BG GAMES BY PHONE: All BGSU games this season can also be heard by telephone through a service provided by TRZ Sports, Inc. in Kent, Ohio. By dialing 1-800-232-3396 and entering a VISA or Mastercard number a person can listen to the live radio broadcast of the game over the phone. The broadcast includes everything, including commercials, from the pre-game show to the post-game show. A listener is charged on a sliding scale that decreases the longer a person listens. For example, a three-hour game would cost $38.95. The Gary Blackney Show is also carried by TRZ and can be heard by calling the same telephone number on Monday evenings.

---BG---

THE GARY BLACKNEY SHOW: Every Monday evening throughout the season, the Gary Blackney Show will be held at Kaufman's (downtown location) Restaurant. The show will begin at 7 p.m. and be broadcast live on WFOB radio (1430 AM). Fans can talk to Coach Blackney at the restaurant or by calling (419-352-4200 or 419-435-5555) the station.

---BG---

BLACKNEY LEADS THE WAY: Among the 10 coaches at the Division 1-A level who are in their first season as a head coach on the collegiate level, BG's Gary Blackney has compiled the best record. BG's 5-1 start puts Blackney at the head of, not only the group of 10 first-time head coaches, but his record is also better than the 16 coaches who are in their first season with their present programs.

---BG---

UT COACH GARY PINKEL: Pinkel is in his first season heading the Rocket program after spending the last 12 seasons as an assistant coach at Washington, the last seven of which he was the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach. Pinkel spent two seasons (1977-78) at BGSU under Denny Stolz before beginning his tenure at Washington. He attended Kent where he was an All-MAC tight end under Don James.

---BG---

THE SERIES: In a series that has seen the home team win in each of the last seven meetings, BG holds a 29-22-4 edge. Saturday's game will be the 56th in the series, the second-longest series in BG (Continued on page 19)

Gary Blackney got quite a birthday present this year - a present he had paid his dues to receive. Five days prior to his 46th birthday, December 5, 1990, Blackney was named the 14th head football coach in the 72-year history of the program at Bowling Green State University.

Blackney has more than paid his dues having made stops at seven different universities from one side of the map to the other covering 24 years of coaching on the collegiate level. All 24 years were spent as an assistant until BGSU Athletic Director Jack Gregory changed that in early December.

The new BGSU mentor has helped get some of the top programs in the country to where they are today including UCLA, which played in the Fiesta Bowl in Blackney’s first season there, Syracuse and Ohio State.

Blackney’s 1986 defensive unit led the Big Ten in scoring defense and was fourth in the nation in turnover margin. OSU was ranked in the top 10 of both wire service polls in 1986.

Gary and his wife, Lauretta, have four children, Debbie, 24, David, 23, Kyle, 16 and Gary Jr., 12.

Founded in 1946, the Mid-American Conference is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the ACC, Big 10, Big Eight, Big West, PAC-10, SEC, SWC, and WAC.

The MAC consists of nine state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The nine current members—Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University—have all been members of the conference for 16 or more years.

For the first time since 1986, the configuration of the MAC will change next season as the University of Akron becomes a league member and will vie for conference titles in 13 sports. The Akron football program is under the guidance of former Cincinnati Moeller and Notre Dame coach Gerry Faust. The Zips play their home games at the Akron Rubber Bowl.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men's sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

In the 45-year history of the conference, numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition. Bowling Green was recognized as the national college division champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second longest such streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years, among the non-conference victims of MAC teams are opponents from the Big 10, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

The 1991 MAC Champion will represent the conference against the champion of the Big West Conference in the California Raisin Bowl on December 9 in Fresno, CA.

MAC schools have a reputation for developing outstanding coaches. In the 1989 Fiesta Bowl, which pitted Notre Dame against West Virginia for the national championship, it was Kent graduate Lou Holtz against Bowling Green graduate Don Nehlen. On the same day in the Rose Bowl, Miami graduate Bo Schenbecher directed his Michigan team to victory over Southern Cal coached by Bowling Green graduate Larry Smith. Among other current or former head coaches who played at and/or coached at MAC schools are Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, Don James, Paul Brown, Bill Mallory, Dave McClain, Don McCafferty, Weeb Ewbank, Frank Lauterbur, John Pont and two of the three 1988 inductees into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame: Doyt Perry and Jack Mollenkopf.

Among current NFL players from MAC schools, Dolphins' linebacker John Offerdahl (Western Michigan) was the 1986 Rookie of the Year, Rams' center Doug Smith (Bowling Green) is a Pro Bowler and 14-year veteran; and defensive lineman Brent Williams (Toledo) is a rising star with the Patriots.

After concluding successful NFL careers, Bernie Casey (Bowling Green) and Tim Brown (Ball State), two former standouts at current MAC schools, went to Hollywood and have made numerous television and movie appearances.

MAC student-athletes are regularly selected to the GTE Academic All-America teams. In the last seven years alone, MAC student-athletes have received Academic All-America honors 98 times. Since the Academic All-America program was established 21 years ago, MAC football players have earned that distinction 47 times.

A BIG MAN WITH AN EVEN BIGGER HEART

Many times an event during a person's early years will influence what they go on to pursue for a professional career later in the life.

For Bowling Green State University senior Matt Kregel "the event" was one that hit close to home.

When Kregel was 10, he had an older brother, who had learning disabilities, pass away. His brother's death did not come about because of his disability, but it did peak his interest in hoping that some day he could help people with similar handicaps.

"Getting into work with the handicapped has always been something I've been interested in," Kregel said. "Certainly, having been around my brother for part of my life had an influence on that interest developing."

A learning disability/behavior handicaps major, Kregel, unlike many first-year college students, knew which direction he wanted to go academically and began working toward that goal early in his college career.

As a sophomore, the 6-2, 265-pound Toledo, Ohio native got involved in a program at the BGSU Student Recreation Center for mentally retarded people who ranged in age from high school students to adults.

The soft-spoken Kregel has also worked at Wood Lane School, a division of the Wood County Board of Mental Retardation, with physical education classes, which included pre-school and junior high age kids. He also plans to do his practicum at Wood Lane this fall observing a classroom situation.

There is also the possibility he will be assisting with an 18-year-old in helping develop his social skills outside the academic setting this year.

Kregel gets a special feeling from his work with the kids.

"There is definitely a great deal of satisfaction in this line of work," Kregel said. "There is a lot more one-on-one teaching that is needed than in the normal classroom situation."

"Many people who go to Wood Lane cannot work with the handicapped once they see what it involves. But, from the beginning, I have enjoyed spending time with the handicapped."
George Johnson was the second freshman in as many seasons to lead the team in rushing carrying the ball for 427 yards last season. Junior LeRoy Smith led the 1989 team in rushing yards.

THE FALCON CLUB NEEDS YOU!

To All Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $265,000 in 1991. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1991 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU’s athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green’s athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1991-92 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1991!

Sincerely,

Charles F. Nagle
Associate Athletic Director

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

Nick Sims started nine games last season at an offensive tackle position. He will be one of the offensive leaders on an offensive line that has a good mix of youth and experience this season.

Senior Scott Lindsey is returning to the fullback position, which he played his freshman season. The last two years Lindsey has been a defensive back.
LeRoy Smith is coming off an injury-plagued sophomore campaign but is one of the most dangerous players in the MAC combining the ability to catch the pass with a slashing running style.

Their names are familiar, because they have made an impact on football at all levels of the game — high school, college, and professional.

They belong to the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches, an organization created in 1984 for the purpose of promoting the proud tradition of Bowling Green Falcon football. Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at Bowling Green, most of these coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They've studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of Warren Steller, Robert Whittaker, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and Moe Ankney, to name a few. Today, they are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at Bowling Green State University, the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches.

Fresno State’s Bulldog Stadium is the site of the California Raisin Bowl.

For the last ten years, the Mid-American Conference has been sending its champion to the California Raisin Bowl in Fresno, California.

Hosted by Fresno State University in its 40,552-seat Bulldog Stadium, the Cal Bowl pits the MAC Champ against the Big West Conference Champion.

The 1991 Cal Raisin Bowl is scheduled for December 14.

Bowling Green is one of two MAC teams to have made the trip to Fresno twice, with Toledo being the other. The Falcons appeared in Cal Bowl II on December 19, 1982 and lost a 29-28 heartbreaker to Fresno State. BG had a 21-0 third-quarter advantage in that game.

The Falcons met Fresno State again in Cal Bowl V, but this time the Bulldogs rolled to a 51-7 victory on December 14, 1985. BG also lost its head coach, Danny Stoltz, who announced earlier in the week he was leaving to coach at San Diego State.

More than just a bowl game, the California Raisin Bowl is a community happening for San Joaquin Valley citizens, whose support benefits the Valley Children’s Hospital. The benevolence of the Greater San Joaquin Valley Sports Association is displayed as every aspect of the Cal Bowl revolves around the well-being of the young patients of the Valley Children’s Hospital.

Fund-raising activities include a 10K run, bike rally, and a coronation ball, in addition to the bowl game. The Cal Bowl has generated more than $300,000 for hospital equipment and services.

$59 Million In Construction Planned

BGSU IN THE MIDST OF BUILDING BOOM

Alumni returning to their college campuses often notice changes: the trees seem taller; the students appear to be younger; the walk between buildings seems longer. But Bowling Green State University alumni returning to campus this weekend could be forgiven if they suffer from information overload. That’s because the University is going through one of its biggest building and renovation booms in history.

Just last month, ground was broken for an $8.7 million intramural field house. Expected to be completed by early 1993, it will be located on the northwest corner of Merry Avenue and Mercer Road, immediately north of the Student Recreation Center.

A total of 127,000 square feet, the field house will have three distinct areas. The center section, which will connect two recreational areas, is designed for administrative offices, showers and locker rooms. The two wings will be sports areas, with one featuring a track and the other covered with turf for field sports.

The track wing will contain a 200-meter track, a 60-meter sprint track, a high jump and pole vault area and a rubber-like floor space for field events. The track will encircle four basketball courts.

The turf wing will be large enough for a 70-yard football field, which can also be used for soccer, baseball and softball.

But that wasn’t the only groundbreaking ceremony this year. In April, silver shovels again appeared as work was started on a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building. Designed to almost triple the space of the existing building, the project, which is expected to be completed in August 1992, will enable the fine arts program to house its five divisions in one location. Those programs include art education, art therapy, art history, design, two-dimensional studio and three-dimensional studio art.

The building will provide more classroom, laboratory and office space and will dramatically increase the amount of display area. The focal point of the building will be an expanded gallery and connecting courtyard. The money to refurbish and expand the area was donated by Dorothy and Ashley Bryan, long-time residents of Bowling Green and long-time supporters of the University.

The two projects are part of $59 million in construction projects either completed or expected to be completed by the middle of the decade.

Williams, Overman and Shatziel Halls have been recently remodeled. Hayes Hall is now in the process of being gutted and when renovated will become the University’s computing center.

Soon remodeling will begin on Eppler Complex (the former Men’s and Women’s gyms). The first phase of that project calls for $4.6 million in improvements.

On deck and awaiting approval of construction funds are rehabilitation projects for Johnston, Moseley, Hanna, University and South Halls, and the Technology Annex.

In fact, so much construction is planned that an office building—the College Park Office Building—was built and is serving as home to the faculty and staff displaced by the renovation project du jour.

And just when you thought it was safe to plant a tree or put down a park bench, plans for another groundbreaking ceremony are being finalized. This time, the project is a much needed $12 million classroom building. The building will be located immediately north of the Business Administration Building and construction is expected to begin in 1992.

The facility is being designed to include all of the technical marvels, such as teleconferencing and computer image projection, that are so vital to modern teaching. “The technology of education has exploded and this building will be representative of this trend,” Robert McGeein, assistant vice president for capital planning, predicts.

These days at BGSU, it’s tough to keep the silver shovels clean and the campus map up-to-date.
Since 1964, the Bowling Green State University Falcon Club has been a driving force behind one of the nation’s most successful athletic programs.

For the last 27 years, the Falcon Club has helped Bowling Green athletes achieve success in both intercollegiate sports and academic endeavors.

Although the Falcon Club’s primary purpose is to provide financial support for the intercollegiate athletic program, members also enjoy a number of benefits and special programs. Among them are priority seating for football, basketball and hockey, pre- and post-game parties, luncheons, travel opportunities with Falcon teams, greens fees for BGSU’s 18-hole Forrest Creason Golf Course, and priority parking in Falcon club lots.

This year, the Falcon Club has already held its annual “Meet-The-Team” cookout just prior to the start of the football season.

The 1991-92 hockey season begins next week and the start of the 1991-92 basketball season is not far behind. Falcon Club members will be active throughout the winter and spring, cheering on all of the Falcon teams.

Charles Nagle, associate athletic director, feels the Falcon Club has been growing in membership thanks to a very active and interesting calendar of events.

“Our annual membership drive got off to another great start last April with more than $215,000 raised in cash and pledges,” Nagle said. “We’re excited about our calendar of events for the 1991-92 year. We’ve already enjoyed a trip south for the West Virginia football game. And of course, our Falcon Club tent will be filled with activity before and after our five home football games.”

The Falcon Club today bears little resemblance to the flegling group of BGSU backers 27 years ago. For one thing, membership has grown from 137 members in 1964 to this year’s goal of 1,800.

During the late 1960s, the Falcon Club grew within the framework of the University’s Development Office, located at the time in the Alumni House, site of the BGSU Popular Culture Center today.

Throughout its history, the Falcon Club has looked for ways to expand its scope. In 1983, the Falcon Club of Toledo opened. A chapter in West Central Ohio, serving Lima and Wapakoneta, followed in 1984. Another chapter opened that same year in the greater Cleveland area.

“We continue to see growth and development in our regional chapters,” said Nagle. “The Falcon Club of Toledo went through its eighth year of existence, maintaining over 250 members and reaching an all-time high in cash contributions. The Falcon Club of Greater Cleveland and the Falcon Club of West Central Ohio each completed their sixth year of existence, offering their members a number of special events, like organized trips to BG games, luncheons and more.”

Bowling Green State University Athletic Director Jack Gregory believes the Falcon Club is a very important aspect of the athletic department.

“The Falcon Club is an exceptional organization,” Gregory said. “It’s bigger and better than ever, and we feel its potential for growth is unlimited. We’re very pleased with all the support we have received from the Falcon Clubbers.

“Our recent successes in athletics and in the Falcon Club makes us feel proud to wear the Brown and Orange,” Gregory added. “Each year, we face the challenge of maintaining our proud position through the dedicated efforts of our student-athletes, our coaches and administrators. It’s good to know that we have the support of the Falcon Club members. They enable us to set and reach our very ambitious goals at Bowling Green State University.”

THANKS, B.G.!

We're not the most conspicuous copier store in the area. Which is why your business means so much to us. You see, we know that you know that story: while the big universities get the attention, BGSU just does its job... and develops programs, academic and athletic, to rival any in the Midwest! So... thank you, BG, for letting Goodremont's and Minolta to help you in "reproducing" your very considerable accomplishments.

In large measure, Bowling Green State University's success has centered on its ability to offer its students the educational diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the caring and camaraderie of a small college.

As the University completes the first year of the new decade, it continues to build on that past while preparing students for the challenges of the fast approaching millennium.

Bowling Green's history began in 1910 when it was created by the Ohio legislature as a Normal School for the training of teachers. In 1914, when Bowling Green opened its doors, 15 faculty members and 158 students were present.

Today, the University has nearly 1,000 full- and part-time faculty and 18,000 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 69 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 60 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers five associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands enrollment tops 1,500 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 78 percent of whom hold Ph.D's, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized. Three academic departments—chemistry, philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology—are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Each academic year, more than 1,100 "non-traditional" adult students enroll in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,177-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.6 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 400,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. In the past 10 years, nearly $116 million has been allocated for new construction and remodeling projects.

The University is also meeting the challenge of tomorrow's high-tech education. It currently has 19 computer labs, including one in every residence hall complex, for use by students. And this year, computers are being put into the rooms of Chapman Hall as part of a pilot program which may eventually lead to a computer in every residence hall room.
Port Lawrence people share a common responsibility for constructive ideas, work quality and individual productivity. We believe accuracy, thoroughness and promptness are imperative.

Don’t take our word for it…

"An Environment for Excellence." Dr. Paul J. Olscamp adopted that slogan for his administration when he became Bowling Green State University's eighth president in 1982.

To create that environment, he charted a course that has moved Bowling Green into the ranks of the country's most important colleges and universities. The effort focuses on teaching, research and service and involves a University-wide commitment to excellence.

Since arriving on campus, everything the president has done has been aimed at fulfilling that vision. Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task ahead in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of incoming undergraduate and graduate students, the academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

Now, as Olscamp begins his 10th year at Bowling Green, many of those original goals have been met and new priorities have been established, including the recruitment of minority faculty and students, and greater emphasis upon research production.

One of his most important accomplishments has been to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have a key role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University's Academic Charter. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

While always a concern, finances have taken center stage in recent years. With a tightening state budget, Olscamp has directed efforts to increase private giving. During his tenure, the school's endowment has increased to nearly $32 million from $1.9 million when he arrived. Private contributions in 1990-91 exceeded $4 million.

In 1985, in an effort to increase minority representation on the campus, Olscamp ordered the creation of the Office of Multicultural Affairs to provide services to assist minority students. Recruitment efforts also were increased, with the Office of Admissions adding a director of minority recruitment. In addition, the University has increased the number of minority faculty, with the assistance of a special minority hiring fund.

Olscamp also brings a personal touch to his presidency. He frequently hosts both students and faculty as his home. He also holds periodic forums with students wanting to discuss campus issues.

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since 1982. Here are some of the highlights:

Academic Programs
*Creation of Bowling Green's first endowed professorships, in management, finance, chemistry and philosophy.

*Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multibillion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.

*Development of the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the only center of its kind in the state designed to assist manufacturing and other businesses in the design and production of products.

*The appointments of three Ohio Eminent Scholars in photochemical sciences, moral philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology; the positions are the result of three $500,000 grants from the Ohio Board of Regents.

*The addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at Bowling Green.

*In 1991, 52 freshmen who are also National Merit scholars enrolled at Bowling Green; in the past four years, more than 180 scholars have attended the University, a total which places Bowling Green among the top 25 universities in the country.

*Establishment of the University's first major scholarships for minority students.

*Creation of a network of computer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall. This year computers are being installed in each room of one residence hall, part of a pilot project which could result in a computer being placed in every residence hall room on campus.

*Securing more than $5 million from the Board of Regent's Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract top scholars, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence. Grants have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities.

*Expansion of the library's holdings to more than four million volumes, including 1.6 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

*Development of the Student Telephone Accessed Registration system which enables students to schedule their classes from a touchtone telephone. The STAR system has made long registration lines a part of University history.

Physical Plant
*More than $116 million has been spent in the past 10 years for the construction of new buildings and upgrading existing buildings.

*Completion of the $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1984 and a $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building in 1988.

*Work is now underway to construct a $9.1 million addition to the Fine Arts Building.

*Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzel halls, and Eppler Complex. construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.

University Finances
*Creation of an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is more than $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in two years. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.

*Development of a plan to restructure debt service obligations which is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 11 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.

*Completion of the most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni offices, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University's first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.
As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the Bowling Green State University athletic department continues to maintain its status as one of the top programs in the country. Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and the 90s seem headed in the same direction.

Bowling Green claimed 23 conference titles during the 1980s, 19 in the Mid-American Conference and four in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. Twenty-one teams were involved in postseason play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

The first year of the 90s yielded two BGSU teams that earned spots in postseason play.

Each of the 19 Falcon sports teams has helped build and maintain the "Winning Tradition" at BGSU...

BASEBALL—The program has a young, energetic leader in second-year head coach Danny Schmitz who will be looking to develop one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, coached in the minor leagues at the AAA level. Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the top pitchers in the game today—Roger McDowell of the Philadelphia Phillies and Orel Hershiser of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN'S BASKETBALL—Coach Jim Larranaga's Falcons have accomplished something the last two years that hasn't happened at BG since the early 60s. Last year's NIT team made it consecutive postseason appearances for the basketball program for the first time since the 1962-63 season. The Falcons, who have beaten Big 10 power Michigan State each of the last two seasons, have been ranked among the top 20 teams in the country in the USA Today computer rankings each of the last two years. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in postseason appearances (23 games) and victories (eight).

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL—Coach Fran Voll, a two-time MAC Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to four MAC Tournament Championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances. Certainly one of the premier teams in the MAC, BG has ruled the conference compiling a 67-13 league record the last five years. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including an MAC-record crowd of 4,100 for BG's NCAA Tournament victory over Cincinnati in 1989.

CROSS COUNTRY—Bowling Green begins the 1990s with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four CC titles in the 1980s. Now, he's out working his magic with the Falcon men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his second year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL—Bowling Green's football program will take a "new direction" in 1991 as former Ohio State assistant coach Gary Blackney begins his first season heading the program. The program has a renewed enthusiasm under Blackney, who will have 38 returning letterwinners, including eight on defense. The BG defense was among the top 15 in the country last season in scoring defense. BG has a rich tradition having won two MAC titles and two trips to the California Raisin Bowl in the 1980s, while also setting the MAC single-game attendance record of 93,527 at Doyt Perry Field.

GOLF—Coach Greg Nye's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men's program has won four MAC Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women's program is annually among the best in the region.

GYMNASTICS—Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields an MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1980, the Falcons have qualified as a team for postseason competition five of the last eight years, including last season. In each of the last three seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score, led by Mary Beth Friel, who has qualified for the NCAA regional meet each of the last two seasons.

HOCKEY—A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last six years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. Coach Jerry York ranks among the best collegiate coaches of all-time with 421 career wins having led the Falcons to four CCHA regular season championships and one league playoff title. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey's greatest names, including 15 players who currently play in the NHL or with an NHL affiliate.

SOCCER—Coach Gary Palmisano's Falcons posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and his teams in the 90s will look to continue that tradition. Perennially one of the top teams in the region, the Falcons should have one of their strongest teams in years this season. The BGSU schedule annually includes perennial NCAA power Indiana and other top teams in the region. BGSU also hosts the Kwik Goal/BGSU Classic having won the title in four of the six years the tournament has been contested.

SOFTBALL—Head coach Jacquie Joseph begins her fourth year in charge of the Falcon softball program. Four strong recruiting classes should produce a BG team that will be ready to challenge for the MAC title. The Falcons last won the MAC Championship in 1988, a year that ended with BGSU playing host to the NCAA Midwest Regionals.

SWIMMING—Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, is back for his fifth year with the Falcon men and women hoping to reap the benefits of his work recruiting during that time. The Falcon women have made winning a habit. It began with the 1981 MAC Championship and continued with second-place finishes in each of the next seven seasons. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest’s top swimming and diving facilities.

TELEVISION—The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region—Robert Keefe Courts. The men’s team, under the guidance of fourth-year coach Gene Orlando, is continuing to improve and will have three veterans returning this season. The women’s program is under the guidance of Penny Dean, who is beginning her second year.

TRACK & FIELD—Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, is fast becoming a regional power in field events. The Falcon men have claimed an MAC champion in the shot put or discus in three of the last four years, while the Falcon women have produced the last four MAC discus champions, including two-time All-American Beth Manson.

Volleyball—Seven years of hard work by head coach Denise Van De Walle paid off in 1989 as the Falcons captured the regular-season MAC title breaking Western Michigan’s seven-year stranglehold and the Broncos 98-match league winning streak. Van De Walle, three times named the league Coach of the Year, has a chance to repeat the 1989 season this year as she will have all 10 players returning from a team that compiled a 26-7 record last year. BG has won 20 or more matches four of the last five years.

Charles E. Perry Society Helps Fund The Falcons

Bowling Green State University enjoyed tremendous intercollegiate athletic success in the 1980s. In the last 11 years, Falcon teams have won a national championship and 23 conference titles.

This glowing track record has resulted from an effective administration, a hard-working staff, good coaching, fine facilities, and, of course, outstanding performances on the fields, courts and ice.

A growing athletic endowment program is another reason. Athletic endowments will play a leading role in guaranteeing successful Falcon teams down the road.

The Charles E. Perry Society provides a significant and everlasting avenue of support to Falcon athletics.

The society was established in 1983 for the purposes of funding athletic scholarships through private contributions to the athletic endowment fund.

The society is named after its founder, Charles E. Perry, a 1959 graduate with honors (and two degrees) from Bowling Green State University and a former place-kicker on the Falcon football team.

Perry, currently the President and CEO of Eccor in Houston, was one of the principle founders of the Falcon Club and is the organizer and sponsor of an annual fund-raising event for the BGSU athletic endowment fund. This fundraiser is called the Perry Society Golf Outing, and has been held the past eight years at the Muirfield Village Golf Club and, also, The Golf Club, in New Albany, Ohio.

In just 10 years, the Perry Society has contributed approximately $133,000 raised through the golf outing to the athletic endowment fund. Perry Society members contribute $1,250 per year for the privilege of playing in the golf outing, with every dollar donated going directly to the athletic endowment fund. When a player contributes a total of $5,000, an endowed scholarship is established in the player’s name within the Perry Society.

There were six charter members in the Charles E. Perry Society: Ashel Bryan, chairman of Mid-Am Bank; Jim Dimling, retired vice president for corporate administration at the Marathon Oil Company; Robert Ludwig, chairman of the board for L-K Motels, Inc.; Thomas Orchard, vice president for investments at Paine-Webber; Michael Wilcox, president of Wilcox Financial Group; and Robert Bagno, owner of Pastiffma Pasta Shop.

Since 1983, there have been 11 additional members: Kermit Stroh, president of Moulton Gas Service, Inc.; William Primrose, Jr., president of The Dickey-Grabler Company; Pat McGohan of McGohan and Associates; Thomas Noe, president of Numismatic Investments of Ohio, Inc.; William Lloyd, retired secretary-treasurer of the Winzeler Stamping Company; Gerald Harms, retired president of Harms Electric Company; Peter Halleck, Attorney at Law; Jim King, president of Buckenmeyer and King CPA’s; John (Jack) Laskey, president and chairman of The Port Lawrence Title and Trust Company; Ed Ferkany, vice president for sales at Worthington Industries; and Jack Dulworth, president and CEO for Management Compensation Group.

While it remains an exclusive organization, the Charles E. Perry Society should continue to grow in the coming years, according to BGSU Athletic Director Jack Gregory.

“The private dollars are so critical to the success of Falcon athletics in the future,” said Gregory. “The Perry Society supports our intercollegiate athletic program today, but the real benefit will be realized five, 10 years down the line. The University will benefit, our athletic teams will benefit, and most importantly our student-athletes will benefit.”

Gregory added that the interest generated from each $5,000 endowment in the Perry Society fund will be used to reduce the debt on the BGSU Athletic Fitness Center.

Before becoming president and CEO of Eccor, Perry was chairman and CEO of the Western Trading and Management Company (Houston), and president and CEO of the Friedkin Companies (Houston). Prior to that, Perry had been chairman and CEO of Worldvest, Inc., and years earlier he had been vice-chairman, CEO and partner with golfing great Jack Nicklaus in the Golden Bear/Nicklaus Organization. Perry was instrumental in helping develop the organization into a substantial private business enterprise.

Some of Perry’s other previous jobs have included senior officer for The Charter Company, founding president of Florida International University, and several positions at BGSU. He served as admissions counselor, director of admissions, director of development and assistant to the president.

Perry has been honored on numerous occasions, including being named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in America by the U.S. Jaycees in 1971. Four years later in 1975, he was granted the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Bowling Green State University.

Charles and his wife, Betty, have one son, Tom, and a daughter, Lynn.
Since his appointment 10 years ago as director of athletics at Bowling Green State University, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Falcon men's and women's teams on equal terms with today's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

To reach these goals, Gregory challenges his staff of administrators, coaches and classified personnel to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 13 Mid-American Conference regular-season championships in football, men's and women's basketball, softball, women's cross country, gymnastics, men's golf, and volleyball;
- two California Bowl appearances;
- four MAC postseason tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular-season championships;
- one CCHA postseason tournament championship;
- 16 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including 11 in the last five years, the most of any MAC school over the period;
- three home NCAA Tournament berths in hockey, softball and women's basketball;
- and the 1987-88 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women's sports.

Postseason appearances by the men's basketball and the women's gymnastics teams highlighted the 1990-91 year. The appearance of the men's basketball team in the NIT for the second consecutive year marked the first time since the early 60's that the program had earned back-to-back postseason invitations.

The 1989-90 school year was highlighted by three Falcon teams advancing to postseason play. Hockey and women's basketball returned to the NCAA Tournament, while men's basketball played in the NIT. In 1989-90, Bowling Green was the only school in the country that sent teams to national postseason tournaments in these three sports.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school's 72 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in football. Behind Gregory's leadership, the football program attained I-A status.

Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women's basketball games during Gregory's tenure. Soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball are drawing larger crowds, too.

Another "first" during Gregory's tenure occurred in the fall of 1989 when more than 25,000 fans turned out for the first night game in Perry Field history. In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Perry Field to witness the Bowling Green-Toledo football clash, one of college football's best rivalries. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, giving BGSU the second-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are a tradition. The 1989-90 season featured the addition of 1,700 seats to the BGSU Ice Arena, and all attendance records were broken, including single game (5,005) and season (79,376) marks.

With the world of college athletics changing constantly, it is important for Gregory to be as active on the national level as he is. Gregory has served on numerous NCAA committees including the Executive Committee and is one of the most active athletic directors on a national level in the MAC. He has also served in many different capacities on the conference level, in both the MAC and CCHA.

Gregory, 63, has also been instrumental in the development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed all of northern and west central Ohio, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of college athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the "student" in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed an academic coordinator in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC.

Many BGSU student-athletes have excelled in the classroom. Volleyball's Linda Popovich became the MAC's first female to receive the Byers Scholarship in May, 1990. There were more than 170 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point average of 3.0 or better in 1990-91, including one who was named an Academic All-American, raising the total to 15 Academic All-Americans in the last five years.

A 1962 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master's degree from Temple University, Gregory was a teacher and coach at William Penn High School in New Castle, Delaware, and later at P.S. Dupont High School in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1969, he returned to East Stroudsburg as head football coach and assistant professor of physical education. One of the most successful coaches in the school's history, Gregory was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 1983.

In 1965, Gregory was named assistant football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy. Two years later, he was named head football coach at Villanova University. In 1969, he moved to the University of Rhode Island, where he served as head football coach for seven years.

In his 25 years as a head coach, Gregory's teams compiled a record of 132-69, including four undefeated seasons and seven league championships. He was twice selected as NAIA Coach of the Year, twice selected as Pennsylvania Coach of the Year and was named NCAA District Coach of the Year once.

Gregory joined the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League in 1976 and served in the personnel department for three years, before becoming associate athletic director at Yale University from 1978-82.

Jack and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green and are the parents of two sons and two grandchildren.
BGSU FALCON MARCHING BAND

BGSU vs. TOLEDO
October 19, 1991

This afternoon the Falcon Marching Band presents a patriotic presentation for your halftime entertainment that pays tribute and salutes the commitment and dedication of life meritoriously given by the men and women of the United States of America.

We begin with a remembrance of the Civil War, which pitted Americans against Americans. This war is also commemorated by its music, usually simple tunes that were sung on the march, or played with a small complement of fifes and drums. One such song, usually performed as a “rallying” cry was “When Johnny Comes Marching Home.”

From the Civil War, we move forward in time to the period of World War I. It was at this time that George M. Cohan made an indelible mark on “musical Americana” with his ageless melodies: “You’re A Grand Old Flag” and “I’m A Yankee Doodle Dandy.”

During the 1940’s and World War II, big band jazz was very much in vogue. Our remembrance of WWII centers this afternoon on the hit made famous by the Andrews sisters. We feature our trumpet section and color guard to “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy.”

We can not forget those conflicts in the 50’s, 60’s, and 70’s where men and women gave their lives for the principles of freedom. War, during this period, was not regarded as essential to the way of American life. Nevertheless, the loss of life, whether one or one hundred, is a large price to pay for the precepts that this country was built upon. In military tribute and the solemn performance of “Taps,” we now lower our heads in memory of those fallen soldiers whose contributions live on.

And most recently the United States of America, along with her allies on this continent and across the sea, combined in a successful operation to defend the oppressed and to spurn a warring conqueror in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm. In tribute to the various branches of the armed services and their respective troops, we close today’s performance with a salute to the USA, its wars, its soldiers, and its music with our version of Lee Greenwood’s, “God Bless the USA!”

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.
Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you’ll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.
From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.
When all is just a mem’ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added in the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?

The 1989 season marks the 62nd anniversary of Bowling Green’s nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake ’23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were “the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size.”

Why Orange and Brown?

Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman’s hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, OH. He liked the brown and orange color combination.

Retired Jersey

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73, when he rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-Mid-American Conference running back, gaining more than 1,000 yards in each of his three years on the varsity.

DOYT L. PERRY FIELD

Bowling Green holds the MAC record for single-game attendance (33,527).

Doyt L. Perry Field, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 26th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Field had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Field holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Field for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Field in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,000, an average of 22,400.

Perry Field is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift three years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic affairs office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 12th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won almost 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 76-42-5 record in the 123 games played at Perry

BGSU students catch the spirit of Falcon football.
Over the last eight seasons, Bowling Green is 27-9-3 at home for a .731 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Field has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments. Perry Field is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to James Van Valkenburg, director of statistics for the NCAA, only two coaches on the Division 1-A list are above that figure — Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy at .864 (Boston College and Notre Dame).

Perry, 81, known for his well-organized practices and attention-to-detail meetings, never stopped thinking of ways to succeed. He was a winner in football and as a high school basketball coach. His basketball teams were 161-35 over nine seasons and his high school track teams won 70 county titles in nine years.

"First, I always tried to get the best assistant coaches possible," Perry said of his success. "Then we sought to eliminate mistakes as much as possible."

After stepping down as Bowling Green's head football coach in 1964, Doyt Perry remained as the BGSU athletic director for six years.

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by Doyt Perry, the former player, coach and administrator at Bowling Green State University.

In January of '88, he learned that he would be an inductee into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame.

In October, when Bowling Green hosted Miami at Doyt L. Perry Field, the man in whose honor the stadium was named was there for a special on-campus presentation by the National Football Foundation.

In December, Perry was in New York for the Foundation's Hall of Fame Dinner. He was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame at Kings Island, OH, the following June.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back 60 years when, as a student he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, OH, native received his degree in 1932 and began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant football coach at Ohio State University in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1955. The next 10 years, he led the Falcons to a 77-11-5 record for a winning percentage of .855, topped only by Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy of Notre Dame. His teams won five MAC Championships and the national college division championship in 1959.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director for six years, developed such outstanding coaches as Jim Young of Army, Bill Mallory of Indiana, Don Nehlen of West Virginia, Larry Smith of Southern California, and the late Dave McClain of Wisconsin.
They Put BGSU In The Driver’s Seat

The Bowling Green State University Athletic Department recognizes and appreciates the efforts of the automobile dealers from Bowling Green, Maumee, North Baltimore, Marion, Norton and Toledo pictured on this page. The generosity of these people and their support of Falcon athletics enables BGSU coaches to be on the road to recruit student-athletes, scout opponents, and represent the University. Please show your support by patronizing our “Wheels of the Falcons” automobile dealers.

Cris Shale

Punter Cris Shale became the most decorated player to ever wear the Brown and Orange in 1990 earning a spot on five All-America teams while establishing four MAC records, including season (46.77) and career (43.09) average. For being selected to the Associated Press All-America team, Shale was invited to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida for the taping of the Bob Hope Christmas Show (photo at left), which annually presents the All-America team as one of the segments on the show. Shale was a 10th round draft pick of the Washington Redskins in 1991 draft.

HEAD COACH JERRY YORK
WILLIAM FICKEN RECEIVES ALUMNI SERVICE AWARD

A former president of the Bowling Green State University Board of Trustees, whose service to the Alumni Association dates back to 1967, has been selected to receive the Association's 1991 Alumni Service Award. It will be presented today during special halftime ceremonies.

William H. Ficken, Jr. '63 of Adrian, Michigan, who is vice president of marketing for Merillat Industries, Inc., has served the Alumni Association in nearly every possible way. In addition to his board presidency, he also was board treasurer for a term and was chairman and founder of the board’s Special Projects Committee.

His involvement as a BGSU alumnus began when he was area director for the University’s Expanding Horizons campaign in 1967-68. He was a three-year participant in BGSU Alumni-Faculty Day program and today still participates in the College of Business Administration's Executive-in-Residence program and serves as a member of that College’s Alumni Advisory Council.

A member of the President’s Club, Mr. Ficken has also participated in countless other University and Alumni Association activities including the Long-Range Planning Committee and the Alumni Leaders Conference.

Larry Weiss, director of alumni affairs and associate vice president, noted, “Bill has never said ‘no’. We have called on him numerous times for his involvement and support, and he has always been there. When you think of a person who can be counted on, no matter what the assignment or circumstances, Bill is right at the top of the list. We hope this award presentation, in some way, helps demonstrate our appreciation for his long-term efforts.”

Welcome Back BGSU Alumni!

The Alumni Association and Athletic Department welcomes all alumni who have returned to campus for today’s 70th Homecoming celebration and we hope you will come back often.

A special “welcome home” is extended to those five groups holding reunion activities today. Those groups are: the Bowling Green Pioneers (graduates of the 1920s-1930s); graduates of the 1940s, featuring the Golden Anniversary Class of 1941; Class of 1951; Silver Anniversary Class of 1966; and our Black Alumni.

1992 Homecoming Saturday, October 10 vs. Ohio University Don’t Miss It!

Letter From The President

It is a special pleasure for me to extend a most cordial welcome to all — especially to alumni returning for Homecoming 1991! Each year it is always a delight to welcome you back and to hear of your accomplishments. We are honored to have you with us.

I have visited many of you during the past year, and I noted again and again a common trait throughout my visits - a tremendous pride in Bowling Green State University. Our graduates can, and do, play an extremely vital role in this University—in what it is and in what it can become. In fact, our reputation for academic excellence ultimately will depend not only upon our faculty’s research and teaching efforts, but upon the performance and reputation attained by our graduates, and upon their support of their Alma Mater.

As Bowling Green has faced the challenge of attracting students from a diminishing college-age population, we have called upon our alumni for assistance in our recruiting efforts. And you have responded gloriously. You have assisted us by granting alumni scholarships, by helping to identify top high school students who were interested in receiving the same educational opportunities you had as a student at Bowling Green, and by spreading the good word about our University. I am encouraged by your dedication and your support. That support is necessary for our continued success, and we are deeply appreciative of it. In turn, we hope your pride in Bowling Green grows deeply and rewarding as you sense our continuing search for and commitment to excellence.

Enjoy your weekend with us. We invite you to return often.

Paul J. Olscamp
