Ohio Students Win Commercial Honors

The efforts of the Commerce Department of the College in conducting the state commercial contests for the past eleven years are being rewarded.

The results of the International Commercial Contests held at Chicago on June 28 and 29 in connection with the Century of Progress placed Ohio far in the front. Ohio schools won 16 places out of a possible 28 open to secondary schools in shorthand and typing. A first place in typing was won by a student from Abilene, Texas, and a third place in shorthand was taken by a student from a Chicago high school.

Marie Thiem, from West Technical High School, Cleveland, was declared the International School Champion Typist, with an official rate of 90 words per minute. Miss Thiem had won first place in the open event in the Ohio contests held here at the College last May, with a rate of 90 words per minute.

Every winner from Ohio at the International Contest had competed in the State contest here last May. In several instances the winners at the International Contest finished in the same order as they did at the state contest.

It should be of interest to members of the faculty and student body to know that last May there appeared on our Campus at the State contest, the fastest typists and the most accurate shorthand writers in either the United States or Canada as determined by the International contests in June.

Miss Baird in Mexico

Prof. Baird reports a very interesting and fascinating vacation in Mexico City this summer where she studied at the National University. She was entertained by trips to historical spots and beautiful public buildings. Native dancing and singing followed by a tea dance provided entertainment every Thursday.

Miss Baird found the Mexicans very interested in any one from the United States and especially students from our country whom they welcomed with open arms.

Class Discusses World Peace

The topic discussed by the Wesley Epworth League last Sunday was "World Peace". Discussion was led by Bill Jansen. The special question raised was "Shall We Reduce Armaments and How?". No final conclusions were drawn and discussion will probably be resumed next Sunday. Be sure to come. Here is a chance to air your views. League meets at 6:30 p. m. in the basement of the Methodist church.

Do Freshmen Approve of Freshman Week?

For two years Bowling Green State College has attempted to orient the Freshmen of the college through the medium of Freshman week activities. From its standpoint the administration, it has served its purpose well and seems to have helped the entering students to get started more satisfactorily than when all students register on the same day. A desire to learn whether or not the Freshmen themselves feel the same way about the arrangement led the writer recently to devise a questionnaire and submit it to the Freshmen one week after school was in session. Of the 293 Freshmen who compiled with the request, the following results have been obtained:

1. As a freshman did you welcome the opportunity of entering school before the regular student body was on the campus? Yes 261, No 6, Was not concerned 26.

2. After experiencing freshman week did you still feel it a good arrangement? Yes 287, No 18.

3. Do you feel now that in general there was sufficient activity in three days of freshman week to create satisfactory acquaintance with the College and its procedures? Yes 239, No 49.

4. If you were to arrange freshman affairs would you include more activities as (a) assembly meetings? Yes 90, No 182; (b) receptions and dances? Yes 121, No 153; (c)...

Miss Winkler at Linfield College

Miss Lydia Winkler, of Blackfoot, Idaho, formerly sixth grade critic of our Campus Training School, is now on the faculty of Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon. Linfield College is a Baptist denominational college of about the same enrollment as that of State College, Bowling Green.

Miss Winkler is an instructor in the History department. Both her training and experience have admirably fitted her for this work. She majored in history in both her undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Idaho. She also had more than a year's further work in history at Columbia University. Most of her teaching experience has been in the history field either as instructor or teacher training critic. Last spring she was awarded the only prize offered by The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom for the best materials and suggestions submitted on the subject "How Schools May Promote World Peace."

Her sister, Edith Winkler, who attended Bowling Green State College the past two years, is with her at Linfield College.

Dr. Williams Attends Ohio Colleges Meeting

President Williams was in attendance at a conference of presidents, registrars and field representatives of the Ohio College Association in Columbus, Oct. 5 and 6th. The meeting was very well attended.

There were three sessions, Friday afternoon, Friday evening and Saturday morning. The sessions on Friday were devoted largely to the practices relating to the recruiting and admission of students. Such topics as the use of scholarships, loans, deferred tuition, self-help opportunities and FERA aid were discussed in the afternoon.

In the evening there was a panel discussion on the need of changes in the concepts underlying student recruiting, admission, and guidance. On Sat. morning the time was given over to informal discussions of the practices involving the receiving of transfer students not adequately accredited.

The Ohio Emergency School administration sent to all Ohio colleges belonging to the North Central Association on Sept. 22 a letter announcing the establishment of emergency schools on the Junior College level in certain centers of the state. The plan is endorsed by B. O. Skinner, State Director of Education.

Mr. John B. McClelland, supervisor of the Emergency Schools Administration and John W. Fichter, assistant director of education, appeared before the group at Columbus last week. Their subject was the accrediting of work done in the Emergency Junior colleges. On Saturday a resolution was passed recommending that the member colleges of the Ohio College Association require such students to matriculate and complete a semester's work before examinations would be given on courses taken in emergency schools. This resolution was submitted to the Emergency School Administration and will doubtless lead to further announcement regarding the handling of credits.

Urban Klingharn was a member of Quill Type while he attended B. G. S. C. in 1925 and 26. He has been following the accounting profession for several years and only recently passed the state bar examination. He is combining legal practice and income tax counselling. He has offices in the Spitzer building, Toledo.

Winifred Dunipace, a member of Quill Type for several years, has entered Ohio State University.
CHEERS

We offer cheers to the Five Brothers for their peppy rally last Friday night. And though that was a pretty lively corpse that battled our team Saturday afternoon, it did not humble the Orange and Brown.

Undoubtedly the Band, the Cheer-leaders, and the cheers helped Bee Gee to "hold that line" when danger threatened, and Kent had rolled up to the goal line. Let's have more of these rallies, improve our cheering, and create a true college spirit!

CRYPTOGRAMS

Hereewith we offer the second in our series of cipher messages:

(12 23 45 65 45 56 76 78 23) (81 56 98) (67 23 23 87) (76 89 23) (12 23 98 65 21 87 98 23) (54 12 23 56 76 23 43) (67 32) (21 24 12) (87 23 36 98) (87 23 36 23 98 76) (48 23 56 76 24 12 23), (76 89 21 34 42 89) (87 21 76) (23 63), (76 12 23 34 23 78 32) (43 84 48 84 54 24 78 76), (36 23) (78 84 76 76 28 23) (23 63) (65 23 75 76 23 43) (76 21) (48 84 78 43) (98 23 91 23 12 76 98) (54 21 12 23 76 98) (98 21 78 24 76 84 21 78 76 89) (84 87) (21 24 12) (76 21 63) (48 12 48 49 56 56), (34 21 12 78 84 78 42), (67 24 76) (36 23) (43 84 43).

The following solved last week's cryptogram successfully:

Mary L. Tate, Virginia Sohn, Dewayne Burke, and Rachel Conn.

All organizations please have notices of regular or unusual meetings and entertainments in the Bee Gee book before nine o'clock on Monday morning to be published in this paper. Only emergency announcements which come up after that time will be read in chapel.

Ridge Street School Notes

The Ridge Street School had its first assembly on Oct. 12, in commemoration of Columbus. The different grades contributed poems, pictures, readings and dramatizations. The sixth grade took charge of the program.

We Beg to Remark

Our remarks somehow failed to get into last week's copy. Some little slip on the part of the editor no doubt. Playful fellow, what? (heh-heh).

Enterprising freshman James Vann must have thought that his little "Cabin in the Cotton" was a bit too chilly, for he got cold feet and came into town last week.

IF

(With apologies to Kipling and everyone who reads it)

If you never planned a dozen schedules in a week,

And threw 'em over every one another plan to seek;

If you never borrowed 'til your friends had much decreased;

If you never danced upon a floor that seemed like grease;

If you never tried to get some work to no avail;

If your intellect no proof has ever tried to fail;

If you never had a room-mate whose neck you'd like to wring;

If you never had to dress in air with winter's ting;

If you never claimed that of the other sex you had enough;

Or if you never heard a lecture that you'd like to wring;

Those who enjoyed the Five Brothers' Smoker will vouch for that. But could they tell us just what that look meant that he had on last Sunday night? Why he's so in-scrutable he probably wouldn't know what it meant himself.

It is good to hear that, in spite of the natural deflation of the population every week-end, a very good crowd had a good time at the Las Amigas dance Saturday night.

Miss Simmons' Father Dies

Miss Mae Simmons, first grade critic, Campus Training School, was called to her home in Canyon, Texas, last Tuesday, by the very serious illness of her father. Word was received Friday that her father died on Wednesday.

Uses Oldest Cello in Existence

Vera Poppe, cellist, who appeared last week with her accompanist, Miss Hagar, used in her concert the oldest cello in existence, she told a member of the music staff. This interesting fact will add to the pleasure which the appreciative audience of her week's chapel received.

Miss Poppe, wearing an original costume to permit a "masculine" freedom of position, held the interest of the chapel for a full hour. Her graceful masterful technique was enhanced by a vivacious and winsome personality that charmed her audience. This concert, the second feature of the year's entertainment program to be given in the regular chapel program, merits a expression of thanks to the program committee.

B. G. Grads Get Together

Sandusky, Oct. 7th—Mrs. William Rothacker (Mary Brimer) entertained at the cottage on Sandusky river a small group of the B. G. S. C. of the class of 1918.

Those present were: Bell Schuh, Mrs. Lercho, Enzia Parks, Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jarchow and family (Judy Berk), Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bechberger and family (Wanda Kunzman), Sue Baus and mother and sister of Sandusky, Mrs. and Mrs. George Schumacher and Mrs. Catherine of Shaker Heights (Ruth Keller), Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beriawell and family of Grafton (Gladys Siggens), Mrs. and Mrs. H. B. Urschel (Lillian Tressel), Mrs. and Mrs. V. W. Rothe, Helen and Jar.ey, Bowling Green. We hear their next meeting is for Homecoming at Bowling Green.

SORORITIES

Five Sister Employment Agency

"In these times of strife and struggle for a bare existence on the campus we feel the hot searing breath of the dreaded wolf at our heels. We must not give up; yet we cannot keep on; our hope is gone. Our last frankfurter is so far away, that his faint comforting bark is now forgotten. Farewell."

What is this? We must be dead. No, it is Five Sisters, a new employment agency on the campus. The ad calls for hot-dog consumers in the ranks of unemployed freshmen. We are saved. We could not fail in such a job. Hm— At the office of Five Sisters Inc., Ltd., 6:00 P. M. Monday, Oct. 15, 1934. Check!

Here we are. That interview was easy, now they are putting us to the test. The fires are burning high. Here come the hot-dogs and can we take them? Just ask the employment agents. We are sure of a job from now on."

Yes Sir! That was really the undertaking of the Five Sisters Monday night and those freshmen can't say that they were unemployed.

Other than this relief to the unemployed, Five Sisters gave the second degree to their pledges last Tuesday night. Homecoming plans are now underway and we can hardly wait until November second. How about you?

Congratulations, Las Amigas on your successful dance and grand orchestra. Also an orchid to the Five Brothers for the great revival of the school spirit at the rally. It surely put pep into the game.

PHRATRA PHASES

On Wednesday, Oct. 10th, the members of Phratria Sorority entertained thirty guests at an informal tea in their home. Our sponsors, Miss Lorenz and Miss Beatle, poured. The color scheme was green and yellow, the sorority colors.

After a bit of singing, a cup of tea and pleasant conversation, we found that our new acquaintances are congenial company.

Las Amigas News

Last Tuesday night the Las Amigas entertained informally a number of their friends. The evening was spent in making candy, popping corn, and dancing. The girls are anticipating more of these enjoyable evenings in the near future.

Another Play

The Bee Gee players who entertained us so well last Thursday night have begun work on another play entitled "The Old Book." by Don Marquis. The play is a comedy of modern life. It will be given during the first week of November.

Shatzel Hall Notes

Rah! Rah! Shatzel Hall has much school spirit now since two of her girls, Florence Holden and Pauline Harrison, both from Fostoria, O., were chosen as cheer leaders for the college. The girls led several cheers before the meal Saturday noon. Shatzel feels honored to have two such fine cheer leaders with her.

Eleanor Pool, Lima, and Margaret Culbertson, Bryan, are home with illness. We hope to see them back soon.

Shatzel would like to thank the unknown trumpeter who plays taps so beautifully every evening. There is a softness and sacredness that impresses everyone who hears it. We certainly appreciate the music and hope to hear more.

Treble Clef Club

The Treble Clef club has organized for this year under the direction of Mrs. Irene C. Mooers who feels that she has very promising material with which to work. The new officers are: Martha Ullery, president; Alvirda Hauenkraft, vice president; Geneva Shealy, secretary; Helen Wenz, treasurer; Audrey Smith and Bernice Saul, librarians. The club will meet each Tuesday at four o'clock.

FRATERNITIES

Ye Olde Five Brothers

The Five Brother fraternity has started the year with a "bang." They are situated in their new house on East Wooster street with Mrs. Mary Wilson as the able house mother in charge, assisted by Miss. Cora Stanfield as chief cook. The total enrollment of active members on the campus numbers 37, which is the greatest number the Fraternity has ever been represented by during a school year. Several members are varsity football players which is headed by last year's "Brown Award" man in the person of Carl Stephens, followed by "Dick" Wallace, "Red" Stevenson, "Jim" Groetham, "Pluto" Lewis, "Cliff" Conrad, "Opp" Lowell, "Johnny" Hartman, "Pedro" Allen, and "Dick" Collins. Six of these nine members started the Otterbein game while the other three saw service throughout the game.

Twelve of the thirty-seven members are Seniors, fourteen are Juniors and eleven are Sophomores, which makes a well balanced membership represented in each class.

The following is a list of officers:

Ye Olde Skull, James Deter
Crossbones, Richard Wallace
Scribe, A Stevenson
Mixer, James Groetham
G. A. P., Robert McKee

Friday night of last week the Fraternity sponsored an all-school rally for the benefit of the football team as well as installing school spirit into the student body. The turnout was the greatest ever to appear for such an occasion. A well balanced program was carefully worked out and carried to the nth degree.

The fraternity went through pledge week and emerged successful. A total of 16 pledges have decided in favor of the Five Brothers. We do not have a complete list of oncoming members, but the next issue of the Bee Gee News will carry a complete list of Neophytes.

This is the second article to be published by this organization in an effort to put the Bee Gee News back on the road to success. We wish that other organizations would consider this and let us know what they are doing through the News; it is also a help to the News staff for making this year's paper bigger and better. It is about time this college should come to life and produce all they have for the benefit of every one. Let other colleges know we are "up and at 'em." So long until next week.

Y. M. C. A. BOOK EXCHANGE

PLAN'S FINAL PAY-OUT

The last chance to obtain your money from the "Y" Book-Store will be Friday afternoon from 1 to 4. Please bring your slips promptly. The Y. M. C. A. plans to wind up its affairs this week with the return of all unsold books.
Foreign Language Club
The first fall meeting of the Foreign Language Club was held Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11th. The theme of the meeting was Spain and Mexico. Margaret Foster, president, presented.

A reading from Spanish poetry was given by Clara Elarton, dressed in a picturesque Mexican costume.

Miss Nellie Ogle, in a very interesting manner, told us of some of her experiences in Spain during the past summer.

Miss Baird talked on her visit to Mexico, illustrating her talk with many interesting objects which she had brought back from this country.

Juanita and LaVindita, two Spanish folk songs, were sung by Elizabeth Ruth, Virginia Young, Rosemary Ketzenberger and Josephine Herman, with Alice Davidson accompanist.

At the conclusion of the program tea was served from a colorful tea-table, gay with flowers, candles and a quaint Mexican tea set.

Young People's Rally
The interdenominational young people of southern Wood county, will hold a Fellowship Rally next Monday night, Oct. 22 at eight o'clock in the Methodist church at Bloomdale, O.

The guest speaker will be Mr. William L. Manahan, well known orator and lecturer of Defiance, Ohio. The Bloomdale Community Orchestra will play and selections will be rendered on the church organ. Group singing and solos will also supplement the program. Fred Whiteman of Bradner, will preside. All college students are cordially invited to attend.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting
The Y. W. C. A. met Thursday, Oct. 11 in the Shatzell Hall Annex for the installation of new officers. The candle light service which served the purpose was very impressive. The sponsor Miss Leedom, lit the candle from the candles of the national organization. Miss Kaiser, last year's president, lit hers from Miss Leedom's. Each of the new officers lit her candle from Miss Kaiser's and vowed to be true to the organization. The seventy-two members then lit their candles from those of the officers and formed a circle to sing the Y. W. C. A. hymn.

From the Training School
Miss Lucy Whittlesey has organized a class of Training School pupils in piano. The lessons will be given individually but to the class as a whole. Miss Virginia Baker will have charge of a group of Fourth grade pupils on the saxette. This instrument was designed to introduce children to the playing of band and orchestral instruments.

Miss Mildred Craven under the supervision of Mr. Church will teach the instrumental class of the Training School in the use of clarinets, cornet and other band instruments.

Celia Braughtighum who was practicing teaching in the Fourth Grade, has been taken to the hospital where she underwent an appendicitis operation.

Kicking the Gang Around
It took Jane to change Brooksie's views— we can't help wondering if she did it for her own benefit or in the interest of all local co-eds.

Can it be that we heard cheers at the game? Pain, but promising—Thanks Five Brothers. These small but mighty people make good campaign managers and cheer leaders—Among those noticed in the stands was our braided blond with a captivated look. In addition, they were: Ellicott, Spayth, McCutcheon, Forrest, Schilling, Eden, and Paul Schaffer, Eden.

From the Music Department
If there are any more college men who wish to play piano accompaniments for the Men's Glee Club, see Mr. Fauley. Probably more than one will be selected for the position. Thirty men have tried out for the choir and if there are any more who wish to try out they must also see Mr. Fauley.

Mr. Fauley is still trying out applicants for places on the Varsity Quartette.

The Training School listens in each Friday morning at eleven o'clock to the Danroese Music appreciation hour. If there are any college students who are free and interested they are welcome to join them in the auditorium.

Several members of the Junior and Senior classes in the music department will take part in the Teacher's Chorus which will appear under the direction of Noble Cain, nationally known choral conductor at the Northwestern Ohio Teacher's Association meeting in Toledo on Oct. 26.

Those who will take part are Virginia Baker, Fanchon DeVerna, Arlene Gill, Lucy Whittlesey, Elizabeth Dalton, Mildred Creven, Roberta Krouse, a former student, Margaret Newcomer, Upper Sandusky; Lucile Jury, Wyandot; Iva McCotrell, Harpster; Mary Jane Cross, Harpster; Julia Vent, Neveda; Geneva Shealy, Sycamore; Claudia Willcox, Careying; Dwigt Sparyth, McCutcheon, Forrest; Schilling, Eden, and Paul Schaffer, Eden.

Wyandot County Club
The Wyandot County Club has survived the summer vacation. It held its first meeting, Oct. 10, 1934, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Powell. The new officers are: Marjorie Caughey, president; Dorothy Wolfe, vice-president; Margaret Newcomer, secretary; Geneva Shealy, treasurer; Orveta Wentling, secretary-treasurer. After a short business meeting we adjourned to enjoy various games of cards, ping-pong, checkers, etc. Light refreshments were served. Those present were: Helen Shafet, Wyandot; Mabel March, Forest; Vi- mmae Rowe, Forest; Jeanette Burnell, Forest; Marjorie Caughey, Sycamore; Dorothy Wolfe, Carey; Margaret Newcomer, Upper Sandusky; Lucile Jury, Wyandot; Iva Mc- Cotrell, Harpster; Mary Jane Cross, Harpster; Julia Vent, Neveda; Geneva Shealy, Sycamore; Claudia Willcox, Careying; Dwigt Sparyth, McCutcheon, Forrest; Schilling, Eden, and Paul Schaffer, Eden.

Trip to the World's Fair
A number of students have asked that they might take an educational trip to the World's Fair. An opportunity for doing this will be given on the weekend, Oct. 26 to 29 when classes will be dismissed because of the teacher's meeting at Toledo. Transportation will be made reasonable if enough students wish to fill a Transcontinental Stage.

Those who wish to know more about this transportation and low costs may see W. P. Holt in room 303 of the Science building. Reservations must be made at once because the number will be limited to those who will fill the stage. No'eleventh hour reservations can be made. This is positively the last opportunity to see the Great Fair under so favorable circumstances.
DO YOU APPROVE FROSH WEEK
meetings with your class? Yes 184, No 91.
5. Did you have sufficient attention from college officials and students to direct you where to go and what to do? Yes 271, No 15.
6. Do you consider the trip of inspection of buildings worth while? Yes 265, No 29.
7. Did you feel the need of more illustrative printed material on (a) Buildings? Yes 43, No 229; (b) Courses? Yes 104, No 175; (c) General Information? Yes 114, No 167.
8. Were the activities of freshman week of the type to instill a noticeable class spirit within the group? Yes 229, No 53.
9. Would you recommend that a few more days be devoted to this week for freshman? Yes 142, No 145.
10. Would you have preferred to begin classes the day after registration rather than to have several days for general acquaintance? Yes 19, No 266. List several reasons for your answer here.
11. Did these few days give you as much opportunity to become acquainted with the faculty as you desired? Yes 126, No 158.
12. Did you feel in your own case that there was sufficient activity to prevent loneliness, discouragement, or homesickness? Yes 244, No 41.
13. Was the experience of becoming accustomed to the new situation a greater factor in causing loneliness than an insufficient amount of freshman activity? Yes 171, No 96.
14. Did you feel a greater respect toward the College for its effort to provide these few days of orientation? Yes 270, No 11.
15. Did you feel a need for more information than was given on:
(a) Entrance requirements Yes 63, No 217.
(b) Class schedules, Yes 51, No 232.
(c) Class attendance, cuts, etc. Yes 159, No 121.
(d) Grading system, Yes 193, No 83.
(e) Fraternities and sororities (requirements, rushing, pledging, standards) Yes 139, No 148.
(f) Activities open to freshmen (dramatics, glee clubs, etc.) Yes 160, No 126.
(g) Campus organizations (Y. M., Y. W., etc.) Yes 74, No 205.
(h) Living quarters, Yes 46, No 230.
(i) Student employment, Yes 92, No 192.
(j) Campus publications, Yes 76, No 198.
(k) Athletic eligibility, Yes 80, No 197.
(l) Textbooks (use of, how to obtain, etc.) Yes 130, No 150.
(m) Library instruction, Yes 95, No 186.
(n) Selection of friends, Yes 62, No 217.
16. What changes would you suggest to make freshman week more worth while to the student? Criticize freely any part of freshman week.

From these answers it is concluded that very few changes in the Freshmen week program is desired by the beginning students. They seemed to feel a need for more meetings with the class as a group; they expressed a desire to become better acquainted with the faculty; and they would be glad for a little more information on rules pertaining to class attendance, grading, activities open to freshmen, and possibly more direction given to the purchase and use of textbooks.

Responding to item sixteen of the questionnaire, 13 students suggested more freshman class meetings to enable the class to become better acquainted with its own membership; 11 were of the opinion that a whole week given to the Freshmen would crowd the activities less; nine wanted more games, picnics, etc., for those who did not dance; 8 felt that activities similar to those scheduled in the evening should be arranged throughout the day time; and 6 would have upperclassmen more considerate of the freshmen. Other criticisms would have "big sisters" paying some attention to the freshmen assigned to them, more "advice" on registration procedure, more social events throughout, and less upperclassmen mixing in with the strictly Freshmen social events. A few would have classes beginning the day after registration with the social events scattered along afterward.

On the whole, the Freshmen group approves the Freshmen week project and feels that it is well worth the effort which the college is making.

Falcons and Kent Battle to 0-0 Tie

Greetham Receives Severe Injury in Second Period

Saturday afternoon, Oct. 13, a large group of spectators watched a beautiful exhibition of football. Both teams were unable to score even though they threatened each other’s goal several times. Although Kent State was rated one of the toughest teams scheduled for the Falcons this season they were unable to drive through the local eleven for a touchdown. Greetham started at center but during the second quarter had to leave the game because of a shoulder injury. Every man of the Bowling Green aggregation played heads up ball throughout the game.

Widowski and Taborsky in the backfield for the opponents and Landis and Sokoloski in their line, played a beautiful game.

Bee Gee kicked off and Widowski returned it to his own 35 yard line. Taborsky punted out of bounds on Bee Gee’s 10 yard line. Inman gained 2 yards, and then punted to his own 34. Kent carried the ball to the 16 for a first down and on the fourth down Reed threw Taborsky for a 13 yard loss. Kent then lost the ball on Bee Gee’s 37. Riffle in two tries gained 3 yards and Inman punted to Taborsky who was tackled on his own 30. Carter gained two yards and D. Ranney made 3 thru center. Alban made 7 but Bee Gee was penalized 5 yards and wasn’t able to make first down. A succession of passes and kicks followed and when the quarter ended Kent had possession of the ball.

Stevenson entered the game at right end in place of Wentling. Kent punted to Albion who returned it to his own 35. Lewis made 3 yards in two tries. On the following play, Bee Gee fumbled and was forced to punt. On the first play Carter of Kent realized off a beautiful run of 15 yards being brought down on the middle line line by Riffle. Kent was forced to punt. A punting duel followed. Greetham was hurt when he attempted to tackle Taborsky who was returning a punt. Opp Lowell took his place at center and Tippon replaced Riffle. Albion brought the ball to his own 35 and was forced to punt which placed Kent on their own 45. After a series of reverses, spinners and end runs Kent made only first downs. Kent then opened an aerial attack but lost the ball on downs as the half ended.

Bee Gee kicked off to Kent. Another punting duel followed, neither team being able to make a first down. During the last few minutes Harrington replaced Nesbit at guard and Ecker replaced Forest at left guard.

Taborsky punted to Bowling Green who carried the ball to their own 27. Lewis gained 4 and Inman went through left tackle to the 40 yard line. On a lateral pass, Alban to Inman, 1 yard was gained. Lewis gained one more; then the lineman opened up a nice hole and Inman charged through for a first down. Bee Gee was forced to punt. After an exchange of punts Kent possessed the ball on Bee Gee’s 41. Taborsky was injured when he was tackled for a loss by Red Stevenson. Kagler took his place. During the last few minutes Warner tackled Kagler, who was running toward a wide open field in a deceptive spinner play and broke up the last chance for their scoring as the game ended.
