A Message From The President...

It is a special pleasure for me to extend a cordial welcome to all alumni returning for Homecoming 1987. We are honored to have you with us. As you know, there is a certain spirit here—something that you, as alumni and friends have helped to create—something that makes Bowling Green an exciting place in which young people can learn and mature.

I have talked to many of our alumni this past year and they all seem to exhibit the same trait—a tremendous pride in Bowling Green. Our graduates can, and do, play an extremely vital role in this University—in what it is and what it can become. In fact, our reputation for academic excellence ultimately will depend not only upon our research and teaching efforts, but upon the performance and reputation attained by our graduates, and upon their support for their Alma Mater.

We trust you will enjoy your visit. For some of you the physical changes in the campus are quite noticeable. Even more important are many of the exciting developments in the academic area that have brought recognition of the University's excellence from a variety of sources, including the recently acquired Ph.D. in Applied Philosophy. Thank you for your continuing interest in Bowling Green. Come back to see us often.

BG Hopes Homecoming Brings 2nd MAC Win

A road win over a conference opponent can do wonders for a team's morale. And when that win vaults you to the top of the conference standings, as it did for the Bowling Green Falcons, spirits ought to be soaring once again in Moe-Town.

Coach Moe Ankney's Bowling Green Falcons are flying high as they prepare to host Western Michigan, Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at Doyt L. Perry Field. This is Homecoming Week at BGSU, and Saturday marks the 65th annual Homecoming Game.

Bowling Green enters the game with a 1-0 Mid-American Conference record, after beating Ball State, 24-0, in Muncie, IN, last week. The Falcons (1-2 overall) racked up almost 500 yards of total offense, while recording their first shutout in 16 games.

The Falcons will collide with a Western Michigan team that is 1-2 under first-year Head Coach Al Molde. The WMU Broncos opened the season with three non-conference games, beating Akron (24-19), before losing to Illinois State (20-6) and Northern Illinois (34-14).

WFOB Radio (1430 AM) and WBGU Radio (88.1 FM) will broadcast the game locally.

THE SERIES: Bowling Green leads, 25-6-2, in an uninterrupted series that dates back to 1954. The Falcons have won five straight games over the Broncos, including last season's 17-3 decision at Perry Field. Jeff Davis rushed for 154 yards and one 66-yard TD, while Rich Dackin tossed a 29-yard scoring toss to Reggie Thornton. BG broke open a tight defensive struggle with two second-half TDs in that game. In games played at Perry Field, the Falcons are 8-2 against the Broncos.

BOWLING GREEN DEFENSE: No one felt better about the 24-0 win at Ball State than the BG defense. Not since a 21-0 victory over Toledo in 1985 had BG blanked an opponent. You have to go back to a 28-0 victory at Eastern Michigan in 1981 to find the last time it happened on the road.

Among his carries was a fourth-quarter scoring dash for 89 yards, a BG record. Andre Smith emerged as a third game-tested tailback – in addition to Jeff Davis and McGee – when he picked up 45 yards and a TD in 13 carries. QB Rich Dackin continues to improve, this time passing for 295 yards on 16 completions. He passed effectively to FL Ron Heard and SE Reggie Thornton; Heard, BG's Offensive Player of the Week, caught five passes for 131 yards, Thornton four for 78. Tight ends Kyle Hockman and Pat Jackson were also in on the action with two catches apiece. Mike McGee put BG on the board, going over the top from a yard out for a 1-0 first quarter lead. Andre Smith's eight-yard scamper and a 20-yard Jason Zeller field goal made it 17-0 at the half. McGee capped the scoring with his 89-yard dash late in the fourth quarter. OT Mike Joyce shared the Offensive Player of the Week honors with Heard.

BOWLING GREEN OFFENSE: A balanced offense rose to the occasion at Ball State, as the Falcons racked up 499 yards of total offense. BG rushed for 198 yards and passed for 301 more. With the front line opening some nice holes, TB Mike McGee carried 13 times for 112 yards and two TDs. Among his carries was a fourth-quarter scoring dash for 89 yards, a BG record. Andre Smith emerged as a third game-tested tailback – in addition to Jeff Davis and McGee – when he picked up 45 yards and a TD in 13 carries. QB Rich Dackin continues to improve, this time passing for 295 yards on 16 completions. He passed effectively to FL Ron Heard and SE Reggie Thornton; Heard, BG's Offensive Player of the Week, caught five passes for 131 yards, Thornton four for 78. Tight ends Kyle Hockman and Pat Jackson were also in on the action with two catches apiece. Mike McGee put BG on the board, going over the top from a yard out for a 1-0 first quarter lead. Andre Smith's eight-yard scamper and a 20-yard Jason Zeller field goal made it 17-0 at the half. McGee capped the scoring with his 89-yard dash late in the fourth quarter. OT Mike Joyce shared the Offensive Player of the Week honors with Heard.

HEAD COACH MOE ANKNEY

Howard M. "Moe" Ankney, Bowling Green State University's 13th head football coach, believes in Falcon football, its past, its present and its future.

"Bowling Green football is strong, and Bowling Green football is respected across the country. When our players put on the Bowling Green uniform, they are eager to go out and uphold that winning tradition."

Those are Ankney's words as he enters the 1987 season at Bowling Green, his second at the successful Mid-American Conference school.

Ankney was appointed head football coach at Bowling Green on December 30, 1985. For him, it marked a return to his alma mater. He was a quarterback under the legendary Doyt L. Perry from 1961-63 before graduating in 1964. During his 15-year collegiate coaching career, Ankney has made coaching stops at Ball State, Tulane and Arizona, coached in several major bowl games, and developed a reputation for coaching excellent defensive teams.

Heading into the 1987 season at Bowling Green, Ankney continued to be a believer in strong defense. "The thing I like about our team is that I think we will be strong defensively. You need to have a good defense to win the championship."

Ankney's Falcons relied on a big-play defense and an improving offense to get the job done in 1986. Bowling Green's 5-6 overall record was only part of the story last season. Ankney had his Falcons in the race for the MAC title from a season-opening win over Ohio University to a season-ending loss at Toledo. The Falcons finished 5-3 in the MAC, tied for second, only one game behind conference champion Miami. "Last year, we had a 5-6 record," Ankney said. "That doesn't live up to the winning tradition of Bowling Green football. Our coaches and our players are determined to get Bowling Green football back to where it should be."

Ankney joined the Falcons after serving six seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Arizona of the Pacific-10 Conference. His defensive teams finished among the national leaders from 1982-85. He coached the Pac-10's leading tackler in each of those years.

In returning to the alma mater, Ankney left a long-time coaching associate and friend, Arizona Head Coach Larry Smith. Like Ankney, Smith is a Bowling Green graduate, and the two coached together for 10 seasons. Smith, now head coach at the University of Southern California, said of Ankney, "He was my right hand and right arm for 10 years and a friend for much longer than that."

Prior to joining the Arizona staff in 1980, Ankney was Smith's defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Tulane for four seasons between 1976-79. And before that, he was the secondary coach at Ball State from 1971-75 under the late Dave McClain.

At each stop, Ankney was instrumental in helping to rebuild struggling programs. While Ankney led the '86 Falcons to a second-place tie in the MAC.

His Is A Fitting Tribute To The Gish Sisters

by LINDA SWAISGOOD
BGSU Office of Public Relations

Ralph Wolfe was attending a tribute to actress Lillian Gish in Minneapolis, MN, last fall when he met some dealers offering Gish memorabilia for sale by the piece.

He picked carefully through the piles of one dealer, examined the prices on the backs and inquired, “How much for the entire collection?”

“The dealer’s representative was dumb-founded,” Wolfe said. “But within a few days I had a price, and not too long after that I had what I wanted of the collection.”

Wolfe has spent the last 10 years gathering mementoes from the acting careers of Lillian and her sister Dorothy Gish. As curator of Bowling Green State University’s Gish Film Theater, he has vowed to make the theater “a first class facility that is a fitting tribute to the careers of the Gish sisters.”

A professor of English and film studies who says his three loves are theater, film and literature (but not necessarily in that order), Wolfe first started thinking that Bowling Green could be a Gish hallmark when he saw Lillian in person at Findlay College in 1971.

He later learned that the actress had made her stage debut in the Wood County village of Risingsun, about 20 miles from the University. That convinced him Bowling Green was the place for an official archives of the sisters’ distinguished careers.

In 1975, when plans were being laid for the renovation of 105 Hanna Hall, Wolfe seized the opportunity to propose that the facility be designated as the Dorothy and Lillian Film Theater.

Then-University President Hollis Moore, who had once met actress Dorothy, thought the naming was a good idea. Coincidentally, at the same time, the University was developing an innovative film studies program, and both Wolfe and Moore saw the opportunity for the program and the facility to enhance one another.

Lillian visited Bowling Green on June 6, 1976, for the dedication ceremony. The next day she received an honorary degree from the University.

Wolfe continued his efforts to enhance the Gish name at Bowling Green and in Ohio, establishing with his personal contribution the Dorothy and Lillian Gish Scholarship in Film Studies which Lillian later endowed. He was instrumental in bringing Lillian back to Bowling Green in 1979 to receive the Midwest Popular Culture Association’s Award of Excellence and then led a crusade to further renovate the Gish Film Theater, contributing from his personal resources and securing whatever additional funds he could.

In 10 years he has secured more than $5,000 worth of Gish memorabilia for the University, including a recent gift valued at $1,000 which established the Dorothy and Lillian Gish Collection of Film History in the Jerome Library.

The Gish Film Theater has been recognized as the only one in the country commemorating the Gish sisters’ careers. It is home to an outstanding collection of photographs and posters Wolfe obtained in 1980 when he was invited to attend a retrospective on the careers of Lillian and Dorothy Gish at the Museum of Modern Art. The collection had been assembled just for the retrospective and was “sold” to the University for the cost of shipping and handling.

When the collection arrived in Bowling Green, Wolfe spearheaded further renovation in the theater to accommodate it, and in 1982 Miss Gish returned to the campus for a dedication of the pictures.

Miss Gish recently showed her appreciation to the University for its interest in her career, donating $10,000 to advance and support the study of film at Bowling Green.

Wolfe now has enlisted some “big name” help in his crusade to continue enhancements to the Gish Film Theater. Academy Award winning actress and Bowling Green graduate Eva Marie Saint and actor Roddy McDowall have agreed to chair a National Advisory Committee for the facility. Members of that committee include such notables as Helen Hayes, Jeanne Moreau and Lily Tomlin.

Wolfe also has planned a campus celebration for Miss Gish’s birthday on Oct. 14. To commemorate that event, film historian Anthony Slide, another member of the National Advisory Committee for the Gish Film Theater, will lecture on “Early Women Film Directors” at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 12 in the theater. The following day at 7 p.m. the D.W. Griffith classic film “Hearts of the World,” starring Lillian and Dorothy Gish, will be shown in the Gish Film Theater.

With 105 feature movies to her credit, Miss Gish has the longest career of any Hollywood performer, male or female, and has appeared on the screen in every decade of this century since her first film, “An Unseen Enemy,” with D.W. Griffith in 1912.

“She has given her life for the art of film, but she remains so humble. I remember hearing in 1984 when she received the Life Achievement Award at the Kennedy Center. She told me, ‘Oh, Ralph, we have to take these things in stride. We all know the most popular movie star ever is Mickey Mouse.’ ”

Ralph Wolfe would probably disagree.

William Lloyd To Receive Alumni Service Award

William J. Lloyd, a dear friend and avid supporter of Bowling Green State University, the Alumni Association and the Athletic Department, will receive the 1987 Alumni Service Award in halftime ceremonies today.

Bill, a 1948 BGSU graduate and resident of West Unity, becomes the 25th recipient of this award which honors Bowling Green State University graduates who have worked tirelessly on behalf of the Alumni Association and University. He is a truly deserving recipient.

A listing of Bill's involvement with the University and Alumni Association could fill this entire program. He is a past member and treasurer of the Alumni Board of Trustees and has served on numerous Association committees. Currently he is treasurer of the BGSU Foundation Board of Directors. Bill is also a past president of the Williams County Alumni Chapter and is a member of the University's Presidents Club.

A charter member of the Falcon Club, Bill and his wife Helen ('48) are active supporters of the Falcon athletic program. He has served on the Falcon Club Advisory Board and the BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame Committee. The Bill and Helen Lloyd Award is presented annually to the most improved player on the Falcon hockey team... and the list goes on.

"Words cannot adequately express the deep appreciation our Alumni Association has for Bill Lloyd," notes Larry Weiss, Associate Vice President for University Relations and Director of Alumni Affairs. "Bill is a person who 'makes things happen' and he has been doing just that at Bowling Green State University for many, many years. The Alumni Association, Athletic Department, and University owe a great debt of gratitude to Bill and Helen Lloyd."

road. While the Cardinals did manage to rush for 148 yards and pass for 122, almost 200 of those yards came in the second half when the BG defense was giving up the shorter runs and passes while guarding against the long, quick strikes. OLB John Hunter gained BG’s Defensive Player of the Week nod for his 11 tackles and two stops and recovered one fumble. Making 10 tackles apiece were DG Jack Coppess and ILB Charles Dotson. Coppess hasn’t been shy about airing out his favorite targets have been SE Jamie Hence (14, 266 yards, 1 TD) and David Belle (12, 191), a slotback who played under BG grad Larry Cook at Sandusky High School. The Broncos have averaged more than 260 yards passing per game, compared to just 56 yards on the ground. When they have rushed the ball, they’ve turned to RB Joe Glenn (35 carries, 122 yards, 1 TD). RB Rob Davis, who could see some action this week, returns from an injury after rushing nine times for 56 yards in the season-opener against Akron.

WESTERN MICHIGAN OFFENSE: The Broncos haven’t been shy about airing out their offensive game plan in 1987. QB Dave Kruse, a 6-5 transfer from Wichita State, has stepped in and completed 55-of-121 passes for 761 yards. In last week’s loss to Northern Illinois, Kruse passed 44 times, completing 26 for 325 yards; all three totals are WMU records. However, he has been intercepted nine times in three games, while throwing just one TD pass. His favorite targets have been SE Jamie Western’s Broncos, behind QB Dave Kruse, enter with a MAC-leading passing average of 263.7 yards. QB Rich Dackin has directed the BG offense to the No. 2 MAC average of 252.0 yards. Last week, he set a personal record by passing for 295 yards at Ball State. FB Ron Heard established his personal best with 131 receiving yards. SE Reggie Thornton continues to be BG’s leading receiver with 15 catches for 275 yards and one TD.

RUNNING BACK DERBY: No less than seven running backs have rushed the ball for the Falcons in the first three games this season. Last Saturday, TB Andre Smith put his best foot forward, rushing 13 times for 45 yards and a TD. That gives BG three tailbacks (Jeff Davis, Mike McGee and Smith) with rushing yardage, and a fourth Charles Edwardson — is expected to return to the active roster soon. Edwardson missed the first three games with a sprained knee.

SCHRINNER’S MOMENT IN THE SUN: Perhaps lost among the many offensive achievements in the BG-Ball State game was Ken Schrinner’s first career reception. It was a notable accomplishment, because Schrinner is BG’s starting center. In reacting to a ball that was deflected by a Ball State defender, Schrinner was credited with a four-yard reception, setting up a 20-yard field goal by Jason Zeller on the next play.

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB

The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which is the spring Recognition Reception honoring the College Coach of the Year, the High School Coach of the Year, and the Special Recognition Award Winner. Then in July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. More information will be forthcoming. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It's a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates. We're looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
• Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
• A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
• Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
• Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

More than 45 former Falcon football players have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, American Football League, World Football League, United States Football League or Canadian Football League.

Among them have been several players who have made significant contributions to their professional team - players such as Bernie Casey, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960s; Bob Reynolds, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker, an offensive end with the New York Giants; Phil Villapiano, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills; Mike Weger, a Detroit Lions defensive back and Dave Preston, an all-purpose back with the Denver Broncos.

Currently, several former Falcons dot the rosters of professional teams. They include defensive back Martin Bayless with the San Diego Chargers, center Doug Smith with the Los Angeles Rams, and John Park with the British Columbia Lions (CFL).

Two members of Bowling Green's Class of '87 were in NFL training camps this summer. Tight end Gerald Bayless was vying for a spot on the Cleveland Browns' roster, while offensive lineman Mike Estep was invited to the New York Jets' pre-season camp. A list of former Falcons and their professional experience follows:

Their names are familiar. Together, they dot the nation as football coaches at all levels of the game—high school, college, and professional football.

They belong to the Falcon's Nest of Coaches, an organization created in 1984 to promote the proud tradition of Bowling Green Falcon football. Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at Bowling Green, most of these coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They've studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of Warren Steller, Doyt Ferry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and Moe Ankney, to name a few. Today, they are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at Bowling Green, the Falcon's Nest of Coaches.

The Falcon Club of Bowling Green State University has been a driving force behind one of the nation’s most successful athletic programs for the last 23 years. Since its founding in 1964, the Falcon Club has helped Bowling Green athletes achieve success in both intercollegiate sports and academic endeavors.

Although the Falcon Club’s primary purpose is to provide financial support for the intercollegiate athletic program, members also enjoy a number of benefits and special programs. Among them are priority seating for football, basketball and hockey, pre- and post-game parties and luncheons, travel opportunities with Falcon teams, greens fees to be used at BGSU’s championship-caliber, 18-hole Forrest Creason Golf Course, and priority parking in Falcon Club lots.

This year, the Falcon Club has already held its annual “Meet The Team” cookout to usher in the 1987 football season, and visited State College, PA, for the Falcon soccer and football games, Sept. 4-5. Falcon Club members will soon be flying to Tucson, AZ, for the Oct. 3 BG-Arizona football game.

The Falcon Club today bears little resemblance to the fledging group of BGSU backers 23 years ago. For one thing, membership in 1964 amounted to 137 Falcon supporters. Today, the membership goal is 1,800.

During the late 1960s, the Falcon Club grew within the framework of the University’s Development Office, located at the time in the “Alumni House,” which today serves as the site of BGSU’s highly-acclaimed Popular Culture center.

Throughout its history, the Falcon Club has looked for ways to expand its scope. That expansion took on an entirely different meaning in 1983 when the Falcon Club of Toledo opened. A chapter in west-central Ohio serving the Lima and Wapakoneta areas followed in 1984. Another chapter opened that same year in the greater Cleveland area.

“Our annual membership drive got off to another great start last April with more than $149,500 raised in cash and pledges,” Nagle said. “We’re excited about our calendar of events for the 1987-88 year. We’ve already enjoyed the color and excitement of a soccer and football weekend at Penn State. Then, one week later, we had a full house for our first Friday noon luncheon of the 1987-88 year. And of course, our Falcon Club tent was filled with activity before and after our football home-opener.”

THE FALCON CLUB

TO ALL FALCON FANS:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $234,000 in 1987. This money will help fund athletic grant-in-aids, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1987 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU's athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green's athletic program, both men and women, is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1987-88 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1987!

Sincerely,

Charles F. Nagle
Assistant Athletic Director/Development

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

The Bulletin, published on Mondays by Durkee Publications, arrives in your mailbox at mid-week of each week. A one-year subscription for 24 big issues is only $20.00 ($18.00 for students and senior citizens).

Ham it up more often.
Dinner Bell ham is the all day meat.

Ham is about the only meat that appears regularly on breakfast, lunch and dinner menus. And ham is a favorite for picnics and snacks, too. So it's a good idea to keep it on hand. Make it Dinner Bell ham. Less waste. Easy to slice. And you get a lot for your money, so you can afford to be generous. That's important, because once your family gets a taste of Dinner Bell's gentle smoked flavor, they'll ham it up more often.

The Mark of a Champion

It's more than a decoration. It's a symbol representing the brand name responsible for innovative uniform design; a tradition culminating in the largest variety of fabrics, styles, and colors available anywhere.

It's also the sign of rugged construction and incomparable quality. But most of all, it's your guarantee—a seal that it is the finest team uniform money can buy.

Look for the “C.” It's the mark of a Champion. Contact the Champion Sales Representative listed for more information.

Bowling Green State University offers a range of educational opportunities expected in a large university, yet retains the personalized small school atmosphere of its early years.

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Today the University has nearly 750 full-time and 200 part-time faculty and 17,100 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology, and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master's degree programs and has 12 departments granting doctoral degrees in more than 40 specialty areas.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,100 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, including the chemistry department which recently announced the appointment of an Ohio Eminent Scholar in Photochemical Sciences.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research center, the Center for Environmental Programs, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1986-87 academic year, there were more than 2,500 "non-traditional" adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 4 million items, including 1.4 million volumes plus thousands of journals, periodicals, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 400,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed remodeling of West Hall, the former music building, to provide up-to-date facilities for the School of Mass Communication. Currently, Williams Hall, home to the history, sociology and political science departments, is undergoing major renovation. Also, numerous computer facilities have been installed and upgraded throughout campus. A $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building is expected to be completed in 1988 and reflects the growth of the College of Business Administration in recent years.
The president of a university must provide the vision and inspiration if the institution is truly to become a place of learning, and that is exactly what Dr. Paul J. Olscamp has been doing since becoming the eighth president of Bowling Green State University in 1982.

With an announced goal to "move Bowling Green into the ranks of nationally important universities," one of Olscamp's first efforts was to work with the faculty in developing a Role and Mission Statement, a 27-goal document aimed at improving and maintaining the physical environment and the faculty and its resources.

However, Olscamp knows that very few of the University's plans will materialize without adequate financing. While state appropriations can be counted upon for day-to-day operations, other kinds of resources must be tapped if Bowling Green is to enhance its position as a university.

Steps have been taken to insure an additional endowment of nearly $50 million by the year 2000.

One plan, authorized by the University's Board of Trustees in 1986 and approved by the Ohio Attorney General, will restructure debt service obligations and is projected to result in a $35 million principal in less than 15 years. Interest on that amount should provide more than $3 million annually to the academic budget.

In addition, in 1984 the Trustees, at Olscamp's request, created an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance of that fund is currently $5.5 million and, if left untouched, is expected to reach $7 million in approximately five years at which point the annual interest of about $1 million will be used to further support academic programs.

Also, Bowling Green has recently completed its most successful fund raising program in history. The 75th Anniversary Fund generated nearly $15 million for the University, topping the announced goal of $12.5 million by almost $2.5 million. These funds are being used for a variety of purposes including graduate and undergraduate scholarships, faculty research grants, library holdings and special equipment purchases.

Improving and maintaining the physical facilities are a University priority and Olscamp has been instrumental in securing nearly $34 million in state capital improvement funds for renovation and new construction projects.

Students have always occupied an important place on Olscamp's agenda and several moves have significantly improved student life at Bowling Green. One has been the installation of computer labs in all University residence halls and other campus locations, reflecting Olscamp's desire to make it convenient for all students to have a background in computer usage.

An installment payment plan enabling students to defer fee payments over the course of a semester has been popular as has been a legal services program, the first in Ohio to employ an attorney for students.

Increasing minority representation on campus has also been a major effort of Olscamp's administration. A newly-created Office of Minority Affairs provides services to assist minority students and a director of minority student recruitment was added to the admissions staff to bolster efforts to attract more minorities to campus.

The Bowling Green president has made it a point to work closely with state government officials and legislators. He has testified about the needs of higher education before several legislative committees and has been a leading spokesperson for improved operating and capital budgets for higher education in the state.

Olscamp has continued to emphasize the internationality of education and has made two trips abroad to further educational opportunities for University faculty and students. In 1983 he visited Bowling Green's study abroad programs in Spain, France and Austria.

In 1984 he traveled to China to strengthen existing exchange programs with universities in that country and to explore further opportunities for faculty and students to study in the People's Republic of China.

Olscamp brought further recognition to Bowling Green when, in 1987, President Ronald Reagan nominated him for a position on the board of the National Endowment for the Humanities, the federal agency designed to promote cultural programs and events in the United States. Other highlights of Olscamp's first five years at Bowling Green include:

- a record level of alumni support through 12 Ohio chapters and 20 in other states and an increase in alumni chapter scholarships from 2 in 1982 to 24 in 1987.
- creation of Bowling Green's first endowed professorships, one in management and the other in finance.
- the University's first $1 million gifts. The first, from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg, resulted in the McMaster Leadership Institute, which is expected to have a significant impact upon the ways that science-based industries maintain their position in business. The second was a challenge grant from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo to the University's Social Philosophy and Policy Center.
- development of a Photochemical Sciences Center, which is rapidly becoming the country's top center for the study of photochemistry, a multibillion dollar growth industry.
- appointment of an Ohio Eminent Scholar in Photochemical Sciences, the result of a $500,000 grant from the Ohio Board of Regents. The Eminent Scholar Program is designed to attract world class scholars to Ohio's campuses.
- membership for Bowling Green in the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges, the oldest university association in the country, comprising the nation's 143 best universities.
- creating NETWORK BG, a public service program using University expertise and facilities to aid area businesses, industries and organizations.

Born in Montreal, Olscamp received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Western Ontario in 1958 and 1960, respectively. In 1962 he earned his doctoral degree in philosophy at the University of Rochester.

Later that year he accepted a position as an instructor of philosophy at Ohio State University. In 1963 he was promoted to assistant professor and in 1966 was awarded the rank of associate professor. In 1969 he was named associate dean at Ohio State and a year later became vice president for academic affairs, dean of faculties and professor of philosophy at Rochester University.

He became executive assistant to the chancellor of Syracuse University in 1972 and later, vice chancellor for student programs.

At age 37, he was named president of Western Washington University in 1975 and guided that university for seven years before his appointment at Bowling Green.

He is married to the former Ruth Ilene Pratt, a native of Akron.

When, in the year 2000, historians look back upon the 80s have achieved a level of success cond look at the 1980s. Bowling Green sports teams at Bowling Green State University, they'll probably stop and take a se-

Bowling Green student-athletes distinguished themselves in numerous ways in 1986-87. Conference champions were crowned in ice hockey and women's basketball. The volleyball team set a school record for wins in a season, while the men's basket-

Baseball - Coach Ed Platzer's Falcons are consistent competitors. They have reached the Mid-American Conference Championship in each of the last six years, the most recent being the 1987 title. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles and have appeared in six NCAA Tournaments.

Women's Basketball - In just three seasons at BGSU, Coach Fran Voll has led the Falcons to the MAC Championship. BG posted a perfect 18-0 MAC record and a school-record 27-3 overall mark in 1986-87. The Falcons won the MAC post-season tournament title and gained an automatic berth in the NCAA Tour-

Gymnastics - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Kruse has produced some of college hockey's greatest names in the '80s. Eight former Falcons currently hold positions on NHL rosters.

Hockey - Bowling Green's finest hour in athletics oc-

Golf - Coach Greg Nye's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country. The BG men travel to Georgia and the Carolinas. Upon their return, the Falcons are well-prepared for tournament action in the region. BG has won four MAC Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 17 years. The Falcon women are one of this region's top teams. Last fall, BG won the Penn State Invitational.

Cross Country - Cross country at Bowling Green in the 1980s has been marked by the changing of the guard, as highly-respected Mel Brodt handed over the coaching duties to Sid Sink. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, has coached the BG women to four CC titles in seven years. Now, he's out to work his magic on the men.

Football - Bowling Green has earned the reputation of the MAC's winningest team of the 80s with a first-

Softball - The first six years of intercollegiate softball at Bowling Green produced 76 victories. Since then, Coach Gail Davenport has topped that total in just four seasons, including three straight 20-win campaigns. The 1987 season saw the Falcons post a near-.500 record with a relatively young roster. Pitching was the key, as three Falcon hurlers were ranked all season.

John C. (Jack) Gregory is in his sixth year as the director of athletics at Bowling Green State University. He was appointed to the position on July 15, 1982.

In Gregory's first five years at Bowling Green, the Falcons have enjoyed some of their finest moments in history, winning the 1984 national championship in ice hockey and claiming Mid-American Conference championships in numerous other sports, including two football championships, along with two trips to the California Bowl. In the last four years, Falcon teams have claimed league titles in ice hockey, football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's cross country and women's gymnastics. The women's basketball team is Bowling Green's latest MAC Champion, posting a perfect 16-0 conference record in 1986-87, winning the post-season MAC Tournament and participating in the NCAA Tournament.

Bowling Green achieved another notable accomplishment last year, finishing for the fourth time in the last five years third place or higher in the Jacoby Trophy standings. The Jacoby Trophy is awarded each year to the MAC school with the best overall record in women's sports.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school's 71 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the Mid-American Conference were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in college football. Behind his leadership, Gregory directed Bowling Green athletics through the period, making the Falcons one of the front-runners in achieving that goal.

During his tenure here, BGSU has proven to be a marketing and promotions leader in the MAC, as evidenced by record crowds in football and hockey. In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field under threatening skies to witness the annual college football classic between Bowling Green and Toledo. The school and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. The Falcon football team went on to set a season attendance record of 100,021, only to break that mark two years later, 1985, by drawing 112,110 for five home games.

Sell-out crowds for BG's hockey games have become the norm as well, making game tickets the hottest items in town during the winter. Gregory's leadership in the area of television has helped BGSU sports become a popular item in Northwest Ohio. BG football, basketball and hockey teams all attracted live television coverage the last year.

Gregory, 58, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and Lima areas, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College in Eastern Pennsylvania and holder of a master's degree in physical education from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director. While at Yale, he was responsible for generating income, managing the university's 33-sport program and supervising staff operations.

Gregory began his professional career in 1952 as a teacher and coach at William Penn High School in New Castle, Delaware, and later at P.S. Dupont High School in Wilmington, Delaware.

In 1959, he returned to East Stroudsburg as head football coach and assistant professor of physical education. One of the most successful coaches in the school's history, Gregory was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 1983.

After six years at East Stroudsburg, Gregory was named assistant football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, and in 1967, he was named head football coach at Villanova University. In 1969, he moved to the University of Rhode Island, where he served as head football coach for seven years.

In his 25 years on the high school level and at East Stroudsburg, Villanova and Rhode Island, Gregory's teams compiled a record of 132-69, including four undefeated seasons and seven league championships. He was twice selected as NAIA Coach of the Year, twice selected as Pennsylvania Coach of the Year and was named NCAA District Coach of the Year.

He was lured away from coaching in 1976 by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League. He served in Green Bay's player personnel department for three years before moving on to Yale. Jack and his wife, Peg, are the parents of two sons.
Maybe it's time you had one for your telecommunications system.

Imagine what it would look like if a football team decided to “wing it” out there on the field without a game plan. It would look pretty silly, wouldn’t it?

Well, that’s exactly what many companies do when it comes to planning and designing telecommunications systems. The results are costly.

That’s where we come in to play. You see, we can show you the most cost effective way to handle your information. No matter how unusual your needs are. In fact, we’re the telecommunications consultant to the Super Bowl and a number of NFL teams. We provide dozens of communication systems that enable the press to get their stories out, spotters to talk with their coaches, and stadium security to talk to each other.

If we can do all that, just think of what we can do for you.

Isn’t it time you had a game plan for your telecommunications system? Get in touch with us. Your GTE Account Manager will be glad to help you draw one up.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT NEWS

NCAA Takes Stand On Athletic Representatives

Dictionary-makers agree on the definition of representative. However, of late, the word has been interpreted differently at many colleges and universities across the United States.

To ensure that confusion does not reign, especially in the matter of recruiting prospective student-athletes, the National Collegiate Athletic Association has set hard-and-fast rules for: 1. Who athletic representatives are, and, 2. What they can and cannot do.

As of August 1, 1987, the NCAA has banned athletic representatives (see box below) from any involvement in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. That involvement includes on- or off-campus contacts by 1. personal visit, 2. correspondence, or 3. telephone calls.

Bluntly, the answer to all questions regarding the involvement of athletic representatives in the recruiting process is an unequivocal “NO.”

The new legislation does not prohibit “unavoidable incidental” contacts with prospects, their parents or friends. The contact would be “legal” provided that: 1. it is not pre-arranged by the representative or a member of the athletic department; 2. it is not made for the purpose of recruitment; and, 3. it is in the course of “normal civility.”

Bowling Green Intercollegiate Athletics urges all athletic representatives to comply with all NCAA regulations. If questions arise, please call the Bowling Green State University Athletic Department at (419) 372-2401.

NCAA Notes

Q. Who is an “athletic representative?”
A: ■ One who has made financial contributions to the athletic department (i.e., Falcon Club members).
■ One who has been asked by the athletic department, in the past, to assist in recruiting student-athletes.
■ One who has assisted or is assisting in providing benefits, such as providing job opportunities, to enrolled student-athletes.
■ One who is or has been involved in promoting the athletic program.
■ One who is a member of any agency or organization which is promoting the institution’s intercollegiate athletics program (Varsity BG Club, etc).

Q. Once an individual has been identified as an “athletic representative,” how long does he/she retain this identity?
A: Forever.

Q. Is Bowling Green State University responsible for the acts of athletic representatives and booster support groups?
A: Yes. Athletic representatives are governed by the same NCAA and University rules and regulations as those placed upon all institutional athletic staff members.

SENIOR CHALLENGE GIFT HELPS PROMOTE BGSU

When the graduating class of 1979 planned its Senior Challenge fund-raising campaign, class leaders wanted to make a bold statement to Interstate 75 travelers that they are passing by Bowling Green State University.

Today, eight years later, their statement has been made in big, bold orange and brown letters on the east side of Doyt L. Perry Field.

Last summer, $7,500 from the Senior Challenge program was used to help pay for the 6' x 8' "B G S U" letters and 10' x 10' Falcon emblem now positioned on the east side of the President’s Box.

Larry Weiss, associate vice president for university relations and director of alumni affairs, explains, "The Class of '79 wanted to help promote the University to the people driving by on I-75. We were very happy to work with the Athletic Department on the project. Hopefully, it will be of some benefit to the entire University, as well as to the Athletic Department."

Today's Halftime Show

1987 Falcon Marching Band

From the Falcon Marching Band, GREETINGS to all alumni, family and friends and WELCOME BACK to BGSU! The days have come and gone for most but the memories of college still linger in the minds of many. The Falcon Marching Band congratulates you and is honored to have you back amongst today’s football audience.

A special welcome is extended to the BGSU ALUMNI BAND! As they celebrate their 12th anniversary, we are quite excited to have them “take the field” in a joint commemoration of today's homecoming activities. The Alumni Band is “raring to go” and more than ready to show the present Marching Band... “how it really is -- and was done!”

From the ranks of the Alumni Band, guest conductors for today’s pre-game activities will be Mr. Bruce Misamore, President of the Alumni Band and Mr. Richard Smith, an 11-year member of the organization.

At the half today, please stay seated for not only the Falcon Marching Band, but also the Marching Broncos of Western Michigan University. The Falcon Marching Band will present for you a presentation focused around the “Old West” and the television/motion picture western.

Appropriately, the opening selection is a declamatory rendition of “How the West Was Won” followed by a spectacular arrangement of the theme from the motion picture, “The Cowboys”, which featured the legendary John Wayne. The band will close with a powerful version of the soulful lament, “Shenandoah.”

1987-88 BGSU CHEERLEADERS
among the MAC ERA leaders. Even more encouraging is the fact that all three return for the 1988 season.

SWIMMING - Success in swimming became synonymous with Bowling Green thanks to former coaches Sam Cooper and Tom Stubbs. Today's coaches are laying the foundation for a successful future. The Falcon women have made winning a habit. It began with the first MAC Championship in women's swimming in 1981. Ever since, BG has been the MAC runner-up. The men's team is working hard to make up ground on perennial MAC champion Eastern Michigan. They've finished in the top five at the MAC meet the last three years.

TRACK & FIELD - Bowling Green was represented at the 1987 NCAA Men's Track and Field Championship, thanks to distance runner Dave Mora. BG began the 1980s with at least one representative in the NCAA Championship for two consecutive years. Distance runner Sara Collins was Bowling Green's first NCAA qualifier for the women in 1986. The Falcons won the first MAC Championship for women's track in 1981. Sid Sink, coordinator of BG's track and cross country programs, and Tom Wright are both in charge of the men's team. Lee Lobbie directs the Falcon women.

VOLLEYBALL - Coach Denise Van De Walle's Falcon volleyball is climbing toward the top of the conference standings. Last fall, Bowling Green was the most improved team in the MAC. Van De Walle, the MAC Coach of the Year, guided her squad to a third-place finish in the conference, a sparkling 26-8 overall record and the championship at the University of Louisville Tournament. Outside hitter Jolynn Williamson was named first-team All-MAC, and setter Linda Popovich was the MAC Freshman of the Year.

TENNIS - Robert Keefe Courts have been the site of many top Mid-American Conference tennis matches in the 1980s. And the Falcon tennis teams have benefited from the fine facility. Men's Coach Bob Gill, now in his 20th year at BG, has recruited some top young players for the Brown and Orange. The women's tennis program hopes to improve under a new head coach in 1987-88.

Bowling Green holds the MAC record for single game attendance (33,527).

Doyt L. Perry Field, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 21st year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Field had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Field holds the conference records for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Field for the annual BG-Toledo game, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Field in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an all-time high 112,000, an average of 22,400.

Perry Field is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side is in the process of receiving a face-lift. This fall, a new physical fitness center/weight room is scheduled to open its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams to use.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic counselor's office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its eighth year of operation, the Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with one of the finest places to view a game in all of the midwest. The President's Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olszam and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won more than 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 67-35-2 record in the 104 games played at Perry Field.

Bowling Green posted a 4-1 record at Perry Field last season. Over the last five seasons, Bowling Green is 23-2 in the friendly confines of Perry Field.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Field has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments. Perry Field is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons.
Foyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to James Van Valkenburg, director of statistics for the NCAA, only two on the Division I-A list are above that figure—Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy at .864 (Boston College and Notre Dame).

Perry, 77, is as popular as ever in Bowling Green. An avid golfer, he spends his summers with wife Loretta in Florida. Each winter, he entertains his friends and former players at a golf outing. Former players and coaches return for the "Falcon's Nest of Coaches" meeting.

Known for his well-organized practices and attention-to-detail meetings, Perry never stopped thinking of ways to succeed. He was a winner in football and as a high school basketball coach. His basketball teams were 161-35 over nine seasons and his high school track teams won 70 county titles in nine years.

"First, I always tried to get the best assistant coaches possible," Perry would say. "Then we sought to eliminate mistakes as far as possible."

After stepping down as Bowling Green's head football coach in 1964, Doyt Perry remained as the BGSU Athletic Director for almost seven years.

Falcons Begin Defense Of CCHA Title

by John Farina
Assistant Sports Information Director

Bowling Green State University Head Coach Jerry York enters his ninth season behind the bench with an eye on defending the Central Collegiate Hockey Association Championship that the 1986-87 squad surged to during the second half of the season.

Along with 17 returning lettermen, York hopes to secure BGSU's fifth league title in the past seven years. However, the task won't be easy as key personnel losses from graduation and professional contract signings have made an impact on the BGSU team that posted an overall record of 33-10-2, including a 24-6-2 ledger in the CCHA which tied 1982-83 club for most wins in league action by a BGSU squad.

"The CCHA will be a tough league to forecast this season," York says. "We will start out the year trying to defend our championship, but that is tempered by the graduation losses of key players such as goaltender Gary Kruzich and left winger Ian Duncan. Adding to those losses are Paul Ysebaert and Brian McKee, both of whom had one year of eligibility left, to professional ranks."

Another factor that may determine how Bowling Green fares in 1987-88 is the upcoming Winter Olympics in Calgary, Alberta. There is a strong possibility that Paul Connell, Thad Rusiecki, and Scott Paluch, a 1987 Olympic Festival participant, will be looked to for leadership and consistency by the coaching staff. Juniors Alan Leggett, and Brent Regan, both have established themselves as dependable "defensive backliners" and should continue in that role. Sophomore Kevin Dahl, gained plenty of experience during his rookie campaign.

DEFENSE
(Lettermen Returning/Lost: 4/3)

The Falcons return four steady backliners headed by senior captain Scott Paluch. Paluch, a 1987 Olympic Festival participant, will be looked to for leadership and consistency by the coaching staff. Juniors Alan Leggett, and Thad Rusiecki, both have established themselves as dependable "defensive backliners" and should continue in that role. Sophomore Kevin Dahl, gained plenty of experience during his rookie campaign.

FORWARDS
(Lettermen Returning/Lost: 12/5)

The frontline shapes up as the Falcons' most solid area with outstanding players at all three positions. At left wing, BGSU will be led by senior Don Barber, Barber, an honorable-mention pick to the CCHA All-League team in 1986-87 finished third on the team in scoring with 63 points and ranks as the second leading returning goal scorer in the conference. Juniors Chad Arthur and Steve Dickinson both will be vying for a regular spot and could be solid contributors.

At center, sophomore Nelson Emerson was selected as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year after totaling 61 points on 26 goals and 35 assists. Junior Greg Parks is a sparkplug with his all-out style of play and is coming off a productive year that saw him net 50 points on 23 goals and 27 assists.

Senior Brian Meharry could give the center position a boost if he can come back from a knee injury that sidelined him for most of the 1986-87 season. Senior Brent Regan played left wing last year but will make the switch to center ice to utilize his fine skating ability.

At right wing, senior Andy Gribble is a solid performer and totaled 18 goals and 18 assists for 36 points last year. Senior Geoff Williams lends experience to the right side as do sophomores Marc Potvin and Joe Quinn. Senior Mark Lori has the potential to be a regular to the lineup if he can rebound from injuries that have hindered him.

NEWCOMERS

An impressive group of freshman players that includes a goalie, three defensemen and three forwards look to make an impact on the 1987-88 club. In goal, John Burke will likely see his fair share of action between the pipes. On the blueline, Rob Blake, Alex Herle, and Marc White all have bright futures. Up front, left wings Pierrick Maia and Matt Ruchty along with center Braden Shavchock all hope to find their niche in the Bowling Green system.
