Going to Army Air School

Aerial Cars

For the convenience of fat folks who have ten o’clock classes on the third floor of the Administration building and eleven o’clock classes on the third floor of the Library building, Amos and Andy cars are suggested. One Who Knows.

ALUMNI HEAR CANFIELD

SPEAK AT BANQUET

One hundred and three alumni and friends of Bowling Green State University gathered in Shatzel hall for the annual Alumni banquet last Saturday evening. Ralph Schaller, ’22, acted as toastmaster in a most capable and humorous manner during the program of talks. President Ivan Lake welcomed the graduating class into the association and the responses were made by Eileen Lackey and Howard Berry for the sophomores and seniors. C. C. Stough, ’20, spoke briefly.

Rep. Don Canfield, Wood county’s member in the General Assembly and co-author of the measure making Bowling Green a University, spoke highly praising the institution and Dr. H. B. Williams. Dr. Clyde Hissong outlined the changes which will result from the University bill, and Dr. Williams talked about the progress made by Bowling Green and some of the things that he hopes for in the future.

Soloists for the program were Mrs. Donna Rae-Cameron and Marjorie Sams.

Election of officers for the next year took place resulting in the following ticket being elected:

President—Wilbur Rider
Vice-President—Dr. Dallas March
Secretary—Donna Rae-Cameron
Treasurer—Mrs. E. E. Richards
Executive Committee—Ervin Kreischer, chairman; John Moore, Helen Hays, Mrs. R. B. Waugh, and Paul Roller.

Open Forum For Students and Faculty

Educational institutions aim to prepare youths to become safe and sane citizens who are capable of assuming leadership in business, government and religion.

Few people, especially students, keep abreast upon the topics of economic, social and legislative viewpoints of the day. The "Forum" should offer the students an opportunity to hear both sides of a few live topics explained and a chance to ask questions, as well as, to debate some of the interesting problems confronting present society.

Those interested watch the bulletin board in the Administration building for time and place of organization for this summer term. Should there be a reasonable response to this proposition a faculty advisor is to be appointed by President Williams after the group is organized.

Much Interest in Graduate Work

The response to graduate courses is far beyond expectations. This is very gratifying to the administration as it enables the institution to be of greater service.

We are fortunate to have such well balanced programs for evenings and assembly this summer term. Thanks to the entertainment committee.

and, since degrees are given by colleges, it was only natural that college officials adopted the name Bowling Green State Normal College from the first.

The college started out with 304 students in the regular year, 520 in extension classes, and 615 in summer sessions. At the end of the first year, 35 students were graduated from the two-year diploma course. The first degree was granted in August, 1917, at the end of the third year of the existence of the college. The first faculty of the college was composed of fifteen members including four critic teachers. Growth continued rather steadily from the first. The elementary courses drew the larger enrollments because of the greater demand for teachers in the elementary field. The degree courses expanded gradually until by 1929 out of 900 students enrolled, 350 were degree students and 550 were elementary students. In the first year of the college 19 per cent of the students were men, but in 1929 23 per cent of all students and 52 per cent of degree students were men.

Changes in the advanced training of the faculty were also very marked. Out of the fifteen on the first faculty, none except the president held a doctor's degree; 4, a master's degree; 6, a bachelor's degree; and 5, less than an academic degree. In 1929 there were on the faculty 9 doctor's degrees, 49 master's, 22 bachelor's, and 5 with no academic degree.

In the year 1929 another important bit of legislation was enacted in the General Assembly which dropped the "Normal" in the name and added a College of Liberal Arts. Seventy six enrolled the first year in this college and the increase since has reached a total of 200 students for 1934-35. The one faculty has taught the classes in both the College of Education and the College of Liberal Arts with the proper emphasis given to the various courses.

The fourth period of development has been made possible by the 91st General Assembly which recently passed bills changing the present name to Bowling Green State University, adding a College of Business Administration, and providing for graduate work. Already the catalogue has gone to press with courses satisfying the new requirements, and expansion is now possible that could not have come about without the assembly's action.

The college man is too honest to steal, too poor to pay cash, too lazy to work, too proud to beg. That's why we have to give him credit.—The Michigan Daily.

Nowadays the co-ed swims as fast, hits a tennis ball as accurately, and swears as eloquently as her male companion. Our distinctive type of haircut has been confiscated by the female of the species. We have observed too that, under the name of "ski suits," the girls have now assumed the bewhiskered group's last stronghold—pants.

We maintain that she has no grounds for complaint. Chivalry, like other things, went out with the old-fashioned girl.—The Ohio State Lantern.

Blondes Popular
According to the medicos, blonde sunbathers blister very easily. So it appears that blisters as well as misters prefer blondes. — P. L.

WHO CAN SEE WHAT 1940 WILL BE?
A university training can give you a background to rely upon in a future crisis. The acquisition of good tastes and intellectual interests are your safest guarantee of a successful future.

The world is jammed with reformers ready to regulate somebody else.

Seldom do good grades come to a student without some hard work. Education doesn't come out of the air like a rabbit from a magician's hat.

Boys, the joke is on the co-ed anxious to turn you down, when you fail to ask her for a date.

One night the Sultan forgot to lock his palace up. Next day one of his wives was missing. He had the locks taken off.

We laugh at our teachers' jokes No matter what they may be — Not because they are really good jokes, But because it is policy.

Maybe, If It's Funny Mistakes

Mistakes
When a garage man makes a mistake, he adds it on your bill.
When a carpenter makes a mistake, it's just what he expected.
When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.
When a lawyer makes a mistake, it was just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.
When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land.
When a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it.
But when the editor makes a mistake—Good-Night!—Bennington Banner.
