WHY STUDENTS GO TO COLLEGE

As is the usual custom at the beginning of the college year, the first general assembly program of the year was conducted by President H. B. Williams as a welcome meeting to the students, an opportunity for important announcements and a period of admonition and inspiration. After a reading of the scripture which emphasized the virtue of neighborliness, the president took the very practical theme for his address, “Why Do Students Go To College.”

“The first I have noted,” said the president, “is a dilettante reason or, more clearly, the reason if gaining knowledge merely for the purpose of displaying it, or ‘showing it off.’ Not many students are attracted by such a selfish scholastic attainment anymore,” said the president, “and it needs very little consideration.”

The social reason for entering college was also discussed by the president. Many a student in the past has entered college to strengthen his social standing. Fraternity and sorority life makes a great appeal to some students and actually stand to them as the primary reason for entering college. To illustrate his contention that the social life of the student should receive careful consideration, the president described with more seriousness than levity the little

(KRYL BAND NUMBER

One of the most spectacular entertainments ever to be presented by the entertainment course of our college is that of Kryl and his band, scheduled for Thursday evening, October 5, in the Men’s Gym at 8:15 o’clock.

Kryl’s Band, the most famous in the world of music, consists of 32 pieces. There will be three solos by Anna Fitzer, soprano; Marie Kryl, pianist; and Bohumir Kryl, cornetist.

Kryl, a Bohemian, has been in America several years, and has played all over the country. He recently appeared at the World’s Fair in Chicago.

His numbers are only those of the highest class, and are unquestionably outstanding. This number is spectacular not only because of this marvelous band, but also because of the electrical and magnetic effect by Kryl’s playing and conducting.

Because of the large audience anticipated which will include many out of towners, this number is to appear in the Men’s Gym.

WOMEN’S LEAGUE PROGIDY

Those ideas for new rules which were carefully fostered and fondled in the minds of college women for so long, took form one day last November when some enterprising young ladies made out a list of proposed amendments to the old rules and quickly secured the names of a long list of petitioners for these amendments.

These ambitious young ladies presented their little pet to the Executive Board of the Women’s League, where it was examined by the expert critics and was declared to be an extraordinarily beautiful child. A few slight precautions were taken and his prescriptions were slightly altered.

The beautiful child, growing fast and becoming increasingly more popular, was given into the hands of our Dean of Women who found that the garments fit the beautiful one a little too loosely, and accordingly, they wrapped him more snugly, and restored him to his original sponsors, who it seems, in his absence, had allowed their enthusiasm for him to dwindle. The child, unabashed, made a second appeal, and found that love for him had really not grown cold, for he was warmly welcomed by the 429 girls who so enthusiastically voted, last Wednesday afternoon, to adopt him.

Thank you girls for your support, but remember—we now have new obligations. We must fulfill our duty to the beautiful one. We must protect him against any abuse which irresponsible people may wish to inflict upon him, and we must take care ourselves lest we offend him. He is our responsibility.

Article II, the General Rules of the Student Government Regulations, now are:

Sec. 1. Students going to their homes or other places for the night or week-end visits must obtain special permission from the Dean of Women or in her absence from a duly authorized officer of the League. They must fill out special permission cards before leaving and register the hour of their return. They must also take with them cards to be signed by their parents or by the person at whose home they visit. Women returning from night or week-end visits must be at their rooming places by 10:00 P. M.

Sec. 2. Freshmen must be at their rooming places by 7:00 P. M. in winter or 8:00 P. M. after spring vacation, except on Friday and Saturday evenings, unless special permission has been given by the Dean of Women.

Sec. 3. Freshmen may be granted special permission for social engagements during the week six times each semester. This

STUDENT CHURCH PREFERENCES

Do students still go to church? If they do not, at least the great majority show a church preference. The College is re-releasing some statistics this week which lists the church affiliations of the students. The church denominations are listed in order of their size.

NOT A GIRLS’ COLLEGE ANY MORE

They tell us when Bowling Green State College was in its pioneer days, it was largely a girls’ college. Many of the students took the elementary work at that time and there were very few boys enrolled. But look at us now; the enrollment to date shows us 284 fine, strong, good-looking young men. The girls are still in the majority with 581 of the most beautiful co-eds in the country. These figures show a balancing of the group which may be still more even in numbers as the College grows older.

A Good Sport

No matter for that—
He kept his temper
And swung his hat,
And cheered the winners—

And win the day.” —Selected chapel in the Women's Building at the University of Michigan which was built for the purpose of recognizing the marriage impulse which sometimes ripens within the student body. The president displayed an enthusiastic interest in the social problems of the college student.

Dr. Williams discussed a selected group who are drawn to college largely because of a desire to extend their athletic accomplishments. This activity has been so prominent in colleges that some students and even some colleges have allowed a commercial interest to color the intercollegiate sports. Although this practice has cropped out only occasionally, the president felt that the great majority of athletes enter college athletics through their love of the game and very often to contribute something to the college.

Probably the most common reason mentioned why students have gone to college in late years is the vocational or professional interest. The two year course leads directly to employment in a short time. Special courses in Music, Art, Home Economics, Commercial work and Physical Education have grown in size and interest in the last decade or two. The Liberal Arts Course has given a strong foundation for the professions. These courses have practical value to the student for they move toward some specific line of work.

"Some students go to college," the president said, "to enter into a richer life. One can not study systematically and move about in a high-minded college group for several years without being lifted into a more cultural and inspirational atmosphere. This after all is the great value of going to college."

"The state believes in urging students to enter college," the president concluded. "It is spending over $5,000,000 this year to run its institutions of higher learning. It believes that citizenship will be improved by a student's attendance in college whether his aim is to increase an honest earning capacity, to enrich his appreciations of the finer values of life or to learn to think more effectively."

Lester (Bus) Perry has a very good teaching position in Logan, W. Va. and reports he is enjoying his work immensely. As a loyal B. G. man, he also adds that he misses not being back in college this fall.

Can you imagine a Junior thinking a Senior a Freshman and demanding the college song? Me too!

Final World's Fair Tour
Planned For Oct. 26-29

A request has been made for a final trip to the World's Fair at Chicago. The logical time for this will be in the last week of October, since schools will be dismissed on Friday, Oct. 27 for teachers to attend the N. W. Ohio Teachers' association, as well as for the N. E. Ohio Teachers' Association.

By leaving B. G. late on the afternoon of Oct. 26, the party arrives in Chicago the same evening. This will give 3 full days for attending the Fair, and a special sight-seeing tour of Chicago.

One of the leading transcontinental bus companies has given us a remarkably low party rate which will make it possible to offer the round trip to Chicago (from Bowling Green, Toledo, or other nearby points) for only $5.00 if 30 or more go.

The "eats" while in Chicago need not cost more than in Bowling Green. An attractive, inexpensive place is available for the party.

Since the Great Fair closes on Oct. 31, this will be a last chance to attend.

The number of bus reservations remaining is decidedly limited; and anyone desiring to go should see W. P. Holt (Room 303S) at once, or this last chance may be lost.

HOCKEY SEASON TO OPEN

Hockey, the popular out-of-door fall sport for B. G. co-eds will start, October 9. If you do not know how to play don't let that keep you away because instructions will be given to all new players.

Sign on the physical education bulletin board October 4, to-day, if you wish to become a member of the team. Don't hesitate, go now and sign.

Instructions start October 9, so be there! The point system for hockey will be explained, come out and learn how to get an extra one hundred points toward your B. G. sweater.

It must be nice to be a professor, taking a taxi to school. That's another aspiration for Freshmen to adopt!

We nature students ought to be glad for the squirrels on our campus. (Pardon, please! That isn't sarcasm, that's gratitude!) Watch cut, all you nuts!

Well, girls, we had hot and cold, rain and sun. It's been great weather for a dress parade, and we've surely had one.

My Salary
The hours I spend with thee, dear "Man",
Are few, indeed, it seems to me;
I count you over, every one apart,
My salary! my salary!

Oh hello, that is so poorly paid?
Oh salary, spent before we greet?
I kiss each dime, and strive in vain to find
A way to make ends meet—
Alas, to make ends meet!

-Millie: "Your boy friend was here last night and he left in a huff."
-Vic: "Yeah? Whose car was it?"

Teacher: "Willie, do you mean to say that you can't name all the presidents we have had. When I was your age I could name them all."

-Willie: "Yes, but there were only three or four then."

FRESHMAN WEEK

The innovation of freshman week has so many advantages over the program for the first week of former years that the old program is not likely to be revived. The new plan permits students of all classes to register without standing in line through long, tedious hours. For the freshmen it serves other useful purposes. They need at the outset to locate the various buildings and to get some idea of what each building is for. They need instruction in the use of the library. They need to locate the different gymnasiums, playgrounds, study
rooms, offices, music rooms, art rooms.

Doubtless thousands of residents of Toledo have never been inside of the art mus-cum of that city because they have no idea of what a wealth of beautiful objects are there, thousands of others because they do not know that they would be welcome there.
It is so in every large city with respect to its museums, whether they are devoted to art, archaeology, industry or natural history. In like manner many students spend years at a university without seeing as much as some visitors see of departments other than the particular one in which they are registered. At this college students have attended classes for many weeks in the Science Building with no idea of what wonderful things are to be seen on the fourth floor of that building.

The reception for the freshmen served to introduce them to faculty and students.
Having made a few acquaintances at col-ge, they are not likely to become dishearttened so soon, or to long for an opportu-ity to return to their homes, as some would do if they were left alone with no one to talk to.

Most useful of all was the meeting in the assembly room Tuesday morning with the talks by the president and deans. We do not agree with those persons who think that young people are always opposed to listening to advice. A large part of the students at this college are sensible enough to appreciate advice from persons who are capacible of giving it. The advice that was given on this occasion should certainly be helpful. How many a freshman, in spite of good intentions, has done poor work in one or more of his studies because he failed to budget his time! How many have failed to do well in any subject because they allow-ced their time to be frittered away in talking about other things than their studies!
Only last week a student, who with a studious roommate is boarding herself, told me that she is now able to accomplish more because she is not disturbed in her work
as she was in a former year by the noise in a certain dormitory. We realize the value of acquiring the power of concentration so as to work calmly in the midst of confusion. Nevertheless we believe the best work can be done where there are no distractions.
Steinmetz, the electrical wizard whose inventions contributed to the success of The General Electric Company, used to solve his difficult problems in the quiet of a solitary cabin on the edge of a pond and at other times in a boat on the pond. Both the cabin and the boat may now be seen at Henry Ford's Greenfield Village at Dearborn, near Detroit. At the same place may be seen the laboratory of Thomas Edison, whose wonderful inventions would probably have been less numerous had not deafness
by insulating his brain from the outside world permitted more intense mental concentration. Herbert Spencer, the most prolific thinker of the Victorian Age, used to plug his ears with cotton. Joseph Pulitzer, long the most distinguished editor of the American metropolis, found quiet on a yachtime at sea, while still managing "The World".

SHOWS! YES OR NO?

The resuming of classes has begun again,
which means plenty of brain work on the part of the student. It is well known fact that too much work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. We must have other brain food, rather than just books. Last year we were able to attend a movie at least once in a while, but can and will we be able to afford it this term?

We, the student body speaking, have found that 30 cents is a lot of money for a show. Did we not patronize the theatre last year. We are hopefully looking forward for the coming of the coupons as a means of helping the students attend shows. We thank you.

OUR LIBRARY

What do you think is the busiest place in the whole college? The answer that pops from your mouth is doubtlessly the same as mine—the library. Which way would we turn without it?

The library is admirably adaptable to study purposes as well as to reference purposes. The large reading room is very well lighted and is equipped in a fine way. Besides being useful, it is a work of beauty. Did you ever notice the beautiful paintings and the extraordinary lovely ceiling? Then, too, in the reading room, silence reigns supreme, so that the studious may study, the dreamer may dream, and the merry maker may make his way out, the sooner the better for him. You will also find newspapers here—the Daily Sentinel Tribune, of course, the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and the Columbus Dispatch. Many magazines, professional, literary, and political, may be found in the rack at the desk. On the shelves around the room you will see special reference books, such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, Who's Who, etc. If you wish an ideal place to study don't overlook the reading room.

The library has excellent material on many subjects. However, there seems to be an especially abundant quantity in the fields of education, history, and literature. By the way, if you are unable to ferret out just the thing you desire, the librarians will very graciously aid you.

Oh yes, you say, but you haven't even mentioned the busiest place, the reference room. No, my dear reader, you already know about it. All the profs must give us assignments from books we just can't seem to get, in the reference room. Have patience, for in time, the books always turn up, to have and to hold for an hour. After all's said and done, the library is a mighty efficient place. Let's get into the swing of it now, and use it, don't abuse it, for what could we do without it?

White man's stolen the red man's lard,
Where Lo once was he ain't,
But the college youth retains his yell
And the flapper has her paint.

QUILL TYPERS CLUB
HELD FIRST MEETING

Quill-Type helds its initial meeting of the year Wednesday, Sept. 25. After a short business meeting presided over by President Lyle Beek, a program was presented. "The Magic of Personality" was the subject of a talk given by Mr. Beek. Miss Clingaman gave a reading entitled "Abbie Appleton Account." Two papers, "Interesting News Items" and "Experiences at the World Fair", were read by Miss Windle and Miss Barckert. The program was concluded with a piano solo by Miss Filliere.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 4.

With all due dignity and composure, the members and prospective members of Emerson Literary Society will convene in their time-honored assembly, Room 103 A, tonight at seven o'clock.

At this first meeting of the year, the temporary chairman, Allan Ingalis, will welcome the group. There will be an explanation of the purposes of Emerson, and nomination of officers for the semester. The following purposes of Emerson, and nomination of officers for the semester. The remaining time will be spent in parliamentary practice.

Emerson is an organization for all students of the college who are interested in its work. The members are interested in learning to present their ideas with poise, dignity and confidence. Meetings vary in type from debates and mock-parent-teacher meetings to taffy pulls and picnics. Much benefit and amusement is derived from the parliamentary drill. Dues are twenty-five cents.

PI KAPPA DELTA

Pi Kappa Delta held its first meeting of the year last Thursday. At that time plans were begun for a wide variety of activities to be sponsored by the organization throughout the school year. In a very short time an announcement will be made which will be of interest to the entire student body, so be watching for it!

Jack: "My idea of a good wife is a woman who can make good bread."

Ginger: "To give the Scotchman a chance honestly. I have constant advice from my wife and mother-in-law."

Jack: "I've a great mind to rock the boat and frighten you."

Ginger: "Do you know why there is a caution light in the stop sign?"

Dr. Kohl (to wife): "When I looked at my account last night I nearly died of fright. Our motor car is costing us over eight hundred dollars a year!"

W. A. A. GAMES

The yearly program of games and activities for women, sponsored by the W. A. A. is already well under way. It began with Tennis Week, Sept. 25th to 30th. During the course of the week all beginning players who wished to learn the fundamentals of tennis received instructions in that game under the direction of Genevieve Swain, W. A. A. Head of Tennis for the coming year. All experienced players are also urged to come out for tennis, listing the sets they play on a chart to be found on the Physical Education Bulletin Board in order to receive W. A. A. points for them. Plans are also being made for a series of tennis tournaments for women to take place this fall.

This week, Oct. 2nd to 7th, will be devoted to instruction in archery. Mary Karshner has charge of that sport. Hockey and soccer under the direction of Ruth Andrews, Head of hockey, and Dorothy Zieg, Head of soccer, will be the principal activities of the following week, Oct. 9th to 14th. Any women students who wish to participate in archery, hockey, or soccer should sign their names on the papers posted for that purpose on the Physical Education Bulletin board. Those who wish to play hockey will report on Monday and Wednesday of Hockey week at four o'clock in Gym A. Soccer players will report on Tuesday and Thursday of the same week.

Other W. A. A. officials who will carry on the year's program are: Ione Blessing, president; Elizabeth Frost, vice-president; Linda Dill, secretary; Winifred Stone, treasurer; Mable Graner, social chairman; Helen DeTray, Head of Volley Ball and Hiking; Virginia Pollock, Head of Base-ball; and Millicent Gambier, Head of Track.

The Head of Basketball activities has not yet been elected.

The first regular meeting of the W. A. A. will be on the evening of Oct. 4, in Gym A. All women students who are interested are invited to come. The W. A. A. is also sponsoring an all-college dance in the Men's gym, October 7.

A fighting Bowling Green eleven was defeated 7-6 by the aggressive “Mounts” of Mount Union here Saturday. B. G. just couldn’t get started in the first half. They seemed to lack the “punch” that was needed. In the second half however the Falcons showed plenty of prospects and should develop into a formidable eleven before the season is over.

From start to finish the shift-ball-carriers of the “Mounts” eluded the high tackling Falcons. Early in the first quarter Shadle ran loose for a 27 yard gain to Bowling Green’s three yard line, where he dashed through tackle for a touchdown. Doerler then kicked the extra point which proved to be the winning margin.

In the second quarter Mount Union scored twice but was called back each time on penalties. Phillips finally threw Windland for a loss and B. G. took the ball on downs. Murray kicked out of danger as the half ended.

The third quarter found the Falcons holding their own against the “Mounts”. After an even exchange of punts between Murray and Elliott, B. G. gained possession of the ball. Lowell and Murray plunged, and then Murray faked back and threw a long pass to Shupe, who, guarded by good interference, raced for a touchdown. Murray and Elliott, B. G. gained possession for a loss and B. G. took the ball on downs.

The last quarter was fought on fairly even basis. The ball was in midfield when the gun sounded.

The outstanding player of the day was Shadle, a fleet Mount Union half-back. For B. G. Murray, Schaller and Lowell played very good ball while the tackling of Phillips was reliable. Shupe played fairly well but did not come up to expectations.
