TODAY’S COVER
The last time Bowling Green and Toledo met in BGSU’s Homecoming Game, the game drew a MAC-record 33,527 fans at Perry Field. The large photo on the cover of today’s program reminds us of that record-setting crowd and of the interest in this great college football rivalry. The winner of the BG-UT game each year gains possession of the Peace Pipe (pictured lower right). Toledo won the rights to the trophy for last year with the Rockets’ 34-5 win in the Glass Bowl in 1988.

A Message From The President

Welcome to the 1989 Homecoming Celebration! It has been more than seven years since I began my duties as president of Bowling Green State University, and through the years I have come to understand and feel the incredible attraction that this university has for its students, staff, faculty and alumni. There is a great spirit here — something that you, as alumni, helped create — that makes Bowling Green the ideal environment in which our young people can learn and mature.

I have visited with many of you during the past year and I found that you all exhibit the same tremendous pride in Bowling Green. You contributed a great deal to our reputation for academic excellence by the vital role you play in this University through your reputation and accomplishments, and ultimately by your support of your alma mater.

We hope you will enjoy your visit. You will note several physical changes in the campus. More important are the strides we have made in the academic area that have brought recognition of the University’s excellence from a variety of sources, including the Eminent Scholar in Philosophy, the new On-Line Registration System, the first students enrolled in our Doctoral Programs in Photochemical Sciences and Applied Philosophy, and the increase in the University's enrollment ceiling from 15,000 to 16,000 FTE - to name but a few.

Thank you for your continuing interest in Bowling Green. Come back to see us often.

FALCONS TAKE ON TOLEDO IN 67TH HOMECOMING GAME

Coach Moe Ankney's Falcons (2-3 overall, 2-1 MAC), locked in a four-way tie for second place in the Mid-American Conference standings, renew their spirited "I-75" rivalry with the Toledo Rockets (2-3, 2-1), today, at Doyt L. Perry Field.

It is Homecoming Week at BGSU, and the 1:30 p.m. BG-Toledo game marks the 67th annual Homecoming football game at the University. The Falcons have compiled an impressive 39-18-9 record while playing in front of the alumni over the years.

Bowling Green, fresh from a 31-28 victory at Ohio University, is out to string together two wins for the first time since the 1987 season, when the Falcons posted back-to-back wins over Ohio U. (28-7) and Toledo (20-6). The winner of today's game gains possession of the Peace Pipe for the next year.

Toledo dropped its first MAC game of the season last week at Eastern Michigan, 31-14. The Rockets own a pair of MAC wins over Ohio U. (27-18) and Ball State (29-22), while losing twice in Big Ten territory, Wisconsin (10-23) and Indiana (12-32).

Looking ahead, BG's game at Eastern Michigan, Oct. 21, has been moved from 6 p.m. to 12:30 p.m. to accommodate television. It will be the MAC TV Game of the Week at Ypsilanti.

Bowling Green led the all-time series 28-21-4 dating back to the 1919 season. However, Toledo won last year's BG-UT contest, 34-5, at the Glass Bowl. The home team has won the last five meetings. The losing team has scored six points or less in eight of the last nine meetings. Strangely enough, the Rockets haven't scored a touchdown at Perry Field since the 1979 season. Since then, BG has shut-out the Rockets twice (38-0 in 1981 and 21-0 in 1985) and limited to them just two field goals in 1983 (a 6-3 Rocket win) and 1987 (20-6).

REVIEWING BG-TOLEDO, 1988: Despite 392 yards of total offense, the Falcons could muster only five points at the Glass Bowl last year, losing 34-5 to the Rockets. Both teams entered the game with 0-3 records, but UT grabbed an early lead and never looked back. The Rockets led 17-5 at the half, and then added 10 third-quarter points to pull away for the 29-point win. It was Toledo's biggest margin of victory in the series since a 33-0 decision in 1967. Toledo's Alan Smiley rushed for 141 yards and three TDs. BG's (Continued on page 19)

25 Years—Thanks To You!
Now in his fourth year as head football coach at Bowling Green State University, Howard M. (Moe) Ankney believes the future of Falcon football will be as bright as its past.

"Bowling Green football is strong, and Bowling Green football is respected across the country," Ankney says. "When our players put on the Bowling Green uniform, they are eager to go out and uphold that winning tradition."

Ankney has coached the Falcons to second-place finishes in the Mid-American Conference football programs of the 1980s.

—BOWLING GREEN FOOTBALL GOALS—
1. Each player earn a college degree
2. Continue the winning tradition
3. Beat Toledo
4. Win the California Raisin Bowl
5. Each player become the best that he can be as a student, as an athlete and as a person.

With these goals in mind, Ankney will lead his Falcon football team into the 1989 season, the 71st season in the long history of intercollegiate football at BGSU.

Appointed as the University’s 13th head football coach on December 30, 1985, Ankney has coached the Falcons to second-place finishes in the Mid-American Conference two times in the last three years. BG finished second in 1986 and second in 1987, before struggling to an uncharacteristic eighth-place finish last season.

Ankney has a 12-20-1 overall record at BGSU, a record that reflects the challenging non-conference schedule Bowling Green has played the last three seasons. BG lined up against a defending national champion one year, and then a team that played for the national title the next. In 1986, the Falcons visited Minnesota and Washington. In 1987, it was Penn State and Arizona. And last season, West Virginia and Texas Christian were confronted.

The Falcons will be challenged again outside of the MAC in ’89. BG opens at East Carolina and closes the season at Tulsa. In between, the Falcons host Akron at Perry Field.

Ankney, a 1964 BGSU graduate, returned to his alma mater after serving six seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Arizona of the Pacific-10 Conference. In leaving Arizona, he left a long-time coaching associate and friend, Arizona Head Coach Larry Smith. Like Ankney, Smith is a Bowling Green graduate, and the two coached together for 10 seasons.

Prior to joining the Arizona staff in 1980, Ankney was Smith’s defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Tulane for four seasons between 1976-79. And before that, he was the secondary coach at Ball State from 1971-75 under the late Dave McClain. In all, he has spent 17 seasons coaching football at the collegiate level.

At each stop, Ankney was instrumental in helping to rebuild struggling programs. While at Ball State, he helped the Cardinals improve their record from 4-5-1 in 1971 to 9-2 in 1975. At Tulane, Ankney helped the Green Wave from a 2-9 record in 1976 to a 9-2 mark and a berth in the Liberty Bowl in 1979. The Arizona Wildcats were 5-6 in 1980 and improved their record to 8-3-1 in 1985, including a 13-13 tie with Georgia in the Sun Bowl. His Arizona defensive units finished among the nation’s statistical leaders from 1982-85.

Among his former players in the National Football League have been Denver Broncos linebacker Ricky Hunley and Cleveland Browns defensive back Al Gross. More than 20 of his former players have gone on to careers in professional football. At Bowling Green, Ankney has coached Kyle Kramer, a fifth-round draft pick by the Browns, as well as several others who have signed free agent contracts.

Ankney entered the coaching profession at the high school level. He was an assistant football and wrestling coach at Eaton High School for the 1964-65 seasons and then became head coach at Dayton Northridge in 1966. He moved on to Dayton Wayne High School as head coach in football and tennis in 1967 and stayed until 1971 when he joined the Ball State staff. His five-year head coaching record in the high school ranks stands at 24-21-5. While coaching in the Dayton area, Ankney earned his master’s degree from Miami University in 1969.

Ankney, 47, a native Ohioan, grew up in Xenia before moving to Kettering as a high school senior. A 1960 Fairmont High School graduate, he was an all-state quarterback and a participant in the Ohio All-Star game.

While a student at BGSU, Ankney played on two MAC Championship teams as a reserve quarterback and lettered twice under legendary Coach Doyt Perry. The Falcons went 23-5-1 from 1961-63.

While an undergraduate, Ankney earned election to Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership honorary, Phi Alpha Theta, a history honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, an education honorary.

Ankney was reared in a football family. His uncle Pete was his head coach at Fairmont High School. Pete Anchney also was a head coach at Canton McKinley High School and at the University of Dayton. Moe’s father, Ben, coached at Miami University and at Xenia High School.

Moe and his wife, Carlalee, are the parents of two daughters (Angela, 26, and Molly, 21), a son (Andy, 24), and two grandchildren (Ashley, 3, and Bryce, 1).

Howard Milton Ankney was born June 23, 1942.

THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Founded in 1946, the Mid-American Conference is one of the nine Division I-A conferences in the country along with the ACC, Big 10, Big Eight, PAC-10, SEC, SWC, and WAC.

The MAC consists of nine state-supported institutions in the midwestern states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. The nine current members—Ball State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Kent State University, Miami University, Ohio University, the University of Toledo and Western Michigan University—have all been members of the conference for 15 or more years.

Throughout its existence, the MAC has been in the forefront of national legislation that has enhanced the academic integrity of intercollegiate athletics. The MAC has had an academic progress rule, strengthened admittance standards and qualitative grade point average requirements for its student-athletes long before the NCAA adopted or discussed implementing such academic standards.

The MAC currently sponsors 18 championships. In men's sports, the MAC has sponsored championships in football, baseball, cross country, golf, tennis, and track and field since its founding, and added swimming and wrestling championships five years later.

In 1980, the MAC Council of Presidents voted to bring women's athletics into the conference structure. The MAC currently sponsors women's championships in basketball, cross country, field hockey, gymnastics, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, and volleyball.

In the 43-year history of the conference, numerous MAC football teams and players have received national recognition. Bowling Green was recognized as the national college division champion in 1959, and Ohio won similar honors in 1960. After MAC teams achieved major college status, Toledo compiled a 35-game winning streak from 1969-71, the second longest such streak in modern major college football history. Miami beat Florida, Georgia and South Carolina in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 Tangerine Bowls. In the last few years, among the non-conference opponents of MAC teams are opponents from the Big 10, Big Eight, SEC and WAC.

The 1989 MAC Champion will represent the conference against the champion of the Big West Conference in the California Raisin Bowl on December 9 in Fresno, CA.

MAC schools have a reputation for developing outstanding coaches. In last year's Fiesta Bowl which pitted Notre Dame against West Virginia for the national championship, it was Kent graduate Lou Holtz against Bowling Green graduate Don Nehlen. On the same day in the Rose Bowl, Miami graduate Bo Schembechler directed his Michigan team to victory over Southern Cal coached by Bowling Green graduate Larry Smith. Among other current or former head coaches who played at and/or coached at MAC schools are Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, Don James, Paul Brown, Bill Mallory, Dave McClain, Don McCafferty, Weeb Ewbank, Frank Lauterbur, John Pont and two of the three 1988 inductees into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame: Doyt Perry and Jack Mollenkopf.

Among current NFL players from MAC schools. Dolphins' linebacker John Offerdahl (Western Michigan) was the 1986 Rookie of the Year, Rams' center Doug Smith (Bowling Green) is a Pro Bowl and 12-year veteran; Bengals' defensive back Robert Jackson (Central Michigan) is the senior member of the five former Chippewas in the NFL; and defensive lineman Brent Williams (Toledo) is a rising star with the Patriots.

After concluding successful NFL careers, Bernie Casey (Bowling Green) and Tim Brown (Ball State), two former standouts at current MAC schools, went to Hollywood and have made numerous television and movie appearances.

MAC student-athletes are regularly selected to the GTE Academic All-America teams. In the last six years alone, MAC student-athletes have received Academic All-America honors 82 times. Since the Academic All-America program was established 20 years ago, MAC football players have earned that distinction 38 times. Five of the 48 Division I football players honored on the 1988 Academic All-America team were from MAC schools.

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by Doyt Perry, the former player, coach and administrator at Bowling Green State University.

In January of ’88, he learned that he would be an inductee into the National Football Foundation’s College Football Hall of Fame.

In October, when Bowling Green hosted Miami at Doyt L. Perry Field, the man in whose honor the stadium was named was there for a special on-campus presentation by the National Football Foundation.

In December, Perry was in New York for the Foundation’s Hall of Fame Dinner. He was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame at Kings Island, OH, this past June.

Perry’s association with BGSU dates back almost 60 years when, as a student, he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, OH, native received his degree in 1932 and began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant football coach at Ohio State University in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater as head football coach in 1955. The next 10 years, he led the Falcons to a 77-11-5 record for a winning percentage of .855, topped only by Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy of Notre Dame. His teams won five MAC Championships and the national college division championship in 1959.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU’s athletic director for six years, developed such outstanding coaches as Jim Young of Army, Bill Mallory of Indiana, Don Nehlen of West Virginia, Larry Smith of Southern California, the late Dave McClain of Wisconsin and Bowling Green’s own Moe Ankney.

BG-UT Game Hits Home For 14 Falcons

Falcons From Toledo Area Talk of Rivalry

by DON HENSLEY
BGSU Sports Information Office

It’s more than just a game — it’s THE GAME.

Whenever Bowling Green and Toledo get together to renew their annual rivalry, there is usually plenty on the line for both teams.

In the past, the game has usually been a factor in deciding the Mid-American Conference title, and this year promises to be much of the same as the two teams come into the contest in a deadlock for second place.

But, if the Falcons have one thing in common with the Rockets in the “Backyard Brawl,” it is in the amount of players from Toledo that play for Bowling Green.

Currently, the Falcons have 14 players on the roster who hail from the Toledo area, and because of the proximity of the two schools, many of the players were recruited by both Dan Simrell and Moe Ankney.

“I was recruited by both schools,” BG freshman tailback LeRoy Smith (Toledo Whitmer) said. “But, I decided to come to BG because I thought it had more to offer.”

The intensity of the rivalry is something that can be felt almost from the moment the athlete steps into the BG football complex for the first time.

Hanging on Ankney’s wall is a sign which tells the five goals each Falcon gridder should have before starting his career in a BG uniform.

The sign reads:

1. Each player should earn a college degree.
2. Continue the winning tradition.
4. Win the California Raisin Bowl.
5. Each player becomes the best he can be as a student, an athlete, and a person.

So, it’s no surprise that new recruits learn of the rivalry in a hurry.

“I figured it was a big rivalry before I even got here,” BG linebacker Charles Dotson (Toledo Waite) said. “Even when I was red-shirted my first year, I still felt the emotion and intensity from the other guys.

“But, you never really realize the intensity until you are put in the situation of competing against your arch-rival.”

For a few of the Falcons though, they knew of the rivalry on the day they were born. Especially in the case of junior tackle Matt Kregel (Toledo Central Catholic) and freshman center Lee Boyer (Anthony Wayne).

In the case of Kregel and Boyer, they were influenced by their fathers’ direct participation in the UT-BG rivalry.

Kregel — who’s father lettered three years for the Rockets — can remember his dad talking of the rivalry, but when it came time to decide on which school to go to, it was all Matt’s decision.

“My dad went to Toledo and played for the Rockets, but he never tried to influence my decision,” Matt said. “Once I decided to attend BG, he was very supportive.”

For Lee, the story was a little different.

His father, Chet, was the second generation of Boyers to play for BG following in the footsteps of his father, Rodney. For Lee, it didn’t take him long to see what “The Game” meant to his family.

“The week of the game, my dad would start going crazy,” he said. “He would let everyone know who was going to win. And when we went to the game, he would be dressed in his Brown and Orange.

“But, now that I’m here, I can see why he got so fired up. It’s the “Backyard Rivalry” and there’s so much tradition.”

It is the tradition that makes this matchup what it is for the spectators, but on the field, it means more than just tradition.

BOWLING GREEN OFFENSE: The Falcon offense put on quite a show at Ohio, especially on the ground. BG racked up a season-high 216 yards rushing while leading another 132 yards through the air. Freshman tailback LEROY SMITH, the MAC’s fifth-leading rusher with 826 YPG, rushed 22 times for 79 yards and two TDs at OU. Fullback RON VISCOUNTE ran four yards for an insurance TD late in the game that is second in the MAC behind BG. Toledo is averaging 217.8 yards per game rushing and passing for another 123.4. UT is second in the MAC in total offense (341.2 YPG). Melfi has completed 87-of-141 passes for 1010 yards and seven TDs. He has been intercepted seven times, as well. Flanker Rick Isaiah leads the conference with 32 receptions (4.4 CPG) for 373 yards and three TDs. Tight end JERRY EVANS has 14 receptions for 192 yards while sophomore TE CHARLES GROTH (1975-78) stands second with 138 Yds. His 115 catches are third in the MAC behind BG. Dowdell (1981-84) stands second with 32 catches. Thornton is fourth in career receiving yards, his career total now at 2,005. He needs 213 yards to catch Jeff Groth (1975-78) in second place. His 115 catches rank sixth on the career list. With 134 career receptions for 1,881 yards, Thornton is two catches away from third place and four shy of second on BG’s all-time list. Mark Dowdell (1981-84) stands second with 138 catches. Thornton is fourth in career receiving yards, 119 yards from joining Heard at the 2,000-yard plateau.

—BG—

BOWLING GREEN DEFENSE: The Falcon defense played perhaps its best game of the season at Ohio, or at least its best quarter. BG yielded 352 yards, including 212 on the ground. But many of the Bobcats’ second-half yards came against BG’s prevent defense late in the game. When the Falcons made their move in the third quarter, the defense did its job. Tackler DERRICK CARR led the defensive effort, making 10 tackles, including six solos and one for a three-yard loss. He also hurled one pass and caused an Ohio fumble. Linebacker LARRY LAMBRIGHT BG’s leading tackler with a 12.2 average, made 14 tackles against Ohio, including 11 solos. Linebacker CHARLES DOTSON was in on 12 tackles while TERRY WILSON, BG’s second-leading tackler with an 11.4 average, made 11 stops. JEFF ROTHINGHAUS, replacing the injured MARK ROSS, had five tackles.

—BG—

TOLEDO OFFENSE: Led by quarterback Mark Melfi, the Rockets feature a passing game that is second in the MAC behind BG. Toledo is averaging 217.8 yards per game rushing and passing for another 123.4. UT is second in the MAC in total offense (341.2 YPG). Melfi has completed 87-of-141 passes for 1010 yards and seven TDs. He has been intercepted seven times, as well. Flanker Rick Isaiah leads the conference with 32 receptions (4.4 CPG) for 373 yards and three TDs. Tight end JERRY EVANS has 14 receptions for 192 yards while sophomore TE CHARLES GROTH (1975-78) stands second with 138 Yds. His 115 catches are third in the MAC behind BG. Dowdell (1981-84) stands second with 32 catches. Thornton is fourth in career receiving yards, his career total now at 2,005. He needs 213 yards to catch Jeff Groth (1975-78) in second place. His 115 catches rank sixth on the career list. With 134 career receptions for 1,881 yards, Thornton is two catches away from third place and four shy of second on BG’s all-time list. Mark Dowdell (1981-84) stands second with 138 catches. Thornton is fourth in career receiving yards, 119 yards from joining Heard at the 2,000-yard plateau.

—BG—

TOLEDO DEFENSE: Toledo brings the MAC’s fifth-ranked defense to Perry Field. The Rockets are giving up 345.2 yards per game, 183.2 yards on the ground and 162.0 through the air. Toledo kept the Ohio and Ball State offensives under control in MAC play, but couldn’t stop Eastern Michigan’s high-powered offense last Saturday. Linebackers Dwayne Smith (67 tackles) and Roland Tatam (59) and safety DeWayne Fletcher (52) lead the Rocket tacklers.

—BG—

FOOTNOTING ZELLER: With his 37-yard field goal vs. Ohio U., BG’s JASON ZELLER notched his 33rd career field goal. He now shares second place on BG’s all-time list with Don Taylor (1972-75). Zeller has kicked at least one field goal in each of BG’s last six games, dating back to the last game of the ’88 season. He has also converted on all 53 of his career extra point attempts, good for a third place tie with Paul Siili (1985-86) for consecutive PATs. He needs two more to tie Gehad Youssif (1981-84) in second place.

Bowling Green
Their names are familiar, because they have made an impact on football at all levels of the game — high school, college, and professional.

They belong to the Falcons' Nest of Coaches, an organization created in 1984 for the purpose of promoting the proud tradition of Bowling Green Falcon football. Through the development of student and graduate-assistant programs at Bowling Green, most of these coaches got their start at this Mid-American Conference institution. They've studied and matured under the coaching philosophies of Warren Steller, Doyt Perry, Bob Gibson, Don Nehlen, Denny Stolz and Moe Ankney, to name a few. Today, they are making a name for themselves and for their respective football programs around the country. Though they may be miles apart, they share at least one thing in common. They are members of a fine football coaching fraternity at Bowling Green State University, the Falcons' Nest of Coaches.

Falcons Fans,
Get The Home Team Advantage

For years, your Northwest Ohio Marathon dealer has been a part of your community. He is proud to call his business his own. Proud to be part of the community.

Today, many oil companies have foreign ownership, but Marathon is 100% American owned and operated. That’s important to your Marathon dealer because he knows you are the person he has to please... not someone overseas.

That’s the home team advantage you get with Marathon.
More than 50 former Falcons have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, American Football League, World Football League, United States Football League or Canadian Football League.

Among them have been several players who have made significant contributions to their professional teams: players such as Bernie Casey '61, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960s; Bob Reynolds '63, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers '67, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker '51, an offensive end with the New York Giants; Phil Villapiano '71, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills; Mike Weger '67, a Detroit Lions defensive back; and Dave Preston '77, an all-purpose back with the Denver Broncos.

Currently, several former Falcons dot the rosters of professional teams. They include All-Pro center Doug Smith '78 with the Los Angeles Rams and defensive back Martin Bayless '84 of the San Diego Chargers. A 10-year NFL veteran as a player, Bob Schnelker '51 is in his 27th season of coaching in the NFL. He has been offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings since 1986. Ron Blackledge '60 is in his eighth year as offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

New to the NFL scene is Kyle Kramer, a fifth-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns earlier this year. Three former Falcons have been drafted as high as the second round — Bernie Casey by San Francisco (1961), Bob Reynolds by St. Louis (1963), and Phil Villapiano by Oakland (1971). Mark Miller was BG's only third-round pick (by Cleveland, 1978). Martin Bayless was tabbed in the fourth round by St. Louis (1984). And like Kramer, Jamie Rivers was selected in the fifth round by St. Louis (1967).

A list of former Falcons and their professional football experience follows:

Browne Named Ohio Professor of the Year

by LINDA SWAISGOOD & TERI SHARP
BGSU Public Relations Office

When it comes to teaching, Dr. M. Neil Browne just keeps on getting straight As! The BGSU economics professor’s latest honors: being named both the 1989 Ohio Professor of the Year and a Silver Medalist in the 1989 National Professor of the Year program.

Sponsored by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, both programs were created to recognize professors for the contributions they make to their disciplines and to the lives of their students. This year colleges and universities in 40 states and Canada nominated 518 professors for recognition.

It has been a banner year for Browne, who was named the 1989 Bowling Green State University Master Teacher in April. Sponsored by the University’s Alumni Association, the Master Teacher Award carries a $1,000 prize. In June, the University’s Board of Trustees gave Browne the title Distinguished Teaching Professor in recognition of his outstanding performance in the classroom.

Students who nominated him for the Master Teacher Award say he “goes above and beyond to make sure his students understand” and “he loves to teach and wants his students to learn.” Browne acknowledges that his success in the classroom may well be attributed to the fact that he admits he can’t do all things for all students.

But he spends a tremendous amount of time and energy working with his students because he believes that the way to get them to achieve is to show them that as a teacher and a human being “I’m doing everything I can to help you learn.”

Browne finds that students who seek him out at home or after hours are usually those who are really struggling in his courses. They’re the students, he says, who need reassurance that they are doing something right.

“I always tell them they are not bothering me. The fact that they come to me tells me that they want to learn,” he says.

In the classroom Browne practices a teaching strategy that challenges even the best students. “I try to teach them that they can be much better at thinking, speaking, reading and learning than they believe possible. The work level is heavy and my expectations are high. The students who have to be led step by step are sometimes left behind. But, at the same time, I let them know I am available to help them because they are a priority in my life.”

“To have even a chance to teach well you have to know yourself (what you hope to accomplish and how people perceive you) and you have to know about the development of your students—what’s going on in their lives. The students at Bowling Green are very diverse. Some are job-oriented; others have no occupation in mind and see a university education as a liberating device. Some are fully confident in a learning situation; for others, books and school are hurdles they have to overcome. What you do with these different kinds of students makes teaching an art form.”

Working with students at different levels of achievement and from different social and educational backgrounds lends an element of challenge and fun to the profession, says Browne. But the diversity of students also accounts for some failures.

“You can’t meet everybody’s needs. You may teach every student something, but you have to focus your teaching on certain ones, largely because of lack of time and know-how,” Browne says.

Teachers seldom, unfortunately, know the full impact they’ve had on their students, Browne acknowledges.

“Teaching is a lot like gardening,” he says. “You plant the seeds, but by the time the student blossoms, he or she is gone. The few alumni who remain in contact with you are the only access you have to the flower; you just have to keep telling yourself that what you are doing is worthwhile.”

Browne has taught economics at Bowling Green since 1968. He holds a bachelor’s degree from the University of Houston, a doctorate from the University of Texas and a law degree from the University of Toledo.

The author of numerous articles and reviews, he also has written or co-authored four books, including “Asking the Right Questions: An Informal Guide to Critical Thinking,” and “Modern Economics: Principles, Goals and Tradeoffs,” both published by Prentice-Hall. He frequently gives presentations on critical thinking and teaching as well.
Since 1964, the Bowling Green State University Falcon Club has been a driving force behind one of the nation's most successful athletic programs.

For the last 25 years, the Falcon Club has helped Bowling Green athletes achieve success in both intercollegiate sports and academic endeavors.

Although the Falcon Club's primary purpose is to provide financial support for the intercollegiate athletic program, members also enjoy a number of benefits and special programs. Among them are priority seating for football, basketball and hockey, pre- and post-game parties, luncheons, travel opportunities with Falcon teams, greens fees for BGSU's 18-hole Forrest Creason Golf Course, and priority parking in Falcon Club lots.

This year, the Falcon Club has already held its annual "Meet-The-Team" cookout just prior to the start of the football season. The 1989-90 hockey season began Friday night, and the start of the 1989-90 basketball season is not far behind. Falcon Club members will be active throughout the winter and spring, cheering on all of the Falcon teams.

Charles Nagle, associate athletic director, feels the Falcon Club has been growing in membership thanks to a very active and interesting calendar of events.

"Our annual membership drive got off to another great start last April with more than $165,000 raised in cash and pledges," Nagle said. "We're excited about our calendar of events for the 1989-90 year. We've already enjoyed a trip south for the East Carolina football game. And of course, our Falcon Club tent has been filled with activity before and after our first three home football games."

The Falcon Club today bears little resemblance to the fledgling group of BGSU backers 25 years ago. For one thing, membership has grown from 137 members in 1964 to this year's goal of 1,800.

During the late 1960s, the Falcon Club grew within the framework of the University's Development Office, located at the time in the Alumni House, site of the BGSU Popular Culture Center today.

Throughout its history, the Falcon Club has looked for ways to expand its scope. In 1983, the Falcon Club of Toledo opened. A chapter in West Central Ohio, serving Lima and Wapakoneta, followed in 1984. Another chapter opened that same year in the greater Cleveland area.

"We continue to see growth and development in our regional chapters," said Nagle. "The Falcon Club of Toledo went through its sixth year of existence, maintaining over 250 members and reaching an all-time high in cash contributions. The Falcon Club of Greater Cleveland and the Falcon Club of West Central Ohio each completed their fourth year of existence, offering their members a number of special events, like organized trips to BG games, luncheons and more."

Bowling Green State University Athletic Director Jack Gregory believes, "The Falcon Club is an exceptional organization. It's bigger and better than ever, and we feel its potential for growth is unlimited. We're very pleased with all of the support we have received from Falcon Clubbers."

"Our recent successes in athletics and in the Falcon Club make us all feel proud to wear the Brown and Orange," Gregory added. "Each year, we face the challenge of maintaining our proud position through the dedicated efforts of our student-athletes, our coaches and administrators. It's good to know that we have the support of the Falcon Club members. They enable us to set and reach our very ambitious goals at Bowling Green State University."

THE FALCON CLUB NEEDS YOU!

To All Falcon Fans:

You are the key to success for our Falcon teams! The BGSU Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $248,000 in 1989. This money will help fund athletic grants-in-aid, assist in the recruiting of prospective student-athletes, and provide funding for athletic facilities budgets.

Members of the Falcon Club are alumni, parents, friends and fans who provide financial support, volunteer hours and advisory expertise to the BGSU athletic program and share in the many benefits the Falcon Club has to offer.

The Falcon Club has ambitious goals for 1989 and is eager to involve YOU in our activities. The need to support our program is at an all-time high. Your financial contribution and BGSU's athletic program are a winning combination.

We are very proud that Bowling Green's athletic program is recognized as one of the best in the country. All of our 19 teams are highly competitive and very representative. Falcon Club membership offers you the opportunity to support these teams. Falcon Club donations have greatly aided our program, and to continue that winning tradition throughout the 1989-90 campaign will require another supreme Falcon Club effort.

I look forward to having you join the Falcon Club in 1989!

Sincerely,

Charles F. Nagle
Associate Athletic Director

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

An aerial view of the Bowling Green State University campus.

Bowling Green State University offers a range of educational opportunities expected in a large university, yet retains the personalized small-school atmosphere of its early years.

When Bowling Green Normal School opened its doors in 1914, there were 15 faculty members and all 158 students were studying to be teachers. Today, the University has nearly 720 full-time and 200 part-time faculty and 17,800 students on its main campus. Degree programs are offered through the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Education and Allied Professions, Health and Human Services, Musical Arts, Technology, and the Graduate College. Within the undergraduate colleges are Schools of Art, Mass Communication, Nursing, and Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

The University offers more than 170 undergraduate degree programs, 75 master’s degree programs and has 14 departments granting doctoral degrees in 53 specialty areas.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University’s Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor’s degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,200 students.

Fully accredited at the highest state, regional and national levels, the University has chapters of most national academic honor societies, including Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Bowling Green is also a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

The University’s faculty members, 82 percent of whom hold the highest degree in their fields, include Fulbright Scholars, authors and nationally known researchers. The caliber of the faculty is reflected, too, in the number of academic programs which are regionally and nationally recognized, including the chemistry department which hosts an Ohio Eminent Scholar in Photochemical Sciences. The Ohio Eminent Scholar program was created by the Ohio Board of Regents to attract world class scholars to the state’s universities.

Committed to teaching, faculty are scholars as well, generating new knowledge through independent research and involvement in University units such as the Population and Society Research Center, the Center for the Study of Popular Culture, and the Social Philosophy and Policy Center. Bowling Green is also the site of the National Drosophila Species Center and the Mid-America Stock Center—the largest scientific facilities of their kind in the world—where University faculty assist in supplying some 400 species of fruit flies to scientists involved in genetics and cancer research around the globe.

The University’s students come from throughout the United States and nearly 60 foreign nations. While most students are between the ages of 18-22, the number of those older than 25 is increasing. During the spring term of the 1988-89 academic year, there were more than 2,700 “non-traditional” adult students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate degree programs on a full- or part-time basis.

The focal point of the 1,250-acre campus is the nine-story Jerome Library, with its collection of more than 4 million items, including 1.5 million books plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials. Special sections of the library include the Center for Archival Collections which houses materials relevant to northwest Ohio history and the Sound Recording Archives with 400,000 recordings. The Institute for Great Lakes Research, located in Perrysburg, contains an extensive collection of materials on the shipping industry’s past and present.

The University is continually refurbishing its more than 100 existing buildings and upgrading facilities to meet current needs. An example is the recently completed $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building. A major renovation of Williams Hall, home of the history, sociology and political science departments, was completed in 1988. Upcoming renovation projects include Shatzel Hall and Overman Hall. Also, numerous computer facilities have been installed and upgraded throughout campus.

VISIT US AFTER THE GAME!
When Dr. Paul J. Olscamp became Bowling Green State University's eighth president in 1982, he charted a course that would move Bowling Green into the ranks of the country's most important national educational resources. The effort, he said, would be an unrelenting commitment to excellence in teaching, research and service at the University. Indeed, he adopted the slogan "An Environment for Excellence" to describe his hopes for Bowling Green.

Since then, everything the energetic Olscamp has done at Bowling Green has been aimed at fulfilling that vision. Early in his administration, Olscamp and the faculty outlined the task to be done in a 27-goal document called the Role and Mission Statement. Most of the goals centered on improving the quality of undergraduate and graduate students, the academic programs, the learning environment and the faculty and its resources.

Now, as Olscamp begins his eighth year at Bowling Green, many of the Role and Mission Statement's original goals have been met and Faculty Senate's Committee on Academic Affairs has assigned new priorities including the recruitment of minority faculty and students and greater emphasis upon research production.

More than any other president in Bowling Green's history, Olscamp has sought to fully involve the faculty in University governance. Faculty now have an important role in developing the annual budget and share authority with the president in interpreting the University's Academic Charter. Before the change, only the president had that power. The faculty also have greater control over the curriculum and development of new academic programs.

Olscamp brings a personal touch to the presidency and frequently hosts students for breakfast at his home, eats with them in campus dining halls and attends as many student events as his schedule permits. In the past five years he has hosted more than 575 faculty at a series of "fireside talks" at the president's home. During the academic year he holds weekly forums for students wanting to discuss campus issues.

Highlighting The Olscamp Administration

A great deal has happened at Bowling Green since Dr. Olscamp arrived on campus eight years ago. With the support of the Board of Trustees and the assistance of dedicated faculty and staff, there have been many important accomplishments. Some of those include:

Academic Programs
- Creation of Bowling Green's first endowed professorships, in management, finance, chemistry and philosophy.
- Development of the Center for Photochemical Sciences, the only one of its kind in the country. Photochemistry is a multi-billion dollar growth industry and some key research for that industry is being conducted at Bowling Green.
- Winning Ohio Eminent Scholar positions in photochemical sciences and applied philosophy.
- Addition of doctoral programs in applied philosophy and photochemical sciences; the 13th and 14th Ph.D. offerings at Bowling Green.
- Increasing to 53 the number of National Merit scholars enrolled, the most ever in University history and a figure that will place Bowling Green in the top 25 percent in the country.
- Establishing the University's first major scholarships for minority students.
- A network of more than 20 microcomputer labs throughout the campus, including labs in each residence hall, as part of an effort for all students to have a background in computer usage by the time they graduate.
- Securing more than $4.4 million from the Ohio Board of Regent's Selective Excellence Programs, which are designed to attract the world's top scholars to Ohio, conduct pioneering research and develop centers of excellence on the state's campuses. Eminent Scholars have been awarded in both the sciences and the humanities, which reflect a remarkable breadth of scholarship.
- Increasing library holdings to more than 4 million items, including 1.6 million books, plus journals, periodicals, microforms, government documents and other materials.

Physical Plant
- Nearly $66 million in state capital improvement funds for renovation and new construction projects.
- Completion of $7.2 million Physical Sciences Laboratory Building in 1984.
- A $3.65 million addition to the Business Administration Building completed in 1988.
- A $9.1 million addition to the Fine Arts Building scheduled to get underway in the next 18 months.
- Major renovation and refurbishing of existing campus buildings including Williams, Overman, Hayes and Shatzel halls. Construction of a $2 million office building to house faculty and staff temporarily displaced by renovation projects and later to be used for permanent offices.

University Finances
- Growth in the University endowment from $1.9 million in 1982 to more than $20 million by the end of 1989.
- Creation of an internal endowment fund of $4 million from various University reserves. The balance is approaching $8 million and is expected to reach $10 million in three years. Interest on the $10 million principle will be used to supplement the academic budget.
- Developing a plan that restructures debt service obligations and is projected to result in a $35 million principle in 11 years. Interest on that amount, which could approach $3 million annually, will go toward the academic budget.
- Most successful fund raising drive in University history. With the assistance of the development and alumni office, the 75th Anniversary Fund raised more than $15 million in three years; well above the $12.5 million goal. Donations included the University's first two $1 million gifts—from the Stranahan Foundation of Toledo for the Social Philosophy and Policy Center and from Harold and Helen McMaster of Perrysburg for the McMaster Leadership Institute. In 1988 the Stranahan Foundation awarded a $3 million grant to the Social Philosophy and Policy Center.

...1988, 1989 NCAA All-American

When, in the year 2000, historians look back upon 85 years of intercollegiate athletics at Bowling Green State University, they'll stop and take a second look at the 1980s. Bowling Green sports teams of the 80s have achieved a level of success matched by few.

In all, Bowling Green teams have won 23 conference titles the last nine years, 18 in the Mid-American Conference and five in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association. Eighteen teams have gone on to post-season play in the NCAA, NIT and California Bowl.

Each of the 19 sports at Bowling Green has enjoyed success in the 1980s. Here is a brief look at the “Winning Tradition” of the Bowling Green Falcons...

BASEBALL — Coach Ed Platzer’s Falcons tied the best start in the 72-year history of the sport by beginning the 1989 season with a 14-2 record that included a shutout win over NCAA tournament participant Michigan. BGSU can boast about one of the finest college baseball facilities in the region, Steller Field. The Falcons are also a MAC leader in producing future professional players. Roger McDowell helped pitch the New York Mets to the World Series Championship in 1986, while Orel Hershiser did the same in 1988 with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

MEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Jim Larrañaga has built a solid foundation that should produce a Mid-American Conference championship contender in 1989-90. Strong recruiting classes the last three years and an exciting up-tempo brand of basketball have made venerable Anderson Arena once again “The House That Roars.” Historically, BGSU leads the MAC in post-season appearances and victories.

WOMEN’S BASKETBALL — Coach Fran Voll, the two-time Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year, has led the Falcons to three-straight MAC Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances.

Soaring Falcons!
Bowling Green Is A 1980s Success Story

BG has ruled the MAC with a 46-2 league record the last three years. A MAC record crowd of 4,100 flocked to Anderson Arena for BG’s NCAA Tournament victory over Cincinnati last March. With two starters returning, including two-time All-MAC center Angie Bonner, Voll’s Falcons figure to remain a MAC power in 1989-90.

CROSS COUNTRY — Highly-respected Sid Sink, who ran his way into the national limelight as an athlete at Bowling Green in the 1970s, has maintained that winning tradition as head men’s and women’s cross country coach in the 1980s. Sink was a 10-time All-American at BGSU as an athlete. Now as a coach, he has guided the Falcon women to four Mid-American Conference CC titles in nine years. His 1989 men’s and women’s teams both are likely contenders for MAC honors.

FOOTBALL — Bowling Green has the second-best record in the Mid-American Conference this decade, as the Falcons have finished either first or second in the league standings six of the last seven years. The Falcons have won two MAC titles and made two trips to the California Bowl since 1980. BG also holds the MAC single-game attendance record of 33,527 at Doyt Perry Field. Coach Moe Ankney’s 1989 squad features two-time All-MAC receiver Reggie Thornton and 16 other returning starters.

GOLF — Coach Greg Nye’s men’s and women’s golf teams play on some of the most challenging courses in the country against some of the top teams in the nation. The BGSU men regularly travel to Florida and the Carolinas for their annual spring tune-up. The Falcons have won four Mid-American Conference Championships and made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 19 years. The Falcon women annually compete with the very best teams in the Midwest.

GYMNASTICS — Year in and year out, Coach Charles Simpson fields a MAC title contender and the 1988-89 season was no different. BGSU set a new standard with a 180.5 team score during the season, the first time in the history of the program BGSU has bettered 180 points, while continuing to be a threat for league honors. The Falcons have qualified as a team for post-season competition four of the last six years.

HOCKEY — One of the most consistent programs over the last few years has been the hockey program. Under head coach Jerry York, BGSU has become a most attractive place for a hockey player to continue his pursuits. Among the many accomplishments has been a national championship, the University’s first, in 1984, berths in three straight national tournaments, eight straight trips to Joe Louis Arena for the CCHA Finals and four regular-season league titles. In all, the Falcons have won seven conference titles and appeared in eight NCAA tournaments.

The Falcon booters also captured the 1988 Kwik Goal/BGSU Soccer Cup for the third-straight year. BG players have earned All-American honors seven times, the most recent being Jon Felton, while Kyle Royer became the first bootee to earn Academic All-American honors following the 1988 season.

SOFTBALL — Head Coach Jacquie Joseph begins her second year with the Falcons, after making an impressive debut last spring. Coaching a young and inexperienced squad, Joseph proved to be a patient and able leader, molding her players into a very competitive unit in the Mid-American Conference. The outlook for the 1990 season is bright, with the return of all but one starter from the ‘89 team.

SWIMMING — Coach Brian Gordon, MAC Co-Coach of the Year in 1988, has continued a rich swimming tradition as he approaches his third season of coaching both the men’s and women’s teams in 1989-90. The Falcon women have made winning a habit in the 80s. It began with the MAC Championship in 1980-81 and has continued with no worse than third-place finishes in successive years. This winter, the men will host the MAC Championship at beautiful Cooper Pool, one of the country’s finest swimming facilities.

VOLLEYBALL — Coach Denise Van De Walle’s Falcon volleyball team has earned a spot as one of the top programs in the MAC. Bowling Green has steadily improved its standing in the league under Van De Walle including a runner-up finish in 1987 that earned the Falcon coach MAC Co-Coach of the Year honors. BGSU is looking for more of the same to close out the 80s as they return eight letterwinners who concluded the 1988 season with wins in eight straight matches.

Athletic Fitness Center Aids All BG Teams

One of the most ambitious athletic department facility improvements in recent years took place on the west side of Doyt L. Perry Field, with the addition of the $300,000 Athletic Fitness Center.

The 5,800-square foot fitness center is striking in appearance and quite functional. Since its opening in the summer of 1988, the BGSU Athletic Fitness Center has already been instrumental in helping Falcon student-athletes reach their potential for strength and conditioning.

The facility offers everything from free weights and Nautilus equipment to an open mat area for general fitness and agility exercises. Office space, restrooms and lockers are also available.

All 19 BGSU intercollegiate teams now have access to the fitness center from morning till night. Athletes are supervised and instructed by Joey Batson, the University's first strength and conditioning coach.

Batson Fills Vital Role As Strength & Conditioning Coach

Since coming on board earlier this year as Bowling Green State University's first strength and conditioning coach, Joey Batson has played a key role in assisting Falcon athletes in the BGSU Athletic Fitness Center.

Batson came to the University from Clemson University, where since 1985 he worked as an assistant strength and conditioning coach under Director Gary Wade.

"We are very pleased to have Joey Batson in our department," said BGSU Athletic Director Jack Gregory. "Under his direction, our student-athletes are receiving knowledgeable guidance and direction in their strength and conditioning programs.

In the short time Batson has been on campus, he’s been encouraged by what he’s seen.

"There is a lot of enthusiasm among all of the athletes and coaches," said Batson, 28. "The opportunity is here to develop a good program. The weight facility has been improved, and that shows the interest is there. With a lot of hard work and consistency, we should see a lot of improvement in the performances of our student-athletes."

As assistant strength coach at Clemson, Batson worked under Wade to implement in-season and off-season weight training programs for the Tiger football team. Batson also designed and implemented programs for Clemson's baseball, swimming, volleyball, and men's and women's basketball teams.

During his stay at Clemson, the Tiger football team won two Atlantic Coast Conference Championships and had three strength team All-Americans.

Wade said of Batson, "He was my right hand for four years and had a great deal to do with the success of our program. Joey is a very knowledgeable instructor, who is really concerned about the progress of each and every athlete."

Batson holds a master's degree in education from Clemson. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Newberry (SC) College in 1985. He was a three-year football letterman and co-captain at Newberry.

A native of Greenville, SC, Joey is married and his wife's name is Susan.
Since his appointment eight years ago as athletic director, John C. (Jack) Gregory has set a standard of excellence designed to place Bowling Green State University on equal terms with today’s elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

In his first seven years at Bowling Green, Gregory has challenged his staff of administrators, coaches and classified workers to settle for nothing less than the very best. His challenge has resulted in some of the finest moments in the history of intercollegiate athletics at BGSU — moments such as:

- the 1984 NCAA Division I Ice Hockey Championship;
- 12 Mid-American Conference regular season championships in football, men’s and women’s basketball, softball, women’s cross country, gymnastics, and men’s golf;
- two California Bowl appearances;
- three MAC post-season tournament championships;
- three Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular season championships;
- one CCHA post-season tournament championship;
- 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in hockey, basketball, softball and gymnastics, including a MAC record five appearances in the last two years and seven in the last three years;
- three home NCAA events last two years in hockey, softball and women’s basketball, the most ever for a MAC member over a two year period;
- and the 1987-88 Jacoby Trophy, awarded annually to the MAC school with the best overall record in women’s sports.

Gregory came to Bowling Green during one of the most difficult periods in the school’s 72 years of intercollegiate athletics, a time when BGSU and the MAC were fighting for NCAA Division I-A status in football. Behind Gregory’s leadership, the football program attained 1-A status.

During Gregory’s tenure here, BGSU has proven to be a marketing and promotions leader. Record crowds have attended Falcon football, hockey and women’s basketball games. Crowds have swelled, too, in sports like soccer, volleyball, gymnastics and softball. In 1983, 33,527 fans packed Doyt L. Perry Field to witness the annual college football classic between Bowling Green and Toledo. BGSU and MAC single game attendance marks fell that afternoon. Two years later, the Falcons drew a record 112,110 fans for five home games, giving BGSU the second-largest average attendance (22,422) in MAC history. In 1987, Bowling Green set still another MAC attendance record by playing in front of 84,574 fans at Penn State.

Sell-out crowds for BGSU hockey games are also a tradition, making game tickets the hottest item in town each winter. This year, the BGSU Ice Arena will attract even larger crowds; an additional 1,700 seats have been added to the north end of the arena.

With the growing interest in TV sports programming, Gregory has aggressively negotiated for live television coverage of BGSU sports events. Last year, Falcon football, basketball and hockey all attracted live TV coverage. The 1989-90 year promises more of the same. Falcon football and basketball will be seen again around the country as part of the MAC Game of the Week on Master Video Productions, while Falcon hockey will continue to play in front of a national TV audience as part of the CCHA Game of the Week on Pro-Am Sports.

Gregory, 61, has also been instrumental in the record-breaking development of the Falcon Club, the University’s official athletic department booster club. Recent membership drives have encompassed the Toledo, Cleveland and west central Ohio areas, resulting in unparalleled growth in cash and pledges. The Falcon Club has more than doubled its income and grown to such an extent that it compares favorably with any athletic support organization in the country.

Still, Gregory understands the integrity of college athletics depends on the continued emphasis of the “student” in student-athlete. In that regard, he appointed a director for academic and regulatory affairs in 1984, the first such appointment in the MAC. Today’s student-athlete is offered every opportunity for a fulfilling educational experience at BGSU. Many student-athletes have earned academic honors, such as the 134 BGSU scholar-athletes with grade point averages of 3.0 or better in 1988-89. In just the last three years, 11 BGSU scholar-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans, an uncommon distinction among MAC schools.

A 1952 graduate of East Stroudsburg State College and holder of a master’s degree from Temple University, Gregory came to Bowling Green from Yale, where he served for four years as associate athletic director.

Gregory began his professional career in 1952 as a teacher and coach at William Penn High School in New Castle, Delaware, and later at P.S. DuPont High School in Wilmington, Delaware. In 1959, he returned to East Stroudsburg as head football coach and assistant professor of physical education. One of the most successful coaches in the school’s history, Gregory was inducted into the East Stroudsburg Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 1983.

Gregory was named assistant football coach at the U.S. Naval Academy, and, in 1967, he was named head football coach at Villanova University. In 1969, he moved to the University of Rhode Island, where he served as head football coach for seven years. In his 25 years on the high school level and at East Stroudsburg, Villanova and Rhode Island, Gregory’s teams compiled a record of 132-69, including four undefeated seasons and seven league championships. He was twice selected as NAIA Coach of the Year, twice selected as Pennsylvania Coach of the Year and was named NCAA District Coach of the Year.

Gregory was lured away from coaching in 1976 by the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League and served in the personnel department for three years before moving to Yale.

Jack and his wife, Peg, reside in Bowling Green and are the parents of two sons and one granddaughter.
Today's Halftime Show

1989 FALCON MARCHING BAND

With the sights, sounds, and smells of Autumn, the Falcon Marching Band extends its warmest greetings to all returning Alumni to this year's Homecoming festivities. And, as always, if it's Homecoming, that means that the ALUMNI MARCHING BAND has returned to Doyt L. Perry Stadium. With "starch in their arch" and "feet on the beat," these TIGERRRS of old take to the field, once again, for the renewing of acquaintances and the annual Alumni Marching Band Performance.

At halftime, the Falcon Marching Band recognizes the jazz-rock group "Chicago" with a musical salute of the group's greatest hits. Since its inception in the late 60s and early 70s, Chicago continues to crank out hit after hit with, what seems like, never-ending success.

Today's performance is based solely on the highlights of "Chicago!

The Falcon Marching Band opens with a driving medley that will include the tunes: "Free," "Saturday In The Park," "Just You and Me," and "25 or 6 to 4." The second segment of the show finds the band serenading the West stands with the popular ballad, "Colour My World," before moving back to the East with "Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is?"

Closing today's program is another medley that contains "Beginnings," "Hard To Say I'm Sorry," and "Make Me Smile." We hope that today's halftime show will make you smile, and if you know the lyrics, perhaps, sing. "Chicago" gave many of you alumni, the music to go to school by. We hope that some of what we play will conjure up some wonderful memories for you today.

Hello again, Falcon fans, and welcome to what promises to be an exciting day of college football at Doyt L. Perry Field.

Today's Bowling Green-Toledo game marks the 54th meeting of these two Northwest Ohio rivals, with BG holding the series edge, 28-21-4. Today's winner will own the Football Peace Pipe for another year.

Today's game also serves as the climax of BGSU's week-long Homecoming activities. It's been a busy week for the many students, university personnel and community supporters involved. Congratulations to these people and the Homecoming Committee for doing a fine job. And, congratulations and best luck to the 1989 Homecoming Court. At halftime of today's game, the King and Queen will be announced, so be sure to stay in your seat for this very special presentation.

Looking ahead, the 1989 Falcon home schedule concludes on November 4, when the Kent State Golden Flashes come to town for our Parents' Day game at Perry Field. Game time is 1:30 p.m. As always, group discounts are available. Just call me at the Athletic Promotions Office (372-7093) weekdays during normal business hours for more information.

Homecoming weekend also includes soccer and hockey action on campus. At 4 p.m. today, the Falcon soccer team takes on the University of Dayton at Mickey Cochrane Field. After the football game, why not stop by and watch the Falcons do battle with the Flyers. It's just a short walk away.

Over at the recently-expanded BGSU Ice Arena, the Falcon hockey team has begun its 1989-90 season against former Central Collegiate Hockey Association rival Northern Michigan. Tonight's 7:30 p.m. game concludes the weekend series. Be sure to listen for announcements regarding ticket availability for this and other Falcon hockey home games this season.

Remember, for ticket information on Falcon football, hockey or basketball, just call the Memorial Hall Ticket Office at 372-2762.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda Falcon and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU Cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and the winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is beheaded at the last home hockey and basketball games.

Why The Falcons?

The 1989 season marks the 62nd anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname, Falcons, after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the BG Sentinel-Tribune at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

Why Orange and Brown?

Burnt Orange and Seal Brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a woman's hat on a bus trip to nearby Toledo, OH. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' Head Coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to the BGSU campus in the 1940s, Brown borrowed the colors for his All-America Football Conference teams. The Falcons and Browns still share their colors today.

VARSTY BG CLUB SAYS
GO FALCONS!

ABOUT THE VARSITY BG CLUB
The Varsity BG Club is an exclusive organization open only to former Bowling Green State University varsity letterwinners, who, for a non-tax deductible contribution of $10 per year, can help operate the club and support BGSU athletics at the same time. Almost 500 former Falcon letterwinners were Varsity BG Club members last year. Again this year, the Varsity BC Club is offering a lifetime membership for $100; no other dues will ever be required. Lifetime memberships for those 65 and older are only $50.

The Varsity BG Club undertakes three major projects each year, the first of which is the spring Recognition Reception honoring the College Coach of the Year, the High School Coach of the Year, and the Special Recognition Award Winner. Then in July we will enjoy another Doyt Perry Golf Outing at the BGSU Forrest Creason Golf Course. Each fall, the annual Varsity BG Day festivities take place in conjunction with a Bowling Green football game. It’s a great day to return to campus and visit with former classmates and teammates.

We are looking forward to another big year for the Varsity BG Club and Falcon athletics, and all we need from you is your participation.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS
All active members of the Varsity BG Club will receive:
• Membership in an exclusive organization open only to BGSU varsity letterwinners.
• A list of special activities and programs, such as the ones described above.

Doyt L. Perry Field, with its 30,000-plus seating capacity, is celebrating its 23rd year as the home of Bowling Green State University football.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Field had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982.

One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Field holds the conference record for single-game attendance.

On October 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Field for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out arch-rival Toledo at Perry Field in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green’s season attendance to an all-time high 112,100, an average of 22,400.

Perry Field is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, equipment and training rooms, along with the Athletic Department offices. The west side received a face-lift two years ago. A physical fitness center/weight room opened its doors for all 19 intercollegiate athletic teams in the summer of 1988.

Also situated on the west side of Perry Field are the Falcon Club offices and clubhouse, the academic affairs office, the track and cross country offices, as well as maintenance and storage areas.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. Now in its 10th year of operation, the Stadium Club’s 106 theater-type seats, which are all sold, provide loyal BGSU fans with a fine view of the game. The President’s Box, located on top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for President Paul J. Olscamp and other supporters of Falcon football.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won almost 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 72-39-3 record in the 114 games played at Perry Field.

BGSU students are among the most vocal fans in the MAC.
Field. Over the last six seasons, Bowling Green is 23-6-1 at home for a .783 winning percentage.

A multi-purpose facility, Perry Field has also hosted concerts, NFL exhibition games, and major soccer tournaments.

Perry Field is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His teams were 161-35 over nine seasons and — Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and the Division 1-A list are above that figure. A .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, according to James Van Valkenburg, director of statistics for the NCAA, only two coaches on the Division 1-A list are above that figure — Knute Rockne at .881 (Notre Dame) and Frank Leahy at .864 (Boston College and Notre Dame).

Perry, 79, is as popular as ever in Bowling Green. He spends his winters with wife Loretta in Florida. Each summer, he entertains his friends and former players at a golf outing.

Known for his well-organized practices and attention-to-detail meetings, Perry never stopped thinking of ways to succeed. He was a winner in football and as a high school basketball coach. His basketball teams were 161-35 over nine seasons and his high school track teams won 70 county titles in nine years.

Alumni Service Award
Goes to Tom Liber

A former two-term president of the Bowling Green State University Alumni Board of Trustees has been selected to receive the Alumni Association's 1989 Alumni Service Award. It will be presented today during special pre-game ceremonies.

Thomas C. Liber, Class of 1967, now a resident of Massillon and an attorney, had a most distinguished undergraduate career at BGSU. President of the Junior Class in 1965-66 and president of the student body in 1966-67, he was a member of SIC SIC, Omicron Delta Kappa national leadership honorary, Phi Delta Theta fraternity, Anteans and was listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." In 1967, Liber received the President's Award as the "Outstanding Senior Man."

His involvement and leadership as an alumnus have been no less outstanding. As a Cleveland area resident in the mid-1970s, he was very involved in telefunds and personal fund raising for the Alumni Center and other Alumni Association projects. He then served two terms as president of the Alumni Board of Trustees during a critical period in the Association's growth and development following the Alumni Center dedication.

Director of Alumni Affairs and Associate Vice President Larry Weiss, says "The fact that Bowling Green is so fortunate to have its own alumni center facility is, in large measure, attributed to Tom Liber. He devoted countless hours of personal time to the project and, thanks to Tom, the Mileti Alumni Center now serves as home base for many outstanding alumni involvement programs that have been recognized nationally. We will be forever grateful to Tom for his many contributions."
