Cooperation of women are expected on the campus for the annual meeting to the visiting deans. All who tend if they register on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. Dinners, luncheon, a dance program for freshmen, an integrated discussion on "Youth Looks at Education," will be held next fall by the promising students from last fall's squad. Without a doubt many of the Frosh candidates of this spring will be this way a better cooperation of the fellows must be had. These last two weeks will complete the practices should be more enthusiastic and to be this way a better cooperation of the fellows must be had. To fit into Ockerman's system you must have the benefit of the early spring drills. The returning lettermen and reserves from last fall's squad will find themselves hard pressed next fall by the promising freshmen candidates of this spring. Without a doubt many of the yearlings will win varsity jobs from last fall's players. The annual election for May Queen was held Friday, April 3. Though it had little time for preparation (not organized until April 1) the academic council supervised the election using regular voting booths, printed ballots, registration sheets, and a sealed ballot box.

Heidelberg To Entertain Pi Kappa Delta

The Ohio Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta will be host to the tri-college banquet on Friday, May 8 at Heidelberg College. Bowling Green State University, Toledo University, and Heidelberg College are the three institutions that entertain the group annually in succession. Probably all the chapter members of this university will attend.

"Cooperation With Youth" To Be Theme

200 expected Between 150 and 200 deans of women are expected on the campus for the annual meeting of the Ohio Association of Deans of Women, April 17, 18, and 19. Dean Sharp will act as hostess. All who are interested in the topics of discussion are welcome to attend if they register on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning. "Cooperation with Youth" will be the theme of the conference. Dr. Kohl will address the group Friday evening on "Youth and the Social Order." A program of choral music by the Music department will follow.

Key Closes Subscriptions April 17

The publication of the 1936 Key, the University's annual, is progressing rapidly. Photography for the book was completed last week, and engravings are nearly all made. It is absolutely necessary that all those wanting copies of the 1936 annual pay at least the first two installments by Friday, April 17, 1936. See Kenneth Dobrign, Charles Blazer, or Dale Kellogg this week. The number of copies ordered will depend on the number of subscriptions by April 17, 1936.

SUNRISE EASTER SERVICE SPONSORED BY Y'S INSPIRING EVENT

Dr. A. R. Siebens Gives Three Episodes

GROUP SINGING

An inspiring sunrise Easter service sponsored by Y's and Y.W.C.A. was enjoyed by a large group of students on Thursday morning, April 9. Dr. Siebens, pastor of the Presbyterian church, gave a brief and appropriate dissertation in three episodes. The first episode turned upon the fortitude of the Pilgrims as they watched the return of the Mayflower to England on that first Easter in this land. The second was of a man who was prevented from committing suicide. The third pictured a couple who smiled though they lost much in the depression. Two messages were drawn from these events: the spiritual power that dominates our lives in times of need and the religious patriotism of the members of our country. Group singing was led by Overta Westling and scriptures by Jeanette Haas. Marguerite Rupp and Anadelle Short sang two hymns in dso. A trumpet duet of sacred music was played by Lawrence Ringenberg and Donald Stamm.

B. G. S. U. Debaters Reach Finals

Mary Louise Lane and Vincent McClintock represented the University at the News Bee debate district finals held at Toledo University, April 11. Miss Lane had the negative and Mr. McClintock the affirmative side of the question: Should Ohio have a one-house legislature?
A Challenge to Safety...

The task of the American college is to train for good citizenship. Since this training concerns not only the principle and morality of life, but the ability of the students to solve the social problems which obstruct America's efforts to evolve an equitable, secure, and intelligent commonwealth, the traffic toll may be said to provide accurate illustrations of this high ideal.

The traffic accident toll is a real national social problem, which should concern the American college and the American undergraduate, for it is his job to solve social problems even as he solves his personal difficulties. So long as the traffic problem exists it is the proper business of the students of all colleges and universities to give this problem attention and to act to reduce it.

Many colleges have become interested in this problem under the leadership of some enterprising students. One such force in this nationwide effort to establish permanent traffic control is the National Student Federation of America, which urges that immediate steps be taken by undergraduates to work seriously toward the solution of this national problem.

Traffic safety authorities say that if we applied all that is now known about traffic control we could have a fifty per cent reduction in accidents with an improvement in the efficiency of moving traffic. There is a wealth of information on the subject of placing a motion upon the agenda of the student council and on the establishment of a permanent traffic control committee. The college's concern with the traffic problem is divided in two main schools of thought, the one which advocates the securing of adequate funds to cover the cost of this work and the other which advocates the management of an organization which has been erected on a foundation of rules and regulations.

To be a 'square shooter' in the game of traffic requires the management of an organization which has been erected on a foundation of rules and regulations.

DEAR EDITOR

From the vantage point of our uptown office we are looking with keen interest upon the enlarged activities on our own University campus. We are, indeed, an answer to the longing of the students and of the entire community, this, perhaps, unwittingly connected scheme to get the interest of a student body which seemed, a few weeks ago, to be going along through its University training absolute- ly oblivious to the attempts at U. U. only has taken which the Faculty has passed upon. We know that all of the students here this Friday cannot and do not take part in all, or even, nearly all of the activities which are sponsored by the different groups at the University, but to appreciate the menaced inadequacy of the controlling motor traffic and are acting to remove it.

B. G. U. PLANS FIRST ANNUAL SPORTS DAY

The first annual University Sports Day is to be held on Saturday, April 19. Invitations are out to all schools in Wood county and also to all other Ohio schools who are interested in such an event.

To start the day off a track meet between Bowling Green and Skol will be held at 10:00 a.m. At 1:00 P. M. a football clinic will be held at which all normal university students who are now coaching will speak. "Jack" Melokey, head coach at Wayne high in Toledo will speak on backfield play and will have some boys from his school to demonstrate his points.

"Bill" Ogden of Bryan high school will discuss and play and will use his boys in demonstration. "Bob" Billett, coach at Toledo Scott will talk on general line play. To close the discussion and demonstration Coach Okerman of our University will speak on "Safeguarding in the system of football." Valrity men will be used in demonstration.

Following the clinic the coaches and their players and the general public will participate in an inter-squad game put on by the Falcon gridders who have been drilling for the past few weeks and a half a mile.

A formal invitation is extended to the entire student body and townspeople to attend this Sports Day program. No admission will be charged so make plans now to attend.

Advice

If the world all around you seems troubled.
And naught in life holds a sweet surprise,
If your worries and sorrows are doubled,
Consult the wise one for a while.

Let the world get along without you.
And go on its own worldly way.
Make your troubles forever all at an end—
Selling only your joy.

A remarkable fine musical program was presented by the Junior A Capella choir under the direction of Mr. Richard Hilly, Music Supervisor of the Green schools, at assembly, April 8. The skilful and spirited singing of these young people brought much apprecia- tion from the audience.

An unusual feature of the singing was the alto-tenor sec- tion of the Seventh and Eighth grade boys whose voices are changing balanced by the tenor voices of boys whose voices have changed.

SPORT EVENTS

INTRAMURAL OBSERVER
By DONALD E. McHORNY

Softball League to Get Under Way Soon
Within a few days softball will make its initial debut of the year to a host of interested fans. Although a few house teams have failed to make their entrance into the intramural league public they will probably not be ruled ineligible.

One team whose entrance is assured is that of J. Wilhelm, veteran horse doctor and member of the class '37. No other team has made its entrance public as yet.

B. G. University Well Equipped For Variety of Sports
Bowling Green University is as well equipped for all forms of athletics as any university in Ohio. Thousands of dollars have been spent and being spent for the purchase of new equipment and supplies. To the casual observer who strolls into our men's gymnasium only the side shell is visible, for behind the walls below the very floor he walks on, and above him are numerous devices used in the physical education of university students.

To begin with, the apparatus in the gymnasium proper is unusually complete. There are 3 highbars, 2 spring boards, 12 mats, 5 mat covers, a punching bag platform, monkey bars, 2 horses, 2 rings (hanging from ceiling), exercise weights, 4-6 pole vault and high jump standards, and scaling bars.

Behind the walls are offices and storage rooms all equipped to the benefit of athletics. This group includes the clinic, coaches office, and compartments along the gym floor.

Beneath the floor is the greatest variety is located. A few of the many things include: 4 excellent handball courts, 2 spacious recreation rooms, 4 ping pong tables, 3 shower rooms, varsity, general, and visiting locker rooms, and clinic. Above the gym floor is the 110 yard cork running track. This track is shaped in such a manner that track meet records are regular occurrences, and indoor work-outs are possible.

This variety of athletic devices affords every interested individual a chance for exercise and development in any field. Of course the above mentioned apparatus is supplemented by the huge stock of outdoor facilities including:

Quarter mile running track, 4 clay tennis courts, regular and practice football field, hockey court, baseball diamond, softball diamond, and horse shoe pits.

FALCONS IN DOUBLE MEET
Coaches: Landis and Steller

The Falcon track squad will be split into two teams Saturday, one bunch will meet Heidelberg and the other will face Bluffton in a double dual meet.

The entire strength of the team will be fully tested in these two contests. If both come through with flying colors, Coach Landis can expect to have a strong outfit contending for conference honors in the conference meet.

Here 'n There
With the outdoor track season getting under way Saturday with a double dual meet with Heidelberg and Bluffton other spring sports are also about to blossom forth . . . The baseball team will open their season during the next week at least as we see by the Bluffton paper that there are the Falcons are scheduled for on the 24th . . . The tennis team are scheduled to open Thursday at the Maumee Valley Conference College.
