ASC Secretary: Schedule of Duties

General:

-ASC budget/or area/org. number: 500 3031 (Check w. Chair to see how to handle this. I sent the information to Deb Burris, but she is no longer on ASC). You would use this budget number to pay for plaques, etc.

-Prepare monthly agenda by checking with Chair. Duplicate about 50 copies and bring to ASC meeting. Send a copy through e-mail to the ASC members plus any additional ones on mailing list. The agenda can be sent with the minutes of the previous ASC meeting. Usually send handouts from the meeting to individuals absent from the meeting.

-Take minutes of ASC monthly meeting, send paper copies to ASC members who do not have e-mail, taken from the list of ASC representatives and their constituents. The list serve for administrative staff council is ASC-REPS@listproc.bgsu.edu. The list serve for all administrative staff is ASC@listproc.bgsu.edu. Also, send a copy to Calvin Williams (calvinw@bgsu.edu) for the administrative staff home page. (I typed the minutes in Word, and pasted it to the e-mail to distribute to all administrative staff. I think that you can send the disc to Calvin and he can put it on the web page, and then send the disc back to you.) You can also send a copy to Ribeau, Dobb, USG, GSS, Faculty Senate, the Monitor, and the BG News (check w. Chair to make sure there are not duplicate mailings).

-Contact Marcia Buckenmyer (2-2558), Human Resources for mailing labels for administrative staff mailing labels (entire group) when needed. Right now the list is not in order. I would ask that she put the list by functional area. It is much easier to mail out. The labels are used mainly for elections (get 4 sets) administrative staff announcements (ex. spring and fall receptions), and any other special mailings. Allow at least 2 days.

-Track attendance at ASC meetings and notify members who miss two or more meetings (by about January) without sending a representative as per ASC attendance policy.

-Deb Wells, Computer services, maintains the listproc and will update it based upon e-mails from Human Resources. Joe Luthman, Computer Services, maintains the constituent list for ASC members. Human Resources should e-mail ASC secretary and others regarding staff changes throughout the year.

-Set up notebook for next year's meeting materials/correspondence. Contact the university archival collections office (Ann Bowers) to collect materials from two and three years ago. Keep last year's materials for review and resource during your year. The archival collections office will collect and maintain the secretary material for the Administrative Staff Council at the library.

-Make a data base of the ASC members to be used for mailing labels.

June:

-Prepare and send to all ASC members a schedule of the next year's meetings. This list was shared at the June ASC meeting and I will send it out on e-mail also. The list is complete only until Dec. 1999 because the Union will be undergoing renovation after that. Paul Lopez, the Chair, said he would let ASC know about the location of next year's meetings.

2

July:

- Make name cards for new ASC members. (This has been done). Check condition of existing ones and replace as necessary.

-Coordinate with chairperson the ordering of plaques for outgoing ASC chair and secretary to present at fall reception. In the past these have been ordered at the Copy Shop.

August:

-Design and distribute Fall Reception invitations to all administrative staff in early-mid August (mailing based upon when the reception is scheduled).

-Notify the Monitor of the Fall Reception.

-Send September meeting reminder and agenda (check with Chair) to all ASC representatives.

-Contact Marcia Buckenmeyer to see if the mailing labels can be grouped by functional area (student support, institutional support, firelands, academic departments, academic support, technology, athletics/sports and activities). It saves gobs of time when one has to get out the election ballots.

September:

Make room reservation for University Space Assignments for Spring Reception. Check: with Chair and ASC Executive Committee regarding date and location. Food/refreshments should be arranged with University Union/Catering.

October and November:

- Just responsible for taking notes at ASC meetings and attending Executive Committee meetings.

December:

-Based on the date of the reception, if a winter reception is held, need to design and distribute Winter Reception invitations to all administrative staff. Marcia Buckenmeyer can run off the mailing labels. The labels should be by functional area.

January:

-Make arrangements with University space Assignments for the entire next year for ASC meetings. Consult with ASC Executive Committee if the Union is off-line during the next year to seek input on other locations for the meetings (ex. College Park).

February:

-Determine from the membership list, determine how many ASC members are needed from each functional area for next year. Send out self-nomination ballots to all administrative staff asking them to indicate whether they would like their name to be included on the ballot for their respective area.

-Send a news release to the Monitor editor soliciting nominees for ASC.

March:

-Mid March send ASC ballots to administrative staff within the appropriate functional area.

Contact Secretary, Faculty Senate for university committee appointments (Diane Whiumire) that need to be filled. Send out self-nomination forms to all administrative staff listing committee choices based on that need.

April:

-Early April notify new members elected to university committees as well as the Secretary of Faculty Senate.

-Early April send news release to Monitor editor soliciting nominations for ASC officers. Also, consult ASC executive Committee for their input.

-Announce election results at the April ASC meeting and make last call for nominations for officers. Also, notify individuals elected by e-mail.

-Request officer from officer nominees to include on the election ballots.

-Mid-late April send out officer election ballots.

May:

-Mid-May send out election ballots to each functional area for Executive Committee.

-Invite and send agendas for June ASC meeting (and orientation at 12:30) to all new ASC members recently elected.

-Make arrangements to have certificates of appreciation for outgoing ASC members to be presented at the June meeting.

June:

-Announce at June meeting members of the ASC Executive Committee and new officers for the next year.

July:

-New ASC members begin their terms

-Pass secretary's notebook and materials to new secretary.
