Welcome to the 77th season of intercollegiate football at Bowling Green State University.

It should be another exciting season as the preseason Mid-American Conference favorites, Bowling Green, try to make it three league titles in the last five seasons.

Tonight’s game against Big West Conference foe Louisiana Tech starts the 1995 squad down that road.

The Bulldogs, under eighth-year head coach Joe Raymond Peace, are optimistic about posting the program’s first winning record since 1991 when they were 8-1-2. The previous season, Peace led his alma mater to an 8-3-1 mark, the tie coming in the Independence Bowl against Maryland.

Tech returns a veteran offensive unit led by junior quarterback Jason Martin and senior tackle Grant Williams.

Martin is an experienced quarterback having started eight games as a freshman and all 11 contests last season. He threw for over 1,800 yards in 1994, but suffered 15 interceptions. For his career, Martin has thrown 27 interceptions compared to eight scoring tosses. He will be well protected by Williams, a 6-7, 305-pound second-team All-Big West selection last season. Guard Mike Mote is the only other returning starter along the offensive line for the Bulldogs.

Martin’s favorite target from a year ago, wingback Dean Jackson, returns after finishing third in the Big West and 14th nationally with 62 receptions for 790 yards.

The biggest loss for the offense came in the backfield where leading rusher Jason Cooper (1,189 yards, 4.9 avg. in ’94) finished his career as Tech’s rushing leader. Cooper’s 1994 yardage total was the third best single-season effort in school history.

A pair of players, sophomores Billy Thomas and Jason Armstrong, will try and pick up where Cooper left off.

The lone returning player in the secondary is anchored by seniors Keith Washington on the line and Lance Reed at middle linebacker spot. Washington led the team with seven sacks a year ago while Reed was second on the team with 95 tackles.

Sophomore place-kicker Marty Kent was second in the Big West last season with 17 field goals while Scott Moody or Jason Cain will do the punting.

Tech has new coordinators on both sides of the ball this season, Gary Crowton for the offense, and Pete Fredenburg on defense.

Of course, the Bulldogs are looking to come into a place, Perry Stadium, which has not been kind to the opposition down through the years, and especially since the arrival of current head coach Gary Blackney.

The Falcons are 18-1-1 at home under Blackney having outscored the opposition 650 to 311. That is an average of 32.5 points to just 15.6 points. BG’s lone loss came in the heartbreaking, season-ending contest against Central Michigan.

Defensively, the Bulldogs return five starters from a year ago led by cornerback Willie Smith, the lone returning player in the secondary. Smith earned second-team all-league honors last season and had five interceptions.

The NCAA—Common Ground of College Athletics

By Debbie Harmison Byrne, Assistant Athletics Director, Old Dominion University

To many people, the National Collegiate Athletic Association is a building in Overland Park, Kansas, from which legislation is enacted and enforced upon its member institutions.

Yet to more than 1,000 colleges, universities, conferences and related organizations, the NCAA is the organization through which its members speak. It is a voluntary association devoted to the sound administration of intercollegiate athletics.

Through the NCAA, member institutions consider an athletics problem that has crossed regional or conference lines and has become national in scope. The Association, through its members, strives to maintain intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the educational program and the athletes as an integral part of the student body.

The NCAA also stands for good conduct in intercollegiate athletics and serves as the colleges' national athletics accrediting agency.

The organization and its members recognize that creating an equitable college environment for its student-athletes is among their highest priorities. Working together to enact rules, policies, procedures and organizational goals, its members strive for the common goal of the academic integrity of their programs.

Just as integrity is a key in the academic program, it is also a component in the competition between the NCAA's members. The NCAA and its staff are charged with enforcing the rules and regulations that the institutions vote on and impose upon themselves.

While enforcement proceedings involving member schools seem to grab most of the headlines, they represent only a small part of the NCAA's total program.

The NCAA administers 79 championships in 21 sports for its member institutions, involving nearly 21,000 men and women student-athletes. There are 23 championships on the Division I level, 23 on the Division II level and 24 for Division III members, along with nine sports that have National Collegiate Championships for which all divisions are eligible.

Beyond its annual championships, the NCAA also places a high priority on honoring its members and student-athletes, evident in its honors program and postgraduate scholarships program. The honors program recognizes accomplishments of current and former outstanding student-athletes, while the postgraduate scholarship program annually honors 125 high-ranking college student-athletes who are in their last year of intercollegiate competition by providing them scholarships of $5,000 each.

The Walter Byers Scholarship Program recognizes a top male and female student-athlete each year, separate from the postgraduate program. In addition, the NCAA recognizes the need to assist its members in career development in collegiate athletics and has addressed this area through its women's and ethnic minority enhancement programs.

The NCAA's members form a diverse group ranging from large state institutions to small, privately funded colleges. Their common goal, however, is the same—working for the advancement and achievement of the student-athletes and for the common good of higher education.

When it comes to winning games, few have done it better than Bowling Green State University head coach Gary Blackney.

Blackney has resurrected a once-proud football program, guiding the Falcons to back-to-back Mid-American Conference titles - going undefeated in league play to win the titles - and second and third-place finishes the last two seasons.

To get an idea of how dominant Falcon teams have been in MAC play during Blackney's tenure, consider the fact BG has had a perfect record for 26 of the 32 weeks of league play over the last four years. In addition, Bowling Green has not had a loss on its slate for 29 of the 32 weeks. All in all, Blackney has led his teams to an eye-popping 28-2-2 (.906) record in MAC play.

This comes on the heels of five straight years when 5-6 was the program's best record.

In just four short seasons, Blackney has accomplished what some have not in a lifetime. He is the first, and only, BGSU coach to win a bowl game. He was the first BGSU coach to lead his team to back-to-back seasons of at least 10 wins. He tied the NCAA record for "rookie" head coaches winning 11 games in 1991. And, he led the program to a MAC-record 19 consecutive conference wins and a 22-game unbeaten streak to begin his tenure.

The 1995 season will present some new challenges for Blackney and his staff as they look to win a third title. In order to achieve what they have set out to, they will have to overcome the loss of Vince Palko, two-time MAC Defensive Player of the Year, and the record-setting receiving combo of Ronnie Redd and Rameir Martin. Nonetheless, he believes BGSU will be a factor again. But, overcoming obstacles is something Blackney, as a coach and person, has grown accustomed to.

All Blackney did, in not only his first season at BGSU but his first season as a collegiate head coach, was take a 3-5-2 team and turn them into a 11-1 squad, which won their last 10 games. The Falcons clinched the MAC title with two weeks of the league schedule still remaining. The final standings showed BG with a perfect 8-0 mark while the second place team finished at 3-1-4.

The top first-year coach in the country, Blackney was just the fifth coach in MAC history to lead his team to an outright conference title in his first season. He is also the winningest first-year head coach in BGSU history equalling the NCAA record for most wins by a coach in his first season in the top spot. The 11 wins by the 1991 team tied the school record.

For an encore, with the Falcons no longer an unknown as they were in the 1990s, Blackney and his staff will again attempt to lead the Falcons to another conference title. And, if he has his way, they will do it in style.
1991, the 1992 favorites gladly accepted that role and again won the league title with a perfect record. The Falcons earned the right to represent the MAC in the first Las Vegas Bowl and backed up the program's first bowl victory in 1991 over Fresno State in the California Bowl with a thrilling 35-34 win over Nevada in Las Vegas.

Needless to say, the success that Blackney has brought to the program has also meant some prestigious honors along the way.

He became only the second coach in league history to earn Coach of the Year honors in back-to-back seasons earning the award in 1991 and 1992. He was also named the Coach of the Year in region 3 by his peers, the American Football Coaches Association, the same two seasons. The region included all I-A schools in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Big Ten member schools Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. The BGSU mentor was also the 1992 Ohio Collegiate Coach of the Year.

A little less than five years ago, Blackney realized his dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. He certainly paid his dues serving as an assistant the previous 21 years at such programs as Wisconsin, UCLA, Syracuse and, most recently, Ohio State. The list of coaches he served under ranks among the best in the collegiate game - coaches such as Dick MacPherson, Terry Donahue, Earl Bruce, Rick Forzano and John Cooper.

The Plainview, New York native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Connecticut, in 1968, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on a staff that included, in addition to Forzano, current Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz, former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano, and Dave Adolph and Dan Sekanovich, both NFL assistant coaches.

That was followed by stops at Brown and Rhode Island, in addition to the aforementioned schools, with all but two of those seasons spent on the defensive side of the ball. In seven of the last 11 years, Blackney has helped a team to a bowl bid.

His success story is certainly one that makes all people feel thankful.

In March, 1986, Gary's wife, Lauretta, suffered a basilar artery aneurysm which has led to her need for 24-hour care.

Forced to take over the duties of running the household, which were previously handled by Lauretta, Blackney still keeps up with the demands of being a head coach and a father.

The 1993 Buckeye squad tied with Wisconsin for the Big Ten championship. Walton signed a free agent contract with Atlanta and was in the Falcons’ camp in 1994. Walton earned his degree in sociology from Ohio State in March. He is a native of Columbus, Ga.

MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

The MAC is one of the 10 Division I-A conferences in the country, along with the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big East, Big Eight, Big West, Pacific-10, Southeastern, Southwest and Western Athletic conferences.

Entering its 49th year of existence, the MAC consists of 10 state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Of the 10 current members - the University of Akron, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University - nine schools have been members of the conference for 15 or more years. The University of Akron is the newest member having joined the league in 1992.

The league will change composition in 1997-98 adding Marshall and Northern Illinois while the University of Buffalo will become a MAC member in 1998 or 1999 bringing membership to 13.

The 10 member institutions have a total enrollment of better than 220,000, with individual enrollments ranging from 16,000 to 30,000, and have produced more than one million alumni. The MAC is the fourth-largest conference in the country in terms of undergraduate enrollment.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards, and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 19 championships, 10 in men’s sports and nine on the women’s side. For men, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field and volleyball.

The MAC is the only Division I conference with its own Hall of Fame. A total of 52 individuals have been inducted into the MAC Hall of Fame since its beginning in 1988, including 21 inductees with football backgrounds. Some of those include Ara Parseghian (Miami), Doyt Perry (Bowling Green), Bo Schmeechler (Miami), Jack Lambert (Kent) and Phil Villapiano (Bowling Green).

Numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition during the MAC’s 48 years. Bowling Green was recognized as the national small college champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second-longest streak in modern major college football history. Miami, beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years the non-conference victims of MAC teams include opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

For the fourth straight year, the MAC champion will play the Big West champion in the Las Vegas Bowl. This year’s game is scheduled for Dec. 14 at 6 p.m. This is the 15th season the winners of the MAC and BWC have battled in a bowl.

The junior tailback combination of Courtney Davis (#36) and Keylan Cates will be one of the best in the MAC this season. They combined for almost 1,500 yards rushing last season and almost 2,000 all-purpose yards.
Senior Steve Ayers moves into the starting lineup this season at cornerback after being an important member of the special teams and a reserve in the secondary the last three seasons. Ayers has started six games previously in his career.

I/O psychology program earns top ranking—twice

For the second time this year, the University's graduate program in industrial and organizational psychology has been ranked as one of the top programs of its kind in the nation.

The July issue of "The Industrial Organizational Psychologist" ranked Bowling Green as the fourth best program in the country. It based its results on the research productivity of faculty members during the past four years.

Examining research that was published in five journals—"Journal of Applied Psychology," "Personnel Psychology," "Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes," "Academy of Management Journal" and "Academy of Management Review"—the authors of the article evaluated the amount and quality of research being published by I/O faculty members across the country.

The final tally indicated the top three programs to be Michigan State and Penn State universities, and the University of Illinois, respectively. Colorado State University was ranked fifth.

In March, "U.S. News and World Report" ranked the Bowling Green program as the fifth best in the country. That ranking was based on a survey of faculty and administrators in I/O graduate programs across the country.

Michigan State University and the University of Illinois, along with Bowling Green, were the only programs listed in the top five in both surveys.

Dr. Carlla Smith, a professor of psychology and chair of the University program, said the latest ranking backs up the results of the first.

"The "U.S. News" ranking was based on the reputation of the schools. This ranking is based on a more scientific assessment of the program. "It's gratifying that no matter how you look at it, our program is at the top. It speaks to the well-rounded nature of our program," she added.

"The Industrial Organizational Psychologist" is the official magazine for the 4,600-member Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology.

Jazz great Mel Torme to perform for parents

Good seats still remain for the annual Parents Day concert featuring Mel Torme, today's premiere male jazz vocalist. The concert will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday (Oct. 7) in Anderson Arena.

Tickets are now on sale at the University’s Student Activities Office, third floor of the University Union. They may also be ordered by mail. All seats are reserved. All floor seats and all chair-backed seats in the stands are $16. Lower bleacher seats are $12 and upper bleacher seats are $8.

The address for mail orders is Student Activities Office, University Union, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH 43403. Mail orders will be filled on the day they arrive.

Checks should be made payable to "BGSU Parents Weekend."

Opening the evening's entertainment will be The Real Deal barbershop quartet, which is comprised of current and former University students and which won the 1994 Collegiate Barbershop Quartet National Championship.

Torme, who began his entertainment career 65 years ago as a four-year-old singer with the Coon Sanders Orchestra on a weekly Chicago radio broadcast, has never been more active or more popular.

Earlier this year, he completed a 36-city national tour, performing to standing-room-only crowds at some of the largest concert venues in the country.

And in 1994, he performed at both Carnegie Hall and the Hollywood Bowl for the 18th consecutive year; released a new album, "Mel Torme: A Tribute to Bing Crosby;" released his first video, "Mel Torme: Live from Ambassador;" and published his fifth book, "My Singing Teachers."

Torme has conquered almost every facet of the entertainment business. He has appeared in movies, such as "Higher and Higher" with Frank Sinatra, and on countless television programs, most recently as a frequent guest star on the long-running sitcom "Night Court." As a writer, his books have included an autobiography entitled "It Wasn't All Velvet."

But he is best known for the music. Torme is a writer, arranger and drummer, but it is his voice which has sold millions of records. He has twice won a Grammy Award, first in 1983 for the album "An Evening with George Shearing and Mel Torme" and the next year for the album "Top Drawer."

Opening for Mel Torme will be Gary Lewis, a graduate of the University, and Eric Kauffman, Justin Oxley and Dave McCutcheon, all senior music students at Bowling Green. Collectively, they are The Real Deal, the best collegiate barbershop quartet in the country.

"A SACK FOR A SACK"

This season Kroger wants to help families in need. Each time a BGSU defensive player sacks the opposing quarterback, Kroger will donate a sack of groceries to food pantries throughout the region.

Last year, Kroger donated over $65,000 worth of food for food pantries serviced by the Mid-Ohio Food Bank. We encourage you to support your local food pantry. Together, we can fight hunger!

Says:

GO FALCONS!
Bowling Green State University's success lies in offering its students the educational opportunities, diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the personality, camaraderie and caring of a small college.

This success is fueled in large part by Bowling Green's commitment to research and teaching which has attracted top faculty scholars and graduate students. They, in turn, have put the University on the cutting edge in the discovery of exciting new knowledge.

Bowling Green has nearly 875 full- and part-time faculty and 17,000 students on its campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 165 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 60 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 80 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 21 associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of bachelor's degree requirements. Firelands enrollment tops 1,400 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty, more than 95 percent of whom have the highest degree in their field, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, such as the industrial psychology program ranked fifth in the country in a recent U.S. News and World Report study. Also, faculty have been elected to highly ranking positions in several national and regional professional organizations.

Three academic departments - chemistry, philosophy and psychology - are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities. Only two other Ohio universities - Ohio State and Cincinnati - have more of these prestigious positions than BGSU.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the Population and Society Research Center, the Mid American Center for Contemporary Music, the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the Center for Canadian Studies, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Resource Center and the Mid America Stock Center - the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world - where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and more than 80 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Last year, more than 5,000 "non-traditional" students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The University is also making great strides towards accomplishing its goal of making computers a vital part of each student's education. There are currently 18 computer labs, including eight in residence halls, for use by students. In addition, nearly a half dozen departments have created computer labs for their students. This year the Board of Trustees has committed additional funds towards updating equipment in campus computer labs and additional networking of labs and academic buildings.

The focal point of the 1,338-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.8 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections, which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history, and the Sound Recordings Archives with one million recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually improving its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. This fall, the Eppler Center, which houses the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, is open following a $9.5 million renovation. A year ago, a $13.5 million classroom building, Paul Olscamp Hall, was opened and dedicated. The new building features state-of-the-art telecommunications capabilities which open unlimited possibilities for classroom instruction.

Also, the Board of Trustees this summer approved spending $13.5 million to upgrade both Kreischer and Harshman Quadrangles, which each house 1,300 students. Kreischer should be completed in time for the start of the 1996-97 academic year and renovation work on Harshman will follow.

In the past three years, a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building was completed. Hayes Hall was converted into a computer center, an $8.7 million field house for intramurals, physical education classes and intercollegiate sports was opened, and a $15 million renovation of Founders Quadrangle was completed, creating one of the finest and most modern residence halls in the state.

In the past dozen years, more than $174 million has been allocated for new construction and remodeling projects.

Olscamp Hall, named for Paul J. Olscamp, former president, is a classroom building with state-of-the-art communication technology.

Dr. Sidney A. Ribeau’s appointment last spring as the ninth president of Bowling Green State University was met with a great deal of enthusiasm from faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of the University. In the intervening months, that enthusiasm has not diminished.

He came to Bowling Green from California State Polytechnic University at Pomona where he had been vice president for academic affairs since 1992.

“Bowling Green is going to like Sidney Ribeau and Sidney Ribeau is going to like Bowling Green,” John Laskey, president of the University’s Board of Trustees, said at the time.

The search for Bowling Green’s new president was the most open in University history. Judge C. Ellen Connally, former president of the Board of Trustees and chair of the search committee, promised early that no constituency would be left out of the process.

“Dr. Ribeau fulfills the credentials that the Presidential Search Committee established after listening to all the constituencies of the University. He has a warm and easy manner that portrays the confidence he has in himself. I think Dr. Ribeau will not only do things right—he will also do the right things. That is a leader!” Laskey said.

In accepting the Bowling Green presidency, Ribeau said he was eager to accept the challenge of leading the University. “Bowling Green State University is ready to move decisively and quickly towards the challenges of the future. The president is just one player in a team that has to be prepared, motivated and ready to act. I am able...I am willing...to make my contributions to this process. I will not weary, I will not fail the University,” he said.

Ribeau was a popular selection.

He was endorsed by the student newspaper and was the clear choice of the faculty and staff. “Sidney Ribeau was by far the number one choice of administrative staff,” said Pat Green, the former chair of the Administrative Staff Council.

“Bowling Green is very fortunate to have found such an able leader who can be supported by all campus constituencies,” said Dr. Fiona MacKinnon Slaney, chair of Bowling Green’s Faculty Senate.

Ribeau’s career in higher education includes extensive background in university administration and experience in the areas of strategic planning, faculty development, fund raising, program planning, communications and university relations.

At Pomona, he managed a division of approximately 1,300 faculty and staff and a $70 million annual budget. Ribeau also implemented a divisional strategic plan, developed a campus diversity plan, implemented a faculty professional development program and reorganized the divisional financial management system, among other accomplishments.

As dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo from 1990-92, Ribeau increased faculty ethnic and gender diversity, developed a college strategic plan and initiated a college annual giving campaign during a time of significant budgetary reductions.

From 1987-90, Ribeau was dean of undergraduate studies at California State University at San Bernardino. From 1976-87, he was chair of the Pan African studies department and professor of communication studies at California State University at Los Angeles.

He has continued to teach throughout his administrative career and has maintained an interest in intercultural communication, African-American culture, relational communication, public discourse and race relations. He is the co-author of African American Communication: Ethnic Identity and Cultural Interpretations, which in 1994 received the Distinguished Scholarship Award for New Books, International and Intercultural Communication Division from the Speech Communication Association. He was selected earlier this year to give the 1995 B. Aubrey Fisher Memorial Lecture at the University of Utah. The lecture is one of the highest awards given to a scholar in the field of communications.

In the summer of 1994, he was invited to deliver the keynote address, “I, Too, Dream America,” at the Chautauqua Institution, Chautauqua, N.Y.

Ribeau, who grew up in the Detroit, Mich. area, holds a bachelor’s degree from Wayne State University. He received his master’s and doctoral degrees from the University of Illinois in 1973 and 1976, respectively.

FOR MANY HOSPITALS, CONSOLIDATION IS A BOLD NEW TREND.

FOR US, IT'S A 20 YEAR TRADITION.

Collaboration. Joint ventures. Mergers. Those are the buzz words sweeping hospitals across the nation as health care reform begins.

Mercy and St. Charles Hospitals applaud this way of thinking. In fact, right here in Toledo, we've been practicing this "new" philosophy for more than 20 years.

To us, it makes good sense for hospitals, and for the community. Because when administrative services, technology and staffing are shared, costly duplication can be greatly reduced or even eliminated.

At Mercy and St. Charles, we share a single source for gerontology services, purchasing, computer services, rehabilitation services and more than 15 other operations. Which has helped save tens of millions of dollars over our two decades of working together.

The savings are reward enough for doing business this way. But it's also nice to know we've been a trend-setter for all these years.

BETTER HEALTH, TIMES TWO.
Dr. Ron Zwierlein begins his second year as the director of intercollegiate athletics at Bowling Green State University having already accomplished a great deal in his short tenure.

During his first year as the director of Falcon athletics, he guided the men's sports program to the coveted Reese Trophy, symbolic of overall excellence in the Mid-American Conference.

Zwierlein, who was named to his present position on July 6, 1994, is more familiar with the BGSU athletic department, its operation, and the people than one would expect of a person recently appointed to the position. A 1968 graduate of BGSU who also has his master's from BGSU and a doctorate degree in athletic, physical education, and recreation administration from Ohio State, Zwierlein has been associated with the athletic department in many different capacities over the years.

Zwierlein, the 10th athletic director in the history of the department, spent the 1993-94 academic year as the interim vice-president for student affairs. In that capacity, he oversaw all student related activities, which included residential life, financial aid, recreational sports and the health center to name just a few of the areas.

Zwierlein comes from a diversified background in athletics that includes everything from being a collegiate athlete himself, to coaching, to administration.

He returned to BGSU to head the men's and women's swimming and diving teams in 1981 while also serving on the faculty at the University.

After three years as the head coach, during which his women's teams finished second in the Mid-American Conference all three seasons, Zwierlein accepted the position as the associate director of the Student Recreation Center on campus.

While still working as a director of the Student Recreation Center, Zwierlein was appointed to direct the planning and oversee the construction of the $8.7 million Bowling Green University Field House in 1991.

In 1992, he accepted the position as director of recreational sports, which included supervision of all facilities, staff, programs and financial resources associated with recreational sports. He was also responsible for overseeing the building and establishing the operational structure of the Field House.

Zwierlein was also involved in the athletic department at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio, near Cleveland. While at JCU, Zwierlein served as the head swimming and diving coach (1975-81) and athletic director (1977-1981). In his six seasons heading the men's swimming and diving program Zwierlein led JCU to the Presidents Athletic Conference title once while they placed seventh in the NCAA meet in 1980-81. During his tenure as JCU's swimming and diving coach, Zwierlein helped develop 28 swimmers and divers who earned All-America honors.

Zwierlein's collegiate swimming and diving teams combined to compile a 92-37 record while he had a career mark of 171-50, including his time spent coaching at the high school level.

During his tenure as the athletic director at JCU, he also served as chair of the physical education department, which included overseeing all aspects of both areas.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Zwierlein earned three letters as a member of the Falcon swimming and diving team, serving as team captain in 1967-68 as a senior. Zwierlein was a diver, finishing among the top four in the one-meter event at the MAC Championships as a junior and senior.

During his undergraduate days, Zwierlein also served as BGSU mascot Freddie Falcon.

After graduation from BGSU, Zwierlein served as head swimming and diving and soccer coach at Monroe High School in his hometown and as swimming and diving coach at Fremont (Ohio) Ross High School.

Zwierlein and his wife Cindy, a 1969 BGSU graduate, have three children, Heidi, Heather and Chad. Heidi and Heather are both students at BGSU.
The 1995 season begins with high expectations for Coach Gary Blackney and the fighting Falcons. In an opening night salute to our heroes of the gridiron, the Falcon Marching Band recalls some of America’s greatest heroes, both fact and fiction.

What collection of heroes would be complete without the enigmatic crusader from Gotham City? The Falcon Band “signals” the opening of another season by summoning our first hero, Batman.

The East stands receive a special concert for tonight’s opening show. As a preview of next weekend’s performances in Kobacker Hall at the College of Musical Arts, the Falcon Band presents a medley from Lerner and Loewe’s popular musical, Brigadoon.

Since we are gathered this evening to enjoy the efforts of the Falcon football team, it is only fitting that we next salute our hometown heroes with the heavy action theme from Monday Night Football. The finale for today’s halftime is the familiar John Williams theme from the movie, Superman.

The Falcon Band wishes a warm “Welcome Back” to all students, parents, and longtime Falcon supporters. Here’s to a great beginning to a championship season!

BGSU Athletic Department

The tradition of excellence that is Bowling Green State University athletics continued in 1994-95 as the Falcon men's athletic programs earned the top award from the Mid-American Conference, the Reese Trophy, for overall athletic excellence. It is the second successive year the men have captured the all-sports award. The Falcon women's programs have captured the Jacoby Trophy four of the last eight years, including three consecutive years between 1992 and 1994.

As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the accomplishments of BGSU's coaches and student-athletes solidify BGSU's place as one of the top athletic programs in the country.

Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and, based on the performance of Falcon teams as we approach the midway point of the 90s, they are maintaining their place among the elite in collegiate athletics.

Bowling Green claimed 24 conference titles during the 1980s with twenty-one teams earning berths in postseason play. Halfway through the 90s, BG teams have already won 10 league titles with nine teams making appearances in post-season action.

The following is a brief synopsis of each program in the BGSU Athletic Department...

BASEBALL - The program has a young, energetic leader in sixth-year head coach Danny Schmitz who has developed one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, has steadily built the program into one of the best in the MAC which culminated with the 1995 league title, the program's first since 1972. BG has won 62% of its games the last two seasons.

Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the better pitchers in the game, Roger McDowell and Orel Hershiser.

MEN'S BASKETBALL - Coach Jim Larranaga's 10th team will make a run at the league title with a young, energetic squad led by the return of all three players in the backcourt. BG made back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time in 30 years in 1989-90 and 1990-91. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in post-season appearances (22 games), victories (eight) and number of All-Americans (eight). Former NBA standouts Nate Thurmond and Al Bianchi are among BGSU's alumni. Thurmond and coaching great Harold Anderson were inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 1985.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL - The tradition-rich program will look to return to the top of the MAC standings in 1995-96. BGSU has compiled a 198-67 record over the last nine seasons. The Falcons are the winningest team in MAC history having captured six league tournament and five regular season championships. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including 4,408 fans for the 1993 NCAA Tournament game against Florida.

CROSS COUNTRY - The program is in good hands with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four cross country titles in the 1980s. Now, he's working his magic with the men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his sixth year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL - Two MAC titles and a run at championships each of the last two seasons has put the program back among the elite. BG won 19 straight league games in head coach Gary Blackney's first three seasons while compiling a 28-2-2 MAC mark over the last four years. BG's 36-8-2 overall record the last four seasons is the seventh best mark in the country among Division I-A schools. With five bowl games and 10 MAC titles in its history, BGSU alumni have included former NFL all-pros Phil Villapiano (Oakland), Mike Weger (Detroit), and Doug Smith (Los Angeles Rams), 12-year vet- eran Bob Reynolds (St. Louis), and Jamie Rivers (St. Louis).

GOLF - Coach Todd Brunsmink's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men's program, which was second in the MAC last season, its best finish since 1983, has won four league titles and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women's program is annually among the nation's best.

GYMNASTICS - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1990, the Falcons have qualified as a team for postseason competition five of the last 12 years. In each of the last six seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score.

HOCKEY - A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about with head coach Buddy Powers leading the 1994-95 squad to a top 10 national ranking and a second-place CCHA finish. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 10 years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. In all, the Falcons have won 11 conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey's greatest names, 14 of which who currently play in the NHL including defensemen Gary Galley and Rob Blake and forward Nelson Emerson. BG is also the home of two players who have captured the Hobey Baker Award.

SOCCER - The program, which has made three NCAA Tournament appearances, posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and the success has continued in the 90s with the team compiling a 64-24-4 record the last five seasons. BG has won 12 or more matches in six of the last 10 years for a 67.2 winning percentage.

SOFTBALL - Third-year head coach Rachel Miller-Reif will have another title-contending squad in 1996 with many of her key players returning. The program earned league titles in 1993 and 1988. The program annually plays some of the top teams in the country besides its demanding league schedule.

SWIMMING AND DIVING - Randy Julian begins his first year with the men's and women's programs looking to continue to make winning a habit. Thirteen dual meet wins in 1991-92 by the women's program established a school record while they have finished third or better in 12 of 14 MAC meets. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest's top swimming and diving facilities.

TENNIS - The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region - Robert Keeffe Courts. The men's team, under the guidance of 1994 MAC Coach of the Year Dave Morin, has never finished lower than fourth. The women's program is under the guidance of Penny Dean, who is in her sixth season.

TRACK & FIELD - Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, have had 10 athletes compete in the NCAA meet the last four seasons. Among the track alumni is six-time NCAA All-American and 1972 Olympic gold medalist Dave Wottle. Sid Sink, a seven-time All-American at BGSU, heads the men's track team, while Steve Price directs the women's program.

VOLLEYBALL - Coach Denise Van De Walle has steadily built the Falcon volleyball program into one of the best in the country. The 1992 team won a school-record 30 matches on its way to a third MAC title in four seasons. BG has won 20 or more matches seven of the last nine years. Van De Walle, three times named the league Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to 206 wins over the last seven seasons or a victory three out of every four times they've played.

A Mid-American Conference record crowd of 33,527 attended the Toledo-Bowling Green game in 1983.

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 30,599 seating capacity, is celebrating its 30th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an all-time high 112,110, an average of 22,422.

In 1944, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

The Falcons begin the 1995 season looking to maintain their home dominance where they have compiled an 18-1-1 record during head coach Gary Blackney's tenure.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift seven years ago.

The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992. Doyt's wife, Loretta, is joined by Varsity BG Club President Tom Vogtsberger (far left), BGSU Athletic Director Dr. Ron Zwiebel (next to Vogtsberger) and head football coach Gary Blackney. A plaque [inset] was put up on the west side of the stadium commemorating the dedication.
A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors to all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Stadium is the Falcon Club offices and club house, the office for the Director of Academic Affairs, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 16th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theatre-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President’s Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Sidney Ribeau, his guests, and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time the Falcons have won over 67 percent of their home games, compiling a 94-43-6 record in the 143 games played at Perry Stadium. Over the last 13 seasons, Bowling Green is 50-10-4 at home for a .813 winning percentage.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fourth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy (Notre Dame) in winning percentages among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years after stepping down as football coach.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombardier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

Fight Song

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee
Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why Orange and Brown?

Burnt orange and seal brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

Retired Jersey

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Why The Falcons?

The 1994-95 season marks the 68th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Leaver, who set a school and MAC record for kickers with 105 points last season, also earned first team All-America honors from Football News. Leaver finished second in the balloting for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award.

The network was established in 1993 with an initial Regents grant of $2.1 million. Consortium members are Bowling Green, the universities of Akron and Cincinnati, and Case Western Reserve and Ohio State universities.

MatNet, as the network is commonly referred to, enables the institutions to share costly equipment as it is used in research and teaching. It also offers researchers from industries and government labs in Ohio an opportunity to make use of the resources on the campuses.

Of the $1.45 million set aside for MatNet, $91,000 is earmarked to help equip a high-pressure ceramics properties testing laboratory at Bowling Green. The remaining funds will be used to develop the Akron site and to enhance the capabilities of the other sites.

In addition to funding from the Regents, member universities will contribute $30,000 to Bowling Green to help support the administration of the network on campus. The University was the lead institution for the initial grant and has served informally as the network on campus. The University gents, member universities will con-gan last season while the tie came against Western Michigan in the 1993 season finale. Over the last 13 seasons, BG is 50-10-4 (.813) at home and in the 29 years the Falcons have played their home games at Perry Stadium the program has compiled a 94-43-6 (.678) mark.

Tonight’s game, the fourth night game at Perry Stadium and the first since the season opener in 1992, is the first between the Falcons and Bulldogs.

FALCON FAST FACTS:
BG has won two of four seasons openers under Blackney, and 23 of the last 35 since 1960...the Falcons were a runaway pick of the league media as the team to beat in the MAC this season receiving 38 of 40 first-place votes in the preseason poll...Louisiana Tech was picked eighth in the Big West by both the coaches and media...Bowling Green did receive points in both national preseason polls...they were 39th in the Associated Press poll with eight points while one point in the USA Today/CNN poll was good for a tie for the 51st spot...with the departure of Michael Farragalli to become the head coach of the Toronto Argonauts in the CFL, there has been a slight shuffling of the staff since last season...Terry Malone, who is in his 10th year on the staff, has taken over as the offensive coordinator and Jim Collis joined the staff as the coach of the quarterbacks...the Falcon offense, which set numerous school and league records last season including the mark for most points in a season (391), returns seven starters...quarterback Ryan Henry, coming off his record-setting 1994 season, returns to give the Falcons a veteran calling the signals...he is just about 100% after undergoing offseason back surgery...Henry, a first team All-MAC selection last season, has compiled a 15-5-2 record as a starter and is within reach of the MAC and school record for touchdown passes of 63 set by Brian McClure (1982-85)...Henry starts the season with 40 career scoring tosses, but the biggest question mark on offense is who will he throw to with the departure of Ronnie Redd and the strength of the team with the top three tailbacks and both fullbacks returning...leading rusher Keylan Cates and Courtney Davis will continue to share time at the tailback spot like they did last season with Michael Parker also seeing some action...seniors Darius Card and Dwaylon Alexander will also share time at the fullback spot...Card needs just 27 receptions to join LeRoy Smith as the only player in program history to reach the 100 reception plateau for a career...all-league tackle Chad Bukey and center Cal Bowers anchor the offensive line...linebackers Jason Woullard and Kevin O'Neill anchor a defensive unit which returns six starters...in all, 10 players return on defense who started at least one game a year ago...Woullard has been second on the team in tackles the last two seasons and O'Neill had 39 tackles in the last three games of the season in '94, his only three starts of the season...first team All-MAC end Greg Cepek anchors the line while Chioke Bradley and Tony Everhart are the veterans in the secondary...for the second straight season, a "true" freshman will start in the secondary...Bradley started last year in his first season in the program and Orlando Rogers is expected to start tonight at free safety...Bowling Green, whose 36-8-2 record under Blackney is the seventh best in Div. I-A, will again have strong special teams...senior Derek Schorejs takes over the place-kicking duties from All-American Brian Leaver while Andy Tracy returns to do the punting...keep in mind BG's ability to block kicks (23 in the last four years), it could be a factor this evening.
Like the football team, the Falcon cross country, volleyball and soccer squads should also be contenders for their respective league titles this fall.

The volleyball and soccer teams open their seasons this weekend, while both the men’s and women’s cross country units start the year the week after. A short overview of each team follows:

CROSS COUNTRY

Last season Sid Sink’s youthful men’s team placed eighth at the conference meet. A year later and a bit more youth will serve as a team co-captain along with classmate Tim Arndt, who was BG’s top finisher at the MAC meet last year.

Sink sees sophomores Rob Bowman, Jason Salak and Jim Weckesser rounding out the top five with juniors Dave Ezner and Tom Williams also contributing. Salak was BG’s No. 2 runner at the MAC and district outings in 1994.

“This is the best team I’ve had in a long time,” said Sink. “The way the MAC is without a dominant team, this squad could win if we go after it. I haven’t been able to say that in a while.”

Sink isn’t the only cross country coach optimistic about his charges for the upcoming season. Steve Price, head coach of the men’s troops, is equally excited about 1995.

And for good reason. Price returns all but one of his letterwinners off last year’s squad. A First-Team All-MAC pick in 1994, Arndt was an All-MAC pick in 1994 and also pacing the Falcons in several other offensive categories. Her steady play, both offensively and defensively, has made her one of the most dangerous performers in the conference.

Joining Esslinger in the middle, giving the Falcons perhaps the league’s best frontline tandem, is junior Lori Hilton. An alternate on the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival team, Hilton led BG in blocks a year ago, finishing sixth in the MAC.

On the outside, Van De Walle feels there should be a strong battle between freshman Marnie Simpson, juniors Andy Carl and Shayne Crumley, and seniors Jimmy Ostrom for spots on the left and right side.

In charge of the setting again this season will be senior Jodi Olson and sophomore Wendy Watkins.

Back for her fourth year as the team’s defensive specialist is Marlene Metti, the best player at her position in the MAC according to Van De Walle.

Volleyball

The FG volleyball team is hungry for another MAC championship. And with the talent the Falcons return for the upcoming season, it’s not hard to see why head coach Denise Van De Walle and her players are looking forward to 1995.

A total of five starters are back, giving BG its first experienced lineup since the 1992 campaign when the Falcons last captured the conference title. The Brown and Orange will have to replace Jessica Andrusko, a two-time All-MAC outside hitter, but Van De Walle feels BG should be strong nonetheless.

Leading the way for the Falcons will be senior middle hitter Carlyn Esslinger. A First-Team All-MAC pick in 1994, Esslinger finished first in the conference in kills per game as a junior, while also pacing the Falcons in several other offensive categories. Her steady play, both offensively and defensively, has made her one of the most dangerous performers in the conference.

Backup at middle is sophomore Marilyn Ferlic, an all-region half-back. Ferlic is without a dominant team, this squad should also be contenders for their respective league titles this fall.

The football team, the Falcon cross country, volleyball and soccer squads should also be contenders for their respective league titles this fall.
