FALCONS OPEN MAC SCHEDULE AT HOME vs. BALL STATE

The Bowling Green Falcons (0-1) will look for their first win of the 1989 season, when the Ball State Cardinals (0-1-1) visit Doyt L. Perry Field for a 1:30 p.m. contest, today.

It will be BG’s 1989 home-opener and the Mid-American Conference opener for both teams. It will also be Welcome Back To School Day at Perry Field.

Coach Moe Ankney’s Falcons dropped their season-opener last Saturday at East Carolina, 41-6. For the Falcons, it was their ninth-straight loss on the road. But fortunately, the Falcons play their next three games at home, where they have compiled a 23-6-1 record (.783) over the last six seasons. BG was 2-2-1 at Perry Field last season.

The Ball State Cardinals were 34-10 winners over the Falcons last season at Perry Field. Ball State is still looking for its first win of the ‘89 season after a 35-10 loss at West Virginia and a 31-31 tie at Rutgers.

BOWLING GREEN COACH MOE ANKNEY:
Moe Ankney (BGSU ’64), the 13th head coach at Bowling Green, is 12-22-1 overall in his fourth season at BGSU. His teams have an 11-12-1 mark in the Mid-American Conference. Ankney has a 1-2 record in home-openers and a 2-1 record in MAC-openers.

BOWLING GREEN OFFENSE:
It was the season-opener, so, as expected, there were some inconsistencies to iron out. The Falcons had hoped to strike a better balance between run and pass, but after falling behind 16-0 early in the second quarter, BG took to the air while trying to rally. As a unit, the offense pro-

Now in his fourth year as head football coach at Bowling Green State University, Howard M. (Moe) Ankney believes the future of Falcon football will be as bright as its past.

"Bowling Green football is strong, and Bowling Green football is respected across the country," Ankney says. "When our players put on the Bowling Green uniform, they are eager to go out and uphold that winning tradition."

Hanging on his Doyt L. Perry Field office wall is a framed list of five objectives. Meet these goals, Ankney tells his players, and Bowling Green will maintain its reputation as one of the top two Mid-American Conference football programs of the 1980s.

—BOWLING GREEN FOOTBALL GOALS—
1. Each player earn a college degree
2. Continue the winning tradition
3. Beat Toledo
4. Win the California Raisin Bowl
5. Each player become the best that he can be as a student, as an athlete and as a person.

With these goals in mind, Ankney will lead his Falcon football team into the 1989 season, the 71st season in the long history of intercollegiate football at BGSU.

Appointed as the University’s 13th head football coach on December 30, 1985, Ankney has coached the Falcons to second-place finishes in the MAC twice in the last three years. BG finished second in 1986 and second in 1987, before struggling to an uncharacteristic eighth-place finish last season.

Ankney has a 12-20-1 overall record at BGSU, a record that reflects the challenging non-conference schedule Bowling Green has played the last three seasons. BG lined up against a defending national champion one year, and then a team that played for the national title the next. In 1986, the Falcons visited Minnesota and Washington. In 1987, it was Penn State and Arizona. And last season, West Virginia and Texas Christian were confronted. The Falcons will be challenged again outside of the MAC in ’89. BG opens at East Carolina and closes the season at Tulsa. In between, the Falcons host Akron at Perry Field.

Ankney, a 1964 BGSU graduate, returned to his alma mater after serving six seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Arizona. In helping to rebuild struggling programs.

Ankney was Smith’s defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Tulane, Ankney helped the Green Wave from a 2-9 record in 1976 to a 9-2 mark and a berth in the Liberty Bowl in 1979. The Arizona Wildcats were 5-6 in 1980 and improved their record to 8-3-1 in 1985, including a 13-13 tie with Georgia in the Sun Bowl. His Arizona defensive units finished among the nation’s statistical leaders from 1982-85.

Among his former players in the National Football League have been Denver Broncos linebacker Ricky Hunley and Cleveland Browns defensive back Al Gross. More than 20 of his former players have gone on to careers in professional football. At Bowling Green, Ankney has coached Kyle Kramer, a fifth-round draft pick by the Browns, as well as several others who have signed free agent contracts.

Ankney entered the coaching profession at the high school level. He was an assistant football and wrestling coach at Eaton High School for the 1964-65 seasons and then became head coach at Dayton Northridge in 1966. He moved on to Dayton Wayne High School as head coach in football and tennis in 1967 and stayed until 1971 when he joined the Ball State staff. His five-year head coaching record in the high school ranks stands at 24-21-5. While coaching in the Dayton area, Ankney earned his master’s degree from Miami University in 1969.

Ankney, 47, a native Ohioan, grew up in Xenia before moving to Kettering as a high school senior. A 1960 Fairmont High School graduate, he was an all-state quarterback and lettermen two under legendary Coach Doyt Perry. The Falcons went 23-5-1 from 1961-63.

While an undergraduate, Ankney earned election to Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, an education honorary.

Ankney was reared in a football family. His uncle Pete was his head coach at Fairmont High School. Pete Ankney also was a head coach at Canton McKinley High School and at the University of Dayton.

Moe and his wife, Carlalee, are the parents of two daughters (Angela, 26, and Molly, 21), a son (Andy, 24), and two grandchildren (Ashley, 3, and Bryce, 1).

Howard Milton Ankney was born June 23, 1942.

Founded in 1946, the Mid-American Conference is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the ACC, Big 10, Big Eight, Big West, PAC-10, SEC, SWC, and WAC.

The MAC consists of nine state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The nine current members—Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University—have all been members of the conference for 15 or more years.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men’s sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women’s athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women’s championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

In the 43-year history of the conference, numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition. Bowling Green was recognized as the national college division champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second longest such streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years, among the non-conference victims of MAC teams are opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

The 1989 MAC Champion will represent the conference against the champion of the Big West Conference in the California Raisin Bowl on December 9 in Fresno, CA.

MAC schools have a reputation for developing outstanding coaches. In last year’s Fiesta Bowl which pitted Notre Dame against West Virginia for the national championship, it was Kent graduate Lou Holtz against Bowling Green graduate Don Nehlen. On the same day in the Rose Bowl, Miami graduate Bo Schembechler directed his Michigan team to victory over Southern Cal coached by Bowling Green graduate Larry Smith. Among other current or former head coaches who played at and/or coached at MAC schools are Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, Don James, Paul Brown, Bill Mallory, Dave McClain, Don McCafferty, Weeb Ewbank, Frank Lauterbur, John Pont and two of the three 1986 inductees into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame: Doyt Perry and Jack Mollenkopf.

Among current NFL players from MAC schools, Dolphins’ linebacker Don Offerdahl (Western Michigan) was the 1986 Rookie of the Year, Rams’ center Doug Smith (Bowling Green) is a Pro Bowler and 12-year veteran; Bengals’ defensive back Robert Jackson (Central Michigan) is the senior member of the five former Chipewas in the NFL; and defensive lineman Brent Williams (Toledo) is a rising star with the Patriots.

After concluding successful NFL careers, Bernie Casey (Bowling Green) and Tim Brown (Ball State), two former standouts at current MAC schools, went to Hollywood and have made numerous television and movie appearances.

MAC student-athletes are regularly selected to the GTE Academic All-America teams. In the last six years alone, MAC student-athletes have received Academic All-America honors 82 times. Since the Academic All-America program was established 20 years ago, MAC football players have earned that distinction 38 times. Five of the 48 Division I football players honored on the 1988 Academic All-America team were from MAC schools.

DOYT PERRY
1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by Doyt Perry, the former player, coach and administrator at Bowling Green State University.

In January of '88, he learned that he would be an inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame.

In October, when Bowling Green hosted Miami at Doyt L. Perry Field, the man in whose honor the stadium was named was there for a special on-campus presentation by the National Football Foundation.

In December, Perry was in New York for the Foundation's Hall of Fame Dinner. He was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame at Kings Island, OH, this past June.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back almost 60 years when, as a student, he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, OH, native received his degree in 1932 and began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant football coach at Ohio State University in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1955. The next 10 years, he led the Falcons to a 77-11-5 record for a winning percentage of .855, topped only by Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy of Notre Dame. His teams won five MAC Championships and the national college division championship in 1959.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director for six years, developed such outstanding coaches as Jim Young of Army, Bill Mallory of Indiana, Don Nehlen of West Virginia, Larry Smith of Southern California, the late Dave McClain of Wisconsin and Bowling Green's own Moe Ankney.

When the Bowling Green Falcons' offense is on the field this season, it would be wise to stay seated and pay close attention.

With a healthy Rich Dackin returning along with standout wide receivers Reggie Thornton and Ronald Heard, the BG offense possesses big play potential in 1989.

For those who choose not to watch closely, the penalty may be missing an explosive BGSU touchdown.

"Reggie Thornton and Ron Heard can make big plays at any time," head coach Moe Ankney said. "They have the ability, speed, and striking power to make big plays during a game."

Thornton gained first team All-Mid American Conference honors a year ago after leading the team with 41 receptions for 569 yards. The 5-11 senior from Detroit is a two-time All-MAC performer and has caught 108 passes in a Falcon uniform. Now he is ready to make his final year one to remember.

"Being my senior year, I feel I have to provide leadership," he said. "I realize I can't do everything perfect, but I'm going to try."

Heard, a 5-10 senior, was on the receiving end of 35 catches for 622 yards in 1988. The Detroit native's 94-yard touchdown reception against Ohio University was the second-longest in school history. His 144 yards on four catches in the OU game was also the MAC's second-highest single game total in '88.

Heard, who is among the MAC's best sprinters and long jumpers in track and field, said knowing each other's abilities is a key to the success of the passing game.

"Rich, Reggie, and I know each other very well," he said. "It's like second nature for us three."

The product of Lima Bath High School plans to return to the form of his sophomore season, when he passed for 2,211 yards and 13 touchdown passes. Dackin completed 57.3 percent of his passes in 1987.

"I feel that I'm ready to go at full speed," Dackin said. "The receivers we have on this team are probably the best in the conference, and this year I feel we're going to be strong and play as a unit."

While the trio of Thornton, Heard, and Dackin will provide the big play punch, sure-handed tight end Kyle Hockman returns to the Falcon line-up for his senior campaign. He caught 37 passes in 1987 and 33 a year ago, ranking him ninth in the conference pass receiving category both years.

Hockman, like Heard, excels in a different sport each spring. As a first baseman and left fielder on the Falcon baseball team, Hockman earned second team All-MAC honors in 1989 after hitting 10 home runs and batting .301.

So, Falcon fans, keep your eyes fixed on these and other talented offensive performers. The ball will most definitely be in the air.

(Continued from page 2) while trying to rally. As a unit, the offense produced 172 yards through the air, but only 57 yards rushing. Senior quarterback Rich Dackin was effective on occasion, completing 17 of 37 passes for 143 yards. He was intercepted twice. Freshman tailback LeRoy Smith paced the Falcon running backs with 26 yards on 10 carries. But it was flanker Ronald Heard who made the most noise with 111 yards on 17 carries, including a 51-yarder with time running out that gave the Cards a 31-31 tie at Rutgers.

—BG—

BOWLING GREEN DEFENSE: Up against the speed and quickness of East Carolina, the Falcon defense was chasing Pirates all night long. BG allowed 401 yards rushing and 111 yards passing. It was the highest rushing total by a Falcon opponent since Iowa State rolled up 428 yards in 1979. Inside linebacker Duane Crenshaw made nine solo tackles and assisted on three others. He also made his first career interception, as did safety Mike Holmes. Other Falcon defensive leaders were tackle Paul Harris with 11 tackles, tackle Steve Wilbourne with 11 and safety Terry Wilson with 10.

—BG—

BALL STATE OFFENSE: The emergence of senior quarterback David Riley as one of the MAC’s top passers has been a bonus for the Ball State offense. Riley has completed 32 of 61 passes for 410 yards this season against West Virginia and Rutgers. His favorite targets are flanker Sean Jones (nine catches, 202 yards), tailback Adam Wilson (eight, 87) and tight end Eugene Riley (eight, 75). Wilson is the Cardinals’ No. 2 rusher with 81 yards on 32 carries. Junior tailback Bernie Parmalee (27 rushes, 103 yards) is Ball State’s rushing leader. The Cards’ third-down efficiency mark is very good (17-26, 65.4 percent). Placekicker Kenny Stucker has converted on seven of nine field goal tries, including a 51-yarder with time running out that gave the Cards a 31-31 tie at Rutgers.

—BG—

BALL STATE DEFENSE: You can excite the Cardinals for allowing over 30 points against both West Virginia and Rutgers. They’ve seen some pretty good competition. Statistically, the Cards are allowing 209.5 yards per game on the ground and 262 yards passing. Yet, the Ball State defense has not been overworked. Cardinal opponents have had the ball almost 20 minutes less than the Ball State offense. Senior linebacker Greg Garlick and junior safety Sean Turner are both averaging more than 10 tackles per game. Defensive end Toby Beegle (9.0 TPG) and safety David Haugh (6.5) are right behind.

—BG—

HEARD THIRD, THORNTON SIXTH IN CAREER RECEIVING YARDS: Senior flanker Ronald Heard moved into third place, while senior split end Reggie Thornton is in sixth place on BG’s career receiving list. With his 103 receiving yards at East Carolina, Heard now has 1,678 yards on 97 catches at BG. Thornton is not far behind with 1,592 yards on 110 catches.

—BG—

ZELLER CLIMBS TO THIRD IN CAREER FIELD GOALS: With his two field goals of 36 and 37 yards at ECU, Jason Zeller notched his 28th and 29th career field goals as a Falcon. That moved him past John Spengler (1977-80) and into third place on BG’s all-time list. Zeller was named BG’s Special Teams Player of the Game for his effort at EOU.

—BG—

THE POE DITCH RAT: No, it’s not the latest dance. Nor is it the hottest band from England. The “Poe Ditch Rat” is the name of a series of plays that the Falcon offense employed for the first time at East Carolina. It features two wide receivers and slot back positioned on one side of the field and another wide receiver, a slot back and four offensive linemen on the other side. Only the long snapper and quarterback are lined up inside the hash marks. The all-pass scheme led to a field goal in the first half, before being stopped by an interception in the second half.

—BG—

NOTABLE STARTS: Along with freshman tailback LeRoy Smith and sophomore defensive tackle Paul Harris, several other Falcons saw action for the first time at ECU. Among them, QB Eric White completed three of nine passes for 29 yards. Split end Mark Szaichcik caught three passes for 24 yards. Long snapper Chris Henwood was perfect in punt, field goal and “Poe Ditch Rat” formations.

—BG—

FALCON TRI-CAPTAINS: Three seniors will serve as tri-captains this season for BG. QB Rich Dackin, linebacker Larry Lambright and safety Mike Holmes were selected in a vote by their teammates last week.

“Convenience at its best”
Their names are familiar, because they have made an impact on football at all levels of the game — high school, college, and professional.

They belong to the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches, an organization created in 1984 for the purpose of promoting the proud tradition of Bowling Green Falcon football. Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at Bowling Green, most of these coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They’ve studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of Warren Steller, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and Moe Ankney, to name a few. Today, they are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at Bowling Green State University, the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches.

More than 50 former Falcons have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, American Football League, World Football League, United States Football League or Canadian Football League.

Among them have been several players who have made significant contributions to their professional teams: players such as Bernie Casey '61, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960s; Bob Reynolds '63, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers '67, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker '51, an offensive end with the New York Giants; Phil Villapiano '71, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills; Mike Weger '67, a Detroit Lions defensive back; and Dave Preston '77, an all-purpose back with the Denver Broncos.

Currently, several former Falcons dot the rosters of professional teams. They include All-Pro center Doug Smith '78 with the Los Angeles Rams and defensive back Martin Bayless '84 of the San Diego Chargers. A 10-year NFL veteran as a player, Bob Schnelker '51 is in his 27th season of coaching in the NFL. He has been offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings since 1986. Ron Blackledge '60 is in his eighth year as offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

New to the NFL scene is Kyle Kramer, a fifth-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns earlier this year.

Three former Falcons have been drafted as high as the second round — Bernie Casey by San Francisco (1961), Bob Reynolds by St. Louis (1963), and Phil Villapiano by Oakland (1971). Mark Miller was BG's only third-round pick (by Cleveland, 1978). Martin Bayless was tabbed in the fourth round by St. Louis (1984). And like Kramer, Jamie Rivers was selected in the fifth round by St. Louis (1967).

A list of former Falcons and their professional football experience follows:

What’s Cooking On Campus?

BGSU Office of Public Relations

To any parent who has faced finicky kids at the dining room table, the job of feeding the more than 8,000 hungry students who live on campus might seem overwhelming. But not for Jane Schimpf and her able staff in Food Operations.

Crowd-pleasing food is the norm at Bowling Green State University, which has achieved a wide reputation for the quality of its food service. In fact, the University has its own award-winning restaurant, Berries, which has been honored by the National Association of College and University Food Services for its menu and concept.

Sixty-thousand meals are served on campus during a typical week, says Schimpf, who is director of food operations. With the responsibility for serving more than one million meals each year, she and her staff are experts on what students are eating these days.

There’s no doubt about it. Students like trendy food. “What we’re seeing is that they’re eating more of a variety and more salads. Nutrition is more and more of a concern,” says Schimpf.

The fresh fruit and vegetable bars are extremely popular, and pastas are big.

“In the beginning pastas didn’t sell well at all, but now both hot and cold pastas, like fettucini primavera, are popular,” Schimpf said. Other “hot” items included steamed vegetables seasoned with a variety of different herbs and spices, oat-bran muffins and processed chicken cutlets.

Bowling Green’s cooks, who once fried eggs in bacon fat and used butter for seasoning, have switched to all corn oil margarine, and the change has been well received.

In addition to being aware of recommendations to reduce intake of fats and cholesterol, some students express concern about calories.

Bowling Green’s Food Operations gives each student a booklet on nutrition that includes a calorie guide. To help those who want to diet, special cards are available in the dining halls. The diet cards suggest selections from the day’s menu that total between 1,000 and 1,300 calories a day and provide a sensible calorie-reduction guide.

Still, many students partake of all-time campus favorites regardless of the calories. Cafeteria best sellers remain cheeseburgers, French fries, specialty ice cream and frozen yogurt items, like turtle sundaes, Schimpf says.

What about turkey tetrazzini? It’s no longer on the menu.

“We run a test kitchen in the summer. We have four cooks and two or three managers develop new recipes and revise old ones. We work to improve products, and we dump old recipes that are no longer popular,” said Schimpf.

In addition to monitoring what sells on the cafeteria line, the University annually polls student likes and dislikes.

As a result of a spring survey, this fall Bowling Green is updating its deli and cold sandwich bars while continuing to offer highly popular “theme days” in the dining halls. In the past, theme days, which provide a change of pace by adding a little fun to menus and the dining hall decor, have included spring picnics, luaus, midnight breakfasts and something called dinosaur days.

And, for students who claim they skip breakfast because it’s boring, there’s new excitement to rise and shine. Among newly introduced items on the morning menu are specialty breakfast casseroles and fruit sauces for pancakes and French toast.

To All Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $248,000 in 1989. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1989 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU's athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green's athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1989-90 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1989!

Sincerely,

Charles F. Nagle
Associate Athletic Director

Bowling Green State University offers a range of educational opportunities expected in a large university, yet retains the personalized small-school atmosphere of its early years.

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Today, the University has nearly 720 full-time and 200 part-time faculty and 17,800 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology, and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master's degree programs and has 14 departments granting doctoral degrees in 53 specialty areas.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,200 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, including the chemistry department which hosts an Ohio Eminent Scholar in Photochemical Sciences. The Ohio Eminent Scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world class scholars to the state's universities.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1988-89 academic year, there were more than 2,700 "non-traditional" adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 4 million items, including 1.5 million books plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 400,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building. A major renovation of Williams Hall, home of the history, sociology and political science departments, was completed in 1988. Upcoming renovation projects include Shatetl Hall and Overman Hall. Also, numerous computer facilities have been installed and upgraded throughout campus.

VISIT US AFTER THE GAME!
When Dr. Paul J. Olscamp became Bowling Green State University's eighth president in 1982, he charted a course that would move Bowling Green into the ranks of the country's most important national educational resources. The effort, he said, would be an unrelenting commitment to excellence in teaching, research and service at the University. Indeed, he adopted the slogan "An Environment for Excellence" to describe his hopes for Bowling Green.

Since then, everything the energetic Olscamp has done at Bowling Green has been aimed at fulfilling that vision. Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task to be done in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students, the academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

Now, as Olscamp begins his eighth year at Bowling Green, many of the Role and Mission Statement's original goals have been met and Faculty Senate's Committee on Academic Affairs has assigned new priorities including the recruitment of minority faculty and students and greater emphasis upon research production.

More than any other president in Bowling Green's history, Olscamp has sought to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have an important role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University's Academic Charter. Before the change, only the president had that power. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

Olscamp brings a personal touch to the presidency and frequently hosts students for breakfast at his home, eats with them in campus dining halls and attends as many student events as his schedule permits. In the past five years he has hosted more than 576 faculty at a series of "fireside talks" at the president's home. During the academic year he holds weekly forums for students wanting to discuss campus issues.

Highlighting The Olscamp Administration

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since Dr. Olscamp arrived on campus eight years ago. With the support of the Board of Trustees and the assistance of dedicated faculty and staff, there have been many important accomplishments. Some of those include:

- Academic Programs
  - Creation of Bowling Green's first endowed professorships, in management, finance, chemistry and philosophy.
  - Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multi-billion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.
  - Winning Ohio Eminent Scholar positions in photochemical sciences and applied philosophy.
  - Addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at Bowling Green.
  - Increasing to 53 the number of National Merit scholars enrolled, the most ever in University history and a figure that will place Bowling Green in the top 25 percent in the country.
  - Establishing the University's first major scholarships for minority students.
  - A network of more than 20 microcomputer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall, as part of an effort for all students to have a background in computer usage by the time they graduate.
  - Securing more than $4.4 million from the Ohio Board of Regent's Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract the world's top scholars to Ohio, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence on the state's campuses. Eminent Scholars have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities, which reflect a remarkable breadth of scholarship.
  - Increasing library holdings to more than 4 million items, including 1.6 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

- Physical Plant
  - Nearly $66 million in state capital improvement funds for renovation and new construction projects.
  - Completion of $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1984.
  - A $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building completed in 1988.
  - A $9.1 million addition to the Fine Arts Building scheduled to get underway in the next 18 months.
  - Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzel halls. Construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects.

- University Finances
  - Growth in the University endowment from $1.9 million in 1982 to more than $20 million by the end of 1989.
  - Creation of an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is approaching $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in three years. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.
  - Developing a plan that restructures debt service obligations and is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 11 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.
  - Most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni office, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University's first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.
When, in the year 2000, historians look back upon 85 years of intercollegiate athletics at Bowling Green State University, they'll stop and take a second look at the 1980s. Bowling Green sports teams of the 80s have achieved a level of success matched by few.

In all, Bowling Green teams have won 23 conference titles the last nine years, 18 in the Mid-American Conference and five in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. Eighteen teams have gone on to post-season play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

Each of the 19 sports at Bowling Green has enjoyed success in the 1980s. Here is a brief look at the “Winning Tradition” of the Bowling Green Falcons...

BASEBALL — Coach Ed Platzer's Falcons tied the best start in the 72-year history of the sport by beginning the 1989 season with a 14-2 record that included a shutout win over NCAA tournament participant Michigan. BGSU can boast about one of the finest college baseball facilities in the region, Steller Field. The Falcons are also a MAC leader in producing future professional players. Roger McDowell helped pitch the New York Mets to the World Series Championship in 1986, while Orel Hershiser did the same in 1988 with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Jim Larrranaga has built a solid foundation that should produce a Mid-American Conference championship contender in 1989-90. Strong recruiting classes the last three years and an exciting up-tempo brand of basketball have made venerable Anderson Arena once again “The House That Roars.” Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in post-season appearances and victories.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Fran Voll, the two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to three-straight MAC Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances.

WOMEN’S GYMNASTICS — Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender and the 1988-89 season was no different. BGSU set a new standard with 180.5 team score during the season, the best teams in the Midwest.

FOOTBALL — Bowling Green has ruled the MAC with a 46-2 league record the last three years. A MAC record crowd of 4,100 flocked to Anderson Arena for BGSU's NCAA Tournament victory over Cincinnati last March. With two starters returning, including two-time All-MAC center Angie Bonner, Voll’s Falcons figure to remain a MAC power in 1989-90.

CROSS COUNTRY — Highly-respected Sid Sink, who ran his way into the national limelight as an athlete at Bowling Green in the 1970s, has maintained that winning tradition as head men's and women's cross country coach in the 1980s. Sink was a 10-time All-American at BGSU as an athlete. Now as a coach, he has guided the Falcon women to four Mid-American Conference CC titles in nine years. His 1989 men's and women's teams both are likely contenders for MAC honors.

FOOTBALL — Bowling Green has the second-best record in the Mid-American Conference this decade, as the Falcons have finished either first or second in the league standings six of the last seven years. The Falcons have won two MAC titles and made two trips to the California Bowl since 1980. BG also holds the MAC single-game attendance record of 33,527 at Doyt Perry Field. Coach Moe Ankeney's 1989 squad features two-time All-MAC receiver Reggie Thornton and 16 other returning starters.

HOCKEY — One of the most consistent programs over the last few years has been the hockey program. Under head coach Jerry York, BGSU has become a most attractive place for a hockey player to continue his pursuits. Among the many accomplishments has been a national championship, the University's first, in 1984, berths in three straight national tournaments, eight straight trips to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA Finals and four regular-season league titles. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles and appeared in eight NCAA tournaments.

SOCCER — Coach Gary Palmisano's Falcons have posted a winning record in all but two seasons during the 1980s.

The Falcon booters also captured the 1988 Kwik Goal/BGSU Soccer Cup for the third-straight year. BG players have earned All-America honors seven times, the most recent being Jon Felton, while Kyle Royer became the first booter to earn Academic All-American honors following the 1988 season.

SOFTBALL — Head Coach Jacquie Joseph begins her second year with the Falcons, after making an impressive debut last spring. Coaching a young and inexperienced squad, Joseph proved to be a patient and able leader, molding her players into a very competitive unit in the Mid-American Conference. The outlook for the 1990 season is bright, with the return of all but one starter from the ’89 team.

SWIMMING — Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, has continued a rich swimming tradition as he approaches his third season of coaching both the men’s and women’s teams in 1989-90. The Falcon women have made winning a habit in the 80s. It began with the MAC Championship in 1980-81 and has continued with no worse than third-place finishes in successive years. This winter, the men will host the MAC Championship at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the Midwest’s top swimming and diving facilities.

TENNIS — Robert Keefe Courts have been the site of many top MAC tennis matches in the 1980s including the men’s 1989 conference tournament. The men’s team, guided by new coach Gene Orlando, improved two spots in the conference tournament and had a seven-match winning streak, the longest since 1979, during the 1989 campaign. The women’s program, under the tutelage of second-year Coach Sheila Chiricosta, has also begun to prosper posting its first winning record since 1983.

TRACK & FIELD — Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, was once again represented at the NCAA Track and Field Championships in 1989. Beth Manson repeated as an All-American in the discus, making Mid-American Conference history as the league’s first two-time All-American in women’s track. The Falcon women have posted two consecutive top-three finishes in the MAC. Coaches Sid Sink and Tom Wright guided BG’s men to within 22 points of third place last spring.

VOLLEYBALL — Coach Denise Van De Walle’s Falcon volleyball team has earned a spot as one of the top programs in the MAC. Bowling Green has steadily improved its standing in the league under Van De Walle including a runner-up finish in 1987 that earned the Falcon coach MAC Co-Coach of the Year honors. BGSU is looking for more of the same to close out the 80s as they return eight letterwinners who concluded the 1988 season with wins in eight straight matches.
SPONSORSHIPS
Area Businesses Take Part in 1989 Football Promotions

While today's game marks the beginning of the 1989 home schedule for the Bowling Green Falcons, members of the University's athletic promotions committee have been planning, promoting and preparing since last November for today's game and the four home games that follow.

High on the committee's "job list" was the enlistment of area businesses for game sponsorship.

Members of the Northwest Ohio business community were contacted as early as last December and asked to provide financial support for Falcon football, in exchange for various promotional incentives. The results, says Jack Gregory, BGSU athletic director, were very encouraging.

"Securing game sponsors is nothing new in college athletics," said Gregory. "It's being done by most of the college bowl games, and it has been done to a lesser extent here in Bowling Green the last two years."

Last season, Kroger and Foodtown supermarkets joined the Sentinel-Tribune, the BG News and Fifth Third Bank as game sponsors.

This year, the number of sponsors has grown from five to eight, generating dollars and advertising to be used in the promotion of and ticket sales for all five Falcon home games.

"Game sponsorships are a two-way street," said Gregory. "They benefit the businesses which sponsor the games because of their involvement in the community and the publicity they receive. Game sponsorships also assist the athletic department in the areas of promotion and finances.

Gregory added, "It has been well-documented that funding Division I athletics is a challenge to universities across the country. We are very pleased and grateful to those businesses which have offered their support by becoming game sponsors for 1989."

Today's Ball State game is designated as "Welcome Back To School Day," featuring free admission to the game for more than 18,000 Wood County school children in grades 1-12, as well as for their teachers and administrators.

As they did last year, Kroger supermarkets and the Bowling Green Sentinel-Tribune newspaper have backed "Welcome Back To School Day" as game sponsors.

Next week's BG-Central Michigan game has been designated as "Scout Day" and "Varsity BG Day." All Northwest Ohio scouts were given a free ticket to the game, courtesy of the Pepsi-Cola Company and the Varsity BG Club.

Fred DuPont, on-premise manager for Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers of Toledo, Inc., said of his company's involvement, "Pepsi-Cola is proud to be a corporate sponsor for the 1989 football season. If our support can assist the program and help BGSU maintain its prominence with NCAA Division I, then we feel this sponsorship is well worth the effort involved."

Pepsi-Cola's Dupont added, "It's been a pleasure working with the BGSU athletic personnel, from department staff to the entire coaching staff. We are greatly appreciative of the fine working relationship with the BGSU Athletic Department."

The first night game in Perry Field history is scheduled for September 30 when Akron comes calling for a 7:30 p.m. game on "Group Night" and "Student Appreciation Night." Youth teams and clubs throughout Northwest Ohio have been invited to the game as guests of the athletic department.

Meanwhile, the BGSU student newspaper, The BG News, will again be involved with "Student Appreciation Night" promotions and activities.

The October 14 BG-Toledo game will not only be the 54th renewal of this Northwest Ohio rivalry, but also the 67th Homecoming game. And while the BGSU alumni return to their alma mater for pre- and post-game reunions, Kroger and the Marathon Petroleum Company will be a part of it all as the Homecoming game sponsors.

Finally, the November 4 BG-Kent game will be Parents' Day, and Food Town has agreed to be the game sponsor that day.
since his appointment eight years ago as athletic director, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Bowling Green State University on equal terms with today's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

In his first seven years at Bowling Green, Gregory has challenged his staff of administrators, coaches and classified workers to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU - moments such as:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 12 Mid-American Conference regular season championships in football, men's and women's basketball, softball, women's cross country, gymnastics, and men's golf;
- two California Bowl appearances;
- three MAC post-season tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season championships;
- one CCHA post-season tournament championship;
- 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including a MAC record five appearances in the last two years and seven in the last three years;
- three home NCAA events the last two years in hockey, softball and women's basketball, the most ever for a MAC member over a two year period;
- and the 1987-88 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women's sports.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school's 72 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in football. Behind Gregory's leadership, the football program attained I-A status.

During Gregory's tenure here, BGSU has proven to be a marketing and promotions leader. Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women's basketball games. Crowds have swelled, too, in sports like soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball. In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field to witness the annual college football classic between Bowling Green and Toledo. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, giving BGSU the second-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are also a tradition, making game tickets the hottest item in town each winter. This year, the BGSU Ice Arena will attract even larger crowds; an additional 1,700 seats have been added to the north end of the arena.

With the growing interest in TV sports programming, Gregory has aggressively negotiated for live television coverage of BGSU sports events. Last year, Falcon football, basketball and hockey all attracted live TV coverage. The 1989-90 year promises more of the same. Falcon football and basketball will be seen again around the country as part of the MAC Game of the Week on Master Video Productions, while Falcon hockey will continue to play in front of a national TV audience as part of the CCHA Game of the Week on Pro-Am Sports.

Gregory, 61, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and west central Ohio areas, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of college athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the "student" in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed a director for academic and regulatory affairs in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC. Today's student-athlete is offered every opportunity for a fulfilling educational experience at BGSU. Many student-athletes have earned academic honors, such as the 134 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point averages of 3.0 or better in 1988-89. In just the last three years, 11 BGSU scholar-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans, an uncommon distinction among MAC schools.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master's degree from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director.

Gregory began his professional career in 1952 as a teacher and coach at William Penn High School in New Castle, Delaware, and later at P.S. Dupont High School in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1959, he returned to East Stroudsburg as head football coach and assistant professor of physical education. One of the most successful coaches in the school's history, Gregory was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 1983.

Gregory was named assistant football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, and, in 1967, he was named head football coach at Villanova University. In 1969, he moved to the University of Rhode Island, where he served as head football coach for seven years. In his 25 years on the high school level and at East Stroudsburg, Villanova and Rhode Island, Gregory's teams compiled a record of 132-69, including four undefeated seasons and seven league championships. He was twice selected as NAIA Coach of the Year, twice selected as Pennsylvania Coach of the Year and was named NCAA District Coach of the Year.

Gregory was lured away from coaching in 1976 by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League and served in the personnel department for three years before moving to Yale.

Jack and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green and are the parents of two sons and one granddaughter.
Today’s Halftime Show

1989 FALCON MARCHING BAND

NEW! What does such a small-sized word with a huge, descriptive meaning have to do with the BGSU Falcon Marching Band? Would you believe NEW uniforms, NEW Drum Majors, NEW faces, and a NEW season of Falcon Football?

That’s right! All of these “new” additions, along with several of our Wood County high school bands, are at Doyt L. Perry Field today to inaugurate the 1989 Mid-American Conference Football Season and the debut of this year’s BGSU Falcon Marching Band. We are very pleased to welcome our visiting bands as a part of a Wood County Band Spectacular. You will have the opportunity to see and hear these groups during our pre-game, halftime, and post-game ceremonies.

As for the Falcon Marching Band, halftime activities today will include a bold, brassy opener entitled (appropriately), “The Score.” Watch carefully as the band, flags, and twirlers perform their version of the Rolling Stones’ unforgettable smash-hit, “I Can’t Get No Satisfaction!” And for you movie-goers, the band will close today’s program with the popular ballad “The Wind Beneath My Wings” from the movie “Beaches.”

Welcome back to BGSU! Whether you’re presently an enrolled student, alumni, or friend; the Falcon Marching Band is glad you are here! Help support the Falcons! Your vocal enthusiasm is needed. Join us in the cheers and applause!

ATHLETIC PROMOTIONS
by BRAD BROWNING
Director, Marketing & Promotions

Good afternoon college football fans and welcome to another season of Falcon football! Today’s game with Ball State not only begins Bowling Green’s 1989 home schedule, it is the Falcons’ Mid-American Conference opener and heads a three-game home-stand as well. With that in mind, let’s see what is ahead.

Today’s home opener continues BGSU’s traditional Welcome Back To School Day. This event involves all Wood County students, grades one through 12, who are admitted free to the game and also receive a free Pepsi and box of popcorn. Thank you Dallas Gardner, superintendent of Wood County Schools, and principals for making this event such a success!

Next Saturday the Falcons will host Central Michigan on Scout Day and Varsity BG Day. Scouts from throughout Northwest Ohio have been invited to Perry Field as special guests of the BGSU Athletic Department. Varsity BG Day honorees include Bob Dudley (Honorary Letterman), John Galvas (Silver Letter Award) and Cliff Conrad, Sr. (Gold Letter Award). Also, BG’s MAC Championship teams for the 1959 and 1964 seasons will be recognized.

Bowling Green’s third consecutive home Saturday takes on an entirely different approach, as kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. against Gerry Faust’s Akron Zips. This game has also been designated Student Appreciation Day for BGSU students’ solid support and Group Day for the many youngsters involved in area organizations. This is the first-ever night game at Perry Field! So plan now to be a part of this historical event.

Although we have only one home game in October, it is certain to bring excitement! Plan now to attend Bowling Green’s Homecoming celebration when the Falcons host the rival Toledo Rockets in the annual battle for the Peace Pipe. The entire week will feature Homecoming activities including Thursday’s Parade (6:30 p.m.) and Pep Rally/Bonfire (7:15 p.m.).

The season finale in November has the Falcons hosting sister-school Kent on Parent’s Day playing for rights to the Anniversary Award. The Falcons have won 14 of the last 15 games and with a victory this year, BG would finish with a record of 9-1 vs. KSU in the 1980s.

The season guarantees entertainment for everyone! Don’t forget that tickets for the remaining four home games are now on sale here at the stadium on the east side concourse in the white booth until halftime and during regular office hours at the following ticket outlets.

NCAA Stands Firm On Athletic Representatives

Dictionary-makers agree on the definition of representative. However, of late, the word has been interpreted differently at many colleges and universities across the United States.

To ensure that confusion does not reign, especially in the matter of recruiting prospective student-athletes, the National Collegiate Athletic Association has set hard-and-fast rules for: 1. Who athletic representatives are, and, 2. What they can and cannot do.

In 1987, the NCAA banned athletic representatives (see box to left) from any involvement in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. That involvement includes on- or off-campus contacts by 1. personal visit, 2. correspondence, or 3. telephone calls.

Bluntly, the answer to all questions regarding the involvement of athletic representatives in the recruiting process is an unequivocal “NO.”

The new legislation does not prohibit “unavoidable incidental” contacts with prospects, their parents or friends. The contact would be “legal” provided that: 1. it is not pre-arranged by the representative or a member of the athletic department, 2. it is not made for the purpose of recruitment, and, 3. it is in the course of “normal civility.”

Bowling Green Intercollegiate Athletics urges all athletic representatives to comply with all NCAA regulations. If questions arise, please call the Bowling Green State University Athletic Department at (419) 372-2401.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Why The Falcons?

The 1989 season marks the 62nd anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games.

Why Orange and Brown?

Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, OH. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' Head Coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to the BGSU campus in the 1940s, Brown borrowed the colors for his All-America Football Conference teams. The Falcons and Browns still share their colors today.

VARSIY BG CLUB SAYS GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BC Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which is the spring Recognition Reception honoring the College Coach of the Year, the High School Coach of the Year, and the Special Recognition Award Winner. Then in July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
• Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
• A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
• Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
• Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

Doyt L. Perry Field, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 23rd year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Field had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Field holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Field for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Field in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,100, an average of 22,400.

Perry Field is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift two years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and club house, the academic affairs office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 10th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won almost 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 72-39-3 record in the 114 games played at Perry Field.

BGSU students are among the most vocal fans in the MAC.
to James Van Valkenburg, director of stat-ty titles in nine years.

Field. Over the last six seasons, Bowling Green is 23-6-1 at home for a .783 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Field has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments.

Perry Field is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .865 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to James Van Valkenburg, director of statistics for the NCAA, only two coaches on the Division 1-A list are above that figure — Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and his friends and former players at a golf outing.

Known for his well-organized practices and attention-to-detail meetings, Perry never stopped thinking of ways to succeed.
He was a winner in football and as a high school basketball coach. His basketball high school track teams won 70 country titles in nine years.

WELCOME TO DOYT L. PERRY FIELD

Doyt L. Perry Field celebrates its 23rd anniversary as the home of Falcon football this season. Widely-regarded as the finest facility in the Mid-American Conference in which to watch football, Perry Field seats 30,599.

Authorized personnel ONLY are allowed on the field before, during or after the game. Your adherence to this policy is appreciated.

Banners and signs may be displayed at Perry Field ONLY with prior permission from Ken Kavanagh, assistant athletic director. Kavanagh can be reached during weekday work-hours at 372-2401.

Emergency medical aid is available from the ambulance crew in the northeast corner of the stadium. Services are provided courtesy of the Wood County Disaster Services Agency.

Field headquarters for stadium game operations are located on the ground level of the east side of Perry Field. The telephone number is 372-2401.

First aid is located on the east side of the stadium next to the equipment room. It is easily marked for emergency situations. Trained medical personnel are in attendance at all Bowling Green State University football games.

Lost and Found is located at field headquarters (see above) during the game or at the Perry Field office of Ken Kavanagh, assistant athletic director, after the game. Kavanagh can be reached during weekday working hours at 372-2401.

Rest Rooms are located on both the east and west sides of the stadium and can be found between ramps 2 and 4, 6 and 8, 1 and 3 and 5 and 7.

Telephones are situated at frequent intervals on ground level on both the east and west sides of Perry Field.

Your cooperation is requested in observing the rules and traditions of this University and of the state law that makes it illegal to bring or consume alcoholic beverages of any kind at an athletic event or to possess an open container of alcohol.

A Falcon Youth Movement

by STEVE BARR
Assistant Sports Information Director

With the change in seasons from summer to fall comes cooler temperatures, the coloring of the leaves and children returning to school. At the Bowling Green State University athletic department, the change in the seasons means all of the aforementioned as well as the advent of a new athletic year.

Five Falcon teams have already begun their seasons. And, although the common denominator among the teams is youth, another exciting season is expected from each. A short synopsis on each team’s outlook for 1989 follows:

VOLLEYBALL
Head coach Denise Van De Walle faces a situation that all coaches face from time to time, but would prefer to stay away from — the combination of a tough schedule and a young team. Van De Walle’s roster for 1989 consists of five seniors, but the remainder of her personnel are either in their first or second year with the program.

Of the seniors, only setter Linda Popovich and right-side hitter Sheri Fella have had any extensive experience on the collegiate level. Two sophomores who got their first taste of collegiate volleyball last season, Lisa Mika and Tammy Schiller, return after finishing one-two, respectively, on the team in hitting percentage. In fact, Mika led the MAC in hitting percentage and aces in her initial season at BGSU.

SOCCER
When Coach Gary Palmisano puts his BGSU booters on the field this season, he’ll be looking at a team that all coaches face from time to time, but would prefer to stay away from — the combination of a tough schedule and a young team. Van De Walle’s roster for 1989 consists of five seniors, but the remainder of her personnel are either in their first or second year with the program.

CROSS COUNTRY
Coach Sid Sink will begin what should prove to be a very interesting 1989 cross country season, with both the men’s and women’s teams being much-improved over last season.

Both teams return all but one runner from the 1988 season that saw the men finish a disappointing sixth in the conference meet while the women were fourth in the same meet.

Senior Mike McKenna was the top finisher for the Falcons at last year’s conference meet and should be the runner to watch for the Falcons. Juniors John Wodarski, Dan Fullmer and Jon Monheim are all two-year letterwinners and should give BGSU the depth needed in cross country to be successful as a team.

The women turned around their discouraging finish in the conference meet last year by finishing seventh in the regional meet, the highest of all MAC teams, including league champion Ohio University.

Mary Louise Zurbuch, who missed being an NCAA qualifier by 10 seconds last year, and Laura Schultes earned all-league honors in 1988 and return along with two runners who are three-year letterwinners, Missy Ellers and Sharon Hogrefe.

WOMEN’S GOLF
An inexperienced roster of players in 1988, five freshmen out of seven players, should be a battle-tested group as Greg Nye leads his team into the 1989 season.

Senior captain, Gloria Holmes, led the team with an 84.2-stroke average last season and should be a key performer for the Falcon linksters this fall. The only other senior on the team, Rena Friedline, will play a pivotal role.

Ann Alexander, a sophomore, and Heidi Wright, a junior, were not far behind the stroke average of Holmes last season, giving the Falcons a strong nucleus of players to build around. A talented group of freshmen and sophomores complete the roster.

Tanner, Kurt, Jessica, Pam and Rachael Humes.
