FRESHMAN RULES

The below Freshman Rules are submitted to the State College students and faculty of Bowling Green in the spirit of wholesome fun, good will, and clean sportsmanship.

They are as follows:

1. Freshman men are not to appear on the campus without wearing their official Freshman caps. Freshman women are not to appear on the campus without wearing their official freshman tams. This rule can be abrogated only on Sundays and does not apply while in buildings on the campus.

2. All freshman (either sex) shall not wear any high school insignia.

3. Freshman shall always respond to any request for assistance by managers of varsity teams.

4. Freshman must occupy a cheering section designated for them at all intercollegiate athletic contests and do that which is asked of them by the cheer leaders.

5. Any Freshman upon request by an upperclassman must be able to sing the chorus of the college song.

6. Freshman must at all times show proper respect to professors and upperclassmen.

7. Freshman upon meeting an upperclassman whom they know should address him or her as Mr. or Miss "so and so" or in case they are not acquainted to address them as Sir or Madam.

It is pre-supposed that these rules will not only be duly enforced by the upperclassmen in a dignified manner, but all upperclassmen will so conduct themselves at all times as to merit the honor and respect of the entire student body.

These rules are submitted by the seniors and went into effect at twelve o'clock Tuesday night, September 19, 1834.

Power of Publicity

The power of publicity has grown from a corrector of abuses to be the greatest force in modern civilization.

Publicity today, directs our thoughts on government, our dress, our food, our recreation, furnishing of our houses, our travel, our social or entire existence is controlled by publicity.

The forces controlling publicity, controls the public.

We of the United States of America believe in free speech, a free press, and freedom of religious opinions, the question asked by many thoughtful people is: Are we free?

Some are of the opinion "We think we are free to act, in fact, do act upon our own judgment." Others, admitting the above claim "Our Judgment is controlled by what we read in papers, magazines, etc., so that, in reality, we are governed by the press."

FRESHMAN RECESSION

Monday evening, September 17, saw the unofficial opening of the college social season in the form of a reception for new students. The students were received by the entire faculty in gala attire. Music for dancing was furnished by the Revelers under the direction of Walter Slaughter. Bill Jansen as master of ceremonies directed several circle dances which added to the enjoyment of the new students. Punch was served throughout the evening by members of the officiating student committee.

Better Bee Gee News

This is the first issue of the Bee Gee News by the staff for this semester. We hope this will also be the first of a series of better papers which we have pledged ourselves to work for this year. However, it will take more than a group who have volun-teed to work on the staff to make a better paper. It will depend upon all of us working together. Those on the staff are just as busy as those who are not but if everybody tries to excuse themselves by saying "I haven't time", we will not make much progress.

You may be wondering what type of article would be best. We will not attempt to say either yes or no but the results of a three months observation point to a news sheet rather than a literary paper. The students and faculty as a whole, are looking for news items from our paper but this does not mean that short articles of the literary type will not be appreciated.

Dr. Williams has started the ball rolling. Many of the faculty and student body are pushing and we ask the rest of you to give us your support for a better paper and more pleasant college life. So please drop the articles in the little brown box just around the corner and under the post office window.

Adversity Builds Character!

Prosperity and parental indulgence tend to destroy humility, that is the foundation of character.

Few men can endure prosperity. Men grow hard under adversity, men become soft under prosperity.

Being prosperous fosters vanity which demands flattery, and flattery kills good judgment.

Great nations, great fortunes, and great men, have built upon the foundation of overcoming adversity by hard work, self denial with a steadfastness of purpose that overcomes or sidesteps obstacles.

You students who are struggling to the best of your ability to earn and save to pay for your college expenses are building those traits of character that are essential for success, namely

Industry
Thrift
Persistence Optimism
Self Confidence

A wise publisher instructed his staff as follows: "Write your articles in such a way that you can give the people what they should have in such a way they think it is what they want."

THE FLICKER'S NEST

I BUTT MY BRAINS OUT

I don't like college. I came here because all my friends were doing it, and because it seemed the thing to do. I don't want to be educated. I tramp from recitation to recitation to get my "nickel's worth". After a while I feel congested, and long for a mental release from it all. I don't like people. They fuss and stew and act foolishly. They wear white shirts and ties when they might as well be comfortable. They fellow the dictates of custom (so they say),
and appear to be completely regimented.
They have no initiative. They wear dark shoes to parties because it is supposed to be the thing to do. They dawp in monkey jackets that would put their ancestors to shame. They do as custom dictates. They would not say "piffle" for fear of being considered ill-bred or profane. They are a mess of "sissies." They make me sick.
I try to raise the standards of society, and work and fret and fume. Apparently society does not want to be improved.

Why should I try to be a better citizen myself, since the average will be raised so little thence? People don't like me. I know what should make them better, but they won't listen. Because of this I sulk and am con-considered an introvert. Goodness knows what e else I am called. I see things I don't lik-about the college. I kick about it. If people would meet them better, but they won't enough. Because of this I sulk and am con-considered an introvert. Goodness knows what
out. I don't want to be

Ten Reasons Why

There is usually one reason why a man buys, but with a woman it might be any one of ten (so they say)—

1. Because her husband says she can't have it.
2. Because it will make her look thin.
3. Because it's on sale.
4. Because it comes from Paris.
5. Because her neighbors can't afford it.
6. Because she can't afford it.
7. Because nobody has one.
8. Because everybody has one.
9. Because it's different.
10. Because.

Safety First

An old lady in church was seen to bow whenever the name of Satan was mentioned.

One day the minister met her and asked why she did so.

"Well," she replied, "politeness costs nothing, and—you never know!"

Teacher: "You say your mother is ill today?"

Johnnie: "Yessum, sumpin's the matter with her throat."

Teacher: "Well, that's too bad. She was well when I visited her yesterday."

Johnnie: "Hub! It's your fault then. Ma said you always give her a pain in the neck."

SOCIETY

The annual Bee Gee Mixer sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. was held Wednesday evening, September 19. The first part of the evening was given over to entertainment planned to informally acquaint new students. As each student arrived he was given a paper upon which he was to obtain the signatures of twenty-five strangers. A prize was given to the Wyatt twins whose names appeared most often on the lists. Max Dunipace acting as Master of Ceremonies conducted singing and games. Short talks of welcome were then given by Robert Ruth, president of the Y. M. C. A. and Fern Kaiser, president of the Y. W. C. A. Following the grand march opened the dancing which continued throughout the entire evening. Members of the Faculty chaperoned. The successful evening was concluded by the playing of “A Thousand Goodnights” by Walter Slaughter’s Revellers.

W. A. A. SPONSORS SUPER HIKE

September 20, 1934, marked the date for the annual supper-hike, which the Women’s Athletic Association sponsored for all new girls on the campus. The group met at the administration building at five o’clock and followed a trail to Brigham’s woods. After the picnic supper ice cream and cookies were served.

Around the bonfire songs, games, and ccechee were enjoyed. Miss Ione Blessing, president of the organization, acted as toastmistress introducing the following heads of sports who gave short talks on their particular activities.

Tennis—Mary Cramer
Archebery—Linda Dill
Soccer—Virginia Pollock
Hockey—Dorothy Nantell
Hiking and Volley Ball—Betty Boyer
Track and Field—Ann Rimplspach
Baseball—Wyatt twins
Kathleen Carter, chairman of the social committee gave a report of the various social events planned for the coming year. Other officers of the Women’s Athletic Association who gave short talks were: Millicent Gamber, Vice President; Elizabeth Frost, secretary; Mabel Grauer, treasurer.

Miss Marjorie McElhaney and Miss Emily Bartman, sponsors of the group, both gave short talks.

Judge: Well, here you are again, Rastus.
Rastus: “Yassuh, boss, I’m afore you again, but dis time Ah got a cause.”
Judge: “Well, what is it, Rastus?”
Rastus: “Judge, what would you do if some one steal your gal?”
Judge: “I’d cut her company, Rastus.”
Rastus: “Dat’s jes’ what Ah did—and Ah cut him plenty deep!”

Prof.: “Reading makes people forgetful.”
Student: “Quite so Prof., quite so, if the book is borrowed.”

YEATER!
The Commoners Fraternity has started the year with some twelve fellas in the House strong and brave. Thompson’s love songs at four in the morning are missed by all; Eric Koop has returned from Long Island with four trunks, etc. Wohlers presides in subletting the rooms, Greek and Gillette have been sleeping together, and several other members have been self-delegated as good will ambassadors to the sorority on West Wooster.

The frat is glad to see the Five Bros. across the way and hope the neighborhood will develop a real fraternal atmosphere—there are two sororities and two fraternities here now!

Delhi Moves

244 N. Prospect is the new home of the Delhi. Ten former and six new members fill the house to its capacity. The new house mother is Mrs. John Berry of Spencerville. Her son, Howard, is learning some of the tricks of college life from the frat members.

The Delhi Fraternity will sponsor a SMOKER, Wednesday night, Sept. 26.

New Home of the Five Bros.
The Five Brothers Fraternity is now located at 802 E. Wooster. It boasts of a membership of about twenty-five.

Y. M. C. A. MEETS

The local chapter of the Y. M. C. A. held their first meeting last Thursday evening. President Bob Ruth presided over the session which was attended by only older members and faculty sponsors.

Franklin Belding was elected Secretary, and Arthur Knape, Treasurer, to serve in lieu of officers who were selected last spring, but who are not now in school.

Business of the meeting consisted of laying plans for the river party to be sponsored by the organization on Thursday, Sept. 27, and in the drawing up a schedule for the operation of the book-exchange.

The next meeting will be on the banks of the Maumee, tomorrow night.

All the Same

Father: “Ned, why are you always at the bottom of your class?”
Ned: “It doesn’t really matter, Dad; we get the same instruction at both ends of the class.”

SHATZEL HALL NEWS

Shatzel Hall extends a hearty welcome to the seventy-five freshmen and to the transfer students living with us this year.

We can’t help but mention the new curtains in the parlors. They make a big improvement in the appearance of the rooms.

Among the guests visiting their daughters at Shatzel this week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock from Fostoria; Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt, Robert Havi-land and Mrs. Bader from Cleveland; Mrs. Hemminger from Marion and Mrs. Jardine from Toledo. A former resident of Shatzel, Miss Jessie Caskie, also visited here with Miss Virginia Banning.

We wonder—

When the freshmen are going to be initiated?

How can we tell the Wyatt twins apart?

How much the freshmen enjoy running errands for upperclass girls?

Sororities Make Changes

The annual exchange of sorority and fraternity houses has occurred. This season finds Phratra at home in the old Five Sister house on Prospect street, the Five Sisters in the old Skol house on E. Wooster street, Las Amigas on Prospect and the Skol in new residence on W. Wooster. The 3 Kay and Seven Sisters share honors in remaining in the same houses. Plans are being made for the first teas to be held in the near future.

13. Students who have graduated from B. G. H. S. may participate under the above rules with the following exception. Not more than two local students are permitted to join with other houses without the special consent of the intramural director.

Personal Responsibility
14. Each individual participating in Intramurals is responsible for his own eligibility. If he is in doubt as to his own standing, it is his responsibility to see that the Intramural Department obtains a definite ruling on his case. The intramural office cannot be responsible for checking up on the eligibility of all men playing on the various teams. However, any player whose eligibility is questioned will be checked up. Team managers should check up on the eligibility of their opponents and report any information of the rules to the intramural office.

Protests
All protests concerned with game procedure must be made in writing and placed in the hands of the intramural director within 24 hours after the contest in question. Eligibility protests must be called to the attention of the department before the team involved has played another game. The penalty will be decided on the merits of the case. Both managers or captains and the officials in charge will be permitted to present their version of the case before a decision is made. Protests should not be made unless there is good cause.

Forfeits
If a team or contestant fails to appear at the appointed place within 10 minutes after the scheduled time for a contest, the field supervisor may, at his own discretion, declare the contest forfeited to the team or contestant ready to play. Violation of any of the above rules and regulations will result in forfeiture of all games played and disbarment from the league. The intramural director will have complete authority over the various teams. However, any player whose eligibility is questioned will be checked up. Team managers should check up on the eligibility of their opponents and report any information of the rules to the intramural office.

Minimum Line-ups
- Minimum line-ups for the games shall be:
  a. Two man team must be complete.
  b. Five or six man teams—not more than one man short.
  c. Nine or more man teams—not more than two men short.

Suggestions Are Welcome
- The intramural program in Bowling Green State College is in its infancy and experimental stage. The situation here is quite unique and different from that of any other institution. Any administrative plan must conform and be adapted to its particular situation. We are not absolutely sure that the plan being used in the best feasible one for Bowling Green. Because of this the department will gladly welcome any constructive or destructive criticism concerning various phases of the intramural program. With the student's assistance and cooperation the department hopes to work out a highly efficient and well organized program.

Therefore if you have suggestions of any kind please drop them into the box in the Men's Gymnasium provided for that purpose or communicate same to us through the Bee Gee News or personally see the intramural director.
