcats to MAC titles in 1967-68. He has coached at Miami (Ohio) and North Carolina before joining the New England Patriots for a two-year stint.

Series

Bowling Green leads the series by a 20-17 margin. The Falcons have won four straight from Ohio, dating back to the 1982 season, ending a four-game Bobcat winning streak that stretched from 1978-81. In home games, the Falcons have won two of the last four meetings with Ohio at Perry Field.

Last Meeting

Bowling Green concluded the regular season last year with a 38-17 win over Ohio. The game pitted last year’s top offense against the worst defense and as expected, the Falcons jumped to a 24-0 first half lead. But the Bobcats quickly bounced back and cut the lead to 24-17 before the Falcons pulled away with a pair of fourth quarter touchdowns. The last regular season game for quarterback Brian McClure who finished his collegiate career by completing 31 of 49 passes for 479 yards and three touchdowns. The only returning Falcons to score in last year’s game were senior placekicker Paul Silvi who booted a 30-yard second quarter field goal, and tailback Jeff Davis who raced 67 yards in the fourth quarter for another score.

100th Perry Field Contest

Today marks the 100th game that Bowling Green has played at Doyt L. Perry Field. The Falcons, now in their 20th season at Perry Field since moving from old University Stadium, have a record of 63-34-2 in home contests.

Central Michigan is idle
Mickey Cochrane and Don Cunningham have a lot in common. Both like history and because of that the Bowling Green State University athletic department now has its own archives where nearly 70 years of the University's rich sports history is preserved.

The two men have turned their lifetime interest in accumulating mementos, records and documents into an unpaid retirement assignment of developing an archival collection of assorted University sports records, documents, scorebooks, schedule cards, posters, scrapbooks, game balls, equipment, uniforms and other tangible evidence of the Falcon's successful athletic heritage.

The Athletic Archives was established a year and a half ago when Cochrane was getting ready to step down after 21 years of teaching and coaching at the University. "Don and I had talked about the need for some kind of formal archives and we figured now was the time to quit talking and do it," Cochrane said.

So they sought, and received, the support of athletic director Jack Gregory and Betty van der Smissen, director of the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. "The history of Bowling Green athletics is closely tied to the physical education programs at the University because most of the coaches were in phys. ed.," said Cunningham, explaining why the endorsement of Gregory and van der Smissen was important.

When Dr. Paul J. Olscamp, president of the University, learned of their efforts he volunteered his assistance, and Dr. Richard Eakin, vice president for budgeting and planning, helped set up a small budget. Cochrane and Cunningham also sought the expertise of Ann Bowers, University archivist, since "neither of us really knew anything about all the documenting and cataloging that goes into setting up an archives. Ann has really been a great help."

Gregory found some space in Memorial Hall, really nothing more than an old storage closet, but Cochrane and Cunningham are happy. At least for now. Like most museum curators, the two men are fast running out of space and they foresee the day when the archives will have to be moved to larger quarters.

Cochrane and Cunningham complement each other's interests. Cunningham, who retired in 1979 after 34 years as sports information director and business manager in the athletic department, squirreled away old files from the department as well as an assortment of publications and records. He also knew where most of the old material was stored.

Cochrane is more into artifacts, especially those associated with lacrosse and soccer, the two sports he founded and coached for many years at Bowling Green. Visitors to the archives who recall the appearance of Cochrane's former office in the stadium will notice little difference at first glance. In fact, many people might think Cochrane simply moved his office from the stadium to Memorial Hall and called it the archives.

Cochrane smiles at the suggestion and admits that it might appear to be the case, but quickly points out that the archives involves all of Bowling Green's athletic history, not just lacrosse and soccer.

Both are now into collecting with a zeal. "We're especially looking for materials from women's sports, both on a club and intramural level. Women's competition is relatively new at the intercollegiate level, but women at Bowling Green have been playing sports since the school began. The first yearbook pictures a women's basketball team, representing a society (similar to today's sororities) that was an intramural crown."

"It's interesting," he noted, "that all the women are wearing headbands (sweatbands) with the (Continued on page 27)"

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Today the University has more than 725 faculty and 17,000 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, and Technology, and a Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master's degree programs and 12 doctoral degree programs with more than 40 specialty areas. In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,100 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the quality of the University has been demonstrated recently by the decision of Phi Beta Kappa to establish a chapter on campus and by Bowling Green's election to membership in the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, among them the psychology and chemistry departments which received 1986 Ohio Board of Regents Eminent Scholar Awards, established by the state legislature to recognize and reward high quality academic programs at state-assisted institutions.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for Environmental Research and Services, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-American Stock Center — the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world — where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and more than 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1983-84 academic year, there were 1,400 "non-traditional" adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 2.5 million books, journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history, the Institute for Great Lakes Research containing materials on the lakes region of the world, and the Sound Recording Archives with 245,000 recordings.

The University is continually refurbishing existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed remodeling of West Hall, the former music building, to provide up-to-date facilities for the School of Mass Communication. Another is the recent addition of numerous computer facilities across campus, including microcomputer laboratories for student use in residence halls, to ensure that all Bowling Green students are familiar with the technology of the computer age in which we live.

The newest of the more than 100 campus buildings is the $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory that opened in 1984. The 52,800 square-foot building is the most modern facility of its kind in Ohio and features 30 laboratories, a planetarium, roof-top astronomical observatory and state-of-the-art equipment for teaching and research in chemistry, physics and astronomy.

The Physical Sciences Laboratory is not for the sole use of students and faculty, however. Special programs are held at the planetarium for the public, the latest addition to a wide array of ways the University serves Ohio's citizens.

Others include the Management Center which offers training, consulting and research assistance to business and industry; WBGU-TV, the University's award-winning public television station; the Creative Arts Program which provides instruction in music and dance for young people; Continuing Education courses and conferences for adults as well as children; the Speech and Hearing Clinic with its diagnostic and treatment services; NETWORK BG which utilizes University resources to assist business, industry and government, and cultural events ranging from public concerts and art shows to theatre productions and lectures.

Since Dr. Paul J. Olscamp became the eighth president of Bowling Green State University in July 1982, several changes have been made to move Bowling Green into the ranks of nationally important universities. Greater faculty involvement in governing the University, expanded resources for campus libraries and increased emphasis upon faculty research activities have all occurred at Bowling Green during the past four years.

And the University's direction during the next decade has been clearly charted in a Role and Mission Statement, a 27-goal document aimed at improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students, the University's academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

However, Olscamp knows that very few of the University's plans will materialize without adequate financing. While state appropriations can hopefully be counted upon for day-to-day operations, other kinds of resources must be tapped if Bowling Green is to enhance its position as a university.

During his tenure, Olscamp has presided over a quadrupling of the school's endowment to nearly $4 million. Private contributions in 1984-85 reached a new high of $2.8 million.

And to mark its 75th anniversary, Olscamp in November 1985 announced plans for a $12.5 million three-year campaign that is the most ambitious in University history. In its first year, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $7.8 million.

To further assure that the University will have funds to meet its academic goals, Olscamp initiated a plan to restructure debt service obligations that by the year 2000 should have a principal of nearly $35 million. Interest on that amount should provide about $3.5 million annually to the academic budget.

Olscamp called the plan, which has been approved by the Ohio Attorney General, a "once in a lifetime chance to lay the foundation for future generations."

In addition, in 1984 the Trustees, at Olscamp's request, created an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance of that fund currently exceeds $5.6 million and, if left untouched, is expected to reach $10 million in about five years at which point the annual interest of about $1 million will be used to support academic programs.

Increasing minority representation on campus has also been a major effort of Olscamp's administration. In 1985, an Office of Minority Affairs was created to provide services to assist minority students and recruitment efforts were increased to attract more minorities to campus. In addition, the University is committed to increasing the number of minority faculty members.
John C. (Jack) Gregory is in his fifth year as the director of athletics at Bowling Green State University. He was appointed to the position on July 15, 1982.

In Gregory's first four years at Bowling Green, the Falcons have enjoyed some of their finest moments in history, winning the 1984 national championship in ice hockey and claiming Mid-American Conference championships in numerous other sports, including two football championships, along with two trips to the California Bowl. In the last four years, Falcon teams have claimed league titles in ice hockey, football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's cross country and women's gymnastics. BG achieved another notable accomplishment this past year, finishing second in the Jacoby Trophy standings, its highest finish thus far. The Jacoby Trophy is in its fourth year, and tallies the overall records of women's Mid-American Conference teams.

Gregory came to Bowling Green at a time when BGSU and the Mid-American Conference were fighting to remain in college football's Division I-A upper echelon. Behind his leadership, Bowling Green became the front runner in helping to achieve that goal.

During his tenure here, BGSU has set school and conference attendance records in football and hockey. In 1983, 33,527 football fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field to witness the BG-Toledo game, setting school and MAC single game attendance marks.

The Falcons drew over 100,000 fans for five games at Perry Field, a first in the school's history. In 1985, the Falcons again went over the 100,000 mark in season attendance. Sell-out crowds for BG's hockey games have become the norm as well, making game tickets the hottest items in town during the winter. Gregory's leadership in the area of television has helped BGSU sports become a popular item in Northwest Ohio.

Gregory, 57, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and Lima areas, with financial contributions mounting to unequaled levels.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsberg State College in eastern Pennsylvania and holder of a master's degree in physical education from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director. While at Yale, he was responsible for generating income, managing the university's 33-sport program and supervising staff operations.

Jack and his wife, Peg, are the parents of two sons, John and Bruce. Bruce is serving as a volunteer assistant coach on the 1986 BGSU coaching staff.
TEAMMATES

Old Milwaukee brings you two great players. Old Milwaukee, the beer that tastes as great as its name. And Old Milwaukee Light, the beer that got the taste of light right. Any way you play it, that's one great team.
Howard M. "Moe" Ankney became Bowling Green State University's 13th head football coach on December 30, 1985 when he was appointed to the position by Athletic Director Jack Gregory.

For Ankney, it brings him back to his alma mater where he was a quarterback under the legendary Doyt L. Perry from 1961-63 before graduating in 1964. During his 15-year college coaching career, Ankney has made coaching stops at Ball State, Tulane and Arizona, coached in several major bowl games, and guided some of the nation's top defensive units.

Ankney joined the Falcons from the University of Arizona where he served as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the past six seasons. His defensive teams finished among the national leaders in defense each of the past four years. The 1985 Wildcat defense finished ninth in the nation in defense against the run, 13th in total defense, and seventh in scoring defense, allowing just over 12 points per game. The Pac-10's leading tackler for each of the past four seasons has been one of Ankney's defenders.

Ankney, 44, grew up in Xenia, Ohio before moving to Kettering before his senior year in high school. He graduated from Fairmont High School in 1960 as an all-state quarterback and four-year letterman. He was named the outstanding Dayton area athlete in 1959 and participated in the North-South All-Star game. At BGSU, Ankney was a reserve quarterback on Doyt L. Perry's 1961-62-63 teams that posted a three-year record of 23-5-1 and claimed two Mid-American Conference championships. He completed eight of 19 passes for 75 yards during his career and earned two letters. Moe's decision to attend Bowling Green was heavily influenced by his cousin, Bob Colburn, quarterback and captain of Doyt Perry's 1959 national championship team. Colburn was a senior at BGSU when Moe was a senior in high school. While an undergraduate, Ankney earned election to Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, an education honorary.

Ankney comes from a football family. His uncle Pete was his head coach at Fairmont High School. Pete Ankney also was a head coach at Canton McKinley High School and at the University of Dayton. Moe's father Ben coached at Miami University and at Xenia High School.

"After I graduated from Bowling Green in 1964 and went on to become a high school coach, I always dreamed that I might follow in the footsteps of Doyt Perry and coach at Bowling Green," said Ankney. "To be the head coach is a tremendous honor and I hope I can live up to the tradition of excellence of Bowling Green football."

In becoming the head coach at Bowling Green, Ankney left not only Arizona, but a friend in Wildcat head coach Larry Smith. Like Ankney, Smith is a Bowling Green graduate and the two have coached together for the past 10 seasons. Smith says of Ankney, "He's been my right hand and right arm for the last 10 years and a friend for much longer than that."

Prior to joining the Arizona staff in 1980, Ankney was Smith's defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Tulane for four seasons between 1976-79. Prior to that, he was the secondary coach at Ball State from 1971-75 under the late Dave McClain.

Moe and his wife Caralee are the parents of three children: Angela, 22, Andy, 21 and Molly, 18. Ankney was born June 23, 1942 and his full name is Howard Milton Ankney.

Falcons For A Drug-Free Youth

By Chris Sherk
Assistant Sports Information Director

There has been an explosion of anti-drug talk in 1986. Much of it has resulted from some tragic turn of events on the sports pages. Just reflect for a moment on all that has been written about athletes and drugs in the last few months.

Jan. 30 — The Baltimore Orioles form baseball's first voluntary drug-testing program, and 26 of 38 players on the spring roster agree to participate in a one-year pilot program.

Feb. 25 — Micheal Ray Richardson, New Jersey Nets guard, becomes the first active player banned by the NBA after testing positive for cocaine use.

March 28 — Fifty-five college seniors are reported to have tested positive for cocaine or marijuana use at an NFL camp for 335 draft-eligible players.

June 19 — Maryland forward Len Bias, two days after being chosen by the Boston Celtics as the second pick overall in the NBA draft, collapses in a dorm room and is pronounced dead of cardiac arrest. An autopsy reveals that Bias died of "cocaine intoxication," triggering cardiac arrest.

June 27 — Cleveland Browns safety Don Rogers collapses at his mother's home after a bachelor party in his honor. He is pronounced dead of cardiac arrest. A coroner's report rules death due to "cocaine poisoning."
The news is sobering, and the list of drug-related problems in athletics goes on and on and on.

It was under this cloud of concern that members of the Bowling Green State University Athletic Department finalized plans for a program that would showcase BGSU's student-athletes as positive role models in the war against drugs.

Entitled "Falcons for a Drug-Free Youth," the program will have volunteer BGSU student-athletes visit fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth grade classrooms throughout Wood County stressing the importance of seeking alternatives to drugs.

The BGSU Athletic Department has developed the program in conjunction with the Wood County Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, as well as the Wood County Schools.

"We feel it is important for us to get involved," said BGSU Athletic Director Jack Gregory. "We would hope that our athletes can serve as positive role models for Wood County's youth. Drug testing is not the complete answer to curbing drug abuse in our society. We are approaching this program with the attitude that there is a problem in society and we want to demonstrate to the public that we want to help."

18,000 WOOD COUNTY YOUTHS ARE EXPECTED TO HELP THE FALCONS KICK-OFF THE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT'S "FALCONS FOR A DRUG-FREE YOUTH" PROGRAM TODAY

The drug education program is part of a three-pronged approach that includes classroom visits, a pre-game seminar for area coaches, and "Welcome Back To School Day."
The plan was kicked off earlier today when area coaches took part in an information seminar at the BGSU Ice Arena for instruction on how to identify and deal with problems with their own athletes.

Today's BG-Ohio University football game is Stage II of the drug education program. All 18,000 Wood County school children were given a free ticket to attend the game. It is hoped that a gathering of thousands of Wood County's school children supported by the 8,000 BGSU students expected to be in attendance will serve as a focal point in the fight against drugs.

The drug education program will enter the classroom in earnest in future weeks, with BGSU student-athletes taking part in discussions with school children on the importance of choosing alternatives to drugs. The athletes will encourage the school children to seek alternatives to drugs, not necessarily athletics, but to strive for anything other than involvement with drugs.

The student-athletes who volunteered to take part in this project have all received a thorough orientation on all matters pertinent to their participation in this program by the Wood County Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, an organization which works closely with the county schools in their drug education efforts.

The athletes will encourage the school children to take an active role in the discussion. It is hoped that the school children will not only learn how to say no to drugs, but also fully understand their detrimental effects.

The BGSU program is intended to be an ongoing one. Efforts are under way to expand the program throughout the state of Ohio.

With so many of today's headlines focusing on drug abuse, it is hoped that the implementation of the BGSU Athletic Department's drug education program will be the start of a trend discouraging drug use among Wood County's youth.
name of their group written on them. I wonder what Pete Rozelle would have said about that,” Cochrane said with a chuckle, recalling the flap during last year’s Super Bowl and playoffs when a Chicago Bears quarterback wore a headband advertising an athletic product.

One of the most prized possessions of the archives are some clay models of athletes that belonged to the late Carolyn Shaw, director of the women’s physical education program from 1923 until the mid-1970s. “The figures were made around 1940 by a student and given to Shaw,” said Cochrane, adding that the archives also has a collection of Shaw’s rule books for different sports.

Cochrane and Cunningham are relying on donations from former students and athletes and people connected with the University to bolster the collection. “For example, we have a banner from the early 1920s with the initials ‘BGNC’ — Bowling Green Normal College, the school’s first name — that is in perfect condition. It was given to us by Scot Bressler, who works in the athletic department ticket office,” said Cochrane.

Football pants belonging to Herb Troyer, who played on Bowling Green’s first grid squad in 1919, have been loaned to the archives by Troyer’s daughter, Peg Downey of Bowling Green. Mark Miller, now an assistant football coach at Bowling Green and a star quarterback during his University undergraduate days, dropped by the archives with the game balls from victories over Brigham Young and Purdue, probably two of the biggest wins in the school’s football history.

Dolores Black, a professor in the School of Health and Physical Education and Recreation donated a set of wooden shafted golf clubs, the kind used by early collegians, that belonged to her father. There is also a modest collection of uniforms, including one from the early swimming teams, which by today’s standards, really was modest.

Cunningham said of particular help in uniform collecting has been the Sharp family, father Glenn and son Joe, who, as the athletic department’s equipment managers have been outfitting Bowling Green sports teams for nearly 30 years. “We think we have Nate Thurmond’s uniform from his playing days,” said Cochrane, who is also hopeful of landing Brian McClure’s #18 football jersey, as well as others.

Also, when record breaking events occur, Cochrane and Cunningham are likely to be there. They retrieved the puck that Jamie Wansbrough shot for his 119th career goal, breaking the former record of 118 held by Mike Bartley. Also, the puck from hockey coach Jerry York’s 100th BGSU win is displayed in the archives.

On Cochrane’s agenda is a taped interview with Cunningham. “I’m amazed at the knowledge of this place he carries around in his head. We’ve got to get some record of that information,” he said.

Cochrane is living history himself. He is a consultant to the Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y., and has been asked to set up the intercollegiate soccer display there. Very few people are more highly regarded among his soccer peers than Cochrane.

But these days the two men are working on something that has been a part of their lives for a long time — a labor of love — and that’s the attempt to hold on to a part of the athletic program’s past. It’s a glorious history. One filled with many exciting moments and Cochrane and Cunningham are doing their best to make sure that it’s all represented in the Athletic Archives.

Some people set higher standards for themselves. They come out early. And stay late. Funny, how they’re usually the winners.

At Ricoh, we set higher product standards. And we put in that extra effort. Maybe that’s why Ricoh’s line of copiers, digital facsimile, laser printers, and shredders are setting new standards of performance in today’s modern office. And that’s why Ricoh cameras are winning the attention of amateurs and professionals alike in the world of photography.

Be a winner. Demand that extra effort. Ask for Ricoh. We Respond.

Bowling Green Today

Bowling Green State University
Bowling Green, Ohio
When Bowling Green State University opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Since then, the range of educational opportunities has expanded to those of a large university while BGSU has retained the personalized small school atmosphere of its early years.

Today the University has nearly 750 full-time and 200 part-time faculty and 17,000 students on its main campus. It offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master's degree programs and has 12 departments granting doctoral degrees in more than 40 specialty areas.

The University's faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and internationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in such recognition as the 1986 Eminent Scholar Award received by the chemistry department as part of the Ohio Board of Regents' Selective Excellence Program.

In addition to their scholastic achievements, the faculty provide a multitude of services to the northwest Ohio community. The Speech and Hearing Clinic, as well as the Psychological Services Center, annually assist hundreds of people from throughout northwest Ohio. A Reading Clinic and the Creative Arts Program serve a younger population, encouraging children's development in both basic skills and creative pursuits. The Management Center has helped hundreds of businesses improve their organization and productivity and, through Network BG, a wide range of faculty expertise is available for consultation and research.
Bowling Green's 1,250-acre main campus is ideal for the residential campus community. Nearly half of BGSU's students live in residence halls and can walk to classes through an attractive natural environment. Our students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 other countries. They are active in more than 160 organizations and participate in all levels of University governance.

More than 100 campus buildings house modern facilities of every description which are continually being refurbished. Recent additions of microcomputer laboratories, for example, give every student and faculty member ready access to the technology of the computer age. The Physical Sciences Laboratory Building, completed in 1984, includes a planetarium and roof-top observatory which are used for both academic and public programs.
Support for the University's programs and facilities is generated from a variety of sources including more than 90,000 alumni. Alumni chapters throughout the state and nation actively recruit outstanding students and raise funds to support their alma mater. Their continuing interest has resulted in many scholarships, endowments and capital improvements which will enhance the University for generations to come.

The race-winning Corvette of Rippie/Anderson Motorsports. Tires: Goodyear Eagle VR S "Gatorback" street radials.

The fact that both of these Corvettes are on Goodyear Eagle street radials is no coincidence.

Every Corvette made since 1984 comes with just one make of tire: the Goodyear Eagle VR "Gatorback" street radial.

Which is no coincidence.

Because the Eagle VR "Gatorback" was developed specifically for the Corvette's tremendous cornering, handling and speed capabilities.

Considering the performance of the Eagle VR "Gatorback," it's not surprising that successful SCCA Showroom Stock Endurance racing teams like Rippie/Anderson also choose an Eagle street radial.*

The Eagle VR S "Gatorback," a version of the Eagle VR "Gatorback" made for ultimate grip rather than ultimate treadlife.

The success of both the Eagle VR and VR S "Gatorbacks" has a common source.

Goodyear's ability to engineer better high-performance radials. For virtually every performance car.

So it's really no coincidence that the Eagle VR is to be found on every Corvette made.

Or that the Eagle VR S is the favorite tire of people who race Corvettes in the SCCA Showroom Stock Endurance Series.

In fact, when you think of how the Eagles perform, it's no coincidence at all.

*Tires shaved to racing depth. Before you race on Goodyear street radials, write the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, P.O. Box 9125, Akron, Ohio 44305 for preparation recommendations and procedures.

YOU EITHER HAVE GOODYEAR EAGLES. OR YOU NEED THEM.

Today’s Halftime Show

The Falcon Marching Band would like to welcome all students and fans, both returning and new, to another exciting season of football.

As summer draws to a close, the Falcon Marching Band would like to highlight the Top 40...and some of the tunes that have dominated the charts and airwaves over the last few months.

Opening today’s presentation is the theme from the motion picture "Rocky IV" Burning Heart. Following this, the Marching Percussion are featured in the Miami Sound Machine smash, Conga.

Continuing on, we present a medley of hits by the current rock sensation, Phil Collins, In this collage you will hear: Invisible Touch, Sussudio, and Who Said I Would.

Closing today’s halftime presentation is The Glory of Love from the "Karate Kid Part II."

By Kevin Cleary
Director of Athletic Promotion

Welcome to all students and teachers in attendance today as part of the fifth annual “Welcome Back to School Day.” We hope you enjoy your day and become Falcon fans for years to come. WBTSD 1986 takes on a different look this year, as it serves to kick off a program called “Falcons for Drug-Free Youth,” instituted by the Athletic Department. BGSU student athletes will speak out in the Wood County School System on saying “NO!” to drugs and stressing alternatives to drug use.

Special thanks go out to Wood County Schools Superintendent Dallas Gardner, Bowling Green City Schools Superintendent Dr. Richard Cummings, Dr. Marv Kumler, Faculty Representative and Associate Professor of Psychology, Dr. Morris Weinberger, Professor Emeritus of Education, Holly Ventano, Executive Director of the Link, Larry Marshman, Director of the Wood County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, all the teachers and principals and the Marriott-Gladieux Corp. for lending their support to this project.

Oct. 4 marks two special promotional days, Youth/Team Day and Varsity BG Day. Youth/Team Day sees youth groups and athletic teams from all over Northwest Ohio invited to attend morning instructional clinics before being the Falcons’ guests at the big game vs. Western Michigan.

Closing today’s halftime presentation is The Glory of Love from the “Karate Kid Part II.”

This year’s Homecoming game (Oct. 11 vs. Eastern Michigan) promises to be something special. Alumni Director Larry Weiss has sent out a mailing to alumni encouraging them to come to this year’s game with a unique incentive. By filling out the form and sending it back in by Sept. 26, alumni can sit in the reserve sections with members of their graduating classes. Call your old roommates and classmates and tell them to meet you in Bowling Green for a fun-filled weekend of Falcon Football. For more information, call the Milet Alumi Center at 372-2701 or the Memorial Hall Ticket Office at 372-2762.

Parents Day is traditionally one of the biggest days of the year at BGSU. This year’s will be no different. The Cardinals of Ball State entertain during the day and the Fifth Dimension entertains at night. For game tickets, call 372-2762 and for show tickets call 372-2701. Don’t miss this chance to get the family together for a weekend of football and fun in BG.

Please make a note of the special start time for this game, which has been changed to 12:15 pm.

Although football season is just getting underway, it’s time to start thinking about season tickets for Falcon Hockey and Falcon Basketball. Head Coach Jerry York’s Falcon icers are loaded for bear. All-America Goalie Gary Kruzich and co-captains lain Duncan and Todd Flichel lead an experienced squad that should be one of the nation’s best.

New Basketball Head Coach Jim Larranaga will bring to Bowling Green the fast-breaking-pressure-defensive style that brought Virginia to two NCAA Final Four’s while he was an assistant there. He’ll also play a barnbuner of a schedule that sees the Falcons at Michigan and Ohio State, while hosting Cleveland State and traditional rivals Ohio, Miami and Toledo. Season ticket renewals will be out soon for both sports. Any additional information can be obtained at 372-2762.

The Athletic Department will again be sponsoring the "Falcon Walk/Run for Fun IV" to raise funds for charities, campus and community teams and organizations and the athletic scholarship fund of the BGSU Athletic Department. Fifty percent of all pledges will go to the organization or team designated, while the remaining fifty percent will be credited to the athletic scholarship fund. This event presents an excellent opportunity for any group to raise money for any purpose and have fun while doing it. The event will take place on Sunday, October 5, 1986, beginning at 1:30 p.m. on BGSU’s Whittaker Track. For further information, call 372-2401.

Moe Ankney became Bowling Green State University's 13th
head coach on December 30, 1985. Since that day, he has hired a coaching staff, and put the Falcons through spring and pre-season drills in preparation for today's opening game with Ohio University. Recently, Moe took a few minutes to answer some questions that give the reader a closer look at Bowling
Green's new head football coach.

Name: Howard Milton

"Moe" Ankney

Family: Married to Carlalee, daughters Angie and Molly, son Andy.

High School: Kettering Fairmont,
class of 1960.

College: Attended Bowling Green
State University, class of 1964.

Playing experience: Played for three seasons as a quarterback for Doyt Perry and participated on two Mid-American Conference championship teams.

First coaching job: Assistant football and wrestling coach at Eaton High School.

Likes: "Tennis, golf, running, any type of competition, being outdoors, music, old-fashioned chocolate sodas, sunshiney days,
snow skiing and my wife Carlalee's cooking."

Dislikes: "Losing, negative people, gray days, zucchini."

Worst Job: "Working at a spark plug factory, putting together the insides of spark plugs. My fingers wouldn't work."

Favorite performers: "Frank Sinatra and Anne Murray."

Personal hero: "John F. Ken-dy. He was president when I was in college and I was taken in by the whole "Camelot" type of thing. He was young, enthusiastic and I liked his sense of humor."

---

Moe Ankney

Head Football Coach

Nobody knows I am:
"Claustrophobic."

If I had to do it over again, I would: "Put all my efforts into being a golfer and join the pro tour."

I knew I was a grown up when:
"My daughter Angie was born."

I hope I never have to: "Be involved with the death of a player and go through what Coach (Ray) Perkins went through recently at Alabama."

Favorite childhood memory:
"Playing golf with my Dad."

Major accomplishment: "Getting my master's degree at Miami University after being out of school for five years. Also, the overall development of the Arizona defense of the last five years. And raising three children and getting them all out on their own."

Most humbling experience:
"The first three years at Tulane were pretty humbling." (Tulane posted records of 2-9, 3-8, and 4-7 from 1976-78 before going to the 1979 Liberty Bowl with a 9-2 record.)

The best football game I ever saw: "As a spectator, it had to be the Ohio University-University of Cincinnati game that Ohio won 60-48 in 1968. Cleve Bryant was the quarterback for Ohio and Greg Cook was the quarterback for Cincinnati. I went out to get a hot dog and missed two touchdowns."

The perfect vacation spot: "A quiet beach in Florida. Though, I guess a quiet beach in Hawaii or the Bahamas would work just as well."

If I wasn't a football coach, I would be: "A history teacher."

The best player I ever coached was: "Maurice Harvey at Ball State."

The best player I ever played against was: "Paul Warfield in the Ohio all-star game."

The best player I ever coached against was: "Charles Alexander of Louisiana State."

My favorite football fantasy:
"I've always thought about win-
ing the Rose Bowl."

What I still want to accomplish:
"To continue with the winning tradition and continue the excellence and even improve while
I am the head coach at Bowling Green."

If I could switch places for just one day with anyone, it would be: "It would be interesting to be President Reagan, but just for one day."

Moment of greatest happiness:
"It would have to be when I received my first college coaching job under Dave McClain at Ball State. With all the other jobs I've taken, I've felt so bad about leaving my former school."

Their names are familiar. Together, they dot the nation as football coaches at all levels of the game — in our high schools, colleges, universities and even the highly-competitive world of professional football.

They belong to the Falcon’s Nest of Coaches, an organization of coaches begun in 1984 to promote the proud tradition of Bowling Green State University Falcon football.

Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at BGSU, most of these fine coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They’ve studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of men like Warren Steller, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and now Moe Ankney.

Today, these coaches are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at BGSU, the Falcon’s Nest of Coaches. Here are but a few of the members:

The Falcon Walk/Run For Fun IV, a fund-raising event that will bring together campus groups, community organizations, and the Bowling Green State University Athletic Department, will be held on Sunday, October 5 at BGSU’s Whittaker Track.

The Walk/Run began back in 1981 as the Falcon Fun Run. The idea behind the original event, as it is with this year’s Walk/Run, is to raise funds for charities, campus and community teams and organizations and the athletic scholarship fund of the BGSU Athletic Department. Over 84 groups and 1,400 individual runners participated in the inaugural event. Jim Ruehl and Bob Dudley, both retired BGSU coaches and teachers, are spearheading the 1986 effort.

Here’s how the Walk/Run For Fun works: campus and community groups will solicit pledges based on the number of laps that a participant can walk or run during a one-hour time period. Half of all the pledges will go directly to the participating group, or its designated charity. The other half of the pledges will assist the Athletic Department’s scholarship fund for student-athletes. The Athletic Department will be responsible for billing, collecting, and distribution of pledge money.

The Walk/Run is an excellent opportunity for organizations to raise money without the problems of setting up a wholesale campaign. Pledge forms are available from the BGSU Athletic Department and groups need only distribute the forms to its members and the fund-raising is underway! In its first year of existence in 1981, over $44,000 was collected. One organization was successful in raising $1,500 for its efforts; the Falcon Marching Band received $574, and an area high school raised $460.

According to Dudley and Ruehl, the emphasis on the event is not on competitive running, but on experiencing an enjoyable way of raising funds.

The Walk/Run, which will also feature food, music and other entertainment, will begin at 1:30 p.m. on October 5 with a “Celebrity Run” featuring former Falcon athletes and Ohio-area personalities. From 2:00 to 3:00, campus organizations will take over the track, including sororities, fraternities, athletic teams, organizations, departments, and clubs. From 3:00 to 4:00, community groups will have the opportunity to run. This group will include churches, schools, booster groups, clubs, organizations, and businesses.

Groups have several options in soliciting pledges. Solicitors can accept a flat fee rather than a per lap pledge, or one member of an organization can run and the other members can solicit funds based on the number of laps that person will run.

Prizes are being awarded to the most successful groups in raising funds. The group that raises the most money will receive two-thirds of all solicited pledges and each participating member will receive a free “Falcon Walk/Run for Fun” tee-shirt. The second and third place groups will also receive tee-shirts, while tee-shirts will also be awarded to the top male and female who run the most laps.

For further information on the fun run, you may contact Kevin Cleary in the BGSU Promotions Office at (419) 372-2401.
The Bowling Green State University Athletic Department is again sponsoring the "Falcon Walk/Run for Fun IV" to raise funds for charities, campus and community teams and organizations and the athletic scholarship fund of the BGSU Athletic Department. Fifty percent of the pledge will go to the organization or team named below, while the remaining fifty percent will be credited to the athletic scholarship fund. The event will take place on Sunday, October 5, 1986 beginning at 1:30 P.M. on BGSU's Whittaker Track.

Participants will use the following schedule:

1:30 P.M. - Celebrities (Campus, community and business leaders, etc.)
2:00 P.M. - Campus Organizations (Sororities, fraternities, athletic teams, organizations, departments, clubs, etc.)
3:00 P.M. - Community Groups (Churches, schools, booster groups, clubs, organizations, businesses, etc.)

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year, and that number is expected to climb even higher during the 1986-87 membership year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which takes place April 17 at the BGSU Ice Arena Lounge. It is the annual Recognition Reception honoring College Coach of the Year Jim McDonald of Kent State, High School Coach of the Year Russ Hepner of Grosse Pointe (MI) South, and Special Recognition Award Winner Jim Longnecker of Grove City (PA) College — all former BGSU athletes! This is one of the highlights of the year, so don’t miss it! Then on July 10, we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. More information will be forthcoming. On October 4, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with Bowling Green’s football game with the Western Michigan Broncos. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We’re looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.
