Falcons Take On Eastern Michigan

BGSU and Eastern Michigan will battle for the 33rd time as the Falcons celebrate Homecoming for the 2006 season. BGSU has won the last seven meetings between the two teams since the 1990 season and have won five in a row at Perry Stadium during that time frame. By some odd scheduling quirk, this will be the sixth time in the last eight meetings that BGSU has hosted Eastern. BGSU is 52-22-10 on Homecoming after defeating Temple, 70-7, last season. BGSU has won its last five Homecoming games.

The Falcons are second in the MAC in rushing offense gaining 200.2 yards per game on the ground. BGSU also is second in third down conversions (44.0). BGSU is third in the league in first downs (114), pass defense (164.0), total defense (313.7) and opponent third down conversions (35.7). The Falcons rushing total is 15th nationally among Division IA programs and its pass defense is 25th.

The Falcons boast three of the top pass rushers in the MAC in senior defensive end Devon Parks, senior defensive tackle Brad Williams and sophomore defensive end Diyral Briggs. The trio has combined for nine sacks this season.

Redshirt freshman running back Chris Bullock became the third Falcon to rush for more than 100 yards in a game this season when he gained 114 yards on 21 carries against Ohio. In the last three games, he has rushed for 285 yards after gaining 99 against Kent State and 72 against Ohio State. BGSU, Clemson, Michigan State and Navy are the only schools to have three different 100-yard rushers this season. Redshirt freshman Freddie Barnes had 158 yards rushing against Wisconsin and sophomore quarterback Anthony Turner had 127 yards rushing against Buffalo.

The Falcons boast one of the youngest teams in the country having played 25 true or redshirt freshmen. Eighteen players have made their first career start this season.

BGSU's .697 winning percentage since 2001 (46-20) is the best among all MAC schools during the last five-plus seasons.

The Eagles are coming off a bye week after losing at UL-Lafayette, 33-14 on September 30. This will be their fifth road game of the season.

BGSU RADIO NETWORK

The Bowling Green State University athletic department and Clear Channel Lima have announced the affiliates that will carry games featuring the BGSU football team during the 2006 season. The affiliate lineup has changed to eliminate overlapping signals and to add a more powerful presence in Columbus. WTTPG-AM (1230) in Columbus has agreed to a two-year deal to carry BGSU football, replacing WVKO-AM as BGSU’s affiliate in the market.

Todd Walker will return for his fourth season as “The Voice of The Falcons”, former BGSU offensive lineman Cal Bowers is in his first year as analyst, while Jason Aldrich, also in his fourth year, will report from the sidelines. WPFX-FM (107.7) in Findlay and Bowling Green returns as the flagship station.

Fans also can join Todd Walker and Coach Brandon each Monday night at Fricke’s beginning at 6 p.m.

A VETERAN O-LINE

WHITE HOT

Senior middle linebacker Terrel White is third in the MAC and is 15th in the country averaging 10.2 stops per game. He had 13 tackles against Ohio, 10 against Kent State and had a career-high 22 earlier this season against Buffalo. White, a native of Wooster, Ohio led the Falcons with 100 tackles last season.

BRIGGS NAMED MAC EAST DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior defensive end Diyral Briggs was named MAC East Defensive Player of the Week on October 2 after he led a defensive line which accounted for eight TFLs and four sacks in the Falcons 21-9 defeat of Ohio. The Mt. Healthy High School graduate had seven tackles (five solo), 3.5 TFLs, two sacks and a forced fumble. His nine-yard TFL on a reverse play late in the third quarter keye a momentum shift to stop a potential go-ahead drive by the Bobcats. On the day, the Falcons limited Ohio to just 54 yards rushing.

MORE THAN 100,000

Saturday's crowd of 105,057 at Ohio State was the third time in BGSU history that it played in front of more than 100,000 fans. The Falcons played at Michigan in 2000 before a crowd of 110,585. BGSU and Ohio State played in front of 104,358 on the Falcons' last visit to the Horseshoe.

ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS

Each of the last two times the Falcons have played two Big Ten teams in a season, they have gone to a bowl game. In 1992, BGSU played at Wisconsin and at Ohio State before winning the MAC and playing in the first Las Vegas Bowl. In 2003, BGSU won at Purdue and played at Ohio State before winning the MAC East title and the 2003 Motor City Bowl. In that game, the Falcons defeated another Big Ten foe, Northwestern, 28-24, the MAC's only win over the Big Ten in a post season football game. This year, BGSU hosted Wisconsin in Cleveland Browns Stadium and played at Ohio State. The MAC has bowl berths to the Motor City Bowl in Detroit, the GMAC Bowl in Mobile, Alabama and the International Bowl in Toronto.

ROOKIE RUSHER

Redshirt freshmen Freddie Barnes (402 yards) and Chris Bullock (307 yards) have a chance to be the first freshman to lead the Falcons in rushing since the 1999 when Joe Alls gained 592 yards. In 1998, another freshman, Godfrey Lewis, led the Falcon ground game with 753 yards.

PARTRIDGE ON ESPN

Sophomore wide receiver Corey Partridge was featured on ESPN last Saturday after his one-hand TD catch of a 12-yard pass from sophomore Anthony Turner. His catch was rated the fifth best "Play of the Day" in college football.

Partridge, who did not have a reception in the first half, had three grabs for 39 yards on the drive. On the play before the TD, he had a diving catch for eight yards on a fourth-and-6 play.

For Partridge, the TD catch was his first of the season and the second of his career. He caught four passes in the game for 49 yards.

DAVIS OUT FOR THE SEASON

Redshirt sophomore nose guard Nick Davis will miss the rest of the season after suffering a torn ACL and lateral meniscus last week in practice. He is expected to undergo surgery before October 9 (fall break).

Davis had started the first three games for the Falcons and had 19 tackles, including two for a loss. He had 39 tackles last season.
Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is “beheaded” at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why the Falcons?

The 2006-2007 athletic year marks the 79th anniversary of Bowling Green’s nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake ’23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were “the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size.”

Why Orange and Brown?

Orange and Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women’s hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns’ head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you’ll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem’ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Fight Song

Forward Falcons,
Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit,
make them fear it
Fight for ‘ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons,
Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

Ay Ziggy Zoomba

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green’s unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bomber pilot in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings “Ay Ziggy Zoomba” after each victory.
Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 23,724 seating capacity, is celebrating its 40th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2004, a new scoreboard with video capabilities was installed.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982. One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance. On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift 12 years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors to all intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club’s 106 theatre-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President’s Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Sidney Ribeau, his guests, and other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more “fan-friendly” atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 66 percent of their home games, compiling a 133-61-6 record in the 200 games played at Perry Stadium.

Dr. Sidney A. Ribeau has served as President of Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio since 1995 and holds an academic appointment as Professor of Interpersonal Communication at the University. Under Dr. Ribeau's leadership, Bowling Green State University has been recognized for its residential learning communities, values-based education, and innovative graduate programs.

It offers programs in more than 270 academic and professional fields, and maintains an enrollment of approximately 21,000 students.

On the national level, he serves as a Trustee for Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association and on the President's Council for the National Collegiate Athletic Association. In the State of Ohio, he serves as Chair of the Inter University Council of Presidents. He is actively involved throughout the community working with the Bowling Green Area Community Partnership, Regional Growth Partnership, Toledo Urban League, Toledo Symphony, Andersons, Inc., Convergys Corporation, and Worthington Industries.

His honors, too numerous to list here, include distinguished alumnus awards from Wayne State University and University of Illinois, scholarly recognition from the National Communication Association and the President's Award from the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

President Ribeau and his wife, Paula Whetsel-Ribeau, are the proud parents of three children.

Bowling Green State University aspires to be the premier Learning Community in Ohio, and one of the best in the Nation. Through the interdependence of teaching, learning, scholarship, and service we will create an academic environment grounded in intellectual discovery and guided by rational discourse and civility.

Bowling Green State University serves the diverse and multicultural communities of Ohio, the United States and the world.

This Vision is supported by: an extensive portfolio of distinctive undergraduate programs, focused master's and specialist degrees and a select number of nationally recognized doctoral programs;

- scholarly and creative endeavors of the highest order;
- academically challenging teaching, fully connected with research and public service; innovative academic planning that focuses on society's changing needs, student outcomes and the appropriate integration of technology;
- an educational environment that develops culturally literate, self-assured, technologically sophisticated, productive citizens who are prepared to lead, to inspire and to preserve the great traditions of our democracy.

The Core Values to which the University adheres are:

- respect for one another;
- cooperation;
- intellectual and spiritual growth;
- creative imaginings;
- pride in a job well done.

Bowling Green State University is dedicated to providing quality academic programs in a learning environment that promotes academic and personal excellence in students, as well as appreciation of intellectual, ethical and aesthetic values. Wisdom, sound judgment, tolerance and respect for other persons, cultures and ideas are the hallmarks of an educated person and the characteristics that the University hopes to develop in its students.

Greg Christopher, who previously was Associate Athletic Director for External Relations and John Purdue Club Director at Purdue University, was named Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs/Director of Athletics at BGSU on June 13.

Christopher, who is the 12th full-time athletic director in school history, oversees an 18-sport program which has a budget of $14.3-million and 73 full-time employees. BGSU, which is a member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA), is one of 13 programs in the country which sponsor Division I-A football and compete in men's and women's basketball and men's ice hockey on the Division I level.

Christopher, a native of West Lafayette, has been at Purdue since 1997 and was a member of the department's senior staff which collaborated on all athletic, human resource and management issues. He was at his position since March of 2005 and was accountable for external and revenue-related areas for Purdue's $50-million department. In his role, he oversaw several areas, including development, marketing, promotions and advertising, athletic licensing and sports information.

Under his leadership, Purdue raised $17.2-million in total giving for Athletics last year. He also played a significant role in a seven-year campus-wide capital campaign which is in the final two years and is on track to raise $111 million for Athletics during that period. Projects that have come to fruition in this time frame include tripling the number of endowed athletic scholarships and several facility additions or renovations. Among the facility projects are an indoor golf training center, football stadium renovation, aquatic center, indoor tennis center, and basketball video board campaign. He also was the advisor for Purdue's chapter of Athletes-in-Action.

Additionally, Christopher served a period of time as the sport administrator for Purdue's men's and women's tennis programs. In addition to working with the teams during this period, he oversaw fundraising and business planning for the facility which will not only benefit the University, but will serve as a tennis club for the entire community.

He began his career on the Boilermaker staff as Assistant Director of the John Purdue Club from 1997-99 and was promoted to Director in 1999. He was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 2002 and was the program administrator for tennis prior to 2005.

Christopher served as Executive Director for the Society of Professional Journalists in Greencastle, Ind., from 1994 to 1997 after joining the organization in 1991 as its Marketing and Development Director. During that time, he managed a staff of 15 and a $1.6-million budget for the nation's largest not-for-profit journalism organization. His tenure focused largely on external relations, fueling growth that doubled the net worth of the foundation and association. He also improved relations with SPJ's 250 local chapters and national volunteer leaders and negotiated contracts and corporate partnerships.

Prior to joining SPJ, Christopher was an Account Executive at WWVW-FM in Charlottesville, Va., from 1988-90. In that capacity, he designed and managed station promotions, including partnerships with the athletics program at the University of Virginia. He also was part of the “Page Program” at NBC in New York in 1988 where he served as a research analyst, assisting the Manager of Sports Programming and Market Analysis in research of television sports. He also produced network sports tracking reports and surveys of major league sports.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Mass Communication from Miami (Ohio) University in 1988 and earned his MBA from the institution in 1991. He played football for one season before the former linebacker's career was cut short due to injury. In 1987-88 and 1990-91, he was involved as a television color commentator in football and play-by-play voice for men's ice hockey which aired on regional cable television and WFTD-TV in Dayton. He also served as a graduate assistant in the Office of Admissions at Miami in 1990-91.

Christopher, 40, is married to the former Tina Smith of Leetonia, Ohio. The couple has a son, Zachary, 10, and two daughters, Megan and Allison, ages 8 and 6.

GREGG BRANDON

Gregg Brandon became the 16th head coach in the history of the Falcon football program on Dec. 19, 2002, and guided the Falcons to back-to-back bowl wins for just the second time in school history in 2003 and 2004 after the Falcons defeated Northwestern, 28-24, at the Motor City Bowl and Memphis, 52-25 in the GMAC Bowl. In three seasons at BGSU, he has a 26-11 overall record and an 18-6 mark against conference opposition. In addition, BGSU has made 13 national TV appearances during his tenure.

In 2005, BGSU shared the MAC East title and went unbeaten on the road in league play (4-0), including a 42-14 nationally televised win over arch-rival Miami. The Falcons were the top program in the MAC in punt returns (12.97) and finished second in passing (388.8), scoring (35.8) and net punting (35.1) and third in total offense (447.8), pass efficiency (142.4) and turnover margin (.73). The Falcons were ranked 16th in the country in punt returns, 17th in passing, 18th in scoring, 20th in turnover margin, and 21st in pass efficiency.

In 2004, he guided the Falcons to a national ranking in each major poll for the second straight year as they finished 9-3. The Falcons also boasted the most potent offense in MAC history finishing second in the country at 506.3 yards per game and fourth nationally in scoring offense at 44.3 points per game. Both established new league records. In addition, the Falcons finished third in the country in passing (338.3) and turnover margin (+1.25) and fourth in pass efficiency (165.5).

In 2003, he guided BGSU to a #23 national ranking in the final AP and Coaches Poll (253rd) and a #24 position in the final BCS standings. Last year, he had the top record of any first-time, first-year head coach that season with an 11-3 mark after guiding the Falcons to a MAC West title (7-1) and a win over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. In addition, he saw BGSU ranked for a school record eight weeks and make five national television appearances. Also, BGSU finished third in the country in total offense (496.7), ninth in passing offense (300.4), 14th in passing efficiency (147.29), and 20th in scoring (33.6). Defensively, the Falcons were the third highest rated team in the MAC. Senior quarterback Josh Harris and senior cornerback Jansen Patton also earned All-American honors for their stellar individual performances.

Brandon was hired after more than 22 years of coaching experience at the Division I level, including two years at BGSU where he has served as assistant head coach and directed the Falcons’ record-setting offensive attack. In 2002, the Falcons finished third in the nation in scoring (60.3), eighth in total offense (448.9) and 15th in rushing (219.1). In addition, the Falcons topped 17 school records and seven MAC records and Josh Harris set a then-league mark with 41 TDs responsible for. Brandon saw wide receiver Robert Redd earn first-team All-MAC honors for two straight seasons. In addition, BGSU had the top red zone efficiency in the nation (96.8) converting on 61 of 63 opportunities inside the opponents’ 20-yard line.

In his first season at BGSU, the Falcon offense showed tremendous improvement, accumulating 124.46 more yards per game and 14.48 more points per game than the 2002 squad. Among MAC schools, the Falcons improved from 13th to fourth in total offense and from 11th to third in scoring offense under his leadership. BGSU set five school records on offense that year.

Brandon joined the Falcons after spending two seasons at Colorado under Gary Barnett, where he coached the receivers and kickoff return units both years and was the team’s passing-game coordinator in 2000 and recruiting coordinator in 1999.

Brandon, 56, played football for Barnett at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs, and stayed in close touch with him throughout the years. When Barnett was hired as head coach at Northwestern in 1992, Brandon joined the Wildcat staff as receivers coach. He was also Northwestern's recruiting coordinator for his last two seasons there (1997-98). In his seven seasons at Northwestern, Brandon assembled an extremely talented group of receivers, including D’Wayne Bates, the second all-time leading receiver in Big Ten history. Bates was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award and an All-America candidate.

Brandon played collegiately as both a defensive back and wide receiver at Mesa State (1974) and Northern Colorado (1975-77). He graduated from UNC in 1978 with a bachelor’s degree in education, and began his coaching career that fall as head football coach at Ellicott (Colo.) High School. He spent three seasons there (1978-80) before joining the college ranks at Weber State (under former Washington State coach Mike Price), where he would coach the next six seasons (1981-86). He coached the tight ends and special teams in his first four seasons, the linebackers in his fifth year and the receivers and tight ends during his final year in Ogden. He was then named receivers coach at Wyoming, where he would work the next four years (1987-90). During his tenure with head coach Paul Roach, the Cowboys posted a 35-15 record, including a 16-0 run in Western Athletic Conference play in 1987 and 1988, and played in three bowls ('87 and '88 Holiday and '90 Copper). In 1991, he returned to Utah where he coached the line backers for one season (1991) at Utah State. Brandon, born Feb. 29, 1956, in Tucson, Ariz., and his wife, Robyn, are the parents of two sons, Nicholas (21), a junior at Purdue, and Timothy (14).

GREG STUDRAWA
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

A former starter at left tackle for the Falcons, Greg Studrawa is in his second year as assistant head coach, fourth season as offensive coordinator at Bowling Green, and his sixth year as a member of the Falcon staff. In his first two years back at his alma mater he was responsible for coaching the guards and centers. He was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach, in 2004.

Last year, he oversaw an offense which finished second in the league in passing (283.9) and scoring (33.8) and was third in the league in pass efficiency (140.2). They ranked 17th, 18th and 21st nationally in those respective categories.

Individually, he saw four of his players including quarterback Omar Jacobs, offensive linemen Derrick Markray and Kory Lichtensteiger, and wide receiver Charles Sharon earn second-team All-MAC honors. Jacobs, Sharon and running back P.J. Pope also earned second-team All-MAC honots. Jacobs, Sharon and running back P.J. Pope also ended their careers among the top performers at theit position in BGSU history. Pope individually, he saw four of his players including quarterback Omar Jacobs, offensive

In 2004, BGSU finished second nationally in total offense with a MAC record 506.3 yards per game and were third in passing (338.3) and turnover margin (1.25), and 21st nationally in those respective categories.

In his first year at BGSU, Lovett molded a young and promising group into a unit which was among the MAC leaders in scoring defense (196.1), 26th in total defense (327.3) and 29th in scoring defense (20.8). In 2003, his defense was a major reason Clemson finished the year with nine wins and a top-25 ranking. The defense allowed just 19.2 points per game, one of the top-55 figures in the nation. The pass defense ranked second in the ACC, while the rush defense allowed just 78 yards per game over the last four games of the season, all Tiger victories. Top-six ranked teams Florida State and Tennessee gained just 49 combined rushing yards against Clemson in Tiger wins. In his first year at Clemson, the program made a strong improvement in terms of pass defense. The Tigers picked off 21 passes overall, the 15th-best total in the nation. Two of Lovett's players, Justin Miller (5th) and Brian Mance (15th), ranked in the top 15 in the nation and held the top two spots in the ACC in interceptions. Mance was named an All-American by The Sporting News, while Miller was a consensus first-team All-American.

Clemson's offense showed improvement of over 40 yards per game in total defense and forced 66.7 percent more turnovers than the previous season.

Lovett helped Auburn to bowl games each of his last two years. His 2000 defense ranked 14th in the nation in total defense and 15th in rushing defense, helping the Tigers to a 9-4 record and a berth in the Citrus Bowl against Michigan. Auburn won the Western Division of the Southeastern Conference that season. In 2001, his defense had a lot to do with Auburn's berth in the Peach Bowl. One of Auburn's victories was a 23-20 triumph over then #1 ranked Florida. Lovett's defense held the Gators to 20 points, 56 yards rushing, and 328 yards of total offense, season lows in all three categories for Steve Spurrier's team that finished the season ranked third in the nation. The Tigers also forced five turnovers in the game, including four interceptions of passes thrown by Heisman Trophy finalist Rex Grossman. Lovett's defense also held Georgia's high-powered attack to but 17 points in a 24-17 Auburn triumph. His unit held Georgia to 233 yards in 2002, the fewest yards gained by the Bulldogs that season. The 54-year-old coach, who was born in Nyack, NY, worked under Tommy Tuberville for four years, four at Mississippi (1995-98) and three at Auburn (1999-01). He coached the secondary all four years he was at Mississippi, including the 1997 season when the Rebels had an 8-4 overall record, including a victory in the Motor City Bowl. Prior to coming to Mississippi in 1995, Lovett worked as defensive coordinator at the University of Maine for two stints. He first went to Clemson in 1985 and served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1985-88. He also served as defensive coordinator for the Black Bears in 1994. The 1987 team won the conference championship and qualified for the Division I-AA playoffs.

Lovett began his career in coaching at Saint Joseph's Regional High School in Montvale, NJ in 1976. He started his college career in 1978 at Union College in New York. He served as a part-time coach from 1978-80, there was elevated to full-time status in 1980. He worked with the inside linebackers in the 1980 and 1981 seasons, then was elevated to defensive coordinator status in 1982. Lovett spent the 1983 season in the Ivy League at Brown, then moved back to New York to work under Joe Walton as the New York Jets' defensive quality control coach in 1984. The 1985 season brought him to Maine as defensive coordinator. In 1989, he joined Head Coach Tim Murphy in his move to the University of Cincinnati. He remained at Cincinnati with Murphy, now the head coach at Harvard, through the 1992 season. In 1993, he coached at Nebraska-Las Vegas as the secondary coach.

Lovett graduated from C.W. Post College in December of 1973. He came to the school as a walk-on, but quickly earned a scholarship and served as the team's co-captain as a senior in 1973. He played for Dom Amile, who is now the Director of Football Operations for the Indianapolis Colts. At the completion of his career, he enrolled in graduate school at the University of Denver and he earned his Master's Degree in 1975. The next year he entered the coaching profession.

Lovett, who was the defensive coordinator at Clemson from 2002-2004, came to BGSU after serving on the Louisiana Tech staff in the spring of 2005. The 27-year coaching veteran has been with teams that have made six bowl appearances.

Lovett was defensive coordinator at Cincinnati from 1989-92 when current BGSU assistant head coach Greg Studrawa also was a member of the Bearcat staff. He also coordinated defenses at Auburn (1999-2001), Maine (1985-88 and 1994) and Union College (1982). In 2004, Clemson was 11th in the nation in pass defense efficiency (103.4), 23rd in pass defense (191.6), 26th in total defense (327.3) and 29th in scoring defense (20.8). was fifth in the MAC in receptions and fourth in yards, while Sanders was eighth in the league in receiving yards. In 2004, he guided one of the best young receiving corps in the MAC, produced nine efforts of 100-yards or more in a game and saw record-setting performances from Magner and Sharon. In addition, Magner set a then-BGSU record with 215 career catches and Sharon set a new Falcon career mark with 28 career TD catches and became just the third player in BGSU history to amass more than 1,000 yards receiving with 1,070 yards. His 2003 group, perhaps one of the best receiving corps in the MAC, produced nine efforts of 100-yards or more in a game and saw record-setting performances from Magner and Sharon. In addition, the Falcons set school records for completions and receiving yards and Magner set individual marks for receptions and yardage. Under his tutelage, Magner’s 99 receptions were the second most in the NCAA and Magner and Sharon became the first BGSU receiving tandem to notch 10 TD catches in the same season. He joined the Falcon staff prior to the 2001 season after spending two seasons as wide receivers coach at Valparaiso University. A native of Utica, Mich., Azzanni was a wide receiver at Central Michigan University from 1994-1999. He was a walk-on who earned a scholarship and never missed a game or practice during his playing career. As a freshman, he was a member of the Chippewas’ 1994 Mid-American Conference championship team which played in the Las Vegas Bowl. Azzanni earned a bachelor’s degree in sports management from CMU in 1999 and is pursuing a master’s degree in educational administration. He and his wife, Julia, reside in Bowling Green.
TROY ROTHENBUBLER
TIGHT ENDS /
RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Troy Rothenbubler is in his fourth season at BGSU serving as recruiting coordinator and will coach the tight ends for the third time in four years. He worked with the defensive ends in 2004. Last year, he tutored Sean O'Drisinak who finished third on the team in TD receptions with four. In 2004, he saw Mitchell Crossley earn second-team All-MAC honors and saw Devon Parks emerge as one of the top young defensive linemen in the MAC. His group also helped the Falcons lead the league in turnovers forced with 25 and finish third in the nation in turnover margin. In 2003, he saw tight end Craig Jarrett become the first Falcon in more than a decade to earn Academic All-America honors. As recruiting coordinator, BGSU has forged a strong footprint in recruiting some of the top players in the state of Ohio and throughout the Midwest and southeastern United States. He came to Bowling Green in 2003 after spending 2002 as offensive coordinator at Heidelberg College. He had previously spent five years as an assistant coach at Arkansas State where he worked with BGSU offensive coordinator Greg Sudrawa. During his tenure with the Indians, he coached both tight ends and receivers. A 1995 graduate of Ohio State, Rothenbubler was a graduate assistant for the Buckeyes in 1995 and 1996 where he worked with the quarterbacks and tight ends. From 1992-94, he was a student assistant who assisted with the team's wide receivers. During his time with the Buckeyes, he worked with teams that appeared in one Rose Bowl, three Citrus Bowls and one Holiday Bowl. He is a 1989 graduate of Oregon Clay High School. Born April 10, 1971, in Oregon, Ohio, he and his wife, Amy, a Campbell native, are the parents of one daughter, Madison (7) and a son, Jake, who will be a year old in the summer of 2006.

DENNIS SPRINGER
DEFENSIVE BACKS

Dennis Springer is in his fourth season at BGSU and will coach the defensive backs in 2006 after being in charge of the running backs from 2003-2005. Under his direction, he coached two of the top 15 rushers in Falcon history in P.J. Pope (3rd, 2,985 yards) and B.J. Lane (15th, 1,664 yards). The duo combined to tie for the fifth highest yards per carry total at 5.2 in a combined 891 rushing attempts. In addition, they combined for 46 TDs and 7,000 all-purpose yards. Last year, Lane led the team with 677 yards rushing and 10 TDs on the ground and averaged 4.9 yards per carry. Pope, who was injured most of the campaign, rushed for 436 yards and was invited to play in the Hula Bowl. In 2004, the Falcons running game finished third in the MAC with 166.0 yards per game (4.7 yards per carry). The tandem of Pope and Lane combined for 1,473 yards and 17 touchdowns on 263 carries (5.6 per rush). The Falcons running backs accounted for six 100-yard performances, including a 205-yard performance by Pope vs. Western Michigan. Pope wound up finishing fourth in the country in scoring (10.5 points per game) and Lane was a standout on special teams averaging 22.8 yards per kickoff return including a 93-yard TD. In 2003, his unit averaged 5.9 yards per carry and saw Pope become the first Falcon in 10 years to rush for over 1,000 yards and earn first-team All-MAC honors. Springer joined the Falcons after spending 10 seasons with the Ball State program, including the last eight as a full-time assistant. He spent two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the Cardinals' defense before he began his full-time coaching career working with the Cardinals' wide receivers from 1995-98. In 1999 and 2000, Springer tutored the team's outside linebackers. He moved to the secondary in 2001 and coached that spot for two seasons. Ball State's defense ranked 34th in the nation in pass defense, allowing only 199.6 passing yards per game in 2002. As a BSU assistant coach, Springer helped the Cardinals to a share of the Mid-American Conference West Division championship in 2001 and assisted on a squad that won the MAC Championship and earned a berth to the Las Vegas Bowl. As a graduate assistant, he helped the Cardinals to the 1993 MAC Championship and a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl. Springer began his coaching career as a student assistant at Butler before becoming a graduate assistant at Ball State for the 1993 and 1994 seasons. As a collegiate student athlete Springer was a three-year starter for Butler and was co-captain as a senior. An all-league second team choice in his final season and a 1993 graduate of Butler, Springer was a member of three league championship teams. A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, he was born October 5, 1969. He and his wife, Nicole, were married in July, 2004, and just recently had a baby girl, Sophia.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Mike Ward is in his 15th year at BGSU and seventh as a member of the Falcon coaching staff after having spent eight years as the strength and conditioning coach. He will coach the entire defensive line in 2006 after working with the defensive tackles in 2005. Last year, he saw Mike Thaler become one of the top nose tackles in the MAC. In addition, Thaler earned CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. In 2004, his front line of defense was integral in the Falcon squad finishing third in the MAC in scoring defense and fifth in rushing defense. Ward's unit also accounted for 16 of BGSU's 23 sacks and 36 tackles-for-a-loss this season. In 2003, he oversaw the development of some of the best young talent on the defensive interior in the MAC. In addition, his group helped the Falcons finish second the the league against the rush and garner 32 sacks. The Falcons' young defensive line held its own in 2002, ranking third in the MAC against the rush and fourth overall in total defense. In addition, the Falcons led the league in turnover margin for the second straight year. In 2002, he coached Alex Glantis who earned All-MAC Second Team and in 2001 he saw nose tackle Brandon Hicks earn All-American honors and first-team All-MAC accolades as the Falcons finished seventh in the nation against the rush. In addition, three players-Hicks, Chris Glantzis and Ryan Wingrove ranked among the top 10 players in the MAC in sacks. In his first year with the group, he saw Hicks earn first-team All-MAC honors after he finished among the MAC leaders in sacks. Ward, known for his enthusiastic approach and motivational techniques, worked with all intercollegiate teams at BGSU as its strength and conditioning coach. Ward, a native of Mansfield, Ohio, was an assistant football coach at the University of Findlay for six years prior to coming to BGSU. He served as the defensive line coach and the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Oilers before leaving in 1992. Prior to that, he was an assistant football coach and strength coach at his alma mater, Georgetown College, for two years. Ward earned a degree in health and physical education from Georgetown College in 1984. He also earned a graduate degree in secondary education from Georgetown. The Lexington High School graduate received second-team NAIA Division I All-America football honors as an offensive guard in 1983. Ward is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He was twice named as the NSCA Professional of the Year by his colleagues in the Mid-American Conference. Ward and his wife, Jody, have two children, Michaela, 7, and Addison, 4.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Aaron Hillmann begins his sixth year with the Falcons. Hillmann directs strength and conditioning for the Falcons’ 18-sport athletic program. Hillmann is regarded as one of the best in his profession and was promoted to director of strength and conditioning at the University this past summer. Prior to coming to Bowling Green, Hillmann had been the assistant coordinator of strength and conditioning at Notre Dame from 1998 to 2001. Hillmann went to Notre Dame after serving as the football strength and conditioning coach at Connecticut from 1996-1998. He also has served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Cincinnati (1995-96) and Ball State (1992-96). Hillmann also has spent time as a strength and conditioning specialist for the Pittsburgh Steelers (summer, 1994), assisting in the supervision of their preseason strength and conditioning program. A native of St. Louis, Hillmann earned his bachelor’s of science degree in secondary education from Missouri in 1991. He and his wife, Dina, have two sons, Jacob and Jonah, and a daughter, Skylar.

KEN KOWALSKI

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Ken Kowalski Jr joined the Falcon staff for the 2005-2006 season as the assistant video coordinator. Previously Kowalski worked as the director of Game Day Operations with the Toledo IceDiggers Junior A hockey of the North American Hockey League. In February 2006 he was appointed as the Video Coordinator with the Falcons. His responsibilities include game tape exchange, breaking down practice and game film, producing weekly team highlights videos and managing a student staff. Kowalski is currently pursuing a degree at BGSU in sport management. A native of Northwest Ohio he was born April 9, 1975. Ken and his wife Kelly have two children Blake age seven and Mackenzie age six.

RUSS KUHNS

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Russ Kuhns, a native of Bellevue, Ohio, begins his second year as a member of the Falcon coaching staff. He earned three letters at Wisconsin from 2000-2002 where he played linebacker and fullback during his career. He played on the Badgers’ 2002 Alamo Bowl and 2000 Sun Bowl and 2000 Rose Bowl championship squads, and As a senior, he caught five passes for 53 yards and had two tackles, including a forced fumble on special teams for the Badgers. He appeared in 11 games in 2001 and was named Academic All-Big Ten. In 2000, he was a standout on special teams recording nine tackles. In 1999, he was named Scout Team Player of the Year during his redshirt season. He began his collegiate career at Findlay in 1998 before transferring to Wisconsin. A 1998 graduate of Bellevue High School, he was a three-time All-State honoree in football and wrestling for the Redmen, where he was team MVP in wrestling, football and track his senior year. He earned a psychology degree from Wisconsin in 2003 and is pursuing a masters degree in exercise physiology at BGSU. He was born November 10, 1979.

JAMES BETTCHER

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

James Bettcher, who had spent the last three years as an assistant football coach at the University of Saint Francis in Fort Wayne, Indiana, will be the squad’s defensive graduate assistant. A native of Lakeville, Indiana, Bettcher coached the defensive line for two years and the offensive line and special teams last season. He helped the Cougars to the NAIA semifinals in 2003 and NAIA championship game in 2004 and 2005. He also served as the school’s head coach for track and field. He was a two-time All-American in football at Saint Francis and three-time All-American in the shot put for the track team. He also was a three-time NAIA All-American scholar for the Cougars. He earned his bachelor’s degree in business management and accounting from USF in 2003. He is pursuing his masters degree in sports administration.

DOUG BOERSMA

DIRECTOR OF SPORT MEDICINE

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Doug Boersma begins his fourth season as the head athletic trainer for the Falcons’ 18-sport intercollegiate athletic program. Boersma came to BGSU in the summer of 2003 after serving as an assistant athletic trainer at Notre Dame since 1999. Boersma oversees a staff of 20 which includes full-time certified athletic trainers, graduate assistants and student athletic trainers.

At Notre Dame, Boersma worked closely with the Irish football program and oversaw the day-to-day training needs of the men’s ice hockey program as well as men’s soccer and lacrosse during his four years. He also gained experience as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Kentucky and as a student athletic trainer at Purdue. At UK, Boersma worked directly with the football and women’s gymnastics programs. At Purdue, the Highland, Ind., native worked with the men’s basketball, football, baseball and women’s tennis teams.

Boersma earned his degree in athletic training from Purdue in 1997 and also earned his master’s degree in health promotion from Kentucky in 1999. The 31-year old native of Highland, Ind., and his wife, Cari, have two daughters, Shelly, have two children, Tyler (21) and Evan (16).

JOE SHARP

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Joe Sharp continues a 48-year family relationship with the BGSU athletic department and has served as the Equipment Manager for the Falcon football team since 1981. In addition to working with football, Sharp is responsible for outfitting the men’s basketball, women’s basketball, track, and volleyball programs. He took over the job his father, Glenn, had held since 1956. The elder Sharp, one of the most beloved figures associated with BGSU athletics, passed away in October, 2000. Joe, a lifelong Bowling Green resident, is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. After attending the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, he earned his bachelor’s degree from BGSU in Earth Science in 1980. He and his wife, Shelly, have two children, Tyler (21) and Evan (16).
Jean Panning

OFFICE ADMINISTRATION

Jean Panning has been an employee of Bowling Green State University for the past 30 1/2 years and has been assisting the Falcon football program since 1982. Jean and her husband, Jim, live in Custar and have three children, Jamey, Jennifer, and John.

Shawn Roche

STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH/VIDEO INTERN

Shawn Roche is entering his fourth year as a student assistant coach and second as a video intern. Roche is a graduate of Pembroke high school, where he was a four-year letter-winner in football. He is the son of John and Cathy Roche.

Scott Seeliger

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Scott Seeliger enters his eighth year in his current position and is the administrative sport supervisor for football. As Associate Athletic Director for Development, he oversees annual giving, endowments, and special projects for athletics. During his five-year tenure in this position, private funding for athletics has reached all-time highs. Prior to this position, Scott was Director of Corporate Development for the University. He has been a long time part of Falcon Athletics, having served as an assistant football coach for two stints. Scott was associate head coach under Denny Stoltz when the Falcons won the 1983 MAC Championship and also associate head coach for Gary Blackney from 1991-1995 when the Falcon football team won 17 straight conference games, two MAC championships, the California Raisin Bowl and the Las Vegas Bowl. Scott played collegiate football at Iowa State University under Johnny Majors and also coached at the University of Wisconsin under former Bowling Green alum, Dave McClain and Barry Alvarez. Scott and his wife, Karen have two married children, Kori Atwood and Keri Buell. Keri is the Head Swimming and Diving Coach at BGSU.

Fact: No one ever gets better sitting in a waiting room.

That’s why we have committed ourselves to getting patients in and out of the ER quicker. But we don’t stop at faster service. Our new ER service initiative promises better care, by focusing on the unique needs of each patient.

Here’s what our ER patients can expect:

• To be greeted promptly.
• To have their individual or special needs accommodated.
• To be taken immediately to a private triage room.
• To be provided with clear information and explanations about their care.
• To receive easy-to-understand discharge instructions.

MAC BOWL GAME ACTION GOES INTERNATIONAL!

Toronto, Canada's international city welcomes NCAA football across the border as the MAC faces a Big East opponent in the inaugural International Bowl. Be there as the two teams square off in the only college bowl game played outside the U.S. The MAC will showcase its talented football teams once again as two nations watch the broadcast live on ESPN and TSN Canada. Kick off is at the world-class Rogers Centre, home to the Toronto Blue Jays and Toronto Argonauts and next to the CN tower, the largest freestanding structure in the world.

Top off your international adventure by experiencing Toronto's exciting entertainment district, night clubs and pubs, rich cultural museums and excellent restaurants. Make sure you're in the one of North America's largest and safest cities to cheer on the Mid-American Conference on Saturday, January 6. Order your tickets today!

SHIFT INTO OVERDRIVE FOR BOWL GAME ACTION!

In the Midwest's only NCAA bowl game, the MAC Conference looks for revenge in the 10th annual Motor City Bowl. The Memphis Tigers hung on to withstand a furious fourth quarter rally by the Akron Zips in the 2005 Motor City Bowl and the conference is looking to shift into overdrive to win the trophy back. The Mid-American Conference is one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country winning eleven of its last sixteen bowl game outings since 1998.

During the off-season, six former Mid-American Conference football players were selected in the NFL Draft showing the nation that the conference has some of the best players as well as some of the best football game action.

Come cheer on the MAC at this year’s Motor City Bowl as the MAC representative takes on a Big Ten challenger at Ford Field in the heart of Detroit’s entertainment district. Broadcast live on ESPN, the nation will be watching as the two conferences clash helmet-to-helmet on Detroit Lions turf. Make sure you are part of the action by ordering your tickets today!

REV UP for the ACTION!

The Falcon Club at Bowling Green State University brings together the real supporters and true fans of the Falcons.

You Are Our Most Valuable Recruits!
When you join the Falcon Club, you are allowing BGSU to recruit some of the most talented student-athletes in the country. You are generating opportunities for Championships, Bowl Games and NCAA appearances.
You are creating FALCON PRIDE!

- 100% of your Falcon Club contributions go toward scholarship support.
- All contributions are tax-deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law.
- A cash designation of $1,000 or more to any one sport entitles you to exclusive Coaches’ Corner involvement in that sport.
- Your membership contribution can be paid annually or monthly with Visa, MasterCard, Discover, or American Express.

To join or for more information log on to www.bgsufalcons.com and click on Falcon Club or call 419-372-7100.

Each year over $4 million is required to fund the educational needs of BGSU’s student-athletes. Endowed scholarships provide a base of support that lasts forever and grows annually.

Currently we have over $2.2 million in our endowment pools. This provides yearly, spendable earnings of more than $110,000 for our student-athletes education.

Gifts may be donated to current endowments or be set up for specific sports with structured criteria. The endowed scholarship is often established in honor or memory of individuals. Consider supporting Falcon Athletics with a gift that will last a lifetime and reach countless deserving student-athletes.

For more information on the Falcon Endowed Scholarship Program contact Scott Seeliger, Associate Athletic Director for Development at 419/372-7064 or E-mail to scottws@bgnet.bgsu.edu
From Super Bowl quarterback Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburg (University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country.

Under the guidance of Commissioner Rick Chryst, the seventh commissioner in the history of the league, the MAC has responded to the ever-changing landscape of collegiate athletics. Dr. Cartwright, former President of Kent State University, chaired the Executive Committee of the NCAA Board of Directors from 2002-2005 during a legislative process that keyed legislation relative to I-A status. In May of 2005, the MAC added Temple as a football only member (effective 2007) with a plan that includes a men's and women's basketball scheduling partnership with the Philadelphia-based institution.

The conference now has national leadership positions on the following NCAA committees: Board of Directors (Dr. Sidney Ribeau, BGSU); Management Council (Dell Robinson, MAC Associate Commissioner); Championships/Competition Cabinet (Brad Bates, Miami); Committee on Academic Performance (Brad Bates, Miami); Academic Eligibility Compliance Cabinet (Warde Manuel, Buffalo); and NCAA Athletic Certification Committee (Shonna Brown, MAC Assistant Commissioner). Playing Rules Oversight Panel (Rick Chryst, MAC Commissioner). Further, the MAC also has representation on the Division I Sport Committees and related governing groups: men's basketball (La- ing Kennedy, Kent State), baseball (Dave Hekele, Central Michigan), volleyball (Kelli Andrews, Toledo), softball (Janna Blais, BGSU), football issues committee (Mike O'Brien, Toledo), men's basketball issues committee (Charlie Coles, Miami), men's basketball rules committee (Reggie Witherspoon, Buffalo), track and field (Rich Ceciron, Miami), women's basketball issues committee (Jim Phillips, Northern Illinois), women's golf (Robert Collins, Northern Illinois), women's gymnastics (Jerry Reighard, Central Michigan) BCS AD Advisory Committee (Mike O'Brien, Toledo) and BCS Presidential Oversight Committee (Dr. John Peters, NIU).

MAC Milestones

Both in the classroom and on the field of competition, the MAC continues to excel at the national level. In an NCAA report released in October 2004, the MAC led the 11-I-A conferences in long-term graduation rates for football student-athletes at public institutions.

In March of 2006, Chryst and Cleveland Cavaliers President Len Komoroski announced that the Mid-American Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments will remain in Cleveland at Quicken Loans Arena through 2011. The MAC also announced a format change for both tournaments, bringing all 12 men's and women's teams to Cleveland beginning in 2007. This year, the MAC will co-host the 2007 Women's Final Four at Quicken Loans Arena, after successfully hosting the 2006 NCAA Women's Basketball Regional at Quicken Loans Arena.

Chryst also announced a new, five-year relationship with International Sports Properties (ISP), Inc. to oversee and coordinate the league's marketing and sponsorship rights. ISP which currently manages 29 college properties nationwide, is considered the leader in the collegiate sports marketing industry. The MAC will be ISP's first conference property.

ISP will be responsible for managing, and ultimately growing, the MAC's stable of corporate partners, which currently stands at nine - FirstEnergy, Huntington Bank, Kraft, Marathon, GMAC Financial Services, MBNA, Aeropostale, Gatorade and Sirius Satellite Radio. FirstEnergy, title sponsor for the men's tournament since its first year in Cleveland in March 2000, will return as title sponsor of the 2007 event.

Another milestone that was reached in 2006 is the addition of a third bowl partner for the Mid-American Conference. The NCAA announced approval for the International Bowl, a new college football game, to be played at Rogers Centre in Toronto. The game will be played on January 6, 2007 and will match a team from the Big East Conference against an opponent from the MAC.

The addition of the International Bowl will give the MAC three bowl opportunities as the league is already affiliated with the Motor City Bowl held at Ford Field and the GMAC Bowl staged at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Ala.

The 2006 men's basketball tournament at Quicken Loans Arena drew a total of 33,417 spectators, including 10,253 at the Championship Game this season. The total attendance was the second-highest four-session total in MAC Tournament history.

For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis.

For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, baseball, basketball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis.

Dr. Richard Barker, a Bowling Green native, is one of the physicians available to aid the Falcon athletic programs. Dr. Barker completed his undergraduate degree at BGSU in 1969. He completed his medical degree, as well as postgraduate orthopaedic residency training, at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Since 1978, Dr. Barker has enjoyed a general orthopaedic practice in Bowling Green, including trauma, total joint replacements, arthroscopy and sports medicine. He has been team physician and orthopaedic consultant since returning to Bowling Green in 1978. Dr. Barker is a member of the Ohio Orthopaedic Society, the American College of Sports Medicine and the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgery. He is certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery. Dr. Barker and his wife Holly, a teacher, have three children. He has held numerous offices at Wood County Hospital, including chief-of-staff and President of the Wood County Medical Society.

Dr. Randy Trimpey is a recent addition to BGSU Sports Medicine Team. Prior to working with BGSU sports, Dr. Trimpey trained in sports medicine at Sports Care in Toledo where he worked with the University of Toledo athletics, Storm Hockey, and Bedford High School sports. He received his medical education at Medical College of Ohio 1997-2001 and Flower Hospital Family Practice Residency Program in Sylvania, 2001-2003. Dr. Trimpey was a former varsity wrestler at Ohio Northern University where he performed his undergraduate studies. Currently he practices family medicine and sports medicine at Bowling Green Clinic. He resides in Bowling Green with his wife Chris, and his three daughters Meagan, Hailey, and Samantha.

A fixture around the Falcon athletic program for many years is team physician Dr. Tom Wojciechowski, "Doc Wojo," as he is known around the program, received a B.S. in Pharmacy from the University of Toledo in 1967, and his M.D. from Wayne State University. He did his residency from 1975-78 at Toledo Hospital before entering into private practice in Bowling Green. Dr. Wojciechowski received his American Board of Family Practice Board Certification in 1979. He has been a member of the Wood County Medical Society, Ohio State Medical Association, American Academy of Family Physicians and the American Medical Association. He is presently a Physician Consultant for Portage Home for Mentally Retarded. His past activities include Physician Consultant to the Wood County Cancer Society, Secretary of Medical Staff and Physician Consultant on Alcoholism. He also was a Charter Member of the Wood County American Diabetic Association as well as serving as a member of the OSMA Residency Affairs Committee. He and his wife are the parents of four children (Tom Jr. and Ed, who are also M.D.’s, Stacey and Lisa) and reside in Bowling Green.

Dr. Jeffrey Noftz is currently an assistant professor in both the Physician Assistant Program and the Physical Therapy Program at BGSU. He was assistant professor in Orthopedics and Family Practice prior to accepting a position at The Bowling Green Clinic specializing in non-operative musculoskeletal pathology and family practice. Prior to coming to Bowling Green, he was the director of Primary Care Sports Medicine within the department of orthopedics. He served as the team physician for Toledo Public Schools Athletics, Owens Community College Athletics, Toledo Ballet, Toledo Ice Diggers and Toledo Cherokee hockey clubs. Dr. Noftz completed his residency at the Medical College of Ohio Department of Family Practice and served as chief resident and team physician for Toledo Central Catholic High School during his residency. Dr. Noftz graduated from medical school and physical therapy school from the Medical College of Ohio. He received top graduate honors from BGSU upon completion of physical therapy school. Dr. Noftz and his wife Renee of eleven years have a four year old daughter named Jordan.

Bowling Green State University men's basketball senior guard Martin Samarco has been named 2006-07 Preseason All-MAC by the MAC News Media Association.

“We are excited that Martin has been recognized as one of the top players in the Mid-American Conference,” said Dan Dakich. “We have been fortunate to have a number of players who have had outstanding senior seasons and I believe Martin through his work since the time he has arrived at BGSU has put himself in a position to follow that same path.”

Samarco, a second-team All-MAC pick last season, is the top returning scorer in the league after averaging 18.9 points. He led the league in three-point field goal percentage (45.7%) and set a BGSU record by making a league-high 100 three-pointers. He also finished second in the MAC in free throw shooting making 85.8% of his charity tosses.

He ranked 30th in the country last season in free throw percentage and 10th nationally in three-point field goal percentage and three-pointers made per game.

Last year, he had 12 efforts where he scored 20 points or more, including a 35-point night against Eastern Michigan.

The Falcons begin practice next week and will play their first exhibition game on November 8 against Capital in Anderson Arena. BGSU will open the regular season on November 11 at 2 p.m. against Denison.

Samarco and Coach Dakich will join the rest of the preseason All-MAC honorees and all of the league's coaches at MAC Media Day on October 24 in Cleveland.

FALCON FOOTBALL 2006
A trio of Bowling Green State University standouts have been named to the Mid-American Conference's preseason all-league women's basketball team, the league office announced Wednesday afternoon (Oct. 4). Seniors Liz Honegger and Ali Mann and junior Kate Achter have been named to the team, which is a result of voting by members of the MAC News Media Association.

For the fifth consecutive season, the preseason all-league team consists of five student-athletes from each of the MAC's two divisions.

Mann was named to the Preseason All-MAC Team for the third consecutive season, while Honegger earned the honor for the second-straight year and Achter is a first-time honoree.

The preseason All-MAC East Division team consists of Buffalo's Heather Turner and Ohio's Rachel Frederick, in addition to Achter, Honegger and Mann.

The West Division team is comprised of Ball State's Julie DeMuth, Eastern Michigan's Patrice McKinney, Stephanie Raymond of Northern Illinois, Toledo's Danielle Bishop and Western Michigan's Carrie Moore.

Last winter, Achter, Honegger and Mann helped the Falcons to a 28-3 overall record and a MAC mark of 16-0, as BG won the league regular-season and tournament titles for the second year in a row. The Brown and Orange set school and MAC records for overall victories in a season, and became just the fifth team in conference history to finish the MAC regular-season schedule without a loss.

Mann earned All-MAC First-Team honors, while both Achter and Honegger were named to the all-league second team at the conclusion of last season. Mann topped the team in scoring and rebounding, with 14.6 points and 7.6 boards per game, while Honegger was right behind (13.3 ppg, 7.5 rpg). Achter had 10.9 points per game, finished third on the Falcons in rebounding (4.5 rpg) and led the Brown and Orange with 4.8 assists per game.

When MAC Tournament time rolled around, all three played key roles in the Falcons winning the title for the second consecutive March. Mann averaged a double-double, with 13.3 points and 10.3 rebounds per game in the Falcons' three league tourney wins, and was named the MAC Tournament MVP. Achter and Honegger joined Mann on the all-tourney team. Achter had averages of 10.0 points, 5.3 boards and 6.0 assists in the three games, while Honegger had a team-high 16.0 points per game and added 5.0 boards per contest.

Another member of the Falcons' senior class, Carin Home, returns after being named to the All-MAC Third Team a year ago. Megan Thorburn joins Achter, Honegger, Home and Mann to give the Falcons five returning starters from last year's team.

Honegger and Mann, along with fellow seniors Home, Thorburn, Amber Flynn and Julie Gompers, have helped the Falcons to an overall record of 72-21 and a MAC mark of 40-8 during their first three years on campus. Since Achter and classmate Whitney Taylor joined them in BG a year later, the team has gone 51-11 overall and 29-3 in conference action. Sophomores Lindsey Goldsberry and Jasmine McCall round out the list of returnees for the Falcons, and freshmen Tara Breske, Laura Bugher and Sarah Clapper join the Brown and Orange for the 2006-07 campaign.
Each year the BGSU Alumni Association recognizes deserving Bowling Green graduates and friends for their loyalty and dedication to the University and Alumni Association. Thank you all for your continued service and support to Bowling Green State University.

“Bowling Green State University changes lives, and its graduates change the lives of others.”

Dr. Sidney A. Ribeau, President
This is the first time in 40 years that BGSU has constructed a new building to serve its intercollegiate athletics program. The unique structure will become the "new front door" of Doyt Perry Stadium when completed.

The center will provide modern sports medicine-rehabilitation and strength-training facilities; a pavilion overlooking the playing field; offices for the football coaches; teaching space for coaches and players; video editing room; team meeting rooms, and coaches' conference room.

Bob Sebo of Salem, Ohio, a 1958 graduate of Bowling Green, and his wife, Karen, have pledged $3.5 million toward construction of the facility. The center is named in their honor.

Projected completion date: February 2007
