Emerson Literary Society Has Interesting Newspaper Meeting

Dr. Nordmann's room was the city room of the annual Emerson newspaper, April 4, as a summary of World news, including items on Havana, Germany, and the Saint Lawrence Waterway was given. Marjorie Coughey, editing campus news, gave the latest flashes on Kentucky debates, The Little World's Fair, the Dance Festival, and the forthcoming Emerson Parent-Teachers' meeting. Alice Cleland read a feature on spring, causing some interesting blushes and giggles. The women's page was at the mercy of Wilfred Ingall, who briefly surveyed fashions, beauty, and diet. His health-talk was on the care of the feet, a comprehensive, enlightening report. Gert-rude Masters, in charge of personals, continued Miss Cleland's laudable task of making Emersonians uncomfortable.

Homer Schilling was voted into the society.

The April 18 meeting of Emerson will be open to the public. It will be conducted in the form of a mock Parent-Teacher's Association meeting. Rose Solomon is to be chairman for the evening. Prominent speakers to scheduled, and it is noised that the sergeant-at-arms and the officious boy will have an opportunity to function. Professor Schwarz predicts an unusual evening.

Plans are underway for a weiner-roast in May.

QUILL TYPE CLUB LINES

UP COMING ACTIVITIES

Quill Type members met in room 208 P. A. for the regular two week meeting, Wednesday evening, March 28.

As soon as the meeting had opened Lucille Windle invited the Quill Type members to her home, 422 N. Enterprise street for a social meeting, April 9. Several members went to this party and a very enjoyable evening was had by all reports.

A motion was made and carried that the members who had missed three consecutive meetings should be dropped from Quill Type.

The program consisted of a clarinet solo by Fern Kaiser, who was accompanied by Mary Frazier; a paper by Herman Bricker; a piano solo by Grace Myers; a paper by Paul Smith, and another clarinet solo by Fern Kaiser.

Be Polite For Fun

Give the wall flowers, sunflowers, beauties and others a number as they appear at the party.

Boys, you draw a number for each dance, never to dance with the same partner twice until every charmer has had a chance to spoil your ten cent shoe shine.

Dance Recital Given by Women's Phy. Ed. Dept.

The Dance Recital presented by the Women's Physical Education department, Thursday evening, April 3, drew a large and enthusiastic audience. The 140 girls who took part in the performance transformed themselves to airplanes, jumping-jacks, toad-stools, frogs, elves, sprites, fairies, children, French peasants, and negro singers for the pleasure of the spectators. Old King Cole, and the six dukes, were present also.

Flattery Destroys Manhood

Great fortunes, conspicuous positions of leadership exalt the ego of nations and men. They feel their importance. They use their position to get away with minor infractions of good conduct.

A feeling of superiority leads to seeking the plaudits of others, often destroying a regard for law, morals and a sense of fair play.

Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Meeting

Rev. Verber, the young people's guide, from the Presbyterian church, addressed a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. on Thursday evening, March 22. The topic was, "The Fine Art of Camouflage." He left the outstanding thought with the group: "Think, Act and live in sincerity." Special music was given by Viola Bormuth and Catherine Fox.

Champion Volley Ball Team of Ohio to Risk Title In College Gym

Bowling Green will be the scene of an exceptional athletic exhibition in the men's gym at the State College, Thursday evening when the state champion volleyball team from the Lima Department of Recreation, stakes its title against the runner-up team from Clyde, Ohio.

The Clyde team was the only one to defeat Lima in the state volleyball tourney held in Columbus, March 24, and has challenged the champions for a return match. The two teams decided to hold the game on a neutral floor and selected the State College gym here for this match, after receiving the hearty approval of the college athletic department.

No admission will be charged. Everyone interested in this fascinating indoor sport is urged to be on hand when these teams take the floor at 7:30 Thursday evening.

Ode to A Nag

Oh, horse, you are a wondrous thing, no horns to honk, no bells to ring, no license buying every year with plates to stick on front and rear. No spark to miss, no gears to slip; you start yourself; no clutch to clip. No gas bills mounting every day to steal the joy of life away.

Your inner tubes are all O. K. and thank the Lord they stay that way. Your spark plugs never miss and fuss, your motor never makes us cuss. Your frame is good for many a mile, your body never changes style. Your wants are few and easy met, you have something on the auto yet. —Arkansas Highways.

Students Hear Talk on Ohio

Mr. Schaller of the Bowling Green Junior High School told many interesting historical and geographical facts of Ohio in an illustrated lecture in Assembly, Tuesday, April 3. Slides of scenes at the Lake Erie Islands, Marietta, Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland and all the most important cities of the state helped to broaden the knowledge of the students in regard to this state.

Mr. Schaller also explained the significance of the State Seal and of the origin told of the state flag.

Are You Guilty?

"I am and have been the president of a township board of education for the past fourteen years and if one of the teachers employed by that board would show the same lack of consideration of the health of her pupils as is shown by some of the teachers in our teacher training schools, her contract would not be renewed." —C. Under-graduate Research

A comparatively recent development in college education, and one which deserves wide extension, is the field of under-graduate research-work. Here at B. G. S. C. this work is most developed in the technique course in Biological Science. More recently the Psychology department has begun extensive experimental research. In courses like these the student is given merely the broad outlines of his work, allowing for independent action on the part of the individual. In the Social Science department, the research necessary in the preparation of term papers is a step in the right direction. But we lack the facilities for profound investigations in this field at present. This movement however, is still in its infancy, the next decade will see an even greater increase in this type of college work.

Ave! May Queen!

That was a difficult choice which our co-eds were forced to make last week. Personally, we consider the task almost herculean. But we having nothing but praise for the results of the W. A. A. election. To Miss Johnson go our heartiest plaudits as the May Queen of 1934. And to Miss Cooner, her Attendant, congratulations!

"Nature-Lore"

With the return of Spring in all her glory, many of our students and faculty must be constantly running into novel or noteworthy things in the out-of-doors. We urge all such amateur naturalists to drop their findings in the Bee Gee News box, as contributions to the column; Nature-Lore. Only the date is necessary, though we will be glad to acknowledge the notes by printing the initials of the author.

Sally, our school nurse: "Now, Willie, swallow this powder at once." Willie: "I'm not so dumb! I'll swab it on my face, the way I seen you do."
Williams Hall News

“The faint east quickens, the wan west shivers,” but the Williams Hall girls keep right on roller-skating and bicycling while spring flowers are brightening the scene. A couple of cars were seen digging around in the leaves near the bird-bath last week. Their owners are the most popular girls in the house, while your faithful reporter is the most unpopular. People lose their speech when she approaches.

We’re glad to see Doris Palmer back. Seems like home again.

Frannie Raisfryder is in a Crestline hospital, recovering from an appendectomy—is that correct, Gerry? (We refer you to our favorite authority on anatomy and pathology.) Frannie will be back within a few weeks. Meanwhile cheerful letters are in order.

Why did Mollie Finkelstein blush at the last Emerson meeting?

Who set the vogue for white shoes?

Marian Lyon has “got religion,” girls. Who has been taking bath robes from whence she had not been asked for a week?

Joyce Ruff was a week-end guest.

Betty Miller seems to be stepping out again.

What do we do with our favorite authority in anatomy and pathology?

—Is that correct, Gerry? (We refer you to our favorite authority on anatomy and pathology.)

3-K Kapers

Have you noticed the 3 K members are taking life easy? Yes, there is sufficient reason for this relaxation and carefree enjoyment of the “asphyr of spring,” for our group of pledges are entering into their duties with “pep, vim and vigor.”

The sorority is glad to announce the following girls as the self-sacrificing, quiet-suffering individuals mentioned: Dorothy Nantell, Jane Ogle, Mildred Perrell, Katherine Lehman, Helen Brooks, Frieda Baren, Arlene Redditt, and Alice Cleland. Frances Raisfryder was unable to take the pledge service because of illness; at present, she is in Emergency Hospital, Crestline. We hope to see her back in the ranks very soon.

Shades of Methuselah!—Just two more weeks till THE day. It’s April 28th to be exact, and life, we suppose, can be endured with such a prospect in store. On that day, all 3 K’s will “trip the light fantastic” and forget the nightmare of lesson plans and assignments. Letters received from the alumnae tell us the 28th on their calendars is circled with red ink, and we’re expecting the shouts of “remember when” to vie with the music from an Ohio Paul Whitman.

Five Sister News

The Five Sisters are happy to announce the names of their new members: Jane Pringle, Evelyn Swartz and Mary Connell.

Our new pledges are Margaret McMahon, Martha Foreman, Virginia Betts and Jane Brubaker.

Plans are under way for our annual Spring formal, April 14.
