SCIENCE SHOW DRAWS MAMMOTH CROWDS

The Science show held May 9 and 10 proved very successful and of interest to many. The names on the register totaled 1408 and 134 towns were represented on the list. Of courses these numbers did not include all of the large crowds for many did not register. Each person who came found a number of things to absorb his attention for the whole evening.

Course On Bible Origins Elicits Great Interest

With an enrolled attendance of more than forty students, the Westminster Club of the Presbyterian church closed its series of Forum lectures on “The Origin and Development of the Bible” last Sunday evening. The topic for the last meeting was “How Shall We Regard the Bible Today?” Dr. A. R. Siebens, pastor of the church, devoted almost the entire evening to the discussion of questions presented by the class.

The relationship between the Bible and science gave rise to more discussion than any other question. It was pointed out that since the Bible deals with the religious approach to the problems of life, we must not expect it to serve as a book for scientific guidance. Nevertheless, science and religion need not be regarded as incompatible because, at their best, both seek to know the truth and, in the words of the greatest Teacher, “the truth shall make you free.”

The progressive development of moral concepts within the Bible, from primitive ruthlessness to the Christian ideal, also came in for discussion. The contrast between the Old Testament attitude toward war and the New Testament gospel of love was used to illustrate this point.

Finally, the Bible was regarded as the best moral and spiritual guide for right living, both collectively and individually, that is available to mankind today.

The course was sponsored by Harold Ringer, president of the Westminster Club; Homer Schilling, president of the Young People’s S. S. Class; Margaret Newcomer, chairman of the Program Committee; Dr. C. C. Kohl, and Mrs. Maude Sharp.

GEE CLUB GIVES SPECIAL PROGRAM

The program of special music with which the high schools of the district are entertained was furnished by the Mens' Glee Club at assembly, May 15. The program consisted of some of the selections that were so much enjoyed in their concert with the addition of new numbers.

The whole club sang two sacred songs to replace the usual devotions and later sang negro spirituals. Their performance was well-liked. Frank Kunkle played two marimba numbers in an excellent style that he was repeatedly encored. The music by the Trumpet Trio and Varsity Quartette also received much acclaim.

Resolutions Adopted by Wesley Conference

Following is a summary of the resolutions adopted by the conference which should be of interest to every campus in Ohio:

1. Register opposition to certain bills designed to curb freedom of speech.
2. Urge study of the principles of the Cooperative Movement of America.
3. Declare in favor of economic security, social and racial justice, international peace, et al, and petition officials of the Methodist church to cooperate in attaining these ideals.
4. Endorses the program of Christian Youth Rebuilding the World and a nationwide peace demonstration tentatively set for November 11.

Some More On the Country Club Formal

Boy, does it ever make a fellow feel proud to say he goes to Bee Gee when the gang cooperates and works up an enthusiasm like they have over an all-school affair such as the Club Formal? Well, I'll say it does! Really, it's surprising what a bunch of heads can do when they get together (our hats off to the Manville St. students) Thanks for the hand!

Tickets for the Country Club Formal went on sale yesterday and will be on sale up to, and including, Monday, May 27th. (Please bring Activity Books to purchase tickets). The price is 50 cents per couple. Former students are eligible to come. Present students may have outside guests if they secure guest cards from Mrs. Sharp. Thanks for the help!

Delhi News

Well, well, I think all of us are almost sure that it has rained out. All the neophytes were glad that it rained on a certain Monday night, May 6. If it ever rained, it rained that night. For some reason the brothers seem to be good weather predicators. That was some second degree. I hear that it made several of the brothers sick. Ask the new brothers how they liked it. Better ask the Rajah.

Last Monday night twenty-four boys took the third degree. I think that all the boys are glad that the degrees are over.

Dean Dorm Girls Celebrate

Following the big parade Thursday afternoon in honor of Bowling Green University, the Dean Dormitory girls burst in upon their housemother, Mrs. C. H. Dean, and by 4:30 two car loads of merry girls were on their way to Sunset Park, where a wiener and marshmallow roast was enjoyed. Games were played and songs sung followed by another series of yells for B.

G. U. Those present were Mrs. Dean, Suntetals of the Maumee Church plan a Sunset meeting at the historic Urschel property on the Maumee

Church.

As one of the closing events of the year,

Phratra Sorority entertained their pledges

with pride to our three seniors, Margaret

Brangan, Mabel Cryder, Frances Batter-

son, Mabel March, Wanda Pelton, Ruth

Boland and Elenora Walther.

Those present were Mrs. C. H. Dean,

Marie Ketzer, Lenore Hoffman, Lorene

Ransbottom, Viola Delph, Margaret

Brangan, Mabel Cryder, Frances Batter-

son, Mabel March, Wanda Pelton, Ruth

Boland and Elenora Walther.

Presbyterians Plan Outing

As one of the closing events of the year,

Dr. C. C. Kohl's Young People's class and the Westminster Club of the Presbyterian Church plan to hold a meeting at the historic Urschel property on the Maumee

River next Sunday evening. A camp-fire supper will be a feature of the meeting.

Everyone interested in attending may make arrangements by notifying Miss Margaret Brangan at the church office. Transportation will be provided.

From the Training School

A downtown grocery store was visited by the second grade last Wednesday. They are now making a booklet which will tell the story of their grocery store. It will contain the things they do, the stories and poems they read, and the things they sell.

Everyone is also copying the slides which show how tropical fruits are raised and cared for.

Shatzel Hall News

The girls of Shatzel Hall welcome a new member to their list, Miss Dorothy Huber.

Miss Huber is taking three weeks of work following the close of her school.

Miss Florence Ernst was the week-end house guest of Miss Beatrice Hakes in her home at Fosteria.

Everyone is glad to see Miss Maureen

Jellison back after a week of illness.

Shatzel Hall was host to members of a Naturalista club from Toledo last Thursday noon.

The Misses Betty and Bonny Wyatt were the guests of Miss Annabel Lee at her home in Risinguns.

Williams Hall Knows

How To Say It

Visitors to President Williams' office

Friday were led to inquire about the beautiful vase of Talisman roses and purple statice and stocks. It was learned that the bouquet was a gift from the girls of Williams Hall in recognition of the honors that have come to the college. The courtesy is deeply appreciated and especially since it comes from Dr. Williams' namesake.

Seven Sister Flashes

Just by way of doing something different—a hobby of the Sevens—we arose bright and early last Saturday morning and went to City Park for a breakfast hike.

The hour was unusually early for most of us, but from the quantities of food consumed, it was evidently not too early to be hungry. Pictures not soon to be forgotten—Inez vainly attempting to stick to her dirt in the face of bacon and eggs—Petitee

Mary Hall on her hands and knees blowing life into the fire.

We'd like to take time here to point

with pride to our three seniors, Margaret

Foster, Mildred Lantz and Mary Hall. They are the only Seven Sisters to graduate this year and all three are to receive both thei

B. S. and A. B. We are very proud of them and we hope sincerely that they have all possible good luck.

3-K SPRING FORMAL

The 3 K Sorority cleverly transformed

the Women's Gym of Bowling Green State University into a silvery outdoor scene and used it as a setting for their annual spring formal last Saturday evening, May 18.

Forty couples danced beneath the midnight blue sky bedotted with silver stars to the melodious tunes of Bud Hopple's orchestra of Toledo.

The night scene was further accentuated

by a white picket fence in the background and park benches strewn around the edge of the dance floor; the room was made fragrant by the dropping branches of flowering dogwood which veiled the pillars. A silver candelabra bearing blue candles glazed on the punch table at the far end of the gym.

Faculty sponsors for the occasion were

President and Mrs. H. B. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Swanson, Miss Laura Heston, and Miss Margaret Yocum.

Phratra Phases

On Tuesday evening, the members of

Phratra Sorority entertained their pledges at a formal dinner in the Nookery. The color scheme was green and yellow, the sorority's colors.

After the dinner, the following girls were formally initiated into the sorority:

Helen Conant, Maxine Caughy, Margaret

Doty, Arretta Habel, Esther Hookway,

Geraldine Hosteller, Thelma Luke, Auda

McPherson, Janet Ogborn, Laura Gruey,

Freda Showaker, Mable Sauers and Eleanor

Pool. We are happy to welcome them, and n hope that they may "carry on" as successfull, as they have fulfilled their pledge duties.

English Class Show Results

The Pierrot and Columbine museum piece is finished. A set of slides made here by Mary Ellen Bauman, an FERA worker, are also finished for use in the department. They illustrate in two periods the first half and second half of the sixteenth century literature with special reference to the social and political literary leaders of the period.

The students are learning where to obtain illustrative material. Recently a request for some material on the Roman theatre brought from the New York City Public Library seventeen prints giving views which could not be obtained in any single volume on the subject. The material was sent without any guarantee and no expense except postage.

PURITY
This Extra “Bid” Fee

This is not an attack on any certain Fraternity, Sorority or Campus organization but a query on a policy much in vogue on our campus.

What should be done about charging an extra “bid” fee to gain admission to these so-called all-school dances or events. We have paid one $5 fee for student activities which now appears to only be a privilege to shell out another ten cents, pardon the ante has hit fifty cents.

If these events are not supported by student activity fund why advertise them as such? But if they are sanctioned by this fund should they not abide by the ruling, orchestra charges limited to $35 and consequently add no extra “bid” fee?

Where’s The Jones Boys?

Come on, Jones Boys, what’s the matter with you. We of the south side of Shatzel hall miss your nightly musical notes that used to ensue from your nightly trumpets. That is, the songs as well as taps. But we so appreciate the tones you have given us in the long, long ago (so it seems.) Thanks.

Where Is The Flag?

When this is a state university the flag should be on the flag-pole everyday. How about it Supt. Ronk? We’d like to see the flag daily.—A Freshman.

GOLF TEAM WINS

Falcons Defeat Findlay in Second Match of Season

The Bowling Green State Falcons won their second golf match of the season by defeating Findlay college in a match at the Findlay country club Tuesday afternoon. The Falcons scored 13 points to five for the Findlay team.

Red Stevenson carded a 40-44 for an 88 winning two points from Redding whose card showed 46-43 for an 89. Dick Wallace was the low man for the day by turning in a card of 41-42 for an 83 to win three points from Clapper who had a 46-47 for a 93. Stevenson and Wallace won three points in best ball match from the Findlay pair.

Kinney of B. G. won 2½ points from Boedy when he shot a 46-41 for 87 against a 46-44 for 90. Fenstermaker was the only Falcon to lose as he carded a 46-45 for a 93 against 47-44 for 91 for Bates of Findlay. However, Kinney and Fenstermaker won three points in best ball match from the Findlay pair.

Falcon Net Men Win Two

The Falcons recently scored a four to two victory over the Toledo U netmen and followed with a six to nothing victory over the Defiance college team last week. These two victories added more laurels to the Falcons fine tennis record for the season. Jones, Conrad, Callin, Panning and Lewis compose the strong Falcon team.

Tennis Tournament

The drawings for the tennis tournament are posted on the cork board in the gym. Find your opponent and get the matches played off this week. We only have a few entries for the mixed doubles, so will give you this week yet to sign up. Remember, you get a medal if you win!

Inter-Sorority Tournaments

An inter-sorority archery tournament was held last Thursday, May 16. Each sorority was represented by a team of three girls, and a Senior Bee Gee of six ends of three arrows at twenty yards and six ends at thirty yards was shot. The tournament was won by the Skol sorority team of Stefani, Cramer, and Dill. Pauline Harrison had the individual high score.
