They’re carrying on a 33-year-old tradition. Academic All-Americans, chosen from fine college and university athletes who also have outstanding academic records. The College Sports Information Directors of America selects the official teams each year. Last year, over 300 Academic All-Americans, representing 15 different sports, were honored.

With great pride in the achievements of these scholar-athletes, GTE is now the official sponsor of this worthwhile program.

Ticket Information
General admission ticket prices for the 1986 Bowling Green football season will remain the same as last year. Reserved chair seats for single games remain $7.00, individual reserved bench seats on the east side of the stadium are $6.00, and BGSU student general admission seats are $2.00. Any group of 15 or more people may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side of the stadium for $3.50 each. Also, a group of 15 or more BGSU students may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side for $2.00. In addition to the chair seats and BGSU student general admission seats there are two additional general admission price ranges on the west side. Adult general admission is $3.50 and youth (high school age and younger) general admission is $2.50. A general admission ticket for the 5,000-plus end zone seats in both the north and south end zones costs $2.50.
The Memorial Hall Ticket Office is open from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. each game day for ticket purchases. Also, advance sale tickets for all remaining home games are on sale in the advance sale ticket booth on the east side of the stadium.
Serving as ticket outlets for BGSU tickets this year are The Falcon House in downtown Bowling Green, Bill’s Men’s and Boy’s Wear in Fostoria, B&G Drugs in Findlay, and both Huntington Banks branches in Perrysburg.

The Bowling Green Falcons put the nation’s longest home winning streak on the line this afternoon against the Northern Illinois Huskies. And though NIU enters the game with a record of 0-8, don’t be deceived. The Huskies have played a demanding independent schedule since withdrawing from the Mid-American Conference. NIU has faced a schedule that includes Iowa, Miami (Fla.), West Virginia and Wisconsin. They have hung tough against MAC opponents Toledo and Miami.

Bowling Green finds themselves in contention for the MAC title again in 1986 thanks to recent upsets of Miami by Western Michigan and Central Michigan. The Falcons have just two losses and are third in the league this week behind league leader Miami and second place Ball State. For the Falcons to gain a tie for the league crown, they must defeat Ball State and Toledo in the final two conference games of the season, and hope that Miami loses one more league game. That will insure at least a share of the title. To earn the respect of the California Bowl, BG needs Miami to lose two league games, and Central Michigan to drop one more contest. The chances aren’t great, but a repeat appearance in Fresno next month would be welcome. Keep your ears tuned to the public address system and hope for a Central Michigan win over Miami this afternoon. That will be a step in the right direction.

Coaches
Bowling Green head coach Moe Ankney is in his first year at his alma mater. A 1964 BGU graduate, Ankney served as an assistant coach at Ball State, Tulane and Arizona before returning to Bowling Green. He has a record of 4-4 as a collegiate head coach.

Jerry Pettibone is in his second season at Northern Illinois and has a record of 4-15. Pettibone is a former assistant coach at Oklahoma, Southern Methodist, Nebraska and Texas A&M. Pettibone was named head coach at NIU in December 1984 after three years with Jackie Sherrill at Texas A&M.

Series
Since Northern Illinois withdrew from the Mid-American Conference, this will be the last scheduled meeting between the two teams. Bowling Green leads the series by a 7-2 margin. The Falcons and Huskies met for the first time in 1967. NIU defeated Bowling Green in 1968 and in 1983, both victories coming by one point. The Falcons are 5-0 at Doyt Perry Field against the Huskies.

Last Meeting
Bowling Green ran its record to 9-0 with a 34-14 win over Northern Illinois at Huskie Stadium last November 2. The Falcons scored early and often in running away as BG won its 12th straight game. Quarterback Brian McClure put his name in the record book by setting an NCAA record for career 200-yard games, moving into second place in career passing yards, and surpassing the 2,000 yard mark in passing for the third straight year. The Falcons jumped to a 10-0 first quarter lead on a two-yard run by Bernard White and a 24-yard field goal by Paul Silvi. NIU countered with a touchdown early in the second quarter to cut the score to 10-7. But the Huskies tried a fake punt when faced with a fourth and five from their own eight-yard line and Chris Hartman snuffed the first down opportunity, setting up White for a one-yard plunge. Early in the third quarter, McClure found flanker Greg Meehan open on a 63-yard scoring pass, Silvi added a 46-yard boot and White scored his third TD of the day.

Last Week
Bowling Green put together its best all-around performance of the season in defeating Kent 31-15 at Kent. The Falcon offense was well balanced, rushing for 169 yards and passing for a season high 251. The Falcon defense shut-down the Kent option offense, limiting the Flashes to 210 yards of offense, including just 96 through the air. Falcon freshman quarterback Rich Dackin enjoyed his best outing as a collegian, completing 24 of 34 passes for 251 yards. He threw touchdown passes of six yards to tight end Gerald Bayless and 12 yards to Ken Rankin. Tailback Jeff Davis had his third 100-yard day of the season as he collected 107 yards on 15 carries.

Scouting Northern Illinois
Playing an independent schedule has not been kind to Northern Illinois. The Huskies enter Saturday’s game with a record of 0-8 and have played several top 20 teams. NIU has dropped contests to West Virginia (47-14), Wisconsin (35-20), Iowa (57-3), and top ranked Miami (FL) (34-0). Among MAC schools, the Huskies have lost to Ball State (20-10), Toledo (29-28) and Miami (20-6). Northern runs out of the wishbone offense and is led by sophomore quarterback Marshall Taylor (5-8, 179, So.). Taylor has passed for 713 yards and rushed for 273 this season. Fullback Antonio Davis (5-11, 187, So.) is the team’s leading rusher with 394 yards on 110 carries. Split end Virgil Gerin (5-11, 169, Jr.) is the top pass catcher with 12 receptions for 158 yards. NIU operates defensively out of a 52 set. The defensive line relies on nose tackle Doug Bartlett (6-3, 254, Sr.) who has been hampered by injuries. He returned to the Huskie line-up for part-time action Saturday and should see action against the Falcons. The rest of the Huskie defensive front averages 6-2, 220. Northern is allowing an average of 368 yards per game, 304 on the ground and 163 through the air.

Injury Report
Inside linebacker Erik Johnson is probable today after suffering an ankle injury against Eastern Michigan (Oct. 11). Defensive guard Jack Coppess will not play today after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery last week. He is expected to return to action this season. Fullback Mike Otten is questionable with a bruised shoulder suffered Saturday against Kent.

From The Press Box
Cleveland may have its Rock-and-Roll Hall of Fame, but Bowling Green State University's claim to musical fame is its Music Library and Sound Recordings Archives, considered one of the finest collections of recordings in the nation.

The more than 400,000 recordings in the university's collection include long-playing albums, 45-rpm singles, 78-rpm singles and cylinder recordings. The collection ranges from rock and pop to cowboy and country, from gospel to jazz and musicals. Most items have been donated; others have been carefully selected by sound recordings archivist William Schurk, who searches garage sales, flea markets and record shops for acquisitions.

The National Endowment for the Humanities has awarded a $76,713 grant to Bowling Green to catalog 12,000 popular recordings made between 1950 and 1970, and to share that catalog information with both the OCLC, an on-line computer library database that serves libraries throughout the country, and the Library of Congress publication, "Music, Books on Music and Sound Recordings".

It's the second time in two years that Bowling Green has received major NEH funding to catalog portions of its archival holdings.

Almost 100,000 recordings are now cataloged, said Linda Fidler, head of the Music Library and project manager for the NEH grant.

Fidler said the new grant will fund continuation of a project begun with $100,000 from NEH in 1985. Those funds were used to catalog 15,000 recordings issued on major record labels between 1950 and 1970. The period of the fifties through the sixties was selected because recordings from that time are the least accessible in most library files.

Creating new file entries is not a simple matter. The professional catalogers verify all performers' names, a task that is not always easy because record companies are inconsistent in spellings. They also establish subject headings consistent with the Library of Congress listings for each entry, list all songs and all performers on each disc entered into the database and create a data record for every song and every performer, both for the OCLC and for the Jerome Library's own files.

The data files then will be available to the 4,000 OCLC member libraries immediately as entered and will later be published in the annual update of the Library of Congress catalog.

Schurk explained that recordings are classified by type of music. The recordings also are cataloged by primary theme, such as Hawaiian music, truck driving songs and arrangements of major musicals that were popular in the late fifties and early sixties, he said.

The project also provides excellent coverage of album illustrations, Schurk said. "We trace odd things on covers. Many albums in the fifties used models such as Jayne Mansfield, Tina Louise — the actress on 'Gilligan's Island' — and even Mary Tyler Moore on the covers. The cover art until the mid-sixties often concealed that the artists were black by showing white subjects."

Schurk said the new grant will "enable us to fill in the gaps of the large label holdings and also catalog records produced by the small budget labels."

And there were many private labels in the fifties and sixties, according to Schurk.

"Sometimes small plastic companies decided to make record albums and would lease masters from other companies. The budget label would sell for a buck or a buck-fifty in five and dime stores," the archivist said.

Bowling Green is one of nine libraries in the country which is asked to contribute to the Library of Congress music catalog.

"The Library of Congress has accepted our cataloging as the standard since 1975. We've actually set the standard in pop music," Schurk said.

Fidler added that the OCLC has given Bowling Green permission to correct sound recordings data online. Only half a dozen of the more than 4,000 OCLC members have permission to make corrections on the OCLC database, which has more than 13 million entries.

"We are gaining a national reputation as a place to find popular music," Fidler said, noting that three libraries have donated large numbers of 78-rpm recordings to Bowling Green over the past several months.

The recordings themselves are non-circulating and are handled only by a few authorized library employees, Fidler said. All requests for information are handled either through the mail or in person by library employees.

"We maintain that the most important thing about our collection is making it accessible," Fidler said.

In recent years the Smithsonian Institution has relied on Bowling Green's archives to complete a project, as has Time-Life Books. Independent film producer Pierce Rafferty, who came to see the collection as part of research for a new movie, called the collection a "gold mine."
Selecting a college

is one of the most important decisions you will make. If you’re deciding where to attend school, Bowling Green would like to introduce you to our campus. Take a campus tour, meet with an admissions counselor, and learn what BGSU can offer you. The University

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and 158 students, all of whom were studying to be teachers. Today the University has more than 725 faculty and 17,000 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, and Technology, and a Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master’s degree programs and 12 doctoral degree programs with more than 40 specialty areas.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University’s Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor’s degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,100 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the quality of the University has been demonstrated recently by the decision of Phi Beta Kappa to establish a chapter on campus and by Bowling Green’s election to membership in the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University’s faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, among them the psychology and chemistry departments which received 1986 Ohio Board of Regents Eminent Scholar Awards, established by the state legislature to recognize and reward high quality academic programs at state-assisted institutions.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for Environmental Research and Services, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-American Stock Center — the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world — where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University’s students come from throughout the United States and more than 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1983-84 academic year, there were 1,400 “non-traditional” adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 2.5 million books, journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history, the Institute for Great Lakes Research containing materials on the shipping industry’s past and present, and the Sound Recording Archives with 245,000 recordings.

The University is continually refurbishing existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed remodeling of West Hall, the former music building, to provide up-to-date facilities for the School of Mass Communication. Another is the recent addition of numerous computer facilities across campus, including microcomputer laboratories for student use in residence halls, to ensure that all Bowling Green students are familiar with the technology of the computer age in which we live.

The newest of the more than 100 campus buildings is the $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory that opened in 1984. The 52,800 square-foot building is the most modern facility of its kind in Ohio and features 30 laboratories, a planetarium, roof-top astronomical observatory and state-of-the-art equipment for teaching and research in chemistry, physics and astronomy.

The Physical Sciences Laboratory is not for the sole use of students and faculty, however. Special programs are held at the planetarium for the public, the latest addition to a wide array of ways the University serves Ohio’s citizens.

Others include the Management Center which offers training, consulting and research assistance to business and industry; WBGU-TV, the University’s award-winning public television station; the Creative Arts Program which provides instruction in music and dance for young people; Continuing Education courses and conferences for adults as well as children; the Speech and Hearing Clinic with its diagnostic and treatment services; NETWORK BG which utilizes University resources to assist business, industry and government, and cultural events ranging from public concerts and art shows to theatre productions and lectures.

Since Dr. Paul J. Olscamp became the eighth president of Bowling Green State University in July 1982, several changes have been made to move Bowling Green into the ranks of nationally important universities.

Greater faculty involvement in governing the University, expanded resources for campus libraries and increased emphasis upon faculty research activities have all occurred at Bowling Green during the past four years.

And the University's direction during the next decade has been clearly charted in a Role and Mission Statement, a 27-goal document aimed at improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students, the University's academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

However, Olscamp knows that very few of the University's plans will materialize without adequate financing. While state appropriations can hopefully be counted upon for day-to-day operations, other kinds of resources must be tapped if Bowling Green is to enhance its position as a university.

During his tenure, Olscamp has presided over a quadrupling of the school's endowment to nearly $4 million. Private contributions in 1984-85 reached a new high of $2.8 million.

And to mark its 75th anniversary, Olscamp in November 1985 announced plans for a $12.5 million three-year campaign that is the most ambitious in University history. In its first year, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $7.8 million.

To further assure that the University will have funds to meet its academic goals, Olscamp initiated a plan to restructure debt service obligations that by the year 2000 should have a principal of nearly $35 million. Interest on that amount should provide about $3.5 million annually to the academic budget.

Olscamp called the plan, which has been approved by the Ohio Attorney General, a "once in a lifetime chance to lay the foundation for future generations."

In addition, in 1984 the Trustees, at Olscamp's request, created an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance of that fund currently exceeds $5.6 million and, if left untouched, is expected to reach $10 million in about five years at which point the annual interest of about $1 million will be used to support academic programs.

Increasing minority representation on campus has also been a major effort of Olscamp's administration. In 1985, an Office of Minority Affairs was created to provide services to assist minority students and recruitment efforts were increased to attract more minorities to campus. In addition, the University is committed to increasing the number of minority faculty members.

PHILIP R. MASON
Secretary to the Board
John C. (Jack) Gregory is in his fifth year as the director of athletics at Bowling Green State University. He was appointed to the position on July 15, 1982.

In Gregory's first four years at Bowling Green, the Falcons have enjoyed some of their finest moments in history, winning the 1984 national championship in ice hockey and claiming Mid-American Conference championships in numerous other sports, including two football championships, along with two trips to the California Bowl. In the last four years, Falcon teams have claimed league titles in ice hockey, football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's cross country and women's gymnastics. BG achieved another notable accomplishment this past year, finishing second in the Jacoby Trophy standings, its highest finish thus far. The Jacoby Trophy is in its fourth year, and tallies the overall records of women's Mid-American Conference teams.

Gregory came to Bowling Green at a time when BGSU and the Mid-American Conference were fighting to remain in college football's Division I-A upper echelon. Behind his leadership, Bowling Green became the front runner in helping to achieve that goal.

During his tenure here, BGSU has set school and conference attendance records in football and hockey. In 1983, 33,527 football fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field to witness the BG-Toledo game, setting school and MAC single game attendance marks.

The Falcons drew over 100,000 fans for five games at Perry Field, a first in the school's history. In 1985, the Falcons again went over the 100,000 mark in season attendance. Sell-out crowds for BG's hockey games have become the norm as well, making game tickets the hottest items in town during the winter. Gregory's leadership in the area of television has helped BGSU sports become a popular item in Northwest Ohio.

Gregory, 57, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and Lima areas, with financial contributions mounting to unequaled levels.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsberg State College in eastern Pennsylvania and holder of a master's degree in physical education from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director. While at Yale, he was responsible for generating income, managing the university's 33-sport program and supervising staff operations.

Jack and his wife, Peg, are the parents of two sons, John and Bruce. Bruce is serving as a volunteer assistant coach on the 1986 BGSU coaching staff.

Old Milwaukee brings you two great players. Old Milwaukee, the beer that tastes as great as its name. And Old Milwaukee Light, the beer that got the taste of light right. Any way you play it, that’s one great team.
Howard M. “Moe” Ankney became Bowling Green State University’s 13th head football coach on December 30, 1985 when he was appointed to the position by Athletic Director Jack Gregory.

For Ankney, it brings him back to his alma mater where he was a quarterback under the legendary Doyt L. Perry from 1961-63 before graduating in 1964. During his 15-year college coaching career, Ankney has made coaching stops at Ball State, Tulane and Arizona, coached in several major bowl games, and guided some of the nation’s top defensive units.

Ankney joined the Falcons from the University of Arizona where he served as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the past six seasons. His defensive teams finished among the national leaders in defense each of the past four years. The 1985 Wildcat defense finished ninth in the nation in defense against the run, 13th in total defense, and seventh in scoring defense, allowing just over 12 points per game. The Pac-10’s leading tackler for each of the past four seasons has been one of Ankney’s defenders.

Ankney, 44, grew up in Xenia, Ohio before moving to Kettering before his senior year in high school. He graduated from Fairmont High School in 1960 as an all-state quarterback and four-year letterman. He was named the outstanding Dayton area athlete in 1959 and participated in the North-South All-Star game. At BGSU, Ankney was a reserve quarterback on Doyt L. Perry’s 1961-62-63 teams that posted a three-year record of 23-5-1 and claimed two Mid-American Conference championships. He completed eight of 19 passes for 75 yards during his career and earned two letters. Moe’s decision to attend Bowling Green was heavily influenced by his cousin, Bob Colburn, quarterback and captain of Doyt Perry’s 1959 national championship team. Colburn was a senior at BGSU when Moe was a senior in high school. While an undergraduate, Ankney earned election to Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, an education honorary.

Ankney comes from a football family. His uncle Pete was his head coach at Fairmont High School. Pete Ankney also was a head coach at Canton McKinley High School and at the University of Dayton. Moe’s father Ben coached at Miami University and at Xenia High School.

“After I graduated from Bowling Green in 1964 and went on to become a high school coach, I always dreamed that I might follow in the footsteps of Doyt Perry and coach at Bowling Green,” said Ankney. “To be the head coach is a tremendous honor and I hope I can live up to the tradition of excellence of Bowling Green football.”

In becoming the head coach at Bowling Green, Ankney left not only Arizona, but a friend in Wildcat head coach Larry Smith. Like Ankney, Smith is a Bowling Green graduate and the two have coached together for the past 10 seasons. Smith says of Ankney, “He’s been my right hand and right arm for the last 10 years and a friend for much longer than that.”

Prior to joining the Arizona staff in 1980, Ankney was Smith’s defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Tulane for four seasons between 1976-79. Prior to that, he was the secondary coach at Ball State from 1971-75 under the late Dave McClain.

Moe and his wife Carlalee are the parents of three children: Angela, 22, Andy, 21 and Molly, 18. Ankney was born June 23, 1942 and his full name is Howard Milton Ankney.

Andy Garver
First-year member of the staff supervising the defensive line. 1980 graduate of Tulane who served as a part-time assistant at Arizona and a graduate assistant at Notre Dame. Has coaching experience in four major bowl games while working with Tulane, Arizona and the Fighting Irish. Joined the Falcon staff after a season at Jesuit High School in New Orleans.

Jon Hoke
Beginning his fourth season as the secondary coach. A former all-Mid-American Conference defensive back at Ball State, Jon played one season with the Chicago Bears. Joined the Falcon staff prior to the 1983 campaign after serving as a secondary coach at Dayton and North Carolina State.

Terry Malone
First-year staff member who will coach the tight ends and assist with the offensive line. Served as an assistant coach at Holy Cross College last fall. A 1983 graduate of Holy Cross where he was an all-New England tight end, he was a graduate assistant at Arizona before returning to Holy Cross.

Mike Mangili
Joined the staff last January and will handle Bowling Green's outside linebackers. A former offensive lineman at California State-Sacramento, he coached for six seasons at Amos Alonzo Stagg High School in Stockton, California. He became a graduate assistant coach at Arizona in 1983 and remained with the Wildcats until coming to Bowling Green.

Mark Miller
One of the most prolific passers in Bowling Green history, Mark is in his fourth year as an assistant coach. After tutoring the receivers for the past three seasons, he adds the quarterbacks to his coaching responsibilities in 1986. A 1978 BGSU graduate, he played for several years in the NFL including a two-year stint with the Cleveland Browns. Finished his career as a quarterback on the first USFL championship team, the Michigan Panthers.

Reggie Oliver
The coach of Bowling Green's explosive ground attack, "The Real Estate Co.", Reggie is in his third season on the BG coaching staff. He came to BGSU after five years as an assistant coach at Marshall University. He was an all-American quarterback at Marshall before joining the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League. A former WFL Player of the Week, Oliver finished his career with the Dallas Cowboys.

Bob Reublin
The senior member of the Falcon staff who will serve as assistant head coach to Moe Ankney and also coach the offensive line. A 1951 graduate, Bob played with the New York Giants before becoming the head coach at Sandusky High School. He later served as offensive coordinator at Miami University and defensive coordinator at Colorado before joining the Falcon staff earlier this season.

Bob Wolfe
First-year staff member who returns to his alma mater after serving as the head football coach at Allegheny College for the past three seasons. A reserve defensive back at BGSU under Bob Gibson and Don Nehlen, Bob coached with Moe Ankney at Ball State in the early '70s. He also made stops at Washington & Jefferson, and Youngstown State as well as Warren Harding HS in Warren.

Anatomy of a Winning Streak

By Steve Shutt

It has been over three years, 16 games worth, since the Falcons have lost a home game. The streak is currently the longest in the nation among the NCAA's Division I-A football teams. Since the streak began, players and coaches have come and gone, championships have been won, and students have graduated. But one thing has remained constant: the Falcons have not lost at home. Doyt L. Perry Field rings of history and tradition. And though great players and great teams have led the Falcons to 16 straight wins, the 12th man, the Falcon crowd, has played as large a part in this streak as any one person.

Here, then, is a recap of the last 16 home field victories, and hopes for a 17th.

October 29, 1983
Bowling Green 15, Central Michigan 14. The streak almost never got off the ground as the Falcons trailed Central Michigan 14-9 with the scoreboard showing 0:00. But an interference call on a desperation last second pass gave the Falcons another shot at winning and quarterback Brian McClure took advantage of the situation by throwing an eight-yard scoring pass to split end Stan Hunter. The touchdown capped an 80-yard drive in the last six minutes of action.

November 5, 1983
Bowling Green 45, Ball State 30. It was a field day for the offenses and in particular the quarterbacks — as Bowling Green outscored Ball State. The Falcons never trailed after scoring the game's first three touchdowns. McClure completed 28 of 39 passes for 338 yards including an 80-yarder to Stan Hunter. Tailback Darryl Story set a BGSU record by rushing for 225 yards on 37 carries.

November 19, 1983
Bowling Green 38, Kent 3. The Falcons closed out the 1983 season with a 26-point third quarter effort. Story and fullback Lamont Wagner combined for three touchdowns on the ground and McClure threw a pair of touchdown passes to tight end Mark Dowdell.

September 8, 1984
Bowling Green 55, Richmond 28. The Falcons knew they were in for a great offensive showing when McClure threw the first pass of the game 37 yards to flanker Joe Boxley for a touchdown. And the scoring didn't stop there as Bernard White added three rushing touchdowns in the first quarter and a fourth quarter run for a four-touchdown day. The sun-baked Perry Field crowd is treated to four TD passes from McClure including another 45-yarder to Boxley and other TD tosses to Dowdell and Hunter.

September 29, 1984
Bowling Green 35, Eastern Michigan 27. Recent history dictates that Bowling Green and Eastern Michigan always battle down to the wire and this was no exception. While the Hurons churn up nearly 500 yards in total offense, it's Bowling Green's defense that bends but doesn't break. Cornerback Melvin Marshall races 32 yards with an interception to give the Falcons a lead they would not relinquish. Fullback George Schmelzle scores on a pair of screen passes from McClure and placekicker Gehad Youssef adds a pair of field goals to help the Falcons run their streak to five.

October 13, 1984
Bowling Green 34, Western Michigan 7. The Falcon defense rose to the occasion in a pivotal game. The defenders limited Western to just 61 yards on the ground. McClure has another outstanding day, throwing for 347 yards and tossing TD passes to Dowdell and Hunter. Dean Bryson breaks open the game with a 34-yard interception return early in the second half. Western scores its only touchdown late in the game to break-up the BG shutout.

October 20, 1984
Bowling Green 28, Northern Illinois 6. A combination of outstanding offense and stingy defense lead the Falcons to this victory. Marshall gets BG on the scoreboard early when he returns a blocked punt seven yards for a TD. A pair of second quarter NIU field goals is the only offense the Huskies can muster. Touchdown passes from McClure to Hunter, Boxley and Schmelzle seal NIU's fate.

November 10, 1984
Bowling Green 28, Ohio University 7. Playing before the largest home crowd of the season the Falcons thrive on the big defensive play to shut down Ohio. The Bobcats pass for just 42 yards. Compare that to the 215 yards passing for BG, and the result isn't hard to explain. White scores the first two TD's of the day on runs of 37 and two yards before Youssef chips in a pair of field goals. McClure adds a score on a rare 14-yard run.

September 21, 1985
Bowling Green 28, Miami 24. The nation's longest home winning streak appeared to be in jeopardy on this day before second-string quarterback Rick Neiman engineered the "Miracle of Doyt Perry Field." The Falcons rallied from a 10-point deficit in the last two minutes to beat the Redskins. The Falcons held a 7-3 lead late in the second quarter after McClure threw a 30-yard scoring pass to Boxley. But late in the first half, McClure was sacked and knocked out of the game with a sprained knee. On came fifth-year senior

Neiman whose previous career totals included just two pass attempts. Neiman’s first pass of the game went 29-yards to Hunter for a 14-3 Falcon lead. But Miami scored three unanswered touchdowns, taking a 24-14 lead with 3:45 left in the game. Neiman drove the Falcons downfield and tossed a crucial fourth down pass to Bernard White who legged the ball into the end zone with 1:24 to play. Rick Howard recovered Paul Silvi’s onside kick at the Miami 47 and Neiman hit Greg Meehan for a 40-yard gain to the seven. From there, Neiman scrambled the final seven yards to give BG a 28-24 lead. Still, it took a pass deflection by linebacker Paul Schweitzer on the final play of the game to secure BG’s victory.

September 28, 1985
Bowling Green 27, Akron 22. The Falcons’ tenth straight home win was not an easy one as 25,000 faithful watched. BG took a 7-0 lead on Bernard White’s one-yard TD run on BG’s first possession. After Akron tied the game, the Falcons took a 14-7 lead on a McClure to Meehan touchdown pass. A touchdown pass to Gerald Bayless added seven more points for the brown-and-orange but Akron utilized three second-half field goals to take a 22-21 lead. McClure padded the Falcon lead with a scoring pass to Hunter in the third quarter before White hurdled the line from one-yard out to give the Falcons a 23-12 lead.

October 19, 1985
Bowling Green 23, Central Michigan 18. The Falcons fell behind early when CMU kicked a late first quarter field goal. Silvi tied the game in the second quarter with a 33-yard boot. BG took the lead for good when White sprinted 17 yards for a touchdown and a 10-3 BGSU lead. McClure padded the Falcon lead with a scoring pass to Hunter in the third quarter before White hurdled the line from one-yard out to give the Falcons a 23-12 lead.

October 26, 1985
Bowling Green 26, Kent 14. Five times in the first half Kent was knocking on the door of the end zone but all they could come away with was one touchdown. Though the Flashes scored first, they wouldn’t score again until there was no doubt left as to the outcome. A two-yard run by White, a pair of touchdown passes from McClure to Bayless and Bill Kuhlman, and two Silvi field goals accounted for the Falcon score. Tony McCorvey’s interception late in the game killed off any threat of a Kent rally.

Bowling Green 21, Toledo 0. Given the rivalry between these two teams, nothing could be sweeter than a shutout victory in front of a packed house of over 28,000. Toledo had won the three previous meetings between these clubs and the Falcon seniors had revenge on their minds. When McClure’s first pass of the day was intercepted, many wondered if the jinx would continue. But a 29-yard pass to Hunter resulted in a 7-0 lead before defensive end Chris Hartman intercepted a Rocket pass and took it 22-yards for another score. The victory had special meaning because it clinched the Mid-American Conference title for Bowling Green.

REGGIE THORNTON SCORED VS. OHIO ON SEPTEMBER 6 TO KEEP “THE STREAK” ALIVE

October 4, 1986
Bowling Green 17, Western Michigan 3. Three straight road games makes Perry Field look even more inviting to the Falcons. Silvi gets the Falcons on the board early with a 35-yard field goal. Tied 3-3 at the half, freshman quarterback Rich Dackin, getting his first start, tosses a 29-yard scoring pass to Reggie Thornton for a 10-3 lead. Jeff Davis, known for his long-distance running abilities, races 66-yards for a fourth quarter TD to seal the Falcon win and victory number 15 in the streak.

October 11, 1986
Bowling Green 24, Eastern Michigan 10. Another beautiful, sunny day at Perry Field as the Falcons look for their 16th straight home victory. An early Huron field goal gives Eastern Michigan a 3-0 lead. But the Falcon offense scores three unanswered touchdowns for a 21-3 advantage. Bayless scores on a 13-yard pass from Dackin and Davis adds runs of two and four-yards. Eastern managed a fourth quarter touchdown before Silvi’s 32-yard field goal capped the scoring.

WINNERS

Some people set higher standards for themselves. They come out early. And stay late. Funny, how they’re usually the winners.

At Ricoh, we set higher product standards. And we put in that extra effort. Maybe that’s why Ricoh’s line of copiers, digital facsimile, laser printers, and shredders are setting new standards of performance in today’s modern office. And that’s why Ricoh cameras are winning the attention of amateurs and professionals alike in the world of photography.

Be a winner. Demand that extra effort. Ask for Ricoh. We Respond.

The fact that both of these Corvettes are on Goodyear Eagle street radials is no coincidence.

Every Corvette made since 1984 comes with just one make of tire: the Goodyear Eagle VR “Gatorback” street radial. Which is no coincidence. Because the Eagle VR “Gatorback” was developed specifically for the Corvette’s tremendous cornering, handling, and speed capabilities.

Considering the performance of the Eagle VR “Gatorback,” it’s not surprising that successful SCCA Showroom Stock Endurance racing teams like Rippie/Anderson also choose an Eagle street radial.* The Eagle VR S “Gatorback,” a version of the Eagle VR “Gatorback” made for ultimate grip rather than ultimate treadlife. The success of both the Eagle VR and VR S “Gatorbacks” has a common source: Goodyear’s ability to engineer better high-performance radials. For virtually every performance car.

So it’s really no coincidence that the Eagle VR is to be found on every Corvette made. Or that the Eagle VR S is the favorite tire of people who race Corvettes in the SCCA Showroom Stock Endurance Series. In fact, when you think of how the Eagles perform, it’s no coincidence at all.

*Tires shaved to racing depth. Before you race on Goodyear street radials, write the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, P.O. Box 9125, Akron, Ohio 44305 for preparation recommendations and procedures.

YOU EITHER HAVE GOODYEAR EAGLES. OR YOU NEED THEM.

Today’s Halftime Show

This afternoon, the Falcon Marching Band would like to present to you, their salute to musical theater and the Broadway stage. The Broadway musical has given the world a myriad of wonderful songs that have been performed in a multitude of ways over the years. The BGSU Marching Band would like to add one more such performance as we present for you several musical "highlights".

After opening today’s presentation with a fiery, Latin tune entitled “Fire Dance”, the band would like to feature its twirlers: Donna, Leigh, Sandy, and Susan; along with the Flag Corps as they perform to the Sound of Music hit: “My Favorite Things”.

Joining the Marching Band in its halftime performance is the precision dance team at BGSU, the “Pomerettes”. They will dance to the tune “One” from A Chorus Line.

The Marching Falcons will close today’s presentation with their rendition of a lovely ballad from the musical A Chorus Line: “One”.

By Kevin Cleary
Director of Athletic Promotion

Welcome to all. We hope you enjoyed the many and varied promotions leading up to today’s game, as well as those which will take place today.

Special thanks go out to WIOT-FM 104 and WUPW-TV 36 for their promotional support of today’s game; to WOIT again for the kazoons; to BG Beverage, Old Milwaukee and Up-town/Downtown for the All-Sports Pass Appreciation Day mugs; to Purcell’s Bike Shop for donating a Raleigh 10-speed as grand prize in today’s Costume Contest; to the Wood County Public Library for their promotional support of Library Card Day; to the Falcon House for Wear Orange Day; to the Wood County Humane Society for Adopt-a-Huskie Day; and to the Big Brothers/Big Sisters.

Also, welcome to all prospective students, their parents and teachers, who are here as part of the 12th Annual Preview Day. Information sessions, demonstrations, tours and open houses were the order of the morning. The afternoon is spent at today’s football game, as guests of the Athletic Department and the Office of Admissions. We hope it is the first of many “Football Saturdays” that you will spend with us.

The Athletic Department would like to thank the Toledo Blade for their cooperation in sponsoring the second annual Blade Day.

Another “welcome” is set aside for the members of the Classified Staff, who are here as part of Classified Staff Day. We hope that these “Most Valuable Employees” enjoy their special day.

Parents Day is one of the biggest days of the year at BGSU. This year the Falcons face the Ball State Cardinals on November 8. Tickets can be ordered at the Memorial Hall Ticket Office or by calling 372-2762.

Please make special note of the start time for the November 8 game against Ball State-12:15 p.m.

Tickets for the final home game are on sale today, during the second half of the game, at the white ticket booth on the east side of the stadium.

Reserve tickets for the final home game can be purchased at any of the Falcon Football Ticket Outlets throughout the area: The Chamber of Commerce, The Falcon House and Kroger in Bowling Green; The Kroger Sav-On and both Huntington Banks in Perrysburg; B&G Drugs in Findlay; and Bill’s Men’s and Boy’s Wear in Fostoria.

It’s not too early to start thinking about those season basketball tickets. Make plans now to spend your winter nights in Anderson Arena, watching the new breed Falcons against a tough home schedule featuring traditional rivals Toledo, Miami and Ohio, as well as the stun and gun show of Cleveland State.

If you were a season ticket holder last year, you should have received your renewal notice in the mail. If you wish to become a season ticket holder for basketball, call the Memorial Hall Ticket Office for more information at 372-2762.

We are pleased to announce several new promotions to enable more people to get those always tough-to-get hockey tickets. For the first time, youth hockey teams will be given special discounts for tickets purchased as a group on designated Team Nights. Groups of 15 or more will get general admission tickets in a specially roped off section for a discounted price of $1 for youth and $3 for adults. If you know of a youth hockey team interested, call 372-7093 for details.

The second new hockey promotion is the Holiday Hockey Pass. It’s good for five games; Nov. 28 vs. Michigan State, Jan. 2-3 vs. Lake Superior and Jan. 9-10 vs. Miami. It’s good for general admission (the only way to get GA seats in advance of the season) and is offered at a discounted rate of $15 for adults and $7.50 for youth, a 25 percent savings. Call 372-7093 for more details.
Vital Statistics

Terry Malone

Name: Terry Malone
Family: Son of Paul and Miriam Malone, brothers Dan (32), Kevin (31) and Tom (21), and sisters Peggy (30) and Nancy (22).
High School: Detroit Catholic Central, class of 1978.
College: Attended Holy Cross College (Mass.), class of 1982.
Playing experience: Was a four-year starting tight end at Holy Cross.
First job: “I stood outside church and sold the Sunday paper. My brother Kevin paid me 10 cents a week.”
Likes: “Golf, hunting, old movies and Irish weddings.”
Dislikes: “Cry babies, negative people and Tequila.”
Worst job: “Playing ‘Willie the Whale’ at the Hudson’s stores in the Detroit area.”
Favorite performers: “Bob Seger, Jimmy Buffet and Cybill Shepard.”
Personal hero: “My father, because he loves my mom and he dedicates himself to his family.”
Nobody knows I am: “A Blarney Stone in disguise.”
If I could do it over again, I would: “Not have used my dad’s American Express for that rent-a-car in Florida. Some things a dad never forgets.”
The worst part of my job is: “That there is no time to enjoy the wins.”
Superstitions: “I don’t trust cats, anyone with initials for a first name and women with two different colored eyes.”
If I could switch places for just one day with anyone, it would be: “Lance Parrish, so I could play catcher for the best team in baseball.”
The best football game I ever saw was: “Arizona vs. UCLA, 1983.”
The best player I ever coached was: “Pat O’Brien.”
The best players I ever played against were: “Howie Long of Villanova, ’80; Doug Flutie of Boston College, ’82; Jay Snyder of Yale, ’81.”
The best player I ever coached against was: “Brian Kenny, University of Washington, 1984.”

Bob Reublin

Name: Bob Reublin
Family: Wife Mary Lou, daughters Susie, 25; twins Nancy and Patsy, 24; and Cathy, 22.
High School: Attended Olmsted Falls, Ohio.
College: Bowling Green State University, class of 1961.
First coaching job: Graduate assistant at Bowling Green, 1961.
Worst job: “Working as a landscaper as a kid.”
Likes: “People who work hard and don’t talk about it. I can’t stand people who are talkers and not doers.”
Dislikes: “False people, not being honest, people in any walk of life who don’t use the talents they have.”
Favorite performers: “John Wayne, Clint Eastwood.”
Personal hero: “Jack Hecker, Bowling Green graduate now an assistant coach at Army.”
Nobody knows I am: “Only my wife knows that I am a very family oriented person.”
If I could do it over again, I would: “Take the head coaching job I was offered in 1976.”
The worst part of my job is: “Not winning on Saturday.”
The best part of my job is: “Winning on Saturday.”
I knew I was a grown-up when: “My father died when I was a young boy.”
If I couldn’t be a football coach, I’d be: “A teacher or high school principal.”
My favorite football fantasy: “To be head football coach.”
If I could switch places for just one day with anyone, it would be: “Moe Ankney because I have a lot of respect for him and I would like to someday be in a similar position.”
The best football game I ever saw: “Colorado vs. Oklahoma in 1976 with an Orange Bowl berth on the line. The final score was 42-31 Colorado. They were two great football teams, with lots of great athletes.”
The best player I ever coached was: “Thorn Darden who played for me at Sandusky High School and then played at Michigan and for the Cleveland Browns.”
The best player I ever played against was: “Bob Brooks, fullback at Ohio.”
The best player I ever coached against was: “Joe Washington, Oklahoma.”

Alma Mater
Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Their names are familiar. Together, they dot the nation as football coaches at all levels of the game — in our high schools, colleges, universities and even the highly-competitive world of professional football.

They belong to the Falcon’s Nest of Coaches, an organization of coaches begun in 1984 to promote the proud tradition of Bowling Green State University Falcon football.

Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at BGSU, most of these fine coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They’ve studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of men like Warren Steller, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and now Moe Ankney.

Today, these coaches are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at BGSU, the Falcon’s Nest of Coaches. Here are but a few of the members:

The Student Athletic Board

The Student Athletic Board is now in its fifth year of existence at Bowling Green State University. The purpose of the SAB is to act as the representative of the BGSU student body to the Athletic Department. The board works to research and/or define issues and problems that reflect the concerns of the general student body. These findings are then reported to and discussed with the Athletic Department and the proposed solutions or resolutions are brought back to the student body by the Board. In essence, the SAB is the student voice in athletics.

The SAB was formed during the 1982-83 year and gained official recognition from the University in 1984. Currently, Bowling Green’s SAB is the only student athletic board in the Mid-American Conference. Jim Kovatch of North Olmsted serves as the board’s president in 1986-87. Linus Bruno of Sandusky is the vice-president and Deona Winch of Findlay is the secretary-treasurer. BGSU Assistant Athletic Director Kevin McHugh is the board’s advisor.

"The SAB is the student’s voice in the athletic department," McHugh said. "It is an advisory group. Most colleges have spirit groups, but not groups with input in the athletic department."

"The department will give us problems and we take it up to the board and see if we can take care of it," said Kovatch recently. "We also take problems from the students and talk to the athletic department about them."

Among the many accomplishments achieved by the board during its first five years is the establishment of the Special Achievement Award which is presented during each athletic season to outstanding athletes. Athletes are nominated by their coaches and the SAB conducts balloting to determine which athletes will be honored.

"The award goes to a special type of athlete," said McHugh. "It is more for an athlete’s character, spirit, and attitude than it is for on-the-field accomplishments."

As a student organization, the SAB is actively involved in fund-raising. Among the board’s activities this year is the operation of one of the concession stands located at Perry Field.

The board earns a commission on all concessions sold at their stand. Just recently, the board brought to the Bowling Green campus the National Collegiate Driving Championships, sponsored by Chrysler-Dodge. Students were timed in driving a short obstacle course and the BGSU winners will advance to a national competition. The board also coordinated the Homecoming pep rally and bonfire held the night before the Falcons’ Homecoming game with Eastern Michigan, and was recently involved in the “Falcon Walk/Run For Fun IV”.

In the past, the SAB has served a vital role to the Athletic Department in conducting surveys among the student body. On the advice of the SAB, the Athletic Department instituted changes in the All-Sports Pass ticket pick-up procedure to better serve the student body. The SAB has assisted in the promotion and publicity of sports and activities in the Athletic Department. The board also has a seat on the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee which inputs advice to the Athletic Department. Standing SAB committees include promotions, sport-pass, special achievement, special projects, research, and image.

Membership in the SAB is open to any undergraduate or graduate student who has the desire to get involved in BGSU athletics. The board currently seats about 30 members but any student is invited to join. Applications for membership are available at the Memorial Hall ticket office or 405 Student Services. Membership drives are held each fall and spring.

John Hunter recovered an Eastern Michigan fumble during BG’s 24-10 win over the Hurons, the Falcons’ 16th straight home victory.

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year, and that number is expected to climb even higher during the 1986-87 membership year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which takes place April 17 at the BGSU Ice Arena Lounge. It is the annual Recognition Reception honoring College Coach of the Year Jim McDonald of Kent State, High School Coach of the Year Russ Hepner of Grosse Pointe (MI) South, and Special Recognition Award Winner Jim Longnecker of Grove City (PA) College — all former BGSU athletes! This is one of the highlights of the year, so don’t miss it! Then on July 10, we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. More information will be forthcoming. On October 4, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with Bowling Green’s football game with the Western Michigan Broncos. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We’re looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
- Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
- A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
- Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
- Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

If you see some new faces on campus today, they no doubt belong to visiting high school students, their parents and teachers, who are here participating in the Office of Admissions 12th Annual Preview Day Program.

Display booths featuring information on academic programs and student services and activities were viewed this morning in the Grand Ballroom. Campus tours were conducted throughout the morning and special open houses and demonstrations were offered by various departments. Over 200 faculty and staff members and 100 students lent a hand in making our visitors feel particularly welcome. The Office of Admissions hosts Preview Day each year in order to provide prospective students with an opportunity to view many segments of college life. This year, over 2,000 students will participate in Preview Day activities and a second Preview Day is scheduled for December 6.

Special recognition is given to the Bowling Green State University Alumni Association, whose financial support helped make today’s program a success.

For those students and parents who participated, we hope you found Preview Day to be a meaningful and enjoyable experience.
