ABOUT THE COVER: Nobody has given more up to help the Falcons win this season than senior fullback LeRoy Smith, pictured in action against East Carolina earlier this season. Smith, a second team All-MAC selection last year, moved to fullback this season in order to strengthen the backfield. He and tailback Zeb Jackson form one of the best running back combos in the Midwest.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT
TODAY: The Falcons can take a giant step toward a second successive Mid-American Conference title this afternoon with a win over rival Miami. But, the Redskins are the only MAC team which holds a series edge on BG and will again be a formidable opponent. Miami also has to win to keep alive any hopes of winning the MAC title.

THE SERIES: The only MAC school which holds a series edge over the Falcons is Miami. The Redskins hold a 31-13-5 edge since the first game was played between the two schools in 1941. The two teams have played each year since 1950. BG's 17-7 win last season was its first since the 1985 season. The Falcons have a 6-14-4 record at home in the series against Miami with the last two meetings of the two schools at Perry Stadium ending in a tie (10-10 in 1990 and 21-21 in 1989). In the last 10 meetings between the two schools, each team has four wins with the two ties. Miami had 11 and eight game winning streaks at different times in the series to build their advantage. There have been six shutouts in the series, the last one in 1969, with the Falcons owning two of those (1969 and 1941). The two teams have split the eight series games decided by three points or less while Miami holds a 12-5 edge in games decided by a touchdown or less. In the last seven games of the series there have been two ties and four of the other five games have been decided by 10 points or less.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE: The Falcons are 40-9-3 (.798) at home over the last 10-plus seasons while over the same period that record improves to 36-6-3 (.833) in home MAC contests. The Falcons have won eight consecutive home games. The school record for most consecutive home wins is 13 between 1984 and 1986 while between 1946 and 1949 BG football teams had a 14-game unbeaten streak.

What Bowling Green head coach Gary Blackney can accomplish for an encore to the 1991 season is a challenge he is looking forward to. Then again, challenges are something that have followed him throughout his coaching and personal life.

The effervescent Blackney has won the hearts of many in the Bowling Green community, both on and off campus, as well as many in Northwest Ohio and the state despite being on the job only 20 months. He also earned the respect of the coaches in the Mid-American Conference with the turnaround he orchestrated last season.

There wasn’t any doubt in the minds of his colleagues when the voting for MAC Coach of the Year came around last fall. They were unanimous in their selection of him as the top mentor in the MAC.

It is not hard to believe why the vote was unanimous.

All Blackney did, in not only his first season at BGSU but his first season as a collegiate head coach, was take a 3-5-2 team and turn them into an 11-1 squad. The Falcons clinched the MAC title with two weeks of the league schedule still remaining, which is believed to be the earliest any team has ever wrapped up the title.

The Blackney File

Full Name: Gary Richard Blackney
Age: 47
Birthdate/Place: December 10, 1944/Astoria, New York
Hometown: Plainview, New York
Height/Weight: 5-8/180
Began at BGSU: December 5, 1990
Wife: Lauretta
Children: Debbie (25), David (24), Kyle (18), Gary Jr. (14)

The final standings showed BG with a perfect 8-0 mark while the second place team finished at 3-1-4.

The top first-year coach in the country last season, Blackney was just the fifth coach in MAC history to lead his team to an outright conference title in his first season. He is also the winningest first-year head coach in BGSU history. The 11 wins by the 1991 team tied the school record.

In addition to his being named the top coach in the MAC, Blackney was also recognized by his peers, members of the American Football Coaches Association, as the Region 3 Coach of the Year. Region 3 includes schools in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois. In addition, the schools of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa are also included in the region.

Blackney also received the Award of Distinction from the Touchdown Club of Columbus in February for his work with the BGSU football program last year.

But, in a sport that involves so many people, it would not be fair to give all of the credit for the 1991 Bowling Green State University football season to one person. But, certainly to find the mastermind behind the resurgence of the program one would have to look no further than Blackney.

Blackney, 47, began immediately to work on the confidence of a squad that had never had a winning season. At the same time, he wanted to test the commitment of the team. It didn’t take Blackney or his staff long to find out the team was thirsting for a winner and looking for someone to put the pieces together. Blackney was that person.

A little less than two years ago, Blackney realized his dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. He certainly paid his dues serving as an assistant coach the previous 21 years at such programs as Wisconsin, UCLA, Syracuse and, most recently, Ohio State. The list of coaches he served under ranks among the best in the collegiate game—such as Dick MacPherson, Terry Donahue, Earle Bruce, Ric Forzano and John Cooper.

The Plainview, New York native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Connecticut, in 1968, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on a staff that included, in addition to Forzano, current Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz, former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano, Dave Adolph and Dan Sekanovich, both NFL assistant coaches.

That was followed by stops at Brown and Rhode Island, in addition to the aforementioned schools, with all but two of those seasons spent on the defensive side of the ball. Last season was the sixth time in the last eight years Blackney has helped a team to a bowl bid.

The Falcon mentor spent much of his time since the conclusion of the 1991 season speaking to different public and civic groups as well as speaking at many football camps and clinics.

His success story is certainly one that makes all people feel thankful for their own situation.

In March, 1986, Gary’s wife, Lauretta, suffered a basilar artery aneurysm which has led to her need for 24 hour care ever since.

Forced to take over the duties of running the household, which were previously handled by Lauretta, Blackney made the necessary changes and still keeps up with the demands of being a head coach and a father.

A lesser person may have felt pity for themself in that situation, but not Blackney.

“I look at Lauretta’s situation and know she could call it quits. But she keeps competing to get better and better. If you want to talk about endurance and courage, look at her—not me.”

Gary and his wife have four children, Debbie, David, Kyle and Gary Jr.

Mid-American Conference

Founded in 1946, the MAC is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big East, Big Eight, Big West, Pacific-10, Southeastern, Southwest and Western Athletic conferences.

Entering its 46th year of existence, the MAC consists of 10 state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The ten current members—the University of Akron, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University. Nine schools have been members of the conference for 15 or more years. The University of Akron competes in its first MAC season this fall.

The 10 member institutions have a total enrollment of better than 220,000, with individual enrollments ranging from 16,000 to 30,000, and have produced more than one million alumni. The MAC is the fourth-largest conference in the country in terms of undergraduate enrollment.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men's sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

The MAC is the only Division I conference with its own Hall of Fame. A total of 43 individuals has been inducted into the MAC Hall of Fame in its first five years of existence, including 16 inductees with football backgrounds. Some of those include Ara Parseghian (Miami), Doyt Perry, (Bowling Green), Bo Schmehler (Miami), Jaci Lambert (Kent) and Phil Villapiano (Bowling Green).

Numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition during the MAC’s 45 years. Bowling Green was recognized as the national small college champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second-longest streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years the non-conference victims of MAC teams include opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

New and Used Sales — Plus Full Service
And That Good Old Friendly Family Atmosphere!
Today will be a special day for longtime BGSU athletic department employee Don Cunningham. Cunningham, who has been affiliated with the University in one manner or another for 50 years, will have the press box at Doyt L. Perry Stadium named after him this afternoon. Don will be honored at a ceremony which will be held prior to the start of today's game. The working area of the press box will now be called the Don A. Cunningham Press Box.

The naming of the press box in honor of Cunningham's many years of service to the University was approved Oct. 9 by the BGSU Board of Trustees upon the request of University President Paul J. Olscamp.

"This is a very deserving honor for a person who has given more to the athletic department and the University than you could ever put into words," said Jack Gregory, BGSU's athletic director. "We are very happy to be able to recognize Don in this manner. He spent many hours in various press boxes during his career and I think it is appropriate that the press box at Perry Stadium be named for him."

A native of Lima and a 1939 graduate of Lima South High School, Cunningham came to BGSU in the fall of 1939, and other than four years (1943-46) overseas in the service and one year with the DeVilbiss Company in Toledo, he has been associated with Bowling Green ever since.

He is a 1943 graduate of BGSU and began his 33-year administrative career at the University in 1946 as BG's first sports information director. He served as the sports information director for 20 years while also having additional duties as the athletic ticket manager and varsity golf coach. His 1956 golf team won the Mid-American Conference title.

In 1952 he was named the assistant athletic director. In 1976 he was elevated to associate athletic director. He also served as the athletic business manager, in addition to his other duties, from 1965 until his retirement in 1979.

Cunningham has received many honors from the University including Associate Athletic Director Emeritus status, the Alumni Service Award in 1976 and he was inducted into the BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

In addition, he is still active in the Varsity BG Club while also serving on the BGSU Athletic Hall of Fame Committee. Cunningham was a charter member of the Hall of Fame Committee.

Cunningham was also instrumental in the founding of the Mid-American Conference Service Bureau. He served as the part-time Director of News and Information for the MAC between 1957 and 1964. Cunningham produced the first MAC football and basketball press guides and supervised the press previews in those sports in the early days of the conference. He has a lifetime membership in the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

In 1981, Cunningham earned the highest honor a member of CoSIDA can receive when he was inducted into that organization's Hall of Fame.

Cunningham currently stays active in the community working with several organizations including Meals on Wheels and the Kiwanis Club. Cunningham also serves as one of the curators of the BGSU Athletic Archives office.

Cunningham and his wife, Harriet, still reside in Bowling Green. They are the parents of two daughters, Cheryl Windisch and Linda Cunningham, and one son, Scott.

Make Quitting Time Starting Time

With careful retirement planning, “quitting time” could be the start of the best part of your life. You’ll be free to see and do all the things you’ve dreamed of, but only if you plan ahead for how much those dreams will cost.

The time to start retirement planning is now. Call me today!

BG LOOKS TO EXTEND STREAK: The Falcons will be looking to extend a 13-game Mid-American Conference winning streak today against the Redskins. Miami holds the league record with 16 straight MAC wins between 1973 and 1975.

PROTECTING THE BALL: One of the reasons the Falcons are enjoying a five-game winning streak has been the ability of the BG players to hang onto the ball. BGSU has not lost the ball due to a fumble in the last five games and has committed just one fumble over that period. In the five games, BG players have handled the ball 943 times without losing the ball via a fumble. This was also a trait of last year’s league championship squad as over the last eight games of the season, BG lost the ball via fumble just three times with Falcon players handling the ball 540 times over that period.

TOUGH IN THE MAC: The Falcons are fourth in the MAC in total defense, but when considering their statistics in MAC games only, they would probably rank much higher. The Falcons have yielded just 619 yards on the ground in the five league games to date for a 123.8 average per game, more than 20 yards less than the season average. Through the air, the FG has given up 791 yards, or an average of 158.2 yards, which is about 16 yards less than their season average. In all, BG is giving up an average of just 282 yards per contest in MAC games. The BG defense is also yielding an average of just 11.8 points per contest in MAC play.

REDSKIN RAMBLINGS: Miami coach Randy Walker is in his third season heading the Redskins program and has compiled a 15-12-3 record. Walker was a running back on Miami teams between 1973-75 which won three MAC titles. Walker has settled on freshman Deland McCullough to be the tailback in the run-oriented Redskins offense. He has averaged 4.4 yards on 150 carries while scoring four touchdowns. McCullough leads Miami with 658 rushing yards. Sophomore quarterback Neil Dougherty has completed 53% of his passes for 1055 yards and five touchdowns. His favorite targets are split end Jeremy Patterson (20 catches for 216 yards) and former quarterback turned flanker Jim Clement (17 catches for 244 yards). On defense, the Redskins will be without their top player, middle linebacker Curt McMillan, who had arthroscope knee surgery Sunday. McMillan leads the nation in tackles with 143 while he also has 17 tackles for a loss. Senior defensive tackle Mark Staten is second on the team with 63 stops, the same number as senior free safety Ron Carpenter.

TOUGH ON FOURTH DOWN: The Falcon defense has been tough on the opponent in their attempts to pick up a first down by going for it on fourth down. In the last three contests, the opposition has tried nine times to keep a drive alive by going for it on fourth down and the BG defense has stopped the opposition seven of those times, including all three tries by Akron last week.

Senior Steve Bosko is one of only two linemen returning this season for the Falcons. Bosko started at guard last season, but will switch over to center for the '92 campaign.

TAKING PRIDE IN OUR INVOLVEMENT AT BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY
THE FALCON CLUB NEEDS YOU!

To Our Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $250,000 in 1992. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1992 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU’s athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green’s athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1992-93 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1992!

Sincerely,

Fran Voll
Associate Athletic Director

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

When the sky is clear and there is not even a hint of a breeze in the air, John Daly knows it is going to be a good day for class.

And when he looks out to see an empty airfield, a sign that all of the department's planes are in the air, he knows that the students are doing their homework. Here, when the weather is good, the students don't sit in the sun and gaze at the clouds, they soar above them.

Daly is director of aviation in the aerotechnology program at Bowling Green State University. He oversees an area of study in which the students not only hit the books, but also take to the skies as they prepare for careers as pilots or in aviation or maintenance management.

"We have a unique program in that we start our students flying as soon as possible," Daly said. "Many other schools don't get them up in the air until their sophomore or junior years."

It's not necessary that a person has ever stepped foot on a plane before majoring in the program. In fact, Daly said many of the freshmen have no previous flying experience. But once they decide this is the field they want to be in, it's time to get serious. The busy four-year program requires a student to complete two of the three tracks of study and participate in at least three cooperative education programs.

Despite the hard times that have fallen on the airline industry, Daly said it is a good time to be going into aviation. "Right now there is a surplus of pilots but in about four years there's going to be a real need," he said. World events also are having an effect on the field. With the opening up of Soviet airspace, plans for many more international airports are underway.

Daly said everything in the program's training process is geared toward safety. A student never does anything new until he has worked through it several times with the instructors," he said.

Students often practice first on one of the department's two flight simulators. Instructors stress that real life is not like the movie "Top Gun" and risks are not to be taken.

"Right from the beginning students are told to make decisions weighing on the side of safety, even if it costs more money," Daly said. "We've only had one accident here since the program began (in 1974) and that was due to a mechanical failure."

An aerotechnology student practices going through a pre-flight checklist before ever starting up an engine. The number one priority of the program is safety and students practice until they can perform every procedure perfectly.

You're immortal. You feel great, you can do anything. You're 20 and you'll never feel the aches and pains your parents complain about.

Then you're 40 and you realize your parents have willed you those discomforts. And it only promises to get worse. For some retirees, pulling the toast from the toaster is all the heavy lifting they plan to do for the day.

That's where a group of researchers at Bowling Green State University comes in. They studied the effects of exercise on aging and found that older adults can maintain or improve their current level of fitness.

Their study, entitled the Senior Adult Fitness Evaluation (S.A.F.E.), evaluated the effectiveness of a 10-week exercise program on the functional fitness of older adults and compared the effects of two types of exercise, according to Dr. Lynn Darby, director of the University's Fitness and Sports Physiology Laboratory.

The study began with the recruitment of four groups of adult participants, mostly over the age of 60. There was one group of small-town, mall walkers; one group of metropolitan, senior center walkers; a group of water exercisers; and a control group. Forty-nine participants completed both the before and after testing periods.

Initially, each volunteer completed tests for agility, flexibility, strength and endurance. A number of perceptual-motor tests were also completed as well as tests of heart rate, blood pressure, grip strength and shoulder flexibility. Next, the exercise groups participated three hours per week for 10 weeks in supervised exercise and perceptual-motor activities.

The resulting data indicate that regardless of the type of exercise, both men and women involved in the project improved on various fitness characteristics, Darby said. Perhaps more importantly, participants in the program felt good about themselves and many continued to exercise even after the program was finished, Darby said.

In addition to Darby, the team of researchers included Dr. Ina Temple, Dr. Susan Gavron, and Dr. Jean Bateman, all associate professors; and Patricia Peterson, an assistant professor, all in the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Steve Bosko
Senior, Center
6-0, 265 - Mansfield, Ohio

Steve was lost to the football program this season when he suffered a knee injury in the Wisconsin game...after hoping a couple weeks of rest after the Wisconsin game would be enough to have the knee heal well enough that Steve could return and play without having surgery, it was found that his knee would not be stable enough for him to play without total reconstructive surgery...the surgery was performed a couple weeks ago which meant the end to his season and also his career with this his fifth year in the program.

Below is a capsulized look at Steve’s career at BGSU and his background:
1991: started all 12 games at left guard...came back without any problems after knee surgery at the end of 1990 which ended his season after six games, five of those starts...1990: earned his second letter starting five games at left guard...was impressive in a reserve role in the season opener at Cincinnati helping BG rush for 286 yards...had his first career start the next week against Virginia Tech...injured his knee in the Toledo game causing him to miss the remainder of the season...1989: awarded his first letter serving as a back-up to Shawn Zimmerman and Brian Sherman on the Falcon offensive line...1988: red-shirted his first year...High School: a three-year letterman and a team captain for Coach Dana Woodring at Mansfield Madison High School...earned first team All-Heartland Conference and first team All-Northwest District honors...was team MVP and captain in wrestling for the Rams...was the sectional heavyweight champion...compiled a 68-5 record for junior varsity and varsity matches...Personal: an education major...member of the Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity...son of Roger and Betty Bosko...born July 1, 1970.

Brad Grava
Sophomore, Outside Linebacker
6-1, 210 - Bloomfield Hills, Michigan

Brad is a good example of what a person can accomplish with perseverance and hard work...Brad joined the team as a walk-on prior to the 1990 season and has gradually worked his way up the depth chart to the point now where he makes the travel roster for all the away games while playing an important role as a member of the Falcon special teams...Brad made the 60-man roster for the California Bowl last season.

Below is a capsulized look at Brad’s career at BGSU and his background:
1991: had four tackles on the season...saw most of his action as a member of the special teams...was on the travel roster for all six road games and the California Bowl...1990: was a scout team linebacker...High School: attended Kiski Prep School in Saltzburgh, Pa. after graduating from Andover High School...lettered in football and wrestling at Kiski...earned all-league honors in football and as a heavyweight in wrestling...lettered three times at Andover earning first team all-league honors...played tight end and nose guard...was a first team All-Oakland County selection by the Birmingham Eccentric as a senior...broke the school record with 35 receptions at tight end as a senior...Personal: is undecided on his major...son of Al and Carla Grava...born April 7, 1971.

THANKS, B.G.!

We're not the most conspicuous copier store in the area. Which is why your business means so much to us. You see, we know that you know that story: while the big universities get the attention, BGSU just does its job... and develops programs, academic and athletic, to rival any in the Midwest! So... thank you, BG, for letting Goodremont's and Minolta to help you in "reproducing" your very considerable accomplishments.

“FIRST CARE, THEN CARS”
FOR OVER 53 YEARS!

At Ed Schmidt, “first care, then cars” has been our way of doing business since we first opened over 53 years ago. We did business that way then, and we do it that way now! Before we try to put you in one of our cars, we try to put ourselves in your shoes. Some call that the Golden Rule, we just call it good business. And that way of doing business has given Ed Schmidt an A-1 rating in the Northwestern Ohio area. See us for all your automotive needs.

In large measure, Bowling Green State University's success has centered on its ability to offer its students the educational diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the caring and camaraderie of a small college.

That's a direct result of Bowling Green's research and teaching commitment, which attracts top scholars and graduate students and puts the University on the cutting edge of the development of exciting new knowledge, combined with a "We Care" attitude that students are introduced to when they first arrive on campus.

Today, the University has nearly 1,000 full- and part-time faculty and 18,000 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 69 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 60 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers five associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands enrollment tops 1,400 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty members, 78 percent of whom hold Ph.D's, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized.

Three departments—chemistry, philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology—are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the MidAmerican Center for Contemporary Music, the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the Canadian studies program, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-American Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Last year, more than 4,000 "non-traditional" adult students enroll in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,177-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.6 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 600,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. This fall, a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building will be completed. Early next year, the $8.7 million field house should be ready for use. Pending approval of funds by the legislature, construction is scheduled to begin this fall for a $13.5 million classroom building and a $9.5 million major renovation of Eppler Hall.

The University has also accomplished its goal of making computers a vital part of each students education. There are 19 computer labs, including one in every residence hall complex.

A lot has happened since Dr. Paul J. Olscamp arrived at Bowling Green 10 years ago as the University’s eighth president.

Building upon the inherent strengths of the University’s faculty and its academic programs, Olscamp charted a course that would move Bowling Green into the ranks of the country’s most important colleges and universities. The effort focused on teaching, research and service and has involved a University-wide commitment to excellence.

He adopted the slogan “An Environment for Excellence,” a clear indication of the vision he had for Bowling Green.

Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task ahead in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students; academic programs; learning resources, particularly computing and the library; and the faculty development, including recruitment of minority faculty.

Now, as Olscamp begins his 11th year at Bowling Green, many of those original goals have been met and new priorities have been established, including additional scholarships for academically gifted students, strengthening the graduate program and further enhancement of the University’s endowment.

One of his most important accomplishments has been to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have a key role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University’s Academic Charter. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

While always a concern, finances have taken center stage in recent years. With a tightening state budget, Olscamp has directed efforts to increase private giving. During his tenure, the school’s endowment has increased to nearly $35 million from $1.9 million when he arrived.

Olscamp also brings a personal touch to his presidency. He frequently hosts both students and faculty as his home. He also holds periodic school’s endowment has increased to nearly $35 million from $1.9 million when he arrived.

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since 1982. Here are some of the highlights:

Academic Programs

Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multibillion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.

Development of the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the only center of its kind in the state designed to assist manufacturing and other businesses in the design and production of products.

The appointments of three Ohio Eminent Scholars in photochemical sciences, moral philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology; the positions are the result of three $500,000 grants from the Ohio Board of Regents.

Creation of a network of computer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall. Last year computers are being installed in each room of one residence hall, part of a pilot project which could result in other residence hall rooms being equipped with computers. One survey has BGSU listed 35th in the country in the number of personal computers on campus.

Securing more than $5 million from the Board of Regent’s Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract top scholars, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence. Grants have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities.

Creating a Canadian studies program emphasizing Canada-US trade relations and economic development in the northwest Ohio region.

Expansion of the library’s holdings to more than four million items, including 1.7 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

Development of the Student Telephone Access Registration system which enables students to schedule their classes from a touchtone telephone. The STAR system has made long registration lines a part of University history.

Physical Plant

More than $132 million has been spent in the past 10 years for the construction of new buildings and upgrading existing buildings.

Completion of the $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1984 and a $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building in 1988 and a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building.

Construction is now nearing completion on an $8.7 million field house and is scheduled to begin soon on a $13.5 million classroom building.

Construction is now nearing completion on an $8.7 million field house and is scheduled to begin soon on a $13.5 million classroom building.

Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatziel halls, and Eppler Complex. construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.

University Finances

Creation of an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is approaching $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in 1994. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.

Developing a plan to restructure debt service obligations which is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 10 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.

Completion of the most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni office, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University’s first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Berrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Currently underway is a $1.825 million Campaign for the Arts which will benefit theatre, music, art, dance and Arts Unlimited programs. As of July 1, 1992, more than $1.3 million had been raised.
The tradition of excellence that is Bowling Green State University athletics continued in 1991-92 as five Falcon teams established school records for victories, three captured league titles and two student-athletes earned Academic All-America honors.

As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the accomplishments of BGSU's coaches and student-athletes solidify BGSU's place as one of the top athletic programs in the country.

Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and, based on the performance of Falcon teams in the first two years, the 90s seem headed in the same direction.

Bowling Green claimed 24 conference titles during the 1980s, 19 in the Mid-American Conference and four in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. In addition, twenty-one teams were involved in post-season play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

BASEBALL - The program has a young, energetic leader in third-year head coach Danny Schmitz who will be looking to develop one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, coached in the minor leagues at the AAA level. Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the top pitchers in the game - Roger McDowell and Orel Hershiser - who play for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN'S BASKETBALL - After making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time in 30 years in 1989-90 and 1990-91 under head coach Jim Larranaga, a young BGSU squad won 14 games last season and almost defeated the MAC champion in the league tournament. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in postseason appearances (22 games), victories (eight) and number of All-Americans (eight). Former NBA standouts Nate Thurmond and Al Bianchi are among BGSU's alumni. Thurmond and coaching great Harold Anderson were inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 1985.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL - The Falcons boast the most successful first-year head coach in Jaci Clark who led a tradition-rich program to 24 victories last season. The Falcons should be a league favorite again this season with 10 letterwinners returning, including the top five scorers. The Falcons are the winningest team in MAC history having captured four league tournament titles and made four trips to the NCAA Tournament. Over the last six seasons, the program has won over 75% of its games. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including an MAC record crowd of 4,100 for BGSU's NCAA Tournament victory over Cincinnati in 1989.

CROSS COUNTRY - The program is in good hands with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four CC titles in the 1980s. Now, he's working his magic with the men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his third year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL - The Falcons will look to repeat a storybook 1991 season which saw rookie head coach Gary Blackney tie the NCAA record for most wins by a first-year head coach at BGSU with 11 contests, the MAC title and the California Raisin Bowl. The Falcons will be looking to become the first team to repeat in the MAC since 1980 while earning a bid to the Las Vegas Bowl. The program has won nine league titles. BGSU alumni include former NFL all-pros Phil Villapiano (Oakland) and Mike Weger (Detroit) and Doug Smith, who will begins his 15th season with the Los Angeles Rams this year.

GOLF - Coach Greg Nye's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men's program has won four MAC Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women's program is annually among the best in the region.

GYMNASTICS - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields an MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1980, the Falcons have qualified as a team for postseason competition five of the last nine years. In each of the last four seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score led by Mary Beth Frield, who qualified for the NCAA regional meet each of the last three seasons.

HOCKEY - A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. Coach Jerry York ranks among the best collegiate coaches of all-time with 429 career wins having led the Falcons to four CCHA regular season championships and one league playoff title. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey’s greatest names, 11 of which who currently play in the NHL, including defenseman Garry Galley and goalie Mike Liut.

SOCCER - Coach Gary Palmisano’s Falcons posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and his teams in the 90s will look to continue that tradition. The 1991 team posted a sparkling 16-2-2 record on their way to the league title and a #5 ranking in the Great Lakes region. The BGSU schedule annually includes perennial NCAA power Indiana and other top teams in the region. BGSU also hosts the Kwik Goal/BGSU Classic having won the title in five of the seven years the tournament has been contested. BG has won 12 or more matches in six of the last 10 years while winning 61% of their contests over the same period.

SOFTBALL - Head coach Jacquie Joseph led her team to one of the most successful seasons in the history of the program winning 37 games last season, a school record. Many of the key personnel return from that record-setting team which points to more success in the future for the program. The Falcons last won the MAC Championship in 1988, a year that ended with BGSU playing host to the NCAA Midwest Regional. Last season’s squad was the runner-up in the MAC.

SWIMMING AND DIVING - Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, returns for his sixth year. The Falcon women have made winning a habit. Thirteen dual meet wins in 1991-92 established a school record while they have never finished lower than third in 12 MAC meets. The men’s team improved to 4th in the MAC last season, their second-best finish in the last 10 years. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest’s top swimming and diving facilities.

TENNIS - The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region - Robert Keeffe Courts. The men’s team, under the guidance of second-year coach Dave Morin, finished third in the MAC last season, their second-best finish in the last 10 years. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest’s top swimming and diving facilities.

Office of Admissions Holds Preview Day

If you see some new faces on campus today, they no doubt belong to visiting high school students, their parents and teachers who are here participating in the Office of Admissions Annual Preview Day Program.

Display booths featuring information on academic programs and student services and activities were viewed this morning in the Grand Ballroom. Campus tours were conducted throughout the morning and special open houses and demonstrations were offered by various departments.

The Office of Admissions hosts Preview Day each year in order to provide prospective students with an opportunity to view many segments of college life. This year, over 2,500 students, parents and teachers will participate in Preview Day activities and a second Preview Day is scheduled for December 5.

Special recognition is given to the Bowling Green State University Alumni Association, whose financial support helped make today’s program a success.

For those students and parents who participated, we hope you found Preview Day to be a worthwhile and enjoyable experience.

Since his appointment 11 years ago as director of athletics at Bowling Green State University, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Falcon men’s and women’s teams on equal terms with today’s elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

To reach these goals, Gregory challenges his staff of administrators, coaches and classified personnel to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 15 Mid-American Conference regular season championships in football, men’s and women’s basketball, softball, women’s cross country, gymnastics, men’s golf, and volleyball;
- three California Bowl appearances;
- four MAC postseason tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season championships;
- one CCHA postseason tournament championship;
- 17 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including 13 in the last six years, the most of any MAC school;
- three home NCAA Tournament berths in hockey, softball and women’s basketball;
- and the 1987-88 and 1991-92 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women’s sports.

Under Gregory’s guidance, the Falcon athletic program completed one of its best seasons ever in 1991-92 with five teams setting records for wins in a season, two earning postseason berths and the women’s programs earning the Jacoby Trophy for the second time in the last five years.

Postseason appearances by five BGSU teams highlighted the 1990-91 and 1989-90 seasons. The appearance of the men’s basketball team in the NIT for the second consecutive year marked the first time since the early 60s that the program had earned back-to-back postseason invitations. In 1989-90, Bowling Green was the only school in the country that sent teams to national postseason tournaments in men’s and women’s basketball and hockey.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school’s 73 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in football. Behind Gregory’s leadership, the football program attained I-A status.

Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women’s basketball games during Gregory’s tenure. Soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball are drawing larger crowds, too.

Another “first” during Gregory’s tenure occurred in the fall of 1990 when more than 25,000 fans turned out for the first night game in Perry Field history.

In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Perry Stadium to witness the Bowling Green-Toledo football clash, one of college football’s best rivalries. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, the third-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are a tradition. In 1989-90, 1,700 seats were added to the BGSU Ice Arena, and all attendance records were broken, including single game (5,005) and season (79,376) marks.

With the growing interest in TV sports programming, Gregory has aggressively negotiated for live television coverage of BGSU sports events. Last year, Falcon football, basketball and hockey all attracted live TV coverage. This year promises more of the same. Falcon football and basketball will be aired as part of the MAC Game of the Week broadcasts, while Falcon hockey will continue to play in front of a national TV audience as part of the CCHA Game of the Week.

With the world of college athletics changing constantly, it is important for Gregory to be as active on the national level. Gregory has served on numerous NCAA committees including the Executive Committee and is one of the most active athletic directors on a national level in the MAC. He has also served in many different capacities, in both the MAC and CCHA.

Gregory, 64, has also been instrumental in the development of the Falcon Club, the University’s official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed all of northern and west central Ohio, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of college athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the “student” in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed an academic coordinator in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC.

Many BGSU student-athletes have excelled in the classroom. Volleyball’s Linda Popovich became the MAC’s first female to receive the Byers Scholarship in May 1990. There were more than 160 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point average of 3.0 or better in 1991-92, including three who were named an Academic All-American, raising the total to 18 Academic All-Americans in the last six years.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master’s degree from Temple University, Gregory and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green. They are the parents of two sons and have two grandchildren.
Hello football fans and welcome to another afternoon of home Falcon football! Today’s game between Bowling Green and the Miami Redkins is sure to be exciting. Both teams were picked to contend for the conference championship. A win for the Falcons would take them one step closer to their second consecutive MAC Title. Miami leads the overall series between the schools despite Bowling Green’s 17-7 victory at Oxford last year. I would like to give a special welcome to those of you on campus as part of Preview Day and/or Group Day, and give a special thanks to The Sentinel-Tribune for its co-sponsorship of Group Day. Enjoy your visit!

I would also like to congratulate Mr. Don A. Cunningham, who will have the stadium pressbox named in his honor today for his 50-plus years of service to Bowling Green State University. In the future it will officially be called The Don A. Cunningham Pressbox.

Falcon football will conclude its regular-season at home on November 14 against Ball State to highlight Parents’ Weekend. The Cardinals, also picked to challenge for the 1992 MAC Title, were defeated by the Falcons last year, 14-13, in their own backyard. This will be the seniors’ last home game of their career as a Falcon. A full weekend of family events has been planned by the Office of Student Activities and Orientation (372-2343) and there will be home hockey (Friday) and home volleyball (Friday and Saturday), as well. Finally, those campus student groups who are participating in Student Group Recognition Day, co-sponsored by The BG News will be recognized. Make your plans now for one of BGSU’s biggest weekends of the year!

Don’t forget that the Falcon hockey season is now well underway, and schedules are available throughout the downtown Bowling Green area or by calling the Memorial Hall Ticket Office (372-2762).

Speaking of winter sports, Falcon basketball is almost here! Jaci Clark and Jim Larranaga will begin their team practices tomorrow, and an exhibition game versus the Finland National Team is scheduled for Tuesday, November 17. Season basketball tickets are now on sale at the Memorial Hall Ticket Office. Add some excitement to your cold winter evenings by spending a few of them in “The House That Roars!”

And now, let’s take a quick look at upcoming Falcon sports events. We look forward to seeing you again soon, and appreciate your attendance at today’s game!

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $20 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 600 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $200; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $100.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes two major projects each year. In July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
• Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
• A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
• Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 27th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an all-time high 112,000, an Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift four years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Stadium are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic counselor's office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 13th year of operation, the Stadium Club's 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President's Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 81-42-5 record in the 128 games played at Perry Stadium. Over the last 10 seasons, Bowling Green is 37-9-3 at home for a .786 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Stadium has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to the NCAA, Perry is fourth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy (Notre Dame) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU Athletic Director for seven years after stepping down as football coach.

Cris Shale

Punter Cris Shale became the most decorated player to ever wear the Brown and Orange in 1990 earning a spot on five All-America teams while establishing four MAC records, including season (46.77) and career (43.09) average. For being selected to the Associated Press All-America team, Shale was invited to Ft. Alma Mater
Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.
Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.
From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.
When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Retired Jersey
The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73, when he rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-Mid-American Conference running back, gaining more than 1,000 yards in each of his three years on the varsity.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon
Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added in the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?
The 1992 season marks the 65th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Why Orange and Brown?
Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination.

In the season before coming off the bench later in the year to normally guard the leading scorer for the opposition. Mike Swan- son started three games and averaged nine minutes in the 23 games he played.

Newcomer Shane Komives could also play the shooting guard as well as the small for- ward. Komives is the son of former BGSU All- American Howard "Butch" Komives who led the nation in scoring in 1963-64. The younger Komives will be eligible beginning with the Cleveland State game after transferring from Cincinnati between semesters last season.

FRONTCOURT: The Falcons have a good blend of players along the front line, many of whom can play different positions.

“We have good versatility at the forward and center positions,” Larrañaga said. “We have players who are equally comfortable setting up or playing on the perimeter.”

The frontcourt will be led by Shane Kline-Ruminski who was the Freshman of the Year in the MAC last season. Kline-Ruminski averaged 9.2 points and 4.7 rebounds while shooting 55.8%, tops on the team, from the field. He is an excellent passer from the high post.

Matt Otto has the most experience of the remaining players having been in the program for a red-shirt year and last season. He averaged 6.9 points and his 34 three-pointers was the second-best figure on the squad last year. His ability to make the next step and become a starter or consistent contributor is an important key this season.

Two players, George Finney and Floyd Miller, saw limited playing time last season, but enough that the coaching staff felt com- fortable putting them into the game at the end of the season. Finney started one-third of the 12 games he played in while Miller played in 14 contests and averaged over six points a game over the final five games of the season.

In addition to Komives, who averaged over 29 points a game in his senior year at Toledo St. John’s High School, newcomers James Cierzon and Ramon Knopper are expected to make an impact, either off the bench or possibly as starters. Their development would give the Falcons one of the biggest frontlines in the conference.

Another newcomer, Eric Steeple, sat out last season after transferring from Clarion University where he was a part-time starter. Steeple is a local product having attended Sylvania Northview High School.

Freshman Ralf Melis sat out last season and will likely miss the 1992-93 campaign after injuring his knee, which required surgery, early in the summer.

“I think we will have a quality starting unit, but we will also have quality players coming in off the bench,” Larrañaga said. “All in all, we’re the (coaching staff) looking forward to the season. We have the chance to be an exciting, competitive team, and if we get a few breaks along the way, we should be in the race for the league championship.”

FRONTCOURT: This should be the strength of the team with seniors returning at both positions. Michael Huger, a second team All-MAC selection, returns at point guard while Vada Burnett, who averaged 9.1 points and was the leading three-point threat for the Falcons, returns at the shooting guard.

The duo started most of the final 20 games of the season developing a good chemistry between themselves that the coaching staff hopes will carry over to this season.

“Michael and Vada developed a lot of confi- dence in themselves last year as juniors and should be able to improve their performances this season,” Larrañaga said.

Backcoun Huger and Burnett is a pair of sophomores who both started at different points last season. Ray Lynch started early
