Senior Spotlight
Four senior members of the football team will be in the spotlight each week.

Men’s Basketball Preview
Falcon fans can look forward to an exciting season of men’s basketball as Coach Jim Larranaga returns 10 letterwinners and all five starters.
With 180 minutes of football separating Bowling Green from a third Mid-American Conference title and bowl berth in the last four years, the Falcons will look to take care of one-third of those minutes this afternoon as they entertain Miami.

The Redskins were one play away from making today's contest one for first place. Last weekend, Miami lost on the last play of the game to Central Michigan, 32-30, to fall to 3-2 in league play while CMU stayed in the hunt for the top spot with a 5-1 mark. Had the Redskins pulled last week's game out, they would have entered today with a 4-1 mark, good for sole possession of second place in the MAC.

Needless to say, despite the fact they sit in sixth-place coming into today's game, Miami will present a substantial hurdle for the Falcons in their pursuit of the league title.

After all, Miami is the only MAC school which holds a series edge over Bowling Green. The Redskins have won 31 of 51 meetings with five ties, but the Falcons have won the last three contests in the series.

Down through the years, BGSU has a 7-14-4 record at home in the series, a 5-6-3 mark in games played at Perry Stadium. The Falcons have a 3-1-3 record in the last seven series home games.

Recently, the series has been a close one with two ties and five additional games decided by 10 points or less over the last nine meetings.

Last year fell into that category as BG built a 23-13 lead with 13 minutes left in the game before settling for a 30-25 win. BG was a 44-24 winner two years ago in the last meeting at Perry Stadium.

Under the guidance of fifth-year head coach Randy Walker, who has a 24-24-1 record at Miami, the Redskins feature a strong running game and a big, strong, experienced quarterback in Neil Dougherty. He is fourth in the MAC in passing efficiency having completed 59.1 percent of his passes for 1,400 yards. He has thrown 10 scoring passes compared (Continued on page 3)

Senior defensive lineman Curtis Collins has been a mainstay on the line along with junior Greg Cepek this season. Collins (#50) is captured above assisting former BGSU linebacker Artie Mangham with a tackle in the 1992 game against Ohio State.
Dougherty operates behind a veteran offensive line which includes three seniors, one junior, and a sophomore.

Defensively, the linebacking trio of Johnnie Williams in the middle and Dee Osborne and Mike Jackson on the outside lead the team with 108, 89, and 80 tackles, respectively. Williams has 14 stops for a loss this season while Osborne has 12. The Redskins feature the league-leader in tackles for a loss, senior end Jason Phillips who has 22 stops behind the line of scrimmage.

Miami also has a solid kicking game with place-kicker Chad Seitz having connected on eight-of-12 field goals and 22-of-24 point after touchdowns. Senior punter Gary Layton is averaging 44.4 yards per effort to rank seventh in the country.

A TESTED SURVIVOR

By Aimee Ford
Blade Sports Writer

Like many inner-city kids, Charlie Williams has seen more of life than any 22-year-old should.

In the past two years, the Bowling Green State University senior, who is a sort of jack-of-all-trades for the football team, has had six friends die on the mean streets of his hometown, Detroit. Not "best, best friends," as Williams says, but growing-up-together friends who were always around the neighborhood. Guys who were somebody's best, best friends.

When Williams, who offers up a rueful smile and a shake of the head when asked about the temptations of the streets, considers how he has survived, the answers come readily: football and family.

"I talk about my family a lot, that I'm blessed. All the brothers and sisters are tied together. As a black individual, there's not too many black men that have a father or can talk about their father. Believe me, I don't take anything away from my mother, but black men don't have father figures in their lives. I'm blessed."

Williams grew up in a middle-class neighborhood in Detroit, the youngest of eight siblings. One other athlete at Henry Ford High School went to a Division I college. None of his friends went to college. One is in the military. Too many of the others have died.

"Yes it does make me angry," Williams said. "I hate to say it but that's the black community right now. You could talk to any other player on the team who grew up in the inner-city and that's what they'll say."

So Williams used football to get away from it all, but even that wasn't always easy. He was unable to qualify with his ACT test scores, and ended up a Prop 48 casualty. Moe Ankney, then the coach at Bowling Green, still offered Williams a scholarship.

"That was probably one of the biggest setbacks of my life," Williams said. "It hurt me so bad. So when Coach Ankney told me I could still come, I took it. And the main thing was getting a full ride so I could take the burden off my father.

"My father was paying that first year and I wasn't about to put him in a bind and lose all that money. I hit the books as hard as I could."

In fact, Williams has been able to succeed in both the academic and athletic arenas at BG. He did become eligible after that first year, and he has become an increasingly important part of the football team.

"Charlie can probably single-handedly, on our football team, affect the outcome of the game more than any other player than we have," BG coach Gary Blackney

When it comes to winning games, few have done it better than Bowling Green State University head coach Gary Blackney.

Blackney has resurrected a once-proud football program, guiding the Falcons to back-to-back Mid-American Conference titles, going undefeated in league play to win the titles, and a third-place finish last season in which the Falcons were in the hunt for another title to the last weekend. This comes on the heels of five straight years when 5-6 was the program’s best record.

In just three short seasons, Blackney has accomplished what some have not in a lifetime. He was the first, and only, BGSU coach to win a bowl game. He was the first BGSU coach to lead his team to back-to-back seasons of at least 10 wins. He tied the NCAA record for “rookie” head coaches winning 11 games in 1991. And, he led the program to a MAC record 19 consecutive conference wins and a 22-game unbeaten streak to begin his tenure.

The 1994 season will present some new challenges for Blackney and his staff as they look to add a third title. In order to achieve what they have set out to, they will have to overcome the loss of one of the top lineman in the MAC (Joe Wyse), the sixth-leading rusher in school history (Zeb Jackson), and the loss of the entire defensive front. Nonetheless, he believes BGSU will be a factor again. But, overcoming obstacles is something Blackney, as a coach and person, has grown accustomed to.

All Blackney did, not only his first season at BGSU but his first season as a collegiate head coach, was take a 3-5-2 team and turn them into a 11-1 squad, which won their last 10 games. The Falcons clinched the MAC title with two weeks of the league schedule still remaining, which is believed to be the earliest any team has ever wrapped up the title. The final standings showed BG with a perfect 8-0 mark while the second place team finished at 3-1-4.

The top first-year coach in the country, Blackney was just the fifth coach in MAC history to lead his team to an outright conference title in his first season. He is also the winningest first-year head coach in BGSU history equalling the NCAA record for most wins by a coach in his first season in the top spot. The 11 wins by the 1991 team tied the school record.

For an encore, with the Falcons no longer an unknown as they were in 1991, the 1992 favorites gladly accepted that role and again won the league title with a perfect record. The Falcons earned the right to represent the MAC in the first Las Vegas Bowl and backed up the program’s first bowl victory in 1991 over Fresno State in the California Bowl with a thrilling

The BGSU football program broke the Mid-American Conference record for consecutive league victories in last year’s 17-10 win over Toledo. Head coach Gary Blackney is carried off the field by his players after BG’s 17th straight league victory.

35-34 win over Nevada.

Needless to say, the success that Blackney has brought to the program has also meant some prestigious honors along the way.

He became only the second coach in league history to earn Coach of the Year honors in back-to-back seasons earning the award in 1991 and 1992. He was also named the Coach of the Year in region 3 by his peers, the American Football Coaches Association, the same two seasons. The region included all I-A schools in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Big Ten member schools Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. The BGSU mentor was also the 1992 Ohio Collegiate Coach of the Year.

A little less than four years ago, Blackney realized his dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. He certainly paid his dues serving as an assistant the previous 21 years at such programs as Wisconsin, UCLA, Syracuse and, most recently, Ohio State. The list of coaches he served under ranks among the best in the collegiate game - coaches such as Dick MacPherson, Terry Donahue, Earle Bruce, Rick Forzano and John Cooper.

The Plainview, New York native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Connecticut, in 1968, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on a staff that included, in addition to Forzano, current Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz, former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano, and Dave Adolph and Dan Sekanovich, both NFL assistant coaches.

That was followed by stops at Brown and Rhode Island, in addition to the aforementioned schools, with all but two of those seasons spent on the defensive side of the ball. In seven of the last 10 years, Blackney has helped a team to a bowl bid.

His success story is certainly one the makes all people feel thankful.

In March, 1986, Gary's wife, Lauretta, suffered a basilar artery aneurysm which has led to her need for 24-hour care.

Forced to take over the duties of running the household, which were previously handled by Lauretta, Blackney made the necessary changes and still keeps up with the demands of being a head coach and a father.

"I look at Lauretta's situation and I know she could call it quits. But she keeps competing to get better and better. If you want to talk about endurance and courage look at her - not me."

The MAC is one of the 10 Division I-A conferences in the country, along with the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big East, Big Eight, Big West, Pacific-10, Southeastern, Southwest and Western Athletic conferences.

Entering its 48th year of existence, the MAC consists of 10 state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Of the 10 current members - the University of Akron, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University - nine schools have been members of the conference for 15 or more years. The University of Akron is the newest member having joined the league in 1992.

The 10 member institutions have a total enrollment of better than 220,000, with individual enrollments ranging from 16,000 to 30,000, and have produced more than one million alumni. The MAC is the fourth-largest conference in the country in terms of undergraduate enrollment.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards, and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 19 championships, 10 in men's sports and nine on the women's side. For men, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and diving and wrestling championships five years later. Men's soccer was added as a MAC-sponsored sport in 1993.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field and volleyball.

The MAC is the only Division I conference with its own Hall of Fame. A total of 52 individuals have been inducted into the MAC Hall of Fame in its first six years of existence, including 21 inductees with football backgrounds. Some of those include Ara Parseghian (Miami), Doyt Perry (Bowling Green), Bo Schembechler (Miami), Jack Lambert (Kent) and Phil Villapiano (Bowling Green).

Numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition during the MAC's 47 years. Bowling Green was recognized as the national small college champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second-longest streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years the non-conference victims of MAC teams include opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

For the third straight year, the MAC champion will play the Big West champion in the Las Vegas Bowl. This year's game is scheduled for Dec. 15 at 6 p.m. This is the 14th season the winners of the MAC and BWC have battled in a bowl.

THE FALCON CLUB NEEDS YOU!

To Our Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams.

Our fine student-athletes greatly depend on the Falcon Club to raise more than $270,000 of income to help fund the athletic grants. The Falcon Club also assists in other athletic areas including the funding for facility budgets.

Your help and support does make a difference for the continued success of our outstanding teams. Falcon Club members are proud alumni, parents, friends and fans that provide financial support, volunteer hours and give their advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program in order to share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The pride and tradition of Bowling Green has enabled the Falcon Club to once again set high goals for 1994. Your support is needed so participants and fans alike can continue to enjoy the winning combination provided by one of America's premier athletic programs.

Please give to our fine athletic program and its 19 very competitive teams as we look forward to you joining the Falcon Club in '94.

Go Falcons!!

Sincerely,

Fran Voll

Office of Admissions Holds Preview Day

If you see some new faces on campus today, they no doubt belong to visiting high school students, their parents and teachers who are here participating in the Office of Admissions Annual Preview Day Program.

Display booths featuring information on academic programs and student services and activities were viewed this morning in the Grand Ballroom. Campus tours were conducted throughout the morning and special open houses and demonstrations were offered by various departments.

The Office of Admissions hosts Preview Day each year in order to provide prospective students with an opportunity to view many segments of college life. This year, over 2,500 students, parents and teachers will participate and a second Preview Day is scheduled for December 3.

Special recognition is given to the Bowling Green State University Alumni Association, whose financial support helped make today’s program a success.

For those students and parents who participated, we hope you found Preview Day to be a worthwhile and enjoyable experience.

Faculty Honored This Week

Bowling Green State University's best and brightest faculty members were honored with the University's highest awards earlier this week at the annual Faculty Recognition Dinner.

Dr. Charles Kahle, a professor of geology, was named Master Teacher. Dr. Peggy Giordano, a professor of sociology, received the Olscamp Research Award.

In addition, two professors will share this year's annual Faculty Service Award — Dr. Richard Hebein, of romance languages, and Evron Collins, of libraries and learning resources. Both are associate professors.

All three awards included the presentation of a plaque and a $1,000 cash prize.

The Master Teacher Award, which recognizes excellence in teaching, is given annually by the Undergraduate Alumni Association. Recipients are nominated by students and chosen by an alumni-student committee.

A Toledo native, Kahle joined the University in 1965 as an assistant professor. He was named an associate professor in 1967, professor in 1972 and chaired the geology department from 1986-92.

Kahle has taught at all levels in his field, from "Introduction to Geology" to a graduate course in "Geologic Research and Communication," and has served on 80 master's thesis committees.

"The core of my teaching philosophy is based on the idea that the best system for achieving insight into the nature of things, earth included, is to obtain confidence in oneself which enhances one's ability to learn and to improve one's critical thinking skills," Kahle said.

Towards this end, he said he sees his job as providing students with the held and encouragement they need to succeed. "In all my courses I try to start from where the students are, not from where I am."

Kahle is not only a dedicated teacher, he is passionate about what he teaches, referring to geology as "the big outside."

"I want to educate students about the array of processes that produce magnificent products — individual rocks to landscapes that we can see, touch and enjoy through a lifetime," he said.

Kahle is a member of many professional organizations, including the Society for Sedimentary Geology, the Northwestern Ohio Electron Microscopy Society and the Geological Society of America.

He received his bachelor's degree from St. Joseph College, his master's from Miami University and his Ph.D. from the University of Kansas.

Ohio finalists for the award included Dr. Kathleen Farber, professor of educational foundations and inquiry; Dr. D.S. Chauhan, professor of political science; Dr. Edmund J. Danziger Jr., professor of history and Dr. Michael E. Doherty, Distinguished University Professor of psychology.

The Olscamp Research Award, established in 1985, is given annually to a faculty member for outstanding scholarly or creative accomplishments during the previous three-year period.

Giordano, this year's recipient, has been an active researcher during her 20 years with the University. Her areas of study have included black adolescent development, female juvenile crime and delinquency, the dynamics of peer influence, the impact of social networks on criminality and mental health and teenage pregnancy.

From 1991-93, Giordano and two other sociology professors conducted a study titled "Social Networks and Development in Cultural Perspective," which was funded by a $433,272 grant from the National Institute of Mental Health. This year she has received an additional $244,785 grant from NIMH for research on serious female offenders.

Giordano has also presented numerous scholarly papers at professional meetings and has published articles in such publications as Journal of Marriage and the Family, Criminology, Sociological Focus and Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology.

She serves on the National Institute of Mental Health Review Panel, has served on the executive council of the American Society of Criminology and has been a member of the Eminent Scholars Program Screening Committee and Awards Panel of the Ohio Board of Regents.

Giordano received her bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri, and her master's and doctorate degrees from the University of Minnesota.

The Faculty Service Award, presented by Faculty Senate, recognizes continuing, outstanding service to the University.

Hebein, a faculty member since 1969, has served on numerous University committees, including Academic Affairs, Academic Facilities Planning and Utilization, Academic Honesty, Arts and Sciences Council. He has been elected to Faculty Senate for four terms and served as vice-chair and chair.

Collins is coordinator of maps at Jerome Library at the University. She has been active in the Faculty Senate, serving as a member of the executive committee and the charter revision committee.

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY

Always changing. Always striving to improve. But never forgetting the best of the past.

That has been the key to Bowling Green State University's success in offering its students the educational opportunities, diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the personality, camaraderie and caring of a small college.

This high-speed engine of learning is fueled by Bowling Green's commitment to research and teaching. That commitment has attracted top faculty scholars and graduate students. They, in turn, have put the University on the cutting edge in the discovery of exciting new knowledge.

Bowling Green has nearly 900 full- and part-time faculty and 17,000 students on its campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 165 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 60 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 80 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers degree programs as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor's degree requirement. Firelands enrollment tops 1,400 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty, more than 95 percent of whom have the highest degree in their field, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized. Also, faculty have been elected to high ranking positions in several national and regional professional organizations.

Three academic departments - chemistry, philosophy and psychology - are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities. Only two other Ohio universities - Ohio State and Cincinnati - have more of these prestigious positions than BGSU.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the Population and Society Research Center, the Mid-American Center for Contemporary Music, the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the Canadian studies program, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center - the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world - where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Last year, more than 4,000 "non-traditional" students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,338-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.8 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections, which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history, and the Sound Recording Archives with one million recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually improving its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. This fall, a $13.5 million classroom building, Paul Olscamp Hall, was opened and dedicated. The new building features state-of-the-art telecommunications capabilities which open unlimited possibilities for classroom instruction.

Also, a $9.5 million renovation of Eppler Hall is nearing completion.

In the past two years, a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building was completed. Hayes Hall was converted into a computer center, an $8.7 million field house for intramurals, physical education classes and intercollegiate sports was opened, and a $15 million renovation of Founders Quadrangle was completed, creating one of the finest and most modern residence halls in the state.

In the past dozen years, more than $174 million has been allocated for new construction and remodeling projects.

The University has also accomplished its goal of making computers a vital part of each students education. There are currently 20 computer labs, including one in or near every residence hall complex, for use by students. In addition, nearly a half dozen departments have created computer labs for their students.

As Dr. Paul J. Olscamp begins his 13th and final year as president of Bowling Green State University this fall, those who are already beginning to review his tenure are finding a president who has charted an unaltered course in the development of a consistently strong faculty and academic program.

Olscamp, the University's eighth president, will retire June 30, 1995. At that time, only Homer B. Williams, the University's first president who served from 1912 until 1937, will have spent more time in the University's top office.

Under Olscamp's direction, Bowling Green has moved into the ranks of the country's most important colleges and universities. His efforts have focused on teaching, research, and service, and he has led a University-wide commitment to excellence in all aspects of University life.

Olscamp adopted the slogan "An Environment for Excellence," a clear indication of the vision he had for Bowling Green.

Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task ahead in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of incoming undergraduate and graduate students; academic programs; learning resources, particularly computing and the library; and the faculty development, including recruitment of minority faculty.

Today, many of those original goals have been met and new priorities have been established, including additional scholarships for academically gifted students, academic programs, learning resources, particularly computing and the library; and the faculty development, including recruitment of minority faculty.

One of his most important accomplishments has been to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty have a key role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University's Academic Charter. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

One concern, finances, have taken center stage in recent years. With a tightening state budget, Olscamp has directed efforts to increase private giving. In 1993-94, private giving topped $4 million for the third straight year. During his tenure, the school's endowment has increased to nearly $45 million from $1.9 million when he arrived. Olscamp brings a personal touch to his presidency. He frequently hosts both students on any campus in the country, over $500,000 from the Ohio Board of Regents.

The addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at BGSU.

The appointments of three Ohio Eminent Scholars in photochemical sciences, moral philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology; the positions are the result of three $500,000 grants from the Ohio Board of Regents.

The addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at BGSU.

More than 315 students are National Merit Scholars, one of the highest numbers on any campus in the country, over the last seven years.

Establishment of the University's first major scholarship foundations for minority students.

Creating a Canadian studies program emphasizing Canada-U.S. trade relations and economic development in the northeast Ohio region.

Securing more than $5 million from the Board of Regents' Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract top scholars, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence. Grants have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities.

Expansion of the library's holdings to more than four million items, including 1.8 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Also, the library is among the first to be part of OhioLINK, an advanced computer network that enables users to have access to all holdings of state university, community college and selected private libraries in Ohio.

Development of the Student Telephone Accessed Registration system which enables students to schedule their classes from a touchtone telephone. The STAR system has made long registration lines a part of University history.

Physical Plant

More than $174 million has been spent in the past 12 years for the construction of new buildings and upgrading existing buildings.

Completion of the $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1988, a $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building in 1988, a $9.8 million Fine Arts Center and an $8.7 million field house.

Most recently, the opening of Paul Olscamp Hall, a $13.5 million multi-faceted classroom building featuring a high-tech teleconferencing system.

Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzel halls, the Eppler complex and Founders Residence Hall. Construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.

Strategic Initiatives

* Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multibillion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.

* Development of the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the only center of its kind in the state designed to assist manufacturing and other businesses in the design and production of products.

* The appointments of three Ohio Eminent Scholars in photochemical sciences, moral philosophy and industrial/organizational psychology; the positions are the result of three $500,000 grants from the Ohio Board of Regents.

University Finances

* Creation of an Internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is expected to reach $10 million in 1994. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.

* Development of a plan to restructure debt service obligations which is projected to result in a $32 million principle in 10 years. Interest on that amount, which could exceed $2 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.

* Completion of the most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni office, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University's first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

* Completion in 1993 of a $1.825 million Campaign for the Arts to benefit the theatre, music, art, dance and Arts Uneliminated programs.

FOR MANY HOSPITALS, CONSOLIDATION IS A BOLD NEW TREND.

FOR US, IT’S A 20 YEAR TRADITION.

Collaboration. Joint ventures. Mergers. Those are the buzz words sweeping hospitals across the nation as health care reform begins.

Mercy and St. Charles Hospitals applaud this way of thinking. In fact, right here in Toledo, we’ve been practicing this “new” philosophy for more than 20 years.

To us, it makes good sense for hospitals, and for the community. Because when administrative services, technology and staffing are shared, costly duplication can be greatly reduced or even eliminated.

At Mercy and St. Charles, we share a single source for gerontology services, purchasing, computer services, rehabilitation services and more than 15 other operations. Which has helped save tens of millions of dollars over our two decades of working together.

The savings are reward enough for doing business this way. But it’s also nice to know we’ve been a trend-setter for all these years.

BETTER HEALTH, TIMES TWO.

The 1994-95 athletic year marks the beginning of new leadership in the Bowling Green State University athletic department as former University vice-president Ron Zwierlein was named the new athletic director on July 6, 1994.

Zwierlein replaced Jack Gregory, who retired in July after 12 very successful years of leading the athletic department.

Zwierlein is more familiar with the BGSU athletic department, its operation, and the people, than one would expect of a person just appointed to a position. A 1968 graduate of BGSU who also has his master's from BGSU and a doctorate degree in athletic administration from Ohio State, Zwierlein has been associated with the athletic department in many different capacities over the years.

The new athletic director, the 10th in the history of the department, spent the 1993-94 academic year as the interim vice-president for student affairs. In that capacity, he oversaw all student related activities, which included residential life, financial aid, recreational sports and the health center to name just a few of the areas.

Zwierlein comes from a diversified background in athletics that includes everything from being a collegiate athlete himself, to coaching, to administration.

He returned to BGSU to head the men’s and women’s swimming and diving teams at BGSU in 1981 while also serving on the faculty at the university.

After three years as the head coach, during which his women’s teams finished second in the Mid-American Conference all three seasons, Zwierlein accepted the position as the associate director of the Student Recreation Center on campus.

While still working as a director of the Student Recreation Center, Zwierlein was appointed to direct the planning and oversee the construction of the $8.7 million Bowling Green University Field House in 1991.

In 1992, he accepted the position as director of recreational sports, which included supervision of all facilities, staff, programs and financial resources associated with recreational sports. He was also responsible for the operation of the Field House.

Zwierlein was also involved in the athletic department at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio, near Cleveland. While at JCU, Zwierlein served as the head swimming and diving coach (1975-81) and athletic director (1977-1981). In his six seasons heading the men’s swimming and diving program, Zwierlein led JCU to the Presidents Athletic Conference title once while they placed seventh in the NCAA meet in 1980-81. During his tenure as JCU’s swimming and diving coach, Zwierlein helped develop 28 swimmers who earned All-America honors.

Zwierlein’s collegiate swimming and diving teams combined to compile a 92-37 record while he had a career mark of 171-50, including his time spent coaching at the high school level.

During his tenure as the athletic director at JCU, he also served as chair of the physical education department, which included overseeing all aspects of both areas.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Zwierlein earned three letters as a member of the Falcon swimming and diving team, serving as team captain in 1967-68 as a senior. Zwierlein was a diver, finishing among the top four in the one-meter event at the MAC Championships as a junior and senior.

During his undergraduate days, Zwierlein also served as BGSU mascot Freddie Falcon.

After graduation from BGSU, Zwierlein served as head swimming and diving coach at Monroe High School in his hometown and in the same capacity at Fremont (Ohio) Ross High School.

Zwierlein and his wife Cindy, a 1969 BGSU graduate, have three children, Heidi, Heather and Chad. Heidi and Heather are both students at BGSU.
Today's Halftime Show

BGSU FALCON MARCHING BAND

October 29, 1994

The Falcon Marching Band welcomes parents and friends to BG with a special family halftime show featuring a few favorite melodies from the films of Walt Disney. Always synonymous with the Disney name is the tune When You Wish Upon a Star, and today's halftime begins with that familiar melody. Also included in the medley is Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah and Small World. As an extra attraction, the Falcon Band welcomes the Pommerettes, who perform their unique brand of precision dance.

The show continues with the up-tempo antics of the Jungle Book, this time featuring the zany tubas in The Bare Necessities. The finale for today's Parents' Day halftime reflects on the gathering of students and parents from all parts of the region to celebrate the magic of BGSU...it is truly a Small World.

The tradition of excellence that is Bowling Green State University athletics continued in 1993-94 as both the Falcon men’s and women’s athletic programs earned the top award from the Mid-American Conference, the Reese Trophy by the men and the Jacoby Trophy by the women, for overall athletic excellence. Bowling Green was the first school to sweep the award since 1983.

In addition, by winning the Jacoby Trophy last season, the BGSU women’s programs continued its run of dominance over the rest of the MAC earning its third consecutive Jacoby Trophy and fourth in the last seven years.

As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the accomplishments of BGSU’s coaches and student athletes solidify BGSU’s place as one of the top athletic programs in the country.

Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and, based on the performance of Falcon teams as we approach the midway point of the 90’s they are maintaining their place among the elite in collegiate athletics.

Bowling Green claimed 24 conference titles during the 1980s with twenty-one teams earning berths in post-season play. In the first four years of the 90s, BG teams have already won nine league titles with nine teams making appearances in post-season action.

The following is a brief synopsis of each program in the BGSU Athletic Department...

BASEBALL - The program has a young, energetic leader in fifth-year head coach Danny Schmitz who has developed one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, led BG to a 29-18 record in 1994, the program’s best winning percentage in 11 years. Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the better pitchers in the game - Roger McDowell and Orel Hershiser - who play for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN’S BASKETBALL - The Falcons have 10 letterwinners, including all five starters, and seven seniors returning from a team which placed second in the MAC last season. Coach Jim Larranaga’s ninth team has all the ingredients to make a run at the league title. BG made back-to-back post-season appearances for the first time in 30 years in 1989-90 and 1990-91. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in post-season appearances (22 games), victories (eight) and number of All-Americans (eight). Former NBA standouts Nate Thurmond and Al Bianchi are among BGSU’s alumni. Thurmond and coaching great Harold Anderson were inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 1985.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL - The tradition-rich program made a sixth NCAA Tournament appearance last season hosting Creighton. BGSU’s 189-51 record over the last eight seasons is the 10th best record among the almost 300 schools in Division I. The Falcons are the winningest team in MAC history having captured six league tournament titles and five regular season championships. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including 4,408 for BG’s NCAA Tournament game against Florida in 1993.

CROSS COUNTRY - The program is in good hands with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four CC titles in the 1980s. Now, he’s working his magic with the men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his fifth year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL - Two MAC titles and a run at a third championship last season has put the program back among the elite. BG won 19 straight league games over the last three years setting a MAC record while head coach Gary Blackney has yet to lose a game in Perry Stadium over the same time period. BG’s 27-6-2 record the last three seasons is among the best marks in the country. With five bowl games and 10 MAC titles in its history, BGSU alumni have included former NFL all-pros Phil Villapiano (Oakland), Mike Weger (Detroit), Doug Smith (Los Angeles Rams), and 12-year veterans Bob Reynolds and Jamie Rivers.

GOLF - Coach Todd Brunsink’s men’s and women’s golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men’s program has won four MAC Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women’s program is annually among the best in the region.

GYMNASTICS - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1980, the Falcons have qualified as a team for post season competition five of the last 11 years. In each of the six seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score.

HOCKEY - A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about with new head coach Buddy Powers now heading the program. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last nine years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. In all, the Falcons have won 11 conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey’s greatest names, nine of which who currently play in the NHL, including defensemen Gary Galley and Rob Blake and forward Nelson Emerson.
BGSU ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

SOCCER - The program posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and the success has continued in the 90s with the team compiling a 41-11-3 record the last three seasons. BG was the top team in the Great Lakes Region in 1992 posting a sparkling 15-2-1 record on their way to a NCAA Tournament berth. The BGSU schedule annually includes perennial NCAA power Indiana along with the Kwik Goal/BGSU Classic. BG has won 12 or more matches in five of the last eight years, a 65.3 winning percentage.

SWIMMING AND DIVING - Coach Brian Gordon returns for his eighth year with the men and women hoping to continue to make winning a habit. Thirteen dual meet wins in 1991-92 by the women's program established a school record while they have never finished lower than fourth in 13 MAC meets. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest's top swimming and diving facilities.

SOFTBALL - Second-year head coach Rachel Miller saw her 1994 team win seven of their last nine games to finish fourth in the MAC. The top four hitters and both pitchers return for what should be a banner 1995 season. The program earned league titles in 1993 and 1988.

TENNIS - The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region - Robert Keefe Courts. The men's team under the guidance of MAC Coach of the Year Dave Morin, has never finished lower than fourth. The women's program is under the guidance of Penny Dean, who is in her fifth season.

TRACK & FIELD - Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, have had eight athletes compete in the NCAA meet the last three seasons. Among the track alumni is six-time NCAA All-American and 1972 Olympic medalist Dave Wottle. Sid Sink, a seven-time All-American at BGSU, heads the men's track team, while Steve Price directs the women's programs.

VOLLEYBALL - Denise Van De Walle has steadily built the Falcon volleyball program into one of the best in the country. The 1992 team won a school-record 30 matches on its way to a third MAC title in four seasons. BG has won 20 or more matches seven of the last eight years. Van De Walle, three times named the league Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to 191 wins over the last six seasons or a victory three out of every four times they've played.

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $20 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 600 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $200; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $100.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes two major projects each year. In July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
- A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
- Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
- Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

A Mid-American Conference record crowd of 33,527 attended the Toledo-Bowling Green game in 1983.

Doyt, L. Perry Stadium, with its 30,599 seating capacity, is celebrating its 29th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high of 112,110, an average of 22,422.

The Falcons begin the 1994 season looking to extend a 15-game unbeaten streak at home as head coach Gary Blackney has never lost a game during his three-year tenure with his teams compiling a 14-0-1 record.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift six years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors to all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic counselor’s office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.
Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 15th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theatre-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp, his guests, and other supporters of Falcon football.
Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 67 percent of their home games, compiling an 90-42-6 record in the 138 games played at Perry Stadium. Over the last 12 seasons Bowling Green is 46-9-4 at home for a .814 winning percentage.
Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fourth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy (Notre Dame) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years after stepping down as football coach.

Alma Mater
Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts.
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Ay Ziggy Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi

Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song (the official fight song is "Forward Falcons"). No one knows who wrote "Ay Ziggy Zoomba," but it became famous nationally when former Falcon All-American and Detroit Lion All-Pro halfback Mike Weger sang it in the film "Paper Lion." The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

Why Orange and Brown?
Burnt orange and seal brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

Fight Song
Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory.
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee
Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

Frieda & Freddie Falcon
Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?
The 1994-95 season marks the 67th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

from a Bowling Green standpoint, without taking a look back at last week's 59-36 win over Ball State and the eye-popping performance of junior quarterback Ryan Henry...it was a performance unmatched by any modern day football player in school history...Henry had a hand in seven (six passing and one rushing) of the eight Falcon touchdowns to set a modern day school record...the only BGSU football player who can claim to have bettered that is Orville Raberding, who had seven rushing touchdowns and one interception return for a score in BG's 151-0 win over Findlay in 1921...in addition, Henry's six TD passes wiped out both the school record of four, set six times by five different quarterbacks including Henry earlier this season against Navy, and the MAC record of five, set by Ball State's Mike Neu in 1990 against Indiana State...Henry's performance also raised his season total for touchdown passes to 22, setting a MAC and school record erasing Brian McClure's mark of 21 set in the 1984 campaign...Henry is third in the country this week in passing efficiency with a 163.18 rating...it will be a performance not easily forgotten for those in attendance last Saturday...Henry is not the only Falcon player among the national leaders...record-setting placekicker Brian Leaver is ninth in the nation in scoring and seventh in field goals...Leaver's perfect record in field goals this season, 13-of-13, is the top mark of its kind in the country...with a minimum of 15 attempts, no player in NCAA history has ever been perfect for an entire season kicking field goals...the NCAA record is 96.2% (25 of 26) by Chuck Nelson from Washington in 1982...the senior has connected on his last 14 field goals to establish school and MAC records...Leaver also become the school single-season leader for a kicker with his 75 points this season, a total which is just 15 points shy of the MAC record...his 217 points rank third on BGSU's career list and is just 14 shy of the school record for kickers held by Gehad Youssef (1981-84), who is second on the career scoring list...former running back Dave Preston holds the school record with 246 points...he needs two PAT attempts to become the BGSU career leader in that category...the Falcons moved up in both polls this week receiving 33 points in the CNN/USA Today poll, good for 30th place, and nine points in the Associated Press poll which placed them 32nd in the country...the Falcons are looking to crack into a national poll for only the second time since becoming a Division 1 member in 1961...the 1985 team, which finished the regular season 11-0, was ranked 19th by ESPN, 20th by AP, and 22nd by CNN/USA Today prior to the bowl game...senior inside linebacker Vince Palko needs just four tackles this afternoon to set the school record surpassing the previous mark of 455 by Troy Dawson (1982-85)...senior split end Ronnie Redd needs 87 yards in receptions to become only the sixth player in school history to top the 2,000-yard barrier...Redd has a reception in each of the last 42 games...Redd and his receiving teammate, Rameir Martin, have caught at least one touchdown pass between them in all but four of the last 19 Falcon games...the pair have combined to catch 26 scoring passes since the start of the 1993 season (a span of 19 games)...BG has scored 30 or more points in each game of their current seven-game winning streak averaging 42.0 points over the span...BG has scored all 35 times this season it has been in the red zone (inside the opponents' 20-yard line)...BGSU ranks among the national leaders in the following team categories: scoring offense (5th), scoring defense (tied for 11th), turnover margin (tied for 15th), punt returns (8th) and kickoff returns (15th)...BG has scored points in 17 consecutive quarters and in 30 of 32 quarters this season...incidentally, the 31 points BG scored in the second quarter of the Ball State game last week was a modern day school record...the Falcons will be looking to maintain its home dominance today having posted a 17-0-1 record during the tenure of head coach Gary Blackney, whose teams have compiled a 26-1-2 record in MAC games...BGSU's 34-7-2 record over the last three-plus seasons is the sixth-best among the 107 Division I-A programs...BG has held 21 of 29 MAC foes to two touchdowns or less since 1991.

said. "Mainly because he's a wide receiver, he's a defensive back and because of his great special teams play. Nobody else on our football team has that ability in all those areas.

"(He will likely start because) I think he should play a greater role some place on our football team than what he's playing. If he's on the bench, he's not in position to make a big play, he's not in position to influence the outcome of the game."

Williams has been able to succeed in an unfamiliar environment. Before arriving at BG, Williams had not interacted with many whites.

"It wasn't too hard," he said. "I'm glad I do have the opportunity to interact with white people as much as I can. It's a white society, a white nation, a white world. If you don't you're lost, I would have to say. A lot of my friends (in Detroit) don't and they don't have any idea how it is. So it's a plus for me.

"And I haven't had any problems. I haven't run into any prejudice."

Williams has progressed from being a Prop 48 student-athlete, to being a senior sociology major who vows that he will obtain a master's degree.

"I'm always thinking about how it is, how it's going to be, what's going to happen," he said. "I'm not one of those people who live by the day and party by the night. I'm worried about tomorrow.

"Believe me, there are some things I did when I was back home that I shouldn't have done. But I have to say that's growing up in the inner-city. Sometimes you do stuff you shouldn't. Sometimes you're put in situations where you have to. A lot of times I used my best discretion and my common sense, and said, 'no, I shouldn't do that.'

"There were plenty of close calls. It's like, and a lot of people don't understand it, but it's a different world. When I'm here and then I go home, there's a lot of things about myself I have to change to fit in. I say your senses have to be real keen. There's a lot of things you have to keep a lookout for.

"I didn't live in the quote-unquote ghetto or a super bad neighborhood, my neighborhood is all right, a middle class neighborhood. But there were still a lot of things going on. All of Detroit's inner-city, to a certain degree, is wild. Even the good neighborhoods are bad."

Maybe because of that, or maybe because of a mother who has a deep faith and has instilled much of it in her youngest, or maybe because of six missing friends, Williams finds himself praying every night.

"I pray for another day, for my family, I'm constantly praying," Williams said. "I just pray the Lord stays on my side."

STRONG NUCLEUS RETURNS FOR FALCONS

The combination of the return of 10 letterwinners, a recruiting class as good as any during the tenure of head coach Jim Larranaga, and the success achieved last season, should make the 1994-95 men’s basketball team at Bowling Green State University one of the favorites in the Mid-American Conference. Among the 10 letterwinners returning are seven seniors and a talented pair of sophomores who started as freshmen in 1993-94.

This year’s edition, the ninth in the tenure of Larranaga, has everything in place to make a run at the top spot in the MAC. Last year’s second-place finish was the best by a BG team since the last championship in the 1982-83 season.

And Larranaga thinks last year’s success will go a long way in preparing his team for this season. “The experience from last season will be very positive,” Larranaga said. “The team enjoyed a lot of success and they felt very confident on the court. The adversity we went through with Shane Kline-Ruminski’s injury brought out the best in a lot of players.”

Larranaga also thinks one of the disappointments last season will motivate the team for the upcoming season. “The disappointment of not making postseason play last year will make us even hungrier this season.”

Larranaga will have a strong nucleus of returning players to call on led by a group of seven seniors. “Obviously, when you talk about strengths you have to begin with our senior class,” said Larranaga, who led BG to its best season (tie for second in the MAC in 1993-94) during his tenure after being picked to finish seventh prior to the campaign. “We have a great group of seniors led by Shane Kline-Ruminski, our leading scorer and rebounder a year ago. But, we will also count on all the other seniors to play a vital role. It is a deep and talented group of players.

“They (the seniors) are our leaders. They have been through the wars and have learned an awful lot about what it takes to win.”

The BGSU mentor stressed the need to improve their rebounding prior to last season and the Falcons improved from sixth to second in rebounding margin in the MAC.

“The improved board play of our frontcourt players last season really helped us be a better basketball team,” said Larranaga, who is fourth on the BGSU list for coaching victories with 118. “With the addition of our newcomers for this season, that area should really improve. We’ll be a little bigger. We’ll be a little stronger. We hope to improve in this area as much this season as we did last season.”

Another strength should be in the area of perimeter shooting and field goal percentage. Bowling Green led the MAC and ranked sixth in the nation in field goal percentage last season.

“I thought our perimeter play last season was outstanding,” Larranaga said. “When you add in newcomer Denny Amrhein to our returning contingent, we will have the best three-point shooting team since I’ve been here. We will want to take advantage of that area.

“We will make some adjustments to our defense to accommodate our better size and strength up front, and the depth we have in the backcourt. That should enable us to pressure more and force more of an up tempo game.

Larranaga does have one major area of concern entering the season. “In order for us to be successful this season, we are going to have to improve our post defense,” Larranaga said. “We were hurt a few times last season by interior players around the basket. We can’t allow those players to score 25 or 30 points on a given night.”

This year’s team will also be looking to notch the 1,000th win in the program’s history. The previous teams have won 989 games since the first season in 1915-16. Just under 100 Division I programs can claim to have 1,000 wins.
THANKS, B.G.!

We're not the most conspicuous copier store in the area. Which is why your business means so much to us. You see, we know that you know that story: while the big universities get the attention, BGSU just does its job... and develops programs, academic and athletic, to rival any in the Midwest! So... thank you, BG, for letting Goodremont's and Minolta to help you in "reproducing" your very considerable accomplishments.
