Bowling Green State University
Carol Singing

Students are invited to gather around the Christmas trees in front of the Administration building at 11:50 each day this week for ten minutes carolling. Each noon a different organization will form a nucleus for the carollers. Tuesday noon the Training School was in charge; Wednesday, the Men's and Women's Glee clubs; Thursday, the Inter-Sorority and Inter-Fraternity Council; Friday, the Music Department. Come and join the group and make the place ring.

Musical Notes

The Varsity Quartette which includes Floyd Gehres, first tenor, "Doc" Allenworth, second tenor, Howard Haise, baritone, Erich Koop, bass, sang a group of four songs at the Church of Christ, Sunday evening.

The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will do their traditional carolling on Wednesday evening. The singing will end with a social hour at the home of Mr. Fauley.

Y. MEN ENJOY SOCIAL "OUTING"

Over thirty college men enjoyed the social gathering sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night. The party opened with games in the Women's Gym under the leadership of Arthur Belding. But the feature of the evening was a treasure-hunt which involved not only the campus but most of Bowling Green including the dormitories and several sorority-houses. Four teams participated and succeeded in nearly killing themselves in search of a "treasure" which turned out to be a sack of Xmas candy. After breaths had been regained, refreshments were served, and all present voted a large bouquet of orchids to the cooks and to those responsible for the enjoyable gathering. Members should watch the bulletin-board for an announcement of the next meeting.

CHRISTMAS TEA

Last Sunday evening the Westminster Club of the Presbyterian Church had a very delightful tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Siebens. Following the tea a Christmas program was put on by the members of the Club. After the enjoyable time spent at the Siebens home the group went about singing Christmas carols to the shut-in members of the Presbyterian Church. This message of song every one seemed to be filled with more of the Christmas spirit.

A CHALLENGE

Atheist, agnostic, believer—hear! Two thousand years ago three wise men came out of the East and offered their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh to the child Christ. They brought these gifts with all humbleness and all devotion to the one power they believed finer and more beautiful than any other power in the universe. Twenty centuries later we have come once more to that season when we commemorate the birth of Christ and the offering of the gifts by the Magi. This year as in the year of Christ's birth we bring our gifts, but our gifts are not gold and frankincense and myrrh in the literal sense, they are the gifts within our souls.

Atheist, agnostic, believer—it matters not which you are but what gifts you have to offer to the power you believe greater than all else in the universe. You may call it Goodness, Beauty, Humanity, Christ—it matters not. If you can bring the gifts of character, of kindness, of tolerance, of the fine things of life then you walk with the Magi of long ago; but if your gifts are meager your way is through a starless night.

Gold and frankincense and myrrh—what gifts do you bring?—Holind.

Emerson Literary Meeting

"Books of Today" was the topic for the program of the Emerson literary society, Wednesday, Dec. 12. Dorothy Wolfe reviewed The Native's Return, by Louis Adamic; Sue Holman presented five modern poets, including Edna St. Vincent Millay, Carl Sandburg, John Mansfield, and Edwin Arlington Robinson. Anne Woestenburg described an English schoolmaster from Goodbye Mr. Chips, and Virginia Carlsten retold the most striking scenes of Connelly's Green Pastures as shown in Toledo recently.

Leonard Da Vinci will be the subject of the next special Emerson program on Jan. 9, and on Jan. 23, there will be a social gathering.

Christmas Decorations

A number of Christmas trees have been placed in front of the Administration building. A new feature is the string of thirty red and blue lights which extends from the top of the building to the outlying trees. The faculty and students planned these Christmas decorations.

COMMERCER CORNER

Many Quill-Type members enjoyed the program given Wednesday evening, Dec. 12, in the Practical Arts Building. Several musical selections were given by a trio composed of the Misses Daniels, Craven, and Pool. Miss Ogle told of her interesting trip to Spain, describing the people, the cities, and a bull fight which she attended. She brought articles to show the skill of Spanish people in handiwork, and pictures which showed many beautiful places in Spain. Mr. Knepper discussed a new automobile liability insurance plan in which every driver had to carry insurance, and the premiums to be paid in proportion to the number of accidents the driver had.

The following people were made members of Quill-Type: Misses Miller, Powell, Suter, Cooke, Showalter, Crockett, Kerruish, Park, and Messrs. McAulahin, Noonie, and Ditizer.

Kindergarten-Primary Club Has Christmas Party

The members of the Kindergarten-Primary Club enjoyed a delightful Christmas Party in the Kindergarten room of the Training School Wednesday evening. The room was decorated with blue and silver and also Southern Smilax shipped from Georgia especially for the occasion by the sister of our sponsor, Miss West. We were entertained by the club's Vested Choir who sang a number of Christmas Carols, in the candle lighted room. Lillian Hankel read a Christmas Story. A group of girls, who are practice teaching in the kindergarten, and Miss West presented a puppet show "Twas the Night Before Christmas." After a dainty lunch we all joined in singing a group of Christmas Carols.

About fifty members, including our sponsors, Miss West and Miss Roth, and other faculty members of the club attended. Reporters were received from Dr. and Mrs. Williams and Dr. and Mrs. Hoppes.

A Long Vacation

The Christmas vacation is admittedly too long. However, if it were shortened, the time between Commencement and the opening of the summer session would be lengthened. As it is, Commencement will be on June 10 this year and the summer session begins June 17. This gives time to get the buildings ready for summer students.

Foreign Language Club

The foreign language club met Dec. 3. The program concerned Christmas in other lands. It included four talks. Ruth Howell spoke on Christmas in Rome, Vurdam Crawford, Christmas in Germany, William Frank, Christmas in France, and Felicia Stafford, Christmas in Spain. Carols were sung in Latin by the quartette, composed of Josephine Herman, Elizabeth Ruth, Virginia Young, Rosemary Ketzenbarger. Evelyn Wentz sang a French lullaby. At the close of the program was a social hour.

Frosh" Sponsor All-College Dance

The Freshman club were hosts at an all-college dance last Saturday night. A large crowd flocked to the gym and spent the evening in dancing. Refreshments consisting of eggnog and cookies disappeared as quickly as they appeared. Congratulations to the Froshmen for a delightful evening.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dec. 19—Shatzell Hall Christmas dinner
Dec. 19—7:00 P. M. Meeting of Mathematics Club.
Dec. 20—Program of Christmas Music by the Music Department.
Dec. 21-2:00 P. M. Training School Christmas program in auditorium.

Notice

In the case of a short vacation the college authorities have been liberal in making it possible for students to get homes during the day school closed. Inasmuch as Christmas comes four days after classes end, one should find it necessary to be excused from classes.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES

Professor Crowley left Dec. 12 to attend a convention of the Industrial Arts Society at Peoria, Ill.
Dr. Hissong was in Columbus, Dec. 10, attending the meeting of the State Scholarship Examining Board which met in the State Department of Education offices.
Dr. Martin attended a meeting of chemists in Detroit, Dec. 14, where he took part in the discussion on electro-deposition of alloys.

Ridge Street News

All the grades in the Ridge Street school are planning a Christmas program to be given, Friday, Dec. 21. The parents have been invited to hear the program. The sixth grade is studying about Japan. They are collecting pictures and curios of that country.

The second grade had a very fine Indian exhibit. That grade invited all the grades to visit it. They had Indian pottery, blankets, baskets, arrow heads, and other Indian relics. The children composed a large Indian book. They wrote stories about Indian houses, foods, and clothing. The collection of Indian pictures were especially beautiful.

Greek Architecture

The six classes are studying about the Greeks. We learned about the Greek columns. There are three different types of columns. They are Doric, Ionic, and Corinthian. You can distinguish these columns from each other because the capitals are different. The Doric is the plainest of these three columns. You can distinguish the Ionic from the rest of the columns because it has a scroll-like adornment at the top. The Corinthian is leaf adorned. We carved examples of these columns out of soap. Tuesday, Dec. 11, we took a trip around Bowling Green to find examples of these Greek columns. The college has Doric columns and the postoffice also. Ionic columns are used on the U. B. church.

RADIAN AND POISED PERSONALITY

The staggering potentiality of scientific discovery and the pressing need for the clear-sighted and socially-minded personalities necessary for its intelligent control in the complex structure and continuously accelerating tempo of our society was forcefully presented in the two chapel addresses this week.

On Wednesday, Dr. Luther Gable discussed the great possibilities for which radium may be used, the vast power which may be developed from it, and after chapel, continued for over an hour before a group of over a hundred and twenty students present.

In his concluding remarks, Dr. Gable, stressed the correlated demand for intelligent control of this power and the need for a firmer moral character in those responsible for its use. This same theme was coincidentally continued on Thursday by Dr. William Chandler Covert, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, who expressed his belief that the potentialities we have as a result of scientific discovery.

Sunday evening at five-thirty the Skol girls who live at the house enjoyed a Christmas dinner given by their housemother, Mrs. Wentz. Frequent visitors of the masculine gender were also guests on this delightful occasion. For this festive affair the house was decorated with holly, mistletoe and a Christmas tree. After coffee was served we all gathered around the Christmas tree and exchanged small gifts. It was the perfect end of a perfect day, which included attending the delightful tea given by the Seven Sisters and the Christmas Cantata at the Presbyterian Church.

All we can say is a poinsetta to Mrs. Wentz and to the rest of you—a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Five Sister Flashes

The Five Sisters, pledges, and friends, anticipating the holidays, enjoyed a Christmas party at their home on E. Wooster street after the game Friday night. The house was decorated throughout with holly, evergreens, and gayety. It was certainly a grand climax to the game.

Last night the pledges entertained the members with a perfectly swell party. The Five Sisters appreciate the gifts and also the talent exhibited by their pledges.

The Five Sisters wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and we'll be seeing you next year.

Seven Sister Flashes

The Seven Sisters entertained the faculty sorority and fraternity members at an informal tea Sunday afternoon. The house was gaily decorated in the Christmas manner with greens and a tall tree. The tea table was beautiful with tall red tapers and deep red roses in low candelsticks and bowl. The Seven Sister candelabra with its tapers also helped light the room. Tea was poured by Miss Nielsen and our housemother, Mrs. Lantz.

In case we don't see you before Friday, here's wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and every thing that goes with it. And if you do make New Year's resolutions try not to break them until at least a week after Jan. 1.

Y. W. C. A. PARTY

The Y. W. C. A. members and sponsors had a royal good time at the party given by Mrs. Williams on December 13. Games were played under the direction of Ruth Griffith and Linda Dill. Groups were directed by Garnet Good in the making of pink and green jewel boxes for the girls of the Wood County Juvenile Home. Delicous refreshments were served by Mrs. Williams, aided by Mrs. Kohl, Mrs. Zaugg, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Stafford and Dr. Williamson.

On Monday evening, December 17, the Y. W. C. A. girls gave a short program at the Orphan's Home and presented their gifts.

Women's Debate Tournament

The Women's Debate Tournament will be held at Kent State College on Jan. 12. Invitations have been sent out to Ohio colleges and those of neighboring states for participants. The Bowling Green team is composed of Yvonne Steffani, Margaret Sheffer, Carolyn Carman, and Elizabeth Eidson.

Another month has rolled around bringing with it the birthdays of twelve more Shatzel Hall girls. Decorations of the month were carried out in the dimly lighted dining room. Another year of happiness is our wish for every girl honored.

Following the dinner hour Sunday the girls of Shatzel Hall were entertained with a program arranged by Miss Mary Ellen Wittenbrink. Virginia Sohn played a saxophone solo, Jean Wilsey played a flute solo, Jean Witt gave a reading, Dorothy Zeig and Margaret Halbert gave a specialty dance, and Dorothy Pace played a piano solo.

FALCONS WIN OVER KENT STATE, 41-36

Any one who missed the hardwood affair with Kent Friday night, Dec. 14, undoubtedly missed one of the most spectacular games in the history of Bowling Green State College. It was a battle from start to finish. The acme of spirit and pep was exhibited. Coach Landis is to be congratulated on the fine team that represents our College. The outstanding virtues of the Falcon quintet are that they work as a unit and make the breaks.

Of course, this was the first game of the season and Kent isn’t the toughest team on the schedule but if the team improves and this New Deal in teamwork and spirit stays with us, B. G. can go places. Kent controlled the tip off practically all the time with the use of a six foot, four inch center, but the local cage men were in there intercepting passes, working their plays with precision and really making good the breaks they received both on the offense and defense.

The starting line up for the Falcons was Lewis and Shafer at forward, Weber at center and Wallace and Albon at guard. Men substituted into the game were Conrad, Wilson, L. George, Hartman and A. Stevenson. Everyone of these men fitted into that fighting spirited combination.

Lewis caged the first points of the game, by intercepting a pass. His passing and dribbling was beautiful. Shafer made a lot of pretty shots. Wilson scored the winning basket and Shafer really clinched the victory by making two field goals. K. Weber’s and A. Stevenson’s work at the backboard was great. Weber tied the score in the first overtime period by sinking Lewis’ missed foul shot. Stevenson tied the game by tallying a free throw. Wallace and Albon did a wonderful job of holding down the scoring aces of the opponents. It was Conrads first game and it appears as if he will see a lot of service before the year is over.

Let’s keep up the pace fellows. You’ve set B.

W. A. A. SPORTS SUPPER

The W. A. A. held their annual fall sports supper last Monday. Impressive candle light initiation ceremonies were carried out, bringing 30 new girls into the organization.

The program included tap numbers by Marilyn and Virginia Ziegler and Dorothy Mercier. Florence Ertz gave a clever interpretation of Sally Rand’s fan dance. Margaret Hubert gave a reading.

W. A. A. awards were presented by Miss Emily Hartman. The highest possible, W. A. A. pin, was presented to Ione Blessing, president of the organization. Betty Boyer and Wanda DeMongeot received the B. G. sweater as well as the double chevron. Thaies Novis, Dorothy Nantell, and Hope Conrad also received double chevrons. Single chevrons were awarded to Thaies Novis. Edna Pierce and Margaret Hubert were awarded the W. A. A. emblem.

M. Millenc Gamber was in charge of the affair.
