TODAY'S COVER

For the first time in the history of Doyt L. Perry Field, the Falcons are playing a night football game. In honor of this historical event, the cover of tonight's souvenir program depicts the event with colorful artwork. This modern design, created by Chuck Elliott of Wizard Graphics, also appears on the T-shirts given to the first 5,000 BGSU students in attendance.

Listen for tonight's Thayer Chevrolet-Toyota Player of the Game!
FALCONS HOST ZIPS IN FIRST NIGHT GAME AT PERRY FIELD

The lights will be turned on for the first time at Doyt L. Perry Field tonight as the Bowling Green Falcons (1-2) take on the Akron Zips (2-2). It will be the first night game in the 23-year history of Perry Field.

Temporary lights provided by Musco Mobile Lighting Ltd. of Oskaloosa, Iowa, will illuminate Perry Field for Group Night and Student Appreciation Night at BGSU. The last time BG played a night game at home, the Falcons defeated Lockbourne Air Force Base, 27-6, September 27, 1958, at old University Stadium on campus.

Coach Moe Ankney's 1989 Falcons will be riding high this week after edging Central Michigan, the Mid-American Conference pre-season favorite, 24-20, at Perry Field, last Saturday. The win improved BG's conference mark to 1-1, good for a fourth-place tie in the standings with Ball State. Eastern Michigan and Toledo share the MAC lead with 2-0 league records.

Coach Gerry Faust's Akron Zips lost to Youngstown State, 20-17, last week. However, many consider this to be Faust's best Akron team in four years. The Zips are 2-0 against the MAC this season, beating Kent (40-7) and upsetting Central Michigan (27-26).

—BG—

THE SERIES: Despite the fact that the two schools are only about two hours apart by car, Bowling Green and Akron have only met twice before on the football field. The series is tied, 1-1. Akron won the first meeting in Akron over Coach Robert Whittaker's Falcons, 8-0, in 1941. BG, coached by Denny Stolz, won the rematch, 27-22, before 25,000 at Perry Field.

—BG—

REVIEWING BG-AKRON, 1985: BG had to rally from a one-point fourth-quarter deficit to post a 27-22 victory over the Zips before 25,000 fans at Perry Field, Sept. 28, 1985. With the fourth-largest Perry Field crowd in history looking on, BG tailback Bernard White rushed for 148 yards and two TDs, including the game-winner with 8:16 left. Quarterback Brian McClure completed 28-of-38 passes for 252 yards and two TDs. Akron's Russ Klauss tied a school record with five field goals, his fifth giving the Zips their first and only lead of the game, 22-21, with 12:28 left. It was the fourth of 11-straight wins for the Falcons in '85, BG's last MAC Championship season.

25 Years—Thanks To You!
Now in his fourth year as head football coach at Bowling Green State University, Howard M. (Moe) Ankney believes the future of Falcon football will be as bright as its past.

"Bowling Green football is strong, and Bowling Green football is respected across the country," Ankney says. "When our players put on the Bowling Green uniform, they are eager to go out and uphold that winning tradition."

Hanging on his Doyt L. Perry Field office wall is a framed list of five objectives. Meet these goals, Ankney tells his players, and Bowling Green will maintain its reputation as one of the top two Mid-American Conference football programs of the 1980s.

—BOWLING GREEN FOOTBALL GOALS—
1. Each player earn a college degree
2. Continue the winning tradition
3. Beat Toledo
4. Win the California Raisin Bowl
5. Each player become the best that he can be as a student, as an athlete and as a person.

With these goals in mind, Ankney will lead his Falcon football team into the 1989 season, the 71st season in the long history of intercollegiate football at BGSU.

Appointed as the University's 13th head football coach on December 30, 1985, Ankney has coached the Falcons to second-place finishes in the MAC twice in the last three years. BG finished second in 1986 and second in 1987, before struggling to an uncharacteristic eighth-place finish last season.

Ankney has a 12-20-1 overall record at BGSU, a record that reflects the challenging non-conference schedule Bowling Green has played the last three seasons. BG lined up against a defending national champion football and wrestling coach at Eaton High School for the 1964-65 seasons and then became head coach at Dayton Norhhride in 1966. He moved on to Dayton Wayne High School as head coach in football and tennis in 1967 and stayed until 1971 when he joined the Ball State staff. His five-year head coaching record in the high school ranks stands at 24-21-5. While coaching in the Dayton area, Ankney earned his master's degree from Miami University in 1969.

Ankney, 47, a native Ohioan, grew up in Xenia before moving to Kettering as a high school senior. A 1960 Fairmont High School graduate, Ankney attended Bowling Green State University and earned his master's degree from Miami University in 1969. Ankney earned his master's degree from Miami University in 1969.

Ankney entered the coaching profession at the high school level. He was an assistant football and wrestling coach at Eaton High School for the 1964-65 seasons and then became head coach at Dayton Norhhridge in 1966. He moved on to Dayton Wayne High School as head coach in football and tennis in 1967 and stayed until 1971 when he joined the Ball State staff. His five-year head coaching record in the high school ranks stands at 24-21-5. While coaching in the Dayton area, Ankney earned his master's degree from Miami University in 1969.

Ankney, 47, a native Ohioan, grew up in Xenia before moving to Kettering as a high school senior. A 1960 Fairmont High School graduate, he was an all-state quarterback and wrestling coach at Eaton High School.

While a student at BGSU, Ankney played on two MAC Championship teams as a reserve quarterback and lettered twice under legendary Coach Doyt Perry. The Falcons went 23-5-1 from 1961-63.

While an undergraduate, Ankney earned election to Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, an education honorary.

Ankney was reared in a football family. His uncle Pete was his head coach at Fairmont High School. Pete Ankney also was a head coach at Canton McKinley High School and at the University of Dayton. Moe’s father, Ben, coached at Miami University and at Xenia High School.

Moe and his wife, Carlalee, are the parents of two daughters (Angela, 26, and Molly, 21), a son (Andy, 24), and two grandchildren (Ashley, 3, and Bryce, 1).

Howard Milton Ankney was born June 23, 1942.

TODD FITCH

Todd Fitch, 25, is Bowling Green's youngest and newest full-time assistant coach, joining the staff in August to coach the receivers and tight ends. A graduate assistant coach last year at Bowling Green, he was a volunteer assistant coach under former BG player and coach Don Nehlen at West Virginia University from March through July this year. His coaching experience also includes two years when he was an assistant at Ohio Wesleyan, his alma mater. Fitch holds a bachelor's degree from OWU (1986) and a master's degree from Ohio State (1987). Todd and Katherine Booker were married this past summer.

KURT HUMES

Now in his third year at Bowling Green, Kurt Humes, 34, is the Falcons' defensive coordinator, while also in charge of inside linebackers. His duties include supervising the team's fields, equipment, supplies and facilities. Humes, who coached BG's outside linebackers the last two years, recruits the Dayton area and the state of Indiana. He is a 1976 graduate of Ball State University and has coached at his alma mater, at Miami University and at the University of Wisconsin. Kurt and his wife, Pam, a 1977 BGSU graduate, are the parents of Tanner, 10, Jessica, 7, and Rachel, 5.

ANDY GARVER

Andy Garver is in his fourth year at Bowling Green, spending the first three as defensive line coach. He now coaches the outside linebackers and special teams and is the Falcons' recruiting coordinator. Garver, 31, recruits Northwest Ohio, the west coast of Florida and the Chicago area junior colleges. A 1980 graduate of Tulane University, he formerly coached at Jesuit High School in New Orleans, LA, at Tulane University, at the University of Arizona and at the University of Notre Dame. Andy and his wife, Terri, are the parents of Allison, 4, and Kevin, 2.

TERRY MALONE

Terry Malone is responsible for Bowling Green's offensive line, the centers, guards and tackles. Before this year, he coached BG's tight ends and tackles for three years. He is also in charge of scouting and breaking down game films. Malone, 29, also coordinates Bowling Green's strength program and recruits the Detroit suburbs, Cincinnati and Lima. A 1983 graduate of Holy Cross College, Malone formerly coached at the University of Arizona and Holy Cross. Terry and his wife, Ann, reside in Bowling Green. Ann is the daughter of former BG football great Tom Colaner.

MIKE MANGILI

Now in his fourth year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green, Mike Mangili, 35, is in charge of the Falcons' defensive backs. He spent his first year here coaching BG's outside linebackers in 1986. Mangili is in charge of player relations and film exchange with Falcon opponents. He recruits the Columbus area. A 1978 graduate of California State-Sacramento, he formerly coached at Amos Alonzo Stagg High School in Stockton, California, and at the University of Arizona. Mike and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of Nicholas, who will be 1 in November. Lauren is employed at the BGSU Student Recreation Center.

REGGIE OLIVER

Reggie Oliver is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Bowling Green. This year, he is the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, after previously coaching BG's running backs. Supervisor of BG's relations with professional scouts, Oliver, 37, also recruits the Michigan cities of Detroit and Flint. A 1975 graduate of Marshall University, he formerly coached at Huntington High School in West Virginia and at Marshall University. He played professional football with the Jacksonville Sharks of the World Football League in 1974, before earning a try-out with the Dallas Cowboys.

BOB REUBLIN

Bob Reublin is in his fourth season as Bowling Green's assistant head coach. This year, he is in charge of the defensive line, the tackles, guards and nose guards. He previously coached BG's offensive line. As assistant head coach, he handles numerous administrative duties, while recruiting north central Ohio and the Cleveland area. A 1961 graduate of BGSU, he served as a graduate assistant coach at the University for one year, before moving on to coaching positions at Sandusky High School, Miami University, and the University of Colorado. Bob and his wife, Mary Lou, are the parents of Susie, 27, twins Nancy and Patsy, 26, and Cathy, 24.

BOB WOLFE

Now in his fourth year at Bowling Green, Bob Wolfe coaches the Falcons' running backs, while also recruiting Northeast Ohio, Cleveland's east side, Youngstown and Warren. Coordinator of the team's "Incentive, Motivation and Pride" program, he previously served as BG's defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. Wolfe, 42, a 1969 graduate of BGSU, coached collegiately at Ball State, Washington & Jefferson, Youngstown State, Cincinnati and Allegheny College. Bob and his wife, Karen, a 1970 BGSU graduate, are the parents of Eric, 19, a defensive back for the Falcons, Kevin 14, and Christine, 10.

JEFF ALBERS

Jeff Albers is a newcomer on the Falcons' coaching staff, coming on board last spring to assist in coaching the tight ends. Albers, 27, comes to Bowling Green from Ohio Northern University, where he spent one year on the football staff. Prior to that, he coached one year at three different high schools: Rock Falls in Rock Falls, IL; Waunakee, in Waunakee, WI; and Madison West in Madison, WI.

Albers attended the University of Wisconsin in Madison, graduating with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1986.

ANDY DENGLER

Andy Dengler is in his second year as a graduate assistant football coach at Bowling Green State University. He assists coach Terry Malone with the offensive line.

Dengler, 26, came to BGSU after three years of coaching at the high school level. He was an assistant coach at Circleville High School in Circleville, OH, for two years. Before that, he was an assistant coach for one year at Hopewell-Loudon High School near Tiffin, OH. Dengler, a native of Circleville, is a graduate of Heidelberg College in Tiffin, OH. While at Heidelberg, he lettered two years as an offensive and defensive lineman.

JAMES NIMTZ

James Nimtz joins the Falcon football program this year as a graduate assistant coach for the defense. He will also be working toward a master's degree in sport administration at the University.

Nimtz, 25, comes to Bowling Green from Scottsdale Community College in Scottsdale, Arizona, where he was a volunteer assistant coach for one year. Nimtz is a 1987 graduate of Kent State University with a bachelor's degree in speech. While at Kent, Nimtz lettered in 1985 as the Golden Flashes' placekicker, finishing second on the team in scoring with 46 points. He made seven of 15 field goal tries and was 25 of 25 on extra point kicks.

FRED RIDDER

Fred Ridder is in his first year as a volunteer assistant coach at Bowling Green State University. He will assist the Falcon defensive coaches with the inside and outside linebackers in 1989.

Ridder, who turns 24 on September 29, was a four-year letterman in football at Ohio State University from 1984-87. He played inside linebacker and nose guard as a Buckeye, helping OSU win two Big Ten Championships and play in the Rose, Citrus and Cotton Bowls.

Ridder earned his bachelor's degree in education in 1988 and is currently working on his master's degree in facilities management at BGSU.

GEORGE TANNER

George Tanner joins the Falcon football program this year as a special assistant coach for the defense. Tanner, 41, comes to Bowling Green from Bethune-Cookman College, where he coached the defensive line and special teams, while also acting as the recruiting coordinator. Once a Ford Motor Company employee, he got into football coaching at Albion College in 1985. Since then, he has coached at Eastern Michigan (spring, 1986), Bloomsburg (fall, 1986), Wayne State (1987) and Bethune-Cookman.

A native of Silver City, Mississippi, Tanner graduated from Romeo High School in Romeo, Michigan in 1966. He holds an associate's degree in physical education from Ferris State (1974) and a bachelor's degree in physical education from Southeastern College (1983).

Founded in 1946, the Mid-American Conference is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the ACC, Big 10, Big Eight, Big West, PAC-10, SEC, SWC, and WAC.

The MAC consists of nine state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The nine current members—Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University—have all been members of the conference for 15 or more years.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men’s sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women’s championships in football, basketball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In the 43-year history of the conference, numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition. Bowling Green was recognized as the national college division champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second longest such streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years, the non-conference victims of MAC teams are opponents from the Big 10, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

The 1989 MAC Champion will represent the conference against the champion of the Big West Conference in the California Raisin Bowl on December 9 in Fresno, CA.

MAC schools have a reputation for developing outstanding coaches. In last year’s Fiesta Bowl which pitted Notre Dame against West Virginia for the national championship, it was Kent graduate Troy Dawson celebrates 1985 MAC Football Championship.

Lou Holtz against Bowling Green graduate Don Nehlen. On the same day in the Rose Bowl, Miami graduate Bo Schmebcher directed his Michigan team to victory over Southern Cal coached by Bowling Green graduate Larry Smith. Among other current or former head coaches who played at and/or coached at MAC schools are Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, Don James, Paul Brown, Bill Mallory, Dave McClain, Don McCafferty, Weeb Ewbank, Frank Lauterbur, John Pont and two of the three 1988 inductees into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame: Doyt Perry and Jack Mollenkopf.

Among current NFL players from MAC schools. Dolphins’ linebacker John Olerud (Western Michigan) was the 1986 Rookie of the Year, Rams’ center Doug Smith (Bowling Green) is a Pro Bowler and 12-year veteran; Bengals’ defensive back Robert Jackson (Central Michigan) is the senior member of the five former Chippeas in the NFL; and defensive lineman Brent Williams (Toledo) is a rising star with the Patriots.

After concluding successful NFL careers, Bernie Casey (Bowling Green) and Tim Brown (Ball State), two former standouts at current MAC schools, went to Hollywood and have made numerous television and movie appearances.

MAC student-athletes are regularly selected to the GTE Academic All-America teams. In the past six years alone, MAC student-athletes have received Academic All-America honors 82 times. Since the Academic All-America program was established 20 years ago, MAC football players have earned that distinction 38 times. Five of the 48 Division I football players honored on the 1988 Academic All-America team were from MAC schools.

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by Doyt Perry, the former player, coach and administrator at Bowling Green State University.

In January of ’88, he learned that he would be an inductee into the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame.

In October, when Bowling Green hosted Miami at Doyt L. Perry Field, the man in whose honor the stadium was named was there for a special on-campus presentation by the National Football Foundation.

In December, Perry was in New York for the Foundation’s Hall of Fame Dinner. He was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame at Kings Island, OH, this past June.

Perry’s association with BGSU dates back almost 60 years when, as a student, he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, OH, native received his degree in 1932 and began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant football coach at Ohio State University in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1955. The next 10 years, he led the Falcons to a 77-11-5 record for a winning percentage of .855, topped only by Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy of Notre Dame. His teams won five MAC Championships and the national college division championship in 1959.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU’s athletic director for six years, developed such outstanding coaches as Jim Young of Army, Bill Mallory of Indiana, Don Nehlen of West Virginia, Larry Smith of Southern California, the late Dave McClain of Wisconsin and Bowling Green’s own Moe Arkney.

Night Football Returns to BGSU

by LIZ PAOLIELLO
BGSU Sports Information Office

Night football returns to Bowling Green State University this evening after a 31-year absence.

When Bowling Green and Akron take to the field for their 7:30 p.m. contest, lights provided by Musco Mobile Lighting Ltd. of Oskaloosa, Iowa, will be in position to illuminate the game.

The last time the Bowling Green Falcons played under lights in Bowling Green, it was a chilly night, September 27, 1958. A crowd of 6,237 turned out at old University Stadium.

Coach Doyt Perry's Falcons, although plagued with injuries, won a 27-6 decision over Lockbourne Air Force Base. The win gave the Falcons, rated 12th among the nation's college division teams, their 11th-straight non-conference victory.

The Falcons jumped out to a quick lead in the game when Bobby Ramlow scrambled 78 yards for a touchdown in the early minutes of the game. The Falcons added to their lead on a quarterback sneak by Bob Colburn, a nine-yard run by Brian Lewis, and a five-yard run by sophomore running back Bob Reublin.

Reublin, who today serves as assistant head coach of the Falcons, says he doesn't remember much about night football on campus. His memory of his first touchdown as a Falcon is a little fuzzy, too.

"I could have run 80 yards and broken four or five tackles for all I know," said Reublin, who coaches BG's defensive linemen.

"I'm sure it was the deciding touchdown if I scored it," he joked.

Reublin, one of three BGSU graduates on the Falcons' coaching staff today (along with head coach Moe Ankney and running backs coach Bob Wolfe) added, "The only thing I remember about 1958 was I got the opportunity to start at Miami that year.

Night football has a brief history at BGSU. Bowling Green's previous home field, University Stadium, located next to Anderson Arena, did not have the lights until the middle 1950s.

In five seasons, the Falcons played nine games under the lights, compiling a 7-2 overall record at night. BG lost the first two night games, before bouncing back to win its next seven.

So, heading into tonight's contest vs. Akron, the Falcons are riding a seven-game winning streak in home night games.

From 1959 until tonight, the Falcons have played only afternoon contests at home. Cunningham explained that the scheduling change occurred because of a few incidents involving visiting teams that would arrive in Bowling Green the morning of a game with little to do until the game that evening.

In the interest of eliminating these problems, Ralph W. McDonald, then president of the University, requested that BGSU schedule only day games at home.

While that ended Falcon football at night here, Bowling Green High School continued to play under the lights until 1964, when a new stadium was built by the school grounds on West Poe Road.

Jerry Dianiska was hurt and everybody else must have had pneumonia or something."

Despite the injuries (. . . or pneumonia, as Reublin recalls it) in 1958, Bowling Green went on to finish 1958 with a 7-2 record for a third-place finish in the Mid-American Conference.

A year later, Coach Perry guided the Falcons to a 9-0 record and the 1959 MAC Championship. The Falcons were also crowned national college division champions by United Press International.

Night football has a brief history at BGSU. Bowling Green's previous home field, University Stadium, located next to Anderson Arena, did not have the lights until the middle 1950s.

In 1954, lights were installed at the stadium by, oddly enough, Bowling Green High School. According to Don Cunningham, BGSU's sports information director at the time, the high school's football field at Bowling Green City Park had deteriorated beyond repair.

Bowling Green State University officials offered use of the University Stadium for Friday night high school games on the condition that the high school supply the lights.

Once lights were installed, at a cost of $32,000, BGSU began to schedule a few night games on Saturdays early in the season.

The Falcons first night game at University Stadium was played on September 25, 1954. The Falcons, coached by Robert Whittaker, suffered a 46-7 loss to powerful Miami, coached by Ara Parseghian. More than 5,000 fans attended the game.

According to Cunningham, the light poles from old University Stadium are still being used today at Bowling Green High School, 35 years after they were installed on campus.

BOWLING GREEN OFFENSE: Right from the opening drive, the Falcon offense was clicking against Central Michigan. Senior quarterback RICH DACKIN capped a 14-play, 78-yard drive with a 10-yard scoring strike to Jason Zeller to give the 78-yard drive with a 10-yard scoring strike to the Falcons' "bend-but-not-break" effort included a last-minute stand that had Central Michigan threatening for the go-ahead score. BG surrendered 434 yards to the Chippewas, 209 yards rushing and 203 passing. CMU's All-MAC tackle Donnie Riley was limited to 82 yards on 22 carries, and CMU quarterback Jeff Bender, the MAC Freshman of the Year in '88, completed 14 passes, but none reached the end zone. Sophomore nose guard MARK ROSS registered a career-high 15 tackles. He also recovered a CMU fumble, caused by a DUANE CRENSHAW hit, setting up BG's game-winning drive in the fourth quarter. Senior inside linebacker LARRY LAMBRIGHT made 10 solo hits and had a career-high 16 total tackles, including one for a one-yard loss. Other Falcon defensive leaders last Saturday included safety TERRY THORNTON with 13 tackles, linebacker CHARLES DOTSON with 12, and tackle STEVE WILBOURNE with 11.

BOWLING GREEN OFFENSE: The Zips' offense is led by seven returning starters, including senior quarterback Mike Johnson. A junior college transfer, Johnson ranks among Akron's career passing and total offense leaders, despite playing only 15 games for the Zips. He has completed 46-of-106 passes for 638 yards and three TDs this season, while rushing for an additional 139 yards on 40 carries. Tailback Doug Lewis leads the Zip backs with 123, while Heard (104 receptions) is third in career receptions with 1,812 yards. Also has an interception. Cornerback Ozzie Jackson is next with 35 stops. The Akron kick-
Inside linebacker Dal McDonald (93) puts the finishing touches on a Ball State Cardinal, 1988.

Falcons' Nest of Coaches

Their names are familiar, because they have made an impact on football at all levels of the game — high school, college, and professional.

They belong to the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches, an organization created in 1984 for the purpose of promoting the proud tradition of Bowling Green Falcon football. Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at Bowling Green, most of these coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They’ve studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of Warren Steller, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and Moe Ankney, to name a few. Today, they are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at Bowling Green State University, the Falcons’ Nest of Coaches.

Get The Home Team Advantage

For years, your Northwest Ohio Marathon dealer has been a part of your community. He is proud to call his business his own. Proud to be part of the community.

Today, many oil companies have foreign ownership, but Marathon is 100% American owned and operated. That’s important to your Marathon dealer because he knows you are the person he has to please . . . not someone overseas.

That’s the home team advantage you get with Marathon.
More than 50 former Falcons have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, American Football League, World Football League, United States Football League or Canadian Football League.

Among them have been several players who have made significant contributions to their professional teams: players such as Bernie Casey ’61, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960s; Bob Reynolds ’63, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers ’67, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker ’51, an offensive end with the New York Giants; Phil Villapiano ’71, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills; Mike Weger ’67, a Detroit Lions defensive back, and Dave Preston ’77, an all-purpose back with the Denver Broncos.

Currently, several former Falcons dot the rosters of professional teams. They include All-Pro center Doug Smith ’78 with the Los Angeles Rams and defensive back Martin Bayless ’84 of the San Diego Chargers. A 10-year NFL veteran as a player, Bob Schnelker ’51 is in his 27th season of coaching in the NFL. He has been offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings since 1986. Ron Blackledge ’60 is in his eighth year as offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

New to the NFL scene is Kyle Kramer, a fifth-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns earlier this year.

Three former Falcons have been drafted as high as the second round — Bernie Casey by San Francisco (1961), Bob Reynolds by St. Louis (1963), and Phil Villapiano by Oakland (1971). Mark Miller was BG’s only third-round pick (by Cleveland, 1978). Martin Bayless was tabbed in the fourth round by St. Louis (1984). And like Kramer, Jamie Rivers was selected in the fifth round by St. Louis (1967).

A list of former Falcons and their professional football experience follows:

Martin Bayless — Cleveland, St. Louis, Buffalo, San Diego, 1984-
Dave Preston — Denver, Oakland, New England (USFL), 1977-78
Doug Smith — Los Angeles, 1978-SA
Phil Villapiano — Oakland, Buffalo, 1971-83

Mike Obrovac — Cincinnati, Green Bay, 1981-85
John Park — British Columbia (CFL), 1981-88
Rick Perrin — NY Giants, 1969-70
Jeannette Potts — Cleveland (NFL), Pittsburgh, Chicago, Houston (USFL), Buffalo, (NFL), 1983-86
Dave Preston — New England, Denver, (NFL), Denver (USFL), 1977-84
Bob Reynolds — St. Louis, Boston, 1963-75

Roger Reynolds — NY Giants, 1963
Jamie Rivers — St. Louis, NY Jets, Houston, 1968-76
Tim Ross — New England, 1981
Ken Russell — Detroit, 1957-59
Dan Saleet — Cleveland, 1978
Tom Saleet — NY Jets, 1978

Bob Schnelker — Cleveland, Philadelphia, NY Giants, Minnesota, Pittsburgh, 1953-52
Ed Siminski — Buffalo (AFL), 1940
Doug Smith — Los Angeles, 1978-5A

Studying The Building Blocks of Life

Dr. Leontis Receives Grant To Study Ribonucleic Acid

Courtesy of the BGSU Public Relations Office

The workings of the cells within the body are not unlike some chaotic two-minute football drill, with the coach signaling in plays and the quarterback executing those instructions at a rapid-fire pace.

DNA, short for deoxyribonucleic acid, is the coach of the cell and carries with it a complete set of "instructions" for the cell's development and reproduction, but like a football coach, it does not do the work itself. Rather it resides in the cell's nucleus and delivers messages through its "quarterback," ribonucleic acid, RNA for short.

This messenger role for RNA is only one of the numerous functions of this little-understood but important class of molecules.

Learning more about these functions and the various structures of RNA is the purpose of a $423,280 grant to a Bowling Green State University biophysical chemist and a team of research assistants.

Dr. Neocles Leontis, an assistant professor of chemistry, received the grant from the National Institutes of Health to conduct the five-year exploration.

His research, which delves into the very building blocks of living cells, could provide valuable information to medical researchers in designing experiments to study everything from birth defects to cures for AIDS and cancer.

Constructed similarly to the now-famous DNA double-helix, RNA can be likened to a child's plastic "pop bracelet," where little plastic beads are arranged randomly; but, when a magnetic field is applied, they line up in the direction of that field.

While in this condition, radio waves can be passed through the magnetic field which causes the nuclei to flip over. In the process, the nuclei give off electrical signals, which can be detected and interpreted by a computer to create a "picture" of the molecule.

In this way, Leontis can view the RNA molecule to determine its structure and then measure the results from controlled experiments to determine its function — and then compare the two.

Leontis earned his bachelor's degree in chemistry from Ohio State University in 1977. He earned his master's degree from Harvard University and his doctorate from Yale University, and did post-graduate work as a Thurnau Research Fellow at the University of Michigan.
CHARLES EDGERTON
TB, 5-10, 200, Columbus

Charles is the type of player everyone on the team looks up to. He’s a hard-worker both on and off the field, but especially in the weight room, where he bench presses 360 pounds.

“In this game, it’s important to work hard in the weight room,” he said. “I try to show the younger guys that you have to work in the weight room to stay healthy.”

Charles started this season at tailback, after seeing increasing playing time last year behind Mike McGee. He rushed for 427 yards and had 66 yards receiving in ’88. In BG’s first three games this season, he has rushed for 17 yards on 14 carries.

Charles is a hard runner who likes to take on the defenders. His best game in a Falcon uniform came last year against Ohio University when he rushed 19 times for 111 yards. He was also named BG’s Offensive Player of the Week twice, once after the TCU game and once after the Miami game.

NOTES: Charles has a 3.8 yard rushing average in his career . . . He saw action as a redshirt freshman when he rushed for 58 yards on 15 carries . . . Charles joined the Falcon football program as a walk-on.

RON VISCOUNTE
FB, 5-11, 235, North Canton

Ron is dubbed “Mr. Technician” by his coaches because of the perfect technique he uses at his position. But according to Ron, it is something that is inherited at the fullback position.

“When I first came here, George Schmelzie was fullback, and that’s the way he played,” Ron said. “After that Mike Ot-ten came in and was the same way. I found that if you don’t have to worry about doing the little things right, then you can concentrate on your job during the game.”

In 1988, Ron was BG’s third-leading rusher (103 yards) and fifth-leading receiver (148 yards). He also was named the Falcons’ Offensive Player of the Week against Ball State. It was in this game that he scored one of his two career touchdowns.

Throughout his career, Ron has shown versatility both on the ground and through the air. He has gained 201 yards rushing while also picking up 242 on receptions.

NOTES: Ron is a three-year letterman ... He did not lose yardage on any carry last season ... His 29-yard carry against Toledo last year was his career best.

JASON ZELLER
PK, 5-9, 185, Spring Valley

Jason Zeller faced a little uncertainty this year when he came back as a fifth-year senior. The NCAA took away the kicking tee for field goals and extra points, and it was expected to affect Jason. But, so far this season, Jason doesn’t seem troubled, as he has connected on four-of-six field goals. His misses have been from 52 and 42 yards away. He is also three-for-three on extra points, which puts him at 46-straight PATs for his career.

Overcoming adversity is nothing new for Jason, who walked-on as a freshman and not only made the team, but lettered the season following his redshirt year.

“They (NCAA) really threw us a slider when they took away the tee,” Jason said. “but I feel I have adapted well. It’s just another obstacle I have to overcome.”

So far this season, Jason has scored 15 of the Falcons’ 33 points, while his four field goals have moved him into third (31) on the all-time list behind Don Taylor (39) and Gehad Youssef (44).

NOTES: Jason kicked the longest field goal of his career (48 yards) against Central Michigan last year . . . In 1987, he scored a career-high 61 points in the season.

THE FALCON CLUB

To All Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $248,000 in 1989. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1989 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU’s athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green’s athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1989-90 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1989!

Sincerely,

Charles F. Nagle
Associate Athletic Director

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

We’ve tackled the toughest

When you’ve got a reputation for being the best, the challenge never stops. That’s why Champion’s designers continuously work to create the finest, most innovative football uniforms in the largest variety of fabrics, colors, styles, and trims available anywhere.

And that’s also why more and more professional, college, and high school football teams are looking to Champion to help them take on the toughest. You should, too.

Contact your Champion Sales Representative and let him tackle your team’s apparel problems.

Look for the “C” on our products. It’s the mark of a Champion.

PARK "FOR YOURSELF WHAT BGSU IS ALL ABOUT!"
An aerial view of the Bowling Green State University campus.

Bowling Green State University offers a range of educational opportunities expected in a large university, yet retains the personalized small-school atmosphere of its early years.

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Today, the University has nearly 720 full-time and 200 part-time faculty and 17,800 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology, and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master’s degree programs and has 14 departments granting doctoral degrees in 53 specialty areas.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University’s Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor’s degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,200 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University’s faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, including the chemistry department which hosts an Ohio Eminent Scholar in Photochemical Sciences. The Ohio Eminent Scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world class scholars to the state’s universities.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University’s students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1988-89 academic year, there were more than 2,700 “non-traditional” adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 4 million items, including 1.5 million books plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 400,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry’s past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building. A major renovation of Williams Hall, home of the history, sociology and political science departments, was completed in 1988. Upcoming renovation projects include Shatzel Hall and Overman Hall. Also, numerous computer facilities have been installed and upgraded throughout campus.

C. ELLEN CONNALLY

C. Ellen Connally is serving her second term as a Cleveland Municipal Court judge. She was the first black woman to be elected to a judgeship in Ohio without first being appointed. Prior to her election as judge, she was an attorney and general referee for the Cuyahoga County Probate Court. Judge Connally received a bachelor of science in social studies education from Bowling Green State University in 1967 and earned a juris doctorate degree from Cleveland State University’s Marshall Law School.

J. WARREN HALL

President

J. Warren Hall is senior vice president of National City Bank of Cleveland, Ohio. Prior to joining the National City Bank in 1958, he served in the United States Naval Reserve. Mr. Hall received a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Bowling Green State University in 1953 and a master of business administration from Harvard University. He is a former member of the Bowling Green State University Foundation Board of Directors.

JOHN A. LASKEY

John A. Laskey, chairman and president of the Port Lawrence Title and Trust Company, was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Richard Celeste earlier this year. Laskey is an owner of GulfAtlantic Title Insurance Groups, with offices in Orlando, Palm Beach and Tampa, Florida. He recently sold Port Lawrence, Ohio’s oldest and largest title insurance underwriter. Laskey attended the University of Notre Dame and has been actively involved in regional economic development matters for the past 10 years.

JOHN C. MAHANEY JR.

John C. Mahaney Jr. is president of the Ohio Council of Retail merchants in Columbus, Ohio. Prior to joining the Ohio Council of Retail Merchants, he was a sports editor for the Piqua (Ohio) Daily Call and a sales manager for radio station WJMA in Orange, Virginia. Mr. Mahaney is a 1954 graduate of Niagara University and served in the U.S. Army for two years. He holds membership in a number of professional associations, in many of which he is past chairman or past president.

RICHARD A. NEWLOVE

JOHN C. MAHANEY JR.

Richard A. Newlove is president of Newlove Realty Inc. and president of Newlove Management Services Inc. Prior to his association with the real estate firm, Mr. Newlove was a teacher at the St. Aloysius School in Bowling Green. Mr. Newlove, a 1969 graduate of Bowling Green State University, is a member of the Bowling Green State University Foundation Board of Directors and is very active in University and community organizations.

VIRGINIA B. PLATT

Virginia B. Platt is professor emerita of history at Bowling Green State University, retiring from the University in 1975 after 28 years of service. She has authored a number of history publications and has held membership in several historical societies. Dr. Platt completed here undergraduate work at the University of Washington and received graduate degrees from the University of California at Berkeley and the State University of Iowa, where she was named Outstanding Woman Graduate Student.

Ann L. Russell is an active member of the board of American Cancer Society and the Erie County Cancer Society, as well as other community organizations. Prior to her appointment to the Board of Trustees, Mrs. Russell served for a number of years on the Firelands College Advisory Board. Her participation on the Firelands board included service as secretary, vice president and president as well as membership on the Student Affairs Committee.

When Dr. Paul J. Olscamp became Bowling Green State University's eighth president in 1982, he charted a course that would move Bowling Green into the ranks of the country’s most important national educational resources. The effort, he said, would be an unrelenting commitment to excellence in teaching, research and service at the University. Indeed, he adopted the slogan “An Environment for Excellence” to describe his hopes for Bowling Green.

Since then, everything the energetic Olscamp has done at Bowling Green has been aimed at fulfilling that vision. Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task to be done in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students, the academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

Now, as Olscamp begins his eighth year at Bowling Green, many of the Role and Mission Statement’s original goals have been met and Faculty Senate’s Committee on Academic Affairs has assigned new priorities including the recruitment of minority faculty and students and greater emphasis upon research production.

More than any other president in Bowling Green’s history, Olscamp has sought to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have an important role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University’s Academic Charter. Before the change, only the president had that power. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

Olscamp brings a personal touch to the presidency and frequently hosts students for breakfast at his home, eats with them in campus dining halls and attends as many student events as his schedule permits. In the past five years he has hosted more than 575 faculty at a series of “fireside talks” at the president’s home. During the academic year he holds weekly forums for students wanting to discuss campus issues.

Highlighting The Olscamp Administration

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since Dr. Olscamp arrived on campus eight years ago. With the support of the Board of Trustees and the assistance of dedicated faculty and staff, there have been many important accomplishments. Some of those include:

Academic Programs

- Creation of Bowling Green’s first endowed professorships, in management, finance, chemistry and philosophy.
- Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multi-billion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.
- Winning Ohio Eminent Scholar positions in photochemical sciences and applied philosophy.
- Addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at Bowling Green.
- Increasing to 53 the number of National Merit scholars enrolled, the most ever in University history and a figure that will place Bowling Green in the top 25 percent in the country.
- Establishing the University’s first major scholarships for minority students.
- A network of more than 20 microcomputer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall, as part of an effort for all students to have a background in computer usage by the time they graduate.
- Securing more than $4.4 million from the Ohio Board of Regent’s Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract the world’s top scholars to Ohio, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence on the state’s campuses. Eminent Scholars have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities, which reflect a remarkable breadth of scholarship.
- Increasing library holdings to more than 4 million items, including 1.6 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

Physical Plant

- Nearly $66 million in state capital improvement funds for renovation and new construction projects.
- Completion of $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1984.
- A $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building completed in 1988.
- A $9.1 million addition to the Fine Arts Building scheduled to get underway in the next 18 months.
- Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzel halls. Construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.

University Finances

- Growth in the University endowment from $1.9 million in 1982 to more than $20 million by the end of 1989.
- Creation of an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is approaching $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in three years. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.
- Developing a plan that restructures debt service obligations and is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 11 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.
- Most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni office, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University’s first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.
When, in the year 2000, historians look back upon 85 years of intercollegiate athletics at Bowling Green State University, they’ll stop and take a second look at the 1980s. Bowling Green sports teams of the 80s have achieved a level of success matched by few.

In all, Bowling Green teams have won 23 conference titles the last nine years, 18 in the Mid-American Conference and five in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. Eighteen teams have gone on to post-season play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

Each of the 19 sports at Bowling Green has enjoyed success in the 1980s. Here is a brief look at the “Winning Tradition” of the Bowling Green Falcons . . .

BASEBALL — Coach Ed Platzer’s Falcons tied the best start in the 72-year history of the sport by beginning the 1989 season with a 14-2 record that included a shutout victory over the Bowling Green Falcons.

MEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Jim Larranaga has built a solid foundation that should produce a Mid-American Conference championship contender in 1989-90. Strong recruiting classes the last three years and an exciting up-tempo brand of basketball have made venerable Anderson Arena once again “The House That Roars.” Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in post-season appearances and victories.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Fran Voll, the two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to three-straight MAC Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances.

FOOTBALL — Bowling Green has the second-best record in the Mid-American Conference this decade, as the Falcons have finished either first or second in the league standings six of the last seven years. The Falcons have won two MAC titles and made two trips to the California Bowl since 1980. BG also holds the MAC single-game attendance record of 33,527 at Doyt Perry Field. Coach Moe Ankeny’s 1989 squad features two-time All-MAC receiver Reggie Thornton and 16 other returning starters.

GOLF — Coach Greg Nye’s men’s and women’s golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country against some of the top teams in the nation. The BGSU men regularly travel to Florida and the Carolinas for their annual spring tune-up. The Falcons have won four Mid-American Conference Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 19 years. The Falcon women annually compete with the very best teams in the Midwest.

GYNASTICS — Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender and the 1988-89 season was no different. BGSU set a new standard with a 180.5 team score during the season, the first time in the history of the program BGSU has bettered 180 points, while continuing to be a threat for league honors. The Falcons have qualified as a team for post-season competition four of the last six years.

HOCKEY — One of the most consistent programs over the last few years has been the hockey program. Under head coach Jerry York, BGSU has become a most attractive place for a hockey player to continue his pursuits. Among the many accomplishments has been a national championship, the University’s first, in 1984, berths in three straight national tournaments, eight straight trips to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA Finals and four regular-season league titles. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles and appeared in eight NCAA tournaments.

The Falcon booters also captured the 1988 Kwik Goal/BGSU Soccer Cup for the third-straight year. BG players have earned All-American honors seven times, the most recent being Jon Felton, while Kyle Royer became the first bootee to earn Academic All-American honors following the 1988 season.

SOFTBALL — Head Coach Jacquie Joseph begins her second year with the Falcons, after making an impressive debut last spring. Coaching a young and inexperienced squad, Joseph proved to be a patient and able leader, molding her players into a very competitive unit in the Mid-American Conference. The outlook for the 1990 season is bright, with the return of all but one starter from the ‘89 team.

SWIMMING — Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, has continued a rich swimming tradition as he approaches his third season of coaching both the men’s and women’s teams in 1989-90. The Falcon women have made winning a habit in the 80s. They began with the MAC Championship in 1980-81 and has continued with no worse than third-place finishes in successive years. This winter, the men will host the MAC Championship at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the midwest’s top swimming and diving facilities.

VOLLEYBALL — Coach Denise Van De Walle’s Falcon volleyball team has earned a spot as one of the top programs in the MAC. Bowling Green has steadily improved its standing in the league under Van De Walle including a runner-up finish in 1987 that earned the Falcon coach MAC Co-Coach of the Year honors. BGSU is looking for more of the same to close out the 80s as they return eight letterwinners who concluded the 1988 season with wins in eight straight matches.

TENNIS — Robert Keefe Courts have been the site of many top MAC tennis matches in the 1980s including the men’s 1989 conference tournament. The men’s team, guided by new coach Gene Orlando, improved two spots in the conference tournament and had a seven-match winning streak, the longest since 1979, during the 1989 campaign. The women’s tennis program, under the tutelage of second-year Coach Sheila Chircosta, has also begun to prosper posting its first winning record since 1983.

TRACK & FIELD — Bowling Green, long associated with success in track and field, was once again represented at the NCAA Track and Field Championships in 1989. Beth Manson repeated as an All-American in the discus, making Mid-American Conference history as the league’s first two-time All-American in women’s track. The Falcon women have posted two consecutive top-three finishes in the MAC. Coaches Sid Sink and Tom Wright guided BG’s men to within 22 points of third place last spring.

Falcon Club Celebrates 25th Anniversary

The year was 1964. William Jerome was the University president. Dr. Harold (Andy) Anderson was athletic director. And Coach Doyt Perry’s Falcon football team won its fifth Mid-American Conference Championship in 10 years.

With visions of future MAC championships in football, basketball, baseball and other sports, a handful of loyal Falcon supporters gathered to discuss ways of backing BGSU sports.

Among them were President Jerome, Chuck Perry, Jim Hof, and Coach Doyt Perry. There were others such as Ken McFall, Gerald Harms, Clifford Stevenson and Robert Baron.

Little did they know then that they were laying the foundation for a Falcon Club today, 25 years later, that solicits more than $405,000 in annual income.

There were 137 members in 1964, and together they raised $4,000. Their goals were simple: to encourage collegians to pursue their academic and athletic goals at the University; to assist in recruiting; to contribute to the athletic grant-in-aid program; to assist in securing summer employment for the student-athletes; and to accomplish these goals within University, MAC and NCAA guidelines.

Today, the Falcon Club, under the direction of Associate Athletic Director Charles Nagle, lists more than 1,600 members from across the country. According to Nagle, the Falcon Club has raised over $3,325,000 in total income since 1964. In just the last four years, the Falcon Club has raised more than $1,535,000.

Falcon Clubbers not only contribute dollars, but also countless volunteer hours and advisory expertise borrowed from their own professions.

Twenty-five years ago, support was centralized in Bowling Green and Northwest Ohio. Today, Falcon Clubbers enjoy regional activities in Toledo, Cleveland and West Central Ohio.

Another area of continued growth is the endowment program. Started seven years ago, the athletic endowment program now holds more than $255,000 in 12 different endowments.

Much of the Falcon Club's success can be attributed to the hard work of the advisory board each year. Listed below are the 17 advisory board presidents since 1971:

1971: Tom Colaner 1982 Wendell Booth
1972: Boyd Crawford 1983 Earl Rupright
1973: Mace Leitman 1984 Jim Navarre
1974: Bill Kramer 1985 Steve Keys
1976  1986 Don Morrison
1977: Ross Barr 1987 Joe Vedra
1978: Harold Rowe 1988 Lois Howe
1979: Tom Gibson (first woman president)
1980: Tom Glick 1989 Bill Otley
1981: Bill Blair

Price Named Women’s Track Coach

Steve Price was recently named head coach of the Bowling Green State University women’s track and field program.

Price replaces Lee LaBadie, who left BGSU last summer to become the assistant women’s track coach at Ohio State.

Price comes to Bowling Green from the Dayton area, where he coached the Kettering Striders. During his tenure with the Striders, Price developed numerous athletes who competed at the national and international level.

Meet-The-Team Nights Set For Basketball, Ice Hockey

Bowling Green State University sports fans will have the opportunity to meet members of the Falcon men’s basketball, women’s basketball and ice hockey teams soon.

The Falcon Club will hold its annual "Meet-The-Team Day" for men’s and women’s basketball on Sunday, November 12, at Anderson Arena. There is no admission charge.

Head men’s coach Jim Larranaga will run his squad through practice and an intra-squad scrimmage at 3 p.m., with team and squad introductions set for 4:30 p.m.

Head women’s coach Fran Voll will introduce his team at 5 p.m.

Falcon hockey fans will be able to “Skate with the Falcons” on Sunday, January 7 at 6 p.m. at the BGSU Ice Arena.

A $4 donation will be taken at the door.

Since his appointment eight years ago as athletic director, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Bowling Green State University on equal terms with today's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

In his first seven years at Bowling Green, Gregory has challenged his staff of administrators, coaches and classified workers to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU — moments such as:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 12 Mid-American Conference regular season championships in football, men's and women's basketball, softball, women's cross country, gymnastics, and men's golf;
- two California Bowl appearances;
- three MAC post-season tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season championships;
- one CCHA post-season tournament championship;
- 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including a MAC record five appearances in the last two years and seven in the last three years;
- three home NCAA events the last two years in hockey, softball and women's basketball, the most ever for a MAC member over a two year period;
- and the 1987-88 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women's sports.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school's 72 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division 1-A status in football. Behind Gregory's leadership, the football program attained 1-A status.

During Gregory's tenure here, BGSU has proven to be a marketing and promotions leader. Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women's basketball games. Crowds have swelled, too, in sports like soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball. In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field to witness the annual college football classic between Bowling Green and Toledo. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, giving BGSU the second-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are also a tradition, making game tickets the hottest item in town each winter. This year, the BGSU Ice Arena will attract even larger crowds; an additional 1,700 seats have been added to the north end of the arena.

With the growing interest in TV sports programming, Gregory has aggressively negotiated for live television coverage of BGSU sports events. Last year, Falcon football, basketball and hockey all attracted live TV coverage. The 1989-90 year promises more of the same. Falcon football and basketball will be seen again around the country as part of the MAC Game of the Week on Master Video Productions, while Falcon hockey will continue to play in front of a national TV audience as part of the CCHA Game of the Week on Pro-Am Sports.

Gregory, 61, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University's official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and west central Ohio areas, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of collegiate athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the "student" in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed a director for academic and regulatory affairs in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC. Today's student-athlete is offered every opportunity for a fulfilling educational experience at BGSU. Many student-athletes have earned academic honors, such as the 134 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point averages of 3.0 or better in 1988-89. In just the last three years, 11 BGSU scholar-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans, an uncommon distinction among MAC schools.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master's degree from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director.

Gregory began his professional career in 1952 as a teacher and coach at William Penn High School in New Castle, Delaware, and later at P.S. Dupont High School in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1959, he returned to East Stroudsburg as head football coach and assistant professor of physical education. One of the most successful coaches in the school's history, Gregory was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 1983.

Gregory was named assistant football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, and, in 1967, he was named head football coach at Villanova University. In 1969, he moved to the University of Rhode Island, where he served as head football coach for seven years. In his 25 years on the high school level and at East Stroudsburg, Villanova and Rhode Island, Gregory's teams compiled a record of 132-69, including four undefeated seasons and seven league championships. He was twice selected as NAIA Coach of the Year, twice selected as Pennsylvania Coach of the Year and was named NCAA District Coach of the Year.

Gregory was lured away from coaching in 1976 by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League and served in the personnel department for three years before moving to Yale.

Jack and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green and are the parents of two sons and one granddaughter.

Today's Halftime Show

1989 FALCON MARCHING BAND

WOW! Under the lights! Football and pageantry under the stars! Neat feeling, huh? Certainly exciting! Almost inspirational! Well, maybe for some! Tonight’s Falcon Marching Band halftime presentation is based on the theme, Inspiration.

Before the Falcon Marching Band takes the field, we would like to welcome the Marching “Zips” from the University of Akron, along with their directors and staff. They will share the halftime festivities this evening.

Along the lines of inspiration, one of the “hottest” major recording artists today is Sandi Patti. Everywhere she goes, she “packs” the hall with her fans and continues to create melody after melody that serve to uplift and bolster spirits, as well as carry a message.

Tonight, the Falcon Marching Band performs a couple of tunes attributed to this artist, tunes that you may recognize and can perhaps “hum” with us. We open with “Make His Praise Glorious” and follow with “Someone Up There Loves Me.” Closing tonight’s presentation is a version of Willie Nelson’s “Let It Be Me.”

ATHLETIC PROMOTIONS
by BRAD BROWNING
Director, Marketing & Promotions

Good evening everyone! Welcome to Doyt L. Perry Field and the first night football game ever held at the 23-year-old stadium.

This evening’s event is exciting in many ways. First, the kickoff is six hours later than our usual 1:30 p.m. start. Tonight’s match-up features the Falcons against their intrastate rivals, the Akron Zips, led by Coach Gerry Faust. Because it’s Group Day and Student Appreciation Day, I want to extend greetings to all of the groups from Northwest Ohio and the BGSU students.

With tonight’s extravaganza in mind, I’m happy to say that the Falcons’ football home schedule only gets better in the weeks to come. That’s right, on October 14, the Toledo Rockets will travel down I-75 for the annual BG-UT backyard brawl. This year’s game concludes BGSU’s 1989 Homecoming Week. There is every reason to think that this will be another memorable chapter in this “knock-down, drag-em-out” series. Plan to come out and support the Falcons in their battle for Northwest Ohio bragging rights.

Homecoming Week will be full of festivities, including the Parade and Pep Rally/Bonfire, Thursday evening, October 12. Note that the Parade has been moved to Thursday to avoid the anticipated heavy game-day traffic. Also, at halftime of the BG-UT game, the Homecoming Court will be introduced and the 1989 King and Queen will be revealed.

An added attraction to this year’s Homecoming Week is the opening of the 1989-90 BGSU hockey season. Coach Jerry York’s Falcons will host mighty Northern Michigan of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association in the newly-expanded BGSU Ice Arena Friday and Saturday nights. Sell-out crowds are expected for both games, so if you haven’t already done so, get your tickets now by calling the BGSU Ticket Office (372-2762).

Q: Who is an "athletic representative?"
A: ■ One who has made financial contributions to the athletic department (i.e., Falcon Club members).
■ One who has been asked by the athletic department, in the past, to assist in recruiting student-athletes.
■ One who has assisted or is assisting in providing benefits, such as providing job opportunities, to enrolled student-athletes.
■ One who is or has been involved in promoting the athletic program.
■ One who is a member of any agency or organization which is promoting the institution's intercollegiate athletics program (Varsity BG Club, etc.).

Q: Once an individual has been identified as an "athletic representative," how long does he/she retain this identity?
A: Forever.

Q: Is Bowling Green State University responsible for the acts of athletic representatives and booster support groups?
A: Yes. Athletic representatives are governed by the same NCAA and University rules and regulations as those placed upon all institutional athletic staff members.

Dictionary-makers agree on the definition of representative. However, of late, the word has been interpreted differently at many colleges and universities across the United States.

To ensure that confusion does not reign, especially in the matter of recruiting prospective student-athletes, the National Collegiate Athletic Association has set hard-and-fast rules for: 1. Who athletic representatives are, and, 2. What they can and cannot do.

In 1987, the NCAA banned athletic representatives (see box to left) from any involvement in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. That involvement includes on- or off-campus contacts by 1. personal visit, 2. correspondence, or 3. telephone calls.

Bluntly, the answer to all questions regarding the involvement of athletic representatives in the recruiting process is an unequivocal “NO.”

The new legislation does not prohibit “unavoidable incidental” contacts with prospects, their parents or friends. The contact would be “legal” provided that: 1. it is not pre-arranged by the representative or a member of the athletic department, 2. it is not made for the purpose of recruitment, and, 3. it is in the course of “normal civility.”

Bowling Green Intercollegiate Athletics urges all athletic representatives to comply with all NCAA regulations. If questions arise, please call the Bowling Green State University Athletic Department at (419) 372-2401.

A Citibank Card can make the trip twice as fast.

Attention Shoppers, the fantastic Citi Frequent Shopper Card is now your ticket to ride. Because Citi Frequent Shopper Malls are giving away a brand new Pontiac as the grand prize!

Always wanted a new car, haven’t you? Well, this is your chance. And all you have to do is bring your mall receipts to the Citi Frequent Shopper Prize Center. For every ten dollars in purchases you’ll receive one punch on your Citi Frequent Shopper Card. After only ten punches, you’re eligible to WIN! Pretty simple, isn’t it?

When you use your Citibank MasterCard or Citibank Visa Card, you’ll get DOUBLE punches on your Citi Frequent Shopper Card, Which means you’re eligible to win twice as fast!

And if you don’t have a Citibank MasterCard or Citibank Visa Card, apply now! It’s that simple to start enjoying Citibank’s superior service and special new benefits like Buyer’s Security and Extended Warranty.*

So go to your Citi Frequent Shopper Mall, take your receipts to the Prize Center, and maybe you’ll get the ride of your life.

Alma Mater

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you’ll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem’ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

Ay Ziggy Zoomba
Bowling Green’s unofficial fight song. (The official fight song is “Forward Falcons”). No one knows who wrote “Ay Ziggy Zoomba,” but it became famous nationally when former Falcon All-American and Detroit Lion All-Pro halfback Mike Weger sang it in the film, “Paper Lion.” The Falcon football team traditionally sings “Ay Ziggy Zoomba” after each victory.

Why The Falcons?
The 1989 season marks the 62nd anniversary of Bowling Green’s nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake ’23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were “the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size.”

Why Orange and Brown?
Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman’s hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, OH. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns’ Head Coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to the BGSU campus in the 1940s, Brown borrowed the colors for his All-America Football Conference teams. The Falcons and Browns still share their colors today.

Retired Jersey
The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73, when he rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-Mid-American Conference running back, gaining more than 1,000 yards in each of his three years on the varsity.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon
Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games.
Standing (l-r): Becky Meek, Opal Adams and Scot Bressler (ticket manager).

VARSITY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB

The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BC Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which is the spring Recognition Reception honoring the College Coach of the Year, the High School Coach of the Year, and the Special Recognition Award Winner. Then in July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:

- Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
- A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.
- Subscription to the quarterly newsletter.
- Personal satisfaction in contributing to BGSU athletics through your continued involvement.

Doyt L. Perry Field, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 23rd year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Field had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Field holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Field for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Field in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,100, an average of 22,400.

Perry Field is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift two years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic affairs office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 10th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won almost 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 72-39-3 record in the 114 games played at Perry.
Field. Over the last six seasons, Bowling Green is 23-6-1 at home for a .783 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Field has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments.

Perry Field is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .655 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to James Van Valkenburg, director of statistics for the NCAA, only two coaches on the Division 1-A list are above that figure — Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy at .864 (Boston College and Notre Dame).

Perry, 79, is as popular as ever in Bowling Green. He spends his winters with wife Loretta in Florida. Each summer, he entertains his friends and former players at a golf outing. Known for his well-organized practices and attention-to-detail meetings, Perry never stopped thinking of ways to succeed. He was a winner in football and as a high school basketball coach. His basketball teams were 161-35 over nine seasons and his high school track teams won 70 county titles in nine years.

Falcons Preparing For November Opener

Large Junior Class Has Larranaga Optimistic For 1989-90

by CHRIS SHERK
Sports Information Director

The Bowling Green Falcons could be a team on the rise in the Mid-American Conference this season, their 75th campaign of intercollegiate basketball.

Coach Jim Larranaga has added some key transfers to a line-up that features seven returning lettermen. Three multi-game starters — guard Billy Johnson, forward Joe Moore and center Ed Colbert — are back, but competition promises to be quite stiff at all five positions this season.

Bowling Green made national news in the off-season with the addition of two highly-regarded junior college transfers, guards Clint Venable and Scott Kerr from Allegany Community College. More help is on the way from Steve Watson, the 6-9 forward who transferred from Rutgers University in 1988.

Add a pair of guards from Ohio high schools, and the result has the experts predicting big things from the Brown and Orange this year.

Dick Vitale reported in the June 30, 1989, Basketball Times, "The Mid-American Conference will hear from Bowling Green this winter."

The Sporting News reported last May, "Bowling Green could be a team to watch in the Mid-American Conference next season."

Clark Francis of Hoop Scoop rated BG's recruiting class 28th in the country and wrote, "Bowling Green is one school that has gotten the job done. Bowling Green continues to sign players who can move them up the next level. Look for them to quickly challenge Ball State as the emerging power in the Mid-American Conference."

So, who are these new faces who promise to take BG to higher places?

Clint Venable is a 5-11 point guard from Allegany Community College in Cumberland, Maryland. Venable was rated by several scouting services as the best junior college point guard in the country last season. The Landover, Maryland, native averaged 17.7 points and 8.4 assists.

Scott Kerr, a 6-5 guard, brings his fine outside shooting touch to Bowling Green after scoring in double figures the last two seasons as Venable's teammate at Allegany CC.

Steve Watson, the 6-9 transfer from Rutgers, was a part-time starter for the Scarlet Knights as a freshman and sophomore.

Of the seven lettermen who return for the Falcons, five will be upperclassmen.

"The last few years, we have been a young team dominated by sophomores and freshmen," said Larranaga, now in his fourth year at BGSU. "We have a very large junior class. We will have a lot of experience under our belt, with Ed Colbert, Joe Moore, Billy Johnson, Derek Kizer and Juan Street returning as juniors.

"With the addition of three transfers — Steve Watson, who practiced with the team last year, Clint Venable and Scott Kerr — we will have a strong nucleus of upperclassmen. Plus, Kirk Whiteman and Tom Hall will be sophomores with considerable experience."

Larranaga sees Bowling Green as being a dangerous outside shooting team in 1989-90. Whiteman was the MAC's second-leading three-point field goal shooter (48.9 percent) and earned a place on the MAC's All-Freshman Team.

He will be joined this winter by several newcomers who can hit the outside shot.

"Last year, we relied heavily on Joe Gregory and Kirk Whiteman as our two long-range shooters," Larranaga said. "This season, with Kirk returning, we've added Clint Venable, Scott Kerr, Allen Dunn and Steve Watson, all threats from three-point range.

"We will be a much more deadly shooting team, and that should open up the inside game for Ed Colbert and some others."

The Falcons will set their sights on contending for the MAC title in 1989-90. BG finished 12-16 last year and finished in a tie with Central Michigan and Western Michigan for sixth place in the MAC with a 6-10 league record. Highlighting last year's campaign were a stunning 56-54 victory before more than 20,000 fans at UK's Rupp Arena and an 87-85 decision over Siena College, a NCAA second-round qualifier last March.

"We'll be a little bigger, more talented and more experienced than the last two seasons," Larranaga said. "We still have to develop the proper chemistry and establish a substitute pattern that can keep a fresh team on the court."

The Falcons will play a pair of exhibition games, Nov. 8 vs. Verich Reps All-Stars (8 p.m.) and Nov. 13 vs. a Yugoslavian club team (8 p.m.) in Anderson Arena.

The 1989-90 season starts Nov. 24-25 at the Providence College Fleet Classic in Providence, RI.
