What Bowling Green head coach Gary Blackney can accomplish for an encore to the 1991 season is a challenge he is looking forward to. Then again, challenges are something that have followed him throughout his coaching and personal life.

The effervescent Blackney has won the hearts of many in the Bowling Green community, both on and off campus, as well as many in Northwest Ohio and the state despite being on the job only 20 months. He also earned the respect of the coaches in the Mid-American Conference with the turnaround he orchestrated last season.

There wasn't any doubt in the minds of his colleagues when the voting for MAC Coach of the Year came around last fall. They were unanimous in their selection of him as the top mentor in the MAC.

It is not hard to believe why the vote was unanimous.

All Blackney did, in not only his first season at BGSU but his first season as a collegiate head coach, was take a 3-5-2 team and turn them into an 11-1 squad. The Falcons clinched the MAC title with two weeks of the league schedule still remaining, which is believed to be the earliest any team has ever wrapped up the title.

The final standings showed BG with a perfect 8-0 mark while the second place team finished at 3-1-4.

The top first-year coach in the country last season, Blackney was just the fifth coach in MAC history to lead his team to an outright conference title in his first season. He is also the winningest first-year head coach in BGSU history. The 11 wins by the 1991 team tied the school record.

In addition to his being named the top coach in the MAC, Blackney was also recognized by his peers, members of the American Football Coaches Association, as the Region 3 Coach of the Year. Region 3 includes schools in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois. In addition, the schools of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa are also included in the region.

Blackney also received the Award of Distinction from the Touchdown Club of Columbus in February for his work with the BGSU football program last year.

But, in a sport that involves so many people, it would not be fair to give all of the credit for the 1991 Bowling Green State University football season to one person. But, certainly to find the mastermind behind the resurgence of the program one would have to look no further than Blackney.
Blackney, 47, began immediately to work on the confidence of a squad that had never had a winning season. At the same time, he wanted to test the commitment of the team. It didn’t take Blackney or his staff long to find out the team was thirsting for a winner and looking for someone to put the pieces together. Blackney was that person.

A little less than two years ago, Blackney realized his dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. He certainly paid his dues serving as an assistant coach the previous 21 years at such programs as Wisconsin, UCLA, Syracuse and, most recently, Ohio State. The list of coaches he served under ranks among the best in the collegiate game - such as Dick MacPherson, Terry Donahue, Earle Bruce, Ric Forzano and John Cooper.

The Plainview, New York native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Connecticut, in 1968, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on a staff that included, in addition to Forzano, current Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz, former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano, Dave Adolph and Dan Sekanovich, both NFL assistant coaches.

That was followed by stops at Brown and Rhode Island, in addition to the aforementioned schools, with all but two of those seasons spent on the defensive side of the ball. Last season was the sixth time in the last eight years Blackney has helped a team to a bowl bid.

The Falcon mentor spent much of his time since the conclusion of the 1991 season speaking to different public and civic groups as well as speaking at many football camps and clinics.

His success story is certainly one that makes all people feel thankful for their own situation.

In March, 1986, Gary’s wife, Lauretta, suffered a basilar artery aneurysm which has led to her need for 24 hour care ever since.

Forced to take over the duties of running the household, which were previously handled by Lauretta, Blackney made the necessary changes and still keeps up with the demands of being a head coach and a father.

A lesser person may have felt pity for themselves in that situation, but not Blackney.

“I look at Lauretta’s situation and know she could call it quits. But she keeps competing to get better and better. If you want to talk about endurance and courage, look at her - not me.”

Gary and his wife have four children, Debbie, David, Kyle and Gary Jr.

All games live (Eastern Time) on SportsChannel Ohio and Cincinnati. Schedule subject to change.
Founded in 1946, the MAC is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big East, Big Eight, Big West, Pacific-10, Southeastern, Southwest and Western Athletic conferences.

Entering its 46th year of existence, the MAC consists of 10 state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The ten current members—the University of Akron, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University. Nine schools have been members of the conference for 15 or more years. The University of Akron competes in its first MAC season this fall.

The 10 member institutions have a total enrollment of better than 220,000, with individual enrollments ranging from 16,000 to 30,000, and have produced more than one million alumni. The MAC is the fourth-largest conference in the country in terms of undergraduate enrollment.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men's sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

The MAC is the only Division I conference with its own Hall of Fame. A total of 43 individuals has been inducted into the MAC Hall of Fame in its first five years of existence, including 16 inductees with football backgrounds. Some of those include Ara Parseghian (Miami), Doyt Perry, (Bowling Green), Bo Schembechler (Miami), Jaci Lambert (Kent) and Phil Villapiano (Bowling Green).

Numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition during the MAC's 45 years. Bowling Green was recognized as the national small college champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second-longest streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years the non-conference victims of MAC teams include opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

A PAIR OF ACES

There have been some duos down through the years that have distinguished themselves to the point they became a household word.

Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire were one of the best duos on the dance floor, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were magical as a pair in making comedy movies, the Smothers Brothers had their own television show at one point and continue to be one of the top comedy acts, Lewis and Clark are given credit for opening up the Western United States after making their trip west by canoe/raft, and David Brinkley and Chet Huntley were a national news tandem for many years.

The Bowling Green State University football team has a pair of players who, while they might not be household names to rank with the aforementioned duos, as we begin the 1992 season this evening, they could be by the time the 74th year of Falcon football is completed.

They already are on the minds of many who pick All-America teams and those who are canvassing the country looking for the top talent with an eye on the 1993 draft.

Both quarterback Erik White and flanker Mark Szlachcic were tabbed for honorable mention All-America honors last season by United Press International breaking the ice and getting their names on some checklists as players to watch for the coming season.

And both have earned some pre-season honors. Szlachcic was tabbed by Football Digest as a second team pre-season All-American behind only Sean LaChapelle from UCLA and Orlando Truitt from Mississippi State. In addition, he was an honorable mention pick by The Sporting News.

White was an honorable mention selection by Street and Smith and he was ranked as the 17th best quarterback in the country by the Sporting News.

The Falcon duo will also get to exhibit their talents against a couple of Big Ten teams and a couple of the best defensive backs in the country in junior safeties Roger Harper at Ohio State and Reggie Holt at Wisconsin.

It would be hard to believe the pair could have better seasons than one year ago, Szlachcic with 76 catches for 1,132 yards, both figures among the top 12 in the nation, and White, who completed 57% of his passes for 2,467 yards and 19 touchdowns, but both are expecting to increase their productivity.

Many of the great pass-and-catch combinations in previous years, such as the Daryle Lamonica to Fred Biletnikoff combination of the then Oakland Raiders, the Terry Bradshaw to Lynn Swann combo for the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Baltimore Colts’ duo of Johnny Unitas and Raymond Berry and the San Francisco 49ers pair of Joe Montana and Jerry Rice, had an uncanny way of knowing where the other would be, and it seemed knew what the other was thinking.

While a certain amount of that also pertains to BGSU’s duo, they think there are some other factors even more important in their success.

Erik White (#7) threw at least one touchdown pass in all 12 games last season on his way to MAC Most Valuable Player honors.

EYE OF THE MAC: Wednesday during the season by PASS (Wood Cable channel 40). The show begins Sept. 2 at 10 p.m. The remainder of the times for September are as follows: Sept. 9 (7 p.m.), Sept. 16 (10:30 p.m.), Sept. 23 (10:30 p.m.) and Sept. 30 (10 p.m.). The show will also be aired on SportChannel (Wood Cable channel 34) every Saturday at noon throughout the season.

THE SERIES: In a series that has seen both teams meet every year since 1954, the Falcons hold a substantial 27-9-2 edge. WMU won the first meeting in 1954 and then did not win again until 1966. BG has won seven of the last 10 meetings between the two schools, but the three WMU wins have come in the last five years. The two teams have split the last six series games at Perry Stadium with WMU working on a two-game winning streak prior to Thursday night's season opener. WMU won the 1980 game by a 19-15 count and the 1987 contest by a 24-20 score. Overall, BG leads the series in games played on their home turf by a 14-4-1 count. All four shutouts in the series belong to BGSU, with the last one in 1975. BG has won five of the six series games decided by a field goal or less, including the last four. BG holds a 10-5 edge in games decided by a touchdown or less. Three of the last five series games have been decided by seven points or less.

BG EARNED VOTES IN AP POLL: After finishing 30th in the country in both the AP and USA Today/ESPN polls last season, BGSU received six points in the pre-season AP poll to tie for the 43rd spot. Two of BG's opponents this season, Ohio State and East Carolina, were ranked 19th and 37th, respectively. BG finished last season ranked 26th in the nation by the Football News, which had the Falcons ranked 36th in the nation going into the 1992 campaign. The Falcons broke into one preseason top 25 as the Petersen's College Football Preview had the Falcons ranked 25th.

SEASON/MAC OPENERS: BGSU has compiled a 40-26-7 (.596) record in season openers down through the years. Since 1947, BG has a record of 32-12-1 (.722) in the opening game of the season. The Falcons are 22-8-2 (.719) in season openers at home. This season marks the second successive year the Falcons have started the year at home. They started the season at home just three times in the '80s. BG opened last season with a 17-6 win over Eastern Michigan. The Falcons have not lost a season opener at home since a 14-6 setback to Utah State in 1969. BGSU has won all six of its previous home MAC openers, which were also the season openers, since joining the league in 1982. In fact, BG has not lost a season opener which was also a MAC contest in 10 tries. BG has compiled a 26-12-2 (.675) record in league openers through the years, including a 14-6 mark at home.

CAPTAINS NAMED: In a vote of the players, tri-captains have been named for the 1992 season. Leading this year's team will be senior quarterback Erik White (Massillon, Ohio/Washington), senior inside linebacker Artie Mangham (Holly, Mich.) and senior free safety Dave Bielinski.

SEASON/MAC OPENERS: BGSU has compiled a 40-26-7 (.596) record in season openers down through the years. Since 1947, BG has a record of 32-12-1 (.722) in the opening game of the season. The Falcons are 22-8-2 (.719) in season openers at home. This season marks the second successive year the Falcons have started the year at home. They started the season at home just three times in the '80s. BG opened last season with a 17-6 win over Eastern Michigan. The Falcons have not lost a season opener at home since a 14-6 setback to Utah State in 1969. BGSU has won all six of its previous home MAC openers, which were also the season openers, since joining the league in 1982. In fact, BG has not lost a season opener which was also a MAC contest in 10 tries. BG has compiled a 26-12-2 (.675) record in league openers through the years, including a 14-6 mark at home.

CAPTAINS NAMED: In a vote of the players, tri-captains have been named for the 1992 season. Leading this year's team will be senior quarterback Erik White (Massillon, Ohio/Washington), senior inside linebacker Artie Mangham (Holly, Mich.) and senior free safety Dave Bielinski.

Catches like this one against Ball State last season are becoming commonplace for senior wide receiver Mark Szlachcic.
Senior Steve Bosko is one of only two linemen returning this season for the Falcons. Bosko started at guard last season, but will switch over to center for the '92 campaign.
THE FALCON CLUB NEEDS YOU!

To Our Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $250,000 in 1992. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1992 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU’s athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green’s athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1992-93 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1992!

Sincerely,

Fran Voll
Associate Athletic Director

Library “Linked” To Others

New and improved are familiar words when advertisers tout laundry detergent, toothpaste, yogurt or even soft drinks.

But libraries? Absolutely.

“Our new and improved library system will be quicker and easier to use,” Dr. Chris Miko, head of the Ogg Science Library at Bowling Green State University, proudly predicted.

The new system not only will enable students, faculty and staff to search more quickly and easily for materials available at the Bowling Green libraries, but it also will allow researchers to browse through, search for and even order materials at numerous other Ohio university libraries.

The new and improved system is, of course, a computer system.

Called BGLINK, it is part of a larger computer network, the Ohio Library and Information Network (OhioLINK), which will eventually allow 17 Ohio university libraries to share resources.

Expected to come on line this week, BGLINK is being sponsored by the Ohio Board of Regents through its Academic Excellence Program.

When the project is completed, the University's holdings will be electronically expanded from the current 1.6 million volumes to more than 21 million, Dr. Rush Miller, dean of libraries and learning resources, said. And OhioLINK is guaranteeing a two- or three-day delivery turnaround, he added.

BGLINK, which will be installed this fall, is actually a test program of OhioLINK involving six universities—the University of Cincinnati and Wright State, Miami, Case Western Reserve, Central State, and Bowling Green universities.

As the state legislature makes funds available, other universities will be added to the network. It is estimated that all Ohio public universities will be networked within four years.

The Board of Regents' plan has wonderful timing, according to Miko, who said the library's current LS2 information retrieval system needed to be replaced. “It fills a great need because of the antiquated system we now have,” he said.

Assistant dean of libraries Dr. Dennis East agreed, saying the new system is very cost-efficient for the University because the state is purchasing much of the needed hardware and software.

The University will have to purchase some of the hardware it will need, including a number of computer terminals. That cost is expected to be less than $100,000.

The total cost of getting the University on-line, however, will be almost $800,000, with the Ohio Board of Regents funding the difference.

When the network comes on-line, a researcher looking for a book will enter the author name and title into the computer. The computer will search the Bowling Green library database. If the book is not part of the University collection or if it is checked out, the computer will then make an expanded search of other universities’ databases until it finds the book at the nearest location.

The book can then be ordered and shipped to the Bowling Green library.

Training sessions will be held this fall and information sheets will be available to help researchers become proficient with the system, although Miko said the system is very user-friendly.

When the network is complete and all universities are part of the system, Miller said, it will be the most advanced library computer network in the country.

And it will only be the beginning. In years to come, researchers will have almost unimagined computer power and flexibility at their fingertips. The system will eventually be multi-functional and multi-tasking, East said.

In addition to catalog information and networking, the system will provide database information including abstracts for periodicals and journals, as well as telefax possibilities.

When everything is in place, East said, this system will allow a user at one university to call up a journal article at another university, read it and then FAX him or herself a copy.

Now that's something advertisers could call new and improved.

factor, confidence in one another is the biggest factor that influences our success," said Szlachcic, a product of Toledo Whitmer High School. "We both believe we can do it in any situation. This is our fifth year together here, and I believe he'll get me the ball and Erik knows I'll run the route and catch the ball."

But, while the players believe confidence plays a role in their success, offensive coordinator Michael Faragalli and head coach Gary Blackney both think they have that unknown trait that many of the great passing combinations have.

"We have quite a few routes where both Mark and Erik are reading the defense as the play develops and they have to be on the same page or most likely the pass will be incomplete or get intercepted," Faragalli said. "Off their numbers last season, they were on the same page many more times than they weren't."

"I think there is a chemistry between those two that's, maybe, undefinable," Blackney said. "But, you know it's there. You see the way they look at each other, they know each other, they adjust to each other. It is almost like they feel they are invincible as a combination. They are pretty doggone good.

"Almost every offense has pattern reads and adjustments that the receiver and quarterback have to make," Blackney said. "But, I think it goes beyond that with Erik and Mark. They have so much confidence in each other, that it is almost instinctive."

White and Szlachcic hooked up for many memorable catches last season, but not many as significant as the alley-op play at Western Michigan, before the game. But, Mark has such a great nose for the ball, that play has a great chance of succeeding when it's volleyballed around like that one was."

As far as this year goes, both feel the Falcons can become the first team in the MAC to repeat as league champions since 1980, but it will take a team effort to achieve that goal.

"I feel very confident right now," White said. "We have good team chemistry and the players have dedicated themselves and are working very hard. The big thing I sense is there is no complacency. We didn't win a whole lot before last year and those of us who were on the team last season liked the winning feeling."

The fact that both are seniors will also influence their play this season.

"I think this season also means more to us because we are seniors," said Szlachcic, who begins this evening having caught a pass in 25 consecutive games and a touchdown pass in six straight. "We want to go out on a winning note. It's always great to go out a winner as we saw with last year's senior class."

"Last year, sometimes I wasn't sure how we did it, but a lot of close games and crazy situations went our way," White said. "We're going to try and do it again this season."

Certainly, if the Falcons are to be the first MAC team to make the trip to Las Vegas, then White and Szlachcic will play a big role. BGSU has had its share of great passing combinations, from Brian McClure to Stan Hunter in the early to mid 80s, to Rich Dackin to Ronald Heard and Reggie Thornton most recently and Mark Miller to Jeff Groth in the 70s, but White to Szlachcic has a chance to rank right with those already in the record books.

"I think, at the collegiate level, they are by far the best pair I have ever been around," Faragalli said. "At their ages, they are as good as I've ever seen."

"I think Erik White is the type of quarterback who if he continues to develop can play beyond the college level," Blackney said. "And simply, Mark is the finest wide receiver I have been around, anywhere. I'm glad I don't have to defend them."

Offensive coordinator Michael Faragalli says Mark Szlachcic could have World War III going on around him and still catch the ball. "This catch against Ball State last season is a good illustration of that concentration."

FROM YOUR FRIENDS AT Frito-Lay

SOME TEAMMATES YOU NEVER OUTGROW.

A lasting financial relationship is forged through continuity of service and commitment to excellence across a lifetime of changing needs. From your first home mortgage to financing for your children’s education. From support of local business to investment in our community’s educational and athletic resources. Ohio Citizens makes every financial season a championship one.
THANKS, B.G.!

We're not the most conspicuous copier store in the area. Which is why your business means so much to us. You see, we know that you know that story: while the big universities get the attention, BGSU just does its job... and develops programs, academic and athletic, to rival any in the Midwest! So... thank you, BG, for letting Goodremont's and Minolta to help you in "reproducing" your very considerable accomplishments.

“FIRST CARE, THEN CARS”
FOR OVER 53 YEARS!

At Ed Schmidt, “first care, then cars” has been our way of doing business since we first opened over 53 years ago. We did business that way then, and we do it that way now! Before we try to put you in one of our cars, we try to put ourselves in your shoes. Some call that the Golden Rule, we just call it good business. And that way of doing business has given Ed Schmidt an A-1 rating in the Northwestern Ohio area. See us for all your automotive needs.

In large measure, Bowling Green State University's success has centered on its ability to offer its students the educational diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the caring and camaraderie of a small college.

That's a direct result of Bowling Green's research and teaching commitment, which attracts top scholars and graduate students and puts the University on the cutting edge of the development of exciting new knowledge, combined with a "We Care" attitude that students are introduced to when they first arrive on campus.

Today, the University has nearly 1,000 full- and part-time faculty and 18,000 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 69 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 60 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers five associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands enrollment tops 1,400 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 78 percent of whom hold Ph.D's, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized.

Three departments—chemistry, philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology—are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the MidAmerican Center for Contemporary Music, the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the Canadian studies program, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-American Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Last year, more than 4,000 "non-traditional" adult students enroll in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,177-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.6 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 600,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. This fall, a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building will be completed. Early next year, the $8.7 million field house should be ready for use. Pending approval of funds by the legislature, construction is scheduled to begin this fall for a $13.5 million classroom building and a $9.5 million major renovation of Eppler Hall.

The University has also accomplished its goal of making computers a vital part of each students education. There are 19 computer labs, including one in every residence hall complex.

A lot has happened since Dr. Paul J. Olscamp arrived at Bowling Green 10 years ago as the University’s eighth president.

Building upon the inherent strengths of the University’s faculty and its academic programs, Olscamp charted a course that would move Bowling Green into the ranks of the country’s most important colleges and universities. The effort focused on teaching research and service and has involved a University-wide commitment to excellence.

He adopted the slogan “An Environment for Excellence,” a clear indication of the vision he had for Bowling Green.

Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task ahead in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students; academic programs; learning resources, particularly computing and the library; and the faculty development, including recruitment of minority faculty.

Now, as Olscamp begins his 11th year at Bowling Green, many of those original goals have been met and new priorities have been established, including additional scholarships for academically gifted students, strengthening the graduate program and further enhancement of the University’s endowment.

One of his most important accomplishments has been to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have a key role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University’s Academic Charter. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

While always a concern, finances have taken center stage in recent years. With a tightening state budget, Olscamp has directed efforts to increase private giving. During his tenure, the school’s endowment has increased to nearly $35 million from $1.9 million when he arrived.

Olscamp also brings a personal touch to his presidency. He frequently hosts both students and faculty as his home. He also holds periodic forums with students wanting to discuss campus issues.

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since 1982. Here are some of the highlights:

Academic Programs

* Creation of Bowling Green’s first endowed professorships, in management, finance, chemistry and philosophy.
* Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multibillion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.
* Development of the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the only center of its kind in the state designed to assist manufacturing and other businesses in the design and production of products.

University Finances

* Expansion of the library’s holdings to more than four million items, including 1.7 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.
* Development of the Student Telephone Access System which enables students to schedule their classes from a touchtone telephone. The STAR system has made long registration lines a part of University history.

Physical Plant

* More than $132 million has been spent in the past 10 years for the construction of new buildings and upgrading existing buildings.
* Completion of the $7.2 million Physical Science Laboratory Building in 1984 and a $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building in 1988 and a $9.5 million addition to the Fine Arts Building.
* Construction is now nearing completion on an $8.7 million field house and is scheduled to begin soon on a $13.5 million classroom building.
* Construction is now nearing completion on an $8.7 million field house and is scheduled to begin soon on a $13.5 million classroom building.

Development of the Center for Photochemistry

* Creation of Bowling Green’s first endowed professorships for academically gifted students, strengthening the graduate program and further enhancement of the University’s endowment.
* Establishment of the University’s first major scholarship for minority students.
* Creation of a network of computer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall. Last year computers are being installed in each room of one residence hall, part of a pilot project which could result in other residence hall rooms being equipped with computers. One survey has BGSU listed 35th in the country in the number of personal computers on campus.

$5 million from the Board of Regent’s Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract top scholars, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence. Grants have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities.

* Creating a Canadian studies program emphasizing Canada-U.S. trade relations and economic development in the northwest Ohio region.

* More than 205 students are National Merit Scholars, one of the highest numbers on any campus in the country.
* Establishment of the University’s first major scholarship for minority students.
* Completion of the university’s $7.2 million Physical Plant Project.

More than $132 million has been spent in the past 10 years for the construction of new buildings and upgrading existing buildings. The balance is approaching $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in 1994. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.

* Developing a plan to restructure debt service obligations which is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 10 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.

* Expansion of the library’s holdings to more than four million items, including 1.7 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.
* Development of the Student Telephone Access System which enables students to schedule their classes from a touchtone telephone. The STAR system has made long registration lines a part of University history.

Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings includes Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzen halls, and Eppler Complex. Construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.
The tradition of excellence that is Bowling Green State University athletics continued in 1991-92 as five Falcon teams established school records for victories, three captured league titles and two student-athletes earned Academic All-America honors.

As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the accomplishments of BGSU's coaches and student-athletes solidify BGSU's place as one of the top athletic programs in the country.

Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and, based on the performance of Falcon teams in the first two years, the 90s seem headed in the same direction.

Bowling Green claimed 24 conference titles during the 1980s, 19 in the Mid-American Conference and four in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. In addition, twenty-one teams were involved in post-season play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

The following is a brief synopsis of each program in the BGSU Athletic Department...

BASEBALL - The program has a young, energetic leader in third-year head coach Danny Schmitz who will be looking to develop one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, coached in the minor leagues at the AAA level. Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the top pitchers in the game - Roger McDowell and Orel Hershiser - who play for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN'S BASKETBALL - After making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time in 30 years in 1989-90 under head coach Jim Larranaga, a young BGSU squad won 14 games last season and almost defeated the MAC champion in the league tournament. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in postseason appearances (22 games), victories (eight) and number of All-Americans (eight). Former NBA standouts Nate Thurmond and Al Bianchi are among BGSU's alumni. Thurmond and coaching great Harold Anderson were inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 1985.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL - The Falcons boast the most successful first-year head coach in the country in Jaci Clark who led a tradition-rich program to 24 victories last season. The Falcons should be a league favorite again this season with 10 letterwinners returning, including the top five scorers. The Falcons are the winningest team in MAC history having captured four league tournament titles and made four trips to the NCAA Tournament. Over the last six seasons, the program has won over 75% of its games. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including an MAC record crowd of 4,100 for BG's NCAA Tournament victory over Cincinnati in 1989.

CROSS COUNTRY - The program is in good hands with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four CC titles in the 1980s. Now, he's working his magic with the men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his third year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL - The Falcons will look to repeat a storybook 1991 season which saw rookie head coach Gary Blackney tie the NCAA record for most wins by a first-year head coach as BGSU won 11 contests, the MAC title and the California Raisin Bowl. The Falcons will be looking to become the first team to repeat in the MAC since 1980 while earning a bid to the Las Vegas Bowl. The program has won nine league titles. BGSU alumni include former NFL all-pros Phil Villapiano (Oakland) and Mike Weger (Detroit) and Doug Smith, who will begins his 15th season with the Los Angeles Rams this year.

GOLF - Coach Greg Nye's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men's program has won four MAC Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women's program is annually among the best in the region.

GYMNASTICS - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields an MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1980, the Falcons have qualified as a team for postseason competition five of the last nine years. In each of the last four seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score led by Mary Beth Priel, who qualified for the NCAA regional meet each of the last three seasons.

HOCKEY - A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. Coach Jerry York ranks among the best collegiate coaches of all-time with 429 career wins having led the Falcons to four CCHA regular season championships and one league playoff title. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey's greatest names, 11 of which who currently play in the NHL, including defenseman Garry Galley and goalie Mike Liut.

SOCCER - Coach Gary Palmisano's Falcons posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and his teams in the 90s will look to continue that tradition. The 1991 team posted a sparkling 16-2-2 record on their way to the league title and a #5 ranking in the Great Lakes region. The BGSU schedule annually includes perennial NCAA power Indiana and other top teams in the region. BGSU also hosts the Kwik Goal/BGSU Classic having won the title in five of the seven years the tournament has been contested. BG has won 12 or more matches in six of the last 10 years while winning 61% of their contests over the same period.

SOFTBALL - Head coach Jacquie Joseph led her team to one the most successful seasons in the history of the program winning 37 games last season, a school record. Many of the key personnel return from that record-setting team which points to more more success in the future for the program. The Falcons last won the MAC Championship in 1988, a year that ended with BGSU playing host to the NCAA Midwest Regional. Last season's squad was the runner-up in the MAC.

SWIMMING AND DIVING - Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, returns for his sixth year. The Falcon women have made winning a habit. Thirteen dual meet wins in 1991-92 established a school record while they have never finished lower than third in 12 MAC meets. The men's team improved to 4th in the MAC last season, their second-best finish in the last 10 years. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest's top swimming and diving facilities. TENNIS - The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region - Robert Keefe Courts. The men's team, under the guidance of second-year coach Dave Morin, finished third in the MAC last season and he returns his entire lineup intact for the 1992-93 season. The women's program is under the guidance of Penny Dean, who is in her third season.

TRACK & FIELD - Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, had two athletes compete in the NCAA meet and two compete in the U.S. Olympic Trials. BG 800-meter runner Todd Black barely missed making it to the finals in the Olympic Trials in his specialty. Among the track alumni is six-time NCAA All-American and 1972 Olympic gold medalist Dave Wottle. Sid Sink heads the men's track team, while Steve Price directs the women's program.

VOLLEYBALL - Coach Denise Van De Walle has steadily built the Falcon volleyball program into one of the best in the country. Last year's team won the regular season and MAC tournament titles to earn the program's first trip to the NCAA Tournament. Twenty-nine wins established a school record while marking the fifth time in the last six years the program has won at least 20 matches. Van De Walle, three times named the league Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to 141 wins over the last six seasons or a victory three out of every four times they've played.

The NCAA—Working Together Toward a Common Goal

By David Housel, Sports Information Director, Auburn University

What is the NCAA?

The question could be answered simply by saying “National Collegiate Athletic Association,” but in reality the NCAA is much more than four words.

It is also much more than a staff working in Overland Park, Kansas, on administrative details of America’s intercollegiate athletics programs.

To say that the NCAA is a staff or a group of people is to misunderstand not only what the NCAA is, but what its goals and objectives are.

In reality, the NCAA is composed of some 1,000 colleges and universities across the United States. The NCAA, in its truest sense, is every member institution working together for the common good of all. It is democracy in action. All rules, all policies, all procedures, even the directions and goals of the NCAA are determined by the colleges and universities working and voting together in a common body.

As with any organization made up of individuals or member institutions, the requirements in any given area, are continually changing in response to the desires of the membership. But the goal is always the same—a sound mind, a sound body, a spirit that is unafraid and a clean sports program that develops those qualities individually, institutionally and nationally.

Perhaps no area of the NCAA comes under more inspection than the enforcement program. Yet, even there, the NCAA is responsive to the needs and concerns of the individual institutions working together for what they perceive to be the common good. The colleges and universities make the rules. The NCAA staff, working under the direction of the colleges and universities, simply administer the programs designed by the members. And it is the Committee on Infractions, which is comprised of college administrators from around the country, that determines sanctions levied against fellow members.

Just as integrity is the key to an academic program, it also is vital to healthy competition between NCAA member institutions. The colleges and universities seek to create an atmosphere in which all institutions have an equal chance to recruit America’s outstanding student-athletes. It is then up to member schools to help the individual student-athletes be as good as they can be, both in the classroom and in their athletic endeavors.

For all of the attention it receives, the enforcement program is but one small part of the NCAA’s total concern. The NCAA administers 79 championships in three divisions in 21 sports. More than 18,000 men and women student-athletes compete annually in these events, designed to determine national champions.

Other programs under the auspices of the NCAA include the National Youth Sports Program. NYSP is a unique summer program that offers sports skills instruction, competition, improved physical fitness, and enrichment opportunities for economically disadvantaged youth between the ages of 10 and 16.

The NCAA conducts free Youth Education through Sports (YES) clinics in many sports, annually providing thousands of youngsters expert instruction from the best collegiate coaches, as well as important information about academics and substance-abuse prevention.

The NCAA and the NCAA Foundation also administer several scholarship programs that benefit not only deserving student-athletes but also students in general. The NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Program has distributed more than $5.1 million to some 2,300 student-athletes for full-time graduate study; two Walter Byers Postgraduate Scholarship winners annually receive $7,500 renewable stipends; the NCAA Ethnic Minority Enhancement Program and the NCAA Women’s Enhancement Program each provide scholarship awards to qualified individuals for postgraduate study in sports administration; and the NCAA makes available grants to undergraduate student-athletes who have exhausted their institutional financial aid opportunity and who wish to complete their undergraduate degrees.

More information about these scholarship programs is available from the NCAA administration department.

The NCAA also sponsors one of America’s foremost honors programs, which is designed to recognize yesterday’s and today’s top athletes, and the contributions of intercollegiate athletics as a whole to the country and society.

It has been said, and rightfully so, that sports is but a microcosm of society. Never before has it been more true, for sport and for the NCAA.

However, the goal of the NCAA is still the same—America’s colleges and universities working together for the common good of higher education, and the young men and women who study and compete for NCAA member institutions.
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JACK GREGORY

Since his appointment 11 years ago as director of athletics at Bowling Green State University, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Falcon men's and women's teams on equal terms with today's elite intercollegiate athletic programs. To reach these goals, Gregory challenges his staff of administrators, coaches and classified personnel to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 15 Mid-American Conference regular season championships in football, men's and women's basketball, softball, women's cross country, gymnastics, men's golf, and volleyball;
- three California Bowl appearances;
- four MAC postseason tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season championships;
- one CCHA postseason tournament championship;
- 17 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including 15 in the last six years, the most of any MAC school;
- three home NCAA Tournament berths in hockey, softball and women's basketball;
- and the 1987-88 and 1991-92 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women's sports.

Under Gregory's guidance, the Falcon athletic program completed one of its best seasons ever in 1991-92 with five teams setting records for wins in a season, two earning postseason berths and the women's programs earning the Jacoby Trophy for the second time in the last five years.

Postseason appearances by five BGSU teams highlighted the 1990-91 and 1989-90 seasons. The appearance of the men's basketball team in the NIT for the second consecutive year marked the first time since the early 60's that the program had earned back-to-back postseason invitations. In 1988-90, Bowling Green was the only school in the country that sent teams to national postseason tournaments in men's and women's basketball and hockey.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school's 75 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in football. Behind Gregory's leadership, the football program attained I-A status.

Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women's basketball games during Gregory's tenure. Soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball are drawing larger crowds, too. Another “first” during Gregory's tenure occurred in the fall of 1990 when more than 25,000 fans turned out for the first night game in Perry Field history.

In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Perry Stadium to witness the Bowling Green-Toledo football clash, one of college football's best rivalries. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, the third-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are a tradition. In 1989-90, 1,700 seats were added to the BGSU Ice Arena, and all attendance records were broken, including single game (5,005) and season (79,376) marks.

With the growing interest in TV sports programming, Gregory has aggressively negotiated for live television coverage of BGSU sports events. Last year, Falcon football, basketball and hockey all attracted live TV coverage. This year promises more of the same. Falcon football and basketball will be aired as part of the MAC Game of the Week broadcasts, while Falcon hockey will continue to play in front of a national TV audience as part of the CCHA Game of the Week.

With the world of college athletics changing constantly, it is important for Gregory to be as active on the national level. Gregory has served on numerous NCAA committees including the Executive Committee and is one of the most active athletic directors on a national level in the MAC. He has also served in many different capacities, in both the MAC and CCHA.

Gregory, 64, has also been instrumental in the development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed all of northern and west central Ohio, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of college athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the "student" in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed an academic coordinator in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC.

Many BGSU student-athletes have excelled in the classroom. Volleyball's Linda Popovich became the MAC's first female to receive the Byers Scholarship in May, 1990. There were more than 160 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point average of 3.0 or better in 1991-92, including three who were named an Academic All-American, raising the total to 18 Academic All-Americans in the last six years.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master's degree from Temple University, Gregory and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green. They are the parents of two sons and have two grandchildren.
Today's Halftime Show

BGSU FALCON MARCHING BAND

In peacetime and in war, America's spirit and love of freedom have been expressed through music. Today, the Falcon Marching Band opens the 1992 season with a salute to that spirit of America: that sense of pride every American feels as our Olympians stand on the winner's platform, as the men and women of our armed forces parade by with heads held high, as our Star-Spangled Banner waves gallantly in the breeze.

We begin with an exciting fanfare and tribute to our service men and women, whose courage and loyalty have persevered to ensure the blessings of liberty for all Americans. “Anchors Away” salutes our men and women in blue, and our “Armed Forces Salute” is a stirring medley of familiar melodies.

Throughout the world, people are striving to break free from the bonds of tyranny, many giving their lives so that their children may one day live in freedom. Next, we pay homage to our own liberty with “Freedom Fanfare”, followed by the ever beautiful and moving “Battle Hymn of the Republic”.

With our “spacious skies”, “amber waves of grain”, “purple mountains”, and “fruited plains”, America is a land of wondrous natural beauty. Our tribute to America continues with “America the Beautiful”, a melody as enduring and grand as our natural treasures.

Nothing stirs the American soul like a great march, and our final selection may perhaps be one of the greatest marches ever written. In 1987, it was named America’s National March. We close today’s show with John Philip Sousa’s “Stars and Stripes Forever.”

ATHLETIC PROMOTIONS

by BRAD BROWNING
Director, Marketing & Promotions

Good evening football fans and welcome to Doyt L. Perry Stadium!

Tonight's game promises to be fun! It is the third night game ever at Doyt L. Perry Stadium. More importantly, in addition to it being the season opener for both teams, it represents a key conference matchup. The Falcons are the consensus preseason pick to repeat as conference champs and bring a 5-0 home record under coach Gary Blackney into tonight’s game. The game has been sponsored by Pepsi-Cola. Enjoy!

Let's look ahead to the rest of the Falcons' 1992 home schedule:

- Game two on September 26 against East Carolina, following trips to Ohio State and Wisconsin. The Pirates finished their 1991 season with a Peach Bowl victory over North Carolina State and a national ranking of ninth. The last time these two teams met was in 1989, when the Pirates buried the visiting Falcons 41-6. Barney’s Convenience Mart will be the game sponsor, also denoted Varsity BG Day.

- Homecoming festivities will feature the Falcons doing battle with Ohio University on October 10. Bowling Green defeated the Bobcats 45-14 last year and leads the series 25-17-2. The sponsor of this game will be Food Town Supermarkets.

- Game four will certainly be exciting as the Miami Redskins come to town. Highly-touted Miami was picked to win the conference in several preseason polls and this game could be significant in effecting the final MAC standings. Get your tickets now! This will also be Bowling Green’s annual Group Day.

- To conclude their 1992 home schedule, the Falcons will host Ball State on November 14. Along with highlighting Parents’ Day weekend, the game will mark the end of a career for the seniors. BG squeaked by the Cardinals last year, 14-13. But the Cardinals have been picked by many to contend for the conference title.

Tickets for future Falcon home games can be purchased here tonight at the will call booth, located on the East side concourse, during halftime. Also, during regular working hours at the Memorial Hall Ticket Office (372-2762) and the following ticket outlets:

- In Bowling Green: Memorial Hall Ticket Office (BGSU), Chamber of Commerce, 163 N. Main St.
- In Findlay: B & G Drugs, 528 S. Main St.
- In Fostoria: Bill’s Men’s and Boys’ Wear, 118 S. Main St.
- In Perrysburg: WFOB, Center and Main Streets
- In Toledo: Huntington Bank, Downtown Huntington Bank, Three Meadows Kroger, 27386 Carronade Dr.
- The Sports Gallery, 5577 Monroe St.

Group discounts, including free parking, are available for purchases of 15 or more tickets. Call me at 372-7093 for more information. Finally, pocket schedules for all Falcon fall sports are now available at the athletic department offices and downtown Bowling Green stores.

Thank you for your attendance!

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $20 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 600 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $200; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $100.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes two major projects each year. In July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
• Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
• A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
• Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
• Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

A Mid-American Conference record crowd of 33,527 attended the Toledo-Bowling Green game in 1983.

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 27th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,000, an average of 22,400.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift four years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Stadium are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic counselor’s office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 13th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 81-42-5 record in the 128 games played at Perry Stadium. Over the last 10 seasons, Bowling Green is 37-9-3 at home for a .786 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Stadium has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to the NCAA, Perry is fourth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy (Notre Dame) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU Athletic Director for seven years after stepping down as football coach.

Stadium Dedication Set for September 26

At halftime of the Sept. 26 Bowling Green State University football game against East Carolina, a special ceremony will be held to dedicate the stadium in the name of former BGSU football coach and athletic director Doyt L. Perry.

The facility was previously called Doyt L. Perry Stadium and will be renamed Doyt L. Perry Stadium.

Doyt’s wife, Loretta, along with other family members will be present to accept a gift commemorating the dedication of the stadium in the name of her late husband.

Perry was inducted into the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame in 1988, he was a BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame inductee in 1971 and an inductee into the Mid-American Conference Hall of Fame in 1988.

Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Retired Jersey
The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73, when he rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-Mid-American Conference running back, gaining more than 1,000 yards in each of his three years on the varsity.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon
Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added in the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?
The 1992 season marks the 65th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Why Orange and Brown?
Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination.

The first football game also signals the advent of a new athletic year for everyone in the BGSU Athletic Department and the beginning of the new academic year for everyone at the University. Like the football team, the cross country, soccer and volleyball teams have been practicing the last few weeks for their seasons. The following is a short synopsis of what you can expect from those squads this fall.

Cross Country

Both Sid Sink for the men and Steve Price for the women have one of the top runners in the Mid-American Conference in which to build their 1992 teams around. The men will be led by senior Todd Black, an 800 meter specialist in track who has had good success in the longer distances of cross country. Black was an all-league, All-Ohio and All-Central Collegiate performer last season in cross country.

He then red-shirted during track last spring and qualified for the U.S. Olympic Trials failing to reach the finals in the 800 meters by two-tenths of a second. This summer he ran in four meets overseas with a U.S. Olympic Development team.

Also expected to be top performers this season is juniors Eddie Nicholson and Shawn Howard and senior Dane Schubert. Two talented sophomores, Scott Kelly and Brad Schaser, should also contribute.

Price will lean heavily on senior Cheri Triner to get the Falcon women back among the top teams in the MAC. Triner was the team MVP last season and was all-league and All-Ohio as a sophomore.

Senior Jill Strawser also returns to give Price a good complement to Triner and another runner capable of earning All-MAC honors. Strawser had the second-fastest timing on the team last season.

Both teams open their season Sept. 12 at the Jeff Drenth Invitational in Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

Soccer

The soccer team, under head coach Gary Palmisano, who begins his 15th season this year, will be looking to improve upon a 16-2-2 mark and a #5 ranking in the Great Lakes Region.

While that is an ambitious goal, it is one that can be realized as 14 lettermen return, including seven starters. BG is gunning for its fourth Mid-America Soccer Conference title in the last six years.

Leading the way for the Falcons will be tri-captains Rob Martella, Tom Kinney and Chris Williams.

Martella, who needs just 29 points to become the career scoring leader at BGSU, is a three-time All-Mideast selection. Kinney was second on the team with 19 points last season from his midfield position while Williams has been a starter along the back line all four years.

The Falcons also return five other seniors, including the other three players, Pepe Aragon, Brian Lord and Ryan Dell, who will defend the Falcon goal along with William.

Brian Ferguson, who missed all of last season with a knee injury, also returns in the midfield area.

BGSU will host its annual Kwik Goal Classic Sept. 12-13 with Lafayette, Western Kentucky and Ohio State rounding out the field after opening the season this weekend in a tournament hosted by Wisconsin.

Volleyball

Coach Denise Van De Walle's squad is also looking to repeat a season which was the best in the history of the program.

Her 1991 squad posted a 29-5 record and easily won regular season and postseason league championships to garner their first NCAA Tournament bid.

The Falcons only lose two players from the '91 team, but they are probably two of best players to ever wear the Brown and Orange - Tammy Schiller, two-time MAC Player of the Year, and Lisa Mika, a four-time All-MAC selection.

Van De Walle will count heavily on the play and leadership of three seniors - setter Carey Amos, middle hitter Angellette Love and left side hitter Holli Costein.

Amos set a school record with 1,316 assists last season and was a second team All-MAC pick. Love came right into the program last season from the junior college level and contributed 179 kills and 262 digs. Costein is the top returning hitter after racking up 260 kills last season.

While looking for their third MAC title in the last four years, the 1992 team will also look to maintain BG's status as one of the top programs in the region.

The women begin the 1992 season tomorrow night hosting Temple in the first match of their Brown and Orange Invitational.
