'95 Season Sponsors

The Falcons begin the most important month of the 1995 season this afternoon hosting Miami University in the first of four Mid-American Conference contests against teams also expected to vie for the league title. After today's contest, Bowling Green travels to Ball State next weekend, hosts Toledo on Oct. 21, and concludes the month playing at Western Michigan on Oct. 28.

Before the season started, BG was the favorite to win the league, Miami was picked fourth, Ball State was picked sixth, Toledo was the #2 pick, and Western Michigan was tabbed for the #3 position. So it should be an exciting month of football for Falcon fans.

Miami, the only MAC program which holds a series edge over Bowling Green, is just six inches away from coming into the game this afternoon with a perfect 2-0 mark in league play, and a 4-1 overall mark. The Redskins lost their season opener at home to Ball State when place-kicker Chad Seitz' 51-yard field goal hit the right upright with three seconds left and the Cardinals had an important MAC road win in their pocket. Miami's only other loss this season came last week at Michigan where they dropped a 38-19 decision.

Of course on the flip side, Seitz kicked a 20-yard field goal at the gun to give Miami a 17-15 win at Northwestern earlier this season and back-up tailback Ty King returned a kickoff 82 yards with just 19 seconds left in the game lifting Miami a 23-16 win over Cincinnati earlier this season. Needless to say, the Redskins have kept their games interesting to the final gun.

Defense has always been a strong point of Miami teams, but maybe never more than this season. The Redskins went into the Michigan game leading the nation in total defense. This week they rank sixth in the nation in the category while they are 17th in pass efficiency defense. Miami is yielding a paltry 256.0 yards per game, and only 117.2 yards on the ground, a figure which ranks 23rd in the nation.

The Miami defense is led by returning starters Johnnie Williams and Dee Osborne. Those of you who attended last year's game will surely remember Williams as he established a 1995 BIG WEST STANDINGS

Bowling Green opponents have had to contend with the running of tailback Keylan Cates (#32) led by fullback Dwaylon Alexander. Cates ranks sixth in the MAC in rushing with the help of Alexander and the offensive line.
Deland McCullough, who is bidding to become the first back at Miami to lead the team in rushing four years. McCullough is averaging 141 yards per game and had 141 against Michigan last week. McCullough, who needs one more 100-yard game to break the Miami school record of 18 in a career, also has 10 receptions this season. Miami is 13-5 in the games in which he has rushed for 100 or more yards.

Sophomore Sam Ricketts, who finished the game against the Falcons last season after starter Neil Dougherty suffered a separated shoulder in the first quarter, will get the start. Ricketts had shared time with Dougherty this season, but Dougherty broke his leg in the Michigan game and will be lost for the remainder of the season.

lished his career high with 21 tackles against the Falcons. Williams, a second-team All-MAC selection, leads the Redskins this season with 71 stops. Osborne has 66 tackles to rank second on the team. He has eight tackles for a loss this season, second in the MAC. The other two returning starters are right end Jason Holmes and strong safety Ernest Perry. Perry is fourth on the team with 50 tackles.

Miami has intercepted 10 passes this season with eight different players getting a “pick.” Freshman JoJuan Armour from Toledo Central Catholic is the back-up outside linebacker. He has one of those interceptions while he has six tackles for a loss among his 16 stops this season.

On offense, Miami will rely heavily on the running of senior tailback Tremayne Banks, WR

INDIAN CYBERSPACE FINDS HOME IN BOWLING GREEN

A professor's office at Bowling Green State University is the center of an electronic community where about 40,000 people from around the world gather to share a common bond—India.

The office belongs to Dr. K. Vaninadha Rao, an associate professor of sociology. Two Sunsparc computers, which take up most of the space on Rao's desk, sort through electronic news digests and e-mail messages, and transmit them around the globe to members of the India Network.

Earlier last month, the India Network, which has the reputation of being among the 20 most frequently accessed sites on the Internet, received a message from The White House. The occasion? Indian Independence Day on Aug. 15. While holiday greetings from President Clinton are common, distributing them via the Internet is new, according to the White House's David Lytel.

"Our experience with this one will determine if this is something we wish to continue to do," Lytel wrote to Rao via e-mail.

The membership in the network is made up mostly of natives of India who are living outside their homeland but want to maintain a connection to their culture. Other members include academicians who want access to information on India for use in teaching and research and anyone interested in Indian information.

The India Network offers seven different services which are sent on a regular basis, usually daily, to the e-mail boxes of subscribers.

The services include a list of people who engage in general discussion of India-related topics; a compilation of news stories from India provided by the Press Trust of India and other sources; a compilation of India-related business news; and a question-and-answer service on immigration laws provided by a Washington attorney.

There is also a forum for faculty of Indian origin who are teaching at non-Indian universities to discuss issues and concerns which affect them; a forum for speakers of Telugu, a southern India dialect; and a "looking for" bulletin board service where people can post requests for information on out-of-touch friends, job leads or potential marriage partners.

In most of the services, subscribers may "discuss" topics by sending questions via e-mail to be added to the next transmission or responding to previous posts the same way or via private e-mail.

Some lists, such as the news digest, are for information only. All of the services are free, except for the business list which provides daily quotes from the Bombay Stock Exchange.

Rao's India Network began in 1988 when the Indian-born associate professor of sociology started using his Bowling Green e-mail account to send India-related news to his colleagues who didn't have access to computer news digests.

Through word of mouth, the e-mail connections increased and the amount of information transmitted grew in response to the needs of the members, Rao said. It now includes a World Wide Web site (http://india.bgsu.edu) based at Bowling Green, which contains information on how to subscribe to India Network services and offers links to other India-related services, including the Embassy of India Home Page.

Because of its size, the India Network now relies on many volunteers at sites other than Bowling Green to help transmit messages and to compile information. Volunteers based in various sites in India scan local newspapers to compile local news digests.

Branches of the network are also located in Africa, Belgium and at several American colleges.

In addition to their time, members have given equipment and funds. The two Sunsparc computers in Rao's office and software used to automate the transmission of news are just examples.

When it comes to winning games, few have done it better than Bowling Green State University head coach Gary Blackney.

Blackney has resurrected a once-proud football program, guiding the Falcons to back-to-back Mid-American Conference titles - going undefeated in league play to win the titles - and second and third-place finishes the last two seasons.

To get an idea of how dominant Falcon teams have been in MAC play during Blackney’s tenure, consider the fact BG has had a perfect record for 26 of the 32 weeks of league play over the last four years. In addition, Bowling Green has not had a loss on its slate for 29 of the 32 weeks. All in all, Blackney has led his teams to an eye-popping 28-2-2 (.906) record in MAC play.

This comes on the heels of five straight years when 5-6 was the program’s best record.

In just four short seasons, Blackney has accomplished what some have not in a lifetime. He is the first, and only, BGSU coach to win a bowl game. He was the first BGSU coach to lead his team to back-to-back seasons of at least 10 wins. He tied the NCAA record for “rookie” head coaches winning 11 games in 1991. And, he led the program to a MAC-record 19 consecutive conference wins and a 22-game unbeaten streak to begin his tenure.

The 1995 season will present some new challenges for Blackney and his staff as they look to win a third title. In order to achieve what they have set out to, they will have to overcome the loss of Vince Palko, two-time MAC Defensive Player of the Year, and the record-setting receiving combo of Ronnie Redd and Rameir Martin. Nonetheless, he believes BGSU will be a factor again. But, overcoming obstacles is something Blackney, as a coach and person, has grown accustomed to.

All Blackney did, in not only his first season at BGSU but his first season as a collegiate head coach, was take a 3-5-2 team and turn them into a 11-1 squad, which won their last 10 games. The Falcons clinched the MAC title with two weeks of the league schedule still remaining. The final standings showed BG with a perfect 8-0 mark while the second place team finished at 3-1-4.

The top first-year coach in the country, Blackney was just the fifth coach in MAC history to lead his team to an outright conference title in his first season. He is also the winningest first-year head coach in BGSU history equalling the NCAA record for most wins by a coach in his first season in the top spot. The 11 wins by the 1991 team tied the school record.

For an encore, with the Falcons no longer an unknown as they were in consecutive league victories in their 17-10 win over Toledo in 1993. Head coach Gary Blackney is carried off the field by his players after BG’s 17th straight league victory.
1991, the 1992 favorites gladly accepted that role and again won the league title with a perfect record. The Falcons earned the right to represent the MAC in the first Las Vegas Bowl and backed up the program's first bowl victory in 1991 over Fresno State in the California Bowl with a thrilling 35-34 win over Nevada in Las Vegas.

Needless to say, the success that Blackney has brought to the program has also meant some prestigious honors along the way. He became only the second coach in league history to earn Coach of the Year honors in back-to-back seasons earning the award in 1991 and 1992. He was also named the Coach of the Year in region 3 by his peers, the American Football Coaches Association, the same two seasons. The region included all I-A schools in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Big Ten member schools Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. The BGSU mentor was also the 1992 Ohio Collegiate Coach of the Year.

A little less than five years ago, Blackney realized his dream of becoming a collegiate head coach. He certainly paid his dues serving as an assistant the previous 21 years at such programs as Wisconsin, UCLA, Syracuse and, most recently, Ohio State. The list of coaches he served under ranks among the best in the collegiate game — coaches such as Dick MacPherson, Terry Donahue, Earl Bruce, Rick Forzano and John Cooper.

The Plainview, New York native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Connecticut, in 1968, where he spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on a staff that included, in addition to Forzano, current Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz, former Cleveland Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano, and Dave Adolph and Dan Sekanovich, both NFL assistant coaches.

That was followed by stops at Brown and Rhode Island, in addition to the aforementioned schools, with all but two of those seasons spent on the defensive side of the ball. In seven of the last 11 years, Blackney has helped a team to a bowl bid.

His success story is certainly one that makes all people feel thankful. In March, 1986, Gary's wife, Lauretta, suffered a basilar artery aneurysm which has led to her need for 24-hour care.

The MAC is one of the 10 Division I-A conferences in the country, along with the Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big East, Big Eight, Big West, Pacific-10, Southeastern, Southwest and Western Athletic conferences.

Entering its 49th year of existence, the MAC consists of 10 state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Of the 10 current members - the University of Akron, Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University - nine schools have been members of the conference for 15 or more years. The University of Akron is the newest member having joined the league in 1992.

The league will change composition in 1997-98 adding Marshall and Northern Illinois while the University of Buffalo will become a MAC member in 1998 or 1999 bringing membership to 13.

The 10 member institutions have a total enrollment of better than 220,000, with individual enrollments ranging from 16,000 to 30,000, and have produced more than one million alumni. The MAC is the fourth-largest conference in the country in terms of undergraduate enrollment.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards, and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 19 championships, 10 in men's sports and nine on the women's side. For men, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and diving and wrestling championships five years later. Men's soccer was added as a MAC-sponsored sport in 1993.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field and volleyball.

The MAC is the only Division I conference with its own Hall of Fame. A total of 52 individuals have been inducted into the MAC Hall of Fame since its beginning in 1988, including 21 inductees with football backgrounds. Some of those include Ara Parseghian (Miami), Doyt Perry (Bowling Green), Bo Schefchek (Miami), Jack Lambert (Kent) and Phil Villapiano (Bowling Green).

Numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition during the MAC's 48 years. Bowling Green was recognized as the national small college champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second-longest streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years the non-conference victims of MAC teams include opponents from the Big Ten, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

For the fourth straight year, the MAC champion will play the Big West champion in the Las Vegas Bowl. This year's game is scheduled for Dec. 14 at 6 p.m. This is the 15th season the winners of the MAC and BWC have battled in a bowl.

The junior tailback combination of Courtney Davis (#36) and Keylan Cates will be one of the best in the MAC this season. They combined for almost 1,500 yards rushing last season and almost 2,000 all-purpose yards.
Senior Steve Ayers moves into the starting lineup this season at cornerback after being an important member of the special teams and a reserve in the secondary the last three seasons. Ayers has started six games previously in his career.

Senior Derek Schorejs takes over the place-kicking duties this season. He has handled the kick off duties the last three seasons while converting two-of-four field goal tries in 1993. He had 22 of his 76 kick-offs last season go as touchbacks.

Members are effusive in their praise of the India Network and more than 40 responded in less than a week to a posted request asking for examples of how they have used the service.

"The diverse Indian culture and differences of opinions in all spheres of life are well demonstrated through the Indian digest," wrote Veerabhadran Moorthy of Singapore. "Some friends of mine in the USA saw my name in the digest and were able to contact me in Singapore."

Shekhar Chitnis, who works for Ford in Dearborn, Mich., but is temporarily based in Japan, said the service has been invaluable in helping him maintain ties to home, despite his travels. It is also helping him at his job, as Ford plans a greater presence in India, he said.

Moorthy Muthukrishnan and Eswari Yenumala met through the "looking for" service and were married. "Without it, there was a one-in-a-million chance that we would have met and married," Muthukrishnan wrote. "Both of us feel that we found just the right life partner we were waiting for."

Drew and Laurie Beck of Wisconsin were in the process of adopting a daughter from India and joined the network to learn more about her native country. "We quickly found out we had struck gold!" Drew Beck wrote. "Here were daily news summaries, classified ads, and best of all, discussion digests right there on our monitor...It wasn't too long before we realized that we probably knew more about current events in India than we did happenings right here in the U.S."

The appreciation for Rao's network has extended beyond e-mail messages of thanks. Last month he was presented an award for his work at the North American Telugu Conference in Chicago.

Rao has also found the service to be a good resource for his own research on India natives living in the United States.

Two of the population groups that have interested him are non-working Indian wives and elderly parents living in the United States without a day-to-day connection, such as a job, to help conquer their homesickness. Rao has applied for a federal grant to start a project that would provide computer sites at public places, such as mosques and community halls, where these groups could make virtual contact with others from their culture.

Parent Helpline connects mom, dad to the University

Everything you wanted to know about Bowling Green State University, but were afraid to ask—your kids—is now only a telephone call away for parents of University students.

The number is 1-800-815-1300.

It's called the Parent Helpline. It's free and it's proving to be a success in only its first month of operation.

Dr. Barbara Keller, associate dean of students and director of the new service, said the student operators have already helped parents who have had questions and/or concerns ranging from residence hall policies to events surrounding today's Parents Weekend activities.

"The service is doing exactly what we hoped it would do—provide accurate information to parents in a timely fashion," she added.

Staffed by undergraduate students, the service is in operation from 3-8 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays when the University is in session. During the first month, the service has averaged about eight calls a day, but Keller notes that each week the service has received more calls than it did the week before.

The helpline, part of a new parent services function in the reorganized Office of Student Life, was created in response to parents' requests for a toll-free number. Funding for the helpline is provided by parents through the parents telefund conducted annually by the Office of Development.

Food operations trying to provide 'A Taste of Home'

When University Food Operations ask students what they want most in the dining areas, most answer, "Food like I get at home!"

To help meet that need, Food Operations sponsors a "Taste of Home" recipe contest in conjunction with Parents Weekend.

Parents are invited to enter by submitting their favorite recipes for entrees, salads, desserts and other specialties. Your recipes can be mailed to BGSU Food Operations, A Taste of Home, 200 Centrex, Bowling Green, OH 43403.

Recipes must be received by Oct. 31. All entries must include the name, number of servings, pan size, cooking temperature, ingredients, complete preparation instructions and any special history of the item. You may request a special entry form from Food Operations.

All entries will be kitchen-tested and student-judged and winners will be added to Food Operations' serving options.

A grand prize and five first-place awards will be given. The grand prize recipient will receive a $100 credit on the student's BG Choices food account; first prize winners will receive a $25 credit on the students' food accounts.

Winners will be selected by Jan. 12, 1996, and the award-winning recipes will be featured on the Valentine's Day menu.

BG Home Game + Neutral Site
"A SACK FOR A SACK"

This season Kroger wants to help families in need. Each time a BGSU defensive player sacks the opposing quarterback, Kroger will donate a sack of groceries to food pantries throughout the region. Last year, Kroger donated over $65,000 worth of food for food pantries serviced by the Mid-Ohio Food Bank. We encourage you to support your local food pantry. Together, we can fight hunger!

Wings Of The Falcons

BGSU Football Alumni Network

In its initial year, this “organization” was established to create a networking system that encourages former Falcon football players to attend BGSU games (home and away), team reunions, etc. in greater social numbers.

The program is also designed to better cultivate, through a caring attitude, those Falcons who are prepared or would be willing “to give back to Bowling Green football”, not always in financial terms, but in the equally important aspect of spreading the positive word about Falcon football and BGSU in general.

Finally, via increased interaction amongst friends and peers, “Wings” strengthens the linkage that further enhances the tremendous life-long benefits that being a part of such a special program delivers.

Volunteer class representatives play a vital role in assisting the football staff by enlisting support and updating information on their former teammates.

Further information is available by contacting Jean Panning, football secretary at (419) 372-7083, or Ken Kavanagh, associate athletic director, at (419) 372-7054. Or stop by the “Wings” tent in the northeast corner of Perry Stadium before or after any home game.

Falcon Quest

One of only 46 institutions to have participated in the NCAA Life Skills 1994 pilot study, BGSU’s “Falcon Quest” program is designed to address the “total development” of the student-athlete in preparation for the biggest game of all - the game of life. With the assistance of numerous University and Bowling Green community personnel, a variety of programs are held during the year. In its inaugural year, Falcon Quest created and activated the Student-Athlete Advisory Board, held a comprehensive Life Skills conference - attended by nearly 500 student-athletes, initiated the Falcon Speakers Bureau, and organized the Fall Falcon Fling picnic. Falcon Quest provides a well-rounded program for BGSU student-athletes to develop the individual skills necessary to lead a productive, successful life.

Says:

GO FALCONS!
Bowling Green State University's success lies in offering its students the educational opportunities, diversity and excitement of a large university, while maintaining the personality, camaraderie and caring of a small college.

This success is fueled in large part by Bowling Green's commitment to research and teaching which has attracted top faculty scholars and graduate students. They, in turn, have put the University on the cutting edge in the discovery of exciting new knowledge.

Bowling Green has nearly 875 full- and part-time faculty and 17,000 students on its campus. Degree programs are offered through the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

In all, the University offers more than 165 undergraduate degree programs, 13 master's degrees in 60 fields of study and doctoral degrees in 14 departments with more than 80 specializations.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 21 associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of bachelor's degree requirements. Firelands enrollment tops 1,400 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University's faculty, more than 95 percent of whom have the highest degree in their field, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, such as the industrial psychology program ranked fifth in the country in a recent U.S. News and World Report study. Also, faculty have been elected to high ranking positions in several national and regional professional organizations.

Three academic departments - chemistry, philosophy and psychology - are home to Ohio Eminent Scholars. The scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world-class educators and researchers to the state's universities. Only two other Ohio universities - Ohio State and Cincinnati - have more of these prestigious positions than BGSU.

While committed to teaching, faculty are researchers as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and in fourteen University units such as the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the Population and Society Research Center, the Mid American Center for Contemporary Music, the Center for Quality, Measurement and Automation, the Center for Canadian Studies, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Resource Center and the Mid America Stock Center - the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world - where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University's students come from throughout the United States and more than 80 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. Last year, more than 5,000 "non-traditional" students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The University is also making great strides towards accomplishing its goal of making computers a vital part of each student's education. There are currently 18 computer labs, including eight in residence halls, for use by students. In addition, nearly a half dozen departments have created computer labs for their students. This year the Board of Trustees has committed additional funds towards upgrading facilities to meet current needs.

The University is also making great strides towards accomplishing its goal of making computers a vital part of each student's education. There are currently 18 computer labs, including eight in residence halls, for use by students. In addition, nearly a half dozen departments have created computer labs for their students. This year the Board of Trustees has committed additional funds towards upgrading facilities to meet current needs.

The focal point of the 1,338-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than four million items, including 1.8 million volumes plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections, which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history, and the Sound Recordings Archives with one million recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry's past and present.

The University is continually improving its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. This fall, the Eppler Center, which houses the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, is open following a $9.5 million renovation. A year ago, a $13.5 million classroom building, Paul Olscamp Hall, was opened and dedicated. The new building features state-of-the-art telecommunications capabilities which open unlimited possibilities for classroom instruction.

Also, the Board of Trustees this summer approved spending $17 million to upgrade both Kreischer and Harshman Quadrangles, which each have 1,300 students. Kreischer should be completed in time for the start of the 1996-97 academic year and renovation work on Harshman will follow.

In the past three years, a $9.8 million addition to the Fine Arts Building was completed, Hayes Hall was converted into a computer center, an $8.7 million field house for intramurals, physical education classes and intramural sports was opened, and a $15 million renovation of Founders Quadrangle was completed, creating one of the finest and most modern residence halls in the state.

In the past dozen years, more than $174 million has been allocated for new construction and remodeling projects.

Dr. Sidney A. Ribeau’s appointment last spring as the ninth president of Bowling Green State University was met with a great deal of enthusiasm from faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of the University. In the intervening months, that enthusiasm has not diminished.

He came to Bowling Green from California State Polytechnic University at Pomona where he had been vice president for academic affairs since 1992.

“Bowling Green is going to like Sidney Ribeau and Sidney Ribeau is going to like Bowling Green,” John Laskey, president of the University’s Board of Trustees, said at the time.

The search for Bowling Green’s new president was the most open in University history. Judge C. Ellen Connally, former president of the Board of Trustees and chair of the search committee, promised early that no constituency would be left out of the process.

“Dr. Ribeau fulfills the credentials that the Presidential Search Committee established after listening to all the constituencies of the University. He has a warm and easy manner that portrays the confidence he has in himself. I think Dr. Ribeau will not only do things right—he will also do the right things. That is a leader!” Laskey said.

In accepting the Bowling Green presidency, Ribeau said he was eager to accept the challenge of leading the University. “Bowling Green State University is ready to move decisively and quickly towards the challenges of the future. The president is just one player in a team that has to be prepared, motivated and ready to act. I am able...I am willing...to make my contributions to this process. I will not weary, I will not fall the University,” he said.

Ribeau was a popular selection.

He was endorsed by the student newspaper and was the clear choice of the faculty and staff. “Sidney Ribeau was by far the number one choice of administrative staff,” said Pat Green, the former chair of the Administrative Staff Council.

“Bowling Green is very fortunate to have found such an able leader who can be supported by all campus constituencies,” said Dr. Fiona MacKinnon Slaney, chair of Bowling Green’s Faculty Senate.

Ribeau’s career in higher education includes extensive background in university administration and experience in the areas of strategic planning, faculty development, fund raising, program planning, communications and university relations.

At Pomona, he managed a division of approximately 1,300 faculty and staff and a $70 million annual budget. Ribeau also implemented a divisional strategic plan, developed a campus diversity plan, implemented a faculty professional development program and reorganized the divisional financial management system, among other accomplishments.

As dean of the College of Liberal Arts at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo from 1990-92, Ribeau increased faculty ethnic and gender diversity, developed a college strategic plan and initiated a college annual giving campaign during a time of significant budgetary reductions.

From 1987-90, Ribeau was dean of undergraduate studies at California State University at San Bernardino. From 1976-87, he was chair of the Pan African studies department and professor of communication studies at California State University at Los Angeles.

He has continued to teach throughout his administrative career and has maintained an interest in intercultural communication, African-American culture, relational communication, public discourse and race relations. He is the co-author of African American Communication: Ethnic Identity and Cultural Interpretations, which in 1994 received the Distinguished Scholarship Award for New Books, International and Intercultural Communication Division from the Speech Communication Association. He was selected earlier this year to give the 1995 B. Aubrey Fisher Memorial Lecture at the University of Utah. The lecture is one of the highest awards given to a scholar in the field of communications.

In the summer of 1994, he was invited to deliver the keynote address, “I, Too, Dream America,” at the Chautauqua Institution, Chautauqua, N.Y.

Ribeau, who grew up in the Detroit, Mich. area, holds a bachelor’s degree from Wayne State University. He received his master’s and doctoral degrees from the University of Illinois in 1973 and 1976, respectively.

FOR MANY HOSPITALS, CONSOLIDATION IS A BOLD NEW TREND.

FOR US, IT’S A 20 YEAR TRADITION.

Collaboration. Joint ventures. Mergers. Those are the buzz words sweeping hospitals across the nation as health care reform begins.

Mercy and St. Charles Hospitals applaud this way of thinking. In fact, right here in Toledo, we’ve been practicing this “new” philosophy for more than 20 years.

To us, it makes good sense for hospitals, and for the community. Because when administrative services, technology and staffing are shared, costly duplication can be greatly reduced or even eliminated.

At Mercy and St. Charles, we share a single source for gerontology services, purchasing, computer services, rehabilitation services and more than 15 other operations. Which has helped save tens of millions of dollars over our two decades of working together.

The savings are reward enough for doing business this way. But it’s also nice to know we’ve been a trend-setter for all these years.

BETTER HEALTH, TIMES TWO.

Dr. Ron Zwierlein begins his second year as the director of intercollegiate athletics at Bowling Green State University having already accomplished a great deal in his short tenure.

During his first year as the director of Falcon athletics, he guided the men's sports program to the coveted Reese Trophy, symbolic of overall excellence in the Mid-American Conference.

Zwierlein, who was named to his present position on July 6, 1994, is more familiar with the BGSU athletic department, its operation, and the people than one would expect of a person recently appointed to the position. A 1968 graduate of BGSU who also has his master's from BGSU and a doctorate degree in athletic, physical education, and recreation administration from Ohio State, Zwierlein has been associated with the athletic department in many different capacities over the years.

Zwierlein, the 10th athletic director in the history of the department, spent the 1993-94 academic year as the interim vice-president for student affairs. In that capacity, he oversaw all student related activities, which included residential life, financial aid, recreational sports and the health center to name just a few of the areas.

Zwierlein comes from a diversified background in athletics that includes everything from being a collegiate athlete himself, to coaching, to administration.

He returned to BGSU to head the men's and women's swimming and diving teams in 1981 while also serving on the faculty at the University.

After three years as the head coach, during which his women's teams finished second in the Mid-American Conference all three seasons, Zwierlein accepted the position as the associate director of the Student Recreation Center on campus.

While still working as a director of the Student Recreation Center, Zwierlein was appointed to direct the planning and oversee the construction of the $8.7 million Bowling Green University Field House in 1991.

In 1992, he accepted the position as director of recreational sports, which included supervision of all facilities, staff, programs and financial resources associated with recreational sports. He was also responsible for overseeing the building and establishing the operational structure of the Field House.

Zwierlein was also involved in the athletic department at John Carroll University in University Heights, Ohio, near Cleveland. While at JCU, Zwierlein served as the head swimming and diving coach (1975-81) and athletic director (1977-1981). In his six seasons heading the men's swimming and diving program Zwierlein led JCU to the Presidents Athletic Conference title once while they placed seventh in the NCAA meet in 1980-81. During his tenure as JCU's swimming and diving coach, Zwierlein helped develop 28 swimmers and divers who earned All-America honors.

Zwierlein's collegiate swimming and diving teams combined to compile a 92-37 record while he had a career mark of 171-50, including his time spent coaching at the high school level.

During his tenure as the athletic director at JCU, he also served as chair of the physical education department, which included overseeing all aspects of both areas.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Zwierlein earned three letters as a member of the Falcon swimming and diving team, serving as team captain in 1967-68 as a senior. Zwierlein was a diver, finishing among the top four in the one-meter event at the MAC Championships as a junior and senior.

During his undergraduate days, Zwierlein also served as BGSU mascot Freddie Falcon.

After graduation from BGSU, Zwierlein served as head swimming and diving and soccer coach at Monroe High School in his hometown and as swimming and diving coach at Fremont (Ohio) Ross High School.

Zwierlein and his wife Cindy, a 1969 BGSU graduate, have three children, Heidi, Heather and Chad. Heidi and Heather are both students at BGSU.
Today's Halftime Show
BGSU FALCON MARCHING BAND
October 7, 1995

The year 1995 marks the 50th anniversary of the end of World War II. There have been many commemorations of specific events that changed the world during the past year, and the Falcon Marching Band presents its own version this afternoon for a Parents Day crowd with a show simply entitled “1945.”

Still frequently replayed on today’s television is an award-winning documentary that followed the struggle for supremacy on the high seas during the great conflict. At the time, there was no more realistic look at the battles on the sea and beaches that shaped the world as we knew it. The music for the series was composed by one of America’s finest composers of the time, Robert Russell Bennett. The series, Victory at Sea, is recreated, Falcon Band style, with a medley from Bennett’s pen.

Although the life of Glenn Miller was cut tragically short by the end of 1945, the year and the era are synonymous with his brand of music called “Big Band,” and perhaps the most famous tune of the era is In the Mood. We welcome special guests to the field for this feature number. The finale of today’s special presentation is a heartfelt, but energetic salute to those who gave their all for liberty in and before 1945 so that we can today breathe free. The closing medley includes the themes from America’s fighting forces: Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines. We extend a special welcome to all parents and a special “Thank You” to all veterans of America’s armed forces!

BGSU ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

The tradition of excellence that is Bowling Green State University athletics continued in 1994-95 as the Falcon men's athletic programs earned the top award from the Mid-American Conference, the Reese Trophy, for overall athletic excellence. It is the second successive year the men have captured the all-sports award. The Falcon women's programs have captured the Jacoby Trophy four of the last eight years, including three consecutive years between 1992 and 1994.

As we move further into the final decade of the 20th century, the accomplishments of BGSU's coaches and student-athletes solidify BGSU's place as one of the top athletic programs in the country.

Bowling Green sports teams of the 1980s achieved a level of success matched by few and, based on the performance of Falcon teams as we approach the midway point of the 90s, they are maintaining their place among the elite in collegiate athletics.

Bowling Green claimed 24 conference titles during the 1980s with twenty-one teams earning berths in postseason play. Halfway through the 90s, BG teams have already won 10 league titles with nine teams making appearances in post-season action.

The following is a brief synopsis of each program in the BGSU Athletic Department...

BASEBALL - The program has a young, energetic leader in sixth-year head coach Danny Schmitz who has developed one of the top programs in the region. Schmitz, who played eight seasons of professional baseball, has steadily built the program into one of the best in the MAC which culminated with the 1995 league title, the program's first since 1972. BG has won 62% of its games the last two seasons. Many former BGSU players have gone on to play professional baseball including two of the better pitchers in the game, Roger McDowell and Orel Hershiser.

MEN'S BASKETBALL - Coach Jim Larranaga's 10th team will make a run at the league title with a young, energetic squad led by the return of all three players in the backcourt. BG made back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time in 30 years in 1989-90 and 1990-91. Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in postseason appearances (22 games), victories (eight) and number of All-Americans (eight). Former NBA standouts Nate Thurmond and Al Bianchi are among BGSU's alumni. Thurmond and coaching great Harold Anderson were inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 1985.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL - The tradition-rich program will look to return to the top of the MAC standings in 1995-96. BGSU has compiled a 198-67 record over the last nine seasons. The Falcons are the winningest team in MAC history having captured six league tournament and five regular season championships. The success of the program has attracted large crowds to Anderson Arena, including 4,408 fans for the 1993 NCAA Tournament game against Florida.

CROSS COUNTRY - The program is in good hands with Sid Sink in charge of the men and Steve Price directing the women. Sink, a former track and cross country All-American at BGSU, coached the BG women to four cross country titles in the 1980s. Now, he's working his magic with the men. Price, an experienced coach on the national and international level, is in his sixth year as the head coach.

FOOTBALL - Two MAC titles and a run at championships each of the last two seasons has put the program back among the elite. BG went 19 straight league games in head coach Gary Blackney's first three seasons while compiling a 28-2-2 MAC mark over the last four years. BG's 36-8-2 overall record the last four seasons is the seventh best mark in the country among Division I-A schools. With five bowl games and 10 MAC titles in its history, BGSU alumni have included former NFL all-pros Phil Villapiano (Oakland), Mike Weger (Detroit), and Doug Smith (Los Angeles Rams), 12-year veteran Bob Reynolds (St. Louis), and Jamie Rivers (St. Louis).

GOLF - Coach Todd Brunski's men's and women's golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country and in some of the most prestigious tournaments on the collegiate level. The Falcon men's program, which was second in the MAC last season, its best finish since 1983, has won four league titles and made four NCAA Tournament appearances while the women's program is annual among the best in the region.

GYMNASTICS - Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender. With three MAC titles since 1980, the Falcons have qualified as a team for postseason competition five of the last 12 years. In each of the last six seasons, his teams have consistently increased the school record for team score.

HOCKEY - A winning tradition is what the Falcon hockey program is all about with head coach Buddy Powers leading the 1994-95 squad to a top 10 national ranking and a second-place CCHA finish. One of only five teams in the country to earn 20 or more wins every year between 1981 and 1990, BGSU will be looking to make its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 10 years this season. In all, the Falcons have appeared in nine NCAA Tournaments winning the 1984 national title. In all, the Falcons have won 11 conference titles. BGSU has produced some of college hockey's greatest names, 10 of which who currently play in the NHL, including defender Chris Chelios, Terry Galley and Rob Blake and forward Nelson Emerson. BG is also the home of two players who have captured the Hobey Baker Award.

SOCCER - The program, which has made...

three NCAA Tournament appearances, posted a winning record in all but one year of the 1980s and the success has continued in the 90s with the team compiling a 64-24-4 record the last five seasons. BG ranked sixth in the Great Lakes Region in 1994 and second in Ohio. The BGSU schedule annually includes perennial NCAA power Indiana along with the Kwik Goal/BGSU Classic. BG has won 12 or more matches in six of the last 10 years for a 67.2 winning percentage.

SOFTBALL - Third-year head coach Rachel Miller-Reif will have another title-contending squad in 1996 with many of her key players returning. The program earned league titles in 1993 and 1988. The program annually plays some of the top teams in the country besides its demanding league schedule.

SWIMMING AND DIVING - Randy Julian begins his first year with the men's and women's programs looking to continue to make winning a habit. Thirteen dual meet wins in 1991-92 by the women's program established a school record while they have finished third or better in 12 of 14 MAC meets. The Falcons train at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest's top swimming and diving facilities.

TEennis - The Falcon tennis teams have the advantage of playing and practicing at one of the finest facilities of its kind in the region - Robert Keefe Courts. The men's team, under the guidance of 1994 MAC Coach of the Year Dave Morin, has never finished lower than fourth. The women's program is under the guidance of Penny Dean, who is in her sixth season.

TRACK & FIELD - Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, have had 10 athletes compete in the NCAA meet the last four seasons. Among the track alumni is six-time NCAA All-American and 1972 Olympic gold medalist Dave Wottle. Sid Sink, a seven-time All-American at BGSU, heads the men's track team, while Steve Price directs the women's program.

VOLLEYBALL - Coach Denise Van De Walle has steadily built the Falcon volleyball program into one of the best in the country. The 1992 team won a school-record 30 matches on its way to a third MAC title in four seasons. BG has won 20 or more matches seven of the last nine years. Van De Walle, three time's named the league Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to 206 wins over the last seven seasons or a victory three out of every four times they've played.

There are many reasons you may think of stopping when you see our sign. The most obvious, of course, is its color. Red. But there's a lot more to consider:

* Our Home Style Meat Loaf served under a delicately seasoned brown gravy.
* Chicken 'N Noodles simmered with fresh garden vegetables.
* Country Fried Steak in a hearty country gravy.
* We've got a dozen new dinners.
* And if the selection doesn't stop you, the price will. Because seven of those dinners cost less than five dollars.

So drop by after the game. Where? Just stop when you see our sign.

Get a Telephone Season Ticket and be at every Bowling Green Falcons game - even if you live 2,000 miles away!

No matter how far away you live from your favorite team, you can always hear the live play-by-play over the telephone by calling TEAMLINE. Now with the TEAMLINE Telephone Season Ticket you can hear the games you want at a lower cost and with faster access.

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS

GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $20 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 600 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BG Club is offering a lifetime membership for $200; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $100.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes two major projects each year. In July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

A Mid-American Conference record crowd of 33,527 attended the Toledo-Bowling Green game in 1983.

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 30,599 seating capacity, is celebrating its 30th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,110, an average of 22,422.

In 1944, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

The Falcons begin the 1995 season looking to maintain their home dominance where they have compiled an 18-1-1 record during head coach Gary Blackney’s tenure.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift seven years ago.

The football facility at BGSU was formally dedicated as Doyt L. Perry Stadium on Sept. 26, 1992. Doyt’s wife, Loretta, is joined by Varsity BG Club President Tom Vogtsberger (far left), BGSU Athletic Director Dr. Ron Zwierlein (next to Vogtsberger) and head football coach Gary Blackney. A plaque (inset) was put up on the west side of the stadium commemorating the dedication.
A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors to all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988. Also situated on the west side of Perry Stadium is the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the office for the Director of Academic Affairs, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 16th year of operation, Bowling Green students, Bowling Green fans with the best view of the game. The President’s Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Sidney Ribeau, his guests, and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 67 percent of their home games, compiling a 94-43-6 record in the 143 games played at Perry Stadium. Over the last 13 seasons, Bowling Green is 50-10-4 at home for a .813 winning percentage.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fourth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy (Notre Dame) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years after stepping down as football coach.

Alma Mater
Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Ay Ziggy Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombadier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon
Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Retired Jersey
The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Why Orange and Brown?
Burnt orange and seal brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.
Place-kicker Brian Leaver is pictured with Bob Hope at the taping of the Bob Hope Christmas Show last winter where the members of the Associated Press first team All-America team were introduced. Leaver, who set a school and MAC record for kickers with 105 points last season, also earned first team All-America honors from Football News. Leaver finished second in the balloting for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award.

Ricketts has completed 38-of-89 passes for 439 yards this season. He completed over 54% of his passes in 1994.

Leading receiver for the Redskins is junior Tremayne Banks with 18 receptions (14.3 avg.). Toledo DeVilbiss product Eric Henderson has 12 receptions for an 8.3-yard average.

Senior guard Gene Guidry is the only returning starter for the Redskins along the forward wall. Another offensive weapon for the Redskins is Seitz, who has nine field goals this season, ranking fifth in the nation. He has excellent range connecting from 54 yards last week in the Michigan game, his second career kick of 50+ yards.

One thing to look for in the game is the fact Miami has scored 88 of its 126 points in the second half, 52 of those points in the fourth quarter. The Falcon defense has yielded almost half of the points it has surrendered this season in the fourth quarter (46 of 103 points).

Miami head coach Randy Walker, 29-27-4 in six seasons, is 0-4-1 against Bowling Green during his tenure.

Miami holds a 31-16-5 edge in the series, but BG has won the last four meetings. BGSU has a 4-1-3 mark in the last eight series games played at home while overall in the series BG has an 8-13-4 mark at home.

Eight of the last 10 series games have been decided by 11 points or less with three of those contests decided by five points or less, not including two ties. In the last eight series games played at Perry Stadium, there have been three games decided by 10 points or less, three other games which ended in ties, and Bowling Green has won the last two meetings by 20 (44-24, 1992) and 11 (27-16, 1994) points.

-- FALCON FAST FACTS: While every game from here on out is important for all MAC teams, it is especially important for those who have at least one loss, which is the case for both Miami and Bowling Green...the last time a team won the league title with two or more losses was 1986 when Miami posted a 6-2 mark...today’s game is significant for the Falcons because they already have one loss and because it is a home game...Bowling Green has compiled a 19-2-1 record at home since 1991, a 15-1-1 mark in league games...over the last 22 home games, BG has averaged 32.8 points while holding the opposition to an average of 15.9 points...in league games, BG has averaged 32.7 points and given up an average of just over two touchdowns per contest (14.3 points)...BG has held 13 of 17 MAC foes to two touch downs or less at home...this should prove to be a key week in MAC play as besides the Bowling Green-Miami game, Ball State plays at Toledo, and Central Michigan plays at Eastern Michigan...if the Falcons are to make a run at the league title, the Ryan Henry who struggled the first three weeks of the season, will need to play the way Henry did in the Temple contest last week...Henry completed 18-of-28 passes in the Temple game for 209 yards and one touchdown...Henry did not throw an interception for the second successive game...Henry had thrown 15 interceptions in his previous four starts...to show how out of character that four-game stretch was for Henry, his 15 interceptions in those four games were two more than he had thrown in his previous 23 contests...the Falcon running game also had its best day of the year, other than the Akron contest, with 155 yards against Temple as Keylan Cates led the way with 84 yards on 23 carries...Cates, who is 15th on the BG career rushing list with 1,243 yards, has averaged 119.6 yards rushing over the last three games...junior wide receiver Eric Starks had the biggest day of his BGSU career with seven catches for 134 yards against Temple...he and senior tight end Trevor Stover are the only players who have caught at least one pass in all five games this season...Starks is third in the MAC in pass receptions...junior Jacque Rogers has started the last two games at the wide receiver spot opposite Starks and has responded catching four passes for 68 yards...senior fullback Darius Card played in the Temple game after missing two games with a knee strain and had seven yards rushing and six receptions for 21 yards...Card is now 12 receptions shy of 100 for his career...he would become only the second BG running back to reach the century mark in catches...junior Courtney Davis showed his versatility in the Temple contest rushing for 30 yards, catching a pass for nine yards, returning two punts for 18 yards, and two kickoffs for 40 yards...Davis is ninth in the MAC in all-purpose yardage, just behind teammate Keylan Cates...Davis is also 18th on the BG career rushing list with 1,188 yards...senior punter Andy Tracy has 71 and 65-yard efforts to his credit the last two weeks...he is fourth in the MAC averaging 41.4 yards per kick...look for sophomore defensive linemen Willie Watson and Dan King to continue to develop as the season progresses...both started the first games of their careers against Temple.

MEN'S BASKETBALL PREVIEW

The 1995-96 Bowling Green State University men's basketball team will lean heavily on its four returning lettermen, especially the three battle-tested veterans in the backcourt, as head coach Jim Larranaga's 10th team looks to make a run at the Mid-American Conference title.

At the same time, with that small a number of returning players, the newcomers will also have to play a significant role.

"I look at our situation this season from the standpoint we have three proven veterans who clearly move into the leadership roles," Larranaga said. "They will need to set a great example of how hard we are going to have to work, so our young players can develop quickly. They (the young players) will need to contribute for us to be successful.

"We will need our group of newcomers to adjust to college basketball, the physical play, and the intensity level very quickly. As a collective group, they need to fill the holes left by the graduation of two starters and a number of players who had significant roles off the bench."

With the experience returning in the backcourt, the focus moves from inside, where leading scorer and rebounder Shane Kline-Ruminski, who led the nation in field goal percentage last season, and Floyd Miller, who was second on the team in both categories, played, to the outside where both guards and the small forward are back.

"We are not as deep as we have been, but for a young team our experience in the backcourt should be a big plus for us," said Larranaga.

The three players, point guard Antonio Daniels, shooting guard Jay Larranaga, and small forward Shane Komives, were third through fifth on the team in scoring last season averaging between 10.3 and 9.4 points per game.

All three have played together as starters the last two seasons and are working to make their third, and final, season together their best.

"Daniels, the MAC Freshman of the Year for the 1993-94 season, is one of the top players at his position in the league, and like all three, will be expected to elevate his game another level this season.

Larranaga has been a steady offensive player throughout his career who usually draws the top scoring backcourt player as his defensive assignment each game. Komives is the top three-point threat on the squad and is the best three-point shooter in Bowling Green History. He, also, is a tough, hard-nosed defensive player.

Between the three, they have started 164 games in their careers.

The frontcourt is a whole different story. Players with little or no experience will be getting "on-the-job" training as the season progresses.

Sophomore Dayon Ninkovic is the lone returning player on the frontline and he averaged just 4.7 minutes in 13 contests last season.

"Dayon will be asked to fill the void left by the graduation of Shane Kline-Ruminski, Floyd Miller, and James Cerisier," Larranaga said. "And he is not going to be able to do that on his own.

"We are going to expect and need our three perimeter players to improve their rebounding skills because that is an area which Shane, Floyd, and James were responsible for last year.

We will need a group of players contributing to help fill that void."

Bowling Green has been one of the top shooting teams in the country the last two seasons finishing fifth in the nation in field goal percentage last season and sixth in 1993-94. Larranaga expects this year's team to again be among the best in the country despite the different composition of the team.

"I think we will still be a good shooting team, the difference is we do not have a proven inside scorer," said Larranaga, whose 134 wins ties him for ninth on the all-time MAC win list with former BGSU coach Harold Anderson. "So there will be a lot more pressure on our perimeter players.

"We will need for some of our young players to develop some offensive consistency, so opposing teams cannot concentrate defensively on our perimeter.

"The newcomers who are expected to make the biggest impact are freshman Anthony Stacy from Grafton Midview High School, freshman Kirk Cowan from Brooklyn (N.Y.), Madison High School, and Demar Moore from nearby Sandusky High School.

But, as has been the case each season during Larranaga's tenure, he thinks rebounding and defense will be the keys to success this season.

"We will emphasize defensive intensity throughout the season," Larranaga said. "The major adjustment for a player coming to the collegiate level is at the defensive end of the floor. Team defense and rebounding will be our primary emphasis.

"Our focus every year has been on team defense and rebounding, but this year we need to emphasize those areas even more having lost most of our experience. We lost our top three rebounders, our best inside defender in Floyd Miller, and our best team defender in Shane Kline-Ruminski."

The Falcon mentor also said the coaching staff will modify some things offensively and defensively, but basically try to do the same things they have been doing the last few seasons.

"Our plan right now is to run offensively in such a way to be successful," Larranaga said. "Rather than try to create fast breaks constantly, we will run at selected times.

"Defensively, we still want to put a lot of pressure on the ball. I think that was one of our primary weaknesses last year. We have added some additional quickness on the perimeter which should make us better in this area."
