Primary Slate Lists 27 Candidates for Seven Offices

In what promises to be the most interesting class election in many years, the Senior class will go to the polls today to choose candidates for six class offices and Faculty Adviser.

Only twelve of the seventeen nominees will be successful in this primary, and some of these may fail in the event of any extensive write-in campaign.

The names appearing on the ballot were placed there by petitions bearing the signatures of the ten per cent of the class. These petitions were reviewed and approved by the Electoral Board last Saturday.

The two persons receiving the highest number of votes for each office in today's poll will become candidates for that office in the runoff election next Wednesday.

Voting today will take place in the following manner: from 11:00 a. m. to 6:00 p.m., under the supervision of an Election Board headed by Arthur Powell.

The nominees are:

For President—John Gaeth, Wilton Kiddman, Joseph Strayer, and Richard Wallace.

For Vice President—Ralph Assum, Louis Soethier, and Mary Van Fleet.

For Editor of the Key—Dale Kellogg.

For Faculty Adviser—Dr. W. A. Zaugg.

The Honorable System leads the Forum Subject

With Dean Clyde Hissong leading the discussion on the subject of the Honorable System, for the winter season on Monday, Oct. 7.

After Dr. Hissong had outlined the problem and one method of its solution, viz., the Honorable System, students contributed their suggestions on several topics, including:

1. Good sportsmanship.
2. A means of grading students.
3. A system of education?

The Honor System as it is being used in Oberlin, Kenyon, Miami, was then described for the scholastic to students, and it was pointed out that a large number of students have been enrolled in it. The Honor System was then described as a system of education in which students are required to sign a statement that they will be truthful in their work.

College students come to college because they want to. Dr. Hissong pointed out. Therefore the role of the faculty should be that of guiding, not to limit.

The speaker attributed cheating scholastically to three things: laziness, trying to attain high marks, and dislike of instructors or courses.

But as Dr. Hissong showed, scholastic averages form only a part of the total game. It is the pursuit of knowledge that is the ultimate aim of college education.

The Honor System, it was pointed out, is not the solution to all of the problems of cheating. It is only a part of the solution. The Honor System is a system of education in which students are required to sign a statement that they will be truthful in their work.

The university has made application for a federal grant of money for the construction of concrete bleachers. The plan is to erect concrete bleachers fifteen tiers high on the north side of the football field for the students to use till to goal post. These bleachers will expand slightly over the south side of the football field, up to goal post. There will be a large number of these bleachers, and people can find comfort in the stands.

Women's Athletic Dept.

The Physical Education department for women is well known for its excellent, complete courses in the training of physical education teachers, and yet this department is working at present under difficult conditions. There is a decided inadequacy of space and equipment, the locker rooms are crowded and there are no hot showers. This fall one hundred girls went out for archery and there were only five official bows and not nearly enough bows.

A full realization as to the needs, the fault of no one individual is needed. Let us all urge the various doors of our university to be opened courses in the training of physical education teachers, and students working for grades, not for themselves. A firm foot in the door is in giving the students what they need.

Saturday, Oct. 12, the band made their second appearance for the Baldwin-Wallace game. At the half the band was formed in front of the bleachers facing south. Marching with drums to the south side of the field. Here the band made an about face. Drums rolled off and a fanfare was played by cornet. They reversed ranks, marched forward playing "Men of Ohio". Turned east at center of field went to the end and reversed marched and returned to the goal reversing ranks twice on the way. Counter marched and advanced to the 40 yard line. Here they played the "Officer of the Day" and formed letters "B G O". Left face marching U toward stand with ephorisms "Alma Mater" and single filed off field.

Let's congratulate Mr. Church on his wonderful band and grand Drums Major.

Sevens Receive Scholastic Cup

The Esther Russell Scholastic Cup, given to the Intersorority Council by the Ski Alumnae Association was awarded to the Seven Sister Sorority. This is the high scholastic standing for the last semester's work. It was presented by the president of the council at a tea given at the Ski House, on Oct. 7.

The Gobi Desert of China had been to put his dream into action. Before the week had ended most of the signs had disappeared. UproClearmen know it has always been against the rules to post signs in these places and have pleaded ignorance because of the absence of signs. When the signs were posted they were thoughtlessly or deliberately removed.

There has been a movement on foot to promote a plan of student government. Obeying college rules is part of student government and the honor system. Perhaps we are not yet ready for such a system; action of some students last week points that way. Show that you are ready for an honor system by your action in and around the campus. New signs will be posted each week. They are used in larger schools, why not in Bee Gee?

CHRISTMAS IS COMING ...
Pride in one's school, in his class, or in his fraternity is not merely an emotional or operative cooperation as some have contended but instead may be looked upon as its most fundamental bulwark. This cul- term "sorority" and "fraternity" the maxims of John Dewey in his definition of a true demo- cracy. In "Democracy and Education" is applied relent- lessly. If we are to use this principle in our everyday life, in our school, in our classes, or in our fraternity, it is quite essential that this pride be contained with a maximum of intelligence and altruism. If this is true it would seem that the most reliable sign of a coming maturity of spirit would be an increase in the feelings shown for and against classes, fraternities, and sororities as terms of reference.

It would seem that this feeling has been intensified a great deal during the past few years upon the campus of this university. One needs not go far from his doorstep to see a superabundance of promiscuous prosperity, prostrating mental degradation, and irresponsible discompos- ition * among the fold of any fraternal, sorority, or class.

Let us never allow ourselves to wax angry at this discern- ing and accelerating obviousness, but to be every really alive student, but we will believe in the inculcation and instilling the spirit of the sorority for the lovely tea in hon- or of Belle Center. The ceremony took place last Saturday in Newport, Kentucky. We wish them much happiness.

Miss Janet Van Horng of Cleveland, had guests for din- ner Wednesday evening. Her mother and aunt were present.

Sunday, the son and daugh- ter-in-law of Mrs. Dalton, our house mother, came to dinner.

We have been especially in- terested in watching our Fresh- men as they take their work so seriously and enjoy it so whole- heartedly. Well—don't we all?

We liked the serenade the other evening, fellows. Come again because we like singing, especially when someone else does it.
